But one monk, Zenyatta, disagreed with this new direction. He believed that the way to repair the problems between humans and omnics was not through dogmatic teaching but through interpersonal connection and engagement.

Ultimately, Zenyatta followed his own path. He chose to leave the monastery and wander the world, helping those he meets to overcome their personal struggles and find inner peace. But, when necessary, he will fight to protect the innocent, be they omnic or human.

---

McCree and everyone saw us.

McCree: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!?

Zenyatta: (Indian Accent) Amazing!

Tracer: (British Accent) It's an honor to meet you guys!

Demolishor: The honor's all ours, Tracer.

Me: It's an honor to meet all of you. We heard so many incredible things about all of you.

Varie: We sure have.

Mercy: (Swiss Accent) What brings you all to us?

Me: We just came under attack. Sombra hacked into our computers and Talon got their hands on Nico's contingency plans and modified them so they would kill us. Including me!

Overwatch gasped!

Reinhardt: (German Accent) I had a strong feeling that Talon was up to no good!

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. I agree but it's a pleasure to meet a fellow countryman.

Reinhardt: Danke Hunter.

Lúcio: (Brazillian Accent) You amigos look down.

Me: Some of the Loud Kids think that Nico's contingency plans he made were designed to kill them. We have so much to talk about.

We went into the meeting room of Overwatch and we talked everything over.

Lúcio: So, lemme get this straight. These contingency plans were made all because of an encounter with an evil version of you guys.

Leanbow: Those honorless fools managed to demoralize many heroes. And even mind controlled their versions of you guys.

Overwatch gasped again.

Me: Yeah it was horrible. They put servitude chips in you and brainwashed you. Enslaving your minds and taking away your free will.

Ed Cowart: It's all right here in this file.

He hands Tracer the file.

They read it and it was horrible.

Reinhardt: Mein gott!

Brigitte: (Swedish Accent) Awful.

Axel Adell: (Swedish Accent) I know. What they did makes them worthless pieces of shit.

Me: Nico is worried that we all would go rogue the same way as the Royal Defenders did in their universe. So to prevent that from happening he made these special Anti-Rogue-Team-Loud-Phoenix-Storm Countermeasure plans should the need arise. We were poisoned just now by Talon and Nico cured us and saved us. Sombra from Talon broke into our estate while we were out fighting Bill Cipher and she hacked into Nico's computer and copied his Contingency Plans and Talon modified them so that they would kill us.

Winston: I see.

Me: And the Loud Kids minus Lincoln, Laney and Lily think he's a traitor. But they are letting that accusation cloud their judgements.

Baptiste: (Haitian Accent) That's crazy.

McCree: Look, just because Nico made those contingency plans doesn't mean he wants you guys dead.

Luxord: Exactly. It was the members of Talon that modified the plans to be lethal.

Nico: (to the Loud Kids) See, guys. I would never want to kill any of you.

Lori: (glares at Nico) Just don't talk to us right now, Nico! You'll be literally lucky to even still be on the team when this is all over!

Me: Lori! That's enough!

Varie: Yeah Lori. Nico was doing his best to look out for you.

Bobby: Yeah babe. He would never hurt you.

Lori: But Boo-Boo Bear.

Storm Shadow: (to Genji) Your swordsmanship skills are impressive, Genji. Perhaps while we're waiting for Talon to make a move, we can have a spar.

Genji: (Japanese Accent) I would be honored Thomas Arashikage.

Ember McLean: (to Lucio) Hey, Lucio. Maybe when this whole mess with Talon and the Loud Kids being pissed at Nico is over, we can have a concert together.

Lucio: (Brazilian Accent) You got yourself a deal amigo.

Flash: Me and Lucio will go scout out the area to find out where Talon's hiding while you guys have the usual battles.

Starlight Glimmer: Just be careful. Contingency plans or not, they still might be able to kill you two with their own weapons.

Flash: Noted.

Me: Talon's headquarters is located in Rome, Italy. If they make a move on you, retreat and wait for us.

Flash: Right.

Flash and Lucio were off.

Winston (to me and the Loud Kids): While the usual battles are happening, how about all 13 of you have a spar against me, Zarya, and Reinhardt?

Me: We would be honored Winston.

Laney: I've never been one to hold a grudge on Nico.

Lincoln: Me neither.

Lily: Same here. He's like an awesome big brother to me.

Eli: Same here. I love him as such.

Nunnally: Me too.

A figure then appeared and it was SCORPION MECHANILOID!

Snake: And who are you?

Scorpion Mechaniloid: Call me… Scorpion Mechaniloid! (swings tail at Snake Man)

Snake Man dodged his strike.

Me: Before we fight some of us don't know anything about each member of Talon, what their true purpose is and what they are after. Can you tell us more about them and what they are capable of. Can you tell us all you know about them?

Zarya (Overwatch): (Russian Accent) For you Comrade Knudson, anything.

The Overwatch members told us all about Talon and what they are gonna do.

Talon is a terrorist organization and the main faction opposite to Overwatch in the titular video game and it's sequel Overwatch 2.

Talon was established before the downfall of Overwatch and as such had steadily grown bolder and more powerful since Overwatch's disbanding via the Petras Act. Members of Talon were clad in black body armor complete with helmets and face-obscuring ballistic masks. However, these soldiers appeared to be mere rank-and-file grunts; Talon commanded enough technological and scientific talents to create and field far more lethal operatives such as Reaper, Widowmaker and Sombra.

Talon appeared to be closely connected to Blackwatch and through them by default Overwatch. Former Blackwatch member McCree noticed that Talon operatives were using Blackwatch tactics during an attempted raid on a hypertrain and at least one member of their strike force appeared to recognize him raising implications about the two organizations; this may have been how they were able to kidnap Amelie Lacroix and recruit Gabriel Reyes.

At the moment, very little was specifically known about Talon's overarching objectives or the reasoning behind their actions; however, their methods were undeniably villainous. They were exceptionally ruthless and perfectly willing to kill civilians and other noncombatants simply to cover their tracks. Recent activities suggested they had interests in rekindling the conflicts between Omnics and humans; this implies they may considered a pending alliance with the Spanish-based anti-Omnic gang Los Muertos.

The organization is lead by an enigmatic group of super-criminals. Little is known about them including who most of the members were other than that they were the ones who decided what Talon did. They include individuals such as Reaper and Doomfist.

Olivia Colomar A.K.A. Sombra of Castillo, Mexico

Sombra (real name: Olivia Colomar ) is one of the playable characters in the 2016 video game Overwatch, and the second to be added after launch.

She was voiced by Carolina Ravassa.

One of the world's most notorious hackers, Sombra uses information to manipulate those in power.

Long before she took up the alias "Sombra", Olivia Colomar was among the thousands of children who were left orphaned in the aftermath of the Omnic Crisis. With much of her country's infrastructure destroyed, she survived by utilizing her natural gifts with hacking and computers.

After Colomar was taken in by Mexico's Los Muertos gang, she aided it in its self-styled revolution against the government. Los Muertos believed that the rebuilding of Mexico had primarily benefited the rich and the influential, leaving behind those who were most in need of assistance.

Following her many conquests, Colomar was supremely confident in her skills, but she was caught unprepared when she stumbled into the web of a global conspiracy-one that had also noticed her. With her security irreparably compromised, Colomar was forced to delete all traces of her identity and went into hiding.

She later reemerged as Sombra, upgraded and determined to find out the truth behind the conspiracy she had uncovered. Sombra launched an even more audacious string of hacks, and her exploits earned her no shortage of admirers, including Talon. She joined the organization's ranks and is believed to have contributed to its massive cyberattacks against corporations with strong ties to their governments. These efforts incited a popular revolution in Mexico against LumériCo and breached the security of Volskaya Industries, the manufacturing arm of Russia's anti-omnic defense.

As a young girl, Colomar had learned to hack after losing everything she had during the Omnic Crisis. Even though she was a child at the time, she started to manipulate and even blackmail people, noticing how they could be manipulated just as easily as computers could. Sooner or later, she was taken in by the Los Muertos gang, helping them in rebuilding her country.

While growing up, her hacking skills continued to improve. Eventually she stumbled on to what she concluded was a "global conspiracy" that united several organizations around the planet, including Overwatch; that is, until it noticed her. Panicked, she hastily wiped all trace of her digital existence and was forced into seclusion.

Sombra came back some time after, augmented by hardware that integrated her talents into grafted cybernetics. She continued to pursue her passion and her mission, and her exploits earned the admiration of many, including terrorist organization Talon; even after joining them, she still hasn't abandoned her pursuit, and she continues to search for clues as to her new prey, regardless of who she works for.

In Infiltration, Sombra teamed up with Reaper and Widowmaker to assassinate Katya Volskaya, using her technical prowess to open doors and disable turrets. After both Talon agents were cut off from their target, Sombra left it to herself to use her combat skills to knock out and evade the guards. After finally cornering Katya, Sombra reveals that she never planned to kill her, and instead showed her information about her making deals with the omnics. Realizing that she had no choice, Katya agreed to become Sombra's "amiga". Delighted by this, Sombra stated that she'll be in touch with Katya, booped her on the nose, and teleported away. Sombra then prepared to go back to the ship, after informing Reaper that the mission had been a failure.

Moira O'Deorain A.K.A. Moira of Dublin, Ireland

Moira O'Deorain, or simply known by her first name Moira, is one of the main antagonists from Overwatch and Overwatch 2 . She is one of the council members of Talon and a former member of Blackwatch.

She was voiced by Genevieve O'Reilly.

Moira O'Deorain was once a scientist that worked with Overwatch. She published an article focusing on a methodology for creating custom genetic programs that could alter DNA cells, in order to cure diseases and disorders.

Her work was considered to be highly dangerous among her fellow members, due to its unethical and flagitious nature. Her obsession for the evolution of science was also feared, as some believed that this was one of the few things that caused the Omnic Crisis. As a result, her reputation was damaged greatly.

However, her work caught the attention of Overwatch's black ops division; Blackwatch. From there, she continued her work and experiments. One of her successful experiments were done on Gabriel Reyes. After the disbandment of Overwatch, Moira continued on with her life.

Her work caught the attention of those at Oasis University, where she received an invitation to work as a minister in genetics. Eventually, she joined the terrorist organization, Talon, serving as one of the council members.

Amelie Macroix A.K.A. Widowmaker of Annecy, France

Widowmaker is one of the heroes in Overwatch . She is an assassin who possesses no emotion except for the satisfaction of her targets' elimination.

Widowmaker equips herself with whatever it takes to eliminate her targets, including mines that dispense poisonous gas, a visor that grants her squad infra-sight, and a powerful sniper rifle that can fire in fully-automatic mode.

Widowmaker is the perfect assassin: a patient, ruthlessly efficient killer who shows neither emotion nor remorse.

It is believed that in her former life, Widowmaker was married to Gérard Lacroix, an Overwatch agent spearheading operations against the Talon terrorist organization. After several unsuccessful attempts to eliminate Gérard, Talon decided to change its focus to his wife, Amélie. Talon operatives kidnapped her and subjected her to an intense program of neural reconditioning. They broke her will, suppressed her personality, and reprogrammed her as a sleeper agent. She was eventually found by Overwatch agents, apparently none the worse for wear, and returned to her normal life.

Two weeks later she killed Gérard in his sleep.

Her mission complete, Amélie returned to Talon, and they completed the process of turning her into a living weapon. She was given extensive training in the covert arts, and then her physiology was altered, drastically slowing her heart, which turned her skin cold and blue and numbed her ability to experience human emotion. Amélie was gone.

Now, Widowmaker is Talon's most effective assassin, feeling little save the satisfaction of a job well done.

Gabriel Reyes A.K.A. Reaper of Los Angeles, California

Reaper is one of the heroes in Overwatch . He is a wraith-like terrorist who sets out to kill his former comrades to feed his desire for revenge.

His Hellfire Shotguns, the ghostly ability to become immune to damage and speed increase, and the power to step between shadows make Reaper one of the deadliest beings on Earth.

Some speak of a black-robed terrorist known only as the Reaper. His identity and motives are a mystery. What is known is that where he appears, death follows.

The Reaper is an extremely volatile mercenary, a ruthless and remorseless killer responsible for terrorist attacks across the world. He has fought in many armed conflicts in the last decades, showing no loyalty to any cause or organization.

Survivors have described a black shadow ghosting unscathed through the most hellish battlefields. The few bodies recovered of those he kills are pale, empty husks drained of life, their cells showing signs of intense degradation. It is possible that he is a byproduct of failed genetic alteration which forces his cells to simultaneously decay and regenerate at a hyper-accelerated rate.

Those attempting to track his movements have begun to see a pattern in his appearances. They believe that Reaper is hunting former Overwatch agents and systematically eliminating them.

Akande Ogundimu A.K.A. Doomfist of Oyo, Nigeria

Doomfist is one of the heroes of Overwatch . He is a zealous and cunning criminal combatant who wants to drown the world in a future of conflict to "strengthen" humanity.

Doomfist's cybernetics make him a highly-mobile, powerful frontline fighter. In addition to dealing ranged damage with his Hand Cannon, Doomfist can slam the ground, knock enemies into the air and off balance, or charge into the fray with his Rocket Punch. When facing a tightly packed group, Doomfist leaps out of view, then crashes down to earth with a spectacular Meteor Strike.

Recently freed from imprisonment, Doomfist is determined to plunge the world into a new conflict that he believes will make humanity stronger.

Akande Ogundimu was born into a well-regarded Nigerian family, heir to its prosthetic-technology company. A highly intelligent and charismatic figure, Ogundimu helped to expand his family's business and position it for the future while dedicating his free time to his first love: competitive martial arts. He trained in traditional African fighting styles, including Dambe and Gidigbo, as well as in wrestling and other modern combat systems, incorporating the most effective techniques into his repertoire. Ogundimu competed in tournaments all over the continent, utilizing his intuition and ability to read opponents alongside his tremendous speed and strength.

But when he lost his right arm in the aftermath of the Omnic Crisis, it seemed his martial arts career was finished before he had reached his prime. His company's cybernetic prosthetics allowed him to recover from his injuries, even making him stronger, but these enhancements rendered him ineligible for competition. He tried to devote himself to his business with the same zeal that he had for fighting, but he found nothing that could fill the void… until he was given a new opportunity by Akinjide Adeyemi, better known to the world as the second Doomfist, the Scourge of Numbani.

Adeyemi offered Ogundimu the chance to fight with him as a mercenary. Initially wary, Ogundimu accepted, and discovered that he now had an arena in which he could unleash his enhanced capabilities. Eventually, Adeyemi brought him into the Talon organization. Talon's belief that humanity would be made stronger through conflict resonated with Ogundimu's personal experiences. Moreover, Talon's power struggles presented a new challenge that allowed him to use his talent in the boardroom along with his cunning as a combatant.

Adeyemi was a useful asset to Talon, but the organization saw far greater potential in Ogundimu, with his intelligence and his ability to inspire as a commander. While Adeyemi was content to profit from raids on Numbani, Ogundimu had a grander vision. This difference in aspiration would lead Ogundimu to kill his teacher and take on the mantle of Doomfist, along with the eponymous gauntlet.

As the new Doomfist, Ogundimu rose high in Talon and helped to orchestrate a conflict that the organization hoped would someday engulf the world. However, before their plan came to fruition, Ogundimu was defeated and captured by an Overwatch strike team that included Tracer, Winston, and Genji. He was imprisoned in a maximum-security facility for years, where he waited patiently for events he had incited to play out.

Finally, he sensed that the time had come for him to return. He broke out of his prison and recovered Doomfist's gauntlet in a one-sided battle with Numbani's newly unveiled OR15 defense robots. Now, he has retaken his place in Talon's inner council, ready to spark a war that will consume the world once again.

We gasped in shock!

Me: Whoa! So Reaper and Doomfist are the two most dangerous members of Talon.

Zarya (Overwatch): Correct.

Me: So we have to eliminate them and throw the rest in jail.

Bentley: But I'm really amazed that Sombra has amazing hacking skills. She is like me.

Me: I was just about to say the exact same thing.

We went to the training arena of Overwatch and it was amazing.

Me: Wow! Plenty of room for all of us.

Zarya (Overwatch): Welcome to our training arena comrades.

Me: Whoa! It's as big as our simulator back home.

Vince: It sure is.

Me: Okay, me and the Loud kids will face Winston, Zarya and Reinhardt will do some sparing and then we'll have the warmup battles and then the usual battles.

Vince: Good idea.

Me: Me and Reinhardt will go first.

They agreed.

Flash: Me and Lúcio are off.

We nodded.

---

Spar 1: Me VS Reinhardt

---

I was facing Reinhardt in a spar.

Me: I'm sorry for the way my team has been acting. We're just really fucking pissed off after what Talon tried to do to us.

Reinhardt: I don't blame you J.D. I would be the same way.

Me: Lets see what you got.

I powered up and we went at each other and he swung his hammer at me and I dodged his strikes and did incredible acrobatic moved and he fired his Fire Strike blasts and I dodged them and the blasts hit the ground and exploded all over the place.

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Me: Whoa! That hammer is incredible!

Reinhardt: Danke. Und your speed und acrobatic skills are both amazing.

Me: Bitte. I've had a lot of training over the years. I may be 17 years old biologically but I have over 20,000,000,000 plus years worth of experiences in me. I know it sounds crazy but it's true.

Reinhardt: I believe it. You have come a long way.

Me: Lets see how we face hammer to hammer.

I formed a hammer of pure fire and we went at each other again and clashed our hammers with incredible strength and power and thunderous shockwaves were smashing everything around us in the arena all over and more. For 20 minutes the spar went on and we were sweating buckets like crazy.

Me: (Panting) Man! You are really strong and resilient Reinhardt and that armor you have is amazing! You took all my strongest blows at only 5% of my power with no problem.

Reinhardt: Indeed. You are a strong fighter yourself. Now I see why all those villains you all faced never stood a chance against you all.

Me: That was a good spar.

Reinhardt: It sure was. Wunderbar.

We left and everyone cheered for me.

Spar 2: Lori, Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn and Lincoln VS Zarya

---

Lori, Leni, Luna, Luan, Lynn, and Lincoln were facing Zarya of Overwatch.

Lori: Lets literally blow off some steam.

Leni: Totes!

Luna: I'm not mad at Nico dudes. He was just doing what he was thought was best for us.

Luan: Quiet Luna!

Lynn: Loser!

Me: Quiet guys!

Lynn: (Growls at me!)

Zarya (Overwatch): That's enough comrades. Lets focus.

Zarya charged up her Particle Cannon and they went at her and she fired a powerful beam of energy fired and they dodged the blast. It hit the ground and exploded with incredible power.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: WHOA! That Particle Cannon is powerful!

Laney: No kidding!

Lisa Loud: Amazing technology!

They dodged all of Zarya's strikes and hits and really went at her and more and dodged all her strikes and blasts with speed and agility and acrobatic moves and more and really were going at her and more.

Later they were exhausted and really dripping sweat.

Vince: Man look how beat they are.

Sunset Shimmer: Boy they really worked up a sweat.

Rainbow Dash: No kidding! That's more sweat than what I make in a single flight around Cloudsdale.

Lightning Dust: No kidding.

Me: I will say this though. Russia deserves a lot of credit for training its soldiers. They train them really well.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) I appreciate that Comrade Knudson.

Lori: O.M.G. that really tired me out.

Leni: (Groans)

Lincoln: But it was great though.

I hand Lincoln a towel and some water.

Lincoln: Thanks J.D.

Lucy and the rest of the Loud Kids went next.

Spar 3: Winston

Linka, Lucy, Laney, Lana, Lola, Lisa and Lily were facing Winston.

Lily: That suit you're wearing is amazing.

Winston: Thank you. I built it myself.

Lisa Loud: Very genius technology.

Linka: It sure is.

Winston: You're about to see it in action.

Linka: Lets do it.

Winston pulled out his Tesla Cannon and he fired a massive megawatt blast and the girls dodged the blast as it hit the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Whoa! That Tesla Cannon is powerful!

Lincoln: I picked up over 750 megawatts of electricity in it!

Luan: Whoa! That is shockingly lethal! (Laughs) Get it?

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Nico: (Sighs)

They really fought hard and worked up a tremendous sweat and were done with their spar.

Linka: Wow! That was awesome!

Lucy Loud: That was good.

Flash and Turbo Man came back.

Flash: Did we miss anything?

Me: Nope. You got back just in time. Did you find anything out?

Flash: Yeah we did.

Turbo Man: We found the entrance into Talon's headquarters in a secret entrance in one of the halls of the Roman Colosseum.

Me: Whoa! So we were looking at the entrance when we were there but never realized it. You'll have to show us after the usual battles. Now it's time for the warmups.

Lynn Sr.: Awesome! I'll go first.

Me: You'll have a lot of fun Mr. Lynn.

Lincoln: Get her dad!

Lynn Sr.: Thanks guys.

Lynn Sr. went down to the arena.

Warmup 1: Puff

---

Lynn Sr. was facing Static Shock's old enemy Naomi Monroe A.K.A. PUFF!

---

Puff is a meta-human villainess in the Static Shock comic book series and TV show. She is a wannabe bounty hunter and best friend of Onyx.

History

After the Big Bang. Puff and her friend Onyx quit school and were out on the streets. They went through garbage for food until they saw in the newspaper about a bounty on Rubberband Man, they decided to become bounty hunters and track him down. They to catch him when they first encountered him, but Static interfered letting him escape. Static was quickly brought down by Puff's acid gas.

Powers

Puff can transform her body (either as a whole or just parts of it) into a gaseous vapor cloud. She could also spit gases from her mouth, either knock-out gas or a corrosive acidic cloud, dependent on her mood. She could also go through small spaces or cracks in cloud-form, but is vulnerable to water and wind. Her lower half turns into a cloud to fly or hover.

Puff: (to Lynn Sr) So, you and your wife were at the Mall while your kids and Static defeated me and the rest of the Meta Breed 2 years ago?

Lynn Sr.: Yeah it's a strange story. It gave us a lot of time to ourselves while they helped Dakota City out. And Carol reunited with her sister friend Maria.

Puff: That's what I saw and I'm happy that Maria and Carol were reunited.

Lynn Sr.: Me too.

Puff: Lets do it!

Puff flew into the air and her legs were now a tail of gas.

Lynn Sr.: Wow! When you do that you look like a genie.

Puff: (Laughs) I do don't I?

Lynn Sr. spread his wings of vines and leaves and they had grapes on them and he went at her and fired grape bombs and they hit her all over and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!

Puff flew out of the explosion and Lynn Sr. was ready and Puff blew a cloud of smoke and it burned Lynn Sr.'s shirt off and revealed his dashing muscular chest and Rita had a nosebleed.

Me: Whoa! That is a strong acidic breath.

Lincoln: That is lethal.

May: Yikes.

Lynn Sr.: Aw that was my favorite shirt!

Me: You have others like it Mr. Lynn!

Lynn Sr.: Oh yeah. I do.

Me: Was that Nitric Acid breath?

Puff: It sure was J.D.

Me: Man that stuff is lethal.

Naruto: It's like she's a living chemical factory.

Laney: No kidding.

Lynn Sr. fired blasts of apples and they slammed into Puff and knocked her down.

Lynn Sr.: That was awesome!

We cheered for him.

---

Warmup 2: Control Freak

---

Nicole was facing the enemy of the Teen Control Freak in her first warmup battle.

---

Control Freak is recurring antagonist in the television show Teen Titans . Although not seen by the Titans as a dangerous threat, Control Freak still has some scenes where he reigned supreme over the Titans.

He was voiced by Alexander Polinsky, who also voice Argit (Ben 10 series).

He's a fat overweight movie fanatic who uses TV inspired powers and ploys. In one episode where the Titans almost faced defeat, Control Freak manages to transfer himself from the real world to the TV giving him reality-warping powers with cartoonish entities.

He first appeared in the episode "Fear Itself", where he terrorized a video store, creating video-like monsters. He was then defeated by the Teen Titans and taken to jail.

He returned in the episode "Don't Touch That Dial", where he escaped from prison and took over the broadcasting network, going through every channel he can explore and take over, like parodies from movies like the 007 movies and Star Wars. Beast Boy then defeated Control Freak by using a mind powering chant, trapping him in a picture frame, and was presumably sent back to prison.

In another episode, he began a vendetta against The Titans East, who were staying in Jump City while the Teen Titans were out hunting the Brotherhood of Evil. Feeling that they were inferior to the main Titans group he usually fought (and lost to), he assembled a two-pronged attack, one with a series of challenges and death traps, another with a tirade on social media. He lost in both instances, the Titans East proving equal to the challenges, and his social media allies deserting him in droves once the Titans East proved themselves. Ever the fanboy stereotype, Control Freak made the mistake of appearing before the Titans East to gush over how cool their actions were, rather than escaping.

He also drives a car that looked like a remote in a race with the Titans and owns other remote like gadgets similar to the movie Click . In the rest of the series, Control Freak always breaks the fourth wall in one of his protests to become a villain.

Control Freak: (to Nicole) It's an honor to fight the Goddess of Video Games!

Nicole: I won't disappoint you Eddie. My skills in Video Games are just as good as when I fight.

Control Freak: I can't wait to see everything you know. I heard you got your title by beating three of the toughest video games ever.

Nicole: And you heard right. Lets do it.

Control Freak: Lets do it!

Control Freak pressed a button on his remote and he called out his monsters, the Creature From Jones Lake, Seven-Gorn-Seven, Off-World Outlaw, and Baron Ryang.

Nicole: Impressive. So these are the monsters you plan on using in our usual battles.

Control Freak: Yes.

Nicole: Good selection on you and your Pokemon added to the mix will be awesome.

Control Freak: When I get them yes. Lets do it!

Nicole: Gladly.

Nicole flew at him and fired blasts of star energy at the monsters and obliterated them in powerful explosions of star energy and Nicole went at Control Freak as he fired laser blasts from his remote and she dodged them all over and more.

Nicole: I'm not called the Goddess of Video Games for show.

Nicole waved her hands and clapped her hands and fired beams of light and out of a power came the racers of Sugar Rush and they fired candy blasts and more and they smashed into Control Freak and knocked him down.

Nicole: Game over Control Freak!

We cheered wildly for her.

Warmup 3: Rojo

Rojo was down on the arena and she was waiting for her archenemy to appear. Then in a bunch of acrobatic stunts came Rojo's archenemy: TRACER!

Tracer: Cheers, love! The cavalry's here!

Rojo: Ooh nice catchphrase.

Tracer: Thank you.

Rojo: (to Tracer) After this battle, I'd like to help you out against that Widowmaker bitch.

Tracer: You got a deal Rojo.

Rojo: Lets do it!

Tracer: Gladly.

Tracer pulled out her guns and fired at Rojo and Rojo dodged all the blasts and fired lasers at Tracer and the blasts were hitting all over the place and more and really burning a lot of the arena.

Tracer: You have quite a good shot on you.

Rojo: Same to you Tracer.

Tracer fired blasts from her guns and jumped and flipped and kicked Rojo and knocked her down.

Tracer: That was a good fight love!

* * *

Warmup 4: Abomination

* * *

Ripster was facing Emil Blonksky A.K.A. ABOMINATION!

* * *

Emil Blonsky, better knwon as the Abomination, is a former spy who was mutated by radiation and a major antagonist from Marvel Comics, appearing as the secondary antagonist of The Hulk series. A former communist spy for Yugoslavia who once worked with the KGB services, he was transformed into a megalomaniacal, psychopathic, monstrous supervillain creature under the alias of the Abomination who has the same powers as the Hulk, only much more stronger than the latter and does not have the ability to transform into a human being again, but he has the ability to speak, which the Hulk usually cannot do. In the same meaning of arch-nemesis, Abomination is the direct opposite of the Hulk and bent on killing him.

The Abomination was once Emil Blonsky, a spy for communist Yugoslavia, who infiltrated the New Mexico US Air Force base. Blonsky sabotaged a number of vital missiles at the base, but his attempts were always narrowly discovered, though no one could figure out who the saboteur was. After the Stranger decided humans could not use their nuclear weapons wisely, he took control of the Hulk, planning to use him to destroy all humans. However the Stranger did not have control of Bruce Banner, who decided to kill himself to stop the alien's plans.

He tried to use a machine on himself that would unleash enough gamma radiation to kill him, not knowing Blonsky was in his lab, having come in to photograph Banner's equipment. But when security arrived and captured Banner, Blonsky decided to use the machine on himself, not knowing what it did and what Banner had been planning to do with it. It bombarded him with gamma radiation, an even more concentrated and dangerous amount than that which had turned Banner into the Hulk. Like Banner, Blonsky had an unknown genetic factor that prevented him from dying, causing him to mutate into a Hulk-like monster that Betty Ross named the Abomination.

Battle with the Hulk

Pleased with his new power, the Abomination almost beat the Hulk to death and took Betty Ross prisoner. General Ross was so fearful for his daughter's safety that he asked the Hulk to be revived. Rick Jones was able to plead with the Hulk enough to break him free of the Stranger's control, changing back into Bruce Banner. Banner was able to use a gamma radiation generating device to weaken the Abomination's strength. However, Banner became excited and turned into the Hulk, smashing the device's console before the Abomination could be weakened fully.

He still had more strength than the Hulk normally did, but the green-skinned Goliath was able to become angry enough that he got stronger than the Abomination and defeated him. The Stranger, who'd been watching the fight, was impressed by Banner's heroics and decided there was hope for humankind. He brought the Abomination to a base he had on another planet, so he could use him in future plans.

Later Conflicts

The Abomination was summoned by a coven of witches who sought to use him to prove their power by destroying the Silver Surfer. However the Abomination didn't listen to their commands and headed out to conquer the world. But the Silver Surfer escaped the coven and battled him, defeating him and the witches returned the Abomination to the Stranger's planet. Later on, the Abomination attempted to free the other prisoners and make them a force for conquest with himself as their leader. He managed to somewhat succeed when he used one of the Stranger's devices to bring Thor to the planet.

But after the thunder god found out what the Abomination was planning, Thor stopped him and left him on the planet. The Stranger sent the Abomination on numerous missions, but he was eventually rescued and taken onto the spaceship, Andromeda, where he served as first mate. After some time, Abomination was brought back to Earth, where he had a number of battles with the Hulk, only to lose each time. It was after one of those battles that he almost met his end if it were not for help from the Galaxy Master, a being that conquered civilizations to produce the energy it was dependent on.

It got the Abomination to serve it by acting as a first attack against civilizations that might offer particularly bothersome resistance. This job won the Abomination the title of "Ravager of Worlds", Eventually the Sagittarians ruler, Empress Daydra, got the Hulk to help fight the Abomination. The green-skinned Goliath was able to beat both the Abomination and the Galaxy Master. Blonsky found his way to an asteroid, where he was found and rescued by Xeron the Star-Slayer, becoming an oarsman for Captain Cybor. The Abomination was able to fight his way into becoming the first mate of Cybor as he searched for the monstrous being, Klaatu.

Klaatu ended up on Earth, where Xeron managed to get help from the Hulk as well. However The Abomination would continually conflict with his enemy, until Cybor managed to find Klaatu. In the ensuing battle, the ship was damaged and the Abomination and the Hulk both fell to Earth separately. However the Abomination was discovered by a U.S. space shuttle, frozen in ice and orbiting around the Earth. He came to the attention of General Ross and was revived by M.O.D.O.K., who had formed a treasonous allegiance with Ross.

The general had done so because the Hulk, after temporarily gaining Banner's intellect, had been given a presidential pardon, and Ross disagreed with this. Ross agreed to give the Abomination to M.O.D.O.K. only if the Abomination was used to destroy the Hulk. But his constantly losing battles with the Hulk had caused Blonsky to develop a psychological fear of fighting him. However M.O.D.O.K. managed to make the Abomination more afraid of him than the Hulk with use of psychological conditioning. He sent the Abomination into battle, only for the Hulk beat him once again and M.O.D.O.K. used his psychic powers to disintegrate Blonsky.

Revival

However, the Abomination survived as a cloud of free atoms and was reconstructed by Tyrannus, who was in a similar state. Tyrannus decide to merge his atoms with the Abomination, transferring Blonsky's consciousness into a human body. Blonsky was able to finally live a normal life again, but Tyrannus, trapped in the Abomination's body, tried to switch bodies with him. The process was a failure, leaving the Abomination a rampaging beast. Tyrannus (still in the Abomination's body) kidnapped Betty Ross, who'd become Bruce Banner's wife.

He wanted Banner to use the nutrient bath that he had used to separate himself from the Hulk on the Abomination to regain his own form again. SHIELD managed to stop the project, but doing so seemed to destroy Blonsk's consciousness. Tyrannus' allies, the Deviant Ghaur and Lemurian Lyla, managed to get Tyrannus free and the Abomination was left a mindless savage. Despite being forced to deal with Spider-Man and She-Hulk, the Abomination escaped, eventually ending up in Philadelphia, where Blonsky used to live. Blonsky's personality resurfaced, but he was captured by the Sentinels, who wanted to use the Abomination and Doc Samson as test subjects to sterilize humans and end the (perceived) mutant threat.

The Abomination joined forces with the X-Men, who had also been captured and confronted Dr. Cynthia Charles, the Sentinels creator. She promised him control of the Sentinels when she destroyed the mutants and the Abomination helped her rebuild them. However she ended up betraying him after he and Sentinels were beaten by the X-Men. After another battle with the Hulk as a pawn of the Leader, the Abomination began stalking his wife, Nadia, who believed him dead. But a miniaturized Hulk, with Banner's intelligence, convinced the Abomination he should move on and that Nadia was better off thinking he was dead.

The Forgotten

The Abomination took up residence in the New York sewers, where he soon gained a following of outcasts and misfits of both humans and mutants alike. They named themselves the Forgotten, eventually renaming themselves the Abominations, and formed their own community beneath New York with the Abomination as their protector. At one point, he was forced to deal with a conflict between the police and drug traffickers that got his community caught in the middle.

The Hulk showed up, fighting the Abomination, who eventually ran off, but killed a number of police officers and news reporters. Later a mutant called Threnody who'd previously been apart of the Abomination's community, returned while escaping Mr. Sinister with her boyfriend, X-Man. However the Abomination viewed this as a betrayal and battled X-Man, who used his powers to allow Threnody and himself to leave.

Betty Ross's Demise

The Abomination viewed himself as equal to the Hulk, since they were both ugly, psychologically damaged, and on their own. But when he found out that Banner had married Betty Ross, the Abomination felt that he was now worse off than the Hulk. When he found out Betty was in the hospital, he injected his radiated blood into her dialysis machine, resulting in her death. The world originally believed the Hulk was responsible, but General Ross found out the truth by tracking the Hulk only to find the Abomination instead. He'd apparently abandoned his New York community and destroyed a town before Ross found him.

The Hulk also tracked down the Abomination, who said that Nadia was lost to him as well. However the Hulk refused to fight Blonsky since he knew that forgiving him would be the one thing he couldn't endure. The Abomination couldn't understand or deal with his enemy's actions and as his triumph became a crushing defeat, he realized he'd become the twisted inhuman monster, not the Hulk as he'd believed for so long.

Dealing with Nadia

A few months later, Blonsky was working as a creative writing teacher but soon quit and revealed the corpse of his cryogenically frozen wife to Banner. A grief consumed General Ross convinced Bruce to try and bring the Abomination to justice. The Hulk engaged the Abomination in a ferocious battle, destroying a nearby town and surrounding countryside. Finally, Blonsky was beaten and placed in military custody, where he was forced to watch a loop of himself and his wife together during his incarceration. Later, while Banner was fleeing the mysterious organization called Home Base, he surprisingly found Nadia, who was living alone in a desert.

Nadia took Banner in and the two became close friends, at the same time as Home Base agents infiltrated the Abomination's prison. They offered him freedom and a reunion with his wife if he helped subdue the Hulk. Even though he was apparently betrayed by one of the agents, the Abomination managed to escape. He found Banner and Nadia, who revealed she'd actually come to the U.S. to kill Blonsky as revenge for years of physical abuse at his hands. Banner changed into the Hulk and battled the Abomination, managing to defeat him yet again.

Death and Return

Later on, the Abomination found himself fighting the Red Hulk, a mutated General Ross, while in Russia. He was beaten practically to death before Ross shot him for killing Betty Ross, killing him. However during the Chaos War, the Abomination was brought back to life by the Chaos King and sent along with Zom to find and bring back Death, as well as beat the Hulks. The Abomination was able to beat the Hulks, who weren't ready for his new powers. He managed to badly hurt Rick Jones, before he finally found Marlo Jones, who was hosting Death. However, the Abomination was finally beaten by Hulks and their allies and he was eventually killed by Marlo thanks to empowerment from Death.

Back among the living

A shadow organization (later revealed to be the Ancient Order of the Shield) bent on gaining control of the Hulk harvests biological material from a mortally-wounded Bruce Banner. After Banner regains consciousness following the experiment and escapes as the Hulk, the organization uses this material to resurrect the Abomination under their control, leaving him "free of a mind or a conscience" and with an ability to seek out Banner/Hulk for retrieval.

Powers and Abilities

Unlike the Hulk, the Abomination does not change between his human and mutated form and has a stable mutation, that weighs over 2,000 pounds more than his human form. The Abomination possesses incredible strength, capable of lifting over 100 tons, and can deliver punches with force equivalent to 500 pounds of dynamite. But unlike the Hulk, the Abomination does not increase in strength as a fight continues, which gives the Hulk an advantage in their fights. The Abomination's strength lets him leap 870 feet into the air and two miles with one jump. He also possesses incredible stamina, able to go for several days before he starts to tire. The Abomination's body is much stronger and resistant to damage than a common human.

He is able to heal at an accelerated rate, but the Hulk's healing rate also increases the angrier he gets, so that is another advantage he has over the Abomination. The Abomination can also breath underwater for long periods of time and when he endures extreme pain, cold, or lack of oxygen, he enters a coma like state of suspended animation that he can apparently stay in indefinitely. Before becoming the Abomination, Emil Blonsky was a skilled spy and could speak Russian fluently.

Kabuto and Hun Gurr used the Ninja and Animatron Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Hun Gurr's missile powers and Kabuto's powers 100-fold.

G1 Snarl and Melody (Pokemon): SMASHING THUNDER BLAST!

Snarl threw a huge rock and Melody blasted the rock with lightning and electrified it.

Kabuto (Naruto) and Hun Gurr: SLASHING MISSILE FIRESTORM!

Kabuto fired blades of energy and Hun Gurr fired waves of missiles.

Me and the R.P.M. Rangers: HAKAI ROAD ENFORCER MEGABLAST!

We fired a massive energy blast in the form of a purple star phoenix.

Tracer, Mercy, Winston and Zarya: OVERWATCH JUSTICE SUPERBLAST!

They fired a massive blast of energy and the blasts all hit Reaper and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

He was completely obliterated and all of Talon was gone too. Reaper and Deadfist were banished to the Warp for all eternity!

Vince: YEAH! And I got the flash drive Sombra made for the Contingency Plans.

Me: Excellent. Talon you all have Failed this universe!

Qin: Yeah! No one hurts me or my friends and lives to tell the tale.

Tracer: It's over, Widowmaker! Reaper and Doomfist are in the Warp. And you, Sombra, and Moira are going to prison. Talon's finished!

Widowmaker: (chuckles) That may be true. But in the end, we still won.

Me: Don't be so sure! Nico and everyone else cured us! Your poison was no match for the superior wits of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, their friends and all of Overwatch working together. Talon is done for.

Sombra: Oh shit.

We powered down and took the three villains to prison. They were sent to the Black Hole Prison we built at the very center of the Milky Way Galaxy. It's a special prison in orbit around the supermassive black hole at the Galactic Center.

---

Later back at the estate we were in our briefing room.

Lisa: In light of the recent breach of trust revealed to us during the Talon matter, we have to decide whether Nico should remain in the Team Loud Phoenix Storm. All those in favor of…

Laney: Wait. Before we vote, I believe the accused should be allowed a few words in his defense.

Tara: Seconded.

Double D: Okay. Nico?

Nico: I really am sorry that my contingency plans nearly killed you all. And I'm sorry that I made them without telling you guys. But I'm not sorry for making the non lethal versions of my plans. When it comes to keeping you guys in check, I'd do it again.

Luna: Oh, come on, dude!

Nico: As individuals, and even more so as a group, Team Loud Phoenix Storm is far too dangerous to lack a failsafe against any possible misuse of our power.

Lola: We use our power to protect the world. We always have.

Nico: And what if we ever snapped because of all the pressure from our battles? If you guys can't see the potential danger of an out-of-control Team Loud Phoenix Storm after what we heard about the Royal Defenders, I don't need to wait for a vote. I don't belong here.

Spiderman: Nico, you're not saying-

Nico: I'm sorry, Spidey. But until further notice, I'm leaving the team.

With that, Nico walked out of the room.

Me: (Glares at the Loud Kids) I hope you all are proud of yourselves. Because of your incessent disdain towards Nico, he is now gone. When I tell you to stop this ridiculous irrational behavior I mean it! I am the leader of this team and when I give orders you obey them! No questions! Nico made those contingency plans to prevent us from going rogue in the future and you should be thanking him for doing so but instead you just spit on his face like he betrayed your trust. So when he comes back you owe him an apology. And you better make it a good one or you're never going out into the field again.

Rita: That's right kids and for your ridiculous behavior everyone but Luna, Lincoln, Laney and Lily are grounded for a week!

Lola: NO FAIR!

Me: Tough cookies!

Fluttershy then used her stare on the Loud Kids minus Luna, Lincoln, Laney and Lily and they were shaking in fear.

Fluttershy: You have made a tremendous mistake! Apologize to Nico when you get the chance and don't let this injustice on him happen again!

Me: Better do what she says or else.

They nodded in fear.

Me: Remind me never to get on your bad side Fluttershy.

Tracer (to Vypra): Out of curiosity, do you have any plans for the Masters of Evil to retire in the future?

Vypra: It might happen at the end of 2021.

Me: I don't think they'll retire any time soon. They have too much fun and good times with us.

Tracer: I can tell. It really is going to be a pleasure fighting alongside you guys, J.D. (sighs) I just wish us meeting you didn't up with this happening.

Me: I know Lena. But this whole thing has been very stressful. The War with the Royal Defenders really changed us and it was a bittersweet ending and because of them we had to take major incredible precautions. Our power is now so strong that we can now obliterate the entire universe in the mere blink of a cosmic eye if we're not responsible in using our power. That's why we have to do everything we can to maintain peace, love and harmony and bring justice to all those that are evil.

Dark Spicer: That's right.

Eddy: (to Dark Spicer) Dark, me, Lumpy, Sockhead, Sabrina, Tara, and Pete had nothing against Nico's contingencies!

Sabrina: And please don't be angry at Lincoln's sisters. They only-

Dark Spicer: Me and my team aren't mad at anyone. If anything, the Talon agents are the only ones to blame for all this. Lincoln's sisters are just traumatized over how they nearly died. But you know what? I know that things are going to get better before we know it. (to me and Rita) Just don't be too hard on them, ok?

Me: We'll make no promises. But right now after everything they went through they will need all the support they can get. Clyde is gonna ask Dr. Lopez to come over to do home therapy sessions with the Loud Sisters.

Rita: That's so sweet of Clyde. He has always been there for us.

Me: He is a good kid.

Wallflower: Yes he is.

I went to talk to Nico.

Me: Nico. Got a minute?

Nico: (sighs) What is it, J.D.? I'd like to leave before it gets dark.

Me: You made contingency plans to stop everybody in Team Loud Phoenix Storm just in case any of us ever went bad.

Nico: My contingencies were intended to immobilize, not kill.

Me: Well, do you have a contingency plan for you?

Nico: Funny you said say that.

Me: With all that talk about unchecked power, you didn't even bother to come up with a plan to stop yourself?

Nico: [after a pause] I do have a plan. It's called Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Just wanted to be sure. (gives Nico the tranquilizer used on me)

Nico: You sure about this?

Me: If Team Loud Phoenix Storm ever did go to the wrong side, I want there to be somebody I can trust to keep the planet safe. Even from me.

Nico: Thanks. (smiles) I promise, J.D. This won't be goodbye. Until we meet again, my friend.

Me: I know it won't be good-bye. Just get back soon my brother. Lincoln will be my temporary second in command till you get back.

Nico smiled and we fistbumped.

Nico: Have Lincoln take care of my kids for me.

Me: I'll have him do so.

Nico was outside and May, Poromon, Manaphy and Poliwag came.

Nico: You guys don't have to come with me, you know.

May: What kind of wife would I be if I just let you walk along by yourself? I'm traveled across the Pokemon world before meeting J.D. and the others. This won't be so different.

Poromon: And me and Poliwag are your partners!

Poliwag: We're in this together!

Manaphy: And wherever Mama goes, I go.

Sunset Shimmer: Is this it, Twilight? Is this really the end of Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Twilight Sparkle: No Nico just needs some time to himself.

Horsea: (starts to cry) Maria? Is everyone going to be ok?

Maria: They'll be fine Horsea. I hope.

Tracer: (To the viewers) This has been one helluva day.

Me: It sure has Lena. Be safe Nico. (Tears stream down my face)

THE END

Another fanfiction complete.

Overwatch was a great game from 2016 and it was awesome! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the revenge of Chad's evil adult villain parents Mega Mom and Destructo Dad and we're going to give those bad egg of parents their ultimate just desserts.

See you all tomorrow

Numbuh 274's Crazy Parents

Tensions were still brewing at TLPS estate as I sat in my chair still pissed at some of the Loud Kids for their harsh treatment towards Nico. I was sitting in my chair glaring at them.

Clock ticking was heard in the background.

Lori and Lynn were pissed and the others weren't.

Me: (Sighs)

Sludge: (sadly) Me Sludge miss Nico!

Lynn: (angrily) Well, I don't! I'm glad he's gone!

Ash: Lynn, can't you just let it go?

Lynn: Why should I? We almost died because of that traitor's plans! And I was forced to attack innocent civilians!

Me: When are you gonna get it through that overzealous athletic ego of yours that Nico's contingency plans he made were to prevent you all from going rogue and neutralize you and not kill you!? Nico made those plans to stop you from going rogue like the Royal Defenders!

Leni: What kind of monsters are we? Nico was only looking out for us and we drove him away.

Lori: Are you kidding me? We're better off without him!

Rippersnapper: Lori, why do you even hate Nico for those contingency plans anyway?

Bobby: Yeah, babe. Tell us.

Lori: (crying) You wanna know why? It's because if I died, my kids would only have you to take care of them! And I wouldn't get the chance to marry you, Boo Boo Bear!

Bobby: I know babe.

Me: Lori I feel the exact same way! But I am not pissed off at Nico for those plans.

Jared: That's right Lori. Nico was looking out for everyone and we didn't know Sombra was gonna come in and get Nico's plans and Talon was gonna turn them lethal.

Shope: Before I met you guys, I thought Team Loud Phoenix Storm was perfect and invincible. Guess I thought wrong.

Me: That's because we have so much stress and tension now Shope.

Shope: Oh sorry.

Lola: (starts to cry) You were right, J.D. This is our fault. If we hadn't been so reckless in all our battles, Nico wouldn't have needed to make those contingency plans and he would still be here!

Pacifica: It's all our fault. If we hadn't all left to fight Bill Cipher, Talon wouldn't have gotten their hands on Nico's plans.

Dipper: If me, Stan, and Mabel had just found a way to kill Cipher to first time, we wouldn't have needed to fight him again at all.

Me: No it's no ones fault for that. Bill Cipher's return was inevitable. Discord said that he was gonna return one day and he made true on his threat.

Lincoln: That's right.

Laney: Yeah Discord warned us this would happen.

Maria: Me and Horsea are going out to find him.

Lori: We don't need that traitor!

Maria: (to Lori and Lynn) I don't care what you guys say! Me, Horsea, and William are going to find Nico!

Shadow the Hedgehog: We're coming as well. (to me) And J.D.? After we bring Nico back, all of us really need to change our approach whenever we fight villains. We'll still kill those that deserve it.

Me: Agreed Shadow. Nico is our brother like it or not!

Shadow the Hedgehog: Well said.

Carly Carmine: Agreed.

Breach: Me and Ace will help you too.

Maria: Okay.

Me: Be careful guys.

William: I'll go too.

Maria: Okay.

I concentrated and looked for his energy signal and I found it.

Me: Found it. He's in a meadow on the outskirts of the city.

Naruto: Not far from here.

William, Maria, Ace, Breach and Shadow were off.

---

Later in the beautiful meadows on the outskirts of Gotham Royal York, Nico, May, Poliwag, Poromon and Manaphy were relaxing and enjoying the scenery.

Nico: (to May, Poromon, Manaphy, and Poliwag) Another day of being on the road. Right, guys?

May: You said it Nico. I miss everyone though.

Nico: I know May. I miss them too.

?: How sad for you Mr. Chan.

Nico gasped. He hasn't heard that voice for almost 6 months.

Nico: I thought I was rid of that voice!

Second voice: You will never be rid of us.

Then Nico saw the hallucinations of HANS ROTWOOD, BRAD MORTON, MASTER FROWN AND STUPID SQUIDWARD TENTACLES!

Rotwood: Surprise!

Nico rubbed his eyes and saw that he was hallucinating. But they were there.

Nico: Rotwood!? Morton, Squidward and Frown!? I thought you all were banished to the Warp?

Squidward: You moron. You will never be rid of us.

Frown: Yeah!

Rotwood hallucination: Well, Mr. Chan. How does it feel to be kicked out of the only team and family you've ever known?

Nico: They are just blowing off some steam!

May: Nico are you all right? Who are you talking too?

Nico: Rotwood and his Posse. I can somehow see hallucinations of them even after they were banished to the Warp.

May: But that's impossible! We made sure they were destroyed and banished there.

Nico: They just won't leave me alone even in death.

Poliwag: Those monsters just won't stop!

May then somehow saw them too!

May: You're right Nico! I can see them! They are there!

Rotwood: Ms. May. Or should I say Mrs. May Chan? I must express my congratulations on your marriage to Mr. Chan.

May: (Sarcastically) Thanks.

Nico: Why are you 4 here?

Brad Morton: To torment you some more even after you all banished us to the Warp.

Then a portal appeared and out came William, Maria, Ace, Breach and Shadow.

May: Maria!

May hugged her!

Maria: Thank goodness you're all right May.

Nico: Guys! How did you find us?

Breach: After J.D. located your energy signature, I used a portal to get us to your location.

Maria: Nico, please come home. All of us miss you!

Nico: I can't right now! You heard Lincoln and his sisters. They all hate me now. So, we're staying on the road until they've cooled off.

Maria: I don't hate you Nico. J.D. doesn't either and most of Lincoln's sisters have all cooled down. Lola is now getting better.

Nico: I know you don't hate me Maria. I love you like a sister. How are the kids doing by the way?

Maria: They're doing great. Carly and Misty are looking after them.

Nico: I'm glad.

Suddenly…

ZAP!

Nico was trapped in a big crystal!

May: NICO!

Then two figures came out and they were the Chad Dickson's crazy parents and enemies of the Kids Next Door: MEGA MOM AND DESTRUCTO DAD!

---

Mega Mom and Destructo Dad are the recurring antagonists of Codename: Kids Next Door . They are Chad Dickson's embarrassing parents. They wear masks that are giant replicas of their own heads.

Mega Mom was voiced by Grey DeLisle, and Destructo Dad was voiced by Jeff Bennett.

They first appeared in Operation: C.H.A.D . They "stupefy" all of the KND operatives in the world, so that their champion son could be "Numbuh 1" rather than 274. Upon learning this, Chad threatens to quit all his extra curricular activities, join The Scumbucket Punks rock band and get a tattoo, persuading them to undo their damage. Mega Mom and Destructo Dad surrender and promise to revive everyone if he stops.

They appear in various supervillain meetings and gatherings later on in the series, and they are mentioned in Operation: E.N.D., where they send out invitations to Chad's birthday party.

---

Mega Mom: There you are, I been looking all over for you, you know you can't hide from MEGA MOM !

Destructo Dad: Hi, guys, how about some quality time with DESTRUCTO DAD!

Mega Mom and Destructo Dad just imprisoned Nico in a crystal.

Maria: Wait a second. Aren't you two Chad's crazy mom and dad that are so full of pride towards him for being in the Kids Next Door and want him to be the Number 1 at all?

Destructo Dad: That's us. It's a pleasure to meet all of you.

Mega Mom: And We love our little Chady-bear.

William: Let Nico go now!

Mega Mom: Don't worry. We'll let him go.

Destructo Dad: But first, tell J.D. that he has to ensure that Chad is the only KND operative around.

Maria: We don't have a choice, do we?

Destructo Dad: Uh no.

---

Back at the estate, Maria was telling us everything.

Me: So Mega Mom and Destructo Dad stupefied Nico!?

Vince: That's crazy!

Yuko: I can't believe that your crazy parents would do this Chad.

Numbuh 274: So let me get this straight. My crazy parents have captured Nico and will only let him go if I end up as the only KND operative ever?

Maria: That's right. And we were so close to bringing Nico home as well.

Numbuh 274: I've already done good work in the Kids Next Door! I don't need my parents pressuring you guys into making me the only operative!

Blade Man: (glares at the Loud Kids) You know, this is really all your fault, you guys. If you hadn't blamed Nico for how Talon nearly kill all of you, Nico wouldn't have left, he wouldn't have been captured, and we wouldn't be trying to figure out how to give Chad's parents a better offer so Nico's back home safe and sound! For all we know, Mega Mom and Destructo Dad could be causing trouble somewhere else while waiting for us!

Me: I agree with Blade Man girls.

Tussle Sprout: Here's an idea. How about we give Lincoln's sisters over to Chad's parents in exchange for Nico? (to Luna, Laney, and Lily) No offense.

Lily: None taken.

Laney: We actually agree with this idea.

Luna: (to the rest of the Loud Sisters) It's been nice knowing you dudes. Not!

Me: Wait guys! I have a better idea. We can make dummies of them with Genjutsu on them and give them to them.

Applejack: That works much better.

Duncan: J.D., no offense. But after Lincoln's sisters except Laney, Luna, and Lily drove Nico away, they deserve to be handed over to Chad's parents!

Me: None taken but I'm not resorting to that Duncan. I still consider ALL the Loud kids my family after everything we've done for them and helped them become better people. I love them as much as my family and we've been very close since I moved here from Colorado in 2016 and I won't let these demons take over them and plague them forever.

Lisa and Lucy came.

Lisa: I have something to confess. Me and Lucy were planning to vote for Nico staying.

Maria: What?!

Lisa: Nico had a logical point in the contingencies keeping us in line. Even the one for me.

Lucy: And I'm a vampire. Who knows what might happen if something bad happened because of my powers? But Nico left before he could hear our vote.

Me: It's all right you two. I would do the same thing anyway.

Luan: I was gonna vote for Nico to stay.

Leni: Same here.

Lana: Me too.

Liberty: Me too guys.

Lyra: Yeah.

Lee: Yep.

Linka: After everything Nico has been through I would do the same.

Carol: I love Nico like a brother too.

Eli: Same here sis. Nico is a great man and he may have been through some really dark times but I love him like a brother as much as J.D.

Me: Aw. Thanks Eli.

Nunnally: I love Nico as a brother too and he may have been through some dark times but we love him like a brother.

Lori and Lynn were realizing that they did wrong.

Lori: Oh, dear God!

Lynn: (crying) WHAT THE HELL HAVE WE DONE?!

Lori and Lynn were crying hard and Bobby and Lightning were comforting them.

Me: Looks like guilt has set in.

Vince: It sure is.

Me: We can sulk later. But now our priority is to save Nico and battle Chad's crazy parents.

Rainbow Dash: And Chad I know just how you feel. My parents are both full of so much pride over me that it is really consuming.

Lincoln: Yeah did you see the number of trophies that Rainbow Dash had?

Laney: Her room was literally full of them.

Numbuh 274: Wow. I can't believe her parents have that much support and pride in her.

Linka: I know. We were shocked too.

Me: Yeah. Her room is totally full of trophies. You should see how many she has. But right now lets go rescue Nico.

We were off.

In the meadow, Nico was still frozen. Then…

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and we landed in front of Mega Mom and Destructo Dad!

Numbuh 274: Hello mom and dad!

Mega Mom: Oh Chad-y bear we will always be so proud of you for joining Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Rainbow Dash: Boy you really do have so much pride in your son.

Destructo Dad: We sure do.

Mega Mom: You're planning to make us pay for our crimes? We're not the ones who drove Nico away.

Destructo Dad: Face it, "heroes"! You were the ones who made it possible for us to capture him.

Lola: (sadly) You're right. This is our fault.

Lynn: We were too traumatized by us almost dying that we took it out on Nico. And now, there's a good chance that we lost one of the best friends we've ever had.

Lori: Go ahead and do your worst. We literally don't care anymore.

Mega Mom: Gladly!

Destructo Dad: (to Sector V) Don't go anywhere. You all are next after them!

With that, Chad's parents proceeded to beat the Loud Sisters except Luna, Laney, and Lily within an inch of their lives.

Torch Man: Now's our chance to get Nico out while those two are distracted!

Lincoln: What about the rest of my sisters?!

Nelson: Fuck them, Lincoln! This is what they get for driving Nico away!

Nelson charged.

Me: That stupid idiot!

We went after Nelson and we got to the crystal Nico was in and I shattered it and Nico was really weak and disoriented.

Nico: (weakly) Nelson? Is that you?

Nelson: Yeah man it's me.

Me: Nico are you all right?

Nico: I think so. What happened?

Me: You were stupified because of Chad's overprideful parents.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah they are just as prideful as my parents.

May: Oh Nico!

May hugged him.

Nico: You all came to rescue me? But why? Because of me, you all nearly got killed.

Squidward Hallucination: Oh puh-lease! They may trust in you, believe in you, but one little slip up is all takes to make them distrust you. They'll just as soon have you die as soon as they're done using you. Just like you and them killed me!

I sensed that Nico was having hallucinations of Squidward and his posse.

Me: (Sighs) Even in death and after being banished to the Warp you 4 bastards still torment him. Shut up stupid Squidward!

I snapped my fingers and got rid of them.

Sunset Shimmer: Who were you talking to J.D.?

Me: That's right you don't know about this Sunset. Nico was tormented more than any of us because of 4 people that hated both us and the Masters of Evil. See for yourself. It's best to show you by going into his mind.

Sunset Shimmer did so by touching Nico's head and her eyes glowed and she saw a view into the past and saw Nico being tormented by Rotwood and his posse.

Sunset Shimmer: (Gasp) Oh man! Nico that's horrible! I'm so sorry that you went through all that.

Nico: It's all right Sunset.

May: How did you see what Nico went through because of Rotwood and his group?

Me: Sunset Shimmer has the power to see into the past and view their memories just by touching that person.

May: Wow! That is amazing!

Manaphy: No kidding!

Nico: Wow Sunset, I didn't know you had this kind of power.

Me: I was surprised myself. She tried it on me and it was amazing that she can do that.

Sunset Shimmer: I know but I don't like to brag.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Nico lets fight Mega Mom and Destructo Dad and then the Loud Girls all have something they would like to tell you.

Nico: Okay.

We went to face them.

POW BLAM!

Mega Mom and Destructo Dad were smashed into their faces and we were really pissed at them and they were shocked to see Nico back on our side!

Mega Mom: Impossible!

Me: Those weren't the real sisters you were pulverizing.

Our Genjutsu lifted and they saw that they were dummies!

Destructo Dad: They were dummies!

Me: Surprise!

Lincoln fired a blast of lightning and the blasts hit their stupifying ray gloves and short-circuited them and destroyed them.

Me: Time for some serious buttkicking!

Then the Masters of Evil Appeared. It was Myotismon, Lord Drakkon, Vypra, Kaos, Robo-Blaze and Captain Cold appeared.

Me: Myotismon, Lord Drakkon, Vypra, Kaos, Robo-Blaze and Captain Cold.

Kaos: That's right fools! It's is time for I, Kaos, to fight you all for real in our usual battles!

Twilight Sparkle: OH YES! I'M SO EXCITED AND READY!

Nico: Wow. Someone's sure excited.

Myotismon: (to Nico) We're so glad you're ok now, Nico.

Nico: Thanks. And I'm glad you guys chose not to get mad at the rest of Lincoln's sisters.

Lord Drakkon: Considering that the members of Talon nearly killed them, we understood their point of view.

Vypra: And we chose not to get involved since it was a personal matter.

Me: I'm glad. But I know how you guys feel about that.

Lord Drakkon: Really?

Lincoln: Me and J.D. both do actually.

Me: It's a complicated story.

Laney: Yeah.

Varie: Lets just say that it involves Lori and Leni, a certain blue dress and a certain protocal.

Lori and Leni felt guilty about that.

Me: We'll talk about that later.

Then a figure came out and it was WIND CROWRANG!

Volcana: And you are?

Lori blew the missiles and they hit Mega Mom and knocked her down.

Chad: Take that!

Me: That was clever!

Nico: Yeah. Lets do it!

We powered up and went at them.

---

Battle 1: Myotismon

---

Nico, Trixie, Starlight Glimmer, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Vegeta and Shadow the Hedgehog were facing Myotismon.

Myotismon: (to Nico) I hope you, Manaphy, Poromon, Poliwag, and May were fine on the road, Nico.

Frown hallucination: I thought good guys were supposed to fight bad guys, not befriend them.

Starlight Glimmer: Who is that talking to you Nico?

Nico: Oh that's Master Frown. He's the enemy of Unikitty.

Myotismon: So Master Frown and his posse are back?

Nico: They are hallucinations. I guess we ALL can see them.

Myotismon: I see him too. But he and his Posse were banished to the Warp.

Nico: I guess my mind still hasn't gotten over everything they have done.

Starlight Glimmer: What are you talking about Nico?

Nico: It's a really ugly story.

Trixie: We'll have to heard about it later.

Applejack: That's right and it's probably as bad as it sounds.

Apple Bloom: I think so too.

Vegeta: Trust me girls. Bokrua's story with them is terrible than it really looks.

Shadow the Hedgehog: Yeah.

Myotismon: It's true. But lets get it on.

Myotismon called out his Pokemon.

Trixie: The Great and Powerful Trixie is gonna give you feats so amazing that you will be in awe!

Myotismon: Is she always like this?

Starlight Glimmer: Trixie is a famous magician and she has a great magic show and all that.

Myotismon: I see.

They went at him.

Trixie: This is a great act! MAGIC STYLE NINJA ART: BOLT FIRE FLIPENDO!

Trixie fired a blast of lightning and fire and it was merged with the Harry Potter Spell.

Starlight Glimmer: And this one too! CONSTELLATION STYLE NINJA ART: DRAGON FLAME OF DRACO!

The stars of the constellation of Draco the Dragon appeared in the background behind her and Starlight fired blasts of fire from each of the stars and the blasts formed into a dragon.

Applejack: YEE-HAW! Lets hogtie this vampire! ORCHARD STYLE NINJA ART: APPLE PIE MEGA SHOWER!

Applejack fired a wave of apples and they formed into a bunch of apple pies.

Apple Bloom: Lets get him! CUTIE MARK STYLE NINJA ART: SHOWER OF BONDED CUTIE MARKS!

Apple Bloom floated into the air and she glowed in a red aura and numerous cutie marks formed around her and she fired them and they formed into the connected spirits of all the Ponies and everyone the Cutie Mark Crusaders and the Mane 7 all helped over the years and they went at Myotismon.

Nico: (Echoing) POSITRON LASER!

Nico fired a wave of ionic energy with Imperialdramon's powers.

Vegeta: FINAL FLASH!

Vegeta fired a massive wave of yellow energy.

Shadow the Hedgehog: CHAOS SPEAR!

Shadow fired a massive blast of energy.

The blasts all hit Myotismon and his Pokemon and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked them out.

Nico: Whoa! That was awesome!

Starlight Glimmer: It sure was! Wow! Apple Bloom, I didn't know you could do that.

Applejack: Yeah sugarcube. I didn't know that you had that amazing ability.

Apple Bloom: We've been helping a lot of people find their Cutie Marks and we are not just called the Cutie Mark Crusaders for nothing.

Applejack: That's true.

Trixie: But that was amazingly well done.

Apple Bloom: Thanks guys.

---

Battle 2: Lord Drakkon

---

Me, Lemon Hearts, Lemon Zest, Sunset Shimmer, Breach and Ace were facing Lord Drakkon.

Lord Drakkon: (to me) It's good that everyone on the team is back to being friends again. If the rest of Lincoln's sisters were mad at Nico for another several days, there would've been a civil war.

Me: No kidding. Just like in 2016's Avengers Civil War. That was hardcore.

Lemon Hearts: That movie was intense!

Lemon Zest: It sure was.

Me: Yeah. Sunset already probed into Nico's mind and saw everything that happened with Nico in his past. She has this amazing power that enables her to see into the past just by touching a person.

Sunset Shimmer: It's true. I was amazed that I could do that when I first discovered my powers.

Lord Drakkon: Wow! That's amazing.

Me: It sure is. I was amazed that she has this kind of power. Not only that but our worst fears have come true. Rotwood and his posse have returned.

Lord Drakkon: I thought we had seen the last of them!

Me: I was thinking exactly the same thing. Whenever spirits are banished to the Warp it keeps their spirits for all eternity. But it looks like Rotwood and his Posse will never leave us alone even in death or after being banished to the Warp. They are hallucinations now and Nico is gonna have to be stronger than ever if he hopes to defeat them.

Lord Drakkon: I know. Lets do it!

Luan: Same here Vypra.

Minuette: We all are. But I saw that Nico was being tormented by the spirits of 4 people.

Pinkie Pie: Well 2 of them were human and the other two looked like a squid and little man made of Lego blocks.

Vypra: WHAT!? Rotwood and his Posse have come back!?

Luan: What!? But that's impossible! They were banished to the Warp!

Vypra: Obviously they found out about Nico being tormented like this and their spirits came back in the form of hallucinations.

Shego: Looks like we'll have to make a spell down the road that will wipe them out forever like we did with Bill Cipher.

William: Yeah.

Moondancer: Sounds like you all have had problems with these guys before.

Luan: "Problem" is putting it mildly. They are nothing but trouble.

Hinata: They were absolutely horrible Fluttershy.

Kairi: Yeah.

Robo-Blaze: Wow. I'm sorry they did all that to Nico.

Sora: It's all right.

Robo-Blaze: It doesn't make any sense actually. They were banished to the Warp right? Once they are banished there they should be stuck there forever regardless of them being a spirit. It doesn't makes sense.

The two parents were knocked down and Chad went up to them.

Mega Mom: Go on, Chad. Kill us.

Destructo Dad: Kill your mom and dad. You know you want to!

Chad thought about this for several seconds.

Numbuh 274: No. Even after everything that happened today, you two are my parents. I can't bring myself to kill you two.

Me: That's why we're gonna let the proper authorities take care of you.

The cops came and arrested them and we had them sent to the Uranus Prison.

Morton hallucination: So much for Mega Mom and Destructo Dad. But I have to admit, they did make decent parents. I would've made an awesome father. At least, until you and your friends ruined the lives of me and my team.

Me: Oh Shut up Morton like you would make a great father like me and my son. Nico and May are better parents than you.

May: Same with Carly and Jack.

Me: And me and my family.

The Masters of Evil came.

Vypra: Serves those two right.

Lucio: So, are you guys really serious about retiring at the end of 2021?

Robo Blaze: We said it MIGHT happen. WE won't guarantee that it will.

Kaos: But eventually, we will retire and find jobs.

Captain Cold: Dolph, Kearney, and Jimbo already have jobs in the Antarctica prison.

Me: Yes they do. But you guys can always give us all great usual battles. We all love it.

Nico: Guys, I really am sorry about not telling you guys about my contingency plans to begin with. And to prove it, I'll have them removed as soon as we go home.

Lola: Actually, you can keep those plans.

Nico: Say what?

Lynn: (sighs) We've gotta face facts. There have been too many times where villains pushed our buttons and made us nearly cross line that even we wouldn't dare cross. And as much as we want to believe it will never happen, we have to face the fact that one day, we may end up losing control. And if that if that day ever comes, we have to know that someone will be able to stop us.

Lori: (smiles at Nico) Let's just say, if someone's going to use those contingency plans against us… we'd rather it was someone we know we can trust to do the right thing.

Me: That's right dude. You made those contingency plans to stop us. Talon was gonna use those plans to kill us. We need you now more than ever. And Rotwood, until we figure out how to get rid of you for good, you're stuck with Nico till then.

Rotwood: Screw you J.D.!

Me: Fuck off!

Lori: I just can't believe that Rotwood and his group are literally back.

May: Yeah I thought we had seen the last of those douchebags after they tried to get Nico to kill me!

Me: I know. That's what infuriates me. But girls I think you have something you would like to say to Nico.

Lori: Oh right.

The Loud Kids went up to him.

Lori: Nico we are literally sorry we had such incredible disdain towards you.

Leni: Yeah we totes weren't thinking right.

Luan: We know you were just looking out for everyone and we let our feelings overpower our judgement.

Lynn: Yeah. It was horrible and we're sorry dude.

Lana: It was wrong of us to judge you like that.

Lola: Yeah and we're sorry about that.

Nico: Aw I forgive you girls.

Me: Do you still need more time to think before you come back Nico?

Nico: No I think I'm good.

Me: Cool.

Nico: Alright, guys. I'll come back to the team. On one condition.

Lincoln: And that is?

Nico: (laughs) Come up with a cooler and shorter name for my contingency plans.

Me: Noted. And I think I already have one. The Anti-Rogue-TLPS Protocols.

Nico: I like it!

Me: Cool! Welcome back man. Lets go home guys. ALL of us.

We cheered wildly and went back home.

Nico: (To the viewers) Never take things too far or it will spell disaster to friendships and more.

Me: Well said man.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic complete.

Mega Mom and Destructo Dad from the Codename Kids Next Door episode Operation C.H.A.D. were awesome! They were awesome and very good parents. Rainbow Dash and Numbuh 274 have similar situations in all that. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 3rd Land Before Time movie and we're going to save the entire Great Valley from a drought that was caused by an asteroid shower that cut off the water to it and nearly burned the whole valley down. And we're gonna put Hyp and his friends in their place as well as reprimand Cera's dad for being a jerk.

See you all tomorrow.

The Time of the Great Giving

It was morning at the apartment of Jimbo, Dolph & Kearney run by the Masters of Evil.

RRRIIIIIIIIIIIIINNNNNGGGGG!

Their alarm clocks rang and they got up.

Jimbo: (Yawns) Time to get up guys!

They got up and started their day.

Jimbo: (to Kearney and Dolph) Ready to go to work, guys?

Dolph: You bet we are.

Kearney: As long as we get to smash the hell out of that Melvin Sneedly kid! (Cracks Knuckles)

Dolph: You know I'm always up for that!

Kearney Jr: Can I come too, Dad?

Kearney: Of course you can son. I love having you at work with me.

Kearney Jr.: Yeah!

They got coffee and breakfast and went to Antarctica.

* * *

Later at the Antarctica Prison, we were with Jimbo, Dolph and Kearney. With us were newly resurrected members of the Red Lantern Corps, VICE and SKALLOX!

* * *

Vice

Vice follows a simple philosophy: tear and destroy. Vice's unusual facial structure allows him to clamp on and rip an enemies head off by using his bottom pincher bone to shove up and through someone's chin, while the top pincher clamps down on the top of the skull. He is a vicious and sadistic fighter; as soon as one Lantern is down, Vice goes to the next one.

During the Sinestro Corps War, Arkillo killed and ate Vice's mate, a tragic loss that fueled the great rage that stirred inside of him. Since then, Vice has been consumed with revenge against Arkillo and the entire Sinestro Corps. On the planet Ysmault, beside a lake of blood Vice swore an oath of vengeance, as the red light consumed his body and replaced his blood. Vice was transformed into a killing machine fueled by an endless rage.

Vice was one of the Red Lanterns that attack both the Sinestro Corps and the Green Lanterns during the attempted rescue of Sinestro from the Lantern's custody. His new Corps tore through both groups with ease and abducted Sinestro. The Red Lanterns took their captive to Ysmault where Atrocitus planned on draining every drop of his blood into his ring. Following the Red Lantern Corps defeat at Ysmault, Vice was eventually captured by Guy Gardner and Kilowog, placing a green muzzle construct on him to prevent him from spewing his blood and escaping. Observing his entry, Scar remotely used her powers to remove Vice's muzzle and allow him to escape his Sciencell. He managed to subdue Voz, Warden of the Sciencells, in short order, to the cheers of the other inmates. Their cheers turned to cries of horror when Vice began attack the Sinestro Corps members also housed in the sciencells.

The Black Lantern Corps laid siege on Oa using the Corps's own honored dead. When the Black Lantern's power level reached 100%, the black lanterns band together to devour the Main Central Battery by creating a black construct. During the defense of the battery, Kyle Rayner and Guy Gardner dropped the Sciencecell that housed Vice onto the Black Lanterns, and very soon he able to weaken the black lanterns and their construct. However, before he could do much damage to the Black Lanterns, Alpha Lantern Chaselon appeared, and thinking that Vice has escaped, kills him, thereby allowing the construct to grow back and finally getting killed by the Black Lantern Corphans. Though he died, his Power Ring later claimed Guy Gardner and inducted him into the Red Lantern Corps after the leader of the Green Lantern Corps Honor Guard faced anger after the death of Kyle Rayner who fell in battle against the Black Lanterns.

Shallox A.K.A. Skallox

Skallox was one of those to receive a Red Lantern Power Ring when Atrocitus of the Five Inversions sent them out to form the Red Lantern Corps. Back on his home world, Skallox was the favored Interrogator, and loyal member of a crime syndicate. Despite his loyalty, the gang's boss believed Skallox betrayed them and had him thrown into a furnace to be burned alive, burning off his hair and skin. However before he could be killed, Skallox's anger attracted a Red Lantern Power Ring, and like the others, the ring attached itself to him saving his life and turning him into a Red Lantern.

Skallox is a member of the Red Lantern Corps and part of the pack that attacked the Green Lantern Corps and Sinestro Corps and abducted Sinestro. He later appears as one of Atrocitus' savage Red Lanterns whose mind is overcome with rage. Atrocitus tries to ask him a question and Skallox flies off. Atrocitus catches him and bites into his neck which allows him to see through Skallox's memories. Atrocitues witnesses Bleez gathering with Ratchet and Zilius Zox, while still savage, possibly plotting to kill Atrocitus. Skallox is then tossed into the Blood Ocean by Atrocitus so that he may relive his pain and gain his sentience. His past disappoints Ratchet who was hoping their mission of vengeance was for the innocent not the wicked. While Atrocitus beats Bleez for her disobedience, Skallox stands to her defense and demands he stop. He joins Bleez as she leads her own group of Red Lanterns to Sector 666, to bring vengeance to former members of the Sinestro Corp. Skallox aids Bleez in the torturing of their victims. One of his spies informs Skallox that there is a new, human, Red Lantern on Ysmault and tells Bleez of this. She sends Skallox to Earth to find out more about Rankorr's origin. When Skallox arrives he is met by Apollo and Stormwatch in Devon, UK. After blinding Apollo, Skallox has his arm hacked off by Midnighter. Skallox goes into a coma and is taken into custody. Stormwatch removes his ring and keeps it separate. When Atrocitus comes across their ship in a rage it awakens Skallox and his ring as they are reunited. Engineer provides Skallox and Atrocitus with a portal to send them on their way as they do not wish to further the conflict.

Vice: Thanks for reviving me and Skallox, guys.

Brittney: It was no problem Vice. As the new leader of the Red Lantern Corps, it's my job now to start the Red Lanterns down the right path.

Skallox: I'm glad Lady Brittney.

Brittney: No need for formalities. Just Brittney is fine.

Me: The Red Lantern Corps is almost complete. We have a bunch of members left still to revive.

We arrived at the cell of none other than the arch nemesis of Luan Loud, George Beard and Harold Hutchins: MELVIN SNEEDLY!

---

Melvin Richard Sneedly, also temporarily known as the Bionic Booger Boy, is the secondary antagonist-turned-anti-hero in the Captain Underpants book series, the secondary antagonist of DreamWorks' 35th full-length animated feature film Captain Underpants: The First Epic Movie, the main antagonist of The Epic Tales of Captain Underpants series and its series finale film Captain Underpants Epic Choice-O-Rama, and one of the two main antagonists turned anti-hero in The Spooky Tales of Captain Underpants .

He is perhaps the smartest student currently attending Jerome Horwitz Elementary School, but is also the school's biggest tattletale/sellout and is greatly disliked by lots of the students for this reason. He is also George and Harold's arch-nemesis.

In the film, he was voiced by Jordan Peele of MAD TV fame, who also voiced Beta Wolf in the 2016 Warner Bros. animated film Storks

. In The Epic Tales of Captain Underpants, he is voiced by Jorge Diaz.

In the Books

Melvin debuts in the second book as the local nerd and snitch, who created the PATSY 2000 (a device similar to a 3D printer) as part of a science convention. He tells George and Harold it can bring images to life. They aren't impressed, however. Melvin agrees not to mention that he saw the two ruining the science fair but later he changes his mind when he decides to tattle on George and Harold after the science convention is cancelled because of George and Harold's pranks. When George and Harold tamper with the PATSY 2000, it spawns the Talking Toilets and the Turbo-Toilet 2000, who ruin the school. Later, Melvin is placed in detention (since he tattled) when George and Harold become Principals of the Day and is forced to write "I will not be a tattletale" multiple times.

Melvin is one of the students who get brainwashed in the third book. In the fifth book, he bears witness to the robotic George and Harold's attack.

Melvin serves as the main antagonist of the sixth and seventh books. In the sixth book, Melvin debuts his latest invention, the Combine-o-Tron 2000, and showcases it to his classmates by combining his pet hamster Sulu with a robotic hamster body. He tries to get the newly-transformed bionic hamster to showcase his powers, but when Sulu refuses, Melvin threatens Sulu with violence, resulting in Sulu beating up Melvin. Melvin leaves the school in humiliation, leaving George and Harold to adopt Sulu as their own.

Soon after, Melvin falls victim to George and Harold's prank, the Squishy, and gets them into detention by tattling on them. The duo write a slanderous Captain Underpants comic about Melvin, much to Melvin's anger. Wishing to get revenge on George and Harold, Melvin creates a robotic human body with the intention of becoming a bionic boy and thus the most popular student at school. Due to his cat allergies, he sneezes and covers himself in his own mucus during the transformation, causing him to become the Bionic Booger Boy.

Melvin initially enjoys the benefits of his transformation, such as being the star football and volleyball player and having his personal water fountain. However, when flu season hits, Melvin begins to behave strangely. When the class visits a tissue factory, Melvin becomes a gigantic and evil monster as a reaction to the tissues, forcing George and Harold to turn Mr. Krupp into Captain Underpants to fight him. Though Captain Underpants manages to rescue Ms. Edith Anthrope during the attack, her sloppy, wet kisses revert him back to Mr. Krupp, and Melvin devours him. Melvin then goes for George and Harold, but Sulu arrives and battles Melvin. Melvin's parents soon arrive, and under George's suggestion, recalibrate the Combine-o-Tron and restore Melvin and Mr. Krupp to normal. However, Mr. Krupp and Melvin begin to act like each other, and the remnants of the Bionic Booger Boy become the Robo-Boogers and give chase to the group, destroying the Combine-o-Tron in the process.

In the seventh book, after Sulu subdues the three Robo-Boogers, George and Harold realize that Mr. Krupp and Melvin have switched brains. Mr. Krupp (now Kruppy the Kid) orders Melvin (now Mr. Melvin) to rebuild the Combine-O-Tron, but when Mr. Melvin claims the process could take six months, George suggests that Mr. Melvin build a time machine and acquire the Combine-O-Tron. Mr. Melvin, stricken with the idea, inadvertently transforms Kruppy the Kid into Captain Underpants and decides to get his original body back and gain Captain Underpants's powers. He orders George and Harold to make a comic that depicts him as cool.

The next day, after finding out that the comic George and Harold wrote about him does not fit his expectations, Mr. Melvin reveals his time machine, warning them of its side effects, and equips them with a mind eraser and a fake Combine-o-Tron. After some mishaps involving the librarian, Miss Singerbrains, and a pterodactyl they named Crackers, the duo retrieve the original Combine-o-Tron. Mr. Melvin tracks down Captain Underpants and gets their brains back in their original bodies. Meanwhile, the Robo-Boogers arrive at Uranus, latch on to a spaceship that was examining Uranus, and return to Earth. Captain Underpants, back in his original body, attempts to help, but finds that Melvin now has his powers. Melvin refuses to help unless George and Harold change the comic they wrote about him.

The trio vanquish the Robo-Boogers with Vitamin C, with Captain Underpants using a Squishy to finish the Robo-Boogers off. They are questioned by Eyewitness Crew, but Melvin dubs himself "Big Melvin" and begins to claim responsibility for subduing the Robo-Boogers. George and Harold reacquire the Combine-o-Tron and restore Captain Underpants's superpowers. A defeated Melvin is confronted and chased into the sunset by an angry mob of people that Captain Underpants had disrupted while in Melvin's body.

As revealed in the eleventh book, shortly after the events of the eighth book, the Turbo-Toilet returns from Uranus and disturbs Melvin's experiments. Melvin finds one of Mr. Krupp's toenails, uses it to acquire Captain Underpants's abilities (since the toenail has Mr. Krupp's DNA), and subdues the Turbo-Toilet. Once again known as Big Melvin, he basks in the fame of being a superhero, but he eventually becomes tired because citizens were calling him for minute problems. He tracks down George and Harold using a GPS in Sulu's robotic body, leading to him finding them in the tenth book and sending them back to the present in the eleventh book. He then warns them of the Toilet's return before disappearing. Melvin can be seen watching the teachers go crazy.

In book 12 Melvin was sitting next to Yesterday George and Harold who had been sprayed to behave Melvin admitted he was starting to like them now. It's unknown if Melvin was sprayed but if he was it's assumed after the story ended the effets wore off as they only last 24 hours. In a Dog-man book Melvin and Mr. Krupp end up chasing George and Harold who win an award.

In the Animated Series

Melvin appears an a major antagonist and sometimes an anti-hero in the TV show. In episode 12 of The Epic Tales of Captain Underpants, George and Harold are told by sentient gas cloud Smartsy Fartsy to steal Mr. Krupp's rule book, deliver it to school superintendent Vil Endenemys, and get Krupp fired.

in episode 13 Endenemys reveals that he is Melvin from the future. He fires Krupp, and expels George and Harold.

In the first episode of season 2, Melvin and Endenemys (who has become Melvin-Borg) succeeded in taking over Jerome Horwitz Elementary School (which has been renamed Melvin Sneedly Elementary) and replaced all the teachers with robots.

In episode 3 of season 2, Melvin-Borg uses bee DNA to turn the teachers into a hive-mind, but he injects too much into one teacher (Ms. Ribble), turning her into Queen Zombee.

In the film

In the film, Melvin appears as the secondary antagonist and the minion of Professor Poopypants. He first appears in the class room where tells George and Harold he told on them since someone has to stand up for Mr Krupp. During the Invention Convention, he debuts many inventions, concluding with the Turbo Toilet 2000. However, things go awry when George and Harold tamper with the Turbo Toilet 2000, reprogramming it to shoot out toilet papers. However, Melvin is able to catch them in the act thanks to another invention of his, the Tattle Turtle (a toy turtle with a nanny cam hidden inside). In order to get extra credit, Melvin turns over the Tattle Turtle's footage to Mr. Krupp, who then decides to put George and Harold in separate classes for the rest of the school year as punishment for their pranks and to annihilate their friendship.

Later, after Professor Poopypants is hired as the new science teacher, he notices that Melvin is the only student who never laughed at his silly name. After studying his brain, Poopypants discovers that Melvin's brain lacks a Haha-Guffaw-Chucklotamus, the gland that causes laughter, which is why he has no sense of humor. Upon making this discovery, Poopypants recruits Melvin to help rid the world of laughter. To do this, they turn the Turbo-Toilet into a giant mech, fueling it with rotten leftovers from the cafeteria and equipping it with a ray gun linked to Melvin's brain that erases humor.

Poopypants and Melvin attack the school and transform all the students (except George and Harold) into humorless zombies. Captain Underpants tries to stop them, but is quickly subdued due to not having any actual superpowers. While the Turbo Toilet is busy beating up Captain Underpants, George and Harold climb on top of the robot and try to reason with Melvin to get him to stop Poopypants. Melvin simply alerts Poopypants, who eventually manages to rob George and Harold of their humor. However, Poopypants accidentally restores their sarcastic sense of humor by saying "Uranus", which was the first thing that they had laughed at together. Meanwhile, Captain Underpants, having been swallowed whole by the Turbo Toilet, gains superpowers from the leftovers and defeats the Turbo-Toilet. Also, the ray gun explodes because Poopypants overloaded it with power, which restores everyone's sense of humor and sending Melvin falling to the ground. Though Melvin survives the fall, he is then crushed by toilet paper however he also survived that but then is accidentally rolled away by the kids. His fate is unknown, though since he survived it's possible he was punished for his actions. However, considering the kids rolled him away, the cops arrived after the chaos ended and were scared away by the bird and George and Harold never tell what happened to any adults not to mention a probable lack of evidence it's also likely Melvin got away scott-free.

Melvin: Oh, it's you idiots.

Vice: Who's this kid again?

Me: This is Melvin Sneedly. He's a genius but he has an ego the size of his brain. He's a major league jerk with a superiority complex as big as Mount Everest. He thinks he's so much better than everyone else because he is smarter than everyone else.

Vice: Ah I see.

George Beard: If Captain Underpants were here he would beat you up some more.

Melvin: You nincompoops! Captain Underpants isn't a true hero! For God's sake, he's a guy running around in his underwear!

Dolph: He can be naked for all we care. As long as he's helping people! (realizing what he said) That came out wrong, didn't it?

E-Honda: (Japanese Accent) I'd rather get that image out of my head.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: That is disturbing!

Harold Hutchins: Rainbow Dash you and the girls would love our comics we make. We are comic book writers. We make our own comic book series for a superhero we made named Captain Underpants.

Harold showed her a comic book they made. It was called Captain Underpants and the Attack of the Talking Toilets.

She read it and it was awesome and funny.

Rainbow Dash: These comics are amazing!

G1 Rampage: I know, right?

Me: Their comics are awesome.

Sunset Shimmer: They sure are. They are just as great as mine and Lincoln's comics and they are awesome.

Me: They sure are.

Nico was hearing the voices of Rotwood and his posse.

Melvin: (to Nico) Rotwood and his group are in your head, aren't they, Chan? (laughs) If that's the case, then I think you're going to make an excellent villain!

Me: Shut up Melvin.

Nico: I won't let them torment me as long as I have anything to say about it.

Kearney Jr.: Yeah!

Melvin: (to Kearney Jr) Why don't you come in here, brat? That way, I can show you the pain I've endured the last few years.

Kearney: (angrily) Hold me back, guys!

Me and Dolph held Kearney back.

Me: Easy Kearney. Easy. You all can pound the living crud out of him.

Jimbo Jones: Gladly!

Dolph: Lets get this nerd!

Kearney: Yeah!

They went into Melvin's Cell and smashed Melvin all over the place.

Bart: GO GUYS! GO!

Maria: I just realized that we haven't even fought any of Captain Underpants' enemies yet. Like Doctor Diaper and Turbo Toilet 2000.

G1 Slug: Me Slug will gladly fight walking toilet!

Me: Me too. And I agree. We haven't faced any of the villains of Captain Underpant's villains in a while.

Luan: Yeah we haven't done that in a long time since the Talking Socktopus.

Eddy: Yeah we sure haven't.

We later went to Equestria and there we recruited Applejack and Fluttershy's friend from the Peaks of Peril, Autumn Blaze who is one of the legendary Kirin - the Benevolent Spirits of Asian Myth that punish the wicked. We also recruited famous pop star of Equestria, Sapphire Shores. It was awesome!

---

We later went back to the estate and we were getting ready to go on another awesome adventure. We were getting ready to head to the world of The Land Before Time for another awesome adventure!

Autumn Blaze: I am so honored to be part of the Knights of the Friendship Table.

Twilight Sparkle: We are so honored you're now part of the team now Autumn Blaze.

Applejack: YEEHAW! It's gonna be so amazing having you with us.

Fluttershy: Absolutely.

Aylene C.: This is gonna be awesome.

Then Vypra, Robo-Blaze, Myotismon, Lord Drakkon, Captain Cold and Kaos appeared.

Me: Oh hey guys.

Nico: You guys already had your turn didn't you?

Robo-Blaze: We sure did.

Vypra: Is it ok if me, Robo Blaze, Drakkon, Myotismon, Captain Cold, and Kaos come with you guys?

Me: Sure Vypra. The more the merrier.

Nico: I'll try to control myself.

Me: Okay. Are we all set?

We all were ready.

Aylene C.: Awesome And I have someone coming with us.

Aylene's brother Derek came in.

Me: Hey Derek!

Derek C.: What's happening dude?

We fist bump and high five.

Me: Not much dude. We're going into the world of The Land Before Time for another awesome adventure.

Derek C.: Cool! I'm so honored to join you guys.

Me: I'm glad you could come with us.

Rainbow Dash: As long as it's not like the world of 2020's Primal.

Me: Don't worry there are no Zombie Dinosaurs there.

Shaun: Good.

Aylene C.: Okay. PORTAL OPEN!

A portal appeared from Aylene's Time Stone and we went right through it.

---

We then see the Planet Earth as it was 3.5 billion years ago and life was starting to flourish in the ocean.

Narrator: A long time ago, at least 3,500 million years ago, the earliest form of life, made its first appearance on earth. These single-celled creatures developed and grew, and changed a million times over.

[the fish swims, then swimming up, looking at the water]

Narrator: Until at last, there was a creature able to leave the sea, and to crawl out into an unknown world.

[the creature gets out of the water, sniffing, then he continues walking, then diving in]

Narrator: From this small, fish-like creature, came hundreds of other animals.

[they all run by]

Narrator: The mightiest of which was called, the dinosaur!

[the dinosaur growls, then they walk by]

DINOSAURS! The Great Reptiles once roamed the Earth millions of years ago!

Narrator: For most of the earth's dinosaurs, life was filled with danger. But for the fortunate leaf-eating dinosaurs of the Great Valley, life was peaceful, and food plentiful. The Great Valley was the perfect place for children, like Littlefoot, the long neck, Cera, the three-horn, Ducky, the swimmer, Petrie, the flyer, Chomper, the Sharptooth, Ruby, the Fast-Runner, and Spike, the spike-tail, to grow and learn and play.

We arrived in the Great Valley.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to the Great Valley, 112 million years ago.

Eli: WHOA! This is so cool!

Nunnally: It's so beautiful!

Emerald Susatrai: So this is where you guys met Aylene?

Me: Yep. But we met Aylene out to the east far from here.

Nico: I remember you telling me about that.

Derek C.: Wow. So that is how you met my sister.

Me: Yep. It was really awesome.

Lori: It was literally so amazing.

Lynn: Yeah man!

Myotismon: (to Derek) You're gonna love seeing us in action, Derek.

Derek C.: I can't wait.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: Look there they are.

We saw Littlefoot and his friends all playing.

Eli: Wow!

Littlefoot: I got it!

Petrie: Now me got it! [tries to kick a rock]

Ducky: Go, Spike!

Ruby grabbed the rock with her feet and knocked it to Spike!

Ruby: (Laughs) Yeah!

Chomper: This is so much fun!

[Spike and Ducky land on a rock]

Ducky: Did you get it, Spike? Did you, huh? [Spike gets up]

Ruby: He got it all right.

Ducky: [repeated line, giggling] Yep, yep, yep! You got it!

Cera: I found another one! I found another one! [laughing]

Me: Hey guys!

Littlefoot and everyone saw us.

Littlefoot: Hey guys!

Lea: Hey there, Littlefoot!

Me: Been a while since we were here huh?

Cera: It sure feels like it huh.

Ducky: Yeah it has been a while.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: You guys look like you're having fun kicking a rock.

Littlefoot: We sure are. Want to try?

Me: Sure.

Littlefoot: Who's this with you Aylene?

Kaos: Littlefoot, let us introduce you to Derek, Aylene's brother.

Derek C.: It's a pleasure to meet you all.

Littlefoot: Same here Derek. Aylene told us so much about you.

Derek C.: I had a feeling she did.

I kicked the rock and Littlefoot went after it

[Littlefoot runs to get the rock, then Mutt stops it with his foot, then looking at Hyp, Nod, and Mutt]

We saw the local bully trio of the Great Valley: Hyp the Hypsilophodon and his friends Mutt the Muttaburrasaurus and Nod the Nodosaurus!

Aylene C.: Oh great.

Littlefoot: Hi, Hyp. Can we have our rock back, please?

Hyp: Your rock? Who said it was your rock?

Nod: Yeah, who said it was your rock, huh? Who said? Who said?
Mutt: Oh! Ah, yeah!

Littlefoot: Well, gee, no one. We were just playing with it. Cera: So give it back, Hyp.

Me: And he did say it was their rock!

Hyp: But I didn't hear you say please!

Cera: That's because I didn't! [growls at Hyp, then they growl]

Me: (ROAR!)

Hyp and his friends backed away scared.

Aylene C. You guys are total jerks.

Nico: Yeah!

Littlefoot: Hey, maybe we can all play together!

Petrie: Good idea, Littlefoot. We all play!

Ducky: [repeated line] Yep, yep, yep. The more the "betterer"! [Spike nods]

Laney: I wouldn't trust them.

Hyp: What do you think, guys? Want to play with these babies?

Cera: Babies? Who's he calling babies?

Ducky: Us?

Petrie: Hmph! Me no baby! [inhales] Me big!

Hyp: Yeah, a big baby!

Petrie: [exhales, then they all laugh] Me no like them.

Me: (GROWLS)

Cera: Me neither. I'll show 'em!

Littlefoot: Cera!

Cera: I'm busy. [run in a bush by Hyp, Nod, and Mutt]

Mutt: Nyah! Nyah!

Hyp: Try and get us! Yeah, yeah, try!

Robo Blaze: How about you guys back off?

Hyp: Or what?

Robo Blaze: Tronics!

Several Tronics appeared alongside us, scaring Hyp and his goons.

Robo Blaze: (smirks) Still want to continue bothering Littlefoot and his friends?

Me: I didn't think you could summon Tronics this far into the past.

Robo Blaze: I didn't know I could do that either.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: But if I were you three, I would back away slowly.

[Cera walks by Hyp, Nod, and Mutt, then they hear a rumble]

Me: Uh oh!

Mutt: Whoa! What's that? It's a-a-a…

Cera: AN EARTHQUAKE! AAAAAAAAAAAGHH!

We saw meteors falling from the sky!

Petrie: Rocks fly?

Me: IT'S A METEOR SHOWER!

Hyp: AAHHH! [the fire comets continue falling down]

Then we saw a huge meteor fall and it went behind a mountain and slammed into the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Then we all scream, then we run away, with a bunch of rocks falling down]

Cera: Daddy!

Ducky: Mama!

Littlefoot: Mother! Grandma! Grandpa! [the rocks continue falling down]

Mother Quezalcoatlus: Fly, children! Fly! [they all fly away]

Iguanadon: Run!

Sona: Littlefoot!

We got to Littlefoot's family!

Grandma: Littlefoot! [Littlefoot pants, then they all gasp]

We arrived.

Grandpa: Look out! [the tree lands]

I formed a force field and protected us.

Grandma: Littlefoot!

Littlefoot: I'm in here, Grandma.

Littlefoot was hiding in a tree.

Grandma: [to Littlefoot] Are you all right, little one?

Grandpa: Would you like to come out now?

Littlefoot: Gee, that wasn't a regular kinda earthquake was it?

Grandpa: No, Littlefoot, it wasn't.

Littlefoot: Then what kind was it?

Grandma: We don't know, Littlefoot. Perhaps it had to do with those great rocks falling from the sky.

Littlefoot: Oh, yeah! I saw 'em! And I saw that big one land somewhere in the Mysterious Beyond. I sure wish we could go find it.

Me: Me too. But that was an asteroid shower. Thank goodness that wasn't as big as the Chicxulub Asteroid.

Nico: Yeah thank goodness.

Sona: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: No kidding but thank goodness we're all okay.

Rainbow Dash: No kidding.

Me: But finding an asteroid like that would be something.

Grandpa: Yes, that would be an adventure, now wouldn't it?

Sona: Yes it would.

Grandma: Well, I think we've had enough adventure for one day. Come. It's time to settle down for the night. [walks away]

Me: Yeah you're right.

We saw the sky illuminated with Aurorae.

Nico: Wow.

Littlefoot: It's beautiful, isn't it, Grandpa?

Grandpa: Oh, yes, Littlefoot, beautiful and mysterious, as is so much in our world. Well, at least the danger has passed.

Me: The Aurora is so beautiful.

Laney: It sure is.

Lincoln: It so beautiful.

We got to resting.

[cut to the dinosaurs by the water, with Littlefoot walking by in the water, looking at the fish, swimming away, laughing]

Me: So much fun!

We were having fun in the water. But then we heard the water in the waterfall slow to a stop and we looked and we saw the Waterfall stopping!

Me: UH OH!

Ducky's Mom: What?! Look, everyone! Where did the water go?

Stegosaurus: It stopped flowing!

Male Dinosaur 1: How can that be?

Male Dinosaur 2: What will we do without water?

Me: This is too weird. Why would the main waterfall into the Great Valley stop like that?

Nico: Boy no clue.

Littlefoot: Grandpa, why did the Thundering Falls stop?

Grandpa: I don't know, Littlefoot. I don't know.

Grandma: Littlefoot, go and play. Aylene, you and everyone go have fun. Sina, Grandpa and I must talk with the other grown-ups.

Me: Okay.

Littlefoot: Sure, Grandma. [walks away] See ya later, Grandpa. By Mother.

We went with Littlefoot.

Male Dinosaur 3: This has never happened before! [they all chatter]

We found Ducky and the others.

Littlefoot: Hey, guys! [Ducky gets in the hole]

Me: Hey guys! Something big is going on!

Littlefoot: Guess what happened to the Thundering Falls.

Ducky: Shh! We are trying to find Cera. She has "hided" from us.

Littlefoot: But…

Petrie: Uh! Me no find Cera anywhere!

Littlefoot: Guess what, Petrie?

Petrie: What? You no find Cera either?

Ducky: Cera is a very good hider. She is!

Cera: [peeks out] Boo! [we all gasp, then Ducky falls down, then Petrie flies away]

Me: WHOA!

Cera: I scared you! I scared you! I did!

Luan: (Laughs) You got us good Cera.

Lucy Loud: And I thought I was the only one capable of doing that.

Petrie: You no scared me, Cera. Me "unscare-able."

Littlefoot: Petrie? You're hurting my nose.

Petrie: Oh, sorry. Me no know my own strength. [flies off of Littlefoot]

Cera: Now who's going to hide? Littlefoot?

Littlefoot: Okay, but first I wanna tell you something.

Cera: Well, hurry it up! We wanna play!

Littlefoot: I saw… [Spike walks away] Littlefoot: Hey!

Me: Oh Spike. (Laughs)

Ducky: [giggling] Spike is taking your turn for you, Littlefoot. [they all laugh, then Spike continues walking, eating grass]

Ducky: [laughing, pointing at Spike] My brother is not a very good hider. Oh, no!

Cera: Now just what were going to say, Littlefoot?

Littlefoot: It's the Thundering Falls. It's not giving us any water.

Me: Yeah something has caused the entire waterfall to stop flowing!

Cera: What!?

Littlefoot: You gotta come see. [they all walk down]

Hyp: Why don't you hatchlings go run and see.

Nod: Yeah, run and see. Run and see! [Hyp grins at Mutt]

Mutt: Oh. Bah, yeah!

Aylene C.: Don't you three ever get tired of picking on us?

Me: Yeah can't you three bozos ever take a hint? We deal with enough problems with bullies already.

Flurry Heart: Yeah!

Hyp: You better take that back!

Cera: Try and make us!

Ducky: No, Cera, no!

Cera: Oh, don't worry. I won't hurt 'em much! [sticks tongue out, then Nod sticks tongue out]

Hyp: Put those away.

Littlefoot: How come all you ever wanna do is fight, Hyp?

Petrie: Yeah! Fight! [the rock fights Petrie, then falling down on Littlefoot] Ow! Fighting hurt.

Mutt: Yeah, it does give ya "ow-ees," Hyp. Why do we do it?

Hyp: Why? Why?! Because we're bigger. And bigger is smarter! Bigger is meaner! And bigger is better!

Me: Size never matters.

Aylene C.: That's right.

["When You're Big" begins]

Hyp: [singing] When you're big, you can push all the little ones around. They're lookin' up while you are looking down. You can snap a tree in two like it was just a twig. Things are better when you're big.

All: [singing] When you're big.

Hyp: [singing] You can do anything you want to do.

Mutt: [singing] Wah-oh.

Hyp: [singing] All the rules that grownups make, they don't apply to you.

Both: [singing] Not to you.

Hyp: [singing] You can splash in all the puddles, gulp, slurp, and swig.

Both: [singing] Oh, wah.

Hyp: [singing] The world is better when you're big.

Both: [singing] Glug, glug, glug.

Hyp: [singing] You can snort.

Both: [singing] You can snort.

Hyp: [singing] You can growl.

Both: [singing] You can growl.

Hyp: [singing] You can stomp.

Both: [singing] You can stomp.

Hyp: [singing] You can howl.

Both: [singing] You can howl.

Hyp: [singing] You can bonk someone smaller on the head.

Both: [singing] On the head. [scat]

Hyp: [singing] You can take what you want, play all day in the swamp. And you never ever have to go to bed.

All: [singing] When you're big.

Hyp: [singing] You can step on little people's toes.

Both: [singing] Oh, wah.

Hyp: [singing] Munch on their lunch.

Nod: [singing] Lunch.

Hyp: [singing] And bop them in the nose.

Both: [singing] Oh, yeah.

Hyp: [singing] Threehorns, and longnecks, and duck feet, too.

Both: [singing] Duck feet, too.

Hyp: [singing] They all have to do anything you want them to.

Both: [singing] You want them to.

Hyp: [singing] And if they don't, you can plop them…

All: [singing]… in the goo!

Hyp: [singing] Don't you forget. [Mutt growls at Littlefoot]

Hyp: [singing] What you want, you get. [Nod growls at Cera]

Hyp: [singing] Things are better when you're big.

Both: [singing] Sha la la la la la la la la la la la la.

Hyp: [singing] When you're big.

Both: [singing] Sha la la la la la la la la la la la la.

Hyp: [singing] When you're big.

Both: [singing] Sha la la la la la la la la la la la la.

Hyp: [singing] When you're big!

Littlefoot: But, Hyp, when you're all grown up, you won't be very big at all.

Me: That's right!

Cera: Yeah, your kind never gets very big. When we grow up, we'll be much bigger!

Ducky: Uh-huh, uh-huh, much, much, much, much bigger!

Hyp: Oh, yeah? Well, I'm gonna see to it that you never grow up.

Mutt: Ah, yeah!

Nod: Never grow up! Never!

Aylene C.: Is that a threat?

Hyp: You better believe it is!

Nico then jumped on Hyp and grabbed his arm and then snapped his arm.

Nico: (to Hyp) The next time you pick on Littlefoot, I'll break the other one.

Hyp: The other what?

The next thing Hyp knew, Nico broke his left arm as he screamed in pain.

Zuko: (shocked) Ok, I did not see that coming!

Me: Oh no!

I went over and stopped Nico.

Me: Nico he's not worth it. Let him go.

Nod: He's crazy!

Nico: Huh? What happened?

Me: Rotwood and his influence. Try to hang in there man. We'll figure something out.

Nico: Sorry guys.

[Spike hides in a bush, eating a leaf, then blowing wind away]

Grandpa: As you can all see, our valley is quickly drying up.

Stegosaurus: Yes, we see it and feel it as well. There is less and less water to drink!

Iguanadon: And green food to eat!

Grandpa: I know. That is why our herds must work together, to save the little water we have left. From now on, we must drink only what we need to survive and no more. Hopefully soon, the Thundering Falls will bring us water again. If not, we may have to leave the Great Valley.

Ducky's Mom: Leave the Great Valley!?

Iguanadon: Never! It's our home.

Grandpa: Then until the water returns, we must not use the water we have left unwisely.

Cera's Dad: Hmph! Three-horns never use water unwisely, but your herds do.

Sina: That's enought Mr. Threehorn.

Kosh: OUR herds? What makes you think our herds would do such a thing?

Cera's Dad: You drink greedily with no concern for other.

Stegosaurus: Can you believe he's saying that?! [they all chatter]

Kosh: Well, I've seen three-horn's waste!

Cera's Dad: What?!

Kosh: You take long baths even if you're the least bit dirty! And I've seen your kind waste too. Splashing water needlessly. For shame!

Iguanadon: Impossible! I never did such a thing! [they all chatter.[

[Then Cera runs on a water, laughing, then they both play in the water, then getting out]

We were running and having fun.

Me: Yeah!

Lincoln: Love this!

Cera: Hey, let's play bullies. I'll be Hyp. [imitates Hyp, jumping to get Littlefoot] I'm gonna get you!

Me: (Snickers)

Aylene C.: So funny.

Derek C.: Yeah.

Littlefoot: [imitates Mutt] Not if I get you first! [she gasps, then laughs, then they both run to Spike, and Petrie]

Petrie: Me wanna play bullies too! [imitates Nod] Hey, hatchling! You no eat my green food! [Spike squirts at Petrie, spitting out, laughing] Hmph! Me go play bullies someplace else! Yeow! [falls in the water]

Ducky: Petrie, you are a flyer, not a swimmer. [laughing]

Petrie: Me no bully either. [sighing]

Hyp: But I am! [they all look at Hyp, Nod, and Mutt]

Littlefoot: Aww!

Cera: Not again.

Ducky: Oh, no, no, no, no, no!

Petrie: It them.

Hyp: Thought you hatchlings could play in our swimming hole, huh?

Me: Can't you bozos go bother someone else for a change!?

Rainbow Dash: Yeah or I'm gonna finish what Nico started!

Cera: They're beginning to get on my nerves.

Me: Me too.

Laney: I'm really starting to get annoyed with them.

Lori had them being filmed on her cell phone.

Nod: Can we teach 'em a lesson, Hyp? Can we, huh?

Hyp: Be my guest, Nod! [pushes Nod, splashing in the water, screaming, then they gasp]

Littlefoot: RUN!

Me: Dive Aside!

[they all run away, then Nod lands on the water, with Littlefoot ducking, then splashing at Cera's Dad, then they all laugh, then Nod runs away]

Mutt: See ya!

Hyp: Wouldn't wanna be ya! [Littlefoot shakes the water off]

Cera's Dad: This is not funny. Now someone splashed me and wasted precious water!

Littlefoot: Huh?

Ducky: [to Littlefoot] Littlefoot, are you all right?

Littlefoot: Uh-huh. But I think I'm in trouble.

Cera's Dad: Your Littlefoot is guilty of wasting water.

Grandpa: What happened, Littlefoot?

Littlefoot: It was an accident, Granpda. Honest.

Me: He's telling the truth Grandpa Longneck. It was all because of Hyp and his friends.

Lori: It's true.

Lori showed them the evidence.

Silo: That son of mine is no good!

Me: Hey stop that!

Nico: Yeah we have bigger problems. Punish him later.

Grandpa: Our children don't understand the water problem. The Great Valley has always given them everything they need.

Cera: What are the grown-ups talking about? What water problem? Isn't the Thundering Falls coming back?

Littlefoot: I don't know.

Cera: Well, it should. Why wouldn't it?

Ducky: Maybe it is tired and needs to rest. [Littlefoot puts his front feet up]

Me: I don't think waterfalls work that way Ducky.

Grandpa: We need to teach our children how to use the remaining water wisely.

Me: That's right. In this time of crisis we have to work together.

Nico: That's right.

Vince: Yeah and besides we have to figure out what caused the water to stop flowing and fix it.

Aylene C.: That's right. We helped Littlefoot and friends get back together during that massive earthquake and we can help you all like we did before.

Lincoln: That's right.

Fu: We won't let the same thing that happened as you all were traveling here be repeated.

Nico: That's right.

Me: Lets all be calm and talk about what to do while we figure something out.

Nico: Yeah.

---

Later the next morning.

[the grandparents walk by Littlefoot]

Grandma: Time to wake up, my little one.

Sina: Morning my son.

Littlefoot: But, Grandma, it's early and I'm still sleepy.

Grandpa: You must get up, Littlefoot, if you want to drink the morning dew with us.

Littlefoot: The morning dew?

Grandpa: Yes. It collects on the leaves in the early morning. [pushes Littlefoot] If we hurry, we can drink the dew, before the bright circle gets too high in the sky and dries it all up.

Me: Good idea. I'm thirsty.

Nico: Me too.

Littlefoot: Oh. [yawning] All right. [walks down]

Grandpa: [takes a tree star to Littlefoot] Here, Littlefoot, drink this. I think you'll find it delicious.

We saw the water collect in a tree star and I picked it up and drank it.

Me: (Slurps) Ahh! So delicious.

Laney: That was really great water.

Lori: Literally refreshing.

Littlefoot saw his reflection in a tree star.

Littlefoot: [slurps, then taking a bite of a tree star and it shattered apart and broke. The water evaporated.] Oops. It-It broke.

Grandma: It's not your fault, Littlefoot. The treestars are very dry now and crumble easily.

Littlefoot: [sighs] But when will everything be green and wet again, Grandma?

Grandma: I don't know. I hope soon. [they both walk down]

Littlefoot: Derek, there's something I think you should know.

Derek C.: What is it?

Littlefoot: Remember when we told you about Sharptooth chasing us?"

Derek C.: Yeah.

Littlefoot: Well, there are some details we didn't tell you. During our first encounter with the T-Rex, I got caught in some vines when we were escaping through a thorn bush. Sharptooth almost had me in his jaws and there was nothing I could do to get away. Aylene could've saved herself, but instead she ran back and cut me free. I could tell she was scared out of her mind, but she still came back to help."

Me: It's true. Aylene is a very brave girl. She has been through so much.

Littlefoot: Yeah. And during our second encounter, I was caught again, [the Apatosaurus gazed across the Valley with a dazed look, recalling the past] Only this time it was right under Sharptooth's foot. He was going to end me right then and there, but Aylene gathered up all her courage and shot at him, allowing me to escape. Then when we had our final fight with him, Sharptooth was going to knock her off her rock, but I hit him with a rock. When he came after me, Aylene shot him just in time."

The human stared at the longneck with his face becoming even more surprised.

Me: And we were there man. You should've seen it. Aylene shot Sharptooth right through his black heart. She is a really brave girl.

Lincoln: Yeah it was incredible.

Fu: It was something we would never forget.

Derek C.: Wow.

Me: Yeah. But we also found out that ever since we killed Sharptooth, other carnivorous dinosaurs are gonna come after us like a pack of ravenous wolves.

Drakkon: So because you guys killed Sharptooth, other dinosaurs want to kill you guys?

Me: Yeah. But that's why we have to be vigilent and be ready for them.

Nico: Yeah.

Derek: I had no idea.

Littlefoot: I'm saying this because at the start of the adventure, she didn't look as if she would have the courage to stand up to that monster. But somewhere along the line, she changed. Rooter did say that she would find her courage someday, and I think she found it when she saw that we were in danger.

Derek C.: I… didn't know that.

Littlefoot: Yeah and I think the reason why Aylene was being so aggressive before she was introduced to the whole team was because she was trying to show you she could take care of herself. But… because she's been protecting us for so long, I think she's forgotten what it feels like to be protected. It's actually a pretty good feeling knowing someone is looking out for you, but she rarely gets to experience it because she's always protecting us.

Me: That's right. I love all my family myself and I would gladly protect them no matter what. You do what you can for Aylene because she is your sister and I respect that.

Nico: That's right. I'm a big brother myself and I know how you feel.

Derek C.: I guess so, I just wish she would understand why I worried so much about her. And it's not just me who's worried about her; mom and dad and our grandparents are concerned, too.

Littlefoot: It's because you're all family. I understand. I know Mother, Grandma and Grandpa worry about me because they care. And I can always talk to them if I have a problem. But Aylene seems to be missing someone to lean on when times get rough, she's just too proud to admit it. I know she has the 7 of us and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm, but I don't think it's the same. She's strong, but even she needs somebody to lean on. You know, someone to help her fight.

Me: Like Brain Freezer or us.

Derek looked at Littlefoot with a slightly surprised expression.

Derek C.: Are you sure you're a kid?

Littlefoot: Yeah, why?

Littlefoot raised an eyebrow in confusion.

Derek C.: Because your very insightful for your age.

Me: Yeah that's very wise for someone your age Littlefoot.

Littlefoot: I just try to pay attention.

The longneck gave a small smile.

The human chuckled a little.

Derek C.: You know something, Littlefoot [he scratched the back of the longneck's head] you're alright.

Littlefoot: Thanks. [Littlefoot laughed] so are you."

At that moment, We all heard a soft crunch and looked down. The Apatosaurus had stepped on a dried up leaf and it crumbled right under his paw. Derek knelt down and examined it as Littlefoot backed up slightly. We saw it too and while leaves in the Great Valley did crumple sometimes when dinosaurs stepped on them, it wasn't usually like this. The leaf was crushed into a million tiny pieces, or at least it looked like a million pieces.

Me: Whoa these leaves are all tinder dry.

Derek C.: I was afraid of this.

Littlefoot: Afraid of what?

Me: The valley is drying up faster than we first thought.

Lori: Yeah.

Derek C.: Because the Thundering Falls has stopped flowing, the Valley is becoming as dry as a bone. Water is becoming more and more scarce and the leafs are starting to get overheated by the sun. Not to mention the air is dry and it hasn't rained for a while. This is just about the time for a forest fire to most likely strike.

Littlefoot: A Forest Fire.

Derek C.: Yeah, and we're going to need escape paths in case that happens.

Me: Unless we find out what is causing the Thundering Falls to stop, the whole valley is gonna be a tinder box.

Nico: Yeah.

Littlefoot: Well, what's going to happen if it's not soon?

Grandpa: Water will get harder and harder to find. Soon, everything will be as dry as that treestar.

Grandma: And it will be easier for fires to start. Which is why you must remember the escape paths we've shown you.

Littlefoot: Don't worry, Grandma. I'll remember. [the fish swim in the water, jumping out of the water, then jumping back in, swimming, then they all walk down, then the lizard climbs up, with the rock falling down in the water]

Grandma: I think we're in luck. There are still quite a few green treestars left here.

Me: Looks like this part is not dry yet.

Grandpa: Come on, then. Let's eat!

Littlefoot: Yeah, let's eat! [runs by the tree, sniffing at the leaves] These don't look too good, but I sure am hungry. [tries to takes the leaves, then blowing away] [Grandma and Grandpa take the tree stars to Littlefoot, eating]

Me: These leaves are too dry.

Littlefoot: [spitting out] Uh! They taste terrible!

Sina: I know.

Grandpa: [looks at the tree] Here, Littlefoot, try these. They're still very green. [takes a branch to Littlefoot]

Me: Those are perfect.

Littlefoot: Thanks, Grandpa.

Grandma: Go on, Littlefoot, eat up.

Littlefoot: But… But what about you? Don't you want some?

Grandma: Thank you, Littlefoot. But Grandpa and I will be fine.

Grandpa: Yes, you're still growing. You need the very best green food we can find.

Laney: Absolutely.

Littlefoot: Well, okay. [takes a leaf, eating, then eating another one] That was good, but I sure am thirsty. When is it our turn for water?

Grandma: Our turn for water is when the sun touches the volcano.

Me: That's not for at least a couple more hours.

Grandpa: But if you're thirsty, I think you can have a drink now. After all, we never agreed that the children should have the same water restrictions as the elders.

Me: That's a relief.

Littlefoot: Oh, boy! Water!

Me: That's good.

At the river we were stopped by Cera's dad.

Cera's Dad: It's not your time to drink, long necks! Grandpa: What do you mean, not our time?

Cera's Dad: We agreed that all herds must take turns drinking at the watering hole.

Grandpa: Yes, we all agreed, but I didn't think that it included the children. It really isn't fair to them.

Cera's Dad: There IS no fair when it comes to survival! ["Standing Tough" begins, then Kosh drinks water]

Cera's Dad: [singing] When life is tough, you gotta be tougher. If you wanna stay alive, when the trail gets rough, you gotta get rougher. To help your family survive, you can run around in circles. Wondering what to do, someone's gotta be the voice of reason. Is it you, or you, or you? When things around us are going bad, we all better be strong. We could lose everything we have, if this goes on too long. Don't stand around here talking! I say that's not enough. No tears, no sighs, don't close your eyes. We gotta stand tough. I used to hear my father say, "Stand and fight, don't run away." He made me what I am today. I'm here. And I'm tough. When times are hard, you better be harder. You don't know what's in store. You think you're smart? You gotta be smarter than you ever were before. You say I'm mean, you say why bother? Well, I have a daughter and I'm her father. I'm gonna make sure we all have water enough, that's why I'm tough. I'm standing tough! We've got to stand tough! You don't like it? Tough.

Derek C.: You are not being reasonable Threehorn! You're just being mean!

Lincoln: Yeah!

But then we saw something shocking!

Nico just blasted Cera's dad with Shendu's fire breath, knocking him to the ground.

Cera's dad: What's the meaning of this?!

Nico walked up to him and started punching him mercilessly.

Cera saw this.

Cera: Nico, stop! That's my dad you're hurting!

Maria: (stops Cera) Cera, no! It's not safe!

Nico ended the assault with me using Overload's electricity to zap Cera's dad, making him scream in pain. After that, Nico formed his hand into one of Shiv's light blades and pointed it at Cera's dad's throat.

Cera's dad: (tears in his eyes) Please! Have mercy!

Nico: (smirks sadistically) Sorry. All out of mercy.

Squidward hallucination: That's it! Make him suffer!

Frown Hallucination: He's no better than the asshole who destroyed your planet and people!

Morton Hallucination: Put him out of his misery!

Shocker: (points gauntlets at Nico) NICO, DON'T!

Nico (looks at Shocker and laughs) You really think you can kill me, Herman?

Shocker: I'm warning you, Nico. Let him go!

Nico: Or what?

Shocker: Don't make me kill you. Not over him.

Nico: Don't make me laugh. Before you even joined us, you barely killed anyone at all.

Shocker: I won't let you throw your life away, Nico!

Nico: Give me one reason why I shouldn't end this scumbag right now!

Shocker: Because the universe needs you. And so does May and your kids!

Nico returned to his senses.

Me: It's Rotwood and his cronies. Nico, let me, Jake, SpongeBob, Unikitty, and Fluttershy go into your mind and talk to Rotwood and his group. I'm gonna try to talk some sense into them.

Nico: Okay. I'm sorry.

Me: It's not your fault. Now hold still.

I placed my hand on his head and Jake, Unikitty, Fluttershy and SpongeBob put their hands on my shoulders and we concentrated and we went into Nico's head.

Me, Jake Long, SpongeBob, Unikitty and Fluttershy appear inside Nico's head and we were standing before Rotwood and his gang.

Rotwood: Mr. J.D. Knudson and Jake Long. What an unpleasant surprise.

Me: We aim to please.

Squidward: (WITH EXTREME HATRED) SPONGEBOB!

Master Frown: Princess Unikitty!

Jake Long: Mr. Rotwood I don't understand you. Why are you doing all this?

Rotwood: Why? Because you ruined our lives!

Me: Because you've let these monsters overtake you! You have the potential to do so much good in the world!

Unikitty: That's right! You have the power to do great things in the world for good!

Fluttershy: I most agree.

Squidward: And why should we do that!?

Fluttershy then used the stare on them and scared them bad!

Nico: J.D. how did you guys get in here?

Me: We'll explain later.

Unikitty: Yeah. Right now we have to talk to these four.

Me: Squidward I don't understand you. Why do you hate SpongeBob so much? He is just a happy guy and a great friend to be with. Sure he might be annoying at times but he is a great friend to all. Why can't you see that?

Squidward: Because he has been the bane of my existence ever since he moved in next door to me!

Me: You don't really mean that do you? You are just underappreciated because the people of Bikini Bottom make you sad and depressed because of lack of appreciation for your talents.

Squidward: DON'T PLAY PSYCHOANALYST WITH ME!

Me: You know I'm right.

Unikitty: And Frown why are you in such a foul mood all the time?

Master Frown: Because I'm always treated like a big fat joke!

Me: So you are comic relief too. There are lots of villains that are used as comic relief you know and you aren't the only one. Just ask the Toiletnator and The Box Ghost. Danny Phantom and the Kids Next Door treated them like that.

Frown: Really? Never thought of that.

Me: Brad have you ever once thought that maybe you're being a bully because you're hurting inside from some painful ordeal you went through?

Brad Morton: (Sighs) You're right J.D. My mom hates me. She is a raging alcoholic. (Crying) SHE HATES ME MORE THAN LIFE ITSELF AND I VENT OUT MY HATRED ON WEAKER PEOPLE TO SHOW MY SUPERIORITY!

Fluttershy: Oh you poor thing!

Me: Oh man! Brad I'm sorry.

Jake Long: I didn't know you were going through all that.

Nico: I didn't know about that either. I thought you were like that because of hatred.

Me: Me too. But it's not too late for all 4 of you. You can still do the right thing and help people.

Rotwood: You know what? Fine. We'll leave Nico's body and go back to the Warp. But at least we'll get the last laugh by denying you all any chance of changing our ways!

Me: No Rotwood! It's not too late for you all to start down the right path and redeem yourselves. You can be better people. The reason we made you all laughingstocks was because we didn't get a chance to talk it out. We were still adjusting to being a team.

Unikitty: That's right.

Jake Long: Yeah and it's a very stressful job.

Fluttershy: But me and my friends can help you all and help you to become better people and keep you all in line.

Nico: That's right.

Me: And I know there is good in you. You never meant to do any of all this. Because my religion wants me to do this. Rotwood, everyone, I forgive you.

Nico: I do too.

We agreed.

Rotwood and the group were crying hard and they were happy.

Jake Long: How did you guys even find yourselves in Nico's brain?!

Rotwood: Well, we knew that we were going to meet our end at the hands of the Curse of the Cobra. So while Mr. Chan was beating May up thanks to our Fear Gas, we used our Dark Orb to secretly plant a piece of our minds into his brain.

Me: That's very sneaky. No wonder my scanners were picking up a

Dark Orb inside you Nico.

Morton: You know, if the four of us continued to be in Nico's body, it would've been similar to an awesome plot a video game! (sighs) So much for that, huh?

Frown: But you should probably have us sent to one of your prisons first. Because I don't think the rest of your friends will be as understanding as you are.

Me: Noted Frown. And that will be done.

I snapped my fingers and resurrected them and teleported them to the Neptune prison.

Nico: WHOO! Thank you so much J.D. You are a really true friend.

Me: I would do anything to help you out brother.

We left Nico's mind and he was free.

Nico: (Gasp) I'm free! You guys! You did it.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Oh my God. I got to talk to Cera's dad.

Nico went and did so.

Nico: Cera's dad, are you all right?

Cera's dad: Yeah.

Nico: I'm so sorry I tried to kill you. I wasn't myself.

Cera's Dad: I understand Nico. J.D. warned me about this. And you are right. I am being really mean and unreasonable. But I can't help it.

Me: Really?

Cera's Dad: Yes. I understand that I can be stubborn at times. And I apologize for that. But I did nothing to warrant any of you trying to kill me!

Nico: (sighs) I'm very sorry, Cera's Dad. It's just that I haven't been feeling like myself lately.

Charmcaster: It's true. And that's all we're going to say on the matter.

Nico: Yeah.

Nico saw a list in his pocket.

Nico: What's this? (reads the list) Oh my God! This is a list of villains Rotwood and his group were going to visit if they stayed in my body!

Me: Let me see.

I read it.

Me: Whoa! Lots of villains! We'll worry about this later. Right now we have to figure out what is going on. Lets go. We're gonna head out for a bit everyone. We have work to do in finding out what is going on.

Sina: Okay. Be careful.

We walk away.

Grandpa: You judge us wrongly, three-horn.

Cera's Dad: I'm only doing what needs to be done.

Grandma: But this is going too far.

Cera: Oh! What are we gonna do about the grown-ups, guys? They're acting like babies!

Littlefoot: I know.

Me: Well it's a time of crisis. Water resources are limited now.

Cera: And it's all the Thundering Falls' fault too! If we had more water, this wouldn't be happening.

Me: Well something has caused the water to stop flowing and we need to find out what it is.

Littlefoot: That's it, J.D.!

Cera: What's it?

Littlefoot: Water! If we find some, the grown-ups will stop being mad.

Cera: Maybe. Except for my dad. He's always mad.

Littlefoot: Yeah, he is kind of grumpy. But I'm sure it's just because he's so worried about the water.

Me: Yeah trying to get through to him is like trying to get through a block of reinforced concrete.

Edd: Good analogy.

Aylene C.: Yeah.

Cera: Yeah. Anyway, let's go get Petrie, Ducky, Ruby, Chomper and Spike and find some water!

Me: Lets do it!

We were off.

Grandpa: How about a compromise?

Cera's Dad: No! We must be firm.

Grandma: Can't we agree on anything?

Later that night we were having a meeting at a hiding spot.

Littlefoot: Are we all here?

Ducky: [repeated line] Yep, yep, yep. We are all here. Oh, no, we are not! Where's Spike?

Cera: Well, don't ask me. He's not my brother.

Ducky: Oh, Spike! Where are you, little brother? [hears Spike snoring]

Petrie: What that? It sound like monster!

Ducky: Do not worry, Petrie. That is not a monster. That is Spike.

Petrie: Spike? Ducky: That is his sleeping sounds. Come on, I will show you. [Spike continues snoring]

Ducky: See! [laughing]

Littlefoot: [laughing] You're right, Ducky.

Me: Boy he sure is a heavy sleeper.

Eddy: He snores as loud as Lumpy does.

We laughed.

Ducky: [pushes Spike] Get up, silly. This is not nap time. This is get up time. [Spike pushes Ducky]

Petrie: [opens Spike's eye] You wake up now, okay, Spike? [falls down] [Spike yawns, then he continues snoring]

Petrie: Oh, Spike, up! [Spike hugs Petrie]

Me: Come on Spike. Wakey wakey.

Petrie: Spike, down.

Ducky: Spike, no! [grabs Petrie out, flying down to Littlefoot]

Littlefoot: Are you okay, Petrie?

Petrie: Uh-huh. Spike sure heavy sleeper. [falls down, flies by Spike, snoring]

Littlefoot: We gotta wake him up because it's gonna take all of us to find more water.

Petrie: Water? Yes! Me help find water. [Spike licks Petrie]

Petrie: Spike, stop! Me no find water yet! [shakes the water off]

Littlefoot: Don't worry, Spike. We'll find it. I just know we will.

Ruby: I know we will too.

Cera: We better! Because if our parents stay mad any longer, I'm just gonna scream!

Me: I know that feeling all too well.

Fiona: Same here.

Ducky: [laughing] Oh, I will scream too!

Petrie: Petrie good screamer! [imitates screaming] Aah! Aah! Ahh!

Littlefoot: [laughs] What about you, Spike? [Spike snorts, then they all laugh and we run, then we all walk]

Petrie: How we find water, Littlefoot?

Littlefoot: We smell for it, silly.

Me: Wow.

Ducky: [laughing] Oh, yes! Smell for it! With our noses. [laughing] I know how to do that. [sniffing] [Littlefoot sniffs, then Petrie flies around, then they continue sniffing, then Spike sniffs by Petrie]

Petrie: No smell so hard, okay, Spike? [they all sniff, then Ducky laughs]

Cera: This is serious, Ducky.

Ducky: Oh, yes, Cera, I know! I know. [we continue walking down, then the water melts the tree star, then blowing away, with the Stegosaurus looking around, walking down, taking a drink, then Cera's Dad runs by the Stegosaurus]

Cera's Dad: IT'S NOT YOUR TURN! [growls at the Stegosaurus, running away] Now, go on! [the Stegosaurus walks away, then stamping on the ground]

The next morning we were sitting.

Ducky: My sniffer is very, very sniffed out.

Cera: Well, I'm so thirsty I could drink a lake.

Aylene C.: I'm so thirsty I could drink the ocean.

Littlefoot: Me too. Petrie: [sniffing] Funny, me smell water, but me no see water.

Nico: Yeah I smell it too.

[the fish jumps in the water, then gasping]

Littlefoot: Hey, did you hear a… a splash?

Me: Yeah I heard it.

Aylene C.: Me too.

All: Uh-huh.

Littlefoot: Water! There it is! All right!

Ducky: Yeah! Yeah! [they all jump in the water, then Ducky spits water out, then laying down, then Cera takes a drink]

Cera: That was so good!

Ducky: [takes a drink] Oh, yes, this is the yummiest water ever! It is!

Petrie: And we drink all we want, and no one yell at us! [takes a drink, then falling in] [they all laugh, then Petrie gets out]

But then Hyp and his friends showed up!

Hyp: There they are. And would ya look at what they found for us. [Nod laughs]

Mutt: [laughing] What is it?

Hyp: Hiya, hatchlings. Say bye-bye, water.

Me: Oh great!

Nico: Not you blockheads again!

Vince: Why can't you leave us alone!?

Aylene C.: Yeah!

Ducky: Why? Is it going somewhere?

Hyp: No, but you are!

Nod: This is our water now!

Mutt: So give it back.

Petrie: Give back? But it already in my tummy!

Me: Sorry But I don't see your names on it.

Nico: So you aren't getting one drop.

Ducky: But do you not want to share?

Hyp: We don't share with anybody, do we?

Mutt: Uh, no, uh-huh.

Nod: Nobody.

Me: You better leave if you know what's good for you!

Nico: Yeah!

Hyp: I'm warning you, small fries, if you tell anybody else about this water, you'll be very, VERY sorry!

Me: (Taunting) Ooh I'm so scared! Not!

Littlefoot: We're telling! And you better not try and stop us! [we all run away, screaming] Hurry! [we continue running away]

Hyp: Get 'em! We can't let 'em tell!

I fired an energy blast and it hit the ground in front of Hyp and his friends and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Hyp and his friends ran away in fright!

Littlefoot: Keep running!

Cera: Are they still after us?

Petrie: Me no know. Me too scared to look!

Me: No I fired an energy blast and frightened them away.

Vypra: Clever thinking.

Nico: Yeah.

Aylene C.: I can't believe it! Hyp's actually trying to hurt us! I mean, I thought all of that was just tough-guy talk! I didn't actually think he would try to harm us!

Me: Well what did you expect from a bunch of bullies Aylene? They are a bunch of self-loathing monsters that hate everyone.

Nico: Yeah.

[we all run on the branch, then Spike slides down]

Ducky: Spike, you're going the wrong way! [Spike lands on the ground, then Ducky lands on Spike]

Ducky: Hurray! Now you are going the right way. [we all continue running]

Me: Whoa! Slippery branch huh?

Nico: Yeah.

Cera: Why are going this way anyway, guys? We're tired and this way is hard!

Littlefoot: Because, this is the shortest way back to the grown-ups. And it will be harder for the bullies to follow us. [they continue running down, then breaking a branch, screaming, then Spike falls down, then Ducky falls down, then they all fall dow]

We all jump down and landed on the ground.

Me: Are you all okay?

Aylene C.: Guys, look down there!"

The group looked in the direction Aylene was pointing.

Petrie: A cave?

Aylene C.: Yeah. And if I'm not mistaken, I think we're at the edge of the Great Wall.

Me: This area does look familiar.

Cera: You think that leads to the Mysterious Beyond?

Aylene: Well, [the girl climbed off of the Apatosaurus] only one way to find out.

Aylene carefully slid down the small cliff with the others following. Slowly, we all approached the entrance to the cave; we could see that it was more like a wide tunnel, leading to sunlight at the end. We cautiously walked through it and soon found ourselves standing on a ledge. We all stopped and stared in awe at a large plain before us. It would've have been enough to be classified as a wasteland since there were no trees or signs of vegetation growing and it was mostly covered with rock and sand. However, it did contain something of great value.

Ducky: It IS the Mysterious Beyond!

Petrie: And it have water! Whole bunches!

"Whole bunches" didn't even begin to describe how much water was in the area below us.

Me: Tons of it!

As far as our eyes could see, there was sparkling blue water contained in very large, bowl-like cliffs surrounding them. And on our left, there was a large lake that stretched endlessly toward the horizon. In fact, from where we were standing, it looked as if two thirds of the area was covered with water.

Me: This whole area is covered with water.

Aylene C.: Guys! Look over there!

We all looked over in the direction that Aylene was pointing at and we saw a deep, dry trench. Our eyes followed the trail back to the water and we saw that a large pile of rocks blocked it up.

Aylene C.: That trench must be the river that leads to Thundering Falls and those rocks created some sort of dam, causing it to stop flowing.

Me: So that's it!

Littlefoot: It all makes sense now! That Asteroid Shower! It must have caused rockslides in the Mysterious Beyond!

Me: Yeah!

Nico: Not good.

Cera: Yeah, and those dumb slides blocked up our water!

Me: The asteroid shower cut off the flow of water to the valley.

Aylene C.: Well, we know how the water is blocked up, we just need to tell the adults. They'll know what to do.

Me: And then we can figure out how to free the water.

Nico: We could just blow that dam to smithereens all the way from here.

Me: True we could. But that would be too easy.

Littlefoot: Come on! The grown-ups will know what to do! [they all go inside, then blowing the wind, holding on Cera]

Petrie: Bad weather for flying. [the wind continues blowing, then a bolt of lightning hits a tree, then we all scream as it is set on fire]

Littlefoot: LOOK OUT! [the fire branch lands on the ground, then we all gasp]

Aylene C.: FOREST FIRE!

Littlefoot: Back this way! I know another path. [We all run away by the fire, screaming, then we jump down, then the fire races fast on rocks and trees were falling down, then we continue running away, screaming, then Ducky's Mom drinks water]

Cera's Dad: That's enough. You've had your share for today.

Grandpa: The three-horn is getting far too bossy.

Grandma: I agree.

Sona: Yeah and I think putting him in charge was a bad idea.

Littlefoot: Grandpa! Grandma, Mother!

Cera: Daddy!

Me: Everyone!

Aylene C.: Derek!

Littlefoot: Fire! There's fire in the valley!

Me: We're on fire everyone!

Grandpa: Are you sure, Littlefoot?

Littlefoot: Yes, Grandpa! It's near two boulder pass!

We saw smoke billowing in the distance.

Grandpa: Yes, we can see the fire signs from here.

Me: Lightning struck a tree and caused the fire.

Clubtail: Two boulder pass?

Kosh: That's close to here.

Clubtail: We must run!

Grandpa: Calm yourselves! We will lead you to safety.

Cera's Dad: No, I will. They'll be better off following me. [walks down] This way!

Me: Are you crazy Mr. Threehorn!?

Grandpa: But you're heading downwind where the fire will surely spread. We must go upwind of the fire.

Me: Yeah! What you're gonna do is suicide!

Cera's Dad: Do as you will, long neck. But Cera and I go this way. Come, Cera.

Cera: But, Daddy!

Cera's Dad: The other can do what they want. But you are my daughter, and you will do as I say!

Me: No Mr. Threehorn! We all stay together! Like it or not!

But Cera's dad wouldn't listen to me and he left.

Me: That Triceratops is stubborn as a mule!

Ducky: I do not feel good about this. Oh, no, I do not.

Littlefoot: Grandma! Grandpa! Mother! Can't you stop him?

Grandpa: I have to go after him.

Grandma: Yes.

Aylene C.: I'm going with you!

Derek stood in front of her.

However, before she took more than three steps, a hand reached out and grabbed her arm. She looked sharply around and saw Derek standing behind her, holding her back.

Derek C.: No, Aylene.

Aylene C.: Derek, you don't understand! I have to save Cera! She needs my help!

Derek C.: I know. They need your help, too, I'll go help Cera's dad."

Aylene C.: But Derek…

Derek C.: Aylene, you KNOW this Valley. And you know the escape routes. You have to lead the others to safety. Right now, they need you the most.

Aylene C.: But…

Derek C.: Don't worry, I'll be okay. And I trust you to lead the others to safety. I know you can do this.

Me: Aylene. Derek is right. You have been through so many of our adventures and he trusts that you can do this. Let him help save Cera's dad. Just him okay?

Aylene C.: Okay.

Aylene just stared at her brother. He had never said anything like that to her in a very long time. For a moment, she wasn't sure if this was the same boy who had come with her to the world of dinosaurs in the first place.

Derek C.: I promise I'll bring Cera back safe and sound. Just promise me you'll be careful.

Aylene glanced back and forth between her brother and other dinosaurs. She then looked at the path that the Triceratops family had taken. She didn't have time to argue about this with the fire growing closer, and she didn't want to start a fight with her brother again. This time, she would have to listen to him.

Aylene C.: Okay, just be careful."

Derek gave a sharp nod and ran over to Grandpa Longneck. The elder lowered his head and allowed the human boy to climb on. The two then immediately set out after Cera's dad. Although the Apatosaurus couldn't move very quickly due to his mass and the dense grove the woods, he still moved as quickly as he could.

Aylene C.: C'mon, guys! We have to get out of here and fast.

Me: Right! Lets get everyone together and evacuate the valley!

Grandma Longneck: Littlefoot, you come with me. We'll lead the others to safety.

Littlefoot: But what about everybody else in the valley, Grandma? What will happen to them?

Grandma: They'll use the escape routes closest to them. Now come! Everyone, follow me! Children first!

Me: And stay close to the one in front of you everyone!

We walked and ran fast.

Aylene C.: Derek please be careful.

Me: He'll be fine Aylene. Now come on we have to hurry!

We ran.

Cera's dad raced through the forest with a wild fire right on his heels as it was raging and burning out of control at an incredible level. Just as Grandpa Longneck had predicted, the flames were heading downwind: and he was right in the fires path. Smoke coiled and swept all around him, making it hard for him to see where he was going. He was nearly running blindly through the forest and only had seconds to react to any obstacles in front of him.

The single threehorn continued to run away from the fire until he was stopped by a cliff that dropped straight down into a ravine. However, Cera's dad only stopped for a moment before he looked back and saw the fire was drawing even closer at an alarming rate. His nerve broke and he decided right then and there to jump. He sailed through the air and managed to grab the ledge before the rocks slipped out of place, sending him tumbling and screaming down the cliff and getting buried under the stones when he reached the ground. The elder Triceratops used his long snout and he pushed away the stones away, allowing himself to get out.

He then set out running once again just as burning embers fell down into the ravine behind him

While the fire was heading away from everyone and the herd, the smoke it was leaving behind was growing thicker by the minute. Pretty soon, Grandma Longneck and many of the elders were coughing and wheezing as the thick, grey smoke invaded their lungs and stung their eyes. Since Littlefoot, Aylene, us and the other children were on a much lower level, the smoke wasn't affecting them as much.

Littlefoot: Grandma! Mother!

Grandma: The smoke is too thick! You guys have to lead!

Me: They can't see because of the smoke!

Nico: I can just blow the smoke away!

Me: No! It'll end up fanning the flames and make the fire stronger and send it our way!

Littlefoot: But we… !

Aylene C.: We can do it, Littlefoot!

Derek: (In Aylene's Head) I trust you to lead the others to safety. I know you can do this.

Those words from her brother kept racing in the girl's mind. She wasn't going to let Derek or anyone else down. She had to lead the others on, and she was going to lead the others on, she and her friends together.

Aylene C.: Follow us everyone!

Littlefoot and all of us immediately set out in front of the group, under the smoke and through the forest. They didn't go more than a few feet when they started to hear panicked voices shouting among each other.

Ducky: Guys, they cannot see well. They cannot.

Me: The smoke is totally obscuring their view!

The little swimmer was right. The smoke was so thick that the grown-ups couldn't see more than three feet in front of them.

Littlefoot then thought for a moment before looking up sharply.

Littlefoot: But they can hear!

At the sound of that idea, Aylene snapped her fingers and immediately pulled her gym bag off her shoulders. She opened it and fished out her ocarina case. She then took the ocarina out of the case, slipped the neck strap over her head and around her neck, put the black case away, and threw her gym bag back on her shoulders.

Aylene C.: Littlefoot I'll play my ocarina so they know where we are while you lead the way!

Me: That's brilliant!

Littlefoot: Great idea, Aylene! [the longneck nodded before turning his head back toward the group and shouting] "Listen, everyone! Follow the sound of Aylene's ocarina and keep your heads down! It's not much further!"

Me: Lets go!

Holding onto Littlefoot with one hand and her ocarina in the other, Aylene kept a firm grip on the instrument and blew a single note for as long as she could, using her ocarina like a whistle. After each note, she would take a deep breath and blow the same tone every time. Although she began to feel light-headed after a while, she still continued to play, knowing that many lives were at stake.

The dinosaurs and us all followed the melodic pitch through the smoke as the longneck lead us right out of the forest and up a ridge that would take us to the top of the Great Wall.

Running and bounding over falling trees and branches, Cera's dad continued to desperately escape the relentless fire that was closing in on him. Suddenly, a large wall of fire lit up before him. He gasped as he turned away quickly and attempted to dart away. However, the flames were growing strong and created another wall in front of him. Just as he made a dash for an opening, a large tree caught fire and toppled over, closing him in.

Cera's Dad: NO!

Indeed, he was now surrounded in a pen of flames, unable to escape.

At that moment, there was a bright flash of light. Only this one wasn't by the fire. It was a white beam of light that seemed to cut through the smoke just above the wall of flames.

Grandpa Longneck: Threehorn! Over here!"

Although the smoke was heavy and dense, the Triceratops' were could just barely make out the familiar shape of Grandpa Longneck. On his head was Derek, waving a bright flashlight around like a lighthouse searchlight.

When the Apatosaurus and human were sure that they had gotten the Triceratops' attention, Grandpa Longneck used his massive forepaw to push down a large tree with seemingly no effort at all. It sliced through the wall of flames, enabling the threehorn to cross it just in time. After they jumped off the log, it caught fire and burned up into smoldering ash.

Derek C.: Hurry! Follow us!"

The group of three immediately made a dash away from the fire and into an area that the flames had not touched. The ground thundered and shook with every footfall the elders took, giving the illusion of a storm brewing in the forest. Although the smoke was still heavy, they didn't stop running. They all coughed as the grey, ash-contaminated clouds whipped around them, polluting their air. However, despite the air getting harder to breathe, they continued on the path at a constant speed.

Derek C.: I can see the wall! We're almost there!

Finally, like heroes emerging from the inferno, the mighty animals raced out of the burning forest. They ran up a slope leading to the Great Wall for a few feet before stopping to catch their breath.

Derek C.: Are you all right Mr. Threehorn?

Cera's dad: Yes. Thanks to you all.

Grandpa Longneck: Come. We have to meet up with the others."

Now that they were out of danger, the group walked along the path that would lead them to an outcrop overlooking the Valley, where the rest of the herd would also be waiting for them.

As they journeyed onward, Derek didn't say a word. He was still trying to process the fact that he had just ridden a dinosaur into a forest fire to save another dinosaur. In all of Derek's years, he never would've imagined that he would actually ride a dinosaur, much less one whose head stretched all the way up to the sky. Unlike his sister, Derek enjoyed being up high. Seeing the ground below stretched out in an awe of majesty was one of his most favorite things to see. And riding on a full grown Apatosaurus made the view all the more amazing.

In fact, this whole experience was starting to give Derek a feeling of confidence, empowerment even. He was probably one of the very few humans he actually got a chance to experience something like this. Not even any archeologist in the world of humans could imagine what the boy was experiencing now.

And he just got a taste of it, his little sister had been to this world more times than him and had experienced so much more. At the moment, Derek could only just imagine how Aylene would feel each time she came here and faced challenging events.

Was this how Aylene felt whenever she would come here? Was that why she came here so often? Was it more than just to escape her world? Was it because here is where she truly felt special?

It must be. If Derek was experiencing this special feeling, then his sister must have felt it more than once. It was rather exciting to know that you've overcome what others have thought to be impossible. Whether it's escaping a forest fire, or defeating a Tyrannosaurus Rex.

Derek C.: Aylene, I think I finally understand."

Up on top of the outcrop overlooking the Valley, the herd and us all looked sadly on as the forest fire continued to burn away at the trees and bushes below. Their home no longer looked like the lush green land the Gang and us saw when we first saw it, it now looked as if it had a raw gash straight down the middle.

Me: It's all torched. What a blaze.

Nico: No kidding.

Vypra: But at least we're all okay.

Aylene held her hands over her chest as she watched the fire spread across the once wondrous Valley. Knowing that Derek was out there made her uneasy. She had to force herself not to think of the possible outcomes if either he didn't find Topps in time, or worse, if he got caught in the fire, too. Considering how active her imagination was, that was nearly impossible to do. All she could do was wait and see, which was agonizing.

Littlefoot stood beside Aylene, worrying about his grandfather. He knew his grandfather would be extremely cautious, and has gotten out of dangerous situations before, but a natural disaster was different from an attack from predators. At least he would have a fighting chance against carnivores, but a fire was a different matter. Only other elements of nature like water and earth could defeat a fire if it hadn't gone too out of control.

But looking at the fire now, only a large tidal wave could extinguish it.

Suddenly, the ground began to shake with small steady, even intervals. Everyone turned sharply in the direction the tremors were coming and a smile streaked across many faces.

Coming up the slope, winded but unharmed, was Grandpa Longneck and Derek along with Mr. Threehorn.

Littlefoot: GRANDPA! [Littlefoot happily shouted and raced forward.]

Me: They made it!

Aylene C.: DEREK!

Grandpa Longneck lowered his head, allowing Derek to jump off and onto the ground. The two siblings rushed toward each other and before Derek had time to react, Aylene threw herself at him and wrapped her arms around him, burying her face in the crook of his neck. He smelled of ash and sweat, but the scent was dear to her.

Her brother was alive.

Aylene C.: Derek! [Aylene began to cry.]

Derek C.: I's okay, Sis.

Me: Welcome back buddy!

Grandma: Oh, you made it! I was so worried.

Grandpa: I'm fine, dear, really. [they both hug]

Sina: Thank goodness.

Grandpa: How is everyone else?

Grandma: Our group got here safely, thanks to Littlefoot, Aylene and everyone.

Ducky: Oh, yes! Thanks to Littlefoot, Aylene and everyone!

Littlefoot: We all did it.

After Aylene and Derek let each other go, the girl ran over, got down to her knees and hugged Cera. The Triceratops laughed a little and returned the gesture with a light nudge to the face.

Aylene C.: I'm just glad that your dad is okay. I'm glad we're all okay."

Cera's dad: Okay? How can you say we're okay when our valley burns?

The elder Triceratops then sadly wandered over to the edge of the cliff and stared out over the desolate landscape below.

Cera's Dad: We are without water and now we are without a home. All is lost.

Derek looked at the old dinosaur for a second before walking up and placing a hand on his foreleg.

Derek: All is not lost, Topps. You still have Cera, and you are still here to take care of her.

Me: That's right. You are still here and that's all that matters.

Topps looked at us and then at his daughter, who ran over and stood next to him. He let out a deep exhale as a wave of emotions suddenly crashed over him, although he didn't show it. Once again, because of his assertive nature and stubbornness, he put himself in danger. And a human saved him.

Two humans of the same kin saved him and his daughter. One a young girl with a powerful spirit, and the other a boy with a strong will.

Cera's Dad: Oh, you are right. [looking at his daughter for a moment. He then turned to Derek and Grandpa Longneck.] "Thank you, Derek. And you, too, Longneck."

Stegosaurus: But the three-horn speaks the truth!

Ducky's Mom: We're doomed!

Clubtail: We'll never be able to go back to the Great Valley!

Aylene C.: Oh yes we will!

Littlefoot: That's right! The water! Grandma, Grandpa, Mother, we found water!

Grandpa Longneck: Water?!

The moment the little Apatosaurus said those words, the herd gasped in unison and hopeful voices replaced the atmosphere of despair.

Grandma Longneck: Where, Littlefoot?!

Aylene C.: It's stuck behind Thundering Falls.

Cera: The meteor shower caused rock slides.

Me: It's true. There is a huge dam of rocks that cut off the flow of water to the Thundering Falls that goes into the Valley.

Grandma Longneck: Which means the water is trapped in the Mysterious Beyond.

With the mention of the area outside of the Great Valley, the herd began to talk among themselves in a nervous manner.

Stegosaurus: The Mysterious Beyond? We can't go there. It's dangerous.

Cera's Dad: Of course it's dangerous. But no place is safe now. We must go and free the water.

Me: I agree with Cera's Dad. We have no other option but to head into the Mysterious Beyond and free the water so we can save the Great Valley.

Grandpa Longneck: But such a huge gathering place of water will attract other creatures besides ourselves. In the Mysterious Beyond, there will be sharp-teeth.

At the mention of predators, the herd once again began to talk among themselves in a more agitated tone.

Meanwhile, the we all exchanged worried glances. We suddenly remembered the warning from the egg-stealers about carnivores looking for us. So not only were we dealing with a drought and extreme fire danger, we were dealing with going into an area to where predators would most likely show up. If they so much as see us, we would be sitting ducks. But we would fight them off with our powers.

Ducky: I do not like Sharpteeth. Oh, no! Their teeth are too sharp.

Derek C.: Still, we must do something. We must come up with a plan to free the water.

Cera's Dad: I have a plan!

Kosh: I hope it's better than your fire escape plan. [he growls at Kosh]

Grandma: Please! This is no time to argue.

Cera's Dad: At least I had a plan. [Kosh growls at Cera's Dad]

Grandma: Stop! You're acting like children!

Petrie: Huh! We no act like that! [they all argue]

Dinosaur 5: I have a plan too!

Dinosaur 6: Mine's better!

Hyp: I'd sure like to get to that water first, before the rest of those dummies go slobbering in it!

Nod: [gulping] But you heard the grown-ups, Hyp. What about Sharpteeth?

Hyp: What about 'em? Nod: Well, you tell him, Mutt.

Mutt: Huh? Well, uh, well, uh, they're bad, uh, yeah! And scary too! [to Hyp] Come on! You're just as afraid of them as we are!

Hyp: [grabs Mutt] ME?! I'm not afraid of anything!

Nod: But you are!

Hyp: Bet I'm not!

Nod: You were afraid of those big flying rocks!

Hyp: I was not! I just ran 'cause you guys did. I… I didn't want you to feel stupid.

Nod: Well, then prove it! Hyp: All right, I will. I'm getting me some tasty water, and you babies can stay here.

Nod: Well, I'm not a baby.

Mutt: Yeah, me neither.

Nod: Uh… Uh, Hyp! Wait!

Mutt: Uh, yeah! For us!

Cera's Dad: We must act now!

Grandpa: We must NOT act rashly.

We saw Hyp and his friends leaving for the Mysterious Beyond.

Cera: They are so dumb! Didn't they hear what the grown-ups said about Sharpteeth?

Littlefoot: I guess not.

Me: Not a word probably.

Cera: Well, if they get eaten, it'll just serve them right!

Ducky: Cera! That is not nice!

Aylene C.: Cera! That's mean, even for you!

Cera: I don't care. They deserve it!

Aylene C.: Cera [Aylene put her hands on her hips] even I wouldn't wish for anyone onto be eaten by a predator.

Me: I agree. Even I wouldn't wish for that to happen on our worst enemies.

Nico: Yeah.

Vince: Same here.

Littlefoot: I don't know, you guys. Maybe we should do something.

Cera: Like what? Littlefoot: Like, tell their parents where they went?

Cera: All of our parents are too busy arguing.

Grandpa: Your plan is too dangerous!

Cera's Dad: Yours is no better!

Kosh: Then listen to mine.

Dinosaur: Yours? Don't be silly!

Littlefoot: Then, maybe we should go stop them.

Cera: Stop them?

Petrie: Us?

Ducky: They hate us! They will not listen!

Aylene C.: Maybe, maybe not.

The seven dinosaurs looked at the human girl with surprised expressions. Seeing how angry she got when those guys were around was all the more shocking when she actually made a notion of wanting to help them.

Chomper: What are you saying Aylene?

Aylene C.: Littlefoot you're the one who told me that we make bad decisions when we're mad or scared. And right now, I'm starting to think that's what they're going through. I can't say that for sure, but I think that all they need is compassion and someone to trust."

Aylene then glanced over at her brother, who was starting to argue with Kosh.

Aylene C.: I know that's what I needed.

Sensing the conviction and determination rising in his friend's spirit, Littlefoot stepped forward and turned his side toward the girl.

Littlefoot: If you feel that strongly about it then I'm with you all the way.

Me: We all are.

Aylene gave a confident nod she spread her wings.

Petrie: Wait! What about sharp-teeth?! You know they are looking for us! What if they find you?!

Littlefoot: Don't worry. If we move carefully and keep our senses on high alert, I think we can find those three and get back before the predators find us first.

Me: Good idea.

Cera: I still don't like it. It's just too dangerous."

Aylene C.: We know but we just have to try and stop them.

Me: That's never stopped us before.

Littlefoot: We just have to try and stop them! You guys do what you want. [runs away]

Spike: Hyp.

Cera: Last one after Littlefoot's a scaredy-egg!

We followed.

Petrie: Me no scaredy-egg!

Ducky: Wait for us! We're not scaredy-eggs, either!

[cut to Hyp, Nod, and Mutt, walking down by the skeleton bones]

Nod: Are you sure this is the right way to the water, Hyp?

Hyp: Sure, I'm sure. I'm, uh, just taking us this special way, so we don't run into any stupid Sharpteeth.

Mutt: [lands between the bones, gasping, then muttering] Wait for me! [they all walk up] Come on, guys! Wait! [puts one foot on the rock, walking up]

Hyp: Stop whining, Mutt! This is easy! [jumps on another platform, putting one foot on] Well, what do ya know! A little watering hole just for me! [Mutt grabs Nod] You guys can have some, if I leave any! [jumps down, walking by the water] Whoo-hoo! Water! [dives in and drinks water] Huh? I'm sinking! I'M SINKING! Don't just stand there! Pull me out!

Mutt: Oh, yeah!

Nod: Uh, right! What do we do?

Mutt: I don't know. What do ya think we should do?

Hyp: Somebody do something! Help! Help!

Littlefoot: That's Hyp!

Aylene C.: Hurry!

Me: Come on!

Vypra: Right!

We all immediately set out running down the slope of stones. Less than a minute later, we came upon the scene where Hyp was franticly splashing around in the water and his friends were hastily trying to come up with a plan to get him out.

Me: Oh no!

Aylene C.: He's stuck in a tar pit!

We all raced over to the bullies and Aylene leapt off of Littlefoot's back. She ran over the shore and cupped her hands around her mouth.

Aylene C.: Stop moving, Hyp it'll only make you sink faster!

Panic-stricken and desperate, Hyp froze like a statue. He didn't really care that Aylene was the one who gave him the command, he just wanted to get out of the situation he was currently in before either any predators came our he would drown.

Me: I'll get him out! Applejack tie your lasso around me and pull when I say.

Applejack: Right!

Applejack tied her lasso around me and I spread my wings and flew out and grabbed on to Hyp.

Me: Ready guys!?

Nico and everyone grabbed onto the rope.

Nico: Ready!

Me: PULL!

We pulled hard and pulled Hyp out and he was covered in sticky gooey tar!

Me: Yuck! Wow!

Aylene C.: That was really clever.

Nod: [to Hyp] Are ya… Are ya okay, Hyp? Are ya?

Hyp: Of course I'm okay! I was never NOT okay!

Petrie: He a big, fat fibber!

Cera: Yeah! We helped you, and you know it!

I wiped the tar off my legs.

Me: Man what is your problem!?

Nico: Yeah! We saved your life.

Sissi: Hyp and his friends remind me of how I used to be.

Hyp: I don't need anybody's help! Not now! Not ever!

Ducky: But everyone needs help sometime. They do.

Hyp: [walks down] Agh! [looking at the dinosaurs walking down, timidly] Help. [runs by Littlefoot, Cera, Chomper, Ruby, Spike, Ducky, and Petrie]

Cera's Dad: There they are!

Grandpa: Littlefoot? This is no time to go exploring! Didn't you realize you wandered into the Mysterious Beyond?

Littlefoot: We weren't exploring, Grandpa. We were trying to stop the bullies… Uh, I mean Hyp and his friends, or they might've gotten hurt.

Silo: Hyp! Here we are chasing after you, when we should be finding a way to free the water! I thought I told you to stay where it was safe! Don't look at me that way! I'm your father, and I know what's best for you!

Me: (In my head) So that's he became a bully. His father was a total jerk to him.

Cera's Dad: Yelling is no way to teach your child what is right, or to show that you care.

Silo: How would you know?

Cera's Dad: I know because… Because I have a daughter, and I yell at her, too much. Especially when I'm worried for her safety.

Cera: You don't have to worry about ME, Daddy.

Topps then turned his attention back to Silo and calmly continued his speech.

Topps: If you always react with anger, that's all your son will know. And that's all he'll be able to express to others.

Silo looked at the threehorn in surprised and then turned to his son, finally seeing Hyp hurt by his words.

Us, Mutt, and Nod then all looked at Hyp with surprise and sympathy. This really explained a lot now. Hyp wasn't just picking on the children for fun or to make himself more superior, it was the only way he could communicate to us. He was just taking the anger for his father out on us because he couldn't stand up to his own dad.

Me: Hyp we didn't know you were going through all this.

Nico: None of us did.

Vince: Yeah we thought you were just being a jerk because you were superior. But now we know.

Lincoln: You were just venting out your own anger at your father because you couldn't stand up to him.

Aylene frowned and looked down at her feet. Guilt began to take over when she realized some of the remarks she made, while sounding brave and strong at the time, were really just immature and mean, especially since she didn't know the full story. She was starting to feel like the bully now.

However, Derek suddenly speaking up soon interrupted her moment of remorse.

Derek C.: The same thing goes for siblings, too.

Everyone and us then turned to look the human boy. Derek fixed his gaze on Aylene, both of them looking each other in the eye.

Derek C.: I don't have a daughter, but I do have a younger sister. And I tease her… too often. Although that is expected, brothers and sisters should be more considerate of their siblings' feelings and support each other, not tear each other down. And I know now that we can't live together with such anger between us. Aylene, everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm and all her friends were able find water because they worked together. Now we must work together, too."

Me: Just what I was gonna say.

Grandpa: At last we all agree.

Me: OH SHIT!

Eli: Velociraptors!

Nunnally: There's a lot of them!

Velca: " Talon, there are plant eaters down there!"

Talon: " I can see that Velca. They must be here for water."

Velca: " There are several grown-ups there. Let's just move on. There's no way we can take them on."

Talon: " Wait, there are some strange creatures among them."

Velca: " Rather gangly, aren't they. Doubt they have a lot of meat on them."

Talon: " Who cares about that? Look at the one in green!"

Velca: " Oh, I see. Do you think that she's…"

Talon: " If she is, then that means the longneck, threehorn, spiketail, swimmer, and flyer beside her are also…"

Aylene's eyes widened when she realized that they were talking about her and her friends and all of us. She was also getting the same sensation she had when she first heard Strongfang and Rena talk. These were biters! And judging by their voices, they seemed to be excited about the fact of finding all of us. Aylene then suddenly raised her voice. From her perspective, she spoke normally with a small rasp in her voice, while to everyone else, including Derek; she started to snarl viciously, which startled all of them.

Aylene C.: " Come out whoever you are! I know you're there! I can hear you!"

Eli: Same with me!

Me: I sense trouble.

Eli: Feels like velociraptors!

Captain Cold: If those velociraptors show up, I'll show them the real meaning of "Ice Age"!

Me: Keep your eyes peeled.

[Mutt sniffles]

Hyp: Ahh! What's the matter with you?

Mutt: [crying] Nothin', except I think we're in trouble.

Hyp: Yeah, so what else is new?

Mutt: [pointing at Velociraptor] THAT! [Velociraptor growls]

Suddenly, a single bitter emerged from the rocks and roared a sharp, piercing sound. Aylene drew in sharp breath of air when she saw what kind of dinosaur it was.

We saw a huge herd of velociraptors!

Derek: A Velociraptor!

Me: OH SHIT!

Eli: Velociraptors!

Nunnally: There's a lot of them!

Velociraptor: " So you CAN understand us! You must be the human we've been hearing about. Which means you and your little friends were the ones who defeated… Sharptooth!"

Aylene's face went very pale, her pulse began to race, and she began to tremble uncontrollably.

Derek C.: Aylene, what's the matter?!

The boy hardly understood what was going on. His sister was snarling like a carnivore, Velociraptors were surrounding them, and now Aylene was looking like she was going to have a panic attack.

Aylene C.: They… they… they…"

ylene couldn't seem to form the words she had to say. No matter how hard she tried, she couldn't find her voice.

Littlefoot: What, Aylene?! What did they say?!

Overcome by fear, Aylene's voice switched gears and she finally shouted at the top of her lungs:

Aylene C.: IT'S US THEY WANT! THEY KNOW WE DEFEATED SHARPTOOTH! THEY'RE HERE TO KILL US!"

Grandpa: Children, stay behind me!

Cera's Dad: And me.

Kosh: Count us in too.

Me: Come on guys! We have a fight on our hands! Lets power up!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE! DINO CHARGE!

The 6 Megaforce Rangers turned into six of the Dino Charge Rangers!

Then Larxene, Electro, Living Laser, Dr. Viktor, Atomic Skull, and Firefly appeared and they blasted the Velociraptors all over the place.

Me: Larxene, Electro, Living Laser, Dr. Viktor, Atomic Skull and Firefly!

Velca: More awesome food!

Dr. Viktor: Looks like you all have your hands full.

Me: Tell me about it!

Electro: This is our first time in the Great Valley.

Living Laser: But we have seen dinosaurs before.

Larxene: But not talking dinosaurs.

Me: We're under attack by a bunch of Velociraptors that want to kill us. They are out to get revenge on us for killing Sharptooth.

Vypra: It's true. We'll have to have our usual battles against these guys.

Nico: Good idea!

Me: Lets do it! After we deal with these guys we run for the dam and free the water!

Aylene C.: Lets do it!

Grandpa: [looks at all of the Velociraptor] Littlefoot! You and your friends run to safety!

Littlefoot: We're standing and fighting and going along with J.D.'s plan! Trust us!

Aylene C.: Right!

A velociraptor went at Grandpa and I punched it in the face and knocked out a tooth and kicked it in the stomach and Electro blasted it with lightning and electrocuted it. Lincoln punched the dinosaur in the face and Elena and Shocker blasted it all over the place with lightning.

Electro: (to Lincoln) (Blasts a Velociraptor with lightning) I'm glad you stuck by Nico, Lincoln. That pretty much shows how loyal you are to your friends.

Lincoln: Thanks Max. And I've been loyal to my sisters and family as well.

Lincoln blasts two Velociraptors with lightning and fire and burns them and Rainbow Dash and Lightning Dust used their incredible speed and smashed them all over the place.

Elena: Lincoln is a really good brother. And he is one of the luckiest kids in the world.

Elena fired blasts of lightning and slashed a bunch of Velociraptors with her keyblade and Shocker blasted a bunch of Velociraptors with lightning.

Lightning Dust ran fast at an incredible speed as a trail of lightning formed behind her and electrocuted all the Velociraptors in the area. But that made them angrier.

Elena, Lincoln, Shocker and Electro blasted them all over with lightning and they were not backing down!

Lincoln: These guys keep on coming!

Megan McAllister: No kidding!

Living Laser: (to Megan) That whole dispute between Lincoln's sisters and Nico probably reminded you of your dispute against three of your siblings. (Blasts a bunch of velociraptors with laser blasts)

Megan: Don't remind me.

Sissi: But she reconciled with her sibs.

Pacifica: She sure did.

Rarity blasted a bunch of Velociraptors with crystal blasts.

Volcana blasted a bunch of Velociraptors in intense flames and

Larxene blasted them with incredible blasts of lightning.

Volcana: Yeah but he's wasn't himself Larxene. Rotwood and his Posse have come back from the Warp and are tormenting him psychologically.

Zuko: It's true. I didn't want to believe it at first but it's true.

Azula: Yeah.

Larxene: I thought we were rid of those douchebags!

Apple Bloom fired a wave of lightning and it formed into numerous Zap Apples and they hit the Velociraptors and electrocuted them all over in powerful blasts of electricity.

Larxene: Those sneaky little bastards! I didn't think they were capable of doing that! But J.D.'s Dark Orb scanners should have picked it up.

Apple Fritter: J.D. said the same thing too. But it was an invisible Dark Orb that was undetectable. ORCHARD STYLE NINJA ART: CARAMEL APPLE STICKY BOMBS!

Dr. Viktor: (to Will Vandom) The Great Valley reminds me of Terradino whenever I visited there.

Will Vandom: It sure does remind you of that and it is really beautiful.

Emerald Sustrai: Yeah.

Emerald fired her blasters and blew some teeth of the Velociraptors apart.

Ilia: I like it.

Ilia lashed the Velociraptors all over the place with her sword whip.

Will Vandom: But the Great Valley is dry as a bone because of an asteroid shower that blocked up the river that flows into the Great Valley waterfall and it's now tinderbox dry and a raging wildfire is burning the whole valley right now.

Dr. Viktor: That explains the huge plume of smoke we saw. But what's wrong with Nico?

Will Vandom: He was being tormented by the spirits of Rotwood and his Posse. You've heard of them haven't you?

Dr. Viktor: I sure have. Vypra told me about them.

Scootaloo fired a wave of rainbow lightning and the blasts all hit the Velociraptors all over the place and electrocuted them all over.

Me: FALL BACK EVERYONE! TO THE DAM!

We ran fast.

Silo: Through here, kids! Follow me! [We all run down the path, then Velociraptor jumps over, then Grandpa attacks a Velociraptor, then we continue running down]

Littlefoot: Grandpa!

Silo: Don't look back! Come on! [they both run down.

Me: THIS WAY!

Aylene C.: COME ON!

[Then the Velociraptors continue snarling]

Grandpa: We can't let them pass! [Velociraptor hisses, then Mutt's dad puts his hands on his head, then the Velociraptor continue running down by Mutt's Dad, twitching]

Cera's Dad: They've gone after the children! [they all walk down, then they slide down]

We were running down the path towards the dam and we slide down a hill and into the trench of the river for the Thundering Falls.

Silo: Stay close! We're going to get help! [We continue running down]

But then a figure came out and it was KIGAAN!

Sailor Mars: Kigaan!

Ed: (to Kigaan) It's a four legged mutant bus driver!

Eddy: Shut up Ed!

Kigaan: Please leave me out of your imaginative scenarios.

Shanan: We don't have time to deal with your Repnomite ways now.

Shanan blasted the creature into nothing with an energy blast.

hearing the Velociraptors snarling, then we all gasp, then the Velociraptors appear]

Hyp: Something bad is happening up there. [Mutt and Nod both scream, running away] Stop, you babies! [they both stop and Hyp runs by Nod and Mutt] Me first!

Silo: Hyp! [they hear a rumble]

Littlefoot: Look! [the rocks continue rumbling, then they all fall down]

Cera: Oh, no! Daddy!

Littlefoot: Grandpa! Mother! [the Velociraptors get up]

Silo: You kids get to the top of that dam where it's safer!

Me: No Silo. We got this!

We got to the edge of the trench and we saw the adults get up!

Littlefoot: The grown-ups are all right! [they all cheer]

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

When the smoke cleared there was a huge hole in the wall of the dam!

Me: Almost there guys! Our Final Smashes should be enough to destroy that dam!

Aylene: Anyone up for some velociraptor meat?

Me: I'm Hungry!

Aylene, Eli, Littlefoot, Ruby, Cera, Petrie, Ducky, Spike, Chomper: LAND BEFORE TIME ULTIMATE BLAST!

They fired a wave of energy and the Megaforce Rangers fired blasts of it smashed into the dam and the whole dam exploded with incredible power and it freed the water and sent a massive rushing wall of water flowing into the Great Valley and then the water kills the rocks, and the water kills the Velociraptors, rinsing the fire out]

The fire was extinguished and out.

Me: We did it guys!

Nico: The water is all freed!

We cheered wildly!

With the main water source restored, the drought in the Valley was now over.

Meanwhile, the raptors managed to scramble out of the torrents and onto the opposite side of the river. The lead raptor turned back and looked at all of us with a poisonous stare. How could a bunch of children and leaf eaters managed to outwit an intelligent pack like them? They had them in their talons and they got away. How?! How was that possible?!

Velociraptor: Don't let this victory go to your heads! You just got lucky this time! Besides, there are other biters out there that are tougher than us! What are you going to do when you run into them?! Especially since you won't have your precious grown-ups to protect you all the time!

Hearing their message, Aylene's eyes narrowed and she stepped the edge of the bank, stood tall and shouted back at them.

Aylene C.: If what you say is true, then take a message back to all those who hunt us: tell them that unless they figure out what makes us so strong and able to overcome all the odds, then they will NEVER defeat us!"

Me: You tell them Aylene!

Furious, exhausted, and humiliated, the Velociraptors gave one last snarl before turning around and running away.

Velociraptor: You haven't seen the last of us!"

Aylene C.: "I know. But next time you show up, we'll be ready."

Me: We all will.

She then felt a hand grip her shoulder and turned to see her brother standing beside her, smiling confidently and proudly.

Derek C.: We'll all be ready.

Aylene could only respond with a warm smile of her own.

Me: You can count on that.

Grandpa Longneck: Looks like you and your friends saved the day again, Littlefoot.

Littlefoot: We all did this time, Grandpa. All of us together.

Me: We sure did. Derek, you did a really great job here. I'm very proud of you.

Derek C.: Thanks J.D.

We did our handshake.

We later went back to the Great Valley.

With the water freed, the small group met up with the rest of the herd and made their way back to the Great Valley. However, the valley we all returned to wasn't the same one that we once saw when we all first entered its walls. Right down the center of it, like a horrible gash in the land, many trees, bushes, and other forms of plants had been burned away, reduced to nothing but ash and charred sticks sticking up out of the ground.

Me: This is horrible.

Grandma Longneck: Oh, it's horrible.

Derek C.: Horrible, but not hopeless."

We looked at him.

Aylene C.: Derek's right. The fire didn't get all of the vegetation. I propose we divide into groups and search for what remains. We might be able to find something.

Me: That's a good idea.

Grandpa Longneck: Sounds like a plan.

The male Apatosaurus then turned to the rest of the herd.

Grandpa Longneck: Listen up, everyone, we are going to split up into groups and see if we can find places where any source of food still grows. When you find some, gather up as much as you can and meet up by the Thundering Falls.

Me: Right.

Everyone nodded in agreement and the search parties were immediately formed. With various herd and all of us searching from both the land and sky, the chance to find some more food had a high probability.

---

Standing on Grandpa Longneck's head, Derek reached up and grabbed a branch at the top of a tall tree. After a few tugs, he managed to pull it off with a loud "snap". The elder Longneck then lowered his head down and allowed the human boy to climb off. Derek then went over to Kosh and gave him the leafs. We flew into the air and grabbed as many leaves as possible.

Kosh: Thank you, Derek.

Derek C.: No problem. [wiping the sweat from his forehead.] "But remember, we have to gather some leafs for the others, too."

Me: That's right.

Nico: Yep.

At that moment, there was a joyful call toward the group of adults.

Littlefoot: Grandpa! Mother!

It was Littlefoot and the rest of Gang along everyone else and Hyp and his friends.

Aylene C.: Derek! Everyone! We found more food!

Me: Wow!

With this good news, the adults felt hope rise again.

Dinosaur 1: Did you hear that?!"

Dinosaur 2: More food!

Dinosaur 3: How wonderful!

Nico: Yeah!

Lincoln: All right!

Silo: Where?!

However, unlike before, he quickly caught his harsh tone. He cleared his throat and then calmly approached his son.

Silo: I mean, where son?"

A small smile replace Hyp's frown. For the first time in a while, his father seemed to be the adult Hypsilophidon that the preadolescent just barely remember when he was a small hatchling: strong, strict, but good-natured.

Hyp: In a little canyon not far from here, pop. If we share, there should be enough for everyone.

Nod: You feeling okay, Hyp? You're talking about "sharing".

Mutt: Uh, yeah. Sharing.

Me: (Jokingly) Who are you and what have you done with Hyp?

Hyp: I know that!

Dr. Viktor: (to Hyp and his goons) Now, what have we learned today?

Hyp: Not sharing is for scaredy-eggs!

Atomic Skull: Good. You'd be wise to remember that.

Firefly: Otherwise, Nico really will break your other arm.

Me: That's not needed. I think they learned their lesson.

We laughed.

Me: Yeah.

Lincoln: Glad you're better Nico.

Nico: Thanks to all of you guys. You all are my true friends.

Me: Thanks man and think nothing of it.

Somewhat taken aback, the two friends nodded in agreement with their leader. Littlefoot, Aylene, and the rest of the Gang simply laughed at the scene.

Ducky: Sharing is good, yep, yep, yep!

Laney: It sure is.

Vypra: Yep.

Aylene C.: Well, c'mon! The sooner we get there, the sooner we can share!

Me: Yeah!

With all of us leading the way, the group soon entered a little gorge with a river running through it. On each side of the stream was an abundance of vegetation that had remained untouched by both the drought and forest fire.

We all gathered up some vegetation, Aylene walked up to Hyp, who looked at her with curiosity. She didn't look annoyed with him or anything. If anything, she looked calm and slightly remorseful.

Aylene C.: Uh, Hyp listen, I'm sorry for being such a jerk before. If I had only known about you and your dad… what I mean to say is I'm sorry for biting your head off and being a tough girl. It was… disrespectful.

Hyp blinked in surprise at the apology. He never expected this girl, who had always been the first to lash out at him when he and his gang picked on her friends, to actually come out and say sorry.

Hyp: Yeah, well, I'm sorry, too. You and your friends may just be hatchlings, but I gotta admit, you've all got guts and you're really awesome. And after what happened today, I don't think I'd like to be in your position.

Aylene C.: Tell me about it. Still, if you are ever faced with a pack of predators, just remember your greatest weapons: your best friends, large rocks, and lots of water.

Both Hyp and Aylene laughed at the comment and then went back to work gathering leafs.

With everyone working together, the herd managed to gather up enough leafs to feed at least three fourths of the Valley's residence.

The sun was just a little ways past the midpoint of the day when we all gathered at Thundering Falls, joining up with the rest of the Valley dinosaurs, who had found their own stocks of food. They all gathered their finds in a large pile by the river and waited for Grandpa Longneck to speak.

Grandpa Longneck: Well done, everyone, With Thundering Falls giving us water again, the Great Valley will hopefully be restored to the lush green land it once was. In the meantime, we will have to work together to preserve what food we have. But for now, let us enjoy this feast.

With that, the herd and all of us began to eat and drink to their hearts' content. However, there was something different. Instead of dinosaurs being greedy about their share of food or water, we all were sharing what they had with those around them. Even those who had a reputation of being selfish seemed to have turned around and gave their portion of food to the one beside them.

Meanwhile, Aylene caught some fish while Derek made a small campfire. The two of them cooked their own fillets of fish and watched the dinosaurs graze upon the pile of vegetation.

Me: This was some awesome adventure!

Nico: You said it J.D.

Laney: But it was so much fun.

Vypra: By the way J.D. how did you get Rotwood and his group to leave Nico's body?

Me: I showed them that they have the power to change into better people and it would be a while for everyone to forgive them for everything they've done. So after talking some sense into them I resurrected them and put them in the Neptune Prison.

Laney: Wow! That is a very wise approach.

Lana: How did you know they would change like that?

Me: Because Sunset Shimmer showed me a much more powerful Element of Harmony that is as strong as all 6 of the Elements of Harmony put together: Forgiveness. I have forgiven Rotwood and his group for everything they did.

Myotismon: Wow. You really do have a heart of gold J.D.

Me: And no I am not selling it.

We laughed at my joke.

Nico: But thank you so much for saving me J.D.

Me: No problem buddy.

Derek C.: You know, Aylene, [adjusting the fillet of fish to a different position to cook] I gotta admit, this place is pretty cool."

Aylene C.: You said that before.

Derek C.: Yeah, but it's different than what I thought of it before. And I can see why you like coming here so much.

Aylene C.: Really?

Derek C.: Yeah, you've got good friends, awesome teammates with incredible powers, a great environment, and despite the dangers, you still managed to get by. And this place is very beautiful.

Chomper: It sure is amazing huh?

Ruby: Yeah.

Aylene C.: Okay, who are you and what have you done with my brother?"

Derek chuckled at the comment.

We laughed.

Derek C.: I'm serious. This place is amazing.

Aylene C.: Well, I'm glad you finally think so.

Derek C.: And I gotta admit, you were pretty brave the way you stood up to those Velociraptors.

Aylene C.: Yeah, well, so were you. And thanks for standing up for me.

Derek C.: Hey, you're my sister. Defending you is what I do.

Aylene paused for a moment. Something about that last statement really stood out in her mind. However, at the moment, she couldn't quite put her finger on it. It was touching, but there was also something more profound to it than that. The two siblings would've continued their conversation, but smell of fish cooking over the fire made their hunger intensify. Although they didn't say anything, they seemed to mutually agree to drop the conversation for now and just enjoy their meal.

Cera: Aylene. We're going to play in the water! C'mon!

Aylene got up from her spot and looked over at her brother.

Aylene C.: You wanna come?

Derek C.: Nah, I don't feel like it. You go on, I'll watch your stuff.

Aylene C.: Okay, thanks.

With Derek guarding their belongings, Aylene raced over to the group and the Gang happily splashed around in the water. Derek couldn't help but smirk at the sight before him. It had been a while since he had seen his sister be genuinely happy.

Me: Boy this was one amazing adventure.

Nico: You said it.

Cera's Dad. Derek."

The boy looked over to see Topps walking up to him. By now, Derek had gotten used to the constant tremors of the walking giants around him that he didn't really notice the Triceratops was close by until he heard his name called out.

Derek C.: Topps, What is it?

Cera's Dad: I just wanted to say thank you to you, your friends and your sister for helping us restore the water.

Derek C.: You're welcome. And thank you for coming to our defense back at the dam. And… I'm sorry for being disrespectful before.

Derek C.: That's okay. And… you all are actually quite remarkable people. You should be proud.

A warm, proud smile slowly streaked across Derek's face and he looked back at his sister happily swimming around in the river with her little dinosaur friends.

Derek: I am, More than she'll ever know."

Me: Same here.

Nico: Yeah. (to Cera's dad) I'm really am sorry, Cera's dad. I admit that you needed to learn that you're too hard on Cera sometimes. But I never did mean to try and kill you.

Cera's dad: I know Nico. I know. But to tell you the truth I deserved that beating. I may be hard on Cera, but that doesn't mean I love her. It's just that after the huge earthquake that separated us I vowed to keep a better eye on her.

Me: That's understandable. But we will always be here whenever needed.

By the time the feast had ended, the sun had begun to set behind mountains on the west side of the Great Wall. The herds departed and made their way back to their respective nesting grounds. Aylene and Derek and all of us walked with Littlefoot and his mother and grandparents, all of us were exhausted by the events of the day.

Derek C.: Man, I don't think I've ever felt this tired before in my life.

Aylene C.: That's what you get when you have a full day of outrunning forest fires, fighting off predators, and dismantling a dam.

Me: Yeah it was intense.

Derek C.: Oh, I believe you on that one.

Beside the two humans, Littlefoot started laughing.

Aylene C.: What's so funny, Littlefoot?

Littlefoot: Oh nothing, It's just that it's nice to see you guys getting along now. And you know, I can now see how you two are related.

Derek C.: Really, how so?

Littlefoot: Well, you two are a lot alike: brave, protective, and strong. And to be honest, I can see where Aylene gets those skills from.

The human girl blinked at the statement. She didn't think about it too much, but now that it was brought to her attention, Littlefoot was right. All this time, even before she first discovered the Land Before Time, Derek had stood by her in the both the good and bad times. He had given her strength when she needed it, gave her a shoulder to cry on when she was hurt or scared, and made her smile even on the bluest of days.

Just like she had done for Littlefoot and the others.

Those skills weren't something she was just born with; they were something that her brother had shown her. She had been following his example this whole time and she didn't even know it until now.

Despite all the times he teased her, or even all the times they argued and fought, Aylene knew that he cared about her. Always did, and always will.

Just knowing that she had someone standing by her, someone who taught her to stand on her own, made Aylene's eyes glisten with joyful tears and a small smile decorate her face.

Eventually, the family of Apatosaurus and us all settled down.

Me: Lets head home.

Aylene C.: Agreed.

We opened the portal home and we went to our rooms.

Me: Man am I beat.

Nico: Me too. (to Shocker) Herman, thanks for getting me to stand down.

Shocker: Anytime Nico.

Me: But Aylene this was one amazing adventure. I can't wait to see more adventures with you and everyone.

Aylene C.: I know. Me too. (To the viewers) Water is very essential to everything in all life. Without it everything dies. So be sure to help get as much water as you can for everything.

Me: Yep.

We went to sleep.

Another awesome fanfiction done!

The 3rd Land Before Time Movie is one of my all time favorites and it came out 1995 and it was awesome! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this and credit goes to Elise Lowing and her story The Land Before Time 3 Retold and it was awesome! Thanks everyone. Next up is an adventure that will leave you in stitches: Literally. It will be a land version of the SpongeBob episode PreHibernation Week and Lincoln is gonna help Lynn get her dangerous sports activities done before the Winter comes. And no she won't fall asleep like Sandy will.

See you all tomorrow.

Lynn's Mid-Sports Crisis

Note: This chapter is a Parody of the SpongeBob episode Pre-Hibernation Week

---

In the Kitchen at the estate, Ruby Rose had finished making a delicious batch of triple fudge white, milk and dark Chocolate Chip Cookies and they smelled really awesome!

Ruby Rose: (Sniffs) Ahh! Everyone is gonna love these cookies. Let them cool for a bit while I visit the little girls room.

Ruby left and then Poromon, Horsea, Poliwag and Manaphy were grabbing the cookies and swiping them from under her nose.

Poromon: I hope Ruby doesn't find out we ate the cookies she made.

Horsea: She makes awesome cookies.

Manaphy: Some of the best ever.

Poliwag: No kidding.

They swiped all the cookies and left.

Ruby came back from the bathroom and then she saw that the cookies were gone!

Ruby Rose: (GASP)

DUNN DUNN DUUUUUUUUUNNNNN!

Ruby Rose: (SCREAMS IN HORROR!) (Echoing)

Qin: So what are Repnomites?

Shanan: Repnomites are a race of vicious, ruthless reptilian warriors that rule over everything with pure fear. They come from the destroyed planet of Xexni XII located 28,000 light-years away from Earth. The planet was completely enslaved by the Repnomites centuries ago and they were destroyed when the planet was sucked into a black hole and it exploded.

Qin: Whoa! That's incredible.

Ruby came in to the living room and she had ferociously raging glowing red eyes and an aura of darkness was surrounding her as she stomped into the room.

Ruby Rose: WHO ATE MY COOKIES?!

Me: Uh oh.

Ruby Rose: J.D., sorry to ask. But did you eat my cookies?

Me: No I was out on my routine patrol and just got back two minutes ago. What kind of cookies were they?

Ruby Rose: Oh they were triple fudge white, milk and dark chocolate chip cookies.

Me: Wow! Those sound tasty and Yang told me that you make really good cookies.

Ruby Rose: I'm glad she gives me high love for my cookies. Now I have to go find out who took them.

Me: Maybe I can help you look for them Ruby.

Ruby Rose: Thanks J.D.

Ruby went to interrogate Luan.

Ruby: Luan, did you eat my cookies?

Luan: That's the way the Cookie Crumbles. (laughs) Get it? But no I did not eat them.

Me: What were you doing?

Luan: I was counting my money I earned from a clients house for making Balloon Animals. Me and Eddy made $1,000.00. Big birthday party.

Me: Well she checks out. Luan and Eddy do awesome birthday parties for other people.

Ruby Rose: That's cool! Okay then.

We went to interrogate May.

Ruby Rose: May, did you eat my cookies?

May: No I didn't. I was making out with Nico the whole time.

Me: Aww. How is Nico doing after the whole ordeal with Rotwood and everyone inside his head?

May: He's sleeping now. Still shaken up but he will pull through.

Me: Good. I'm glad. Rotwood and his team are the first to ever go to the Warp and back. But Ruby made really good triple fudge chocolate cookies and someone swiped them all from under her nose.

May: Oh man. If I see them I'll let you know.

Ruby Rose: Thank you May.

We went to interrogate Mary Jane.

Ruby Rose: M.J., did you eat my cookies?

M.J.: No. I was with Peter helping him bust crime as Ultimate Spider Woman.

Me: Oh that's right there was a huge string of bank robberies earlier this morning. Okay you're clean.

We went to interrogate Musa.

Ruby Rose: Musa, did you eat my cookies?

Musa: No I was at a concert.

Musa showed us a video of the concert and it was awesome! They were part of a band called the Winx Club and it was awesome.

Ruby Rose: Wow! You guys are awesome!

Me: They sure are. I didn't know you girls had a band like this.

Musa: Yep. It's great.

Me: Just as good as the Rainbooms. And your music is awesome. Okay your alibi is iron clad. Ruby had her cookies swiped by someone.

Musa: Oh man. I hope she finds them.

Later we interrogated Sarah Gunnerson.

Ruby Rose: Sarah, did you eat my cookies?

Sarah: No. Making out with Tom here.

Tom was covered in lipstick marks.

Me: Aww. You two are so made for each other.

Ruby Rose: So cute.

Tom Majors: I hope you guys find them.

Next we went to interrogate Wes Collins who was training in the gym.

Ruby Rose: Wes, did you eat my cookies?

Wes: No. On a diet. Ever since I became a member of Time Squad and the Silver Guardians, I had to watch myself.

Me: I don't blame you. Got to keep that buttkicking style going.

Wes Collins: Yep.

Next we went to interrogate Emma Goodall. She was outside in the backyard taking pictures.

Ruby Rose: Emma, did you eat my cookies?

Emma: No I didn't. Out photographing wildlife.

Me: She checks out.

Later we interrogated Dante Vale. He was in his study reading.

Ruby Rose: Dante, did you eat my cookies?

Dante Vale: No. Reading books.

Me: Wow you have a lot of books here. Trying to find new titans for us to use?

Dante Vale: Yeah it's still a mystery.

Me: I see.

Later Ed was watching TV when Ruby came and she saw that he had crumbs on his face.

Ruby: Ed! I can't believe you ate my cookies!

Ed: I didn't eat them. Honest!

Ruby: Then why are there cookie crumbs near you. You prepare for the thrashing of your life!

Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy, and Horsea were running up to Nico's room.

Poliwag: I'm so glad Ruby didn't find out it was us. We got away with the perfect crimes!

But what they didn't know is that I listened in and saw that it was really Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy and Horsea that ate all the cookies Ruby made.

Me: (Snickers) (Whispers) Those four are so sneaky.

But then May saw that the four were eating the cookies!

May: Manaphy!

Manaphy: Mama, we can explain.

May: You are in so much trouble when Ruby finds out.

Ruby Rose then rushed up to Nico's room and she saw that they were REALLY the ones that ate her cookies!

Ruby Rose: YOU FOUR ARE IN SO MUCH TROUBLE!

UH OH!

Later Lynn was going through a big crisis. She was going through what is called a mid-sports crisis because of something coming up. She was raking leaves all over the yard.

Lynn: There we go! [Lynn rakes a pile of leaves in the shape of the state of Michigan] Lincoln, I got all the leaves ra… [steps on piles of leaves still on the ground] Lincoln, what are all these leaves doing here? You said you were going to rake them!

Lincoln: [peeks his head out of a pile of leaves he is in] I am raking leaves as fast as I can Lynn.

Lynn: But they're still all over the ground!

Lincoln: Lynn, I can't rake any faster. [lifts up a bunch of leaves with his hands.] I'm using my hands. [leaf breaks into more pieces] And they keep breaking into more pieces and they are harder to pick up.

Lynn: [Lynn pushes him away and rakes them herself] Then go polish my gym equipment or something! We got to get this stuff done before it's too late!

Lincoln: What's the big rush anyway, Lynn?

Lynn: [hanging laundry] I told ya, bro… [scrubs the birdbath with a toothbrush] I'm going through what's called a Mid-Sports Crisis.

Lincoln: A mid-sports crisis? I've heard of a mid-life crisis but never like that.

Lynn: It's a silly term I made up. [painting the fence] It's where I have missed out on so much stuff that I want to do for the year before the winter comes.

Lincoln: But you do all the sports Lynn. And you are also on the hockey team.

Lynn: [chuckles] That's true bro. But these are all the sports that I missed out on during the Summer.

Lincoln: Oh that's totally different. But I know how you feel Lynn. There's so many things to do in the worlds of sports.

Lynn: [cleaning her goal nets] Enough chit-chat, Lincoln. We don't have much time left!

Lincoln: Why, Lynn? How much time do you have before you are satisfied? [Lynn jumps down, pulling down a giant calendar with a giant x on the 8th]

Lynn: I have one week!

Lincoln: But Lynn, that only gives us 1, 2, 3… [gasps] 7 more days of sports time!

(NOTE: This is not timeline specific.)

Lynn: You're telling me. And there's still so much stuff to do! We gotta climb some things!

Lincoln: Climb!

Lynn: We gotta jump off of stuff!

Lincoln: Jump!

Lynn: We gotta ride!

Lincoln: Ride!

Lynn: I don't want to waste my calories missing out on these sports!

Lincoln: Wait, Lynn! [Lynn begins to cry]

Lynn: I have all these sports to do!

Lincoln: Lynn?

Lynn: What?!

Lincoln: Lynn, I'm willing to sacrifice any of my time that I haven't already sold to Bill Buck to you.

Lynn: Well, I'm glad, Lincoln, 'cause for the next seven days, it's gonna be you, me, and these sweatbands! [holds them up.] [Pantera playing] [ Cut to the Sleeping Bear Dunes National Park. Lynn is riding a Sand Shredding Board smashing through a sign] Yeah! [sliding down the dune so fast that she is now on fire. She leaves a trail of fire that turns part of the mountain into glass. She rides past a man with a backpack on his back. When she goes past him, he drops to the ground and rolls around cause he is on fire. She then rides past a man and a woman. The woman now wears a jogging outfit and the man is now riding a tricycle and holding a lollipop and paddleball. The woman looks at him]

Unnamed Man #1: Uh… I can explain. [Lynn flips in mid-air, still on fire]

Lynn: I'm hotter than dad's eggs and hickory-smoked sausages! Woo-hoo! [Lincoln is wearing his orange karate head gear and riding down the mountain on own sand dune shredboard. Cut to two kids, building a sandman]

Girl: Maybe, if we sing that song, he'll come to life.

Billy: Ready?

Both: [singing] Oh, there once was a sandman… [Lincoln rides into the sandman. a musical note pops up]

Lincoln: Life's as extreme as you want to make it! [jumps off the mountain] Whoo!

Girl: Maybe we didn't sing it right. [Lincoln is flying toward the ground. When he hits it, (CRUNCH!) two bones are sticking out]

OUCH!

Lincoln: Yeah. [cut to Lynn and Lincoln standing outside the estate] Whew, what a workout. [pulls out his right arm and shows its damages] I'm going to be feeling this tomorrow. [his arm falls to the ground] Ow.

Lynn: I got to say, I'm impressed with you, Stinkoln. You're making this the best sports crisis week ever.

Lincoln: Well, we'd better get to bed so I can catch up on some comics before hitting the sack. [sighs as he lifts up his left leg and moves it alternately with the other over to his house. Later, it's nighttime and he is finally crawling into bed] Good night, Charles. [falls asleep. Then Lynn pushes a button which launches Lincoln out of his bed and into a lake. Lincoln is now a block of ice and he is shivering. Lynn jumps in and becomes a block of ice]

Lynn: Nothing like a refreshing morning dip, huh, Stinkoln?

Lincoln: [shivering] W-what h-happened to s-sleeping? [Lynn pulls down a calendar]

Lynn: I still have a lot of time left! We only got three days for fun. [swims away] Well, hurry now! The giant salmon like to feed at this hour! [cut to Lincoln lifting a bowling ball into a tube. Lynn blows her whistle giving the signal and Lincoln runs to the end and picks up a few jacks before the bowling ball hits him on his head. Lynn does the same thing but the bowling ball hit her on the head] Isn't this great?

Lincoln: Yeah! I've never played extreme jacks before! [cut to Lynn and Lincoln with giant q-tips]

Lynn: Okay, Stinkoln, this one's going to be fun. We just whack each other with these giant q-tips 'til one of us falls off. [lifts hers up] On your mark… get set…

Lincoln: Lynn, are you sure we're supposed to be standing up here?

Lynn: Go! [hits Lincoln off the Gotham Royal York Space Needle. Lincoln crashes into the ground]

CRASH!

[Lincoln is in a hole and he is really hurt and he gets up. Lynn rides up on a two-seated bike]

Lynn: Come on, Lincoln. We're going for a tandem ride through the park!

Lincoln: Gee, that sounds safe! I mean, fun. [gets up but leaves a little blood on the ground. He jumps on the bike] Okay, I'm ready! [Pantera Plays] [They rush away] I thought you said we were riding through the park, Lynn!

Lynn: I did, Stinkoln, the industrial park! [they ride into a giant factory] This is where the real action is! [Lynn pedals on barbed wire] This part gets pretty technical! YEAH BABY! Now for the speed course. Hold on! [they ride through a conveyor belt with a giant crunching mouth at the end] I hope we make it! [bike begins to fall to the ground fast. Lincoln screams] I'm having fun, too! (CRASH!) [as they hit the ground, Lincoln melts into a puddle. Lynn tosses a fishing rod on him] Wake up, slowpoke. [scene scrolls over to show a plane] We're going fly-fishing. [rimshot]

Luan: (Offscreen) (Laughs) GOOD ONE LYNN!

Lincoln: [thinking] This girl's trying to kill me! Any more of these stunts and I'll be reduced to a pile of bloody mush! [sees his shoe floating] Wait a minute, I've got to talk my way out of this! (Out Loud) Lynn, I think I need to tell you something.

Lynn: What is it?

Lincoln: Well, it's just that I'm feeling sort of… [his mouth melts away from his eyes. He pulls it back up] I just feel like maybe I need to… [his mouth melts away again. Lynn puts her hand over his mouth]

Lynn: Hold that thought, Stinkoln! 'Cause it's time for a one of my favorites! [holds up a piece of hay.] Find the hay in the giant needle stack! [throws it in a giant pile of huge needles] [ Pantera plays again]

GULP!

Lincoln: [bites his fingers in fear. Cut to inside the giant needle pile where Lincoln is saying "ow" as he gets pricked and stabbed by the huge needles. One needle pricks his nose, causing it to deflate like a balloon. Deep voice] Ouch…

He was bleeding like crazy and had wounds all over.

Lynn: Did you find it?

Lynn too had scratches all over the place.

Lincoln : Not yet.

Lynn: Well I'm going to look over here!

Lincoln: You do that. [Lincoln digs a hole underground then emerges]

Lynn: Found it, Stinkoln! [Lincoln runs away] Come on! Best two out of three.

Lincoln: Gotta hide! Uh-G-Gotta hide! [looks at his house] Home? No. Leni can't keep a secret. [looks at Lisa's bunker] In Lisa's Bunker? It's so original! [as he jumps for the bunker, his pants get stuck on a small bramble bush]

Lynn: Stinkoln?! [Lincoln struggles to get free and eventually does, but leaves his pants stuck on the plant] Stinkoln? [Lincoln types in the bunker code which was Lisa's birthday and he went into the bunker and hid good.] [Lynn walks up to Lincoln's pants] Where are you, little bro? [gasps] Lincoln's pants! But… but… he always folds his clothes before running around… in his underwear! Something terrible must have happened to him!

Later at Lynn's Table.

[crunching and munching]

Lynn: Alright, listen up, everyone! I'm rounding up a search party! Lincoln's gone missing! [Mr. Grouse smiles at Lynn Sr., thinking that Lynn Sr. will not look for Lincoln. Lynn Sr. gives Mr. Grouse an angry look.]

Lynn Sr.: [Mr. Grouse frowns because they will search for Lincoln] Man the lifeboats!

Lynn: Alpha Team, you search uptown, Gold Team searches downtown. Any questions?

Frank: Gold Team rules!

Brain Freezer: Sorry, Lynn. We'd like to help you find Lincoln. But I have to go recruit Blizzard.

Webstor: I'm heading out to recruit Bonz after I bring him back with a Dark Orb.

Vanitas: And I'm heading out to recruit Pete.

Lynn: Oh darn.

Robo Blaze: We'll help you find Lincoln, Lynn.

Electro: But leave everyone else out of this search.

Lynn: Okay Now get moving! [crowd yelling] [Fred put a Lost poster with a picture of Lincoln] Lincoln? [Cuts to Sandy and the search party] Someone look up there! [Lynn pops out of a sewer] Put your behinds and backs into it! [cut to searching in the sulfur fields of Yellowstone] Come on! He could be anywhere in these Yellowstone sulfur fields! [Clay looks in a spout]

Clay: Hey, Lincoln! [a blast of sulfur hits him in the face] Well… , at least I still have my personality.

Sandy: Check in this moist cave right here! [Old Man Jenkins, Nathaniel and Scooter walk in shouting for Lincoln then run out, realizing the cave is actually a three-eyed dragon elephant]

Lynn: Status report!

Man 1: [covered in Poison ivy leaves] He's not at the Poison Ivy Vine Forest.

Lynn: Well, look again!

Vera: [covered in Rattlesnakes] He's not at the Rattlesnake Farm.

Lynn: Well, look again!

Mr. Grouse: He's not in my thoughts even though you did help me during Christmas.

Lynn: Well, think again! [cut to Lynn talking into a megaphone] Attention, Gotham Royal York, the time has come to double, no, triple our efforts!

Mr. Grouse: How about a break?! We've been at it for days!

Gale: Think about the children!

Lynn: That's a good idea! Use the children to crawl into small places you couldn't normally reach.

Frank: [whispering to Sadie] This is a load of potato chips.

Lynn: I heard that! No one's going anywhere until we find Lincoln!

Frank: Uh… uh, wait! [picks up Francis] Uh, here he is!

Lynn: That ain't Lincoln! Lincoln is white hair and wears an orange shirt!

[ Frank shapes Francis into Lincoln ]

Lincoln: [ in a poor imitation of Lincoln ] I'm Lincoln Loud and I like comic books and video games and I have lightning powers.

Lynn: No you don't [Clay holds up a box of Cookie-O]

Clay: I found SquareBob!

Lynn: That's just a cereal box. Besides, he has white hair.

Charlie: [holds up a bunch of marshmallows] Uh… here he is! Hey, can I go home now? [Lynn becomes annoyed]

Tina: [points up] Oh, look! He's up in the sky! [Lynn happily looks up, but Lincoln's not in the sky]

Lynn: He's not… huh? [everyone is gone] They must have gone to search some more. [Lynn continues searching for Lincoln] Lincoln, where are you?! [lifts up a house] You under there?! [lifts up another house] Nope! [lifts up another house where the unnamed man from before is at]

Unnamed Man #1: Uhh, I can explain.

Lynn: [lifts up another house] Lincoln?! [lifts up another house] Nope! [lifts up another house] Nope! [lifts up another house] Nope! Lincoln, where are you?!

Unnamed man #9: [everyone is looking at Lynn] That girl's gone crazy.

Woman: But she'll never look in this bunker.

Lincoln: [laughs] You said it! Lynn'll never find us! [everyone glares at Lincoln and throws him out] Hey, wait, you don't understand!

Mr. Grouse: [pops out from under the rock] (Whispers) Sorry about this Lincoln. (Loudly) Oh, look, it is I, Lincoln, out here in the open. [Lynn turns around]

Lynn: Lincoln?

Lincoln: [screams in horror and skulls and crossbones form in his eyes and a foghorn was heard] Come on, let me back in! You don't understand! [Lynn hugs Lincoln]

Lynn: Oh, Lincoln, I was so worried! I thought something terrible happened! [grabs his arm] Come on. There's just enough time to go atom smashing. [Lynn runs but Lincoln is not moving]

Lincoln: Lynn, wait!

Lynn: There's no time to wait! Sports Life Crisis! [pulls on Lincoln's arm]

Electro: Sports Life Crisis? Is that was this is about.

Lincoln: Lynn, you've got to make time! This is important! [Lynn lets go of Lincoln's arm] I… am a man! [holds up a razor] (To Electro) Yeah Lynn is going through a Sports Life Crisis. She wants to do all the sports she wanted to do during the Summer before the Winter came.

Electro: Oh man.

Lincoln: Okay, Lynn, I… I… I… I… I can't play with you anymore! I just can't take the games! They're tearing me apart! [rips off his shirt and throws it on the ground, then holds onto Lynn's legs crying]

Electro: Poor kid. But man look what happened to him.

Mr. Grouse: Yeah he looks like he went through World War II 100-fold.

Electro: Just what I was thinking.

But then Lynn fell down and fell asleep.

Lincoln: [He notices Lynn has fallen asleep] Lynn? [chuckles a little] I never thought I'd say it, but thank goodness she fell asleep! [laughs and falls asleep]

Electro: Man these two really were tired.

Electro picked them up and took them into the estate and put them in bed. Everyone went home. Lincoln was bandaged up and all that.

Lily: So Lincoln went through the same thing I did with Sandy?

Electro: I guess he did. Was Sandy going through a Hibernation Crisis?

Lily: Yeah she and I did all the things she wanted to do before she went to sleep for the entire winter.

Electro: Wow. So what happened in sea was like what happened here on Land. I hope Lincoln gets better.

Lily: He'll be all right. Whoa I got to get to work.

Lily went to the Krusty Krab and he told SpongeBob everything that happened with Lincoln.

SpongeBob: So Lincoln and Lynn went through the same thing you did with Sandy when she was hibernating?

Lily: Yeah and Lincoln got hurt all over the place really bad. Not nearly as bad as me but just as bad.

SpongeBob: Wow. Lincoln is a good brother.

Lily: That's my big bro for you.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

Prehibernation Week of SpongeBob was an awesome and funny episode! Pantera did a great job in the episode and it aired on May 5th, 2001 and it was so funny! NicoChan11, gave me the ideas for this. Thanks man. Next up is Veterans Day and we're going to not only appreciate our fellow soldiers and veterans that have served our country but also we're going into battle against the evil aliens that are from the awesome movie BATTLESHIP! It's also based on the awesome board game I used to play back when I was a kid. We're going to test our skills in the running of battleships and more.

See you all tomorrow.

Veterans Day Alien Mayhem

HAPPY VETERANS DAY 2020 EVERYONE!

At the estate we were watching TV and having fun. Then Alexis, Gia, Emma, Leslie, Kari and Donna came.

Me: Hey girls.

Donna: Hey J.D. We have a special treat for you all.

Alexis: We're gonna see what it's like to be snails like Gary.

Gary: Meow?

Nico: How do you plan to do that?

They held up a shell-shaped syringe.

SpongeBob: Is that the Snail Plasma?

Emma Goodall: Yes it is.

Lily: That was from that time Squidward neglected to feed Gary during the time me, SpongeBob and Patrick went to that Jellyfishing Convention in Ukulele Bottom. That was so much fun.

Nico: Cool!

Flame Man: SpongeBob, you're the snail expert. What's snail plasma?

SpongeBob: It's the refreshing matter that rejuvenates snails.

Gary: Meow.

Me: And Squidward forgot to feed Gary right?

Lily: Yep.

Me: Well go for it girls.

Alexis: Okay.

They injected themselves with Snail Plasma.

Mollie: Are you girls sure you want to inject yourselves with snail plasma?

Alexis: We want to see what it's like.

Me: Well it will take a while for the Snail Plasma to take effect. You know how slow snails can be. No offense Gary.

Gary: Meow.

Me: That must've been a really crazy time for you and Squidward to be being turned into Snails, SpongeBob.

Lily: But they both were really cute as snails and I loved it when they meowed Blow the Man Down and Patrick threw a boot and hit Squidward with it. (Laughs)

We laughed!

Then the girls groaned in pain.

Me: Uh oh. Here we go.

They were getting smaller.

Emma: (groans) I think I'm starting to shrink! My bones are shrinking as well.

Alexis: Me too! Meow!

Gia: Meow!

Me: You know the funny thing is here on land, snails don't meow like cats. No offense Cliff.

Cliff: (Meows)

Lana: He said none taken.

The 6 girls shrank and they grew shells and they were out of their clothes and they had shells and their eyes popped out of their heads and were on stalks and they still had all their hair and their eyes were the same. Their arms and feet were sucked into their bodies and they became the size of snails and were now full fledged snails!

Alexis was now a blue snail with a blue shell and blond hair.

Emma was now a pink snail with brown hair a pink shell.

Donna was now a yellow snail with a yellow shell, red hair and Scream will be separated from her temporarily.

Leslie was now a purple snail with a purple shell and black hair and Agony will be separated from her temporaily.

Kari was now a magenta snail with brown hair and a magenta shell.

Gia was now a yellow snail with blond hair and a rainbow shell.

Me: Whoa! How do you girls feel?

Skywarp: Can you girls understand us?

Gia: Meow.

Lana: Gia says yes.

Jaden picked up Alexis.

Jaden Yuki: You look so cute as a snail Lexi.

Alexis purred.

I picked up Kari and she purred too.

Me: You girls look so cute as snails.

I felt slime on my hands.

Me: Ew! Wait this gives me a prank idea.

Nico: Ooh! I have a feeling I know what you're gonna do.

We went to the Neptune Prison and we went to the cell of Squidward Tentacles.

I rang his doorbell. He lives in a luxurious cell much to the jealousy of the other prisoners.

Squidward: Who could that be? As if I didn't already know.

SpongeBob: I thought I told you. (Sees the girls as snails) It will take a whi-wh-whi (screams)!

Gia: Meow.

Emma: Meow!

Squidward: (SCREAMS IN FRIGHT!)

Me: Like our new pets Squidward?

Squidward: Did you use the Snail Plasma on them!?

Me: No they found it and used it on themselves. They wanted to see what it was like being a snail.

Squidward: Oh. That's different.

Gia: (To Gary) You got that right. And being a snail is really cool.

Gary: (As Keith David) You got that right Gia Yellow.

Emma: Your voice sounds like Keith David when we can understand you.

Gary: I know. Cool and sexy huh?

Squidward: I got to admit they do look cute as snails. Snelly would have nice new playmates too.

Nico: I'm sure she would.

Me: We just wanted to see your reaction to this.

Squidward: Har har har. But that was a good prank.

We later went back home.

Vince: How much longer till they stop being snails?

Me: Hmm. Lets see.

I looked at the syringe.

Me: (Reading labels) "If given to humans or fish it will turn them into snails for only 2 hours."

I looked at my watch.

Me: Its been 1 hour and 55 minutes.

Nico: So 5 more minutes.

Maria: Yep.

Laney: It was really cool seeing them as snails.

Lincoln: It sure was. After this, they are probably gonna be hungry for vegetables.

Nico: Yeah land snails eat a lot of veggies.

Rainbow Dash: No kidding. But this was cool while it lasted.

Fluttershy: And it was really amazing seeing them as snails.

Rarity: It sure was.

Me: 15 seconds left. Boys cover your eyes.

We covered our eyes.

Me: 3… 2… 1… 0.

I covered my eyes and the girls groaned in pain.

They regained some of their human appearances and got their heads, and arms and legs and their shells went back in and they grew.

Skydive: You girls ok?

Gia: (groans) I think so. But we're still growing!

Maria: We have new clothes for you because they are covered in slime.

Alexis: Thank you.

They finished reverting back and they were completely naked and Maria, Leni, Teresa, Rarity and Twilight Sparkle gave them their clothes.

Alexis: Thanks guys.

They put their clothes back on and we looked.

Me: So how did it feel for you girls to be snails?

Gia: It was awesome! But I have a strong lettuce aftertaste in my mouth.

Emma: I think we all do.

Me: Well we gave you all a lot of lettuce because snails eat a lot of it.

Nico: But how did you guys liked being snails?

Kari: It was awesome!

Alexis: It sure was cool though.

Naruto: I can tell.

Me: (Gasp) That's right. We have to get ready for today. It's a very important day in our country's history.

Nico: What is it?

Me: It's Veterans Day, the day we give appreciation and thanks to the brave men and women who served for our country.

Nico: Oh wow! I forgot that was today!

Commander Jupiter: This is gonna be an awesome Veterans Day!

Me: You said it! It's the day we appreciate the soldiers and men and women who served our country.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Pinkie Pie: VETERANS DAY PARTY! (Blows Noise Makers)

We got ready and we decorated the house with everything America. Later we were over in Washington D.C. over at the National World War II memorial to pay our respects to those who fought valiantly during World War II 80 to 75 years ago.

Nico: Wow. The World War II memorial.

Me: Yep. My grandfathers both fought in World War II. My grandpa Dean fought for the Army and my grandpa Jimmy fought for the Coast Guard. They will always be part of me despite me not knowing about them.

Vince: Wow.

Me: I know. America fought in a lot of wars over the last 245 years. But not nearly as many as all the wars all over the world all together.

Lincoln: I know. It's amazing.

Lola: What was the war that cost the most lives in America?

Me: That's an easy one. The American Civil War.

Nico: How many people died in that one?

Me: 620,000 Americans. World War II had 291,557 people from America died during that whole war.

Everyone gasped.

Nico: That's horrible!

Me: It all was horrible. We know the devastation that war brings. Nothing good ever comes from war. Even if it's ferocious battles like the Battle with Thanos or the War with the Royal Defenders.

Naruto: I know.

Laney: It's horrible.

Tundra Man: A moment of silence for those who have died fighting for our country.

We had a moment of silence that lasted 45 seconds and Laney played taps on her trumpet. We paid our respects to everyone who lost their lives in all the wars over the last 2 and a half centuries.

Later we went back home and we got ready for Veterans Day.

Leslie: I really enjoyed being a snail.

Me: Thank goodness we didn't eat you and I don't even like Escargot. No offense Marinette.

Marinette: None taken.

But then a news report came on!

News Reporter: We have an urgent situation going on over in Hawaii! Alien ships are invading Hawaii and the battleships of the Navy are completely powerless to stop them!

I recognized all the ships that were invading!

Me: (Gasp) I know those kinds of ships!

Shanan: Those are the ships of the Garenonian Regents!

Nico: Those are the aliens from the awesome 2012 movie Battleship!

Lana: I love that movie! And I also love the board games too!

Nico: Me too Lana! They are awesome!

Me: They are really fun. It's a great game to test your strategical and tactical skills like in chess.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Sinestro: I've encountered the Garenonian Regents before.

Me: Same here. They are dangerous and really brutish and ruthless. They are orcish creatures. But they are extremely phobic of light and are not very bright.

Shanan: Let me tell you about them.

Shanan did so and their history and technology was incredible.

---

The Garenonian Regents are an advanced space-faring alien species and the main antagonists in the Battleship movie and video game.

The Regents came from a newly-discovered extrasolar planet named Planet G by NASA scientists. When NASA sent out a signal to the planet, five Regent ships arrive in response. In appearance the Regents have almost human-like characteristics such as their faces, hands and their bodies being light brown and are roughly humanoid. They also possess lizard-like eyes and feet. They wear special metal space suits that are color coded to represent different ranks. Other Regents are cyborgs built with heavy-armored suits and inbuilt weaponry. Regents are possibly amphibians and their habitat is likely watery with a bit of land as much of their technology, such as their spaceships, are focused on being adaptable for water.

Behavior

Unlike other alien species from other movies, the Regents are not shown to be entirely cold and ruthless towards humanity because they almost look human and are not seen as an immediate threat. In the movie, the scout fleet of Regents almost never engaged the humans offensively unless they are threatened, why exactly is never fully explained though a possible explanation is so they can avoid as few casualties as possible. If scanned objects get green on their HUD, it means it´s unarmed and not a threat, they ignore it, and if it gets red, which means it´s armed and ready to attack (for example when a ship is pointing guns at them), they destroy it. They are shown to have their own personalities, some are obedient and logical to orders while others were curious and harmless. When it comes to hand to hand combat, the Regent Thugs are quick and aggressive. The Regents are shown to be sensitive to sunlight or any form of bright lights and if their eyes are exposed to continuous beams of sunlight, it can leave them half-blind and vulnerable.

Technology

The Regents are shown to be a powerful and more advanced species as they possess spaceships that can take them from one star system to another plus many other advances including cybernetics, robotics, energy weapons, advanced scanners and even the ability to sway and control the forces of the weather to create a giant domed force field.

Types of Garenonian Regents

The Regents come in four different types both in the movie and the video game. Their functions are different between the movie and game.

Blue Soldier

The most basic soldiers in the Regents ground forces. In the movie they were unarmed and acted mainly as workers, scientists and technicians when setting up equipment or studying the Earth. In the game they were armed with KRAWs, a laser based rapid firing machine gun that fired a shotgun spread of blue laser pulses. They were the most common enemy faced by the player on the land.

Gold Commander

The leading Regents who give out orders and lead squads on patrol. In the movie they were unarmed and never directly fought the humans unlike the Thugs. One commander was captured by the crew of the John Paul Jones but it is rescued by a team of Thugs. In the game as well as leading the troops, commanders were armed with alien Railguns, a long range heavy weapon which can be used to snipe enemies from a distance.

Thugs

The special forces and heavy infantry units in the Regents ground forces. Large muscular beasts enhanced with cybernetics and heavy armor which make them the toughest of the Regents troops. They were incredibly strong and their heavy armor make them resistant to bullets and physical attacks. Their whole right arm could transform into multiple different tools and weapons for different tasks. In the movie because of their strength and abilities, Thugs were the ones doing the dirty and dangerous work whether it would be guarding an outpost, committing rescue missions, or sabotage. In the game they attack the player up close by charging at them and slicing them to death with its multipurpose claw.

Spaceship Crewman

Briefly seen in the movie, these aliens pilot the Regent spaceships. They wear simple black suits and don't wear any helmets unlike the troops as the ships provide them darkened protection against sunlight.

---

We gasped!

Me: Whoa!

Nico: These guys must be really dangerous!

Lincoln: No kidding.

Me: They are really dangerous.

Magnet Man: Maybe I can use my magnetism to tear those ships apart.

Me: That works perfectly Magnet Man. And Ben can use Lodestar

as well.

Riley: And me and Bella can use Lodestar's powers too.

Me: Perfect!

Bella: Awesome.

Rhino: Is it possible for the Garenonian Regents to walk on land?

Me: Yeah but they can't be far from water. Why?

Rhino: Just asking.

Me: Lets get to work on an awesome battleship.

Lola: Wow!

Lana: What kind of ship are we gonna make?

Me: I'm glad you asked. (Pulls out blueprints) Me and Lisa made these blueprints.

I unrolled the blueprints and it showed an awesome science fiction style flying battleship. (Think of the largest flying battleship from Ark of War)

Lincoln: Whoa! This ship looks amazing!

Me: Yep and it's equipped with all the most advanced features. Force fields, laser cannons, heat seeking missiles, fire cannons, elemental cannons, and many more features.

Applejack: Wow! That is dad-gum impressive!

Me: Yep.

Lisa Loud: We made the idea for this from an app game that J.D. was playing and it gave us the idea for such an advanced Naval Battleship.

Nico: Wow! What is it powered by?

Me: Solar Power and it helps the ship run for 100 days non-stop.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! That's an amazing ship.

Rainbow Dash: That ship is awesome!

Captain Flynn: BOOM! Yeah!

Lincoln: Yeah!

Lightning Dust: I've never been on a battleship before.

Me: First times for everything Lightning Dust. Shall we get to work on it?

Everyone: YEAH!

Larxene, Electro, Dr. Viktor, Firefly, Atomic Skull, and Living Laser then showed up.

Me: Oh hey guys.

Larxene: Hope you guys don't mind me, Electro, Dr. Viktor, Firefly, Atomic Skull, and Living Laser helping you out with this.

Me: Not at all Larxene. This is gonna be so cool!

Nico: And Happy Veteran's day to you guys.

Living Laser: Thanks Nico.

Me: Shall we all get to work?

Everyone: YEAH!

We went to the garage and got to work on our ship and it is gonna be awesome.

---

In the garage we were putting together our awesome new battleship.

We were making awesome progress as we were getting it done really fast.

Me: Looking good guys.

Nico: So far.

Then Saïx, Skinner, Vulture, Bane, Dr. Arthur Light and Demyx appeared.

Me: Oh hey Saīx, Adrien, Skinner, Bane, Dr. Light, Demyx.

Vulture: Hey guys. Wow! You guys are building an awesome ship.

Nico: We sure are.

Saïx: I hope you all are having a Happy Veterans Day.

Maria: We sure are.

Skinner: Glad to hear it.

Vulture: Shame those aliens picked today to attack Earth.

Me: No kidding. But this is gonna be awesome. Next to being pirates in the world of Pirates of the Caribbean, we're gonna be awesome sailors on a battleship.

Mr. Krabs: Ar-ar-ar-ar-ar-ar-ar! That be true boy-o.

Lily: It sure is gonna be so cool!

Nico: You said it guys.

Demyx: I always love a good sailing adventure.

Irma Lair: Same here.

Laney: We all do.

Applejack: Speak for yourselves. I always get seasick.

Me: Uh oh. We'll bring anti-seasickness medicine for you Applejack.

Laney: I always carry plenty of it.

Laney pulled out her serum box and in it was plenty of bottles of anti-seasickness medicine.

Applejack: Thanks Laney. You're a lifesaver.

Laney: Always have to be prepared.

Carol: Good job Laney.

Eli: Way to be prepared.

?: I'll say.

2 figures came out and one was COMMANDER CRAYFISH from episodes 59 and 98 of Mighty Morphin!

---

Commander Crayfish was a crayfish monster, created by Finster. Commander Crayfish led the Mutant Rangers (whom were Putties using the Badges of Darkness) in Rita Repulsa's plan to destroy the Power Rangers using their evil reflections. He serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Mighty Morphin' Mutants".

Commander Crayfish was created by Finster, on the orders of Rita. Rita planned to destroy Power Rangers, using her own team of Mutant Rangers. Five Putties were chosen for this role and they used Badges of Darkness to transform into evil clones of Rangers. Commander Crayfish was chosen to replace Jason, the Red Ranger, as none of the Putties was worthy to become the Red Ranger. He wielded a similar version of Rangers Power Sword. Then Rita sent them all to Earth. Together they fought the Rangers, but persistence and courage of heroes helped them defeat the villains. Then Rita enlarged them all, but after the long battle they were all destroyed by Ultrazord's Laser Blasts.

He was recreated by Lord Zedd along with Goo Fish, Slippery Shark, and Pirantishead in "A Reel Fish Story" as one of the four aquatic monsters to attack the Rangers at the beach (he was referred to as " Cruel Crayfish " this time). He, like the other three monsters, was defeated by Tommy. During this appearance, Commander Crayfish had a female voice.

And also MALDAN from episode 12 of Samurai!

---

Maldan is a Nighlok who assisted Master Xandred and Octoroo in developing the Laser Blasters for the Master Blasters. Once the test was complete, Maldan rendezvous with Serrator where he and the Moogers use the Laser Blasters on the Samurai Rangers. He managed to knock down Antonio. In the nick of time, Mentor Ji arrived with the new Bullzooka created by Cody's family as Jayden uses the Bullzooka to take out the Moogers. Maldan then uses his Laser Blaster to fight Jayden. Jayden uses the Bullzooka's Bullzooka Blast to defeat Maldan who commented that this wasn't part of the plan. Maldan then grows as the other Rangers use the Bull Megazord and the LightZord fight Maldan while Jayden tries to exterminate the remaining Moogers. Maldan is assisted by Giant Master Blasters to use the Super Master Blaster on the Megazords. After the Giant Moogers were defeated, the LightZord then disarms Maldan as the Bullzord uses its Revolving Laser Blaster to destroy Maldan.

---

Tommy Oliver: Commander Crayfish!

Jayden Shiba: And Maldan!

Commander Crayfish: Been a while rangers.

Maldan: Same here.

Me: I remember you both all too well! Commander Crayfish you were sent to destroy the Rangers with your team of Mutant Rangers. It was part of Rita's Strategy: Fight Fire with Fire. And you also returned with Goo Fish, Slippery Shark and Pirantishead for round 2 to attack the rangers at the beach. And Maldan you made those wicked awesome Master Blasters and had your Moogers equipped with them to destroy the Samurai Rangers.

Commander Crayfish: Good memory on you.

Maldan: Yeah.

Me: Out of all the monsters that the rangers faced in Mighty Morphin, you are my all time favorite Commander Crayfish.

Commander Crayfish: I'm honored about that.

Nico: This is gonna be awesome!

Naruto: Yeah!

Commander Crayfish: Here are my Mutant Rangers.

He called out his Mutant Rangers and they looked like the Rangers but different.

Me: OH YEAH! This is gonna be awesome!

Commander Crayfish: It's not just my Ranger clones you have to worry about. I also brought Super Putties!

He called out an army of Super Putties too.

Me: Bring them on lobster boy!

Nico: This is gonna be wild!

Maldan: Tell you what. If you defeat me and my Moogers, I'll let you guys keep one of our Master Blasters.

Eli: You got a deal.

Me: We're also building a battleship because aliens are attacking. They are called the Garenonian Regents. They are the aliens from 2012's Battleship.

Skinner: I love that movie!

Larxene: One of the awesome movies.

Me: Yep and it's based on my favorite board game: Battleship.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets get these battles done. Everyone, you continue working on the ship. We'll have our usual battles while construction is on.

Vince: Got it.

Our battles got underway.

---

Saïx: (to Carol) Carol, J.D. said that the Garenonian Regents are weak to all kinds of light. Does that include moonlight as well?

Carol: Moonlight is sunlight reflected by the moon but it's not as bright as the Sun's light is.

Sunset Shimmer: But we'll find out when we face them.

Pepperdance: J.D.'s artificial moonlight is as bright as 10 suns and it's more powerful than that.

Sinestro: Yeah I remember.

Power Girl: Me too. This is gonna be interesting.

Carol: It'll be night by the time we get there. So we're gonna find out when we face them.

Sweetie Belle: They sure are but at least we prevail against evil.

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) It is brutal but at least we have soldiers like you to help protect us and serve our country.

Skinner: That's what we're here for. Who is this with all of you by the way?

He fell to the ground and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Nico: Yeah! Maldan you have failed this planet.

Twilight Sparkle: Awesome!

Eli: Yeah!

Battle 8: Commander Crayfish

Starlight Glimmer, Mighty Morphin Rangers, me, Lincoln, Mistmane and Somnambula were facing Commander Crayfish, his Mutant Rangers and his Super Putties.

Me: This is gonna be so awesome! Like we're living an episode on TV.

Somnambula: It sure feels like it!

Tommy Oliver: Yeah!

Starlight Glimmer: This is gonna be so cool!

Tommy Oliver: Lets do it guys! It's Morphin Time!

THUNDERCLAP!

Tommy Oliver: WHITE TIGER!

Zack Taylor: MASTODON!

Kimberly Ann Hart: PTERODACTYL!

Billy Cranston: TRICERATOPS!

Trini Kwan: SABER-TOOTHED TIGER!

Jason Lee Scott: TYRANNOSAURUS!

The Mighty Morphin Rangers Transformed and they were ready!

Jason Lee Scott: Yeah! We're back and ready to morph into action!

Tommy Oliver: Six! Working Together to Fight Evil!

Zack Taylor: And stop Rita!

Billy Cranston: And all her menacing monsters!

Trini Kwan: From destroying our planet Earth!

Kimberly Ann Hart: And ruling the universe with evil!

Me: They are never gonna back down because they are the…

Me and the Mighty Morphin Rangers: POWER RANGERS!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off behind us!

Lincoln: That was awesome!

Me: Time to unleash my full power on the Mutant Rangers.

I powered up to my Super Angel 10,000 form.

Me: I don't need to go to my ultimate transformation to face you guys. Lets get them!

Lincoln: With pleasure!

We went at them and I punched and kicked and blasted the Mutant Rangers all over with powered energy blasts and fire blasts and

Lincoln fired blasts of lightning and blew all the Super Putties apart and destroyed them in fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBBOOOOOOMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOMMM! KRABBBOOOOOOMMMMM!

Mistmane and Somnambula fired blasts of energy and blew more putties apart.

I slashed some of the Mutant Rangers with my sword and slashed them down and the Mighty Morphin Rangers blasted them all over.

Me: Now for the Grand Finale! Rangers assemble Power Blaster!

Rangers: Right!

Zack Taylor: POWER AXE!

Kimberly Ann Hart: POWER BOW!

Trini Kwan: POWER DAGGERS!

Billy Cranston: POWER LANCE!

Jason Lee Scott: POWER SWORD!

The Power Blaster was assembled.

Jason Lee Scott: One cooked crayfish coming up!

Commander Crayfish: We'll see about that!

He and the Mutant Rangers had their own Power Blaster and it was ready!

Me: Fire!

Starlight Glimmer: CONSTELLATION STYLE NINJA ART: STING OF SCORPIUS!

The Stars of Scorpius the Scorpion appeared behind her and

Starlight fired blasts of star energy.

Mistmane: NATURE STYLE NINJA ART: SEQUOIA SMASHING DRAGON!

Mistmane fired a wave of energy and it formed into a dragon as big as a sequoia tree.

Somnambula: EGYPT STYLE NINJA ART: SPHINX OF THE DESERT!

Somnambula fired a wave of energy and it formed into a sphinx.

Lincoln fired a massive blast of lightning and I fired a wave of energy and the Mighty Morphin Rangers fired the Power Blaster Commander Crayfish and the Mutant Rangers fired their Power Blaster and the blasts collided and our blasts all overpowered his blasts and they all hit Commander Crayfish and the Mutant Rangers and they all exploded in a massive fiery explosion and were completely obliterated in an instant.

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

They were dead!

Me: YEAH! In the words of Nico, Commander Crayfish and the Mutant Rangers, you all have failed this universe.

Tommy Oliver: You said it J.D.!

Starlight Glimmer: That was so awesome!

Somnambula: Yeah!

---

We had the usual battles done and then some aliens were coming towards the estate and someone saw them. It was none other than Kiyo Takamine and Zatch Bell. Who we are going to meet in the future.

Zatch: What are those things? They don't look like Momodo to me.

Kiyo: That's because they're aliens. And we have to stop them from attacking Team Loud Phoenix Storm's Estate!

Zatch: Lets do it!

Kiyo pulled out a red book.

Kiyo: (Echoing) ZAKER!

Zatch fired a massive blast of lightning from his mouth and obliterated the aliens in an instant!

Poliwag saw them and came to them.

Zatch: (sees Poliwag nearby) Look, Kiyo! It's Nico Chan's Poliwag!

Kiyo: (rubs Poliwag's head) Hey, little guy. Think you can keep our involvement a secret until we meet your friends in the future?

Poliwag: I can try. But J.D. will figure it out just so you know.

Kiyo: Knowing J.D. he will. See you all soon.

Poliwag: Okay.

Poliwag came back. Our ship was complete!

Living Laser: That's a nice ship you guys built!

Megan: Thanks. We based it off an app game

Me: Yep. Not a bad job if I do say so myself.

Dr. Viktor: I think there should be a mothership controlling the entire fleet of the other ships.

Me: I'll have Dark Spicer look for it and he'll let us know where it is.

Larxene: Awesome.

Firefly: Can I fly alongside you guys? I want to test if the alien ships can catch up to me.

Lola: You sure can Garfield.

Electro: I think my powers can greatly wreak havoc on the aliens and their ships!

Lincoln: It just might work Max.

Me: All right lets light this candle! First lets christen this ship.

May handed me a bottle of champagne.

Me: I hereby christen this ship the TLPS AERO AQUAPHOENIX!

I smashed the bottle on the ship and it was ready and fully set and we cheered wildly.

Nico: Awesome!

We got the ship ready and engaged the engines and we were flying off to Hawaii.

Me: Wow. So far it's working great.

Nico: Wow! This is amazing!

Ahsoka Tano: This is one of the coolest ships ever.

The ship was over 10,293 feet long, 6,376 feet wide and had laser cannons, missile turrets, machine guns, elemental energy rays, impenetrable force field shields and so much more and the ammo and weapons were endless. It was also built to be the perfect rescue ark and battleship that can fly in the sky and float on the water.

Me: Wow! It's amazing!

Nico: This is amazing! We did a really great job.

Naruto: We sure did.

Laney: This is so cool!

Sora's ship, the Megaforce Skyship and the Lightspeed Rescue Omega Zords were flying along side us and they hooked up to us.

Lincoln: This… IS… AWESOME!

Clyde: It sure is.

Me: She is working really well.

We arrived at our destination.

Me: We're here. Lets land in the ocean.

We landed in the ocean and we sailed on and then we saw a massive armada of Garenonian Regent battleships on the water.

Atomic Skull: Damn, that's a lot of ships!

Me: We've handled much worse odds than this.

Aang: He's right.

Troy: Time to sink these Battleships!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Operation Overdrive!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Operation Overdrive rangers!

Orion: These aliens are just like the Armada. And like the Armada, they're going down!

Me: They always will go down! BATTLESTATIONS EVERYONE!

The alarms sounded and were ready for action!

Me: Nico, Vegeta, form balls of artificial moonlight.

Nico: Right!

Vegeta: Lets do it!

Nico and Vegeta formed powerful balls of energy and threw them into the sky and then in a massive flash of light as bright as 100 suns, the sky was illuminated with a big ball of artificial moonlight as bright as 10 suns, turning night into day!

The Garenonion's were screaming in pain as they were blinded by the light.

Me: FIRE AT WILL!

We fired laser cannons, missiles, elemental blasts and more and most of us got on the front of the ship and fired energy blasts, elemental blasts and more.

The ships all over were being blown to smithereens in massive fiery explosions!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMMMMMMM

Me: Yeah!

Nico: This is awesome!

We sunk over 50 ships and counting in one fell swoop! On the island of Oahu the veterans of our Armed Forces were cheering us on and so were the people of Hawaii!

Starfire: Take these! LIFE STYLE NINJA ARTS: LIFE TOUCH, SINGING FAUN and TREANT!

Starfire fired waves of leaves and energy and they formed into a Faun and Treant and waves of leaves went at a bunch of ships and blew them apart and turned them into trees in the middle of the ocean. The trees were over 90,000 feet tall and were 50,000 feet wide and the canopy was massive!

Twilight Sparkle: And try these on! LIFE STYLE NINJA ARTS: LOVE'S LIGHT, SWORD OF LIFE and SPEAR OF LIFE!

Twilight Sparkle flew over and formed a sword of leaves and a spear of leaves and she slashed the Garenonians all over the place and also blasted them with light blasts of love and cut them all over the place.

The Garenonian Regents returned fire by using their drill balls and fired them at us.

Rita blasted the balls all over with lightning and destroyed them in an instant.

Rita Loud: Is that all you dirtbags got?!

Me: Yeah!

Nico: You aliens have failed this planet!

Ben turned into Lodestar and Riley and Bella both used Lodestar's powers and ripped the ships apart with massive magnetism blasts and Magnet Man and Gravity Man ripped the ships apart and smashed them all over the place. Najrain, Lystone, Riggan, and Cyrenox and the Megaforce Rangers all blasted the ships all over.

Dark Spicer: Dark Spicer to J.D. do you copy?

Me: J.D. here Dark.

Dark Spicer: I found the Garenonian Regents mothership. It's a massive vessel that stationed itself right in between the Earth and the Moon.

Me: Excellent. Lock on your superlaser and fire.

Dark Spicer: Roger that.

Dark Spicer had the ship locked on target. The mothership was caught in the crosshairs.

Dark Spicer: Here's your warning you fuckwads: You mess with our planet and you guys will be the ones that shit all over the sidewalk and your fucking selves!

He fired the superlaser and it hit the ship and blew it to smithereens in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Dark Spicer: BULLSEYE! J.D., target destroyed!

Me: Good shot Dark!

Flame Man: Lets bring on the teamwork!

Skywarp: Yeah!

Flame Man and Skywarp used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Flame Man's Fire powers and Skywarp's Missile Launcher 100-fold.

Skydive and Mollie also used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Skydive's Nega-Gun and Mollie's Lightning Powers 100-fold.

Flame Man and Skywarp: FLAMING MISSILE STORM STRIKE!

Flame Man and Skywarp fired massive blasts of missiles and fire.

Skydive and Mollie: NEGATIVE THUNDERSTORM MEGABLAST!

Skydive fired his Nega-Gun and Mollie Fired a massive blast of lightning.

Oceanus Shenron and Girl Jordan: WHIRLWIND DRAGONSTORM CYCLONE!

Nuova Shenron and Lola: NUOVA FIRESTORM MEGASHOT!

Brittney and Nico: DARKNESS KARMA MEGABLAST!

May and Lana: SUBZERO ICESTORM BLAST!

They fired blasts of elements and the blasts all hit more of the Garenonian ships and obliterated them in massive fiery explosions and blew them apart and sunk them.

Rita: Lets finish them off for good!

Lincoln: Lets do it mom!

Troy Burrows: Yeah!

Rita Loud, Megaforce Rangers and Lincoln: ULTRA LIGHTNING SUPER THUNDERSTRIKE!

They fired a massive wave of lightning and energy and the blasts slammed into the rest of the remaining ships and obliterated them in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Garenonian Regents were all destroyed and defeated!

Me: YEAH!

Nico: That did it!

The soldiers and people of Hawaii all cheered wildly.

Saïx: So much for the Garenonian Regents.

Dr. Light: Now, this was an excellent way to celebrate Veteran's Day!

May: It sure was!

Bane: Now, why don't we celebrate this victory with a cookout?

Me: You guys don't have to tell me twice!

Laney: Yeah!

Me: I think our new ship works so perfectly.

Nico: It sure does. Awesome!

Linka: This was so awesome!

We went back home and had an awesome Veterans Day bbq and more.

Rita: (To the viewers) Aliens will never torment our planet even on Veterans Day.

Me: You said it Rita.

We went back home and had a great BBQ.

THE END

Nobody is Perfect

In Ponyville, a young pony was running down the streets.

Skeedaddle : [panting] Cutie Mark Crusaders! Cutie Mark Crusaders! Cutie Mark Crusaders! Cutie Mark Crusaders!

Scootaloo : We're at my house! [door opens]

Skeedaddle came hin.

Skeedaddle : I got my cutie mark!

Sweetie Belle : You did?

Cutie Mark Crusaders : That's great, Skeedaddle!

Scootaloo : Yeah! What's it for?

Skeedaddle : Knot-tying!

He had a rope tied in a fancy knot.

Skeedaddle: And I never would've gotten it without all of you!

Apple Bloom : Did we suggest knot-tying?

Skeedaddle : [to Sweetie Belle] First, I tried sailing, like you said. [to Scootaloo] Next, I tried fishing, like you said. [to Apple Bloom] Then, I tried rowing, like you said. But my oar broke. So I used my fishing line to tie it back together, and I got my cutie mark! [squeals] I can't wait to tell everypony! [zip!] [door closes]

Cutie Mark Crusaders : [cheer]

Aunt Holiday : (Australian Accent) Oh, how exciting. You three truly have a gift for helping ponies.

Scootaloo : Aw, thanks, Aunt Holiday. But I'm not sure we can take credit for this one.

Aunt Holiday : Of course you can. You encouraged that colt to try new things. And because you all believed in him, he succeeded.

Auntie Lofty : I could use that kind of help. Huh.

Scootaloo : [laughs] Come on, Auntie Lofty. You already have your cutie mark.

Auntie Lofty : Lot of good it does me. I can't decide what theme to give this quilt. Ah, I've run out of inspiration.

Apple Bloom : How about apples? Puppies? Kites!

Sweetie Belle : Or cotton candy! Or ballet!

Scootaloo : What about a Wonderbolt quilt?

Auntie Lofty : [laughs] See? Leave it to you three to come up with more ideas than I've had in a year! Now, that's talent. [cuckoo clock]

Aunt Holiday : Goodness. We'd better get going, or we'll miss our train home. I left you plenty of healthy food for the weekend.

Auntie Lofty : And I left you cookies. [chuckles]

Cutie Mark Crusaders : [gasp]

Aunt Holiday : The Cakes will stay with you tonight. Then Rarity, and Rainbow Dash after that. Remember, we're just a few stops from Ponyville if you need us.

Auntie Lofty : She knows, Holiday. See you next week, slugger.

Scootaloo : Bye, Aunt Holiday! Bye, Auntie Lofty! [door closes]

Sweetie Belle : Your aunts are so nice.

Apple Bloom : Yeah. It's really cool they watch you while your parents are gone.

Scootaloo : I know. I just wish they lived closer. Nopony bakes like Auntie Lofty. [knocking on door] [door opens]

Derpy dropped off some mail. It was a postcard and she read it.

Scootaloo : [gasps] They're coming home today!

Sweetie Belle : Who?

Scootaloo : My parents!

Later at the Ponyville School for Foals, Class was in session and Scootaloo was so excited!

Cheerilee : Today, we're gonna learn about the Pegasus Weather Factory.

[door creaks]

Scootaloo was so excited to see her parents.

Cheerilee : Once everypony is in their seats.

[door closes]

Scootaloo closed the door.

Cheerilee : The factory specializes in snow, rain, sunshine, and… [clears throat] Scootaloo? May I help you?

Scootaloo : I… just noticed your erasers needed dusting. [nervous laugh] [soft thuds]

Cheerilee and foals : [coughing]

Cheerilee : Why don't we hold off on the lesson until after lunch? How about show and tell? Does anypony have any-?

Scootaloo : My parents are coming home to Ponyville today!

Snips : Wait. They don't live here?

Scootaloo : Nope. Their jobs are way too important for that. They travel to the farthest, most dangerous places in Equestria to study unknown plants and fierce creatures. And what they learn helps pony science and medicine. I'd go with them, but it's too dangerous.

Once, my mom had to wing-wrestle a wyvern, and my dad got trapped in a chimera's cave for three moons! He still has the scars to prove it.

Snips : [scoffs] You're making that up. Nopony has that kind of job. [loud thuds] [cragadile roars]

A CRAGADILE BUSTED INTO THE SCHOOL!

Foals : [gasp, scream]

Cheerilee : It's a cragadile! [cragadile growling]

Me, Nico and Lana smashed in through a window.

Lana: Whoa! Looks like we got a crocodile situation here!

Me: Lets hogtie that overgrown snakeskin wallet!

[crash!]

Nico: I think someone has a handle on this.

A figure pounced on the Cragadile and wrestled it. It was Scootaloo's dad Snap Shutter!

Snap Shutter : (Australian Accent) Easy there, Marshmallow! Time you were in your crate for your nap! [grunting] [cragadile growling]

Scootaloo's mom Mane Allgood flew in too.

Mane Allgood : And that means now, mister! [cragadile whimpers] [clunk] [door closes]

Scootaloo : [gasps] Mom! Dad! [squeals]

She hugged them.

Apple Bloom : Still think she's makin' it all up?

Snips : Nuh-uh…

Scootaloo : Everypony, meet my parents - Snap Shutter and Mane

Allgood!

Snap Shutter : Heh. Sorry to make such an entrance. Just brought back a few mates from our last adventure.

Mane Allgood : We couldn't wait another moment to see Scootaloo! I hope we didn't interrupt anything.

Cheerilee : [hooves rattling] No, I, uh… think… class is dismissed. [students chattering]

Me, Nico and Lana went up to them.

Me: That was an awesome entrance right there.

Snap Shutter: Wow! J.D. Knudson, Nico Chan and Lana Loud of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet you mates!

Me: Same here. Scootaloo told us so much about you.

Nico: We heard so many great things about you and it's amazing how you explore the great mysteries of the Great Unknown.

Mane Allgood: We get that a lot.

Lana: But that was awesome how you wrestled that Cragadile like that.

Snap Shutter: Thanks mate.

We went outside and talked.

Snap Shutter : Crikey! You're nearly as tall as me now, Scoot!

Scootaloo : Aw, come on, Dad.

Mane Allgood : Oh, Scootaloo. We missed you.

Scootaloo : Me, too, Mom. Did you get all my letters?

Mane Allgood : And read them twenty times! But they're never as good as the real thing. It's so good to see you.

Me: Scootaloo missed you so much and she also has her wings now fully developed.

Scootaloo: Yep.

Scootaloo spread her wings and she was now a full fledge pegasus!

Snap Shutter: Wow! I'm so proud of you Scoot!

Me: We all are. On my birthday during an adventure in our simulator she saved Rainbow Dash from a pit of quicksand and she gained her wings.

Nico: You should've seen it. It was amazing.

Scootaloo: It was amazing.

Mane Allgood: Wow! That's so cool!

Me: We'll leave you to catch up okay Scootaloo?

Scootaloo: Okay J.D.

We went back to the estate.

Snap Shutter : I say we celebrate with ice cream sundaes. They don't have those in the jungle, that's for sure.

Mane Allgood : Why don't you all come? Our treat.

They cheered and went to the ice cream shop.

Scootaloo : And Princess Twilight said we're such good friendship tutors, she might even let us teach a class!

Snap Shutter : Good on ya, Scoot!

Mane Allgood : What an honor!

Scootaloo : I can give you a tour of the school if you want. I mean, if you're staying for a while this time.

Snap Shutter : Oh, you'll be seeing plenty of us.

Scootaloo : Really?!

Mane Allgood : Mm-hmm. Because we've taken a new job assignment that will let all of us live together!

Scootaloo : I can't believe it! That's awesome!

Apple Bloom : All right, Scootaloo!

Sweetie Belle : Woo-hoo!

Snap Shutter : We never planned to be away for so long in the first place. We just kept discovering things that could help Equestria. And nopony else had the experience to finish our job.

Mane Allgood : But with all that's happened lately - Sombra's return, the destruction of the Tree of Harmony - we decided our family should be together.

Scootaloo : This is the best day of my life.

Snap Shutter : We'll stay in town for the weekend so you can pack your things.

Scootaloo : Wait, what?!

Mane Allgood : We're all moving to Shire Lanka! That's where our new job is.

Scootaloo : But… my friends are in Ponyville.

Snap Shutter : You can come back and visit 'em. Or they can take the train to us. There's one every month.

Apple Bloom : But Scootaloo can't leave!

Sweetie Belle : We've been together our whole lives!

Mane Allgood : It'll be a big change for everypony. But it'll be a good change. Give it time. You'll see.

Scootaloo : The only thing I see… is the end of the Cutie Mark Crusaders! [sniffling]

Later at the Cutie Mark Crusader Clubhouse it was a sad time for them.

[gavel pounding]

Apple Bloom : [sniffles] I now call our last ever Cutie Mark Crusader meeting to order. First item of business… [sobbing] CRY!

Cutie Mark Crusaders : [crying]

POOR GIRLS.

[pounding]

Scootaloo : You can't let the blank flanks down just 'cause I'm gone. You got to keep being CMCs without me.

Sweetie Belle : [sniffles] How?! There's only two of us!

Scootaloo : [sobbing] Maybe you can find a replacement for me.

Sweetie Belle : No, we can't! You're the only… you!

Apple Bloom : [sobbing] Nothin's gonna be the same! Who's gonna ride their scooter ahead of us everywhere we go?

Sweetie Belle : [sobbing] Or… Or put on plays with us? Or go camping with us? Or just hang out with us?!

Scootaloo : [sobbing] Well, it's worse for me! I have to say goodbye to both of-! [door opens]

And in came Rainbow Dash.

Rainbow Dash : Guess who just got three front-row tickets to the Wonderbolts show next week!

Cutie Mark Crusaders : [whine, bawling]

Rainbow Dash : Uh, that is not the reaction I was expecting.

Scootaloo : [sniffles] Thanks for the tickets, Rainbow Dash. But I can't go.

Apple Bloom : Her parents are makin' her move super far away from Ponyville.

Rainbow Dash : What?! No way! Scootaloo belongs here!

Sweetie Belle : [sobbing] And now we'll probably never see her again! It's hopeless!

Cutie Mark Crusaders : [crying]

Rainbow Dash : Whoa, whoa, whoa. I cannot believe you're giving up so easily. You're the Cutie Mark Crusaders and awesome members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Solving tough problems and joining in on our usual battles is what you do.

Scootaloo : [sniffles] We are pretty good at coming up with ideas.

Sweetie Belle : That's right. When we work together, we're unstoppable!

Apple Bloom : I can't believe we didn't think of it before. It's list time, y'all! First question - why do Scootaloo's parents want to move to Shire Lanka?

Scootaloo : That's where their new job is.

Sweetie Belle : [gasps] What if we get them a job here instead?

Apple Bloom : Yeah! They like dangerous creatures, right? We got to have some of those around here. Like, uh, Timberwolves!

Scootaloo : Dad knows all about those. And cockatrices and bugbears. They only study super rare animals.

Sweetie Belle : Then maybe we need to give them an animal nopony's ever heard of!

Apple Bloom : Uh, then how would we hear about it?

Sweetie Belle : Because we're making it up! Come on!

Rainbow Dash : Sooooo… you want these tickets, or…? [leaves rustling]

Later Rainbow Dash told us about Scootaloo's mom and dad taking her far away.

All: WHAAAAAAAAAAAAAATTTTTTTTTTTTTT!?

Me: That's utterly preposterous!

Nico: Scootaloo is just as important to us as she is to Ponyville and the Cutie Mark Crusaders!

Lana: Yeah!

Me: She, Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle have done so much not just for the Ponies in Ponyville but also for many other creatures all over Equestria!

The doorbell rang.

Pam (Totally Spies): I'll get that.

Pam went and got the door. She saw that it was Snap Shutter and Mane Allgood.

Pam (Totally Spies): Can we help you two?

Snap Shutter: We just want to talk to Scootaloo for a bit before we head off.

Mane Allgood: Yes.

Pam: Okay.

They came in and we saw them.

Me: Oh G'day Snap and Mane.

Vince: Pleasure to meet the famous parents of Scootaloo. She told us so much about you.

Naruto: Yeah.

Snap Shutter: It's an honor to meet everyone in Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: I know this is a sudden change but Scootaloo is a really big girl now. She has been through a lot with us over the last couple of months ever since we went into war against the Royal Defenders and encountered many more adversaries.

Nico: She sure has and she has an awesome time participating in our usual battles with our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Vince: Yeah.

Snap Shutter: That's what we were told and I'm honored that she helps you all out.

Mane Allgood: We're so proud of our Scoot.

Me: I can tell.

Snap Shutter: But she will love being with us even more when we go to Shire Lanka.

Lana (Pokemon): There seems to be some confusion. Scootaloo is perfectly safe in Ponyville and with us.

Me: Yeah.

Long Haul: You two want Scootaloo to leave because of our battles?! She choose to participate in those!

Snap Shutter: No it's not because of your battles. You guys are great at what you do.

Mane Allgood: We just want her to see new places with us.

Me: Well we do like going to see new places, meet new people and go to all kinds of amazing planets. Scootaloo gets a lot of fun and adventure out of all that and she gets a lot of experience out of it too.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah she is awesome at what she does with us.

Nico: Yep.

Slingshot: You know what? You two have overstayed your welcome.

Me: Slingshot lets not be hasty. Lets just figure something out.

Scootaloo, Sweetie Pie and Apple Bloom all had some plans.

Later Scootaloo and her family were in the Everfree Forest.

Scootaloo : This is what I wanted to show you. The tracks of the mysterious Everfree banshee beast!

They saw strange footprints.

Mane Allgood : Hmmm… They're like nothing I've ever seen.

Scootaloo : Legend says it has five claws and three wings. And it's suuuuper dangerous if you get close. If only somepony could prove it exists.

Snap Shutter : Hmmm… Easy enough. We'll follow the spoor.

Scootaloo : [panicked whimpering] I think I heard something this way.

They saw something in a clearing and the parents went for it

[leaves rustling] [camera clicks]

Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle : [grunting]

Apple Bloom : So the plan is we let 'em get a picture, then we hide again. Right?

Sweetie Belle : [straining] [twig snaps] [camera clicks]

The parents were coming toward them slowly.

Sweetie Belle : Now the plan is… run!

They ran fast.

Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle : [panting]

But then their makeshift costume caught onto a tree and stretched.

[snap!]

Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle : Aah! Oof!

Scootaloo : [nervous laugh] Guess you solved the mystery.

HOAX!

Mane Allgood : We'd better get back. There's a lot to get ready before the house goes up for sale tomorrow.

Scootaloo : [whines]

The day was fast approaching.

Sweetie Belle : Don't worry, Scootaloo. We have a new plan to keep you in Ponyville.

Apple Bloom : We just got to show your parents we're a set of three. Then they'll have to let you stay here with us. [camera clicks]

Snap Shutter made photos and he saw pictures of Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle and Scootaloo's cutie marks.

Snap Shutter : Scoot, are these yours?

Scootaloo : Yeah. Thanks, Dad. We're sending them to the Pony Book of Records.

Sweetie Belle : We're the only three ponies in Equestria with the same cutie mark.

Apple Bloom : The chances of that are so rare. It means we belong together forever.

Snap Shutter : Yeah, but you don't have the same cutie mark.

Apple Bloom : [short laugh] Sure we do. Look!

Snap Shutter : Well, this part is the same. But the picture inside each of these is different. I think it means you'll stay best friends no matter where you go, and that's really special.

Scootaloo : But… we… [sighs] How do you argue with that?

Back at the clubhouse they were thinking of something.

Scootaloo : [sighs] [door opens]

Apple Bloom : All right, y'all. Time to take things up a notch.

She pullled out a bottle of a purple liquid.

Scootaloo : With prune juice?

Apple Bloom : It's a potion I mixed up while learning under Twilight Sparkle. Prune is only one of the ingredients.

Sweetie Belle : What's it do?

Apple Bloom : [reading] "On this potion, please depend. Any separation, mend. Friends together 'til the end." We just got to dab a little on our hooves. Sounds perfect, right?

Scootaloo : Better than perfect! [drops splash]

They put one drop on their hooves.

Sweetie Belle : Is something supposed to happen? [magic sounds]

Their hooves got tied together by a magic rope.

[snap!]

Sweetie Belle : Is this the something that's supposed to happen?!

Apple Bloom : The book didn't really say.

Cutie Mark Crusaders : Whoa… W-Whoa… Whoa! [grunt]

Scootaloo : Thanks for trying, Apple Bloom. But I might as well face it. I'm gonna have to leave Ponyville.

Apple Bloom : Don't give up, Scootaloo. This just gave me an even better idea how to keep you here. Come on!

They wobbled out of the clubhouse.

Cutie Mark Crusaders : Whoa! [grunt]

Sweetie Belle : Maybe we'd better see Twilight Sparkle about fixing this first.

They only had 1 day left.

Scootaloo : We're running out of time. [chains jangling]

Apple Bloom chained themselves to a post.

Scootaloo : This has to work! [door opens]

Mane Allgood : Scootaloo, I know you're having fun with your friends, but we need to get all our things to the station.

Snap Shutter : We can't miss tomorrow's train. It's the only one for a month.

Scootaloo : Then you'll just have to go without me! I'm staying with the CMCs!

Sweetie Belle : We're chained to this post!

Apple Bloom : And nothin' and nopony is gonna move us! No matter… what.

A unicorn removed the sign and freed them.

Snap Shutter : We just sold the house, Scoot. I know this is hard to accept, but just-

Scootaloo : It's more than hard! It's not fair! You're making me pick between my family and my friends!

Mane Allgood : Oh, Scootaloo. Moving away won't stop you three from caring about each other. Why don't you sleep over with Sweetie Belle and Apple Bloom tonight? It'll give you a chance to say a real goodbye.

Scootaloo : But I don't want to say goodbye! You're changing my whole life without even asking how I feel! [crying]

Scootaloo was later at the train station.

Apple Bloom : [panting] Scootaloo!

Sweetie Belle : Where are you going?

Scootaloo : To stay with my aunts. [tearing up] You heard my parents. There isn't another train to Shire Lanka for a month. If I'm not on it, they'll have to go without me.

Apple Bloom : Then we're comin' with ya!

Scootaloo : Are you sure? I don't want to get you in trouble.

Sweetie Belle : Rarity won't be mad.

Apple Bloom : Applejack neither. I bet she'd do the same thing for her friends.

She hugged Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle.

Scootaloo : You're the best, you know that?

Apple Bloom : We're the best.

Sweetie Belle : Together! [train whistle blows] [brakes hiss] [train chugging]

The three arrived at Scootaloo's Aunt's house.

Me: Hey girls.

Me, Nico and Lana landed.

Scootaloo: Oh hey J.D. I'm staying over at my aunt's house.

Me: We're gonna try everything we can to help convince your mom and dad that you are really important.

Nico: Yeah

[knocking on door] [door opens]

Aunt Holiday : [gasps] Scootaloo! What a nice surprise. And J.D., Nico and Lana. It's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too.

Auntie Lofty : And I've got a surprise for you ! (Shows her quilt she made) You three inspired me to finish my quilt. See? It's Cutie Mark Crusader-themed!

Me: Wow! That is beautiful Ms. Lofty.

Auntie Lofty: Thank you.

Aunt Holiday : We love hearing stories about all the ponies you've helped. So Lofty decided to celebrate the special job you three do.

Scootaloo : [sighs]

Auntie Lofty : It's… still a work-in-progress.

Scootaloo : It's not your quilt we're sad about, Auntie Lofty. Mom and Dad are back. And they're making me move to Shire Lanka with them!

Aunt Holiday : Snap and Mane are back? They didn't tell me that.

Scootaloo : Oh. I think the mailpony delivered your letter to my house. (Hands the postcard to them) I love my family, but I love being with my friends, too. I don't want to have to choose.

Me: Yeah and Scootaloo is just as important here to Ponyville as she is to the Cutie Mark Crusaders and to us. She and her friends are like one.

Auntie Lofty : Well, then why don't your parents just stay in Ponyville?

Scootaloo : Their job is too important.

Me: We saw how much they like exploring and seeing new places and it's really amazing at what they do.

Nico: Yeah.

Apple Bloom then got an idea!

Apple Bloom : That's it!

Sweetie Belle : Is this another potion idea?

Apple Bloom : No. Scootaloo's parents are the only ponies in Equestria that can do what they do, right?

Scootaloo : Right…

Me: Yeah.

Apple Bloom : Well, so are we! Our cutie marks prove it!

Sweetie Belle : Yeah… Our job is to help other ponies find their purpose!

Me: And be an important part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm as well.

Scootaloo : Yeah! And nopony else can do that! So if my parents split us up, it'd be just as bad as them quitting their jobs!

Lana: Exactly!

Cutie Mark Crusaders : Woo-hoo! [laughing]

Apple Bloom : Now, how do we explain that to 'em?

Aunt Holiday : Oh, you don't have to explain it.

Auntie Lofty showed her quilt.

Auntie Lofty : They will.

Me: And we can help too. I have a feeling I know what you're about to do. Nico get everyone on the team and have everyone meet us in the Town Square.

Nico: Right!

Nico was off.

Scootaloo came back.

Mane Allgood : Feeling better, Scootaloo?

Scootaloo : A little. I just want to show you something before we go.

Snap Shutter : All right, but let's make it swift. That train won't wait.

They went to the City Hall building.

Snap Shutter : Sweet Celestia's slippers!

Mane Allgood : What is all this?

They saw that everyone in Ponyville and all of us in Team Loud Phoenix Storm was there and so were our friends in the schools in Gotham Royal York and the whole building was decorated with banners and decorations in honor of the Cutie Mark Crusaders.

Rainbow Dash : It's Cutie Mark Crusader Appreciation Day! But we couldn't start without all of them here.

Rainbow Dash took Scootaloo over to the building.

Ponies : CMCs! CMCs! CMCs! CMCs! CMCs! CMCs!

Mayor Mare : These three ponies share a rare ability to help others find their true purpose. It's a job only they can do, and only together.

Mane Allgood : That sounds familiar.

Mayor Mare : In honor of all they have done and continue to do for the ponies of this town, I would like to present the Cutie Mark Crusaders with a three-handled Key to the City!

She pulled out a solid gold key with the handle being three horseshoes.

Ponies : [cheering]

We cheered too and the Wonderbolts did a salute to them and formed a color cloud in the shape of their Cutie Mark Crest and I fired a blast of fire and formed the symbol of Team Loud Phoenix Storm in the middle.

[zooming]

Snap Shutter : A full Wonderbolt salute!

Aunt Holiday : Oh, I'm not sure you know just how important Scootaloo and her friends are, little brother.

Auntie Lofty : But you're about to find out.

Skeedaddle : The CMCs used their free time to set up a camp to help us blank flanks find our cutie marks. The Cutie Mark Crusaders see the best in everypony, even when that pony can't see it in themselves.

Snap Shutter : Well, I'll be a three-tailed bandicoot. I had no idea how important Scoot's club was.

Rainbow Dash : Oh, it's way more than just a club. The CMCs have made a difference for everypony here.

Terramar : And not just ponies. They help everycreature.

They fistbump.

Me: And it's not just everyone in Equestria.

Everyone in Team Loud Phoenix Storm and even some of our friends at the schools showed their Cutie Marks of varying kinds.

Cookie: They helped get us humans Cutie Marks too.

Lincoln: And the Cutie Mark Crusaders are just as important to Team Loud Phoenix Storm as they are here to Ponyville. Whether it's helping out on our adventures and participating in our usual battles, they are like family to all of us.

Starscream: That's right.

Aunt Holiday : Whether it's encouraging others to discover their special talent…

[hooves tapping]

Auntie Lofty :… or inspiring them to do what's in their heart…

Aunt Holiday :… these three offer the town something no other pony can.

[train whistle blows]

Rainbow Dash : No way! After all that, you're still gonna make her leave?!

Mane Allgood : We just want what's best for Scootaloo. And until now, we thought we knew what that was.

Snap Shutter : [sighs] Turns out you're just like us, Scoot. You have an important job that only you can do. You love it, and it helps all of Equestria and all the people on Earth.

Mane Allgood : Sometimes that means missing out on other things you love, like watching our daughter grow into a pony we're very proud of.

Snap Shutter : Which is a long way to say… Scoot, if you want to stay, we understand.

Scootaloo : [gasps] Really?! [tearing up] (Hugs her parents) Thanks, Dad! Thanks, Mom!

Mane Allgood : Oh, sweetie, I'm just sorry we didn't realize it sooner.

Snap Shutter : Our work is our life's purpose. We could never quit. So there's no way we can ask you to do the same.

Auntie Lofty : Maybe you should've thought of that before you sold the house.

Aunt Holiday : Lofty, don't tease my brother. We already have a solution worked out.

Auntie Lofty : Since the CMCs make Ponyville such a nice place, we've decided to move here.

Aunt Holiday : You can live with us, Scootaloo. If you'd like.

Scootaloo : That would be amazing! Will you… still come and visit?

Mane Allgood : Of course!

Snap Shutter : Rabid bugbears couldn't keep us away.

Puts his hat on her head.

Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle : You get to stay here! You get to stay here! You get to stay here! [laugh]

Apple Bloom : Uh… you are stayin' here, right?

Scootaloo : Are you kidding? CMCs forever!

Cutie Mark Crusaders : [cheer]

Ponies : [cheering]

We cheered wildly for them.

Me: I'm so happy for them!

Applejack: YEEHAW!

Rainbow Dash: AWESOME!

---

We were relaxing at the Estate and watching TV and more.

Scootaloo: Thank you all so much for helping me J.D.

Me: Ah it was no problem Scootaloo.

Nico: Yeah we are just happy that you are staying with us.

Lincoln: Same here.

Then the alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh!

Then the computer opened up and we were sucked in.

All: WHOA!

Me: LOOKS LIKE JERRY NEEDS US THIS TIME!

Stacy Bolton: WHEEEE!

We arrived at the headquarters of O.W.C.A. and we saw Major Monogram!

Maria: Hey, Major Monogram!

Major Monogram: Team Loud Phoenix Storm?! What are you all doing here?

Miranda: Well, one of Jerry's W.O.O.H.P.'s entrances brought us here by accident.

Major Mongram: I see. Let me send you over to W.O.O.H.P. right now.

Me: He needs to get that W.O.O.H.P. entrance fixed.

We were beamed to Jerry's office.

We arrived and appeared in a star flash and then we crash landed on the floor.

CRASH!

Me: OOF!

Nico: OW!

Fluttershy: That hurt.

Rainbow Dash: That was awesome!

Applejack: YEEHAW!

Jerry: (sweatdrops) Hello, everyone. I heard that you accidentally got sent to O.W.C.A. instead of here.

Me: Yeah we did.

Astro Man: It wasn't all bad. We got to meet Major Monogram.

Me: Yeah but you need to get that W.O.O.H.P. entrance fixed.

Jerry: I'll be sure to look into that. (Gasp) Pam, Alice, Crimson? Is that you girls!?

Pam: Long time no see Jerry.

Jerry went over and hugged the three of them.

Me: We have quite a story to tell you on how we met them.

We got up and dusted off and we told Jerry about how we met them in the Canadian Rockies as the legendary Pokemon Reshiram, Zekrom and Kyurem and how they became like that.

Jerry: Wow! You guys have been busy but I'm so glad you have them with you.

Me: And if we ever find that Edison guy he will pay for his crimes.

Jerry: I know you will find them. Now lets talk about what is going on.

Kim Possible: So what's the sitch?

He pulled out a slip of paper and on it was the emblem for O.P. and Sam gasped.

Phage: What does O.P. stand for?

Sam Simpson: It stands for Oceans Palisades. They are a family that brainwashes people and they want to be a perfect utopia.

Sam told us their history.

---

They appeared in the episode "The O.P." They were using brainwashing devices to create the perfect community at Ocean Palisades. After being stopped by Alexandra, Samantha, and Clover they were sentenced to 1000 hours of community service and compulsory parenting classes. Jerry explained that locking them up "would be a little harsh".

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: Whoa! They are a family that are trying to make a perfect utopia by brainwashing people!? That's insane!

Nico: No kidding and they want to make it a perfect world?

Sam: Yeah and despite their good intentions they only got 1000 hours of community service.

Me: That's 125 days of work.

Acid Man: So they're perfect society that is made by brainwashing?! That's not perfect at all!

Me: No it isn't! And there will never be such a thing as true perfection. Look at Cell and Kabuto's White Snake Sage Mode. They claimed that they were perfect and look at what happened to them.

Nico: That's right. They were destroyed because of their own arrogance and overconfidence.

Naruto: Yeah.

Me: But we have to stop them at any cost.

Jerry: Exactly. Your mission is to stop them at any cost.

Me: Affirmative.

Lola: I don't know, guys. Maybe the OP isn't all bad.

Poromon: Say what?!

Lynn: Think about it. It's one stressful thing after another with villains trying to kill us and all of that stuff. But with the OP, everything there is perfect. And I'm actually interested in the idea of a perfect society.

Bobby: Babe, don't tell me that you're considering this too.

Lori: They have a point, Boo Boo Bear. Don't you ever wonder what it's like to have a perfect life? No one to kill you? And no one to hate you?

Harley Quinn: Lori, if there was such a thing as perfection, Joker wouldn't have manipulated me into his lackey and I would still be a psychologist.

Me: Harley is right and there would be no war, villains or anything like that. Just peace. Which is what everyone would dream of and even Numbuh 1 saw a perfect utopia like that where there were no adults, but even that was all just an illusion.

Numbuh 1: He's right.

Me: But as long as evil exists all over the universe and terrorizing everyone there will never be such a thing as true peace and there is also never gonna be such a thing as true perfection. No one is absolutely perfect. Not even Jesus Christ himself was perfect. The only true perfect person is God himself.

Nico: That's right.

Me: Yep.

Ultra Humanite: Where is the OP located?

Me: It says it's located near San Luis Obispo, California. My dad has been there before and it's so beautiful.

Nico: It sure is.

Then Dr. Light, Vulture, Bane, Skinner, Demyx and Saïx appeared.

Saïx: I hope you don't mind me, Demyx, Dr. Light, Vulture, Bane, and Skinner tagging along with you all.

Carol: Not at all Saïx.

Me: We'll need all the help we can get.

Vulture: So what's going on?

Me: A family is brainwashing people in San Luis Obispo, California and making a false utopia where they can be perfect and we have to stop them.

Alex: We dealt with them before and stopped them.

Demyx: I see.

Nico: We're gonna stop them.

Me: The group is called Ocean Palisades or O.P. for short.

Demyx: I don't know if anyone of us can be brainwashed. But let's not find out.

Irma: Right.

Me: None of us can be brainwashed Demyx. Our powers won't let it happen.

Vulture: I can fly in the air to find out the OP's location.

Me: No need for that Adrien. We know where it's located. It's located in San Luis Obispo, California.

Skinner: You guys aren't really considering on the OP's perfect lifestyle, are you?

Lola: No. After what J.D. told us it's not needed anymore.

Lori: Yeah.

Lynn: That's right.

Skinner: Good.

Demyx: Lets get over there.

Me: Right. Me: Lets get over there and fast. We have a cult to stop.

Applejack: YEEHAW! Lets get those suckers!

We were off to San Luis Obispo!

---

SAN LUIS OBISPO, CALIFORNIA.

---

We arrived in the community of Ocean Palisades and it looked eerily like the Dimmadome Acres scenario and it was a sense of deja vu.

Me: Anyone else experiencing a strange sense of deja vu?

We nodded.

Nico: Yeah it's like what we are seeing with Dimmadome Acres.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Except without the mind-control milk.

Lincoln: Yep.

Bane: I hope the OP parents enjoy the hospital beds we send them to!

Me: (Cracks knuckles) Save seconds for us Bane.

We arrived at the mansion of the O.P. Parents.

Me: This is it.

But then 6 of the Dark Signers minus Rex Goodwin appeared.

Me: Roman, Carly, Devack, Misty, Kalin and Greiger.

Nico: No Rex this time?

Devack: Not this time.

Maria: I take it the OP parents tried to recruit you guys.

Roman Goodwin: They tried to.

Kalin: I think we beat their agents up so badly that they're not even considering on recruiting us now!

Devack: Which is a good thing. I can't imagine them getting their hands on the Earthbound Immortal cards.

Me: I don't think the Earthbound Immortals will allow that to happen. They'll suck their souls right out of their bodies and kill them and send them off to Hell.

Carly Carmine: You're right about that J.D.

Misty Tredwell: Yeah and I want to spend the rest of my afterlife with you J.D.

Me: (Blushes) Me too. Even though I'm immortal.

?: That is cool!

A figure came out and it was TOP HAT from episode 17 of Operation Overdrive!

---

Top Hat is one of Kamdor's creations, he is a silk hat/animal picture monster that appears as supporting antagonist of the episode "It's Hammer Time".

A silk hat/animal picture book monster created by Kamdor from a silk hat. He seemed to act and be referred to as a magician. Kamdor made him grow right after he was created. When engaging the Drivemax Ultrazord and the Flashpoint Megazord, he summoned a snake from its hat to constrict the Drivemax Ultrazord and used its umbrella to deflect the Flashpoint Megazord's attack. However then rangers replaced the arms of Megazords and The Flashpoint Megazord, which left mobile, was combined with the Drill Driver and the Shovel Driver which Tyzonn used to destroy the monster.

---

Mack Hartford: Top Hat!

Top Hat: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You became a giant right after you were created by Kamdor and you really had the Drivemax Ultrazord and Flashpoint Megazord on the run.

Top Hat: Indeed. Good memory on you.

Me: Yep. Never missed an episode.

Top Hat: (to Thor) I take it you're the real Thor?

Thor: That is correct.

Demyx: Lets do an entrance with water and mermaids and fish and angels.

Me: Good idea Demyx. And we can have our usual battles as well as face the masterminds behind all this. Lets do it.

Everyone: YEAH!

We went at the mansion.

---

In the mansion backyard, the O.P. Parents were living the life of luxury and more. They had a radio transmitter that was emitting a signal to their brainwashed victims. Then a massive vortex of water exploded out of the ground and mermaid singing, and angel singing was heard in the background and we emerged from the vortex and we were ready to fight!

Me: NICE!

O.P. Mother: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. Welcome dearies.

Me: Huh? (Rubs eyes) Either my eyes are starting to play tricks on me or you two look like Bruce Wayne's parents Thomas and Martha Wayne back from the dead?

O.P. Father: (Laughs) Yes we do look like them don't them don't we?

Me: Good then I'm not going crazy. It's just that the resemblence looks so uncanny. It's too bad we still we have stop you. Lets get ready for action!

We were ready for anything!

Battle 1: Roman Goodwin

Miranda, Sunset Shimmer, Sonata Dusk, Raythor, and Bertrand were facing Roman Goodwin.

Roman: (to Bertrand) I'm glad none of you are joining this so called perfect society anytime soon.

Bertrand: We wouldn't even do so anyway.

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah I was once like that and I was a total monster. My goal was to become princess and I was not gonna stop till I got it. But I'm glad Twilight and my friends saved me from myself.

Sonata Dusk: Same here. I was like that too.

Roman: I see. Thank goodness you changed to the side of good.

Sonata Dusk: Yeah.

Roman: Lets do it. I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL URU!

He summoned the Spider Earthbound Immortal, Uru!

Sunset Shimmer: Whoa! That is always so cool! Now for me and Sonata.

Sunset Shimmer's Cutie Mark appeared on her wrist and her Duel Disk formed in a swirl of fire.

Sunset Shimmer: I summon INARI FIRE, FOX FIRE, FLAME RULER, FIRE PRINCESS, FIRE SORCERER, INFERNAL FLAME EMPEROR, RAGING FLAME SPRITE, SOLAR FLARE DRAGON, FLAME SPIRIT IGNIS, FLAME CEREBRUS, LADY ASSAILANT OF FLAMES, and OLD ENTITY CTHUGUA!

Bertrand: Indeed!

Sunset Shimmer: And I activate MOLTEN DESTRUCTION!

She had the area turn into a massive and raging volcano field.

Sunset Shimmer: And I equip myself with DIVINE SWORD - PHOENIX BLADE AND SALAMANDRA!

She equipped herself with said cards and she was ready!

Sonata Dusk: WHOA! That is so cool! Lets see here.

Sonata Dusk's cutie mark appeared on her left wrist and music notes swirled around her arm and it formed into a purple version of my duel disk but with musical notes in the circle part and the blade part looked like a music note.

Roman: Most amazing duel disk.

Sonata Dusk: Thanks Roman. It's my first time doing this. I summon

SONIC MAID, DANCING ELF, HIBIKIME, MAIDEN OF THE MOONLIGHT, BEAUTIFUL HEADHUNTRESS, and LADY OF FAITH!

In a vortex of music notes and moonlight she summoned said monsters and she was ready.

Miranda: Yeah those are awesome monsters!

Sonata Dusk: Yeah!

Bertrand: Lets do it!

Roman called out his Pokemon and they went at him.

Sunset Shimmer: This is so amazing! PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: PHOENIX BLADEDANCE OF FLAMES!

Sunset Shimmer had fire engulf the phoenix sword and she swung it and fired blades of fire.

Sonata Dusk: And this is gonna be awesome! ARIA STYLE NINJA ART: SONG OF ANGELS!

Sonata sang with a divine voice and she fired waves of music notes and they went at Roman and Uru.

Their monsters, Bertrand, Miranda and Raythor fired waves of energy and fire and the blasts all went at Roman, Uru and his Pokemon and they smashed him down and knocked them out.

Bertrand: Most amazing!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah! That was so awesome!

Sonata Dusk: Yeah it was!

---

Battle 2: Carly Carmine

---

Astro Man, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Apple Fritter, Galaxy Man, and Haiku were facing Carly Carmine.

Carly: (to Haiku) I don't think that me and Jack have even planned our wedding yet.

Haiku: No you haven't yet.

Applejack: I'm so excited for you both Carly.

Apple Bloom: Me too.

Apple Fritter: We all are.

Carly: Thank you so much. I'm looking forward it it.

Galaxy Man: We all are.

Astro Man: Yeah.

Carly Carmine: Lets use techniques this time.

They agreed and Carly called out her Pokemon and they went at her.

Applejack fired a wave of rainbow lightning and it formed into a massive shower of Zap Apples and they went at Carly.

Apple Bloom: Lets do it! APPLE STYLE NINJA ART: GALA APPLE SHOWER!

Apple Bloom fired waves of apples.

Apple Fritter: I love lifting stuff but I love making apple fritters. APPLE FRITTER STYLE NINJA ART: BAKED GOODS THUNDER SHOWER!

Apple Fritter fired waves of apple fritters surging with lightning.

Astro Man, Galaxy Man and Haiku fired waves of fire and stars and gravity and the blasts all slammed into Carly and her Pokemon and knocked them down.

Haiku: That was good.

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was so much fun!

Apple Bloom: It sure was.

---

Battle 3: Devack

---

Phage, Fluttershy, Babs Seed, Lasher, and Dante were facing Devack.

Devack: (to Dante) No offense to J.D., but I don't think that he's 100% perfect.

Dante: You're right Devack. None of us are all completely peprfect.

Fluttershy: That's right. J.D. is right. No one not even the ponies of Equestria are all perfect.

Babs Seed: That's right. We all have many challenges to overcome.

Lasher: That's right.

Phage: Yep.

Devack: That's true. Lets dance.

Devack called out his Pokemon and they went at him.

Fluttershy: I always look forward to this and monkeys are all amazing. HOWLER MONKEY STYLE NINJA ART: FLAMES OF THE HOWLER!

Fluttershy did a Howler Monkey howl and she fired a massive wave of red fire and it formed into a troop of Howler Monkeys and they went Devack.

---

Battle 4: Misty Tredwell

---

Acid Man, Wallflower, Juniper Montage, Pinkie Pie, Snake Man, and Persephone were facing Misty Tredwell.

Misty Tredwell: (to Persephone) I'm really proud of how me and J.D.'s kids have grown.

Persephone: We all are Misty.

Wallflower: They sure have grown fast.

Juniper Montage: Yeah and they are learning so much really fast at a 12th Grade level.

Battle 5: Kalin

Giganta, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Harley Quinn, and Morpheus were facing Kalin Kessler.

Kalin: (to Morpheus) I don't think I ever met Major Monogram when I was in Danville with you guys.

Morpheus: No you didn't.

Rarity: He looked like a really amazing guy and a good man.

Sweetie Belle: You said it Rarity.

Harley Quinn: Lets do it!

Giganta: Let!

Kalin: Gladly.

Kalin called out his Pokemon and they went at him.

Rarity: This is one that is most dazzling! CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: AMETHYST CRYSTAL DIVINITY!

Battle 8: OP Parents

---

We regrouped and we were facing the OP Parents.

OP Father: (to me) I knew you and your friends would come here eventually, J.D. But surely, you must realize that this is for the best. Think about it. In the OP, no one will try to kill you. No one will want to destroy the planet. And best of all, anyone who has ever hated and picked on you will be like you. Perfect in every way. Do you really want to try and stop us?

Me: From making a false utopia? Yes we do.

They growled.

Me: There will never be such a thing as true perfection nor will there be such a thing as true peace. Only God is the TRUE perfect being and there will always be many challenges for all of humanity to overcome. Devack is right. Even I too am not perfect. None of us are. I may have powers that were given to me from the heavens but even I must admit that I am never perfect and I am all right with that. Because I am human and despite having incredible power I am all right with that. That's why God always has a plan for all of us. And there will never be such a thing as true peace as long as the forces of evil are wreaking havoc all over the universe. That's why I formed Team Loud Phoenix Storm, to stop Evil and protect everyone we all love and bring peace, justice and harmony to everyone all over. As long as evil exists, there will never be such a thing as true peace. And there is never such a thing as true perfection. Just ask Cell and Kabuto when he was in his White Snake Sage Mode. Cell thought he was perfect when Dr. Gero created him and Kabuto tried to live up to Orochimaru's fucked up ambitions by learning all of the jutsu in the world. But look what happened to them. They let their arrogance and lust for power overpower them and in the end they paid the ultimate price. Even cults over the centuries were like you two. But we're going to make sure that you never brainwash anyone ever again!

I fired an energy blast and destroyed the radio transmitter that was sending out the signals that brainwashed all the people in the area! They were freed and they couldn't remember what happened.

OP Father: NO!

OP Mother: DO YOU HAVE ANY IDEA WHAT YOU'VE JUST DONE!?

Me: Destroyed your so-called perfect utopia!

Noah: You want perfect? How about a perfect defeat for you?!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Techno Bionic Team!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Bioman Rangers.

We went at them and punched kicked and blasted them all over and smashed them all over with incredible force and fury. Illexia, Aszil, Rothar, Gintanai, Loderool, Nivenna, Eximiar, Swassa, and Aokua and the Megaforce Rangers blasted them all over the place with incredible power and fury.

Lucy Loud: Try these techniques on. DARKNESS STYLE NINJA ARTS: KERGRIM, MERREVAIL, GAUNT-MEN and GRODBUG!

Lucy fired waves of darkness and they formed into said creatures and they slammed into the OP Parents and knocked them down.

Pam (TS): Lets do some teamwork!

Long Haul: YEAH!

Pam and Long Haul used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Pam's Zekrom powers and Long Haul's Heat Seeking Missiles 100-fold.

Slingshot and Lana used the Earth and Pokemon Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Slingshot's Neutron Rifle and Lana's Water and Pokemon Powers 100-fold.

Totally Spies Pam and Long Haul: SPIRIT MISSILE MEGA BARRAGE!

Pam fired blasts of spirit energy and Long Haul fired waves of missiles.

Slingshot and Pokemon Lana: NEUTRON MAELSTROM BLAST!

Slingshot fired waves of neutron energy and water and the blasts all hit the OP Parents and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Pam and Sam: RED AND GREEN MEGABLAST!

Crimson and Clover: RED MEGABLAST BARRAGE!

Alice and Alex: PURPLE AND YELLOW THUNDERSTRIKE!

They fired blast of energy of their signature colors in WOOHP and the blasts all slammed into the OP Parents and knocked them down.

Lincoln: Lets see how you like the power of love and all of W.O.O.H.P.!

Lincoln, Earth, Pam, Sam, Clover, Crimson, Alice and Alex: W.O.O.H.P. ENERGY MEGABLAST!

They fired waves of lightning, lava, and energy and the blasts all slammed into the OP Parents and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

We tied them up and WOOHP came and arrested the OP Parents.

OP Mother: We could've made the perfect world. No fighting. No war, no disease.

Nico: Maybe that world will exist someday. But until then, we do have a perfect cell waiting for you two.

Me: Absolutely. In the Uranus Prison. But there will never be such a thing as true peace, true perfection or the perfect utopia as long as evil terrorizes the universe. That's why we are here to stop those forces.

Nico: That's right.

The WOOHP agents took the OP Parents to the Uranus Prison.

Jerry: A job well done everyone.

Me: Thanks Jerry. Now the people of San Luis Obispo can have no worries about utopian cults.

Jerry: Indeed.

The Dark Signers came.

Carly: I think we all learned something today.

Sam: What's that?

Greiger: No one is truly perfect.

Misty Tredwell: Couldn't have said it better myself.

Me: I agree.

Dr. Light: Personally, I think you guys are fine the way you are.

Me: We appreciate that Arthur.

Sam: (To the viewers) This was one interesting adventure and I hope you all learned something from J.D.'s speech in this adventure.

Nico: I know I have.

Me: (To Pam, Alice and Crimson) So how did it feel for you three to be back in the frey?

Pam: It was awesome!

Alice: Yeah! I loved every second of it.

Crimson: Cool!

Everyone agreed.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

The O.P. Parents of Totally Spies were one of the strangest villains in all of Totally Spies series. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Get ready for another awesome adventure with the Kids Next Door as we take on the evil parody of the PTA as we take on the Parent Teacher Organization Of Eradicating Youngsters or P.T.O.O.E.Y. for short and we take on those jerks of teachers and parents and make sure they pay for their crimes!

See you all tomorrow.

The Vengeful PTA Organization

It was a nice morning in the city, we see Lincoln, Clyde, Liam, Zach and Rusty walking down the streets. Rich Texan can be seen walking ahead of them while Sakura Haruno is seen standing at the other side of the street waiting for a go signal, so she can cross the street.

Rusty is eating a frankfurter on a stick when it accidentally slips out from his fingers.

Rusty: Ah!

Zach responded by moving quickly in attempts to catch the falling frankfurter, only for the point of the stick to stab his palm.

STAB!

Zach: AAAHH!" (Zach cried in pain while in slow motion as the frankfurter was flipped in the air)

Lincoln, also in slow motion, quickly responded by moving in from Rusty's back in an attempt to catch the frankfurter, only for his palm to get stab by the stick as well)

Lincoln: YAAAAA! (Lincoln screamed in pain as well)

As both Zach and Lincoln crashes down on the concrete, in slow motion nonetheless, the frankfurter is inches away from hitting the ground. When Liam slides on the concrete like a baseball player)

Liam: UHM! (Liam grunted before slapping the frankfurter away from the ground)

Sakura is seen crossing the streets when the frankfurter hits her square on the face)

SMACK!

Sakura: AAAAAKKKK! (Sakura exclaimed in shock as the frankfurter bounces off her face and is sent flying away from her)

The frankfurter then flew towards Rich Texan which went inside the back of his shirt which startles him) Rich Texan: Ew! What?! A bug?! (Rich Texan exclaimed in panic and disgust. He quickly grabs the stick before throwing it away like a dagger.

Rich Texan: "AAAHHH!" (Rich Texan screamed)

The frankfurter flew towards Clyde with the point of the stick slightly sticking on his midsection.

Clyde: Gah! (And because Clyde's hands are in his pockets, Clyde failed to catch the frankfurter as it fell on the ground, making everyone gasped in response.)

While Clyde hunches down, rubbing his soar midsection, Rusty stares at the frankfurter on the ground)

Rusty: Aww… (Rusty let's out a groan before picking it up)

Rusty: Meh… whatever. (Rusty shrugged before eating it again)

YUCK!

(Everyone then stared at Rusty in disbelief)

Lincoln: We went through all that for nothing.

In the estate, I was reading some of Ice's comic books.

Me: Boy Tora's comics on My Little Pony are always fun to read.

Ice: (Scandinavian Accent) I'm glad you like them J.D.

Nico: They sure are fun.

Sunset Shimmer: They sure are.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Sonata Dusk: Twilight, how exactly did you become Princess?

Twilight Sparkle: That is something I will never forget.

She showed us on the computer a flashback of how it all really happened.

It shows the Mane 6 hugging.

Twilight Sparkle: [echoing] A mark of one's destiny, singled out alone, fulfilled. [normal] [gasps] Wait a second, that's it! I understand now! I know how to fix the spell!

From all of us together, together we're friends. With the marks of our destinies made one, there is magic without end!

She finished the spell and put the book back. But then suddenly, Twilight's crown of harmony glowed and she was enveloped in a dome of energy and the rest of the Mane 6 fired blasts of energy from their necklaces and it hit Twilight.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: WHOA!

Rest of main cast: [cries of shock]

Then in a flash of Light Twilight was gone!

Fluttershy: [gasps] What happened?

They saw that Twilight Sparkle was gone! All that was left of her was a scorch mark in the shape of her cutie mark on the floor!

Rest of main cast: [exclamations of shock]

Me: WHOA! Where did she go?

Lincoln: No idea.

Twilight woke up in a strange dimension.

Twilight Sparkle: [echoing] Hello? Where am I? What is this place?

Princess Celestia appeared.

Princess Celestia: [echoing] Congratulations, Twilight. I knew you could do it.

Twilight Sparkle: [echoing] Princess… I don't understand. What did I do?

Princess Celestia: You did something today that's never been done before. Something even a great unicorn like Star Swirl the Bearded was not able to do, because he did not understand friendship like you do. The lessons you've learned here in Ponyville have taught you well. You have proven that you're ready, Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Ready? Ready for what?

[Princess Celestia]

You've come such a long, long way

And I've watched you from that very first day

To see how you might grow

To see what you might do

To see what you've been through

And all the ways you've made me proud of you

(Screens containing memories of her deeds in Ponyville appeared)

It's time now for a new change to come

You've grown up and your new life has begun

To go where you will go

To see what you will see

To find what you will be

For it's time for you to fulfill your destiny

Suddenly Twilight was enveloped in a ball of aura energy and then back in the real world a massive flash of light appeared and a powerful explosion of light formed into Twilight Sparkle's Cutie Mark and the power coming off of it was incredible!

Me: WHOA! What power!

Nico: Unbelievable!

Lincoln: WOW!

Sunset Shimmer: Wow!

Twilight Sparkle appeared from the light as it landed on the ground.

Applejack: Twilight? Is that you?

She stood up and then she spread wings!

Rest of main cast: [gasps]

Me: WOW! So that's how you got your wings!

Nico: So amazing!

Sunset Shimmer: Wow! So that's how you turned into an Alicorn.

Applejack: Wha… I-I've never seen anything like it!

Rainbow Dash: Ha! Twilight's got wings! Awesome! A new flying buddy! [laughs]

Rarity: Why, you've become an Alicorn. I didn't even know that was possible.

Pinkie Pie: [screaming] Alicorn party! [blows party kazoo] [crowd cheering]

Fluttershy: Wow… You look just like a princess!

Princess Celestia came.

Princess Celestia: That's because she is a princess.

Main cast: Huh?

Pinkie Pie: Hold on a second! [drinks] [spits]

Twilight Sparkle: A… A princess?

Princess Celestia: Since you've come to Ponyville, you've displayed the charity, compassion, devotion, integrity, optimism, and of course, the leadership of a true princess.

Twilight Sparkle: But… does this mean I won't be your student anymore?

Princess Celestia: Not in the same way as before. I'll still be here to help and guide you, but we're all your students now, too. You are an inspiration to us all, Twilight.

They bowed before her.

Twilight Sparkle: But… what do I do now? Is there a book about being a princess I should read?

Princess Celestia: [giggles] There will be time for all of that later.

Me: Wow.

Later at Canterlot it was time for Twilight Sparkle's coronation as the next Princess of Equestria.

Princess Celestia: We are gathered here today in celebration of a momentous occasion. My most faithful student, Twilight Sparkle, has done many extraordinary things since she's lived in Ponyville. She even helped reunite me with my sister, Princess Luna. But today, Twilight Sparkle did something extraordinary. She created new magic, proving without a doubt that she is ready to be crowned Equestria's newest princess. Fillies and gentlecolts, may I present for the very first time, Princess Twilight Sparkle!

[Choir]

Choir: The Princess Twilight cometh Behold, behold A Princess here before us Behold, behold, behold Behold, behold (behold, behold)

The Princess Twilight cometh Behold, behold (behold, behold) The Princess is The Princess is here! [crowd cheering]

Twilight had the crown put on her head and it was amazing to see that.

Me: Wow! That must've been quite a surprise for you Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: It was. I didn't know I was gonna become princess that day.

Me: That was a big surprise huh? But with Great Power Comes great responsibility.

Twilight Sparkle: That's right.

Twilight Sparkle went to the balcony and all of the people of Ponyville and Equestria cheered wildly for her.

Princess Celestia: Say something, Princess.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh. Um… [clears throat] A little while ago, my teacher and mentor Princess Celestia sent me to live in Ponyville. She sent me to study friendship, which is something I didn't really care much about. But now, on a day like today, I can honestly say I wouldn't be standing here if it weren't for the friendships I've made with all of you. Each one of you taught me something about friendship, and for that, I will always be grateful. Today, I consider myself the luckiest pony in Equestria. Thank you, friends. Thank you, everypony! [crowd cheering]

Me: Wow.

Laney: That was so amazing.

Nico: It sure was.

Lana: That is one of the most amazing princess ceremonies ever.

Lola: You like this one Lana?

Lana: I sure do.

Lola: Who are you and what have you done with Lana!?

We laughed.

Shining Armor: Twilight! (Shining Armor and Cadance came up to her) I'm so proud of you!

Twilight Sparkle: Are you crying?

Shining Armor: Of course not. It's… it's liquid pride. Totally different thing.

Shining Armor and Twilight Sparkle: [laughing]

Applejack: Way to go, Princess!

Pinkie Pie: Best coronation day ever!

Fluttershy: We love you, Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: I love you too, girls!

They hugged.

Everyone: Awww!

Apple Bloom: So cute!

[Twilight Sparkle]

Life in Equestria shimmers

Life in Equestria shines

And I know for absolute certain

[Main cast and crowd]

That everything (that everything)

Yes, everything (yes, everything)

Yes, everything is certainly fine

It's fine

Twilight Sparkle: Yes! Everything's going to be just fine!

Twilight flew towards the screen and it was so cool!

We cheered for her.

Me: That was so awesome!

Nico: It sure was!

Lola: Yeah it was!

Me: Do we start calling you Princess Twilight or Your Highness?

Twilight Sparkle: No you can still call me Twilight.

Nico: But that was so cool.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure was. I can't believe I wanted everything to be short and handed to me right away. But thank goodness I was shown the error of my ways.

Applejack: Yeah thank goodness.

Twilight Sparkle: But let me show you guys in the Simulator what the wedding with Princess Cadance looked like.

Me: Okay.

We went to the simulator.

---

Twilight punched in a scenario and we saw on the Simulator what happened the first few scenes.

Iris (Pokemon): What, was this how Cadance and Shining Armor got married?

Twilight Sparkle: Yep and it was a wedding that had unexpected circumstances.

Me: Chrysalis and the Changelings no doubt.

Princess Celestia : Princess Cadance and Shining Armor, it is my great pleasure to pronounce you-

Twilight Sparkle : Stop!

[ponies chattering]

Queen Chrysalis : Ugh! Why does she have to be so possessive of her brother? [sobbing] Why does she have to ruin my special day?

(Fake Sobbing.)

Princess Cadance : Because it's not your special day! It's mine !

[ponies gasp]

Everyone saw that there were TWO PRINCESS CADANCE'S!? WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON!?

Queen Chrysalis : What? But how did you escape my bridesmaids?

Minutette, Lyra and Twinkleshine were under the hypnotic power of Chrysalis and Cadance used the bouquet to lure them away.

Minuette, Lyra Heartstrings, and Twinkleshine : I want it!

Queen Chrysalis : Hmph. Clever. But you're still too late.

Applejack : I-I don't understand. How can there be two of 'em?

Princess Cadance : She's a changeling. She takes the form of somepony you love and gains power by feeding off your love for them.

QUEEN CHRYSALIS THEN REVEALED HERSELF!

[flames roaring]

[ponies gasp]

We gasped in shock too!

Queen Chrysalis : [Evil Laughter] Right you are, Princess. And as queen of the changelings, it is up to me to find food for my subjects. Equestria has more love than any place I've ever encountered. My fellow changelings will be able to devour so much of it that we will gain more power than we have ever dreamed of!

Blast Off: I get it. Chrysalis kidnapped Cadance, posed as her, and when Twilight was catching on to her, she turned her own friends against her!

Me: That heartless fiend!

Nico: We need to stop her!

Lincoln: And destroy her like we did before!

Princess Cadance : They'll never get the chance! Shining Armor's protection spell will keep them from ever even reaching us!

Queen Chrysalis : [chuckling] Oh, I doubt that. Isn't that right, dear?

Shining Armor : Mm-hmm.

Chrysalis stopped Cadance.

Queen Chrysalis : Ah, ah, ah. Don't want to go back to the caves, now do you? Ever since I took your place, I've been feeding off Shining Armor's love for you. Every moment he grows weaker and so does his spell. Even now, my minions are chipping away at it.

Thousands of Changelings are smashing away at the force field protecting Canterlot!

Changelings : [Evil Cackling]

Queen Chrysalis : [Evil Laughter] He may not be my husband, but he is under my total control now.

Twilight Sparkle and Princess Cadance : [gasp]

Queen Chrysalis : And, I'm sorry to say, unable to perform his duties as captain of the Royal Guard.

Princess Cadance : Not my Shining Armor!

Queen Chrysalis : Soon, my changeling army will break through. First, we take Canterlot. And then, all of Equestria!

Princess Celestia : No. You won't. You may have made it impossible for Shining Armor to perform his spell, but now that you have so foolishly revealed your true self, I can protect my subjects from you!

They fired blasts of magic and the blasts collided.

Queen Chrysalis : [grunting]

The magic of Celestia was pushed back and there was an explosion!

[explosion]

It knocked down Princess Celestia.

[crown clatters]

[ponies gasp]

Twilight Sparkle : Princess Celestia!

Queen Chrysalis : Ah! Shining Armor's love for you is even stronger than I thought! Consuming it has made me even more powerful than Celestia!

Princess Celestia : (Weakly) The Elements of Harmony. You must get to them and use their power to defeat the queen.

They agreed.

Twilight Sparkle, Applejack, Pinkie Pie, Rainbow Dash and Fluttershy : Rarity!

Queen Chrysalis : [laughing] You can run, but you can't hide!

Changelings : [laughing]

[barrier breaking]

The Barrier SHATTERED!

Twilight Sparkle : Go, go!

Me: NOW LETS GO! Thorax, I'm sorry you have to see this.

Thorax: No worries J.D. Take them all down.

Me: With pleasure.

I unsheathed the Sword of Harmony and we flew into the Simulator.

Then as the Changelings were flying in…

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion went off high in the sky and a phoenix cry was heard and the fire in the explosion turned to Rainbow Color and a massive blast of rainbow energy hit a bunch of Changelings and obliterated them in one fell swoop!

We swooped in and I was in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 100,000,000 form and I slashed a bunch of Changelings in an instant and killed them.

Me: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Justice) You want to take Canterlot, you'll have to get through us first!

Nico: You Changelings have all failed this universe!

Lori: You want love, lets see how you like our Hatred!

We slashed a bunch of Changelings and then we got a massive and explosively intense power boost from each Changeling we killed!

Nico: So that's it! They feed off of love and turn it into hatred which makes them more powerful!

Me: Just like how we do it with Hatred and turn its negative energy into Positive Energy. And their hatred is 100,000,000 times more powerful than when I absorbed all that hatred from that Kisenian Blossom. Whoa!

Lincoln: Wow! Now lets get them!

We went at the Changelings and a massive fight broke out.

[various fighting sounds]

I fired a wave of energy and it enveloped the ponies and they were glowing in rainbow auras and the Changelings were glowing in pitch black auras and we blasted and slashed and obliterated many Changelings all over the place.

Changelings [as Rainbow Dash ]: [growls]

She blasted and bashed numerous Changelings all over the place and we blasted them all over the place with incredible fury and we got more and more and more powerful at a rapid level with incredible force and more and we were obliterating many of them all over.

Changeling : [hisses]

I slashed numerous Changelings all over and killed them and Rainbow Dash as a pony saw me.

Pony Rainbow Dash: WHOA!

Lots by lots all of the Changelings fell in rapid succession.

Princess Cadance : You won't get away with this! Twilight and her friends will-

[doors open]

We came in with flaming rainbow auras enveloping all of us in incredible power.

Me: It's over Queen Chrysalis. Your reign of terror is over! Prepare to die!

Queen Chrysalis : You can never defeat me! You do realize the reception's been cancelled, don't you? Go! Feed!

But no minions came.

Me: All your minions are dead Chrysalis. We killed every single one of them! Now you will face the divine wrath of justice!

[doors close]

Queen Chrysalis : NO! No matter. Twilight here was suspicious of my behavior all along. Too bad the rest of you were too caught up in your wedding planning to realize those suspicions were correct! [laughing]

Applejack : Sorry, Twi. We should've listened to you.

Twilight Sparkle : It's not your fault. She fooled everypony.

Me: You're a heartless and ruthless monster Chrysalis and you will pay for your crimes just like when we killed you before!

Princess Cadance: You all killed Chrysalis before?

Me: That's right Cadance. Just like when I killed King Sombra.

Princess Cadance then recognized me from an image in a book that she remembered seeing in the past. It was a picture of me in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 form killing King Sombra and freeing the Crystal Empire from his reign of terror!

Princess Cadance: It's you! You're the Hero of the Crystal Empire! You saved us all and freed us!

Everyone gasped in absolute shock!

Me: That's right everyone. We are Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I'm J.D. Knudson, Leader of the team and we came to save you all from this wicked monster!

I then flew at incredible speed and grabbed Chrysalis's horn.

Me: Try changing without your magic!

I snapped off the horn and stripped her of her powers! And it freed Shining Armor and all the ponies from Chrysalis's control!

Shining Armor : Wha- where… huh? Is… is the wedding over?

Me: No Shining Armor. It's still on! But there's no time to lose!

Twilight Sparkle : Your spell! Perform your spell!

Me: No Twilight. He used too much power now. Let me handle this.

Shining Armor : He's right. My power is useless now. I don't have the strength to repel them.

Princess Cadance : My love will give you strength.

Queen Chrysalis : [chuckling] What a lovely but absolutely ridiculous sentiment.

Me: Shut your mouth Chrysalis! Shining Armor, Princess Cadance, everyone, share with me the combined power of the one thing she needs to gain more power.

[magic twinkling and surging]

The power they had generating was so incredibly strong and powerful and then they channeled it into my sword and my eyes glowed powerful white and then I charged at Chrysalis with incredible speed!

Me: You want love so badly Chrysalis!? Then TAKE IT!

Queen Chrysalis : Noooooo!

I stabbed Chrysalis all the way through her black heart

Me: GO TO HELL AND TAKE YOUR LOVESUCKING FRIENDS WITH YOU!

Then she was enveloped in a massive blast of energy and it obliterated her in an instant and she and ALL of the Changelings was sealed into the Book of Vile Darkness for all eternity and Nicole put a spell on Chrysalis that ensured that she and her minions would never be freed again! The evil of Chrysalis and the Changelings had been silenced forever!

I powered down.

Nico: Queen Chrysalis, you and your Changelings have failed this universe!

We went over to Princess Celestia.

Me: Are you all right Princess?

Princess Celestia : Yes. Don't worry about me. I'm fine. Thank you all so much for saving all of us.

Me: You're welcome Princess. Thankfully we got here and it was thanks to Twilight's suspicions that she was able to prove that the wedding with Shining Armor and Chrysalis was a fraud and that the real wedding is still on.

Princess Cadance: That's true. (To Twilight) You have a real wedding to put together.

Me: And we can all help you this time.

Twilight Sparkle: Thanks J.D.

Princess Cadance was trying Applejack's Apple Family Tarts and Twilight was keeping everything organized. Sunset Shimmer was helping with the reception and more.

Princess Cadance : [gulp]

Rarity designed the wedding dress and she looked breathtaking.

[birds chirping]

Fluttershy was doing the bird songs and they were beautiful.

[cymbals crashing]

Pinkie Pie was doing the dancing.

Later the REAL Wedding was on and we looked amazing. I was in real nice clothes and more. We all were in nice clothes.

Twilight Sparkle adjusted Shining Armor's suspenders and he was much better. Shining Armor and Twilight Sparkle's parents, Twilight Velvet and Night Light were so proud of Shining Armor.

Fluttershy got the Bridal Chorus going.

[birds whistling Wagner's "Bridal Chorus"]

[doors open]

Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle and Scootaloo were the Flower Girls and they came down the hall sprinkling flower petals. Princess Cadance came down the isle and she was dressed in a magnificent wedding dress.

Me: Wow. Princess Cadance looks so magnificent in that dress.

Nico: She sure does.

Twilight Sparkle : Seriously, though. I get why the queen of the changelings wanted to be with you, but how did you get someone as amazing as Cadance to marry you?

Shining Armor : I told her she wouldn't just be gaining a husband. She'd be getting a pretty great sister, too.

Me: And Twilight Sparkle and Princess Cadance have had a sister bond for a long time.

Shining Armor: Yep.

Rarity got choked up and Applejack put her hat on.

Princess Celestia : Mares and gentlecolts, we are gathered here today to celebrate the union of the real Princess Mi Amore Cadenza-

Princess Cadance : Princess Cadance is fine.

Princess Celestia : Hm. The union of Princess Cadance and Shining Armor. The strength of their commitment is clear. The power of their love, undeniable. May we have the rings please? [Spike handed her The Rings and they were placed on their horns] I now pronounce you mare and colt!

[cheering]

We cheered too.

Princess Celestia : This is your victory as much as theirs. Same with all of you Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We can't thank you all enough for saving us all.

Me: It was our pleasure Princess.

Princess Celestia: (To Twilight Sparkle) You persisted in the face of doubt, and your actions led to your being able to bring the real Princess Cadance back to us. Learning to trust your instincts is a valuable lesson to learn.

Me: Vigilance can provide so much for others and make you feel like a guardian angel to them.

Applejack: That's right.

Shining Armor and Princess Cadance : [kissing]

Me: So cool.

Nico: This is the first wedding we've seen here in Equestria.

Naruto: It sure is.

Princess Celestia : Rainbow Dash, that's your cue.

Rainbow Dash flew into the air and released a Sonic Rainboom!

[explosion]

Me: WHOA!

Rainbow Dash : Best… wedding… ever!

At the Reception we were having fun.

["Love Is In Bloom" starting]

Princess Luna : Hello, everypony. Did I miss anything?

Me: You arrived just in time Princess Luna.

Pinkie Pie : [squee] Let's get this party started!

[Twilight Sparkle]

Love is in bloom

A beautiful bride, a handsome groom,

Two hearts becoming one

A bond that cannot be undone because

(We danced, had cake, had fun and so much more!)

Love is in bloom

A beautiful bride, a handsome groom

I said love is in bloom

You're starting a life and making room

For us (For us, For us…)

Shining Armor : Twilight! None of this would've been possible without you, little sis. Love ya, Twily.

Twilight Sparkle : Love you too, B.B.B.F.F.

They hugged.

Me: Congratulations to you both Shining Armor and you too Princess Cadance.

Shining Armor: Thank you so much J.D. You made this the happiest day ever.

Me: I'm glad we all did.

They got in a stagecoach.

Shining Armor : Ready to go?

Princess Cadance : Oh! Almost forgot.

She threw the bouquet.

Rarity : IT'S MINE! Oof! Ahaha… ha.

[Twilight Sparkle] [background]

Love is in bloom

A beautiful bride, a handsome groom

I said love is in bloom

You're starting a life and making room

For us, (For us… For us… Aah…)

Twilight Sparkle : Now this was a great wedding.

Me: You said it Twilight.

Varie: It was so awesome. I hope our wedding is just as good.

Me: Yeah.

Spike : Oh, yeah? Just wait until you see what I have planned for the bachelor party! [laughing]

Everypony : [laughing]

[fireworks]

We left the simulator and we were cheering wildly.

Me: That was awesome!

Nico: It sure was and it was the first ever wedding we had in our Simulator.

Me: It sure was! It was awesome!

Twilight Sparkle: That was so cool!

Me: But at least we've now seen the last of Chrysalis and her evil ways.

Thorax: That's right. I'm glad you all destroyed her forever.

Me: Our work in Equestria is not done yet. But the one that truly deserves most of the credit in Equestria is Twilight here.

Nico: Absolutely.

Fireflight: Twilight, after everything you've accomplished, you've earned the title of Princess.

Me: Absolutely Twilight. You have a heart of pure gold as well as the makings of a true friend to all, a great member of Team Loud Phoenix Storm as well as a true princess.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh thank you guys so much!

We hugged her.

* * *

Later we were back in the living room watching TV and it was awesome.

Princess Luna: That was an amazing Simulator adventure.

Me: It sure was. But it actually feels like it REALLY happened.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah it does that.

Nico: Our Simulator has been our doorway into many universes all over the space-time continuum.

Naruto: Yeah and it is so awesome seeing all those universes and more and helping out.

Me: And Equestria's future is looking even brighter. Now that we've seen the last of Queen Chrysalis.

Nicole: You said it dad.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: But we're not done yet. We still have to save the pony Cozy Glow from herself and kill Lord Tirek and destroy the traces of Grogar and make sure he never returns again and more.

Nico: Yep and we can do it.

Lola: Guys, I'm worried about Winston. He hasn't called in hours.

Stewie: Relax, Lola. I'm sure Winston is just running late.

Me: I have a feeling he will be.

Then we heard a bottle clink and and Laney saw that it was a message in a bottle.

Laney: Huh? A message in a bottle? Usually you find these on the beach.

Laney popped the cork and got the message out and she read it and then she gasped in shock!

Laney: GUYS!

Laney rushed into the living room and she had a look of panic on her face.

Me: What's wrong Laney!?

Laney: Winston was kidnapped! And so was Numbuh 1's dad!

Nimbuh 1: WHAT!?

Lola: WHAT!?

Zilius Zox: What? P.T.O.O.E.Y. kidnapped Winston and Mr. Uno?!

ME: WHAT!? I thought we were rid of that bad version of the Parent Teachers Association forever!

Yuko: I was just about to say that!

Numbuh 1: DAD!

Laney handed me the note and I read it.

Me: (Reading)

"Help me Lola,

Me and Mr. Monty Uno are being held prisoner by the P.T.O.O.E.Y. Squad. They are holding us prisoner over at the abandoned Delightful Mansion to get revenge on you for killing them the first time. Help us as fast as you can. And hurry. I don't know how much more I can take.

Love Winston"

Twilight Sparkle: What is P.T.O.O.E.Y.?

Me: It's an evil version of the Parent Teachers Association. It stands for the Parent Teacher Organization Of Eradicating Youngsters.

The girls and new recruits all gasped in shock!

Minuette: That's madness!

I went over their history.

---

The Parent Teacher Organization of Eradicating Youngsters are a minor villainous faction in animated action-comedy series Codename: Kids Next Door .

It is a small group of five adult villains including both parents and teachers, as their name implies. They are a parody of the PTA. Like many of the show's villains, the members of the group represent archetypes of oppressive authority figures, in this case those related to school.

They consist of The Principal, a school principal and the de facto leader of the group, who can fly but seems to do little else, voiced by Tom Kenny, Mad Dad, an abusive father figure who is angry with his child's poor grades, voiced by Jeff Bennett, The Terrible Tutor, a a school tutor who can shoot textbooks from his sleeves, voiced by Dee Bradley Baker, Heli-Teacher, an old woman possessing a flying chair, voiced by Cree Summer, and Midwestern Mom, a wrestler-like mother figure, voiced by Grey DeLise.

Their only major appearance was in "Operation: N.O.-P.O.W.U.H.", in which they attack the Sector V Treehouse but are quickly defeated. Aside from this, the members of the group are frequently seen at large gatherings of villains.

---

They all gasped.

Sunset Shimmer: These guys sound like they are bad news!

Applejack: Those sidewinders will pay for this!

Killer Frost: (to Lola) Weren't the P.T.O.O.E.Y. members the first Adult villains you faced?

Lola: Yes they were! And I killed all of them!

Me: Like all the Adult Villains that the Kids Next Door had faced on a daily basis, they want to kill all children everywhere and without children, humanity as we know it would cease to exist. That's what makes them all minus Common Cold, Toiletnator, Roquefort, Stickybeard, Robin Food, Mushi and the Teen Ninjas all genocidal maniacs out to kill humanity. They will stop at nothing to destroy humanity's future. Without kids, humanity has no future.

Twinkleshine: That is insane!

Lemon Hearts: I can't believe that there are so many villains out there that are out to wipe out all of humanity.

Moondancer: Yeah that is awful.

Yuko: Yeah and that's why I formed Team Adult Genocide, to destroy all the adult villains out to destroy all of humanity. What they have done is beyond pure evil in terms of human comprehension. The worst of them all was Father. He was ultimate evil incarnate.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: He was the worst.

Numbuh 1: There's only one way my Dad's ever getting out of this one. I'll be right back.

Numbuh One left to go get something.

Nico: (sarcastically) Hey! Take your time!

Maria Rockell: (sarcastically as well) Yeah! It's not like 2 innocent people are about to die right now!

Me: I don't like that sarcasm guys. Also Maria that's not helping.

Maria: Sorry.

French Narrator: (French Accent) 30 minutes later

May: Nigel's been gone half an hour.

Coconuts: If he doesn't get back soon, his Dad and Winston are toast!

Me: Yeah.

Numbuh 1 came back and he had the Recommissioning Ray.

Me: The Recommissioning Ray. I guess desperate times call for desperate measures.

The Dark Signers minus Rex all appeared.

Carly Carmine: We heard everything about Numbuh 1's dad and Winston.

Greiger: I hope you all don't mind me, Kalin, Misty, Devack, Roman, and Carly helping you against these guys.

Me: Not at all and me and Misty as well as Jack and Carly are parents. P.T.O.O.E.Y. gives all parents and teachers everywhere a bad name.

Jack Atlas: You said it J.D.

Ashley: We have to save Uncle Monty.

Me: Lets head out.

We were off to the Delightful Mansion.

---

We arrived at the abandoned Delightful Mansion and it looked like no one had been there in a long time.

Me: Whoa. Looks like no one has been here for years.

Nico: Yeah.

Ashley: Thank goodness I still have the key for this place.

Bruce: You still have that key with you?

Ashley: I've had it since we became Sector Z again.

Me: Lets head in.

Ashley pulled out a gold key and unlocked the door and we went in and it was a creepy place.

Me: Whoa. Looks like no one has been in here for years.

Nico: It's only been 3 years but it feels like forever.

Me: Lets stay quiet guys.

We stayed close and we kept quiet and snuck through the walls and we heard voices. We heard them coming from a room at the end of the hall.

Me: Shh.

Winston: YOU WILL NEVER GET AWAY WITH THIS! Lola and Team Loud Phoenix Storm will stop you!

Lola: (Whispering) Lets listen in.

We heard what they were planning.

The Principal: They will come and Lola will die when we get our hands on her for killing us!

Midwestern Mom: SHE IS THE NAUGHTIEST CHILD EVER AND SHE WILL PAY!

Mad Dad: AND SHE WILL GET THE BIGGEST FUCKING BEATDOWN EVER!

The Principal: Mad Dad what did I tell you about language.

Mad Dad: Sorry.

Me: (Whispering) Lets show them an entrance of the moon.

Princess Luna: I can provide that.

Me: Great. Lets do it.

We got ready.

---

In the room they were watching Winston and Monty Uno. But then suddenly a massive flash of moonlight appeared and it formed into a crescent moon and then the moon grew a massive set of wings that were folded and they spread and we erupted out of the wings with moonlight blasts!

Numbuh 1: Hey P.T.A. Buttfaces! SAY CHEESE!

He fired the Recommissioning ray at Monty and in a flash of light he was now back to NUMBUH 0!

We gasped in absolute shock and disbelief!

Me: I… I CAN'T BELIEVE IT!

Numbuh 362: Numbuh 1's dad is really Numbuh 0!? How is that possible!?

Numbuh 2: WHOA! Numbuh 1 your dad is really the legendary Numbuh 0!?

Twilight Sparkle: What?! Monty Uno is Numbuh 0?!

Gabriel: All family members have surprising secrets, Twilight. And I should know.

Me: Yeah but this is one of the biggest secrets of them all!

Lola: I was shocked myself.

Robin Hood: That is most amazing!

Minuette: What was Numbuh 0 famous for?

Me: He was the founder and creator of the modern age and the 7th Generation of the Kids Next Door.

Rarity: Amazing!

Sassy Saddles: (British Accent) That is amazing!

Hunter: (German Accent) Mein Gott!

Numbuh 0: And it's good to be back.

He cut Winston free and kicked the Principal in the face and he and Winston joined us.

Me: Wow!

Then Rex Goodwin, Dayu, Calamitous, Hydro Man, Vexen and Heat Wave appeared.

Me: Rex Goodwin, Dayu, Calamitous, Hydro Man Vexen and Heat Wave.

Heat Wave: Good seeing you here.

Rex Goodwin: Let me guess. You're going to ask if we can have the usual battles after this is done, right?

Maria: I hope that's ok with you guys.

Dayu: We don't mind.

Calamitous: In fact, we have a better idea.

Me: You want to have our battles with these PTA douchebags?

Dayu: Bingo.

A figured jumped over us and landed in front of us.

Valon: (Australian Accent) Who are you mate?

Vanishing Gungaroo: (Australian Accent) Call me… Vanishing Gungaroo mate!

Vanishing Gungaroo turns away from Midwestern Mom and flicks his tail, unleashing a long ranged energy wave at her.

It smashes her in her face and knocks her down! But it also made her red with incredible fury as she was growling ferociously.

Gia: School's out for you guys!

Megaforce Rangers: Go Go Megaforce!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into the Basic Megaforce Rangers form.

Troy Burrows: FURY OF THE DRAGON! MEGAFORCE RED!

Emma Goodall: FLAMES OF THE PHOENIX! MEGAFORCE PINK!

Jake Holling: VENOM OF THE SNAKE! MEGAFORCE BLACK!

Gia Moran: CLAW OF THE TIGER! MEGAFORCE YELLOW!

Noah Carver: BITE OF THE SHARK! MEGAFORCE BLUE!

Troy Burrows: EARTH'S DEFENDERS NEVER SURRENDER!

Megaforce Rangers: POWER RANGERS MEGAFORCE!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A Massive fiery explosion went off behind them.

They were ready!

Me: SCHOOL'S OUT FOREVER YOU PTA FUCKUPS!

Nico: YEAH! Time for your Teaching Certificates and Parental Rights to be revoked! FOREVER!

Me: Lets get them! But we're too cramped in here.

Dayu: Agreed. Lets take this to a planet that Dr. Viktor told me about.

She snapped her fingers and we were taken to a jungle planet. We were on the home planet of Humongosaur and Astrodactyl: TERRADINO!

---

Terradino is the homeworld of the Vaxasaurians, Kaosseffexx Ultimasaurias and Astrodactyl's species.

A beautiful, mountainous, and lush world, Terradino is home to a vast and varied number of diverse animalistic alien species, many creatures great and small. When seen from space, Terradino resembles Earth.

Society

All of Terradino's different species have not evolved to live here together peacefully. Warring factions in every group constantly seek to wrench control of society for themselves. However, the Vaxasaurians have been able to temporarily restore order through their sheer physical superiority.

---

Me: Whoa!

Lincoln: Wow! Look at this planet.

Dayu: This is Humongosaur and Astrodactyl's home planet Terradino.

Me: WHOA! So this is the planet Terradino.

Riley: Wow! I've always wondered what this planet would be like.

Laney: It's beautiful!

Nico: It sure is. I would call this planet a great vacation spot.

Julie Yamamoto: Me too.

Chione: Same here. It's amazing.

Applejack: This is a great planet.

The Principal: It will be your final resting place! Parent Teacher Organization Of Eradicating Youngsters, ATTACK!

Eli: CHARGE!

We went at them!

---

Battle 1: Brittney, Twilight Sparkle, Starlight Glimmer, Princess Luna, Princess Celestia, Gabriel and Nathalie VS Rex Goodwin

---

Brittney, Twilight Sparkle, Starlight Glimmer, Princess Luna, Princess Celestia, Gabriel and Nathalie were facing Rex Goodwin.

Brittney: I know. It's a major surprising revelation.

Starlight Glimmer: It sure is.

Princess Luna: It was a most surprising and shocking revelation.

Heli-Teacher: (sees what's on the paper) What?! 4 x 1 doesn't equal a picture of a clown with a flamethrower!

Devack punches the Heli-teacher and fires a blast of fire and burns her.

Sweetie Belle: This teacher is years out of retirement!

Sweetie Belle fired waves of magic and energy and the blasts all missed her?

Heli-Teacher: (Evil Laughter) Your aim is almost as bad as your schoolwork.

The blasts all came back and slammed into her from behind and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rarity: Nice shot Sweetie Belle!

Misty Tredwell: That isn't even my report card at all!

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

The P.T.O.O.E.Y. Squad was a funny and evil parody of the Parent Teachers Association and they only made one speaking debut in the episode Operation N.O.-P.O.W.U.H. and it was cool seeing them in action! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the second Time Squad chapter and we're going to meet the Earl of Sandwich in the year 1762 in London, England. It's gonna be awesome meeting the man who invented one of history's most popular foods and it's gonna be awesome!

See you all tomorrow.

Jealousy of the Earl of Sandwich

It was a beautiful day at the Estate. We were over at the lake to have the R.W.B.Y. girls see what it's like for them to be Pokemon.

The girls were wearing some tight cloths.

Ruby was wearing a red shirt and blue jeans, Weiss was wearing a white shirt and black jeans, Blake was wearing a black shirt and black jeans and Yang was wearing a yellow shirt and white jeans.

Aria Blaze: (to Ruby Rose) Those clothes look a bit tight on you, Ruby.

Ruby Rose: I know. But it'll be worth it as we turn into Pokemon.

Me: It's only gonna be temporary. Ruby is gonna be a Scizor, Weiss is gonna be a Gallade, Blake will be a Gengar and Yang is gonna be a Blaziken.

Yang: Cool!

Blake: This is gonna be awesome!

Me: It sure is. You ready girls?

They nodded for yes.

Me: Here we go. (Snaps Fingers)

The four girls were in excruciating pain and they were changing.

Ruby had her skin turn red and her body turned more insect like and her hands turned into pincher claws and she grew insect wings and her feet and arms turned insect like and her eyes turned orange and her hair fell off. Her clothes minus her red leotard ripped off.

Weiss was changing and she had her skin turn green and white and grew a thorn out of her back and chest and her hands fused together and her eyes turned red. She had her white Leotard on.

Duplicia: (to Weiss) Weiss! Are you okay?

Weiss: (Groaning) I'll be fine!

Her clothes ripped off as her hair fell off and she grew a knight blade on her head.

Blake grew bigger and her skin turned black and furry and her clothes ripped off and her grin grew and her hair grew all over and she turned into a Gengar and she had a black Leotard on.

Yang grew taller and her skin turned red and fury and her hair grew longer and her eyes turned blue with yellow sclera and her clothes ripped and her yellow leotard was on and she had fire fur wrist bands. She was now a Blaziken!

Ruby: Wow!

Me: How do you 4 feel?

Blake: Incredible!

Slipstream: (to Blake) You look awesome as a Gengar, Blake.

Blake: Thanks Slipstream. I feel so dark and powerful.

Me: You'll also have the powers of these Pokemon when my spell wears off.

Kairi: It's true. I found out that me, Aqua and Sora have the powers of Groudon, Kyogre and Rayquaza and it's so awesome!

Me: It's a side effect of my spell.

Ruby Rose: That's so cool!

Me: It's gonna be even cooler for you 4. I have just the targets for you to practice your powers on.

I punched the ground and a bunch of training dummies formed and they were in the shapes of their enemies from Remnant that we took down.

Ruby Rose: Cool!

Emerald Sustrai: And I'm holding on to your weapons for you until you're done.

Me: Knock yourselves out. You only have 15 minutes.

Yang: Lets get them!

They went over and Ruby slashed and snipped a bunch of dummies and Weiss slashed them all over and Blake blasted a bunch of dummies with a Shadow Ball and Nightshade blast and Yang fired blasts of fire and the blasts all hit the dummies and obliterated them all over.

Nico: WHOA! That is awesome!

Me: It sure was!

Nico: J.D. do you think I made the right call sparring Salem from the pain of the Warp?

Me: You did what you thought was right in your heart. You said so yourself that she did all those crimes out of love and love has a nasty way of causing people to do crazy stuff.

May: That's true.

Nico: Yeah I agree. But I made the right call.

Me: Good.

Twilight Sparkle: That's right Nico. Salem will come back as a better person.

Me: And if Master Goku can have Majin Buu come back as a better person then I know that you can do the same with Salem too.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Me: You're welcome. Salem's crimes may have been unforgivable but she had a very good reason for them and that is one that I understand.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah.

Me: (Looks at watch) 3 minutes left.

The girls were done.

Blake: Whoo! That was awesome!

Me: Glad you all had fun. We have 1 minute left.

Ruby Rose: It was fun while it lasted.

Me: You'll still have the powers you got of the Pokemon you turned into.

Blake: Yeah.

Lincoln: Should we cover our eyes?

Me: No they have leotards on.

I looked at my watch.

Me: 3… 2… 1… 0.

The 4 girls groaned and they were reverting back and they got their skin, hair, eyes, and bodies back and it was painful. But they were back to normal.

Yang: (Groans) What a rush.

Blake: (Groans) Ow. But that was so cool!

Me: Glad you girls had fun.

Air Raid: (to Yang) That's a nice leotard you have on, Yang.

Yang: Thanks Air Raid.

Lincoln: She sure does.

Amy Anderson: Didn't Yang lose her arm before?

Lincoln: Yeah and I brought it back for her.

Amy Anderson: Aw that is so sweet of you Lincoln.

Me: It sure was.

We later went back home.

---

Later the following Day, Applejack and Rainbow Dash were throwing horseshoes at a stake.

Rainbow Dash : [grunt] Whoo-hoo!

Rainbow Dash got really close to the stake.

Applejack : Hoo-wee! Not a bad pitch for a pony who works with her head in the clouds.

Rainbow Dash : Oh yeah ? Think you can do better, cowgirl?

Applejack : I know I can. [grunt] Oh, for Pete's sake!

She didn't even come close.

Rainbow Dash : Heh! Looks like this Pegasus can pitch better than the workhorse. The object of the game is to get the closest to the stake.

Applejack : All right, all right. You got another throw there, pony girl.

Rainbow Dash : [grunt]

She threw it and it crashed through a window.

WHOOPS!

Applejack : [sarcastically] Wow, Rainbow, heh. You couldn't hit a barn door with that kind of a throw!

Rainbow Dash : Yeah, yeah. I still have the closest throw, Apple smack . Just try and beat it.

Applejack threw her horseshoe and it got around the stake! She won.

Applejack : [grunt] Yee-haw! It's a ringer. That's how you do it down here on the farm.

Rainbow Dash : I lost.

Applejack : Ah, don't feel bad, Rainbow. It's all in good fun.

Rainbow Dash : I hate losing.

Applejack : Besides, you're a mighty good athlete. I'm just better. Heh heh heh.

Rainbow Dash : All right, Applejack, you think you're the top athlete in all of Ponyville?

Applejack : Well, I was gonna say in all of Equestria, but that might be gildin' the lily.

Rainbow Dash :… and I think I'm the top athlete. So let's prove it.

Applejack : Prove what?

Rainbow Dash : I challenge you to an Iron Pony competition. A series of athletic contests to decide who's the best, once and for all .

Applejack : You know what, Rainbow? You're on .

They spit in their hooves and clapped them and glared at each other.

Rainbow Dash was stretching and getting loose. Twilight Sparkle and Spike were with them.

Rainbow Dash : [grunt]

Twilight Sparkle : So you two are doing what, now?

Applejack : An Iron-

Rainbow Dash : Iron Pony competition.

Applejack : See, we've set up a bunch of events to decide which one of us is-

Rainbow Dash : The most athletic pony ever! [grunt]

Twilight Sparkle : And I'm here to…?

Rainbow Dash : [grunt] I don't know. Why is she here?

Applejack : To be our judge and keep score.

Rainbow Dash : Right, heh. Somepony's gotta record my awesomeness for the history books. [grunt]

I came.

Me: Hey guys.

I appeared and they gasped as they saw me as a Rapidash! I was a full fledged Rapidash!

Applejack: WHOA! J.D. is that you!?

Me: Yep. I'm now a Rapidash. Nico turned me into a Rapidash so I can find out what it's like to not only be a Pokemon but I want to get in on what it's like being one of you.

Applejack: Wow! J.D. you look amazing as a Rapidash.

Twilight Sparkle: You sure do.

Me: Thanks girls. I also want to compete in this Iron Pony Competition to see what it's like.

Rainbow Dash: This is gonna be cool!

Spike: I'll say. You look awesome J.D.!

Me: Thanks Spike. It's my first time ever as a Rapidash. I rode one now I AM one.

Applejack: You got that right.

Me: Also I've had a lot of practice too. I'm gonna need it.

Later it was time for the competition.

Spike : Hello everypony, and welcome to the first annual Iron Pony competition!

Twilight Sparkle : Uh, Spike, who are you talking to?

Spike : Um… uh, them! (Everyone came) Let the games begin !

Main cast sans Twilight : [cheer]

Maria: Good luck in the competition, J.D.

Me: Thanks Maria. And it's really cool being a Rapidash.

Lea: Or hot in this case because your mane is made of pure fire.

We laughed.

The First Event was barrel weaving.

Twilight Sparkle : Ready. Set. Go !

WHOOSH!

Applejack was running fast and weaving in a zigzag formation around a bunch of barrels.

Applejack : [gasp] (Accidentally hits one) Dagnabbit.

She crossed the finish line.

Twilight Sparkle : Time, Spike?

Spike : 17 seconds.

Applejack : You're kiddin'! That breaks my record from last year's rodeo.

Spike : But you got a five second penalty for nudging the barrel.

Applejack : [sigh] Nuts and chews ! Still, that's twenty-two seconds. Not too shabby.

Me: But you did do a good job Applejack.

Applejack: Thanks J.D. Hey, don't be nervous. Remember, it's all in good fun. Now git on up there.

It was Rainbow Dash's turn.

Twilight Sparkle : Ready. Set. Go!

WHOOOSH!

Rainbow Dash weaved around the barrels and didn't touch one of them!

Applejack : Woo! That was some fancy hoofwork there, Rainbow!

Me: Boy you said it!

Rainbow Dash : Thanks, but I [pant] couldn't have been as fast as you.

Applejack : What was the time on that, Spike?

Spike : 18 seconds!

Applejack : 18 seconds .

Me: Nice job Rainbow!

Applejack: Rainbow, are you sure you're not secretly a rodeo pony?

Me: Now it's my turn.

I got to position.

Twilight Sparkle: This is really cool seeing you as a Rapidash, J.D.

Me: I know. But lets see if I can do it.

Twilight Sparkle: Ready. Set. GO!

ZOOOOOOOM!

I took off faster than a bullet fired from a gun and weaved around the barrels and got to the finish line!

Me: Whew!

Twilight Sparkle: WHOA!

Spike: 10 Seconds!

Me: Not bad for my first time weaving around barrels.

Applejack: Nice job J.D.!

Me: Thanks.

Fluttershy put a red apple number 1 on a scoreboard.

Twilight Sparkle : J.D. Knudson wins the barrel weave!

Rainbow Dash : Oh, I can't believe I lost!

Applejack : Yeah, well, we still have a lot to go over.

Next was the Bucking Contest and that was like a Carnival High Striker Game.

Rainbow Dash kicked a target on a bell tower game and it hit the bell.

[bell rings]

[ponies cheer]

Me: Nice one R.D.!

Rainbow Dash: Thanks J.D.

Applejack : Mighty respectable, [spit] but let me show ya how it's really done.

[grunt] [bell rings]

She kicked the target and shattered it and sent the weight flying and it smashed the bell and sent it flying high into the sky.

[ponies cheer]

Me: WHOA! If this were a baseball game that would be sure to be a grand slam.

Lynn: Nice one Applejack!

Rainbow Dash was jawdropped.

Applejack : Years of applebuckin'. (Hits a tree) ["Shave and a haircut and Two bits"]

Me: My turn.

I went up to a new bell and I did the same thing but a thousand times stronger.

SMASH!

DING!

The bell went soaring high into the sky and in the voids of space it smashed into a Gordanian ship and caused it to explode and free all the prisoners!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM

Nico: WHOA!

Everyone cheered!

[bell rings]

I won that bit. Score was now 2 - 0 - 0.

Rainbow Dash : Ugh.

Next was the Bronco Buck.

Granny Smith : Waa-hoo!

Apple Bloom : Whoo-hoo!

Big McIntosh : Eeyup!

Spike : Why me?

Spike was sitting on Applejack.

Twilight Sparkle : Go !

Applejack was bucking like a Rodeo Horse and Spike was hanging on tight.

Spike : Whoa! Whoa! Whoa-hoa! Whoa! Whoaaa!

Applejack Launched Spike into the air and he crashed into a haypile.

Spike: Ouch.

Rainbow Dash was in the pile and Spike was on her now.

Rainbow Dash : Ready for another pony ride?

Spike : No .

Twilight Sparkle : Go !

Rainbow Dash used her incredible speed to buck him.

Spike : Guh guh guh guh guh guh guh guh guh guh guh guhwhoaaaaaa!

Twilight Sparkle : Rainbow Dash wins the bronco-buck. [bell rings]

Rainbow Dash was now on the board. Score was now 2-1-0 me.

Me: Nice work R.D.!

Spike : And I lose . [ponies cheer]

Next was the Lasso contest.

Rainbow Dash was doing a wobbly lasso spin and Applejack was doing a really great lasso spin and I was doing all kinds of lasso tricks like the John Wayne shoots an outlaw and many more.

Nico: WHOA! Look at J.D. go!

I was jumping through the rope and more. Applejack was jawdropped and I grabbed Spike with the lasso and hogtied him up.

I had roses given to me.

Spike : Whoa! [grunt] How do I get roped into these things?

Me: Sorry Spike.

Spike: But that was so cool how you did that J.D.!

Me: Thanks Spike.

Rainbow Dash : [grunt] Does this count?

Rainbow Dash was tied up all over.

Score was now 3-1-0 me.

[bell rings]

Next was the Ball Bouncing Contest.

I was bouncing balls and doing tricks like crazy.

Score was now 4-1-0 me.

[bell rings]

Rainbow Dash : Yuh !

She threw a hay bale far and it landed in front of her at the end of the field.

Rainbow Dash: [blows raspberry]

Applejack's Hay Bale crashed on top of her and crushed her.

My hay bale flew far and smashed into a tent.

[ponies cheer]

Score was now 5-1-0 me.

[bell rings]

Next was hoof wrestling. It was like arm wrestling.

I was wrestling Rainbow Dash and she was not moving my arm one bit as I was having a cup of tea and I drank my tea and snapped her arm down.

Me: Heh that was easy. Sorry Rainbow Dash but you know how strong I am.

Rainbow Dash: That's true.

Score was now 6-1-0 me.

[bell rings]

Next was the Football Kick.

Rainbow Dash : (Kicks a Rainbow Football) Yeah.

Applejack kicked a regular football.

I kicked a fire football.

[ponies gasp]

Mine was kicked the farthest.

Fluttershy : [gasp]

My football put the number 7 on my spot.

Score was now 7-1-0 me.

[bell rings]

Spike : Fillies and gentlecolts, at the halfway point, our competitors are now at J.D. Knudson 7, Rainbow Dash 1 and Applejack 0.

Twilight Sparkle : Who are you talking to?

Spike : Them! [crowd chatters]

A huge crowd of us and ponies from all over was there.

Next was Push-Ups and they were not one of my favorite exercises.

Twilight Sparkle : Ninety-five, ninety-six, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine… a hundred!

I only did 25 of them and I was dripping sweat more than anything.

Rainbow Dash : Yes !

Score was now 7-2-0 me.

[bell rings]

Next was Chick Wrangling.

[bell rings]

[hens clucking]

We had chicks on our backs.

Me: I hope I don't burn you little ones.

The chicks said that they will be okay.

[chicks chirping]

We went down the path of mud and I got my chicks across safely first and Rainbow Dash got hers and Applejack's safely first.

Applejack : [gasp]

Last was the final event: Tug of War!

Since I was too Strong, I was gonna sit this one out.

Twilight Sparkle : All right, you two. This is the final event. Give it all you've got .

Applejack and Rainbow Dash were pulling hard.

Rainbow Dash and Applejack : [grunting]

Spike : Looks like the workhorse might come out ahead in this one.

Me: It's gonna be really close.

Rainbow Dash flew into the air and pulled Applejack up.

Applejack : [muffled] That's not fair. You can't use your wings to help you win.

Rainbow Dash : [muffled] Huh?

Applejack : [muffled] You're cheatin'!

Rainbow Dash : [muffled] I can't understand you with that rope in your mouth.

Applejack : [spits] I said… uh-oh. (SPLAT) [grunt] [crowd cheers]

Rainbow Dash won that one but I won. Final Score was 14-5-1 me!

[bell rings]

Rainbow Dash : Whoo-hoo! I win by a landslide… or mudslide in your case. [chuckles]

Me: But I am the Iron Pony!

Applejack : Only 'cause Rainbow Dash cheated!

Rainbow Dash : What ?

Applejack : You used your wingpower to help you win over half those contests!

Rainbow Dash : Sounds like sour apples to me.

Applejack : Are you sayin' you didn't use your wings?

Rainbow Dash : Well… no. But you never said I couldn't use my wings.

Applejack : I didn't think I needed to tell you to play fair .

Rainbow Dash : I still would have won even without my wings.

Applejack : Hah! Prove it.

Rainbow Dash : Gladly. How?

Applejack : Tomorrow is the annual Runnin' of the Leaves. I challenge you to race me in it.

Rainbow Dash : Heh! Easy shmeasy.

Applejack : Hold on! (Pulls Rainbow Dash down) There is one condition: the point is to run, so no wings allowed.

Rainbow Dash : No wings? No problem.

Applejack : [spits]

Rainbow Dash : [spits]

Me: I think I'll participate too.

I spit in my hoof and we shook.

[blows raspberry at Applejack]

Applejack : [chuckle]

Later tomorrow was the Running of the leaves. It was gonna be awesome!

Spike : Twilight, hurry up, we're gonna be late for the race.

Twilight Sparkle : Why are you so excited about the race? It's only for ponies.

Spike : Yeah, but I'm hoping I can be the announcer again. Just listen: fillies and gentlecolts, welcome to the annual Running of the-

Pinkie Pie : Welcome to the annual Running of the Leaves! This is Pinkie Pie, your official p-eye-in-the-sky announcer.

Twilight Sparkle : Sorry, Spike. I guess that job's already taken.

Pinkie Pie : As everypony knows, the Running is a very important tradition, for without it, the autumn leaves of Equestria would never fall. So get ready, ponies. The Running of the Leaves will begin in five minutes .

Everyone got to the starting line and were stretching and more.

Applejack : [grunts]

Rainbow Dash : Pardon me, excuse me. Make way for the Iron Pony.

Applejack : The Iron Phony, you mean.

Rainbow Dash : So, Applejack, you ready to win second place?

Applejack : I'm ready to run a good, clean race.

Rainbow Dash : Yeah, yeah…

Applejack : You are not allowed to use your wings.

Rainbow Dash : I could win this race with both wings tied behind my back.

Applejack then tied up Rainbow Dash's wings.

Applejack : [grunts] Trussed up like a turkey. Well, a turkey who can't fly, that is.

Rainbow Dash : Very funny.

Applejack : 'Least now we know we're racin' fair and square.

I arrived.

Me: Hey guys. This is gonna be cool.

Applejack: It sure is.

Lara Laramie: I can't wait.

Applejack and Rainbow Dash saw Lara Laramie on my back.

Applejack: Oh howdy Lara. Are you participating by racing on J.D.?

Lara Laramie: I sure am. J.D. raced for me against Dario on his Rapidash and now I'm gonna race in this one too.

Me: But this time with me as a Rapidash.

Rainbow Dash: That's cool!

[trumpets]

(KENTUCKY DERBY CALL TO POST PLAYS)

Pinkie Pie : Racers! Please take your positions!

Me: Here we go!

Spike : Um… Pinkie Pie?

Pinkie Pie : Hey, Spike! What's up? Oh wait, it's me! I'm up! [laughs]

Spike : Uh, yeah. I know you're doing the announcing today and stuff and… I'm sure you're gonna do a great job and all, but… I was just wondering…

Pinkie Pie : What?

Spike : Aw… forget it.

Pinkie Pie : Spike, would you like to be my co-reporter? We could comment on the action together.

Spike : We could ?

She lowered a rope.

Pinkie Pie : Climb on up!

We saw Twilight Sparkle in the race too.

Applejack : Twilight? What in tarnation are you doin' up here?

Twilight Sparkle : I'm racing.

Me: Cool!

Lara Laramie: I hope you win Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Thank you Lara.

Rainbow Dash : [laughs] Good one, Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle : I'm not joking.

Rainbow Dash : What ? You're not an athlete, you're a… well… you're an egghead.

Me: Rainbow!

Twilight Sparkle : I am not an egghead, I am well-read.

Rainbow Dash : [softly] Egghead .

Applejack : [snickers] But have you ever run a race?

Twilight Sparkle : Well, no, but I do know a lot about running.

Rainbow Dash : And you know this from…

Twilight Sparkle : Books. I've read several on the subject.

Rainbow Dash : (Laughs) What'd you read, "The Egghead's Guide to Running"? Did you stretch out your eye muscles to warm up? [laugh] Get it? Eye muscles .

Me: That's enough you two.

Twilight Sparkle : Scoff if you must, Rainbow. But the Running of the Leaves is a Ponyville tradition, and since I'm here to learn, I've decided I should experience it myself.

Me: You'll have fun Twilight.

Lara Laramie: You sure will.

Applejack : Well, I think that's just dandy, Twilight. Good luck. [snickers]

Rainbow Dash : Yeah. See you at the finish line… tomorrow.

Pinkie Pie : All right, ponies, are you ready?

Me: READY!

Lara: READY!

Spike : Get set . [bell rings]

We all ran fast!

Pinkie Pie : And they're off!

Nico: GO J.D.! GO LARA!

Pinkie Pie: Welcome to the official coverage of the Running of the Leaves! You know, Spike, despite its name, the leaves don't do any of the actual running. No, that's left to my little ponies.

Spike : Why, yes, Pinkie, it's the running of the ponies that causes the leaves to fall.

We were running fast and leaves were falling off the trees all over.

Pinkie Pie : Ugh. Those lazy, lazy leaves.

We were really kicking up dust and causing leaves to fall.

Pinkie Pie: But this year, the run is about more than the weather. It's about the race to the finish and the three runners who want to win it: J.D. Knudson & Lara Laramie, Applejack and Rainbow Dash.

Spike : You know, Pinkie, these 2 ponies have a bit of a grudge match they're trying to settle. Trying to prove who's the most athletic. But J.D. loves having fun.

Pinkie Pie : J.D. is the greatest but yes, and "grudge" rhymes with "fudge".

Spike : Yes, it… does. What ?

Pinkie Pie : And I like fudge. But if I eat too much fudge I get a pudge and then I can't budge.

Spike : So… no fudge?

Pinkie Pie : Oh, no thanks. I had a big breakfast. Let's check in with our two competitive ponies, Applejack and Rainbow Dash and J.D.

and Lara.

We were running fast and we were neck and neck.

Pinkie Pie: Having come fast out of the gate, Applejack and Rainbow Dash are evenly matched running neck and neck.

I ran fast enveloped in an aura of fire.

Pinkie Pie: But what's this? Applejack is making a move, she's now ahead by a nose. But Rainbow Dash won't let Applejack have it and takes the lead. She's ahead by half a nose. Or maybe three quarters of a nose. No, about sixty-three point seven percent of a nose… roughly speaking. Applejack sees this move and pushes forth with her strong workhorse legs slinking ahead by three hundred and fifty noses!

Lara Laramie: This is so much fun J.D.!

Me: You said it Lara! Being a Rapidash is awesome!

Applejack : Not so easy without wings, is it?

Rainbow Dash : Come on, Rainbow. Show 'em a little dash .

Rainbow Dash caught up.

Spike : Ho-hold your horses, Pinkie! Rainbow Dash is catching up the front-runner Applejack!

Pinkie Pie : What an upset . I thought Applejack had this in the bag.

Rainbow Dash : You didn't think I was gonna let you off that easily, did you?

Applejack Tripped on a rock.

Applejack : Whoa ! (Everyone ran passed her) I don't believe it.

Twilight Sparkle : I know, it's beautiful, isn't it?

Applejack : Not the scenery, Twilight. Rainbow Dash just tripped me.

Twilight Sparkle : She did not.

Applejack : She did too!

Twilight Sparkle : She did not, and if you slowed down and looked where you're going, like me, you'd see that you tripped over a rock.

Applejack : What? Oh, hayseed! Now I got a lot of ground to make up to catch Rainbow and J.D.

Twilight Sparkle : Just be careful!

Twilight was enjoying herself.

Rainbow was ahead and slowed down. But then Applejack caught up to her.

Applejack : See you at the finish line!

Spike : I don't believe it. After a huge setback, Applejack is back at the front of the pack.

Pinkie Pie : She's the head of the pack, all right. The pick of the litter! The cat's pajamas! Oh wait, why would Applejack take some poor kitty's PJs? That's not very sporting of her.

Spike : Oookay… let's get back to the race.

Me: You okay there Applejack?

Applejack: Yeah just tripped on a rock.

Lara Laramie: No damage?

Applejack: Nope.

Rainbow Dash caught up.

Rainbow Dash : Not so fast, Applejack! This race isn't over yet!

Applejack : It is for you. Heh.

Rainbow Dash tripped and the other ponies ran passed her too and lots of leaves fell down and buried her in a pile of leaves.

Rainbow Dash : Whoa ! Guh, I don't believe it, Applejack tripped me.

Twilight Sparkle : Don't you ponies ever look where you're going? You tripped on a stump. See?

Rainbow Dash : Oh, I see. A big cheater is what I see.

Twilight Sparkle : Rainbow, Applejack would never cheat. It was just an accident.

Rainbow Dash : Sure it was. (Twilight glared at her) I mean, yeah, I'm sure it was.

Twilight Sparkle : Remember, Rainbow, this is just a game.

Rainbow Dash : Yes, but the rules have changed, and two can play at that game.

The race was really heating up.

Pinkie Pie : Welcome back, Ponyvillians, it's me, Pinkie Pie.

Spike : And Spike. Looks like Rainbow is doing her best to catch up. And J.D. and Applejack are neck and neck.

Pinkie Pie : I'm not sure how ketchup is going to help her in this contest. Now, in a hot dog eating contest it can make them doggies nice and slippery, but personally, I prefer mustard. How about you, Spike?

Spike : Uh… I… like… pickles?

Pinkie Pie : Aaand it looks like Applejack has found her self in quite a pickle as Rainbow overtakes her.

Me: You all right there Rainbow?

Rainbow Dash: Yeah just tripped back there.

Me: Ouch.

Rainbow Dash : Look, ma, no wings .

Spike : As the racers enter Equestria's Whitetail Wood, Rainbow Dash is back in the lead.

Rainbow Dash : [chuckles]

Me: Uh oh. Heads up Lara!

Rainbow Dash grabbed a branch and sent it flying at us and we ducked but the branch hit Applejack.

Applejack : Ugh. (Spits out leaves) Hey, Rainbow !

Rainbow Dash : [blows raspberry]

Me: That was a close one.

Lara Laramie: Nice try though!

Applejack : [gasp] Why, that little cheater did that on purpose. It's on .

Applejack used a branch like a catapult and flung herself into the lead.

Rainbow Dash : Nice one, Rainbow.

Applejack : Later!

ZOOOM!

She flew by us.

Me: WHOA!

Lara Laramie: Faster J.D.!

Me: Time to kick it into high gear!

I zoomed fast!

Rainbow Dash : Grr!

Rainbow Dash ran fast and Applejack saw a beehive and she bucked the tree and a beehive fell down.

Rainbow Dash: [gasp] (Bees chase after her) Aaa! (Hides in a bush and the bees fly off) (Turns the sign the other way and Applejack went up the mountain) [laughs]

Me: Man that gag is old!

Lara Laramie: Nice try though!

Me: SO LONG!

We went passed Rainbow.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh my, Whitetail Wood is just lovely. Hey, Rainbow, shouldn't you be up ahead?

Rainbow Dash : [chuckling] I'm sure I'll win now.

Twilight Sparkle : Except that J.D. & Lara and all the other racers just passed you.

Rainbow Dash : Oh horse apples… see ya!

Applejack was on a mountain at a dead end.

Pinkie Pie : Applejack, what are you doing up here?

Spike : There aren't even any trees.

Applejack : Er, no, but the sign's pointed this way… [whinnies] Rainbow . Mind giving me a lift?

She got a lift down and into the lead.

Rainbow Dash : What the hay?! You said no flying!

Applejack : No, I said no wings.

Me: Nice save Pinkie!

Pinkie Pie: Thanks J.D.!

Me: This is so much fun!

Pinkie Pie : I must say, Spike, that this has been the most interesting Running of the Leaves in Equestria history!

Spike : With the most interesting announcing…

We were running passed a bunch of maple trees with sap buckets getting sap for homemade maple syrup. Applejack kicked a bucket and dumped a bunch of sap down.

Me: Uh oh!

I jumped over the sap.

Pinkie Pie : But it isn't the running that's been fascinating. It's the lack of running!

Rainbow Dash got stuck in the sap.

Rainbow Dash : [grunt] Aaa!

She tried to get out but it was as strong as glue and she was pulled back hard and she was flung fast like a catapult and she flew passed Applejack and spun her like a tornado.

Applejack : Whoa!

Rainbow Dash : Whoa!

Applejack caught Rainbow Dash into the tornado and they went up the hill as we continued. They were on a cliff ledge and it broke off and slid down a hill and they were behind.

Twilight Sparkle : Forgive me, girls. I know I'm not an athlete, but shouldn't the Running of the Leaves actually involve running ?

Rainbow Dash : You know, I think Twilight's right.

Applejack : You do?

Rainbow Dash : Yeah! If you wanna beat me, you better… RUUUN!

They ran fast.

Pinkie Pie : Once again, Rainbow Dash and Applejack are neck and neck, jockeying for position. Applejack inches ahead, now it's Rainbow, it's Applejack, it's Rainbow Dash, it's Applejack…

They saw the finish line.

Nico: Oh man! It's gonna be close!

Varie: YEAH!

Scootaloo: Come on Rainbow Dash!

Apple Bloom: Come on sis!

[horn blaring, crowd cheering]

Rainbow Dash pushed Applejack.

Applejack : [grunt]

Spike : Oh no, she di'int!

Applejack pushed Rainbow Dash.

Pinkie Pie : Oh yes, she di'id!

Rainbow Dash pushed her again.

Applejack : Cut it out!

Rainbow Dash : No, you cut it out!

Applejack : You started it.

Rainbow Dash : And now I'm gonna finish it.

Applejack : Oh no, you won't. (Grabs Rainbow's tail and threw her back)

Rainbow Dash : Oh yes, I will. (Grabs Applejack's tail) [grunt] (Applejack bites Rainbow Dash's Rope off and frees her wings)

That's it! All bets are off!

She flies into the air.

Applejack : Oh no, you don't.

Applejack pounced onto Rainbow Dash and they wrestled and fought all over the place as they headed to the finish line.

Pinkie Pie : It's Applejack, it's Rainbow Dash, it's Applejack, it's Rainbow Dash-

Rainbow Dash : I won!

Applejack : No, I won!

Rainbow Dash : I won!

Spike : You tied!

Applejack and Rainbow Dash : Tied?!

Applejack : For first?

Pinkie Pie : For last!

Applejack : Last?!

Rainbow Dash : Then who won?

Twilight Came and she had a medal around her neck.

Applejack and Rainbow Dash : You?!

Twilight Sparkle : Oh no, but I did get fifth place, which is rather good considering I've never run a race before.

Applejack : What? How's that even possible?

Rainbow Dash : You ran so slow, and looked at the scenery .

Twilight Sparkle : Exactly. I paced myself, just like my book said. Then at the end, when all the other ponies were worn out, I sprinted to the finish.

The other ponies were exhausted.

Rainbow Dash: But who got first place?

Me and Lara Laramie came out and we both had gold sun medals with leaves around our necks.

Applejack and Rainbow Dash gasped!

Me: Didn't expect me and Lara to win did ya?

Lara got off and I reverted back to human form.

Me: Being a Rapidash is really fun and now I have the power to transform into a Rapidash at will. But only in races like this. But Rainbow Dash, Twilight has a point. Slow but steady wins the race.

Nico: That's right. But way to go you two!

Lincoln: Yeah you guys were awesome!

Lara Laramie: Thanks Lincoln. This was so much fun!

Rainbow Dash : I don't believe it. Twilight and J.D. Knudson & Lara Laramie beat us.

Twilight Sparkle : Well, with all your horsing around, it was quite easy.

Applejack : You're right, Twilight. Our behavior was just terrible.

Rainbow Dash : We weren't very good sports.

Lynn: Take it from me. I know that feeling too.

Princess Celestia : Sounds to me that an important lesson was learned.

We saw Princess Celestia.

Applejack and Rainbow Dash : Princess Celestia?!

Me: Hello Princess.

Applejack : W-What are you doin' here?

Princess Celestia : Fall is one of my favorite seasons, so I came to celebrate the Running of the Leaves.

Laney: Fall is one of my favorite seasons too because of the beautiful colors that the leaves change to every year.

Me: It sure is pretty.

Qin: Yep.

Princess Celestia: And congratulations to you and Lara for winning J.D.

Me: Thank you Princess. It was so cool that I was a Rapidash for this.

Lara Laramie: It sure was.

Applejack : I'm sorry you had to see us being such poor sports, Princess.

Princess Celestia : That's all right, Applejack. Anypony can get swept up in the excitement of competition.

Twilight Sparkle : It's important to remember that the friendship is always more important than the competition.

Princess Celestia : Exactly, Twilight.

Me: Absolutely. I just wish that Lynn's evil self in the Crematoria Prison would learn how to accept defeat instead of becoming a total psycho and taking her own defeats out on everyone like a sore loser.

Lynn: Tell me about it.

Princess Celestia: True. Now, unfortunately, because the two of you were busy tricking each other instead of shaking down leaves, many of the lovely trees of Equestria are still covered.

Many of the trees were covered with leaves still.

Applejack : Why, Princess, I bet we can knock those leaves down for you lickety-split. Whaddya say, friend? Wanna go for another run?

Rainbow Dash : I'd love to stretch my legs.

They were off.

Me: I'm proud of those two.

Nico: Me too. But that was awesome how you and Lara won the race.

Me: It sure was. It was awesome!

Lincoln: It sure was.

---

Later at the Time Squad Satellite, Larry was making a great lunch.

It was awesome and Larry Pulled out some delicious souffle's from the oven and they looked awesome.

Larry 3000: (Sniffs) Ahhh. (Smack) C'est magnifique.

Me: Ooh those look delicious Larry.

Nico: They sure do. What did you make?

Larry 3000: Oh ho one of my originals: Goat cheese shiitake souffle croissant mousse with minced scallions.

We tasted it and it was so delicious!

Me: MMM! So luxurious and delicious!

Lori: Literally so delicious and sophisticated.

Laney: Really delicious.

Mary K.: I'll say. One of the most amazing dishes I've tasted.

Nico: You said it.

Tuddrussel: I got to admit they are good. I didn't like it before but now it's really good.

Otto: It takes a while to get used to Tuddrussel.

Lincoln: True.

Then the Historical Instability Alarm Went off.

BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ!

BOING BOING BOING BOING!

ALARM BLARES!

Jessie K.: Looks like we got a history problem.

We went to the computer and we saw a picture of the Earl of Sandwich.

Flash Man: What time period are we going to this time?

Otto: We're going to the year 1762 in London, England and we're going to meet the John Montagu, the 4th Earl of Sandwich.

---

John Montagu, 4th Earl of Sandwich, PC, FRS (13 November 1718 - 30 April 1792) was a British statesman who succeeded his grandfather Edward Montagu, 3rd Earl of Sandwich as the Earl of Sandwich in 1729, at the age of ten. During his life, he held various military and political offices, including Postmaster General, First Lord of the Admiralty, and Secretary of State for the Northern Department. He is also known for the claim that he was the eponymous inventor of the sandwich.

ohn Montagu was born in 1718, the son of Edward Montagu, Viscount Hinchingbrooke. His father died when John was four, leaving him as his heir. His mother soon remarried and he had little further contact with her. He succeeded his grandfather as Earl of Sandwich in 1729, at the age of ten. He was educated at Eton and at Trinity College, Cambridge, and spent some time travelling, initially going on the Grand Tour around Continental Europe before visiting the more unusual destinations of Greece, Turkey, and Egypt which were then part of the Ottoman Empire. This led him later to found a number of Orientalist societies. On his return to England in 1739, he took his seat in the House of Lords as a follower of the Duke of Bedford, one of the wealthiest and most powerful politicians of the era. He became a Patriot Whig and one of the sharpest critics of the Walpole government, attacking the government's strategy in the War of the Austrian Succession. Like many Patriot Whigs, Lord Sandwich was opposed to Britain's support of Hanover and strongly opposed the deployment of British troops on the European Continent to protect it, instead arguing that Britain should make greater use of its naval power. He gained attention for his speeches in parliament. His oratory earned him a reputation for clearly setting out his argument even if he lacked natural eloquence.

Political career

In 1744, the Duke of Bedford was invited to join the government, now headed by Henry Pelham, taking the post of First Lord of the Admiralty. Sandwich joined him as one of the commissioners of the Admiralty, in effect serving as deputy under Bedford. The experienced Admiral Lord Anson also joined the Admiralty board and was an influential figure. Bedford spent much of his time at his country estate, and much of the day-to-day running of the Admiralty fell to Sandwich and Anson. Anson had control of the training and discipline of the navy, while Sandwich focused on the administration. Following a proposal by Admiral Edward Vernon, the concept of a Western Squadron was pioneered, which proved very successful. This marked a radical shift in British naval strategy, and led to British success at the Battles of Cape Finisterre.

The following year, Sandwich took a commission as a colonel in the British Army as part of the response to the Jacobite rising and the prospect of a French invasion. In order to boost the relatively small British army, a number of units were raised by prominent figures, and Sandwich served in the regiment formed by Bedford. While serving in The Midlands, he fell seriously ill with fever and nearly died. After his recovery, he returned to his duties at the admiralty. He remained an army officer for the rest of his life, remaining on the half-pay list and eventually rising to the rank of general, even though he took no further active part in the army.

Congress of Breda

In 1746 he was sent as a plenipotentiary to the Congress of Breda, and he continued to take part in the negotiations for peace until the Treaty of Aix-la-Chapelle was concluded in 1748. Sandwich was also made ambassador to the Dutch Republic during the talks. Using the resources of the British secret service, Sandwich was able to outmanoeuvre his French counterpart by intercepting the latter's secret correspondence. His service at Breda drew him to the attention of the influential Thomas Pelham-Holles, 1st Duke of Newcastle, who lobbied for him to be given high office when he returned home.

It is possible that during his time at Breda, he played a role in the 1747 Dutch Revolution which brought William IV, Prince of Orange wider powers, something supported by Britain as they hoped the Prince would improve the Dutch Republic's military performance in the ongoing war in the Low Countries. However, there is no firm evidence of this.

In February 1748 he became First Lord of the Admiralty, retaining this post until June 1751. By 1751 Newcastle, who had previously admired Sandwich for his forthright and hardline views, had increasingly begun to distrust him and his relationship with The Duke of Bedford whom Newcastle regarded as a rival. Newcastle engineered the dismissal of both of them, by sacking Sandwich. Bedford resigned in protest, as Newcastle had calculated, allowing him to replace them with men he considered more loyal personally to him.

For the next few years Sandwich spent time at his country estate, largely avoiding politics, though he kept in close contact with both Bedford and Anson and Britain's participation in the Seven Years'

War. Partly thanks to naval reforms pioneered by Anson and Sandwich the Royal Navy enjoyed a series of successes and was able to blockade much of the French fleet in port.

In 1763 he returned to the Admiralty in the government of John Stuart, 3rd Earl of Bute, and encouraged a major rebuilding programme for the Royal Navy. Bute was a Tory who wished to bring the war to an end, which he did with the Treaty of Paris. It was during this time that Sandwich first met Martha Ray who became his long-standing mistress. He was soon dismissed from the office, but was offered the influential position of Ambassador to Madrid.

Northern Secretary

In August 1763 Sandwich became Secretary of State for the Northern Department, in the government of George Grenville who had replaced Bute. While filling this office he took a leading part in the successful prosecution of the radical M.P. John Wilkes for obscene libel. Although he had been allegedly associated with Wilkes in the notorious Hellfire Club (also known as the Monks of Medmenham), recent scholarship has suggested that the two had a more distant but cordial relationship than the friendship which was popularly portrayed at the time. John Gay's The Beggar's Opera was played in Covent Garden shortly thereafter, and the similarity of Sandwich's conduct to that of Jemmy Twitcher, betrayer of Macheath in that play, permanently attached to him that appellation. Wilkes was eventually expelled from the House of Commons.

He held the post of Northern Secretary until July 1765. His departure from the post coincided with the end of George Grenville's term as prime minister. He hoped to return to office swiftly, provided a united opposition could be formed.

Sandwich served again as First Lord of the Admiralty in Lord North's administration from 1771 to 1782. He replaced the distinguished Admiral Sir Edward Hawke in the post. His appointment to the post followed the Falklands Crisis which had nearly seen Britain go to war with Spain over the Falkland Islands in the South Atlantic Ocean after the Capture of Port Egmont by Spanish forces. War had only been averted when Louis XVI of France refused to back the Spanish over the dispute. Both France and Spain resented what they considered British hegemony following the Seven Years' War, and desired to overturn the imbalance of power; war was widely expected to break out between the nations in the near future.

In 1774, only three years into his third term, Sandwich commissioned a series of ship models and a model of Chatham Dockyard as a gift to George III in an attempt to interest his king in naval matters. However, Sandwich's overall administration of the navy in the lead up to and during the American War of Independence was traditionally portrayed as being incompetent, with insufficient ships being ready for the outbreak of war with France in 1778. In 1775, Sandwich spoke vociferously in opposition to a plan for British America put forth by Benjamin Franklin and the Earl of Chatham. When Britain and France went to war, Sandwich advocated a strategy of concentrating the British fleet in European waters to deter invasion in opposition to his colleague, Lord Germain, who pushed for more ships to be sent to North America. The cabinet largely followed Sandwich's policy, retaining footholds on the American coast which could be used as naval bases, while retaining the bulk of the fleet at home. Sandwich's problems increased when Spain entered the war on France's side in 1779 giving the Bourbon fleets a numerical advantage over the Royal Navy.

Prior to 1778 Keppel failed to persuade Sandwich to ignore technical difficulties and "copper sheath only a few ships"; he was later possibly unfairly to make political capital out of this in The London Magazine, March 1781. He had remarked that coppering "gave additional strength to the navy" and he reproached Lord Sandwich with having "refused to sheath only a few ships with copper" at his request, when he had since ordered the whole navy to be sheathed. The lack of coppering the navy was one of the key reasons leading to Britain losing the Thirteen Colonies.

In 1778 the new Navy Board Controller Charles Middleton, who had the major problem at the time with supplying over 100 ships for the American Revolutionary War (1775-1783), compounded that year by French opportunism in declaring war on Britain to support the American rebels, effectively turned what was a local civil war into a global conflict. Others followed: Spain in 1779 and the Netherlands in 1780. Middleton took the view that Britain was "outnumbered at every station", and the navy was required to "extricate us from present danger". He understood that coppering allowed the navy to stay at sea for much longer without the need for cleaning and repairs to the underwater hull, making it a very attractive, if expensive, proposition. On 21 January 1779 he wrote to the Admiralty, and petitioned King George directly. The King backed him for what was an expensive process for an untested technology, and in May 1779 he placed orders at the Portsmouth Docks for coppering a total 51 ships within a year.

During 1779 a combined Franco-Spanish fleet was able to sail into the English Channel to threaten the coast of Cornwall in the initial stage of a Franco-Spanish invasion of Britain. Sandwich was criticised for the failure of the smaller British Channel Fleet to prevent this, although the invasion never materialised.

After 1778, the primary objective in the war was maintaining control over the sugar-rich West Indian archipelago The lucrative sugar trade in the Caribbean was reckoned at the time as being of more importance to British interests than the 13 colonies. The sugar trade was paying for the costs of the American Revolutionary War (1775-1783) and the Anglo-French War (1778-1783). The Royal Navy's newly coppered ships as yet untested were used successfully by Rodney in defeating the French at the Battle of the Saintes off Dominica in February 1782.

By the time Sandwich's administration ended, he would take full credit for coppering the fleet as one of his great achievements when defending his record in office in January 1782.

Personal life

For several years Sandwich had as a mistress Fanny Murray, the subject of Wilkes' An Essay on Woman (1763), but he eventually married Dorothy Fane, daughter of the 1st Viscount Fane, by whom he had a son, John, Viscount Hinchingbrooke (1743 - 1814), who later succeeded as 5th Earl. Sandwich's first personal tragedy was his wife's deteriorating health and eventual insanity. During his wife's decline, Sandwich started an affair with the talented opera singer Martha Ray. During their relationship, Ray bore him at least five and perhaps as many as nine children, including Basil Montagu (1770 - 1851), writer, jurist and philanthropist. Tragedy was to strike again in April 1779 when Ray was murdered in the foyer of the Royal Opera House at Covent Garden by a jealous suitor, James Hackman, Rector of Wiveton. Sandwich never recovered from his grief. The events surrounding Ray's murder were depicted in a popular novel Love and Madness (1780) by Herbert Croft.

In a famous exchange with the actor Samuel Foote, Sandwich declared, "Foote, I have often wondered what catastrophe would bring you to your end; but I think, that you must either die of the pox, or the halter." "My lord", replied Foote instantaneously, "that will depend upon one of two contingencies; - whether I embrace your lordship's mistress, or your lordship's principles." This retort is often misattributed to John Wilkes.

Sandwich retired from public duty in 1782, and lived another ten years in retirement at what was then the family seat, Hinchingbrooke House, Huntingdonshire,[25] dying on 30 April 1792. His title of Earl of Sandwich passed to his eldest son, John Montagu, 5th Earl of Sandwich, who was 48 at the time.

Sandwich was buried in All Saints' Church in Barnwell, Northamptonshire, of which only the chancel survives, kept to preserve the Montagu tombs.

---

Me: John Montego the Earl of Sandwich.

Jessie K.: I love him. He is the man that invented one of our most popular foods.

Mary K.: The Sandwich.

Nico: That's my kind of guy.

Lynn Sr.: I can learn so much from him.

Me: What did you guys help him with before?

Otto: He was having problems with his cooking and he needed to have Mayonnaise put on his bread. His Majesty's royal cook-off was after that and he called the Sandwich Stinky Pile O Poo.

Everyone: EW!

Me: That's a stupid and terrible name.

Otto: It sure was. He said it was his mother's maiden name.

Me: So stupid!

Larry 3000: But I stole his thunder by entering the contest and had my Goat Cheese Shiitake souffle become a great sensation. I became a celebrity chef, Mary K.: Whoa! But you all helped him out right?

Tuddrussel: Yeah we did.

Me: Lets get going then.

Then Hydro Man, Calamitous, Rex Goodwin, Heat Wave and Vexen appeared.

Hydro Man: Can me, Calamitous, Rex, Dayu, Heat Wave, and Vexen come with you guys as well?

Me: You all sure can.

Heat Wave: Congratulations on your win J.D.

Me: Thanks Mick.

Vexen: How did it feel for you to be a Rapidash?

Me: It was amazing and catching up with Applejack and Rainbow Dash was an awesome adrenaline rush.

Calamitous: It sure was amazing.

We then arrived in 18th Century London, England.

Xion: So this is 1762?

Me: Yep. 18th Century London. And we are right outside the estate of the Earl of Sandwich.

Lori: What did you help him out with Tuddrussel?

Tuddrussel: Not much really and Otto already told you that part.

Calamitous: What kind of currency do we need in 1762?

Me: They used shillings back then.

Lincoln: Wow.

Lisa: Indeed.

We went to the restaurant owned by the Earl of Sandwich and it was awesome and Larry was cooking more for us!

Riku: You're making sandwiches too, Larry?

Larry: Oh it's one of my originals actually. Minced Crab Meat Risotto with Manilla Clam Brulee. Lunch is served.

Me: That sounds really tasty.

Nico: Smells good too.

We tried it and it was really delicious!

Rex Goodwin: (Eating) Mmm! So delicious!

Nico: Very good!

Otto: So delicious!

Me: Yummy.

Rex Goodwin: (to Tuddrussel) Tuddrussel, I really appreciated how you helped fight against the Shadow Riders.

Tuddrussel: Aw shucks it was nothing.

Me: Yeah but some of those fights were awesome. But we have more problems coming in the future.

Eli: Yeah and they are monsters that I met before but I'll tell you all about them later.

Me: Okay.

The Earl of Sandwich came out with lots of sandwiches and they were really delicious and King Hiss, Dayu, Webstor, Ebon, Eccentro and Dark Spicer appeared.

Me: King Hiss, Dayu, Webstor, Ebon, Eccentro and Dark Spicer.

Teresa: You guys are buying sandwiches as well?

King Hiss: Of course we are.

Webstor: Figured we could have something to eat before the usual battles.

Me: Good thinking. I'm starving.

Nico: Me too.

Me: All that running in the race made me really hungry.

Nico: I can see that.

Dayu: Even though I'm a Nighlok, I can still taste how good these sandwiches are.

Me: (Eating) Mmm! They are just as good as the ones we know from the 21st Century.

Tuddrussel: You said it.

Otto: Yeah.

?: I agree.

A figure came out and it was SCARABA from episode 1 of Megaforce!

Scaraba is a scarab-themed Insectoid sent down to Earth by Admiral Malkor to defeat the newfound resistance of humanity and is the primary villain of the pilot episode of Power Rangers Megaforce "Mega Mission". He holds his own title among the Insectoids: The Rock Beetle. Scaraba serves as the main antagonist of the episode "Mega Mission".

He is the first Insectoid to fight the Mega Rangers, the first field commander in Power Rangers Megaforce, and is the first monster in the entire Megaforce series as a whole.

Instigated by Creepox's rage and Vrak's advice, Admiral Malkor summoned Scaraba to battle. After acknowledging that the Loogies are no match for the Mega Rangers, Malkor decided to give them a real challenge. Scaraba arrived at the Warstar Spaceship and was delighted in his mission to destroy the Power Rangers. Scaraba demonstrated his faithfulness to Malkor and was about to demonstrate his powers by destroying the Rangers. Scaraba said that he was a powerful bug and he would show the rangers insect powers they have never seen before. Scaraba attacked the city with an army of loogies and rode a giant rock. He frightened the people, by ordering them to run away. Then the Mega Rangers came to the rescue. Jake ordered Scaraba to leave the people alone by calling him a monster. Scaraba was surprised that the Black Ranger called him a monster. Troy told the villain that the Rangers weren't afraid of him and his servants. Scaraba said that it was the time for rock'n'roll and summoned loogies. Troy said that Rangers would protect the Earth, no matter what it takes, because they were Megaforce Power Rangers. Scaraba thought that the Rangers would easily lose and first sent Loogies to battle the heroes. First rangers defeated loogies with their Mega Blasters. Then Rangers battled Scaraba. Scaraba told the heroes that he would crush them. He tried to attack them with his giant rock but the Rangers destroyed it with their blasters. Scaraba fell and was angry, telling the Rangers that they forced him to lose his lunch and he sucked up rubble into his stomach grinder and attacked them with his rock blasts. However the heroes destroyed the rocks with their Blasters and Scaraba was surprised. Then the Power Rangers activated their Mega Weapons and Scaraba told the Rangers that he also possessed "fancy attacks" and attacked the teens with his fireballs but they had no effect and the Rangers attacked the monster with their Mega Weapons, with Noah finally taking him down with his Shark Bowgun's Shark Bite attack. Then Mega Rangers formed the Megaforce Blaster and destroyed Scaraba with the Dynamic Victory Charge.

---

Troy Burrows: Scaraba!

Scaraba: Long time no see Rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were the first ever member of the Warstar that the Megaforce Rangers faced and defeated. You were sent by Admiral Malkor to destroy the rangers after they defeated the Loogies.

Scaraba: That's right. Good memory on you. You have watched us all on TV.

Me: Never missed an episode. But that was so cool how they beat you in the end and it was awesome!

Noah Carver: It sure was.

Inque: (to Scaraba) I take it you're gonna buy a sandwich too.

Scaraba: Yep. Don't be too surprised. Even monsters like us have to eat.

Me: Can't argue with that. No use fighting on an empty stomach.

Troy Burrows: Yep.

We got to eating.

Heat Wave: I think I'll use my flamethrower to make my sandwich extra crispy.

Me: Go for it. Toasted bread is just as good.

He used it on the sandwich and made the bread perfect.

But then we saw that the Earl of Sandwich was getting Angry at Larry and he was fuming with rage!

Vexen: I don't think I like how angry the Earl is getting at Larry.

Me: Me neither. Wait a second. Tuddrussel didn't Larry become a better chef than Earl of Sandwich did here by accident?

Tuddrussel: Yeah.

Me: Oh crap.

Luxord: Earl. Just calm down.

Earl of Sandwich: I'm sorry, everyone. But anyone who can cook better then me is dead!

Me: Earl calm down! This was all an accident!

Dark Spicer: (to the Earl) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked if you don't calm down right now!

Me: Dark you're not helping!

Dark Spicer: Sorry.

Laney and Lily tied him up in water and vines. Lincoln and Luan were tickling his feet and he was laughing.

Fluttershy then used the Stare on the Earl of Sandwich and it got him calm down.

Otto: (to the Earl) Have you calmed down now?

Earl of Sandwich: Yes and I'm so sorry I acted out like that. I was just really jealous.

Me: You and Larry are both amazing chefs Mr. Sandwich and your sandwiches are ALWAYS gonna be popular both here and in the 21st century and onward.

Earl of Sandwich: Thank you. I guess I'm still upset about what happened when I was having problems.

Me: No worries.

Leonard: Personally, I think both of your sandwiches are tasty.

Larry: You do?

Ebon: Yeah. I mean, we bought from both of you, didn't we?

Eccentro: I'm just glad we stopped this before someone went to jail for murder.

Me: Yeah. Thank goodness. But Larry is a robot so I don't think the people here would count him like that. No offense Larry.

Larry: None taken.

But then we heard a stomp and then we went outside and we saw that there was a Golem running amuck.

May: A Golem?! Great! As if things weren't crazy enough!

But then it turned into a MEGA GOLEM!

Nico: WHOA! A Mega Golem!

Me: Wow! Never saw one here before in this timeline.

May: Awesome!

Troy: Let's use a Legendary Mode as a safety precaution.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Science Platoon Dynaman!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dynaman Rangers.

Me: Want to get in on some of the fun before heading back home. We don't want to have our usual battles here because we have to be careful.

Nico: That's true.

Air Raid: Some teamwork and final smash power should take him

down.

Duplica: Lets do it!

Air Raid and Duplica used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Air Raid's torque rifle and Duplica's powers 100-fold.

Slipstream and Aria Blaze used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys as well and they enhanced Slipstream's Nullifier Missiles and Aria's magic and powers 100-fold.

Air Raid and Duplica: THUNDERING TORQUE BLAST!

Air Raid fired waves of wind and Duplica fired a lightning blast.

Slipstream and Aria Blaze: NULLIFYING CYCLONE STORM!

Slipstream fired a barrage of missiles and Aria fired a massive blast of water.

Otto and Clyde: TIME KNOWLEDGE BLAST!

Larry and Kirby with the Fire Ability: FIRE ROBOT FLAMETHROWER!

Tuddrussel and Nico: IT'S GO TIME SMASH!

The blasts from the combos all slammed into the Mega Golem and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

But the Mega Golem was not finished yet!

Takinom, Intress, Enre Hep, Laarina, Mudeenu, Kamangareth, and Quadore blasted the Mega Golem all over the place and so did the Megaforce Rangers.

Tuddrussel: It's Kick a Pokemon's Butt Day!

Tuddrussel, Larry and Otto: TIME SQUAD FIREBLAST!

They fired a blast of fire and it slammed into the Mega Golem and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Mega Golem was knocked out and May threw a Pokeball and caught it.

May: YEAH!

Nico: That was awesome!

Lincoln: YEAH!

Me: Now lets head home and get to the gym so we can have our usual battles.

Nico: Good idea.

Tuddrussel: Mission accomplished.

Earl of Sandwich: Thank you all so much for helping me again.

Me: No problem Mr. Sandwich.

Nico: It was so much fun meeting you and more.

Earl of Sandwich: Thanks.

* * *

We arrived back at the gym at the estate in the 21st Century and we were ready for our usual battles.

Me: Now comes the fun.

Dark Spicer: Yep and I have 2 new aliens for you all to see.

Dark Spicer turned into his version of Atomix. He was a red version of Atomix but with atoms orbiting around his chest, head and arms and legs and he had blades of pure energy coming out of his arms.

Atomburst: Meet Atomburst!

Shanan: Whoa! A mutant Uranonian! Wicked cool!

Goku: I think your attacks in this form might be a challenge against me and Vegeta.

Atomburst: Actually, let's test that theory for another time. (fires a blast of energy at Galaxy Man)

Twilight Sparkle used her magic and sent the blast back at him and knocked him down.

Nico: Yeah!

Me: Good try though.

Dark Spicer: Thanks. But watch this one.

He turned into his version of Gutrot and he was a red version of him with 7 chemical chambers in his stomach and had a purple suit and red eyes.

Gutbomb: I call this form… Gutbomb!

Shanan: A Mutant Stomachoan. Interesting choice.

Bright Man: That one's a walking chemical laboratory, right?

Gutbomb: It sure is. But the gasses I use might be different from the ones that Gutrot uses.

Gutbomb fires a blast of chemicals from his stomach at Bright Man.

Lisa then fired a particle disintegrator ray blast and obliterated the chemicals.

Bright Man: Whew! Thanks Lisa.

Lisa Loud: Anytime.

Me: Awesome! Now lets get these battles started!

We got the Usual Battles underway.

Pinkie Pie: They are really good plans if I do say so myself.

Vinyl Scratch gave the Victory V sign.

Pinkie Pie: Vinyl Scratch can't speak so she lets her music do the talking for her.

An Elephant appeared behind her.

Elephant: You do and I'll give you such a pinch!

WHAM!

He smashed Leni into the ground and left!

Xion: OOH! Ouch!

Rarity: That must've hurt!

Job of the Time Detective

We were riding on the Crystal Empire train from Ponyville and it was so cool!

Me: Thank you for allowing us to ride on your train with you to the Crystal Empire, Cadance.

Princess Cadance: You're welcome J.D.

Nicole: Your train is so beautiful. I love how you made it all out of crystal like this.

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) It is a beautiful train made of solid diamond.

Nico: This is gonna be so cool seeing what the Crystal Empire is like.

Me: Yeah.

Nicole: I may consider it a cool vacation spot after everything we were told about it.

Spike: You guys will love it. I'm also revered as a huge hero there.

Me: That's what I was told Spike. You must've have quite an impact there.

Spitfire: Wow.

Juniper Montage: Cadance, I don't mean to upset you but I never did hear about what happened to your mother.

Cadance: No you all have every right to know. But I'm afraid this is a tragedy that has befallen the Crystal Empire and affected me the most.

Me: What happened?

Cadance: (Tears stream down her face) King Sombra murdered my mother.

We gasped in sheer shock.

Nico: That heartless tyrant!

Me: Oh my God!

Eli: I'm glad J.D. killed that ruthless beast!

Me: I am too! But not the King Sombra in our universe. But if he ever does come back we will be ready for him.

Lincoln: Absolutely!

Laney: Yeah!

Me: Can you tell us all about the Crystal Empire?

Cadance: I sure can.

Cadance told us about the Crystal Empire and it was a history of both amazement and mystery.

The Crystal Empire is a location that first appears in the two-part third season premiere of My Little Pony Friendship is Magic as the home of the Crystal Ponies. It is ruled by Princess Cadance and Prince Shining Armor and formerly Princess Amore and King Sombra.

The Crystal Empire first appears in the third season's opening two-parter The Crystal Empire, appearing in the arctic north of Equestria after a thousand-year-long disappearance. It is inhabited by Crystal Ponies and tiny ewes, and is described in the The Ballad of the Crystal Empire as having a rich culture and long history, including "the Crystal Kingdom anthem". Local food in the empire includes crystal berries that are used to make sweets and crystal corn.

Before the emergence of Nightmare Moon, the Crystal Empire was taken over by the evil unicorn King Sombra, who turned it into a dark land and enslaved the Crystal Ponies. Princess Celestia and Princess Luna defeated him with their magic, turning him to shadow and imprisoning him in the ice of the arctic north, but not before he placed a curse on the Crystal Empire that caused it to vanish for a thousand years. After it returns, the Crystal Ponies have no memory of their kingdom before King Sombra took over. King Sombra also returns and threatens to invade the empire again, so Shining Armor and Princess Cadance are sent by Princess Celestia to defend it, projecting a defensive magical barrier around it.

Celestia also sends Twilight Sparkle and her friends Applejack, Fluttershy, Pinkie Pie, Rainbow Dash, and Rarity to help Cadance protect the Crystal Empire. By finding and reading a history book in the local library, an impressive three-floor facility, they find out information about the Crystal Ponies and set up the Crystal Faire. Twilight uses her magic to carve a crystal block to look like the Crystal Heart spoken of in the book; however, she finds out soon after that the Crystal Heart is actually a powerful item that was hidden by King Sombra and is the key to protecting the Crystal Empire. While the others keep the Crystal Ponies occupied to prevent them from finding out that the real Crystal Heart has not yet returned, Twilight and Spike search for the Heart.

When Cadance starts to run out of magic, Sombra begins to cover the empire with shadow crystals. Twilight and Spike search the castle for the Crystal Heart, reasoning that nobody would dare to look there while he was in power. They overcome various obstacles and reach the Crystal Heart, but upon arrival they activate an alarm, leading Sombra to trap Twilight inside a wall of shadow crystals. Although she had been told by Celestia that she must be the one to ultimately solve the problem of protecting the Crystal Empire, Twilight doubts that she can escape the trap in time, so she tells Spike to take the Crystal Heart to Cadance. When Cadance's barrier fully disappears, Sombra invades again, to the terror of the Crystal Ponies. Seeing Spike with the Crystal Heart, he rides a growing shadow crystal toward him in an attempt to intercept Spike, but Shining Armor throws Cadance at him and she saves Spike from Sombra's attack. The Crystal Ponies recognize Cadance as the Crystal Princess.

Cadance returns the Crystal Heart to its original place. The citizens, using its power to unleash an explosion of love and light that restores the Crystal Empire, temporarily turn Cadance, Shining Armor, Spike, and the Mane Six into Crystal Ponies and destroy Sombra, along with his black crystals.

The population of the empire consists of ponies whose manes are usually tied back with ribbon. The crystalline effect that distinguishes them is a form of magic that is exclusive to the area inside the Crystal Empire. Most mares share Maud Pie's eye design.

The Crystal Empire is symbolized with a purple flag "of many hues" with a ringed snowflake in the center which mimics the layout of their city. "Of many hues" implies that the flag, which is mainly purple, is made with an iridescent fiber.

In Just for Sidekicks, the Crystal Empire has a train station platform where Spike, the pets, the Cutie Mark Crusaders, and the Mane Six arrive. The Cutie Mark Crusaders stand in front of a gift shop selling Crystal Empire castle snow globes. According to Apple Bloom, the Empire is "as warm as can be", despite its cold appearance.

In Games Ponies Play, Twilight and her friends visit the Crystal Empire to welcome the Equestria Games Inspector, whom they believe Ms. Peachbottom to be. They try to give her a tour of the castle, which fails because they have hardly been in the castle themselves. This episode also shows a spa in the empire, complete with a mud bath, and a newly built stadium near the castle.

Season four

The Crystal Empire is mentioned in Princess Twilight Sparkle - Part 1.

In Flight to the Finish, Ms. Harshwhinny sends Cheerilee's class to the Crystal Empire stadium for a contest to decide who will carry the Ponyville flag for the Equestria Games. After being the "stupendously the single most amazing thing [she's] ever seen", Ms. Harshwhinny selects the Cutie Mark Crusaders to carry Ponyville's flag at the Games.

The Crystal Empire is mentioned multiple times in Three's A Crowd, and a Crystal Empire train, first shown in Rarity Takes Manehattan, that Princess Cadance rides to Ponyville is also shown.

In the episode Equestria Games, Spike lights the torch for the Equestria Games opening ceremonies. The Crystal Ponies consider the young dragon a hero for his role in the defeat of King Sombra, even making a crystal statue in his honor.

In Twilight's Kingdom - Part 1, Twilight returns to the Crystal Empire with her friends to assist the other princesses in welcoming the duke and duchess of Maretonia. After the dignitaries leave, Twilight explains to the princesses that she is uncertain about what her role as a princess in Equestria is. Later that night, Celestia experiences a vision involving Lord Tirek; she reveals this information to Twilight the next morning and also reveals that she will task Discord in tracking down the villain.

Season five

In Party Pooped, Pinkie Pie passes through the Crystal Empire on her way to Yakyakistan.

In Do Princesses Dream of Magic Sheep?, the Crystal Empire appears briefly in Pinkie Pie's dream.

In The Cutie Re-Mark - Part 1, in an alternate timeline created by Starlight Glimmer, the Crystal Empire returns and falls under Sombra's control once again. Using the Crystal Ponies as his army, Sombra expands the empire's borders and conquers much of Equestria.

Season six

In The Crystalling - Part 1 and Part 2, the Empire holds a "Crystalling" ceremony for the newborn royal baby Flurry Heart. However, Flurry Heart unintentionally shatters the Crystal Heart, which threatens the Empire with eternal winter. Through Sunburst's magic knowledge and Flurry Heart's Crystalling, the Heart is restored.

In The Times They Are A Changeling, the Empire is placed on high alert due to the reported presence of a changeling. However, the changeling in question - named Thorax - befriends Spike and is allowed to stay in the Empire when he is discovered to be friendly.

Season seven

In Celestial Advice, Twilight creates a simulation of the Crystal Empire when considering where to send Starlight Glimmer after she graduates from being her student, giving thought to having her continue her magic studies with Sunburst. In It Isn't the Mane Thing About You, the Crystal Empire briefly appears when "Silver Medal" discovers his baldness as a result of his mane being teleported.

---

We were amazed and mystified.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: That is so cool!

Lori: Wow! It literally is amazing.

Lola: It sure is dazzling!

Lynn: Yeah!

Later we arrived in the Crystal Empire and it was a magnificent sight to behold!

We saw that everything in the Crystal Empire was made entirely of pure crystal and the castle was a magnificent sight to behold as it was a true castle of crystal!

Me: WHOA!

Fluttershy: The Crystal Empire looks as beautiful as ever.

Me: It's absolutely magnificent.

Nicole: I would love coming here for a vacation.

Nico: Wow!

Me: It's so beautiful.

Lisa Loud: A most magnificent geological piece of architecture.

Lily: Yeah.

Lola: By the way where's Twilight Sparkle?

Flurry Heart: Oh Aunt Twilight was called over to Princess Celestia's castle to help get everything ready for a majorly important meeting that's going on later this week.

Me: The Grand Equestria Friendship Summit. It's where everyone of the major species and clans of Equestria gather together to both talk out their differences and work together to solve their problems.

Nico: Wow! Like a major peace conference or the Five Kage Summit or a summit at the United Nations.

Me: Exactly.

Lincoln: That's a huge job.

Me: It sure is. But for someone as Organized as Twilight Sparkle, she can handle it.

Nico: Yep.

We arrived at the castle and we saw a crystal statue of Spike holding a crystal heart.

Me: Wow! You have a statue of yourself here Spike?

Spike: I sure do. Looking good huh?

Me: I'm amazed Spike. We are probably the first humans ever here in the Crystal Empire.

Cadance: But let me show you something really cool we built a while ago.

Cadance took us to the center of the castle and inside it was the Crystal Heart.

Me: Wow. Is that the Crystal Heart?

Cadance: It sure is. But that's not what I want you to see.

She showed us an amazing statue of me in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 1,000,000 form holding the severed head of King Sombra on a spear in one hand and I had a crystal of freedom in the other.

Me: WOW! It's me and I look incredible!

Nico: Wow! You ARE immortalized in the history of the Crystal Empire, J.D. That's so cool!

Me: And they do say that Diamonds are Forever.

Lola: That is amazing J.D.!

Lincoln: J.D. this is so cool!

Laney: It sure is. I'm just really amazed that you are now a Diamond Statue.

Me: I know. Not to brag but this was an unexpected occurrance that happened on my birthday.

Cadance: I know but we can't thank you enough for it.

Me: I know.

Cadance showed us the remains of the stone statue of Princess Amore.

Me: The remains of Amore.

Cadance: Yeah.

Me: You need your mother more than anything Cadance. Here we go.

I went up to the pieces of the statue and chanted a powerful incantation and then a powerful rainbow light hit the castle and the divine singing of angels was heard all over as the pieces of the statue were reassembling themselves and they were put back together and in a powerful flash of light came PRINCESS AMORE BACK FROM THE DEAD! She was fully restored!

Princess Amore is a female unicorn Crystal Pony who appears in the IDW comics' My Little Pony: FIENDship is Magic Issue #1 and whose name appears in Little, Brown and Company's The Journal of the Two Sisters . She is the first "Crystal Princess"/"queen" and ruler of the Crystal Empire before the rise of King Sombra.

Princess Amore makes a more prominent appearance in King Sombra's origin story in My Little Pony: FIENDship is Magic Issue #1. When a young Sombra and his friend Radiant Hope see visions of their futures in the Crystal Heart, Amore appears before them. She senses Sombra's fears about his future and tells him that he has the power to change it.

Years later, when a matured Sombra embraces his dark destiny and steals the Crystal Heart, Amore appears before him again. Having known of his true nature all along, Amore tells him it's not too late to choose his own destiny. Sombra, enraged that Amore knowingly caused him years of pain with the tradition of the Crystal Faire, turns her into a black crystal statue, shatters her into pieces, and scatters her pieces across the world.

Radiant Hope mentions Amore in My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic Issue #36 when she notes Princess Cadance's resemblance to the late princess. In My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic Issue #37, Sombra reveals that Amore can be restored to life if her shattered statue form is rebuilt. He subsequently embarks on a journey across Equestria with Hope to recover the princess's scattered fragments.

In chapter 3 of the My Little Pony Annual 2017, Shining Armor learns of a collection of spells and magical relics that Amore sealed away in the caverns underneath the Crystal Empire. He discovers an enchantment bearing Amore's image guarding said collection, and the enchantment allows Shining Armor access to the chamber when he proves himself.

Princess Amore is mentioned in The Journal of the Two Sisters by Little, Brown and Company. In Princess Celestia and Princess Luna's journal entries, it is stated that Amore was always full of love from a young age and that she felt an immediate connection to the Crystal Heart. When she projected her positive energy into the Heart and it spread over what would later become the Crystal Empire, she received her cutie mark-a crystalline heart-and the title of princess.

Later in life, Princess Amore becomes a close acquaintance of Celestia and Luna. When the Crystal Heart is stolen by a dragon, Amore entrusts Celestia and Luna with the Heart's recovery while she alone keeps the spirits of the Crystal Ponies up with her love. When the Heart is returned, the rejuvenated Crystal Ponies celebrate their very first Crystal Faire.

Princess Amore is a character in Gameloft's mobile game. Her bio states, "A long, long time ago, this wise and loving princess ruled the Crystal Empire… until her reign ended tragically."

---

Everyone was shocked! After 1,000 years, Princess Amore was back from the dead.

Princess Amore: What happened?

Me: I brought you back Princess Amore.

Princess Cadance: Mom?

Princess Amore: Cadance? (Gasp) My little Cadance!

Princess Cadance: MOM!

She hugged her mom for the first time in ever and cried happily.

Sinnertwin: Welcome back, Princess Amore.

Princess Amore: Wow. Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I watched you all in Heaven and I am so honored to meet you.

Me: It's an honor to meet you too. Princess, I promise you that when we face King Sombra in the future, he will pay dearly for his crimes and he will suffer for them 10,000-fold.

Nico: You can promise on that.

Princess Amore: Thank you. My adopted son is not welcome in all of Equestria anymore after everything he did.

Me: Your so-called son had a heart as black as night and he was ultimate evil incarnate.

Princess Amore: I know. And I know that you all will be the ones that kill him. I believe in all of you.

Me: Thank you.

Princess Celestia and Princess Luna came!

Princess Celestia: Amore. It's you.

Princess Amore: Celestia! Wow!

They all hugged.

Streetwise: We've got a lot to catch you up on. But you should know that we've been great friends with all of Equestria. Oh, and Chrysalis is dead.

Princess Amore: I'm glad she is.

Princess Celestia: You and I have so much to catch up on sister.

Princess Luna: We missed out on so much since you were gone.

Princess Amore: I know. I've missed out on so much.

Princess Cadance: But it's great to have you back mom.

Princess Amore: Same here my Cadance.

Lincoln: Aww.

Lola: I'm so happy for them.

Me: The Princesses are all back together.

Nico: They sure are.

Lana: Yeah.

Anakin: Princess Amore, I understand how you feel as well. Like King Sombra, I had nightmares about me becoming Darth Vader and that I was to join the Sith and be corrupted by the Dark Side of the Force. But J.D. and everyone saved me from that.

Princess Amore: I'm glad they did.

We had an awesome time catching up with her.

November 15th, 2020.

Later in Twilight Sparkle's room, I was helping Spike organize Twilight Sparkle's room.

Spike: Thanks for helping me out J.D.

Me: Anytime Spike.

[knocking]

Me: Come in.

[door slamming]

Princess Cadance : Spike, J.D. we need you!

A pile of books fell.

Spike : Of course! What can I do?

Me: What's wrong Cadance?

[door opens]

In came Twilight Sparkle and she was really exhausted and tired.

Spike : Whoa, what happened to you ?

Me: Whoa. Twilight are you all right?

Twilight Sparkle : [groans] [tired] I'm sorry, J.D. Spike. I just… [yawns]… need a quick… nap. Napkin! (Lays on the pile of books) Tell the delegates I'll… [trails off]

Princess Cadance : She's been awake three straight days preparing for the summit. We need to make sure she gets some rest today. She'll never be able to attend the welcome reception in this condition. Can I count on you Spike, to see to it that she isn't disturbed?

Spike : I promise! I won't let you down!

Me: I'll get her to bed for you.

I picked up Twilight.

Me: Boy getting the summit all set up really exhausted her. I guess Naruto and I should've been there to help her out.

I snapped my fingers and got her in her pajamas and put her in bed.

Me: We better make sure she gets a lot of sleep. She won't be able to come with us on our mission today. But she'll need all the sleep she can get.

Spike: I know.

Jarrod and me gathered Poliwag, Poromon, Manaphy and Horsea as well.

Me: Now you four need to help out Spike. Twilight Sparkle had a huge important job this week. She had to get everything put together for a huge Summit over in Canterlot for all of Equestria. She went for three whole days without sleep and she can't go with us on our latest mission in her condition.

Horsea: Me, Poliwag, Manaphy, and Poromon will stay with Twilight. You guys go on the next missions.

Jungle Fury Jarrod: Okay. You 5 try not to wreck the Estate while we're gone.

They saluted him.

Poliwag: Aye aye sir!

Poromon: We won't let you down.

Spike: We'll make sure everything is quiet for Twilight.

Me: I knew we could count on you all.

Poliwag: Thanks J.D.

We left and the 5 went in to the room and I closed the door and put a Do Not Disturb sign on the door handle and we tiptoed away and went downstairs.

I told everyone about Twilight and what happened.

Nico: Oh man. Twilight really wore herself out.

Rainbow Dash: Yeah she sure did.

Laney: I hope she'll be well rested by the time the War with Necrafa comes around.

Me: She'll need it too.

Nico: What's our next mission?

Me: I'm glad you asked Nico. We're going to Japan to meet the Time Police.

Carol: Ooh! Cool! We're going to meet Flint the Time Detective.

Vince: It sure is.

Lincoln: Wow! I love Flint the Time Detective.

Me: Yep. Flint and his team have called me last night on my Time Force Badge and they asked us all to help him with a mission over in Japan.

Linka: Wow!

Nico: That's amazing.

Luxord: I can't wait to see what Flint and his team can do.

Me: You'll love it Luxord.

King Hiss, Webstor, Dark Spicer, Ebon, Leonard and Eccentro appeared.

King Hiss: Can me, Webstor, Dark, Ebon, Leonard, and Eccentro come with you guys?

Me: You sure can King Hiss.

Nico: This is gonna be so cool that we're going to meet Flint the Time Detective and his team.

Carol: It sure is and I can't wait to punch that bitch Petra in the face!

Me: Knowing her, she will be there.

Laney: Who is Petra?

Me: You would hate her Laney.

I pulled up her history.

---

Petra Fina is an enemy of the Time Police wanted for stealing and messing up time and space from Flint The Time Detective . She allied herself with the Dark Lord out of having a "school-girl" infatuation with him. Though she eventually realized too late she was a pawn. When not on missions given to her, she takes the form of Ms. Iknow, a strict teacher of Flint, Sarah, and Tony's class. By the finale, she had a temporary truce with the heroes that only lasted until the Dark Lord was defeated.

---

Everyone gasped.

Jen Scotts: That's like how Ransik was!

Ransik: It sure is.

Nadira: No kidding.

Me: Strong sense of déjà-vu huh?

Wes Collins: It sure is.

Nico: And the Time Police are after her too.

Me: Yep. But it's gonna be really cool facing her in future adventures that will involve time travel.

Sakura Haruno: And this Dark Lord she was with was using her as a pawn in his plans? That is completely barbaric and like how I was a pawn in all the plans of the Evil Sasuke's.

Sasuke: Pure evil.

Me: Yep. But the Dark Lord will meet his end in the future. Lets get over to Japan.

We were off.

---

TOKYO, JAPAN

---

We arrived in Tokyo, Japan.

Roxas: Here we are back in Japan.

Me: Yep. And it's just as big and prosperous as ever now that Deadman Wonderland has been destroyed.

Qin: That was a nightmare.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: But it's just as busy as ever.

Laney: It sure is.

Applejack: Boy it sure is a big city. I just wish Twilight was here to enjoy this.

Me: I know. But she needs sleep after getting the summit all set.

King Hiss: True.

We then saw a caveman boy and with him was a pink hair girl and a black hair boy and the caveman boy had a hammer.

Eccentro: Excuse me. Are you Flint?

Flint: That's right. Flint Hammerhead Time Detective at your service.

Sarah Goodman: WHOA! No way! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Tony Goodman: It's such an honor to meet you!

Sarah Goodman: It sure is. I'm Sarah Goodwin.

Tony Goodman: And I'm her twin brother Tony.

Me: Pleasure to meet you both. Welcome to the year 2020.

Nico: What year did you three come from if I may ask?

Sarah Goodman: We're from the year 2474.

Me: Whoa! That's 454 years into the future!

Lincoln: Wow!

Laney: That's incredible!

Sarah Goodman: It is.

Pterry: We are the Time Police and our job is to collect the Timeshifters and restore the times of the past.

Me: That's amazing!

Tuddrussel: That's kind of like how Time Squad does it.

Wes Collins: Same with Time Force.

Tony Goodman: Sure is Similar.

Me: That is very interesting.

Sarah Goodman: I'm glad you guys got our call.

Me: We always answer the call to help out.

Sunset Shimmer: So what era do you come from Flint?

Flint: I'm a caveboy that was fossilized because of Petra and I was brought back to life.

Me: How long ago was that?

Sarah Goodman: He is a Stone Age cave boy.

Everyone: WOW!

Me: That was back around 3.4 million years ago.

J.D. 3: That's right around the time I came from when I became immortal.

Me: It sure is.

Sarah Goodman: Who said that?

Me: That was my 3rd incarnation. He's inside my head and he is an immortal caveman.

J.D. 3: Sorry about scaring you like that. I communicate to everyone through J.D.'s crest on his forehead.

Tony Goodman: Wow!

Me: It's surprising huh? There are lots of things that are amazing with me and more.

Rocky Hammerhead: Wow!

Flint's hammer was talking to us.

Rocky Hammerhead: Oh I'm sorry. I'm Flint's father Rocky. I was turned into a hammer because of Petra.

Nico: Whoa!

Me: Wow.

Eli: That is cool. But I hope you get out of that form someday.

Rocky Hammerhead: I appreciate that. But I like being like this.

Me: Wow.

Pterry: Sorry I didn't introduce myself earlier. My name is Pterry.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you.

Nico: But it's really cool to have you all here.

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is.

We later got to talking by a fountain and it was cool.

Me: So you guys travel through time to find the Timeshifters before Petra Fina does. That's a big job.

Sarah Goodman: It sure is.

Me: We can all help you find them. We are no strangers to time travel ourselves. We've been to many places all over history and all over the Space Time Continuum. We've been to the past and the future here on Earth and we've been to several planets that are set hundreds to thousands of years into the future. It's really something.

Tony Goodman: Wow!

Nico: Yep. We've seen it all over the last few years.

Naruto: It's really cool.

Me: And it was all a really educational experience for us.

Otto: It sure was. It was awesome.

Ash: And it was amazing.

Flint Hammerhead: It sure is something.

Stalker: Can we see your Time Machine?

Sarah Goodman: Sure.

She showed us Flint's Ridon and it looked like an awesome Time Machine Motorcycle.

Timmy Turner: Cool! It looks so much like my Timescooter.

Me: Very amazing machine.

Vince: It sure is.

Lisa Loud: Remarkable work of engineering.

Me: It sure is. We use our Simulator to go to anywhere in the past and the future and it serves as our doorway to universes everywhere.

Sarah Goodman: That's amazing!

Sunset Shimmer: It sure is.

William: But you would be amazed at what we can learn from the past and the future.

Maria: Yep. But like we already know: No one knows what the future has in store for us all.

Nico: Yep.

Lola: (sighs) Okay, you guys are gonna think me, Lynn, and Lori are crazy for suggesting this but what if we use this Time Machine to kill Crocker, Burns, Joker, Heather, Billy McLean, Kisenian Blossom, Thanos, Frollo, and Palpatine during each of their childhoods?

Lynn: Plus change Sasuke's past so he has a happy childhood.

Nico: You're right. We do think you three are crazy!

Lori: It's not like anyone's going to miss the 9 of them if they die before they can commit any crimes. Even JD doesn't like them!

May: Well, when you put it that way, it does sound tempting. Plus, you have a point on wanting to change Sasuke's childhood.

Ebon: Look, me and Static time traveled before. And trust me, changing the past is not recommended!

Me: Ebon is right. As tempting as that might be we can't risk it. There are many dangers that you have to be aware of if you travel in time. One mistake in the past big or small can have a profound impact on everything in the future.

Stewie: J.D. is right you three. Take it from me and Brian when we were facing Bertram. He killed Leonardo De Vinci in the past and ended up destroying the entire universe.

Brian: It's true.

Me: Wow. But yeah. We can't change anything in the past unless it's like what the Time Squad, Time Force or Time Police do. Some events should just be left the way they are.

Lori: You're right J.D.

Lynn: Wow. I never thought about it that way.

Sarah Goodman: Wow. You all actually HAVE traveled in time before.

Me: We all have actually. Several times into the past and into the future. It's really something.

Nico: Yeah and it's amazing at what you can see.

Tuddrussel: Yep.

Bright Man: (to Stewie) Speaking of Bertram, if he comes back, we'll help you and Brian destroy him permanently.

Stewie: Thank you so much Bright Man.

Me: Anyone born from the Fat Man's genetic material is a rotten apple.

Stewie and Brian laughed.

Webstor: (to Flint) Flint, this might seem sudden but is it possible to use your Time Machine to find a weapon that can easily destroy Necrafa?

Flint: Who is Necrafa?

Me: It's a really ugly story Flint and we face her tomorrow in a battle that will probably rip the entire universe apart.

Sarah Goodman: How dangerous is Necrafa?

Me: She is probably gonna be the most dangerous villain we are ever gonna face.

Zarya: Yeah on our home planet of Gemina we defeated her and we thought we destroyed her for good.

Arkayna: But now she's coming back.

Me: Necrafa is the ultimate personification of pure ultimate evil.

I went over her history.

Necrafa was an evil, skeletal lich-queen who had spread a reign of terror and devastation throughout the entire realm of Gemina for many years, but had been thwarted many times by the very first Mysticons. She first appears as a statue in Sisters in Arms, although her actual debut is in Episode Thirteen, once she is released.

A thousand years ago, the original Mysticons defeated her at the cost of their own lives. Peace returned, and "Necrafa" became a word that human, dwarf, and especially elf moms used to scare kids into eating their veggies! However, Necrafa's followers worked tirelessly over the ages, trying to resurrect her.

Necrafa is restored to the realm, becoming the main villainess who was finally destroyed in one single strike, in the Season 2 finale by the greater and combined strength of the Princess Twins of Gemina.

They gasped.

Me: Yeah. Most of her followers met their end at the hands of both the Mysticons and us. We killed Tazma, put Willa and Kasha in Prison, Eartha is on the Redemption Squad and killed Mallory. Now all we have left to do is face Necrafa and the major enemies of the Mysticons will be destroyed forever.

Emerald Goldenbraid: That's right!

Zarya: Yeah.

Sarah Goodman: Wow! You guys all have your work cut out for you.

Nico: But we're ready for anything.

Me: And Necrafa will pay the ultimate price for her crimes against all of Gemina and the entire universe.

Naruto: Yeah.

Then we heard 4 voices.

?: CARDIANS TO THE RESCUE!

We saw the Cardians.

Generator Rex Circe: (sees the Cardian Timeshifters) Who are those guys?

Me: They must be part of the Timeshifters we were told about.

Emma Goodall: They look like miniature Power Rangers.

Me: They sure do.

Cardian Timeshifters: CARDIANS TO THE RESCUE!

They went over and saved a baby from a burning building.

Me: WHOA! They sure have what it takes to be like us.

Vince: Got to admire their spirit.

Eli: Yep.

Nico: They sure have a heroic spirit.

Lana: Are you sure that they aren't part of us?

Flint and his team laughed.

Flint Hammerhead: No but they sound like it.

Me: They sure do. They definitely have what it takes.

Nico: They sure do.

Lincoln: Yep.

Vince: Should we go help them out?

Me: Nah I think they got this under control.

We watched and saw them rescue the baby and they were praised as heroes for it and they even got the fire out.

Lori: (Cheers) Wow! They literally did it!

Carter Greyson: They sure did a good job!

Kelsey Winslow: Yeah.

But then we saw a shadow figure swoop in an then the Cardians started acting nuts!

Leonard the Pig: What's wrong with them? They're acting crazy all of a sudden!

They turned and we saw a malevolent-looking P symbol on their foreheads! This meant that PETRA FINA WAS AMONG US!

Sarah Goodwin: Oh no! Petra Fina is here!

Carol: And I know where she is.

Carol spun around and punched Petra right in her face and gave her a massive black eye!

Petra Fina: AAAHHH! MY FACE! YOU FUCKING BITCH! I WILL KILL YOU FOR THAT!

Carol: Come and try it you fucking old hag!

Petra then was REALLY pushed over the edge when she was called that!

Petra Fina: NO ONE CALLS ME OLD! YOU FUCKING BITCH!

Petra went at Carol and Carol kicked her in the back.

Skywarp: (grabs Petra) Say the word and I'll teleport this bitch into the sun!

Me: I think Petra is the least of our worries! Look!

We saw the Cardians merge together and they became the ugly creature called CARDIAN-CON! It's bad form had its legs and poleaxe altered making it less millipede-like and more scorpion-like.

Me: WHOA! UGLY!

Petra Fina: Cardian-Con kill them all!

Carol punched Petra and knocked her down and she was ready to fight her!

Carol: You guys face Cardian-Con, I'll face Petra.

Me: Okay Carol.

Vince: Be careful honey.

Evelyn Pusateri: Show no mercy on that haggish freak mom!

Carol: With pleasure.

We went to face Cardian-Con.

Dark Spicer: (to Cardian-Con) Here's your warning: Your ass is about to be kicked! (turns into Timedoom)

Me: Make that 4 times the Power!

I went into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 100,000,000 form!

Naruto went into his Six Paths Sage Mode.

Nico became a Super Saiyan 4.

Eli went into his 10-Tailed Wolf Sage Mode!

On Gemina, Necrafa felt the incredible extent of our power and she screamed in excruciating pain as it was hurting her all over with incredible fury.

Sarah Goodman: WHOA! You guys look amazing!

Tony Goodman: WOW! Your transformations are incredible!

Nico: We get that all the time.

Then Xaldin, Roquefort, Waffle Woman, Katnappe, Technus and Common Cold appeared.

Me: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice) Xaldin, Roquefort, Waffle Woman, Katnappe, Technus and Common Cold.

Flint: Are you guys more Masters of Evil members?

Katnappe: You bet we are!

Xaldin: It's nice to meet you, Flint.

Common Cold: (to the rest of us) By the way, Saïx is in the middle of recruiting Moonstone into our ranks.

Me: That's cool!

Common Cold: Hey where's Twilight Sparkle?

Me: She is back at the estate. She is sleeping because she was up for 3 whole days straight helping to get all of Canterlot ready for a really huge Equestria Friendship Summit. It's where all of the major people of Equestria gather together to talk out their differences and come together to help solve them.

Xaldin: That's amazing.

Roquefort: It sure is.

Waffle Woman: I hope she gets better.

Me: She'll be fine. She's just exhausted.

Roquefort: Good.

?: I want to play too.

A figure came out and it was Sailor Moon's enemy DREAM DOLLY!

Dream Dolly: Hello, I'm Dream Dolly. Do you want to play?

Red Hood: Fuck no! You're dead meat!

Shanan: The last thing I want is to play with a Dretrovite.

Qin: What's a Dretrovite?

Shanan: Dretrovites are a race of Dream Aliens that have total control over dreams. They come from the distant planet of Drevo V. They can assume any form they choose from fantasy and look like a princess or anything from your favorite storybook. But their true form makes them look like a puppet doll. The Drevo System is located 76,000 light-years from Earth and it has a sister system 20 light-years away from it. That is the system of Nightmares and is the Antepode of the Drevo System.

Qin: That's horrible!

Nico: It sure is.

Me: Looks like we have one helluva battle on our hands. We need to take this to another planet so people don't get hurt.

Katnappe: And I know just the place.

Katnappe snapped her fingers and we were on a very familiar planet. We were on the desert planet Glaren.

Me: We're back on the planet Glaren. No planets that Ben knows this time?

Katnappe: Not this time.

Me: Darn. But it works perfectly.

Katnappe: Good. Lets get it on!

Starfire: Gladly!

Sarah Goodman: Wow! You guys have been to this planet before? This is amazing!

Tony Goodwin: It sure is! Wow!

Me: We've been to many planets all over the universe and some of them are just absolutely incredible.

Nico: Yep.

We powered up and went at them.

Battle 1: Katnappe

Starfire, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Skywarp and Thundercracker were facing Katnappe.

Katnappe: (to Starfire) If that Val-Yor jerk shows his face, I'm definitely gonna claw his eyes out!

Starfire: Save seconds for me Katnappe.

Sunset Shimmer: And me too. Blackfire told me that he really hurt you Star by calling you a.. What was it?

Starfire: A Troq.

Sunset Shimmer: That's it. What does that mean?

Starfire: It means that I'm a worthless nothing.

They gasped!

Pepperdance: That's so horrible!

Skywarp: It sure is.

Thundercracker: That guy needs a major lesson in humility.

Pepperdance: But who is Val-Yor? I'm still new to this.

Starfire: Oh right. Val-Yor is a jerk hero.

Starfire went over his history.

---

Val-Yor is a superhero from another planet who appeared in the episode ″Troq ″.

Role in the Series

After a brief aerial battle on Earth, the Titans met Val-Yor who is a Vernathian that comes from the distant planet of Vernathia and decided to help him on his mission to fight the Locrix. Despite being a hero and overall friendly towards the Titans, he held contempt and dislike for Starfire because she is Tamaranean and called her a "troq" which means being worthless. While his opinion shifts and she earns his respect, the Titans choose their friend over Val-Yor, since he clings on to his specist views and later deems Earthlings just as bad as Tameraneans.

This specist attitude eventually sunders his relationship with the Titans and Earth in general, and he returns to his own planet out of disgust. Returning back into his ship to leave Earth, he secretly smiles, which implies that he really is thankful toward Starfire for saving his life.

Vernathia

Vernathia is the homeworld of Val-Yor. Once targetted by the alien-cyborgs known as the Locrix, Vernathia was apparently saved by Val-Yor, who subsequently waged a crusade against the evil machines.

The Vernathians are thought to be racist against Tamaraneans, viewing them as lesser creatures. However, it could be that not all Vernathians see Tamaraneans as inferior, and that Val-Yor is just an example of one who does.

---

They gasped!

Pepperdance: That guy IS a total Jerk!

Skywarp: No kidding! I've heard about the Vernathians and the prejudice that they have shown against the Tamaraneans but I didn't think it was gonna that bad against Earth too.

Thundercracker: Me neither. That's awful.

Starfire: It sure.

Sunset Shimmer: I think Val-Yor is the true Troq.

Starfire: Well said Sunset.

They high five!

Katnappe: Yeah! Lets get it on.

Katnappe called out her Pokemon and they went at her.

Raven: Thanks Roquefort.

Pinkie Pie: Who is Trigon?

Raven: He's my so-called father and he is a dangerous and malevolent monster.

Raven went over his history.

---

Trigon, also known as Trigon the Terrible, is the overarching antagonist of the 2003 series Teen Titans, appearing as a minor antagonist in the Season 1 episode "Nevermore" and as the main antagonist of Season 4. He is also one of the two main antagonists (alongside his 2013 incarnation) of the animated direct-to-video film Teen Titans Go! vs. Teen Titans . He is Raven's demonic father who seeks to conquer Earth.

In Season 1, he was voiced by Keith Szarabajka. In Season 4, he is voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson, who also played Mammoth in the series, The Joker in The Batman, Captain Gantu in the Lilo and Stitch franchise, Dark Laser in The Fairly OddParents, Temutai in Kung Fu Panda: Legends of Awesomeness, Goro in the Mortal Kombat game series, Chairman Drek in the Ratchet & Clank video game, Black Samurai in Scooby-Doo! and the Samurai Sword, Doug the Pimple in Family Guy, Tartarus in Halo 2, Sarevok Anchev in Dungeons & Dragons, Shredder in the 2012 Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles series, Tombstone in The Spectacular Spider-Man and Demongo in Samurai Jack .

Trigon first appears, unnamed and with a different appearance from his actual introduction, in the season 1 episode "Nevermore" as a manifestation of Raven's anger within her mind.

Trigon later appears as the main antagonist in the fourth season. Trigon resurrects the Titans' foe Slade to force Raven into releasing him upon the Earth. In the three-part finale "The End", Trigon finally emerges and destroys the Earth; the Titans are spared by a fraction of Raven's power, which she had given them before releasing Trigon.

While Robin and Slade find raven Trgon uses Nega Beast Boy Nega Cyborg and Nega Starfire to attack their good selfs. The 3 titans win by outsmarting their evil copies. Slade gets his flesh back by killing Trigons Guard

The Teen Titans are joined by Slade, so they launch an all-out assault on Trigon, but are ultimately too weak to defeat him. In the end, it is Raven who defeats him, using her own powers to obliterate Trigon, undoing the destruction he had caused in the process and the potential conquest of every world in the cosmos by his demonic followers.

Teen Titans Go vs Teen Titans

Trigon appears as one of the main antagonists. He is brought back to life after his 2013 incarnation sucks 2013 Raven's demon power and brings him back after her father pits the 2013 titans against the 2003 titans. Then they take the Ravens to Trigon's dimension to finish absorbing Raven's power to fill his missing leg. The Ravens then trick their fathers into unintentionally release them as 2013

Trigon struggles to give his 2003 counterpart a soda, and both reach the 2003 Earth. The Trigon's later catch up to the Ravens and after they torture 2003 Raven, 2013 Raven unleashes her demon self which leads to her powers being drained by the 2003 Trigon. As a result, 2013 Raven is now happy and the Titans arrive after escaping Santa Claus. 2003 Trigon insults his counterpart who gets fed up then 2013 Trigon absorbs 2003 Trigon's powers and transforms into a new powerful being named Hexagon. To combat the new threat, the Titans use the Worlagog to summon Titans teams throughout the multiverse. However, Hexagon proves to be too powerful, and worse 2013 Raven is too cheerful to understand the danger. She eventually evens the odds by absorbing all of her counterparts and transforms into a dragon known as The Unkindness, protecting the Robins and then proceeding to retaliate against Hexagon. The Titans destroy Trigon's Worlagog and assist Raven in getting her powers back, which gets rid of the 2003 Trigon. 2013 Robin uses their Worlagog to send 2013 Trigon to a zombie dimension.

Powers and Abilities

Trigon possesses vast reality manipulation powers, enabling him to reshape the surface of the Earth on a whim, revive the dead (either as superpowered undead servants or flesh and blood), and rip the fabric of space to transport his army vast distances. He can bring a person's inner darkness to life, creating an exact replica of that person, down to their powers and memories. He also possesses more generic superhuman abilities such as firing energy blasts, creating force-fields, and controlling fire, the latter of which he can impart to his servants.

---

Pinkie Pie: Yeah! Me neither!

WAR WITH NECRAFA

November 16th, 2020

---

Today was D-Day for us at Team Loud Phoenix Storm Estate. It was the day for us to go into battle against the ultimate evil of Gemina: Queen Necrafa. For eons on Gemina she has brought terror, destruction, death and chaos and was responsible for killing the first ever Mysticons. Now we have a chance to end her wicked reign of terror once and for all and destroy her forever.

We were getting up.

Twilight Sparkle was just waking up. She opened her eyes and saw Poromon, Horsea, Manaphy, Poliwag and Spike on her.

Horsea: Twilight! Welcome back from Dreamland!

Twilight: How long was I asleep?

Horsea: The whole day. But we still have hours before we fight Necrafa.

Twilight: Wow. I must've been really sleepy. Okay

Twilight got up and she was ready to start the day.

We were having breakfast. We were having pancakes for breakfast.

Nico: (Eating) Good pancakes J.D. as always.

Me: Thanks Nico. We're gonna need all the energy we can get when we face Necrafa in the next couple of hours.

Applejack: These are just as delicious as the ones Pinkie Pie makes.

Varie: They are really good.

Me: Thanks girls.

Cozy Glow: Okay. Since we're going against Necrafa, we should revive the one person who helped restore Arkayna's parents in the first place.

Me: And I have a feeling I know who you're going to pick Cozy Glow.

Arkayna: Same here. He redeemed himself.

Zarya: Dreadbane right?

Arkayna: That's right sister.

Twilight Sparkle: Who is Dreadbane?

Zarya: Oh that's right you don't know about this.

Zarya went over his history.

---

Reginald Bane was a humanoid Sky Lancer who worked alongside the royal families of old until he was corrupted the by evil forces of the Spectral Hand. This turned him into "General Dreadbane", one of the Hand's second-in-command and most devoted minion to Necrafa, Queen of the Undead for many, many years.

He had fought against the original four Mysticons, but failed in preventing his queen and "love" from being ultimately defeated and imprisoned by the brave and noble Mysticon Dragon Mage- Imani Firewing- at Victory Heights.

He is voiced by Mac Heywood.

---

They gasped.

Me: But at least he redeemed himself in the end.

Nico: That's true.

Dawn: This has to come to a vote. All in favor of Dreadbane being revived, raise your hand.

Everyone: AYE!

I counted the votes.

Me: 82. All oppose?

12 people disapproved.

Me: 82 to 12. Motion carries.

Nico: Cool. Lets do this after breakfast.

Me: Good idea.

We finished our breakfast and headed to the training grounds. I chanted an incantation and revived Reginald Bane, A.K.A. DREADBANE!

Blot: Dreadbane. Are you breathing? ARe you ok?

Blot then just barely avoided a slash from Dreadbane's sword.

Maria: Yep. He's fine.

Dreadbane: Where am I? Who are all of you?!

Arkayna: Reginald calm down!

Dreadbane: Princess Arkayna?

Arkayna: Yeah it's me.

Me: Reginald we're sorry to bring you back like this.

Dreadbane: Wait a second. I've heard of you. J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too.

Dreadbane: I'm sorry for attacking you. I've been dead for a while.

Me: No worries. We're going into battle against Necrafa. She's back and she is coming for revenge.

Dreadbane: It'll be good to face her again.

Me: But before we face her we have to have usual battles against our Frenemies in the Masters of Evil. It's part of our ways of getting warmed up in a sense.

Nico: It's part of our pre-mission code.

Dreadbane: I see.

Eli: It's really cool.

Dreadbane: On missions, you have usual battles, correct?

May: That's right.

Dreadbane: Considering that most of you are angry at Necrafa, the usual battles should help clear your minds of that anger. Anger clouding your judgement in battle isn't a good thing.

Groove: Actually, you have a point.

Me: That's true. Necrafa did so many horrible things on Gemina.

Dreadbane: By the way what is this planet?

Me: This is Earth. It's our home planet.

Dreadbane: Sure is a beautiful planet.

Me: It sure is. Drake City is now part of our home city.

Dreadbane: Things have changed a lot.

Me: Tazma and Mallory are dead, 2 of the Vexicons are in jail and Eartha is now part of the Redemption Squad. We just have Necrafa to deal with and we'll have defeated all of the Mysticons major enemies. But we still have the minor enemies of the Mysticons to deal with later in the future.

Dreadbane: I can give you all a list of them.

Me: We appreciate that.

Soldier 76: I can spar with you J.D. I can help you blow off some steam.

Me: Thanks Jack. I can't wait to see you in action.

Cargill, Selma & Patty, Comic Book Guy, Rich Texan, Chalmers, and Dai Gui appeared.

Me: Cargill, Selma & Patty, Comic Book Guy, Rich Texan, Chalmers and Dai Gui.

Bai Tza: Always fun having you with us brother.

Dai Gui: Same here sister.

Caitlin: What if Necrafa tries to attack us while we're having the usual battles?

Cargill: Not to worry. We came prepared.

Selma: We managed to recruit many new members so far starting from the point where Nico took a leave of absence.

Chalmers: And one of them should be coming right now.

Me: Where?

In a blazing blast of speed came James Sanders A.K.A. SPEED DEMON!

---

The Squadron Sinister are created by the cosmic entity the Grandmaster to battle the champions of the time-traveling Kang - the superhero team the Avengers. The Whizzer battles Avenger Goliath, but the fight is interrupted by the Black Knight. The Avengers eventually defeat the Squadron and they in turn are abandoned by the Grandmaster. The Squadron reappear in the title

Defenders, reunited by the alien Nebulon. The villains receive greater power in exchange for the planet Earth, and create a giant laser cannon in the Arctic to melt the polar ice caps, thereby covering the entirety of the Earth's surface in water. The superhero team the Defendersprevent the scheme and defeat the villains (and Nebulon), with Namor the Sub-Mariner humiliating the Whizzer.

After this defeat the Whizzer and his teammates are teleported off-world by Nebulon, returning with an energy-draining weapon. The Squadron Sinister plan to threaten the Earth again but are defeated once more by the Defenders and the Avenger Yellowjacket.[5] The character has another brief encounter with several members of the Avengers, who seek a way to separate the power prism of Doctor Spectrum from fellow Avenger the Wasp. The Whizzer disassociates himself from the Squadron Sinister and adopts a new costume and alias, Speed Demon .

Writer Bill Mantlo and penciller Bob Hall revamped the character in the title The Amazing Spider-Man, with Sanders returning to crime with a new costume and the alias Speed Demon . The character makes a number of appearances in titles, including Marvel Team-Up against Spider-Man and Fantastic Four member the Human Torch, in Amazing Spider-Man as a member of the criminal group the Sinister Syndicate, Marvel Tales, Quasar, and in the graphic novel Avengers: Deathtrap - The Vault (1991).

Speed Demon makes another abortive attempt to kill Spider-Man in the limited series The Deadly Foes of Spider-Man ; battles the mutant Wolverine; features in Web of Spider-Man ; encounters Spider-Man and the New Warriors in Spectacular Spider-Man Annual #12, Web of Spider-Man Annual #8, and New Warriors Annual #2 (all 1992); and in the title Captain America briefly skirmishes with the hero at an A.I.M. weapons expo. After an appearance in the limited series Spider-Man: The Power of Terror, Speed Demon is employed by crime boss Justin Hammer to battle the superhero team the Thunderbolts.

Speed Demon is recruited to join the New Thunderbolts but is eventually ejected from the team by heroine Songbird for stealing money to fund the team (including from the company of former teammate Kyle Richmond, who tracks the character as Nighthawk).[

After a confrontation and unexpected skirmish with an apparently resurrected Hyperion and a new Doctor Spectrum ( Alice Nugent, former lab assistant of Henry Pym), Speed Demon defects to join the reformed Squadron Sinister.

Courtesy of a phenomenon known as the Wellspring of Power, an interdimensional source of superhuman abilities, the Grandmaster - guiding force behind the return of the Squadron Sinister - has been increasing the Squadron Sinister's powers. He directs Speed Demon and the Squadron (now joined by Nighthawk, who wishes to stop New Thunderbolts team leader Baron Zemo) to find the main source of the Wellspring. For a time the character, deprived of the use of the Wellspring, is powerless and has his legs broken in a battle with New Thunderbolts member Joystick. Empowered in the final battle against the New Thunderbolts, Speed Demon takes advantage of the chaos caused when Zemo defeats the Grandmaster to viciously beat Joystick in retaliation for his injuries. Speed Demon and the members of the Squadron scatter and escape.

Speed Demon appeared in Brand New Day as one of the villains in the bar. He later joined the Hood's gang, and attacks Mister Negative.

As part of the Marvel NOW! event, Speed Demon appears as a member of the latest incarnation of the Sinister Six. Speed Demon features as one of the main characters in Superior Foes of Spider-Man .

Speed Demon later appears robbing a pawn shop with Man Mountain Marko when they are caught by Rage. After a brief fight, they escape while Rage gets arrested by the Americops. He is later captured by Sam Wilson, as the former Captain America, who forced him to confess of his and Marko's involvement in the pawn shop robbery.

Me: James Sanders A.K.A. Speed Demon!

Speed Demon: That's right. Pleasure to meet you J.D.

Me: Same here. You are really fast.

Speed Demon: So I have heard.

Wood Man: (to Speed Demon) I get it. You're gonna use your super speed to distract Necrafa while we're having the usual battles.

All the Masters of Evil came.

Vypra: Looks like we got here just in time.

Me: Yep. Lets head to Gemina so we can have our Usual battles there before we take the fight to Necrafa. The fate of the entire universe now hangs in the balance.

Everyone agreed.

We went to Gemina.

---

We were outside the ruins of Necrafa's old castle fortress. It was a malevolent fortress that looked like a castle from the very darkness of Hell.

Me: Whoa. So this is Necrafa's castle. I sense a lot of energy signals in there and they are all pure evil and powerful.

Nico: I can't make them out.

Lincoln: Me neither.

Eli: But they are all dangerous.

Me: Yep. Dark, you're up.

Dark Spicer turned into his Alien Ξ form.

Alien Ξ: (Dark and 5 more voices) Don't worry. Me and Speed Demon will keep Necrafa bust while you guys have the usual battles.

Frightwig: Just be careful, alright?

Me: Yeah.

Speed Demon: We will.

Vanishing Gungaroo then appeared.

Vanishing Gungaroo: (Australian Accent) G'day mates.

Me: Vanishing Gungaroo. Good to see you again.

Vanishing Gungaroo: I really did have fun teaching those bad teachers and parents a lesson with all of you.

Me: Glad you did.

Alien Ξ: We're off.

Speed Demon: Lets roll!

They flew fast.

Me: Now we can have our Usual Battles.

Nico: Lets do it.

The groups went at them. I went with Soldier 76 to spar with him.

Cargill: Four of you this time?

Twilight Sparkle: Thanks Russ. I was so exhausted after helping to put together the Grand Equestria Friendship Summit.

Cargill: I know. (to Girl Jordan) Girl Jordan, in case Necrafa does kill us, I just want you to know that you've been the best archenemy I've ever had.

Girl Jordan: I'm honored Russ.

Battle 3: Comic Book Guy.

---

Whitney, Fluttershy, Wood Man and Plant Man were facing Comic Book Guy.

Comic Book Guy: (to Whitney) I'm glad that you weren't one of the people who got mad at Nico for his contingency plans. They're basically similar to how Batman keep Kryptonite in case Superman goes rogue.

Whitney: Déjà-vu.

Fluttershy: That is a very clever contingency plan.

Wood Man: It sure is.

Plant Man: Yeah.

Comic Book Guy: Lets get this on while we're young.

Comic Book Guy called out his Pokemon and they went at him.

Fluttershy: This is gonna be most fun. HUMMINGBIRD STYLE NINJA ART: THE LAST DANCE!

Fluttershy spread her wings and they turned into hummingbird wings and they glowed with yellow fire as she was singing The Last Dance by Within Temptation.

She sang for you last night, she heard you were calling,

Yearning in tears a thousand times.

Your spirit was floating, your spirit was searching

On a cloud of dreams.

A moon beam shines bright in the city of angels

Guiding the dreamers back to life,

And they'll do the same every tomorrow

Till the pain subsides.

Don't be scared now,

Close your eyes,

She holds guard tonight.

Go on forward,

No remorse,

Life will take its course.

She danced with you last night so you will remember

All you have shared, the lifetime.

The angels were watching and death will be waiting

Until the time is right.

Don't be scared now,

Close your eyes,

She holds guard tonight.

Go on forward,

No remorse,

Life will take its course.

Hold on to memories,

See what lies ahead.

Life will go on and we are one

With every step you take.

She fired waves of yellow fire and they formed into angels and hummingbirds and they went at Comic Book Guy.

Whitney fired waves of flowers and Wood Man and Plant Man fired waves of leaves and flowers and the blasts all hit Comic Book Guy and knocked him and his Pokemon down.

Whitney: That was awesome!

Fluttershy: It was so much fun!

Rich Texan called out his Pokemon and they went at him.

Applejack: How you like these apples? ORCHARD STYLE NINJA ART: PEACH PIT MACHINE GUN!

Applejack formed a bunch of peach trees and they fired peach pits and the pits went at him.

Michael Morningstar: He sure will!

Sunny Tennyson: Yeah!

Chalmers: I know. Lets do it!

Chalmers called out his Pokemon and they went at him.

Rarity: This is gonna be dazzling! CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: DIOPTASE DAGGERS SHOWER!

Rarity fired waves of dioptase crystal and they formed into a shower of daggers.

Stella, Michael and Sunny fired waves of energy, light and mana and the blasts all hit Chalmers and his Pokemon and knocked them down.

Stella: That was enlightening!

Rarity: It was fun darling!

Battle 6: Dai Gui

Cornelia, Rainbow Dash, Tso Lan and Juandissimo Magnifico were facing the Demon Sorcerer of Earth, Dai Gui.

Dai Gui (to Cornelia): If Nerissa was resurrected by Necrafa, let me help you against her. I don't think she's seen me or my siblings yet.

Cornelia: She doesn't know about the lot of us since the Mysticons destroyed her before we started helping them out.

Rainbow Dash: Wow.

Tso Lan: It will be good to test out the full extent of our power on her.

Juandissimo: (Spanish Accent) A muy loco monster like Necrafa will be no match for us. (Shirt rips off and reappears)

Pinkie Pie: YEAH!

Janeen Aran: That was awesome!

---

20 minutes earlier I was sparing against Soldier 76 and he was proving to be a really formidable sparing partner. We punched, kicked, and more and we were really going at each other with incredible vigor.

Soldier 76: So what crimes has Necrafa done?

I dodged his punch.

Me: A more accurate question is what HASN'T she done? (Kicks at him and he dodges) She has done it all from Necromancy to murder and to attempted genocide.

I dodged more punches.

Soldier 76: She must be REALLY dangerous!

I dodged a punch and punched at him.

Me: She is terrifying! Zarya and Arkayna hate her just as much as I do. (I kicked at him and punched and kicked and more)

Soldier 76: Wow.

We sparred a lot.

Later we regrouped. I came back with Soldier 76 and I was sweating like a pig.

Me: WHEW! That was really theraputic.

Nico: Wow.

Me: Thanks for sparring with me Jack. I am just amazed that you and I are equal in terms of martial arts.

Soldier 76: I know. I'm amazed that you and everyone trained so much to get where you are at. Good job.

Me: Thanks.

Technus: Now that the usual battles are done, let's go after Necrafa.

Sunny Tennyson: I hope Dark and Speed Demon are okay.

Me: They'll be all right. Lets go and we'll do an entrance with the Sun.

Princess Celestia: Leave that to me.

Roquefort: Nico, before we go, eat some of my Cheese Ninjas. You'll need the energy.

Nico: Thanks Roquefort.

Raven made the Cheese Ninjas into a giant cheese sandwich.

I handed Nico some of my homemade tomato soup to go with it.

Nico: Thanks guys.

Nico ate it all and he was really stuffed.

Me: Now that you've had your lunch lets get going?

?: Not without us you won't.

Knightbrace

Knightbrace, real name Mr. Jelly, is a recurring antagonist of Codename: Kids Next Door . He is an oral health-themed villain who attacks children at night and forcibly performs painful and unnecessary dental and orthodontic procedures on them. He is one of the most frequently recurring villains of the series alongside Toiletnator, Count Spankulot, and Stickybeard.

He was voiced by Tom Kenny who also voiced the Common Cold and Chester in the same series.

Knightbrace's true identity is Mr. Jelly. Mr. Jelly had dreamed of being a dentist all his life, but used extreme methods and was kicked out of dental school for trying to put braces on babies. He was then forced to work in his family's candy store, thus damaging kid's teeth rather than cleaning them. This ultimately drove him over the edge. He thus became Knightbrace and sought out to repair the damage he'd done.

Codename: Kids Next Door

Knightbrace first appeared in Operation: T.E.E.T.H. . Sector V first became aware of Knightbrace when he was encountered by Numbuh 3 while she was walking home one night after a trip to Mr. Jelly's candy store; the entire team went back to the candy store with her because her teeth got whitened to an extreme level. On the way back, Knightbrace launched a sneak attack on Numbuh 4 and nobody noticed until they reached the Sector V Treehouse, whereupon they found Numbuh 4 tied up with giant braces that stuck out very far and within minutes both Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 5 were also attacked and tied together with floss. The KND initially assumed him to be Dr. Sigmund Teef, a dentist who had offered them free checkups (and been rudely refused) earlier that day. When the villain is unmasked by Numbuh 1, he and his team are shocked to learn his true identity to be Mr. Jelly. Dr. Teef, who had been awakened by the noisy fighting, then walks into the room, at which point Knightbrace's past is revealed. Dr. Teef saves the KND from Knightbrace by giving him taffy, his "delicious weakness". Apparently, even Knightbrace has an occasional sweet tooth, despite his hatred of cavity-inducing foods.

In Operation: F.L.U.S.H., Toiletnator believes Knightbrace to be Numbuh 4, who he considers to be his arch-nemesis, when he attacks his fellow villains at the Sector V Treehouse and violently disposes of him. When he does this to Knightbrace, a view of the treehouse shaking violently is shown on screen with a rumbling sound affect.

In Operation: M.U.N.C.H.I.E.S, he buying toothpastes. He bought the Rainbow Monkey's Munchies cereal. When Father furiously asked if he could share the cereal, Knightbrace isn't planning to eat the munchies but rather destroying them believing it is bad for their teeth. However, Sector V and the adults teamed up to beaten up Knightbrace and used him to give them milk.

In Operation: A.W.A.R.D.S., Knightbrace is the host of the Villain's Choice Awards. As his clothes are stolen by Numbuh 4 during the episode, he is forced to appear onstage in his underwear. He was to read the winner of Best Villain award, but was caught up in the fighting before it could be revealed.

In Operation: I.N.T.E.R.V.I.E.W.S., Knightbrace is believed to have been tie-ified by a Queen Neck Tie along with Potty Mouth while at the tieland common shopping mall. It's unknown what happened to him after this, mostly he either got eaten alive or more likely he was tie-ified and it is not confirmed if he and Potty Mouth will return back to their normal selves.

Electrocutioner

Initially working in the cause of justice just like the first Electrocutioner, Lester Buchinsky became a criminal and mercenary. Overly reliant on his ability to generate electricity, the Electrocuioner has faced (and been defeated by) Batman, Robin, and Nightwing. In at least one scheme, working with Cluemaster to steal an armored car full of money, Spoiler works to oppose him. Ironically, Spoiler would prove to be Cluemaster's daughter. The stupidity of Lester's second partner, a hulking brute with delusions of intelligence, would also hamper their plans. For a time, Lester was frequently seen in the employ of Bludhaven crime boss Blockbuster (Roland Desmond).

In Infinite Crisis, Lester became a member of the Secret Society of Super Villains.

During the 34th week of the series 52, Electrocutioner appears as part of a Suicide Squad operation against Black Adam.

In "Rise and Fall" storyline, Green Arrow is still hunting Electrocutioner those who worked with Prometheus, keeping secret his murder of the man as the rest of the JLA tries to track him down. Green Arrow confronts the Electrocutioner, who set off the device that devastated Star City in Justice League: Cry for Justice . He's close to killing the man when Black Canary stops him and in their argument, Canary realizes what Green Arrow did. Electrocutioner escaped from Green Arrow's rage to bring Electrocutioner down. Although Electrocutioner was defeated and horrifically injured by Speedy. Green Arrow's arrival convinces Speedy that killing is not the answer and the two archers took Electrocutioner into custody.

Once he awoke from his coma, Roy Harper vowed revenge. He broke into the jail and killed Electrocutioner, despite all of Green Arrow's protests.

Fixer

Paul Norbert Ebersol was born in Dayton, Ohio. He was a scientist who held a number of odd jobs, including auto mechanic, television repairman, and electronics laboratory assistant. He then became the second and more prominent "Fixer", a supervillain and genius-level criminal inventor who has often worked for criminal cartels like HYDRA.

In his first appearance, he escaped from prison, teamed with his partner Mentallo in an attempted takeover of the New York S.H.I.E.L.D. headquarters, and even captured Nick Fury. Fixer and Mentallo were defeated by Tony Stark and S.H.I.E.L.D. troops. His connection with THEM was revealed; and THEM was later revealed as part of HYDRA. Behind the scenes, he was even revealed as the chief of the HYDRA Science Division.

With Mentallo, the Fixer later escaped prison again. They invaded the New York S.H.I.E.L.D. headquarters and captured the Thing. They then invaded the Baxter Building, battled the Thing and Nick Fury, and used Doctor Doom's time machine to bring Deathlok from his alternate future. Mentallo then mind-controlled Deathlok in an attempted assassination of the U.S. President, but Fixer and Mentallo were defeated by the Fantastic Four and taken into custody by S.H.I.E.L.D. The pair was freed from prison by a HYDRA force controlled by Baron Karza. Fixer created the living machine-intelligence Computrex, which was destroyed by the Micronauts who then defeated Fixer and Mentallo.

Fixer and Mentallo then aided Professor Power in his attempt to add Professor X's powers to Mentallo's, but they were defeated by Spider-Man. Fixer attempted to loot Northwind Observatory of Bruce Banner's inventions, but was captured by Captain America. Fixer then invaded the West Coast Avengers Compound in an attempt to steal Iron Man's armor, but was defeated by Iron Man and Ka-Zar.

When Baron Helmut Zemo formed the fourth incarnation of the Masters of Evil, Fixer served as his right-hand man. When the Masters of Evil invaded Avengers Mansion, Fixer created a device enabling Baron Zemo to control Blackout. Fixer helped engineer the capture of Captain America, Black Knight, and Edwin Jarvis. Fixer was apprehended by Ant-Man. Behind the scenes, Fixer was overpowered by the Super-Adaptoid which changed places with him. The Super-Adaptoid disguised as the Fixer later escaped prison. The real Fixer was discovered by the Avengers in the android's former confinement tube at Avengers Island. Fixer later escaped prison with Yellowjacket who then spurned his romantic advances. The Fixer followed Yellowjacket and battled Yellowjacket and the Black Knight before escaping.

In Zemo's second incarnation of the Masters of Evil, the team changed their identity to the Thunderbolts, while Fixer adopted the alias of Techno . He was then apparently killed when his neck was broken by Iron, one of the Elements of Doom, and he transferred his mind into a robotic body, and this Techno sided, alone among the Thunderbolts, with Zemo when he went ahead with his scheme to conquer the planet.

Zemo and Techno decamped to one of Zemo's bases, where Techno began to experiment with cloning, offering to clone Zemo an unscarred body, and even cloning Kevin Costner for fun at one point. After the two fell out, Techno infiltrated the Thunderbolts by replacing Ogre, while continuing his experiments behind-the-scenes, including recovering Jolt's body when she was killed and placing it in a healing tube.

Techno's impersonation of Ogre ended when Scourge of the Underworld stowed away inside him, shrunken, and destroyed his body from the inside, while he refused to kill Jolt again to allow him to construct a new body. However, his backup plan worked, and his consciousness was returned to his original human body-mostly healed, although the nerve damage in his neck meant he required his tech-pac to bypass the damage-and the human Ebersol, initially amnesiac of the robot's exploits, returned to calling himself the Fixer.

Fixer then became one of the Redeemers, a government-backed team whereby criminals could use it to accelerate their sentences and clear their record, until most of that team was slaughtered by Graviton. He joined with the reunited Thunderbolts to stop Graviton, and he was one of the team members exiled to Counter-Earth. By a complicated series of events, at the end of the trip to Counter-Earth, Zemo's consciousness ended up in Fixer's tech-pac. By threatening to disable it and leave him quadriplegic, Zemo managed to force Fixer to transfer the Baron's consciousness to his Counter-Earth counterpart's body.

The team remained on Counter-Earth for some time, until, in sealing a rift, they returned home, leaving Jolt (whom Fixer saved from burning out in helping to seal the rift) behind. Finally, after Moonstone went insane, Fixer furnished a device that could give the combined Avengers and Thunderbolts a couple of seconds to make their move; he then left.

Later, Deadpool visited Fixer at his holiday home to enlist his help in saving Cable. After a brief fight, Fixer accepted the challenge (and Deadpool's monetary inducement), and successfully bonded new, benign, techno-organic mesh to Cable. Some time after this, Fixer suddenly reappeared to save his former teammate MACH-IV from a fall. Fixer recruited MACH-IV to join a secretive group headed by Zemo to combat and destroy Genis-Vell, a member of the Thunderbolts whom Zemo had brought back to life. The process was flawed, however, and Genis' existence now threatened the universe.

After Genis was destroyed, Fixer remained with the Thunderbolts, who were now helmed by Zemo. He helped the team recruit supervillains to the pro-registration cause during the Civil War. He also helped Zemo save the Wellspring of Power from the Grandmaster. After Zemo was betrayed and the Thunderbolts were placed under S.H.I.E.L.D. control, Fixer and MACH-IV were offered jobs with the Commission on Superhuman Activities.[ volume & issue needed ]

Ebersol has been identified as one of the 142 registered superheroes who appear on the cover of the comic book.

During the Heroic Age storyline, Fixer works as the Raft's supervisor in its section for male supervillains when Captain Steve Rogers and Luke Cage arrive to recruit Ghost.

As well as working with the Thunderbolts, Fixer has also been seen working with Baron Zemo.

During the Fear Itself storyline, Fixer was seen working on a forcefield to secure the rounded up prisoners that escaped from the Raft after Juggernaut, in the form of Kuurth: Breaker of Stone, leveled it.

After escaping the Raft by time-traveling, the Thunderbolts wound up meeting their counterparts - the first Thunderbolts team. Being as arrogant as they are, present-Fixer and past-Fixer got into an argument in which Fixer impulsively killed his past self. In order to preserve the timeline, Fixer surgically changed himself to restore his younger appearance and preserved his age by a blood-transfusion from Centurius. Fixer and the past Thunderbolts' memories were wiped, stranding Fixer in a stable time-loop and preserving the timeline after his mistake.

During the Avengers: Standoff! storyline, Fixer resurfaces where is shown to be a prisoner of the S.H.I.E.L.D.-established gated community Pleasant Hill where Kobik, fragments of a Cosmic Cube transformed into a nigh-omnipotent child, turned him into a mild-mannered mechanic named Phil. Phil was able to see through this and arranged a meet-up with a man named Jim. Upon showing the training video he stole that featured the details about Pleasant Hill by Mayor Maria Hill to the S.H.I.E.L.D. Cadets, Phil used a machine he invented to turn himself back into Fixer and Jim back into Baron Helmut Zemo. Both of them vowed to use the device on the other brainwashed supervillains and reduce Pleasant Hill to dust. Fixer and Baron Zemo began to restore the memories of the other inmates one by one. Fixer later invented a device that would help Baron Zemo and his fellow villains find Kobik.

Following the Pleasant Hill incident, Fixer joined up with Winter Soldier's incarnation of the Thunderbolts with the goal to keep S.H.I.E.L.D. from continuing the Kobik Project.

At the time when Baron Zemo formed the third incarnation of the Masters of Evil, Fixer joined the Thunderbolts into fighting them which ends with the Thunderbolts being defeated.

During the "Opening Salvo" part of the Secret Empire storyline, Fixer defected to the Masters of Evil after Winter Soldier was sent back in time to World War II and Kobik had shattered. While Atlas and Moonstone worked to gather Kobik's pieces, Fixer maintained the inventory of the pieces he has with Erik Selvig. Fixer was later present when Baron Helmut Zemo is advised by the Kobik-reprogrammed Captain America into having the Masters of Evil be part of the Army of Evil.

Duskmon

Duskmon is Koichi's initial Human Hybrid form which he undertakes with the corrupted H Spirit of Darkness. Duskmon is coldly rational and overwhelming in his power, wielding his "Blut Evolution" (Deu: Blood Evolution) swords with enough power to match even Fusion Hybrid Digimon.

After traveling to the Digital World, Koichi is manipulated into becoming Duskmon, who serves as Cherubimon's loyal servant. Duskmon is the strongest of Cherubimon's minions, able to take the full force of the DigiDestined's combined strength. Duskmon's greatest weakness is Koichi's connection to Koji; through this, his subservience to Cherubimon is discarded in favor of an unrelenting search for the truth, which ultimately allows Duskmon to be defeated.

Arbormon

Arbormon is one of Cherubimon's Legendary Warriors alongside Grumblemon, Ranamon, Mercurymon, and Duskmon, but he only moves to collect data when ordered to. He begins the series with possession of the B Spirit of Wood, allowing him access to his stronger but less mobile Petaldramon form.

After Grumblemon's loss to the DigiDestined, Arbormon joins him, Ranamon, and Mercurymon in a raid on Seraphimon's Castle. They interrupt the DigiDestined just after they successfully revive Seraphimon, only to be beaten down by the Celestial Digimon. Mercurymon's wiles allow him to defeat Seraphimon, but the DigiDestined manage to flee with Seraphimon's Digi-Egg. Better An Egg Than An Egg Shell Arbormon joins Grumblemon in chasing the DigiDestined through a secret passage, managing to catch up with them in the Blue Cave. Arbormon slide evolves to Petaldramon to stall Takuya Kanbara and Koji Minamoto while Grumblemon attacks with his Golemon army, but Grumblemon is defeated by J.P. Shibayama and the B Spirit of Thunder, leaving Petaldramon in the rubble as the cave collapses around them.

Arbormon catches up with Ranamon's former fans, the Toucanmon, when they trade the DigiDestined's D-Tectors at the Autumn Leaf Fair. He captures them and calls the Datamon they traded them to in order to undo the trade. Moved by Tommy Himi's kindness, however, Datamon stalls until Arbormon returns in person. He brings back the Toucamon and the camera they traded for, but Datamon sees Tommy's heroics and refuses the trade. Arbormon attacks Datamon, but Tommy returns and takes ownership of his D-Tector, which Datamon has upgraded with the B Spirit of Ice. Arbormon is driven off by Korikakumon with a little help from Agunimon and Lobomon. Bizarre Bazaar

Going to his baser instincts, Arbormon, as Petaldramon, has his hunger influenced by the Three Moons. Craving hamburgers, he goes to the Hamburger Village to get his food, and when the Burgermon bring him food that pleases him, he has his Chamelemon kidnap the Burgermon father and bring him to his mansion. Petaldramon takes a nap, and during that nap, the DigiDestined come, defeat his Chamelemon minions, and rescue the captive Burgermon. MetalKabuterimon collapses his mansion around him, but Petaldramon is too lazy too care.

He returns to the Enemy Hideout and trains himself. He, Ranamon, and Mercurymon have an audience with Cherubimon, where Arbormon is tasked with taking care of the DigiDestined. Arbormon meets them in the Continent of Darkness, where he takes on all of them. Despite using the trees around him as fuel, he is eventually defeated and has his B Spirit scanned. Duskmon arrives on the scene, and Arbormon pleads with him for help. Duskmon, however, couldn't care less about failures and strikes down his ally, scanning his H Spirit and marking Arbormon's defeat.

Later, when the Royal Knights attack the Village of Beginnings, his purified Digi-Egg briefly takes on Arbormon's astral form and attempts to protect the children of the future. For the first time in a long while, the ten Warriors stand together and work to drive off the Royal Knights, though the Village is lost. The purified Warriors acknowledge those who defeated them, and Arbormon's Digi-Egg returns to the batch being saved by the Trailmon, atoning for their past.

Ranamon

Ranamon is one of Cherubimon's dark Legendary Warriors alongside Grumblemon, Arbormon, Mercurymon, and Duskmon, but though subservient to her master, she rarely acts on her own unless directly ordered.

After Grumblemon's loss to the DigiDestined, Ranamon joins him, Arbormon, and Mercurymon in a raid on Seraphimon's Castle. They interrupt the DigiDestined just after they successfully revive Seraphimon, only to be beaten down by the Celestial Digimon. Mercurymon's wiles allow him to defeat Seraphimon, but the DigiDestined manage to flee with Seraphimon's Digi-Egg. Better An Egg Than An Egg Shell Rather than follow, Ranamon and Mercurymon return to their hideout, where Mercurymon taunts her for not having her Beast Spirit. Angered but seeing his point, Ranamon rechecks her search pattern and realizes that there is a spot she missed. It happens to be close to the island with the Toucan Paradise and also where the DigiDestined end up after escaping the Blue Cave. Her Toucanmon fanclub has stolen everyone's D-Tectors except Zoe Orimoto's by this point, and so she gets into a one-on-one fight with Kazemon, Zoe's human Digimon form. At sea, Ranamon's powers are at their height, during their battle, Ranamon suddenly senses her Beast Spirit. She dives into the water and finds the Spirit, slide evolving into Calmaramon. Her new form outmatches Kazemon, but when she tries to use her Titanic Tempest attack, her unfamiliarity with the Spirit and lack of control as her spiraling off into the distance. Because of Calmaramon's ugly appearance and uncouth manners, she also loses her Toucanmon following. Beastie Girl

Frustrated by her lack of control, Calmaramon retreats to the dark

Warriors' hideout, where she puts herself through intense training. Though doing immense damage to their location, she eventually gains some mastery over her new form, and she returns, as Ranamon, to challenge Zoe near the Goma Island. With their battlefield now completely over the water, Ranamon has the decisive advantage over Zoe. She batters her foe around with her control over the ocean and eventually attempts to drown her, but Zoe discovers the B Spirit of Wind at the seafloor and becomes Zephyrmon. Zephyrmon easily deals with Ranamon, but Calmaramon is stronger, and she manages to entrap Zephyrmon in her tentacles. The other DigiDestined begin spewing insults at her, and they distract Calmaramon just enough for Zephyrmon to get free and start dealing damage. Calmaramon attempts to use her Titanic Tempest once more, but it proves to be no better than her first attempt, leading her to fly off into the distance.

After taking some time for herself, she, Arbormon, and Mercurymon have an audience with Cherubimon, where she is briefly chastised by her master. From Dawn To Duskmon In the aftermath of Duskmon's fight with the DigiDestined, Ranamon and Mercurymon take custody of Zoe, J.P. Shibayama, and Tommy Himi at the Old Castle. They have Datamon work on releasing the Spirits from the D-Tectors, and Ranamon begins some ultimately lighthearted torture to find where the remaining DigiDestined, Takuya Kanbara and Koji Minamoto, are. When she grows frustrated, however, she targets J.P. with her dissolving Dark Vapor, and Koji intervenes. Becoming Calmaramon, she and Mercurymon prove to be more than a match for Koji, who is still suffering from his injuries from Duskmon. Takuya, as Agunimon and having returned from a soul-searching journey, interrupts the battle and frees the other DigiDestined. After becoming extremely self-aware, Agunimon becomes in tune with the Digital World and with his own powers, and he spreads this knowledge to the others, which allows them to drive off Calmaramon and Mercurymon. Hurt but alive, Ranamon questions how they will now fight the more powerful DigiDestined. Mercurymon tells her that he has a plan.

Ranamon becomes the guardian of Mercurymon's Beast Spirit's, Sakkakumon's, Water Area, where she relaxes with her Honeybeemon fans. She orders her Honeybeemon to lay traps for Zoe when she arrives, culminating in a poisoned apple which brings to mind all of Zoe's feelings of ostracization. Ranamon drives the wedge of Zoe's fears even deeper with comments about her lack of friends, but then Zoe comes to a realization about herself. Acknowledging her own weaknesses, Zoe begins to fight back, and her kindness even draws the Honeybeemon to her side. After a fierce battle, she ends up losing to Zoe and her conviction. Ranamon is scanned and purified with her Spirits taken.

Later, when the Royal Knights attack the Village of Beginnings, a purified Ranamon's Digi-Egg briefly takes on Ranamon's astral form and attempts to protect the children of the future. For the first time in a long while, the ten Warriors stand together and work to drive off the Royal Knights, though the Village is lost. The purified Warriors acknowledge those who defeated them, and Ranamon's Digi-Egg returns to the batch being saved by the Trailmon, atoning for their past.

Grumblemon

Grumblemon is a fictional character and Digimon from the anime Digimon Frontier . He is referred to as "Grottemon" in Chuang Yi's translation of the Digimon Frontier manhua.

The name "Grumblemon" refers only to the Human Hybrid form of this Digimon. Throughout the series, Grumblemon gains the ability to spirit evolve into a number of other forms, each with a different name and special attack. The Human Hybrid, however, is his preferred form and the one he spends most of his time in. It is also the name he is most commonly referred to.

Grumblemon is one of the successors to the Ten Legendary Warriors and is the Warrior of Earth, the one who wields the Spirits of Earth left behind by AncientVolcanomon. He is subverted by the fallen Cherubimon of the Celestial Digimon and fights to the detriment of the Digital World now. He has a strong affinity with the earth, allowing him to summon Golemon from the ground, and wields the "Grotte Hammer" weapon.

Grumblemon is one of Cherubimon's Legendary Warriors alongside Arbormon, Ranamon, Mercurymon, and Duskmon, and he does his best to collect data for his master. He begins the series with possession of the B Spirit of Earth, allowing him access to his stronger but less mobile Gigasmon form.

He targets the KaratsukiNumemon Mountain for its fractal code but is unable to determine where the key is. He threatens the local KaratsukiNumemon population, but because they don't know where it is, he kidnaps the females. When he returns, Grumblemon finds that the KaratsukiNumemon are threatening Ophanimon's DigiDestined, but he couldn't care less about them. He makes short work of them due to his ability to slide evolve into Gigasmon. Grumblemon manages to scan the mountain, scattering the DigiDestined.

Grumblemon then targets the Gotsumon Village, only to be thwarted just barely by Koji Minamoto as Lobomon. When he goes for a second attempt, he fights the other DigiDestined. During this battle, he manages to steal the H Spirit of Wind, leaving Zoe Orimoto helpless. He attempts to steal the B Spirit of Light unlocked by Gotsumon, but he is again thwarted by Koji, this time as KendoGarurumon, and he is dealt his first loss. Can't Keep a Grumblemon Down Angered by this defeat, he summons a Golemon from the earth to do his bidding. He ambushes the DigiDestined at the Fortuneteller Village, managing to cast a spell which prevents Koji, the only other owner of a Beast Spirit, from fighting. Grumblemon manages to take the H Spirit of Ice during battle. He is interrupted by BurningGreymon bursting out of the temple, defeating his Golemon and driving him off. A Hunka Hunka BurningGreymon He returns after trapping most of the DigiDestined in the forest. Grumblemon taunts Takuya with his inability to control his Beast Spirit, knowing that he went out of control as BurningGreymon. Despite both his mental attacks and taking Tommy hostage, Grumblemon is unable to best BurningGreymon and has both the H Spirit of Ice and B Spirit of Earth taken from him before he is forced to flee.

Extremely angered, Grumblemon joins his fellow Warriors in tracking the DigiDestined to the Forest Kingdom where they ambush them and Sorcermon after they revive Seraphimon. Seraphimon handily takes care of the Warriors but falls when Mercurymon redirects his own attack at him. Seraphimon's data is taken, but Zoe manages to save the Digi-Egg. The DigiDestined escape through a hidden exit, and the fallen Warriors are stalled by Sorcermon's sacrifice from taking chase immediately. Better An Egg Than An Egg Shell Grumblemon, along with Arbormon, tracks the DigiDestined to the Blue Cave. He summons a whole horde of Golemon to aid him, and while Arbormon holds of Agunimon and Lobomon, he severely injures Tommy and J.P. Unfortunately for him, as he moves to finish off J.P., Whamon intervenes in the battle and inadvertently brings the B Spirit of Thunder into play, which J.P. uses to evolve into MetalKabuterimon. With his newfound power, J.P. quickly defeats Grumblemon, who is scanned for good as his purified Digi-Egg flies away.

Later, when the Royal Knights attack the Village of Beginnings, a purified Grumblemon's Digi-Egg briefly takes on Grumblemon's astral form and attempts to protect the children of the future. For the first time in a long while, the ten Warriors stand together and work to drive off the Royal Knights, though the Village is lost. The purified Warriors acknowledge those who defeated them, and Grumblemon's Digi-Egg returns to the batch being saved by the Trailmon, atoning for their past.

Mercurymon

Mercurymon is a fictional character and Digimon from the anime and manhua Digimon Frontier . He is named "Mercurmon" in Chaung Yi's translation of the Digimon Frontier manhua.

Mercurymon is one of the successors to the Ten Legendary Warriors and is the Warrior of Steel, the one who wields the Spirits of Steel left behind by AncientWisemon. He is subverted by the fallen Cherubimon of the Celestial Digimon and fights to the detriment of the Digital World now. A trickster by nature, Mercurymon is devoted to long plans and has an affinity for polished surfaces, mirrors in particular, and he wields an "Irony no Tate" (イロニーの盾 Ironī no Tate ?, lit. "Shield of Irony") on each arm.

Mercurymon is one of Cherubimon's dark Legendary Warriors alongside Grumblemon, Arbormon, Ranamon, and Duskmon, but though subservient to his master, he rarely acts on his own unless directly ordered.

After Grumblemon's loss to the DigiDestined, Mercurymon joins him, Arbormon, and Ranamon in a raid on Seraphimon's Castle. They interrupt the DigiDestined just after they successfully revive Seraphimon, only to be beaten down by the Celestial Digimon. Right before Seraphimon can strike the finishing blow, Mercurymon uses his teleportation and reflection abilities to turn back Seraphimon's attack against him, actually managing to defeat him. Mercurymon scans and takes Seraphimon's Fractal Code for himself, but Zoe Orimoto grabs the Digi-Egg left behind, and the DigiDestined flee. Rather than follow, Mercurymon and Ranamon return to their hideout, where Mercurymon taunts Ranamon for not having her Beast Spirit, which leads to her starting up another search and finding it.

After taking some time for himself, he, Arbormon, and Ranamon have an audience with Cherubimon, where Cherubimon makes it clear that he knows Mercurymon still possesses Seraphimon's fractal code and is only letting him hold onto it for now. Cursing his openness, Mercurymon gets into an argument with Duskmon, where the latter accuses him of being disloyal and Mercurymon calls him a coward for never setting foot on the battlefield. The exchange prompts Duskmon to go to the Continent of Darkness to face the DigiDestined himself. From Dawn To Duskmon In the aftermath of Duskmon's fight with the DigiDestined, Mercurymon and Ranamon take custody of Zoe, J.P. Shibayama, and Tommy Himi at the Old Castle. They have Datamon work on releasing the Spirits from the D-Tectors, and Ranamon begins some ultimately lighthearted torture to find where the remaining DigiDestined, Takuya Kanbara and Koji Minamoto, are. When the torture grows more serious, Koji intervenes. Mercurymon and Ranamon, now Calmaramon, prove to be more than a match for Koji, who is still suffering from his injuries from the battle with Duskmon. Takuya, as Agunimon and having returned from a soul-searching journey, interrupts the battle and frees the other DigiDestined. After achieving a new self-awareness, Agunimon becomes in tune with the Digital World and with his own powers, and he spreads this knowledge to the others, which allows them to drive off Mercurymon and Calmaramon. Hurt but alive, Mercurymon placates an angry Ranamon by saying that he has a plan.

Mercurymon uses his B Spirit of Steel to become the towering Sakkakumon. Pretending to be a dormant structure, he draws the DigiDestined inside of his ten spheres, where he attempts to break their spirits by inflicting psychological damage based on their past fears. Each of Sakkakumon's spheres contains its own elementally-themed area, guarded by a Digimon whose defeat allows the fighter to escape. Alone But Never Alone The DigiDestined eventually conquer themselves and the opponents within until Agunimon, Takuya's human spirit form, appears in the Steel Area, which Mercurymon himself is the guardian. Mercurymon's powers are at their peak in the Steel Area, where he has the capability to move between any polished surface-which the Steel Area is made up of nothing but.

Growing tired of playing, Mercurymon draws Agunimon into the Light Area, where he reveals that this is where he stores Seraphimon's fractal code. By taking the data within himself, he assumes a parody of Seraphimon's form and becomes ShadowSeraphimon, declaring his attempt to use this power to conquer the world. With his immense strength, ShadowSeraphimon beats down all opposition until he is torturing Takuya's human form. Seraphimon's Digi-Egg responds to Takuya's plight and the other DigiDestined's desperate attempts to breech Sakkakumon's defenses, granting him the power to fusion evolve to Aldamon. Aldamon is much stronger than either Agunimon or BurningGreymon, Takuya's beast form, and he easily defeats ShadowSeraphimon, taking back and returning Seraphimon's fractal code. Mercurymon retreats to the Steel Area, but Aldamon follows and uses his control over flame to melt all of the polished surfaces, preventing escape. Aldamon defeats Mercurymon and scans the H Spirit of Steel, winning release from Sakkakumon once and for all.

Mercurymon is not done yet, however. When the DigiDestined celebrate Seraphimon's rebirth as Patamon due to his returned fractal code, Mercurymon takes control of his Sakkakumon form. Sakkakumon reveals that the entire point of the exercise was to analyze the combat abilities of the DigiDestined. With his new data, Sakkakumon is able to defend against and use any technique the DigiDestined used within him. The DigiDestined are forced to retreat into a dark cave, with Sakkakumon following them as a horrific, ever-encroaching foe. His fear-inducing actions destabilize the DigiDestined, causing them to misfire their attacks at each other, until Aldamon rallies his allies as a true leader. Sakkakumon soon learns that he is unable to analyze, absorb, or defend against attacks which combine several elements, and the DigiDestined suss out that Sakkakumon has never attacked from his central orb. With this knowledge, the DigiDestined combine their attacks and defeat Sakkakumon, purifying him once and for all.

In the future, when the Royal Knights attack the Village of Beginnings, Mercurymon's purified Digi-Egg briefly takes on Mercurymon's astral form and attempts to protect the children of the future. For the first time in a long while, the ten Warriors stand together and work to drive off the Royal Knights, though the Village is lost. The purified Warriors acknowledge those who defeated them, and Mercurymon's Digi-Egg returns to the batch being saved by the Trailmon, atoning for their past.

Steam Smythe

Steam Smythe is a villain who first appeared in The Clocktopus . He hates modern technology and is always trying to "bring back the past".

In The Clocktopus, Steam Smythe attacked a pier named Squid City. It was being turned into an amusement park, and Steam Smythe wanted to prevent that, using his Clocktopus. Steam Smythe is soon defeated by Ben in a duel.

In Steam is the Word, Steam Smythe stole a time capsule left behind by Nikola Tesla. He was disappointed by what was in it, and threatened to destroy the town. However he was stopped and his blimp was destroyed. Steam Smythe swore to return and have his vengeance.

In Omni-Copped , Steam Smythe patiently waits for the Tennysons to arrive, after allying with Forever Knight. However he was easily defeated by Cannonbolt.

In The Hex Factor, Steam Smythe appeared telling Hex about a magic club, in a jail cell.

In Medieval Upheaval, Steam Smythe attempted to build a time machine and return back to the steam era, and prevent tech from being created. His time machine failed. However, he believed he was in the past due to landing in a renaissance fair after landing. He dueled Ben once more, believing he was a Tennyson elder in the past. Steam Smythe was tricked by both Ben and Gwen, and eventually believed to be back in the present after being defeated.

In Ben 10 Versus the Universe: The Movie , Steam Smythe planned to destroy a telephone industry, however he was stopped by Ben, who thinks their fighting has gotten repetitive.

Mirror Master

Samuel Joseph Scudder is a simple convict, but has the goal to learn how to get inside the reflection of a mirror. Stumbling into a hall of mirrors, he experiments and discovers a way to get in his own reflection. He uses this power to become the criminal Mirror Master, and is a frequent foe of the Flash. Scudder dies around the same time as Barry Allen, alongside the Icicle during the Crisis on Infinite Earths . Later, Captain Boomerang briefly assumes Scudder's identity, becoming the second Mirror Master. He uses this as an alternate identity with which to commit crimes, thus not alerting his teammates in the Suicide Squad to his extracurricular activities. Pre-Crisis, he studies mirrors after someone's reflection is held inside a mirror he was working on in the prison workshop. He then learns how to create creatures of light.

In the Blackest Night crossover event, Sam Scudder is reanimated as an undead Black Lantern during the Blackest Night and is preparing an attack on the Rogues with the other deceased members, who are also reanimated.

The Rogues visit Sam Scudder's old hideout and unveil a giant mirror with the words In Case of Flash: Break Glass . It has been shown in several past incidents that something lives in the mirror universe that is deadly. The Rogues learn that the giant mirror is actually a slow-acting poison.

In The New 52, a 2011 reboot of the DC Comics universe, Sam Scudder is the current Mirror Master. It is revealed that a year prior he, Captain Cold, Heat Wave and Weather Wizard underwent a procedure at an unknown facility that would merge them with their weapons, giving them superpowers. The procedure went awry, causing an explosion at the facility. Golden Glider, who was also at the facility, was caught in the explosion. The five were given superpowers but each in a twisted manner. Heat Wave gains pyrokinesis but at the cost of his body being burned, Weather Wizard becomes emotionally tied to his weather wand causing constant depression, Sam would be forever trapped in Mirror World, and Golden Glider becomes an astral projection of herself. It is implied that Sam is in a romantic relationship with her. The Rogues blame Captain Cold for this and have turned against him because of it

We landed and the sun faded and we were facing NECRAFA!

Necrafa was an evil, skeletal lich-queen who had spread a reign of terror and devastation throughout the entire realm of Gemina for many years, but had been thwarted many times by the very first Mysticons. She first appears as a statue in Sisters in Arms, although her actual debut is in Episode Thirteen, once she is released.

A thousand years ago, the original Mysticons defeated her. Peace returned, and "Necrafa" became a word that human, dwarf, and especially elf moms used to scare kids into eating their veggies! However, Necrafa's followers worked tirelessly over the ages, trying to resurrect her.

Necrafa is restored to the realm, becoming the main villainess who was finally destroyed in one single strike, in the Season 2 finale by the greater and combined strength of the Princess Twins of Gemina.

---

Me: Necrafa. So we meet at last.

Waffle Woman: Fancy seeing you here, Necrafa.

Necrafa: Well if it isn't the Mysticons. Now I can finally get my revenge on your all or killing me. And Dreadbane how DARE YOU BETRAY ME!? YOU WILL DIE FOR ALL THIS!

Dreadbane: I was never your servant you bitch!

Necrafa: I had a feeling you would challenge me one day. And I'm not alone this time.

A bunch of figures came out and it was a bunch of old enemies we faced before! It was NERISSA, PHOBOS, VALTOR, DARKAR, QUEEN BERYL, DOOM AND BLOOM GIRLS, KYMRAW, ICY, DARCY AND STORMY!

Nerissa

Nerissa is a major antagonist from the obscure Italian Disney comic book W.I.T.C.H. and the animated series of the same name. Her aliases made several appearances during Season One, but her true nature was not revealed until Season Two.

In the English dubbed version of the animated series, she was voiced by the veteran voice actress Kath Soucie in one of her very few villainous roles. In the Italian version, she was voiced by Cristina Giolitti.

Nerissa was once the holder of the Heart of Kandrakar and the Guardian of Quintessence, but it was taken from her because she was corrupted by its power. Mad with jealousy, she turned on her fellow Guardians and accidentally killed Cassidy by shooting her off a cliff with lightning during a fight for the Heart of Kandrakar. For this crime, she was sentenced to be sealed in Mount Thanos until she was freed by a portal (in the comics the occurrence of all elements combined in one evanescent being). She went trough the portal to Meridian where she met the Mage, who had hoped that she would reform if shown compassion.

After the Mage's death, Nerissa took over her identity and manipulated events in Meridian from behind the scenes. She also disguised herself as a red-headed lady named Trill during the reign of Prince Phobos. Taking up work in Phobos's castle in order to feed information back to the rebels, and to become close to Elyon once she was returned to the throne. In season two, she successfully siphons all Elyon's power into a jewel, which becomes the jewel version of the Heart of Meridian.

As the former holder of the Heart of Kandrakar, Nerissa has the same powers as the current holder and Guardian of Quintessence, Will Vandom.

Some 40 years prior to the events of W.I.T.C.H., Nerissa served as the leader of the Guardians of the Veil and as the Keeper of the Heart of Kandrakar. She was the Guardian of Quintessence.

However, the Council of Kandrakar feared that the power of the Heart was corrupting her, and took it from her believing that doing so would save her from her newly discovered lust for power.

Desperate to regain the Heart, the ambitious Nerissa confronted the new holder of the Heart, Cassidy, the Guardian of Water. The pair fought, and Nerissa accidentally sent Cassidy plummeting to her death from the top of a mountain. As punishment for Cassidy's death, Nerissa was sentenced to a lifetime of imprisonment in an ice cave on Mount Thanos. When the Veil was raised, a portal opened in Mount Thanos and Nerissa used it to escape to Meridian. Later, the Mage helped her, hoping that her guilt and an act of compassion would reform her.

Nerissa laid low during Phobos' reign (before and during season 1). She created a new identity that of a good natured red-headed lady called Trill, and used her cunning and magic to gain employment in Phobos' castle, from where she helped the resistance by smuggling people into/out of the castle and by passing on information. Her true nature was not revealed during this time.

During this period she also took over the identity of her former protector the Mage (who had since died), and became the lover of the future rebel leader's father, Julian. Together they had a child, Caleb, who became the leader of the resistance. Nerissa later revealed that she had given birth to Caleb specifically for the purpose of him becoming the rebel leader (In the comic book continuity, Nerissa did not take on the identity of the Mage who only appears in the animated series, and is not related to Caleb who was created rather than born, and has no parents). Caleb did not learn of his relationship to Nerissa until season 2.

After Phobos' downfall, Nerissa became the primary antagonist and began to move against the Guardians. She freed some of Phobos' minions as she forms her new minions the Knights of Vengeance and set them against the Guardians. Also, she attempted to subvert and disrupt their daily lives on Earth.

In her identity as Trill, Nerissa also befriended Elyon, giving her a necklace that she said had once belonged to Elyon's birth parents. Unbeknownst to Elyon, the necklace was slowly siphoning her powers, and when she was tricked into hating her parents and throwing away the necklace they had left for her, her powers went with it. (Nerissa could not have taken Elyon's powers by force, but was able to steal them as they were given away freely.) Nerissa then revealed her true identity, and trapped Elyon inside the necklace, which was now the physical embodiment of the Heart of Meridian.

With the power of the Heart of Meridian, Nerissa became far stronger. She ceased using Phobos's minions and fashioned her own out of fire, ice, rock, and the forms of Matthew Olsen and Mister Huggles, naming them the Knights of Destruction.

While the Knights kept the Guardians busy, Nerissa set about re-forming the original Guardians: Halinor, Yan Lin, Kadma, and the revived spirit of Cassidy. She found the weaknesses in their characters and exploited them in order to take control of their minds. Aided by her magic sceptre known as the Seal of Nerissa (formed by combining the Heart of Meridian with the Heart of Zamballa), she then drained her Knights of their power (destroying two of them in the process) and used it to re-energize her Guardian mind slaves, restoring their youth and power.

Nerissa used the former Guardians to fight the current Guardians in an element versus element battle in which Will had promised not to retreat. At first, Nerissa's Guardians, powered by two Hearts, had the upper hand, until Will realized that the former Guardians were strong when fighting their opposite elemental number, but lacked the free will necessary to diversify their attacks in order to fight against a different element. This change of tactics allowed the Guardians to defeat Nerissa and force her to retreat.

When the current Guardians next fought Nerissa, they were able to break her spell of control over the former Guardians. Once Cassidy was freed by Irma (she was thrown in a pool, and Irma used her skill to influence minds to dispel Nerissa's brainwashing), the others soon followed. However, before they could press home their advantage, Nerissa absorbed the former Guardians into her Seal, allowing her to access all of their powers. Only the intervention of the newly-freed Phobos prevented her from turning her new elemental powers against the Guardians, and she was forced her to retreat once more.

Nerissa's final defeat came on Halloween, when she attempted to steal the power of the Heart of Earth, Cornelia's younger sister. After cornering and capturing Napoleon the cat, one of the Regents of Earth, Phobos (disguised as Napoleon) drained Nerissa of her powers and took the Seal of Nerissa, later the Sceptre of Phobos, for his own. He then trapped Nerissa in the Seal along with Elyon, Yan Lin, and the other former Guardians. The former of whom had since learned to reabsorb enough of her powers from the Seal to allow her to exact punishment on the trapped Nerissa for her treachery.

Nerissa remained trapped in Weira's jewel, which was the jewel version of the Heart of Meridian, and was passed into the hands of Julian and Caleb. Nerissa remains trapped inside, living out her dream of conquering the universe with her husband and son by her side, not realizing that it is an illusion.

The previous keeper of the Heart of Kandrakar, Nerissa was consumed by the immense power the Heart gave her and eventually began to descend into evil. The Oracle sensed this and decided that she was no longer fit to keep the Heart. When he entrusted it to Cassidy (who was then the Guardian of Water), it drove Nerissa over the edge. Mad with jealousy, she turned on her fellow Guardians and killed Cassidy. When she was defeated, she was sentenced to be sealed in a coffin located in Mount Thanos until the day all of the Aurameres were joined together. That eventually came to pass through the efforts of Luba, who was convinced that the girls were unworthy of their status as Guardians.

Awakened from her slumber, Nerissa got her teenage looks back, created the Four Knights of Revenge, and tricked Will into giving her the Heart, declaring war against Kandrakar. After losing strength in the battle with the Guardians in Kandrakar, Nerissa re-absorbed the magic she used to create her Knights of Revenge, destroying them automatically. In the end, the Guardians combined their powers and directed them at Nerissa at once, vanquishing her for once and for all.

One of Nerissa's more insidious powers is her ability to change the girls' dreams, turning them into nightmares. The dreams may occasionally affect the real world as well. At the beginning of the second arc, Will's arm is branded with Nerissa's special seal (shaped like the Heart of Kandrakar, but with one scar-like line crossing it) during a dream. It is implied that Hay Lin is less susceptible to these fiendish assaults, since her grandmother, Yan Lin, was Nerissa's best friend before their group was dispersed. One sequence sees the team confronting their tormentor in the so-called "World of Nightmares", entering a "mutual dream" by going to sleep in the same room. This is another episode which stresses the importance of unity the girls manage to survive the dream because they are together, as opposed to being attacked one by one. They succeed in trapping Nerissa in the Heart, and then wake up. However, they find she was only defeated in the realm of dreams, and that they still had to face her in reality.

Prince Phobos

Prince Phobos (simply known as Phobos ) is an evil prince and the most recurring antagonist in the comic book W.I.T.C.H. and the animated series of the same name.

In the comic book, he serves as the primary antagonist during the first story arc, and returns in the 4th story arc. In the animated series, he serves as the primary antagonist during the first season, and returns shortly before the end of the second season.

He was voiced by Mitchell Whitfeld.

Prince Phobos took the throne of the kingdom of Metaworld (known as Metamoor in the W.I.T.C.H. comic book series and Meridian in the W.I.T.C.H. TV series) after his parents' s disappearance some time prior to the opening chapter of the first story arc/season, and began to drain the life force of the people in order to fuel his own magical powers with the aim of becoming strong enough to take over other worlds. However, realizing that Phobos posed a great threat, the Council of Kandrakar, a realm at the center of the universe, raised a magical shield, known as the Veil around Metamoor, sealing Phobos inside and cutting it off from the rest of all other worlds.

During the first story arc/season Phobos' primary concern is finding his lost sister Elyon Brown, whose powers are equal to his own (In the comic book, according to both Phobos and the Oracle, Elyon is even stronger than Phobos himself) and was spirited away to Earth approximately 12 years prior, so that he can drain her life force and add it to his own. With her power, Phobos would be able to break through the Veil and begin his conquest of other worlds.

At first, Phobos is unaware of his sister's identity, and sends his minions to find her, first by searching through birth records, and then using a magical talisman known as the Star of Threbe. After finding her and successfully poisoning her mind against her friends and family, Phobos brings his sister to Metamoor and attempts to gain her trust for long enough to drain her of her powers. Despite successfully draining some of his sister's power, Phobos' plans are foiled by the Guardians during the final installment of the Metamoor story arc/Season one. He is exposed as a villain, and is imprisoned by Elyon after a heated magical duel over the control of Metamoor and the kingdom's fabled Crown of Light which is belongs only to the female rulers as the laws of Metamoor decreed.

Following his defeat in Season 1 of the animated series, Phobos was briefly released by the Knights of Vengeance early in season 2, but was defeated while attempting to retake the Royal palace of Metaworld/Meridian from Elyon. He returned again late in Season 2, when the Guardians realized that, as a heir to the throne of Meridian, he was able to break the rule that "A Heart cannot be taken by force", and release him in order to deprive Nerissa of her Seal (which incorporated the Heart of Meridian), on the condition that he surrender the Seal to them afterwards. However, Phobos breaks his vow and instead uses the Seal to reconquer Meridian. After retaking Meridian, Phobos sets his sights on Kandrakar, and is on the verge of taking it when he is betrayed by Lord Cedric, who swallows him whole, thus gaining his powers for his own. After Cedric's defeat, Phobos is returned to Elyon's dungeon. In the episode "V is for Victory", Phobos causes much confusion by glamouring Matt, Caleb and Blunk as himself such as when Blunk/ Phobos eats crickets and when Caleb/Phobos holds Cornelia's hand.

In the comic story arc "Trial of the Oracle", he became the new Oracle, as he was found to have used his negative emotions to switch minds with Endarno, who was the guardian of the Tower of Mists, the tower in Kandrakar where Phobos, Cedric, Frost, and many other villains were imprisoned in. Once he is restored to his rightful body by the Guardians, he realizes he has lost and leaps off of a balcony into the never-ending void beneath Kandrakar, declaring that he will "never be imprisoned again".

However, even he is unable to create portals that would link Earth and Meridian, as he himself stated in one episode, though he was able to create a portal to the enchanted painting the Guardians were trapped in, in hopes that his minions would go into the painting and finish off the Guardians (in the comic book, certain facts differ, such as the portal to the painting was an opening in the Veil, and Cedric was the one who opened the portal, though this leads to confusion, for if Cedric could make openings in the Veil, then it is surprising that Phobos cannot, and the Veil erected by Kandrakar is quite useless, and confusion is merely increased by more puzzling facts).

In the final confrontation against the Guardians, Phobos transforms Cedric into a red, more beastly monstrous version that is able to rival the combined strength of all five Guardians, though Will's quick thinking tricked Cedric into wearing the Crown of Light, thus draining the magic infused into him by Phobos away. Phobos also traps his sister Elyon in energy rings after using trickery to overpower her.

He has on numerous occasions proven to be a formidable opponent, wielding powers at least equal to those of his sister, Elyon. For example when he fought the Guardians of the Veil in the final episode of the Meridian story-arc he quickly defeated them and would have destroyed them, had Elyon not intervened. However he had stolen all of the power of Meridian and most of Elyon's powers. When he fought them again in the Nerissa story-arc he no longer possessed the power he had stolen from Elyon or Metamoor and still appeared to be more powerful than all of the Guardians put together.

He appears to be immortal as he has existed since the creation of the Veil which was created soon after the dawn of time. He is hinted to be the source of all evil in creation. Whilst he ruled Metamoor his power appeared to be so great that his moods affected the landscape of Metamoor and to a lesser extent Earth, because Earth and Metamoor are connected by Portals.

Lord Darkar

Lord Darkar is an antagonist in the Winx Club series, and the main antagonist in Season 2. He has also been called the Prince of Darkness by Miss Faragonda, but it is unknown whether he is the same Prince of Darkness mentioned by Darcy, when she first sees Riven and says that he has a level of negative energy equal to the Prince of Darkness. He only appears in Season 2, but makes a few cameo appearances in Season 3 and 4 (though only by name, flashback, and picture), and the season 5 trailer.

In the 4Kids version, his backstory has him as a man named Argulus who sought to control the shadow fire of Shadowhaunt and merged with it to become Lord Darkar. Also, in 4Kids, his name is known in the first episode of Season 2, while in the RAI version, his name is not mentioned until the season's seventh episode, when Faragonda deduces his identity.

In Season 2, he planned to obtain the Ultimate Power of the Realix. However, the portal to the Realix realm can only be opened by the four pieces of the Codex (One in each of the schools (Red Fountain, Alfea, Cloud Tower and in the Pixie Village). He held the pixies hostage to get them to reveal the location of the Pixie Village, but they refused. The princess of Andros, Aisha, despite her best efforts, could not save them, and was defeated by Darkar. She then got the Winx Club's help when they rescued her. Unfortunately, Darkar also got help from the Trix. He released the Trix from Lightrock Monastery (Roccaluce) to assist him in his quest and gave them Gloomix power.

When Bloom, Stella, Aisha, Sky and Brandon made their way to Darkar's castle to rescue the pixies, Darkar sent shadow monsters after them, who sent Brandon and Stella falling into a river thus separating them from the others. When Stella returned and killed the shadow monsters, Darkar was furious and caused an earthquake, forcing Bloom, Stella, Aisha, and Sky to retreat. However, they later found their way to Darkar's castle. After turning into a snake to interrogate the pixies, Darkar realized they would never tell him where Pixie Village was, so he secretly released them hoping that they would lead him there. He also created a clone of Avalon, whom he imprisoned in his dungeon, and had him fight the Trix off to gain the Winx's trust.

After being informed by his bat-like servant Kerborg, that the Codex was in four pieces, and where the other three were, Darkar set his sights on the Codex of Red Fountain. He transformed Kerborg into a monster as a distraction so the Trix could steal the Codex, but they were unable to do so, and the specialists defeated Kerborg. When the state of alert at Red Fountain was lowered, the Trix tried to steal the Codex again, and this time were successful.

Then Darkar took another shot at the Pixie Village codex when the false Avalon cast a homesickness spell on the pixies so they would return to Pixie Village, during which Darkar sent two shadow monsters, one of which was Multi-Mouth Monster, to follow them. When the Winx (minus Bloom, who was researching a counterspell) tracked the pixies down, Stella killed the two monsters, but Multi-Mouth Monster exploded into slime all over the Winx, preventing them from flying. When Bloom arrived, it became a race between her and Darkar as to whether she would reach the pixies before they reached Pixie Village. In the end, Bloom removed the homesickness spell in time, and Darkar was forced to accept defeat for the time being.

A while later, Darkar sent the Trix to steal the Codex of Cloud Tower, and they were successful. To get Alfea's Codex, he made the false Avalon, who was teaching at Alfea, put a shadow virus on Bloom to turn her into Dark Bloom. Darkar then used her as his puppet to get the Alfea's part of the Codex. Then the false Avalon faked illness so Livy would go to Pixie Village for the antidote, and Darkar sent Icy to follow her to Pixie Village and get the final piece of the Codex. Icy succeeded with the help of her two sisters: Darcy and Stormy.

With all four pieces of the Codex, Darkar attempted to open the gate to Realix, but was unsuccessful, as opening the portal requires both light and darkness, so he needed Bloom and her Dragon Flame for the light to counter his power of darkness. Darkar sent the Trix to capture Bloom, but they were unsuccessful, so Darkar ordered Avalon's shadow clone to abduct Bloom, though the real Avalon escaped his dungeon shortly before. Darkar transformed Bloom into Dark Bloom again, which made the Trix jealous. When the other Winx and the specialists went to his castle to rescue Bloom, Darkar ordered the Trix to give their Gloomix to the monsters to give them a chance (this was later countered by the Winx).

The Trix confronted Darkar, saying they did all the work for him. Darkar confirmed their suspicions that they had only been his pawns and were useless to him now that he had the Codex and Bloom, and he banished them to the Dark Void: Oblivion. He turned Kerborg into a monster to guard the portal while he and Dark Bloom opened it and entered Realix. While the others were held up fighting shadow monsters, and Faragonda, Griffin, and Codatorta killed Kerborg, Stella and Aisha entered Realix to face Darkar, since Stella's light magic was most effective against Darkar and Aisha had fought him before.

While Dark Bloom chanted an incantation to awaken the Ultimate Power, Darkar fought Stella and Aisha as a distraction. Stella and Aisha used Convergence and seemingly destroyed Darkar, but he survived and trapped them in dark slime. Then the other Winx and the specialists arrived, but Darkar gained the upper hand on them. When he directed a lethal magic attack at Musa, Riven took the hit for her. Then the Trix escaped from Oblivion, fused into one body, and fought Darkar over the ultimate power. At first, the Trix had the advantage, but then they attempted to take the Ultimate Power, Darkar blasted them in the back and knocked them out.

When Dark Bloom awakened the Ultimate Power, Darkar transformed into the Shadow Phoenix and began absorbing the Ultimate Power. However, Sky told Bloom that he loved her, and the love for him in her heart caused her to use her healing power on herself and the others, returning to her original self while destroying the Ultimate Power. Darkar attempted to kill everyone for foiling his plans, but Faragonda and Griffin projected a shield around them, and together, all six of the Winx used a Charmix Convergence to destroy Darkar once and for all.

His Castle collapsed after he was destroyed, probably because it was his Evil powers which maintained in it. Presumably all of his shadow monsters, including the Avalon clone, were destroyed as well.

It can, however, be questioned whether Lord Darkar is really dead or not since, in the second episode of Season 2, Professor Wizgiz said that everything needs to have an equal opposite to continue existing and to maintain the balance of the Universe and that a power's opposite is automatically created along with itself.

This means that the Shadow Phoenix and the Great Dragon were born at the same time and that they also need each other to counter each other's powers and maintain the balance of the Universe. It could be that his power or his essence still exists in a disembodied form, maintaining the balance of the Magic Dimension by countering the power of the Dragon Fire (similar to the Great Dragon: while the Dragon itself no longer exists, its power still exists in the disembodied form of the Dragon Flame which has been passed down through generations of the Royal Family of Domino; also, when Valtor is destroyed in the 4Kids version, Faragonda says his essence is sealed in the dark dimension, meaning his power was not destroyed even though he was). This could mean that after his death, Darkar's disembodied power is sealed in Oblivion while maintaining the balance.

Darkar does not physically appear in Seasons 3 and 4 due to his death in Season 2, but is mentioned a few times, the first of which a flashback is shown in which his tails and wings are visible. In Season 4, pictures of all the enemies of the magic dimension are seen on a wall, including Darkar.

In Winx Club: The Shadow Phoenix, Lord Darkar appears in Alfea under the name of Professor Avalon. This is the Nickelodeon version of Darkar, as this film is the Nickelodeon version of Season 2.

Valtor

Valtor ( Baltor in the 4Kids version) is a major antagonist in the Winx Club series, and the main antagonist of Season's 3 and 8. He is also the third villain (the other two were Lord Darkar and, collectively, The Trix).

In the original Italian dub, he was voiced by Guido Di Naccio in Season 3 and he later reprised his role in Season 8. In the Cinélume dub, he was voiced by Cedric Kühle. In the 4Kids dub, he was voiced by Sean Schemmel, who also voiced Black Doom and Goku Black. In the Atlas Oceanic dub, he was voiced by Josh Keaton. And in Season 8, he was voiced by Henry F. Benjamin.

Valtor is a strong wizard who would love to do nothing more than to become the strongest wizard of them all. He turns people into monsters that are willingly to serve for him.

Like Bloom, he was born from the Dragon Fire but unlike Bloom however, Valtor was born from the Fire's dark side.

He was with the Ancestral Witches when they destroyed Domino. He was once a companion of Ms. Griffin when they were young. It was at this time when he met Bloom's parents who were both stronger than him.

He was sent to the Omega Dimension the day Domino was defeated. There he was frozen, intended for eternity, and was awake while frozen.

When the Trix were sent to the Omega Dimension, they released Valtor, intending to offer him up to the security snakes in their place. However, he destroyed the snakes and escaped the Omega Dimension along with the Trix, making them his minions. He took over Andros (Tides in 4Kids dub) and corrupted many mermaids, turning them into his minions while adding their power to his. His minions were branded with his symbol. To increase his power, Valtor would go to different planets and absorb their energy. The Trix would often compete with each other for his favor.

Valtor made a deal with Chimera and Cassandra to help them deal with their rival, Stella, in exchange for their eternal allegiance. Cassandra put a spell on Stella's father, King Radius, to turn him against her and make Chimera princess of Solaria, but Stella later broke the spell. Valtor recognized Bloom and confronted her on Andros, but he did not wish to fight her when she was too tired to fight, as it would not be satisfying. When Layla confronted him, he cast a spell to blind her, although she was later able to reverse this. Valtor also gave Sky's ex-fiancee Diaspro a potion to put Sky under a spell to make him love Diaspro and attack Bloom; however, Stella broke this spell and Diaspro was banished.

Valtor eventually decided he didn't want Andros as his base anymore so he relocated to Cloud Tower, taking it over, imprisoning Griffin, and brainwashing the other witches into "zombie witches". He later decided to destroy Andros by opening a portal to mix its positive energy with the Omega Dimension's negative energy. He was content to leave the brainwashed mermaids to die with Andros, viewing them as expendable. Tecna was able to close the portal, though she was trapped in the Omega Dimension in the process (although she later escaped with the help of the Winx and specialists).

Because of this, Bloom, Stella, Flora, Musa, and Layla sought revenge on Valtor. They confronted him at Cloud Tower and fought him, but he gained the upper hand, telling Bloom that he killed her parents Oritel and Miriam. This gave Bloom further motivation for revenge, however, using a spell he gained from Planet Oppositus, he turned her fire into ice and froze her with it. Faragonda, Griffin, and Saladin arrived to fight him while the other Winx released Bloom and Stella teleported them out, causing Valtor's next attack to hit the Trix instead.

Valtor eventually relocated to a new base, in a cave in the forest. He later challenged Faragonda, Griffin, and Saladin to a battle, but made them fight each other with an illusion while trying to steal the scrolls from Alfea. Bloom defeated him with the Water Stars, which are the opposite power of dragon fire. But before Bloom could kill Valtor, he told her that Oritel and Miriam were really trapped inside him due to an absorption spell he cast, and destroying him would do the same to them. Although Valtor escaped, Bloom later heard from the Ancient Witches that this was a lie, and her parents were really in another dimension.

Using the Spell of the Elements, Valtor flooded Cloud Tower, sent tornadoes at Red Fountain, set the forest around Alfea on fire, and caused an earthquake at Magix. The Winx fought Valtor below the lakebed but he transformed into a demon and used a talisman to control the power of the water stars and use them against Bloom. However, Bloom used fairy dust to open the box he contained his spells in, undoing all his spells. When the lakebed returned and the cave began to flood, the Trix abandoned Valtor, who was seemingly killed when the cave flooded.

However, Valtor returned and captured most of the specialists, imprisoning them in Tides while controlling elements - having held onto the Spell of the Elements - to take the forms of them and fight the Winx. These clones disappeared when Bloom knocked Valtor out with a fireball. The Ancient Witches, unable to act on the outside world from the dark world but able to act on Valtor, cast a spell to take away his wizard form and turn him back into a demon forever. Bloom separated her flame from her and entered that of Valtor, where Valtor appeared and attempted to get Bloom to work with him against the Ancient Witches, but she declined his offer and used fairy dust to extinguish his flame, destroying him.

In the 4Kids version, Bloom uses fairy dust upon entering Baltor's mind, but this only removes the Ancient Witches' spell. After Baltor tries to make the deal, Bloom says her dragon fire will fight Baltor's dragon fire until one is put out, and extinguishes Baltor's flame with Dragon Fire Fury, destroying him and sealing his essence in oblivion.

Queen Beryl

Queen Beryl is the main antagonist of the first arc of the Sailor Moon series. She is the Queen of the Dark Kingdom and a servant to the entity known as Queen Metalia. She is also Sailor Moon's arch-nemesis.

Once a member of the Earth Kingdom, fell in love with Prince Endymion but was heartbroken to find that he loved Princess Serenity of the Moon Kingdom. This lead to Beryl crossing paths with Queen Metalia, who offered to give her the mean to exact revenge by declaring open war on Silver Millennium itself. Ultimately, having gathered a large majority of Earth Kingdom residents to join her campaign, Beryl ended up killing Endymion in a fit of rage before Queen Serenity put a stop to Metalia's evil.

However, Beryl reincarnated in present day and was subconsciously guided to the ruins of the Earth Kingdom at D-Point in the Arctic. There, Beryl undid Serenity's seal on Metalia and regained her memories as she established the Dark Kingdom with Endymion's four knights Jadiete, Nephrite, Zoicite, and Kunzite as her Four Kings of Heaven. While claiming to seek the Legendary Silver Crystal for Metalia, using the being's power to revive Endymion as her thrall, Beryl actually intended to betray her benefactor and use the crystal's power for her own agenda. But Beryl was killed when Sailor Moon used the Moon Kingdom's sacred blade to destroy the necklace that bound Beryl to the mortal coil.

During the first half of Sailor Moon, Beryl was trying to gather energy for Queen Metallia. She sent Jadiete (Jadeite) to steal energy from people, but Jadeite's plans kept getting foiled by the Sailor Scouts. In Episode 10, Jedite fought them himself but was defeated, and as punishment, Beryl condemned him to eternal sleep and sent Neflite (Nephrite) to gather energy. Neflite's plans were foiled every time, but starting from Episode 18, Beryl began looking for the Imperium Silver Crystal. After the death of Neflite, Zoycite (Zoisite) was given the task of finding the crystal.

Using Neflite's Black Crystal, Zoycite tracked down the seven people with the Rainbow Crystals inside them, though some were taken by Tuxedo Mask, and one by Sailor Moon. Beryl also wanted Tuxedo Mask, who was really Prince Darien/Endymion, on her side, but Zoycite tried to kill him in revenge for scratching his face, so Beryl killed Zoycite as punishment for disobeying her. Afterward, Beryl and the Negaforce turned Darien (Mamoru) evil. However, by this time the Rainbow Crystals had combined into the Silver Crystal, which Sailor Moon, who was really Princess Serena, possessed now.

From this point on, Beryl's fourth and strongest general Malachite (Kunzite) tried to find and kill Sailor Moon to take the crystal from her. He failed each time, and was eventually killed by Sailor Moon. In the final episode (which proceedes its sequel series, Sailor Moon R, though it is often treated as a second season instead of a different show), the 5 Sailor Scouts headed over to the Dark Kingdom to stop Beryl, but Sailor Jupiter, Sailor Mercury, Sailor

Venus, and Sailor Mars were all defeated by the Doom and Gloom Girls, who are themselves killed by the Sailor Scouts in the process.

Beryl teleported Sailor Moon to the Dark Kingdom where she commanded Endymion to fight her, but she found a way of healing him and as Beryl threw a gigantic crystal shard at them, Darien threw his signature rose attack at her, seriously injuring her, but also fatally injures Darien. In the original uncut, Queen Beryl then berates Darien for protecting Sailor Moon and for not choosing her until her skin where the rose hit begins cracking like porcelain. She realized that the rose is his energy for the love of Sailor Moon. Queen Beryl then sinks to the floor, yelling "I refuse-I refuse to believe that!" The Negaforce gave Beryl a final chance and combined with her, transforming her into a giant form, but Sailor Moon transformed into the Moon Princess and used Cosmic Moon Power, creating a giant energy ball that destroyed Queen Beryl.

Doom & Gloom Girls

The Doom and Gloom Girls (sometimes called " DD Girls ") are a group of five Negamonsters who work for Queen Beryl and villains in the Sailor Moon series.

In Episode 40 " Day of Destiny ", the Sailor Scouts were on their way to the Negaverse through its possible entrance to fight Queen Beryl. When Queen Beryl asks her Youma subjects which of them would like to dispose of the Sailor Scouts and earn their place in Negaverse history, the Doom and Gloom Girls appear and volunteer for the job. They tried to trick Sailor Moon by disguising themselves as Tuxedo Mask, trapped, and nearly succeeded in trapping Sailor Moon, even though the others knew it was a trick. They then tricked Sailor Jupiter into thinking that they were Andrew, and then they trapped her with metal wires. They pulled her into a hole, killing her, but not before she destroyed two of them (the red one and the blue one) with Jupiter Thunder Crush.

Their next target was Sailor Mercury. The three remaining Doom and Gloom Girls disguised themselves as Greg, but she was able to see through the illusion. But they managed to trap her anyway and kill her, but not before Mercury destroyed the crystal on one of the girls that allowed her to create the illusions in the first place.

Afterwards, they attempted to get Sailor Moon from under the ground, but she was pushed out of the way by Sailor Venus, who was trapped instead. She managed to kill the pink one with a Venus Crescent Beam Smash to the face, before apparently dying herself.

Afterwards, the two remaining girls captured Sailor Mars in a huge pile of rubble, where Rei destroyed them with Mars Fire Ignite, but at the cost of her own life. Only Sailor Moon by this time is left alive to continue her quest to take on Beryl, drastically reducing her fighting force.

After the death of Queen Beryl and the Negaforce, the four Sailor Scouts reappeared, with their memories of being Sailor Scouts erased just like Serena. However, their memories would later return in Sailor Moon R when a new threat emerges.

The Trix

Icy, Darcy and Stormy, also known collectively as The Trix, are the overall main antagonists in the series Winx Club . They are known as the " Senior Witches ", or more commonly, just " The Witches ", in the English version. They consist of three young witches named Icy, Darcy, and Stormy.

The Trix are the main antagonists in Season 1 the secondary antagonists in Seasons 2, 3, 5, and 6 (as well as Magical Adventure ), and return as the Bigger Bads and final antagonists in Season 7. They do not appear physically in season 4.

The Trix are the descendants of the Ancestral Witches (Three Ancient Witches in the 4Kids version) who destroyed Bloom's home planet, Domino ( Sparks in the 4Kids version), and created Valtor ( Baltor in the 4Kids version).

At the beginning of the first season, the Trix seemed to be more powerful than the Winx Club (with the exception of Bloom), as seen in the episode Spelled where they were able to get the better of the fight, and would have won had Bloom not intervened. For most of the first season, they attended the Cloud Tower School for Witches until they are all expelled after they created the Nightmare Monster in the episode The Nightmare Monster that failed to accomplish its purpose. The Trix stole the Dragonfire and summoned the Army of Darkness/Army of Decay to take over the realm of Magix, but Bloom defeated Icy with her dragon fire while the other Winx defeated Darcy and Stormy.

For the next two seasons they had powerful allies. After being sent to Lightrock Monastery, in the second season it was the infamous Lord Darkar who released them and gave them their Gloomix to increase their power. Darkar double-crossed the Trix in the end before he was killed and they were imprisoned in the Omega Dimension. In the third season, they joined up with Valtor and the three witches competed for his affections, before finally leaving him when he assumed his original, demon-like form and lost all the spells he had stolen when he was fighting Bloom in the 25th episode. Afterward they are sent back to Lightrock Monastery.

They returned again in the second movie, where they sneak into Alfea during the beginning of year festivities, putting a spell on all the food there so that everyone who ate some of it was turned into a toad, and stealing a magical compass which they used to lead the Ancestral Witches to the Tree of Life found in the Pixie Village. The Ancestresses proceeded to absorb all the essence of Good from the Tree, causing all good magic to disappear, and only evil magic to keep on existing. At the end of the movie, the Winx Club, the Specialists, Oritel and Erendor arrive at the haunted city of Havram to find the branch of the Tree of Life which the Ancestresses gave to the king of Eraklyon as part of the deal which forced him to help the Ancestral Witches in exchange for their sparing his kingdom. There, the Trix and their Ancestresses were waiting for them, but the Winx Club girls gained back their powers and Bloom's horse, Peg, became a flying unicorn thanks to the magical branch. Finding the Trix too weak to defeat the Winx Club, the Ancestresses try to possess the Trix, but they attempt to flee as the old witches capture them and possess their bodies. The Trix, now possessed by their ancestors, have become more powerful than ever, as well as mere puppets possessed by the Ancestral Witches. The Winx, the Specialists, Oritel and Erendor take part in the battle, but Erendor is severely wounded trying to save Bloom from Icy-Belladone. Finally, using a Believix convergence, the Winx Club are able to summon the essence of the Great Dragon and extract the Ancestresses from the bodies of the Trix. The Great Dragon's power destroys the Ancestral Witches for good, and the Trix, defeated, fall unconscious to the ground. Helia ties them with a rope and, as the movie ends, they are shown as being suspended from the flying ship the Winx, the Specialists, Oritel and Erendor use to leave Havram, getting angry as Bloom and her fiends fly around them and tease them.

Kymraw

Kymraw is a recurring character of Mysticons . She first appears in Episode Three, "The Coronation"; the only female troll in the series, and the first villain in the graphic novel series very first volume.

At the estate, we were having the Nurse Joy from the Orange Islands shown around. This was the strongest out of all the Nurse Joy's that Ash and friends met.

Maria: It's awesome having you with us Nurse Joy.

O.I. Nurse Joy: It's an honor to be here Maria. I'm just glad to get away from the island hopping to be in the city.

Laney: Ash told me that you are the strongest out of all the Nurse Joy's that he and his friends met.

O.I. Nurse Joy: That's right.

Me: It's really cool having you with us. I heard that you can lift up a huge bunch of Magikarp.

O.I. Nurse Joy: (Giggles) Work out a lot.

Homer and Bart came in.

Bart: Hey guys.

Me: Hey Bart. Hey Homer.

Homer: Guys, have me and Bart ever showed you a video that was filmed in Ned's house?

Me: Uh oh. I remember seeing that on TV. And I don't want to watch it!

I covered my eyes as Homer put it on.

O.I. Nurse Joy: Why am I not going to like what I'm about to see?

Me: Trust me, you won't.

Later some of us were watching the video and I had my eyes covered and some of us were ecstatic and cringing and Stewie was scared.

Stewie: AHH AHH AHH! OH GOD! OH GOD! OH GOD!

Poromon: Poliwag, I need to pee, but I can't stop watching. Fetch me a bottle.

Poliwag: Come on, Poromon. I've seen you hit the toilet from here.

Reflector: (Sees the video) I'm confused. Why does that count as pornography?

Me: Don't know and I don't give a crap. As long as Nicole doesn't beat the living shit out of me I don't care.

Stewie: SOMEBODY PUT ME THE FUCK OUT OF MY MISERY!

Nico: AHHH! MY EYES! THEY'RE BURNING!

Ty Lee (sees the porn video): That's just a waste of good point.

Poromon: Hubba hubba!

First Aid: (to Manaphy and Horsea) Don't you two have anything to say about this?

Horsea and Manaphy were jawdropped.

Rainbow Dash: That is disgusting! (VOMITS RAINBOW VOMIT ALL OVER ME!)

Me: AW SICK!

Lincoln hurled his guts all over Lana!

Lana: AWESOME!

Horsea: AH BRA AH BRA!

Manaphy: How can Ned have allowed this to happen in his home!?

Horsea: Just what I was about to say!

Bart: So? Wasn't that an awesome video?

Me: DON'T CARE!

I saw that I was covered in Rainbow vomit.

Me: OH YUCK! Wait a second? Rainbow Vomit? I thought that was a silly internet meme.

Rainbow Dash: Sorry J.D.

Rainbow Dash looked green around the gills.

Nicole then came and she was glaring red eyes of hate at Homer and Bart!

May: (to Homer) Wait. Didn't that force Ned to move away to somewhere else for a while?

Homer: Hmm come to think of it. Yes.

Nicole: Start praying perverts! (Cracks Knuckles)

Later Homer and Bart were in full body casts in the infirmary courtesy of Nicole. She beat the living crap out of Homer and Bart.

Homer: OH! I had to do a stupid thing like this!

Bart: OW!

Nico later just healed Homer and Bart of the injuries caused by Nicole.

Nico: Next time, don't show that video to us. (smirks) But you did give us new material to use against people like Marge.

Me: I have a feeling I know what you're gonna do Nico. But yeah. And Homer?

Homer: Yeah?

POW!

I punched Homer in the eye.

Homer: DOW! OW!

Me: That was for showing us that video!

Homer: I deserved that.

Me: Show that video to us again and a punch to the face and winding up in the infirmary will be the least of your worries!

Bart: (GULP)

Nelson: HA HA!

---

Later I put that video on a flash drive and put it in our safe with a keychain on it that said "Do Not View. EVER!"

We were watching TV and Lincoln and Rainbow Dash were having lunch after losing theirs.

Lincoln: That was so gross.

Rainbow Dash: I know. Sorry I threw up on you J.D.

Me: No worries Rainbow. But I didn't know that Pegasi could throw up rainbows. I thought that was an internet meme.

Rainbow Dash: I didn't know about that either.

Nico: Yeah. But now I see that Nicole means business against perverts.

Rarity: She sure does. That is amazing that she hates perverts so much.

Me: Yeah.

Fuse Man: Guys, we might want to check where we threw all the Evil Sasukes that we faced.

Me: Why what's going on?

King Kai then called me.

King Kai: J.D. can you hear me!?

Me: King Kai! What's going on!?

King Kai: All the Evil Sasuke's you all faced over the last 4 years have all escaped from Hell and are now causing problems in the Hidden Leaf!

We gasped!

Me: But we made sure that they don't have their powers.

King Kai: Maybe so but they are still causing problems.

Me: We're on our way!

Cargill, Dai Gui, Patty & Selma, Comic Book Guy, Chalmers and Rich Texan then appeared.

Cargill: Can me, Dai Gui, Patty & Selma, Comic Book Guy, Chalmers, and Rich Texan help you out with this?

Me: The more the merrier.

Selma & Patty: Sorry you all had to see that video guys.

Me: I had my eyes covered. Lets roll!

We were off to the Leaf Village.

Notacon: How the Hell did all the Evil Sasukes get out in the first place?!

Me: No idea but that's what really concerns me. But they are gonna be after me the most because I trained you all to kill them. They know that I am the one that dealt the most humiliation to them. Now they will come after me to get revenge on me.

Nico: Then we have to kill them and banish them to the Warp.

Me: Yep.

We arrived at the gates of the Leaf.

Me: Stay alert everyone.

Dai Gui: They don't have their powers. So we should be able to kill at least half of them.

Me: Be my guest. But after we rough them up first and reduce their numbers. It's me they're gonna be after.

Mikoto: And I will help you J.D. I brought those monsters in this world and now it's time for me to take them out!

Me: And we'll help you.

Rainbow Dash: This is gonna be cool.

Me: The hunt is on.

We went into the village and we saw that no one was on the streets.

Nico: Where is everybody?

Me: They're hiding in the Hokage Mountain for protection. It serves as their evacuation fort in case of emergencies.

Lincoln: I remember that.

Nicole: Me too. Clever.

Jack Spicer saw a tree.

Jack Spicer: I'll go up in one of the trees so I can use my blaster to kill any Evil Sasukes that pass by here.

Me: Be careful Jack. They may be powerless but they are still as fucked up, egotistical and megalomaniacal as ever.

Sasuke Uchiha: I just can't believe I was like that.

Me: Stay alert everyone and stay hidden. We don't want them to see us until the time comes.

Nico: Right.

We got to hiding and we were waiting and we were also on the roofs of the buildings.

THE HUNT WAS ON!

We were waiting and we had our radio systems on.

Me: (Whispers) Boy this reminds me of the Capture Tora Mission. Except we're hunting Evil Sasukes.

Naruto: (Whispers) No kidding.

Selma: (to Spicer) Spicer, one of them's walking this way. Take it out with a head shot before he spots us!

Jack: Right.

He got his blaster turned into a sniper rifle and he was ready to fire.

He had the Evil Sasuke's head caught in the cross-hairs.

Jack: Here's your warning: Your fucking ass is going back to hell.

BANG!

He blasted the Evil Sasuke's head clean off his shoulders and killed him.

Me: Bullseye.

We went over to the dead Evil Sasuke.

Blast Man: Let's bury this Evil Sasuke somewhere the others won't find him.

Me: No. We have to destroy this one's body and banish his soul into the warp.

Lola: I got this.

Lola fired a blast of fire and incinerated his body and then his evil spirit appeared and I banished it to the Warp.

Me: Good work Lola. Lets keep the hunt going.

Comic Book Guy: We need to be very quiet. Like how Batman does it.

Me: (Whisper) Right. Stay close and if you see any evil Sasuke's, kill them on sight.

Nico: Right.

Vince: (To the viewers) Shh. (Imitating Elmer Fudd) Be vewy vewy quiet. We're hunting evil Sasuke's. Hahahahahahaha.

Me: Nice Elmer Fudd imitation partner. Lets go.

We continued on.

Sandpit was disguising himself as sand as an Evil Sasuke walked by.

Sandpit: That's it. Come closer.

He stepped on Sandpit and then Sandpit grabbed him and pulled him into the ground and crushed him and blood seeped out of him and his Evil Spirit appeared and he Hakaied him.

Later we regrouped.

Chalmers: Alright. We've killed half of them. Let's go to somewhere safe to plan our next move.

Me: Right.

We went to Naruto's house and it would take a miracle for him to get inside the Namikaze estate.

Me: Boy bro I forgot how nice your mansion is.

Naruto: I know.

Eli: It sure is awesome.

Sakura Haruno: It sure has been a while since you all were here.

Fu: Yeah it sure has been a while huh?

Me: I know.

Nico: It sure is a nice place.

Me: It sure is. Now we banish the rest to the planet where I fought the Evil Sasuke that the Masters of Evil attempted to recruit.

Mewtwo: Let me sense how many are remaining.

Me: Okay.

Mewtwo concentrated and he found 15 of them left.

Mewtwo: There's 15 of them left. We killed 15 of them.

Me: So 30 of them were roaming around. After we have one Evil Sasuke left, let's all get him after I rough him up with the full extent of my power.

Rich Texan: You guys can have the usual battles now. After that, we'll go after the rest of the Evil Sasukes.

Me: Okay but you guys already had your turn.

That's when Snake, Wiggum, Cantwell, Krusty, Springfield Mafia and the Springfield Bullies appeared.

Krusty: Hey hey kiddies! (Goofy laughter)

Me: Snake, Chief Wiggum, Cantwell, Krusty, Springfield Mafia and the Springfield Bully Trio.

Sophie Krustovsky: Hey daddy?

Krusty: Hey sweetie.

Snake: Heard you guys saw that video that got filmed at Ned's house.

Maria: We did. And it wasn't a nice sight.

Krusty: When I watched that video when it first got uploaded, I didn't think it was that bad.

Cantwell: (scowls) Well, I saw that video a few weeks ago. And I didn't like it!

Me: I had my eyes covered the entire time and Homer and Bart got the living shit beaten out of them by Nicole.

Homer: It's true.

Rainbow: And I threw up all over J.D.

Me: Pegasi have rainbow vomit.

Cantwell: I thought that was just part of an internet meme.

Me: I was thinking exactly the same thing.

Naruto: I have an awesome hidden training ground here in my house that we can use for our usual battles.

Me: That's perfect bro. Lets head down there.

We went downstairs and we got to the hidden training grounds and we saw it was huge!

Me: WHOA!

Nicole: Wow! I didn't know this was here.

Nico: It's huge!

Apple Bloom: Wow! This training ground is huge!

Naruto: Yep. We made this room and modify it with Sealing Jutsu to make it look like any environment and any place.

Me: Wow! A shinobi version of our simulator back at home.

Fu: That's amazing!

Lincoln: This is so cool!

Carol: It sure is.

Eli: This is gonna be so awesome!

Linka: Yeah!

Then a vortex of water shot out of one of the walls and out of it came the mermaid Cardian: AMPHIBIA!

---

Amphibia is the eighth Cardian that Alan and Ann send to gather energy for the Doom Tree. Instead of legs, she has a fish-like tail, and her pink hair can extend and constrict enemies and drain their energy. She appeared in Sailor Moon R Episode 8, Raye's Day in the Spotlight .

Alan and Ann summoned Amphibia at the Autumn Festival after raising the audience's energy level when Sarah Howe convinced them to dress up as aliens for the fashion show. Amphibia made everyone fall asleep with a strange powder, but Serena, Amy, Raye, Lita, and Mina escaped the attack. Amphibia used her hair to drain Raye's energy, but the others transformed and stopped her. Amphibia began draining their energy, but Raye transformed into Sailor Mars and stopped her attack with Mars Fire Ignite; however, this was not enough to destroy her. Just then, Moonlight Knight appeared and stopped Amphibia's attack. When she swung her tail and knocked over the music that Raye worked so hard on, Sailor Mars used a new technique, the Mars Firebird Strike, to damage Amphibia and restore the other Sailor Scouts' energy. Sailor Moon then destroyed Amphibia with her scepter.

---

Sailor Moon: What the!?

Amphibia: (to Sailor Moon) So, it seems you took care of Beryl and her lackeys. Congratulations. But let's see if you can defeat the likes of me!

Shanan: I didn't expect a Sirenian to appear.

Qin: What are Sirenians?

Shanan: They are mermaid creatures from the planet Aquarios IX. It's an ocean planet located in the galaxy Centaurus A and the Sirenians are a benevolent mermaid race that are friends to all. But something turned them into an evil and ruthless race of savage bloodthirsty monsters.

Me: Whoa!

Qin: That's horrible!

Shanan: I sense that Ann and Alan are behind this! Now we have to stop them from gathering energy to give to the Doom Tree.

Lincoln: Who are Ann and Alan?

Shanan: Two nasty people. Alan is not that bad as he loves exploring our planets culture. But Ann has a really rotten temper and hates everything. They are two Naturmanites from the distant destroyed planet of Naturma Prime.

Shanan told us about them.

---

Alan and Ann are minor anime filler villains who appeared in the 90s anime adaptation of Sailor Moon R . They were main villains in the early portion of the anime. Although in roles of villains, they were far more misguided than actually evil.

Unaware of their full origins, Ali and Ann were the sole surviving members of a race that were born from the Hell Tree who desired company on its home world and nourished its children with love. But the alien race grew greedy and eventually driven themselves to near extinction with the Hell Tree leaving the dead world with the young Ali and Ann. But the Hell Tree grew weak so Ali and Ann, who were unaware that it needed love to survive, came to Earth and assumed human identities to steal life energy from humans to save the tree and ultimately themselves.

Eventually, the Sailor Guardians discovered Ali and Ann's true identities, and they fought them in the Hell Tree's room as the aliens deemed Usagi to be the one they needed. But the Hell Tree, driven mad from the aliens' attempt to save it, lashes out with Ann fatally wounded protecting Ali. But Sailor Moon convinces the Hell Tree to stop and allow her to purify it after the tree reveals the history of Ali and Ann's people and that love is it need to live. Once healed, the seed containing the Hell Tree revives Ann as she and Ali leave Earth to start anew elsewhere in the universe.

Me: So now we have 2 misguided Naturmanites trying to revive their tree. Poor guys.

Nico: Yeah. But if we find it we can revive it for them.

Lincoln: Yep.

Sailor Earth: Maybe we can have Earth be their home.

Nico: I was just about to suggest that.

Me: Yeah. (Realizes something) Wait a second. The Naturmanites. (Gasp) Fiore! He was one of them.

Nico: Oh man! I didn't know that.

Me: Yeah. But the man that I knew as my friend is now gone all because of the Kisenian Blossom.

Lincoln: I'm sorry J.D.

Me: It's not your fault Lincoln. But I have a chance now to save more of his kind from destruction.

Nico: And we can help you out.

Me: Yep. But we'll worry about that later. Lets get the battles over with.

Snake: Lets do it dude.

They went for the usual battles.

Sunset Shimmer: It can be really tough picking out of a lot of people. I love Flash Sentry.

Luster Dawn: Oh sorry. I'm Luster Dawn. I'm Princess Twilight Sparkle's Protégée from the future. She sent me here to join the Knights of the Friendship Table to help out and make friends with everyone on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Legs: (gasps) Boss, don't say that!

Louie: Yeah! How were you supposed to know what was going to happen?

Fat Tony: (sadly) Don't make excuses for me! If I had been a better relative to Lorenzo, maybe he wouldn't have ended up in Sartorius' clutches!

Sora T.: Tony it's not your fault. This was a malevolent extraterrestrial entity that appeared out of nowhere. You had no way of knowing that this was going to happen.

Phoenixmon: Sora is right. This totally happened without warning.

Jimbo: Dude, what brought this on?

Dolph: Yeah. Your kid's pretty much fine without a girlfriend so far.

Kearney: I know. But he can't stay a kid forever. Eventually, he'll need to take the first steps to being a grown up.

Sam S.L.: There's still plenty of time for that. That's what we all must be prepared for in the future.

Applejack: Yeah and come to think of it I should start looking for a boyfriend myself.

Apple Bloom: I still have all the time in the world to think about that.

Babs Seed: Me too cousin.

Apple Fritter: I do too.

Princess Luna: That's really interesting. So whenever one of the Cardians are destroyed they turn back into cards.

Princess Amore: And into this big pile of dust.

Flurry Heart: It's diamond dust.

Twilight Sparkle: That's sure cool.

* * *

We had the usual battles done.

Me: Now that the usual battles are done we can resume the hunt and go after the rest of those evil Sasuke douchebags.

I pulled out a scroll and unsealed a bunch of rifles and guns.

Me: Lock and load guys.

We got all our weapons and Hunting Season was back on.

Me: It's time to hunt.

We went out and got back to hunting. We saw a bunch of Evil Sasuke's together and Nico landed by them.

Nico: (to the Evil Sasukes) Hey there, Evil Sasukes! Notice some of you missing?! (uses Overload's electricity on some of the Evil Sasukes)

They were electrocuted into ash and Hakaied.

I came out and tied the rest of them up from neck to toe.

Me: Hello assfuckers. 150,000 years too early to see me again huh?

The Evil Sasukes all glared at me with eyes glowing red with ferocious fury.

Me: (Baby Talk) Aww did I make the duck haired asswipes mad?

Everyone snickered.

Evil Sasuke: YOU FUCKING CUR! YOU RUINING MY LIFE!

Me: And I show no remorse for it you fuckhead.

Evil Sasuke: WHY CAN'T YOU JUST DIE AND GO TO HELL LIKE I WANT?! ALL I WANT WAS THE POWER TO KILL ITACHI AND YOU! AND YOU WOULDN'T LET ME!

Me: Because you are nothing but a useless spoiled brat that cared about no one other than himself. All you cared about is megalomania and your own delusional ambitions.

Evil Sasuke: I HATE YOU MORE THAN ALL THE LIFE ON THIS FUCKING PLANET AND THIS FUCKING VILLAGE!

My aura then flared up with incredibly explosive power!

Me: Thanks for the power boost you worthless fuckmonger!

Goku: I can't believe you take such incredible delight into hurting others. Your own selfish desires, overconfidence, arrogance, ambitions and sadistic pleasures will be your undoing Sasuke. You see, when you did all the things you've done over the years, you live in fear because you know that someday your life will be taken because of them. We all have to reap what we sow Sasuke. There's no getting away from it. When you hurt others you're really only hurting yourself. It's simple. If you want good things to happen to you, you have to be good.

Evil Sasuke: YOU SHUT YOUR FUCKING TRAP YOU MONKEY!

Vegeta threw a rock at him and it hit him in the back of the head.

Vegeta: I would listen to him if I were you. More often than not the things Kakarot says come to pass. But I know it's gonna take more than talk to change your mind. I had to learn the hard way myself.

Nico: That's right. My people have always been arrogant and brutal for generations. But look what happened to them because of it. Most of them died when Planet Vegeta was blown up.

Me: Yep. The Uchiha Clan suffered the same fate because of their own delusional beliefs, selfish ambitions, and arrogance and they paid the ultimate price for their crimes.

Itachi: That's right.

Itachi came and Evil Sasuke was infuriated.

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED SCREAMING) ITACHI!

Itachi: I only have one version of you. And that's the good brother who's truly family.

Evil Sasuke: YOU WERE NEVER FAMILY TO ME ITACHI! NOT AFTER EVERYTHING YOU DID TO ME!

Me: I can't believe you're are still that delusional! How fucked up in the head are you!?

Evil Sasuke: SHUT YOUR FUCKING MOUTH!

Me: Make me you Mind-Raped Vegetable!

I snapped my fingers and we were on the planet Glaren once again.

Me: And for the record Sasuke, I'm not the same as I was when we last fought each other. I've gotten far more powerful since then. And also I've ascended from when I fought a version of you that was recruited by the Masters of Evil.

I then flared up my rainbow aura and I transformed in my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 100,000,000 form and Evil Sasuke was shocked at what he saw! He saw me as a completely different person and the level of power I had was so incredible!

Me: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice) You and your clan have tormented the world for far too long Sasuke. I killed you because you brought it all on yourself.

Evil Sasuke then was enraged beyond all forms of human comprehension.

THEN HE SNAPPED! HE SCREAMED IN SO MUCH FURY THAT IT WAS COMPLETELY INCOMPREHENSIBLE! THEN HE SUDDENLY GOT A MASSIVE BOOST OF POWER THAT WAS UNBELIEVABLY STRONG AS HE WAS ENVELOPED IN AN AURA OF PITCH BLACK ENERGY!

Me: (Gasp) HOLY FUCKING SHIT!

Nico: WHOA! WHAT POWER!

Vegeta: HOLY SHIT!

Goku: This power is pure evil!

Lincoln: What the hell has been awoken in him!?

Naruto: His hatred and quest for vengeance has made him 100 times stronger than Itachi.

Lily: This is gonna be ugly.

Me: If this if all the power you have Sasuke, I'm not impressed.

Evil Sasuke then came at me and he was fast as lightning and I knew where he was gonna strike and I blocked and dodged his punches and kicks with incredible speed and power. Then he jumped back and fired massive blasts of fire at me.

Me: Tch. What a joke.

I absorbed all his fire and it made me stronger than ever.

Me: My turn.

I went at him and faster than Evil Sasuke could even blink I punched him in the stomach with incredible and devastating force and knocked the wind out of him and then I kicked him in the face and punched him in the chest 4 times and headbutt him and broke his nose and blood was pouring down his face and then I kicked him in the back of the head and sent him skidding and he got up and was enraged.

(Naruto Shippuden Movie 2 OST - Rage plays at 2:18)

Evil Sasuke: (ENRAGED AND MANIACAL SCREAMING)

He went at me and punched and kicked and brutally fought me all over and tried to smash my head in with indiscriminate fury and he was really determined to make sure that he kills me. I blocked all his punches and kicks and he jumped back and threw numerous kunai and I deflected them all and fired a powerful blast of fire and it hit him in his arm and burned him bad! He was screaming in pain and then he was screaming in agony. But then his screams of pain quickly turned into maniacal and insane laughter. He was laughing like an insane and totally fucked up monster that was fucked up to the core six ways till Sunday and he went at me again and I kicked him in the face and knocked him down and he got up and went at me again and I dodged him and fired a blast of lightning and it hit him in the crotch and electrocuted him all over. He went at me some more and I dodged his strike and kicked him in the back and sent him smashing into a rock and he got up and fired massive blasts of lightning at me and I deflected them back with my sword and he got electrocuted all over and I punched him in the face and he went at me some more and I was making him madder and madder and madder and he was only making me stronger with all his hatred and more. I then punched him in the face and he went at me and I dodged him again and dodged him again and then I kicked him in the back again and sent him crashing into a rock and he got up and glared at me with extreme fury!

Evil Sasuke: I HATE YOU!

My aura flared up with incredible force and he went at me again and I punched him in the stomach with incredible devastating force and he belched up a huge amount of blood and he was on the ground in agony.

Evil Sasuke then got up and looked at me with incredible hatred and fury!

Evil Sasuke: (GROWLS) I HATE YOU MORE THAN LIFE ITSELF YOU FUCKING CUR! YOU HAVE ALWAYS BEEN A MENACE TO THE ENTIRETY OF THE UCHIHA CLAN! YOU HELPED ITACHI KILL THEM AND YOU EVEN HELPED THAT RETCHED LOSER NARUTO GET FAR STRONGER THAN ME! AND YOU EVEN HELPED THAT ANNOYING FANGIRL BITCH SAKURA GET STRONGER FOR A USELESS CIVILIAN WHORE! I HATE YOU ALL SO MUCH! I SHOULD'VE KILLED YOU ALL BACK WHEN WE WERE IN THE ACADEMY!

Me: Are you done shooting your fucking mouth off yet? This fight with you is REALLY starting to get boring and you are nothing more than a waste of my time. Always have been and always will be. I'm going to make sure you never hurt anyone ever again.

Troy: Time to fight ninjas with ninjas.

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Steel!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Ninja Steel Rangers.

Me: And show this menacing fuckbucket not to mess around with powers they have no way of understanding. Mainly me.

We went at him together and punched, blasted and slashed him all over the place with incredible fury and more. Jaal, Tangath Toborn, Ario, Malvadine, Siado, Kelvedran, Iflar, Topar, Fivarth, Junda, Skartalas, Bierk, Hearring, Faash, Sobtjek, and Lanek all smashed, blasted and slashed Evil Sasuke all over the place and more and we really let him have it and more and the Megaforce Rangers all smashed and blasted and slashed him all over.

O.I. Nurse Joy: Time for some teamwork!

First Aid: YEAH!

O.I. Nurse Joy and First Aid used the Pokemon and Autobot Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced O.I. Nurse Joy's strength and powers and First Aid's Photon Pistol 100-fold.

Reflector and Ty Lee used the Earth and Elemental Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Reflector's flash explosion and Ty Lee's Chi Powers 100-fold.

Orange Islands Nurse Joy and First Aid: ISLAND FLASH MEGA BLAST!

O.I. Nurse Joy and her Chansey fired waves of energy and eggs and First Aid fired a powerful blast of light.

Reflector and Ty Lee: VERTIGO CHI FIREBLAST!

Reflector fired blasts of light and Ty Lee fired blasts of fire Chi.

The blasts all hit the Evil Sasuke and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Me: Now it's time for you to feel our ultimate power so we can send you back to Hell!

Evil Sasuke got up!

Evil Sasuke: I will not go back there alone! If I go down I'm taking you all with me!

Me: You will pay for your crimes! OMEGA SAGE ART: SUPER TAILED BEAST RASENSHURIKEN KAMEHAMEHA BARRAGE!

I flared up my power and formed 10 clones that had 1 Rasenshuriken of each elemental force of the 10 Tailed Beasts. They threw the 10 Rasenshuriken and I fired a powerful pitch black Kamehameha Wave.

Eli then powered up to his Super Angel 1,000,000 Elemental Rainbow Fang.

Eli and Nunnally: OUR SPIRITS ARE AFLAME AND WE FEEL THE FIRE! THERE IS NOTHING WE CANNOT DEFEAT! AND NOW

THESE HANDS OF OURS ARE BURNING RED! THEIR LOUD ROAR TELLS US TO DESTROY YOU! ERUPTING BURNING RAINBOW FINGER! SEKIHA TENKYOKEN!

Eli and Nunnally fired a masive blast of Rainbow Energy.

Sasuke Uchiha: You have disgraced the Uchiha name for the last time! TAKEMIKAZUCHI-NO-KAMI!

---

Sasuke pierces his opponent with Amaterasu flames while simultaneously capturing them inside a Chibaku Tensei which is enveloped by the black flames. Sasuke then jumps high in the air and activates his Complete Body Susanoo and proceeds to fly towards the Chibaku Tensei. He creates a Chidori through his Susanoo and covers it in Amaterasu flames as well before charging towards the opponent still caught inside the Chibaku Tensei. The impact results in a massive explosion which blows the Chibaku Tensei into smithereens.

The explosion was so massive, so powerful, so devastating and so unbelievably strong and massive that it blew much of the landscape of Planet Glaren into dust and the explosion was so powerful that it breached the planets atmosphere and a massive mushroom cloud could be seen for lightyears and it was incredible.

When the smoke cleared, the Evil Sasuke was completely obliterated in an instant. There was nothing left of him. He was completely gone! But a massive crater was now in the surface of the planet.

Nico: WHOA! THAT WAS POWERFUL!

Naruto: Unbelievable!

Lola: What power!

Lincoln: Holy mackerel! That was incredible!

Rainbow Dash: That was intense!

Lightning Dust: Yeah!

Nico: That's it for that monster.

I landed and we were back on Earth and Lady Tsunade, the citizens of the Leaf and everyone came and they saw the Evil Sasuke's we have all tied up.

Lady Tsunade: Looks like you all are getting your just desserts after everything you've done.

Me: All that and more Lady Hokage. Now their treachery is about to be paid back 10-fold. They are going to be banished to the planet where we banished the Evil Sasuke recruited by the Masters of Evil.

I snapped my fingers and the Evil Sasukes all were teleported there and I powered down.

Wiggum: I guess that's the end of the Evil Sasukes.

Fat Tony: I hope to never see another of those whiners again.

Naruto: Well, more will come on other simulator adventures.

Jimbo: That still doesn't solve how they escaped.

Me: We'll find out the answer to that sooner or later.

Nico: Yep.

Me: After we face an evil Sasuke we'll just banish them to that planet. The Warp and Hell are too easy for them.

Naruto: That's a good idea bro. (To the viewers) Evil Sasukes all better beware because we're gonna be coming for them all.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: I better go file my report. I'll meet you all back home.

Nico: Okay.

I snapped my fingers and went into my Shinobi attire and went to the Hokage's office.

THE END

Another awesome and epic fanfic done.

The Evil Sasuke's we all faced over the years were evil to the core. Now we've seen the last of them. NicoChann11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the third Time Squad chapter and we're going to face the 19th Century's most evil figures as well as the Time Squad's version of the famous Alfred B. Nobel. It's gonna be an epic battle against good and evil.

See you all tomorrow.

Nobel Wartime of Evil

At the estate we were watching TV and the door opened and in came Electrocutioner.

Me: Lester what's up?

Speedy: (Glares at him) Have you come to die?

Electrocutioner: (to Speedy) Look, I know you have some hard feelings towards me. But I have a peace offering that can settle things.

Speedy: And that is?

Electrocutioner threw to the ground a certain racist hero all tied up.

We saw that it was VAL-YOR!

Trent Fernandez: Isn't that Val-Yor?

Electrocutioner: (smirks) It sure is. For a so called hero, he was easy to take down.

Me: Well I'll be a monkey's uncle. (To Nico) No offense.

Nico: None taken.

Me: Whoa! How did you take him down!?

Electrocutioner: I used my lightning powers to immobilize him and trap him in a net of lightning.

Me: Clever.

Starfire: VAL-YOR! YOU CLORBAG VARBLERNELK!

Sunset Shimmer: What the heck does that mean?

Beast Boy: It's Starfire's Tamaranean way of calling someone a prankster.

Starfire, Blackfire and Wildfire jumped him and smashed and blasted and pulverized Val-Yor into pulp and really smashed him all over six ways till Sunday.

Katnappe then appeared and then she just scratched Val-Yor's eyes out and he screamed in excruciating pain.

Katnappe: I told you guys what I'd do to him!

Dr. Light (Mega Man): Well, I can see they weren't empty threats.

Me: I agree with you doctor.

Lincoln blasted Val-Yor with lightning and electrocuted him and Robin was bashing Val-Yor's brains out with his staff.

Me: Who's the Troq now you hero of fuckfignewton.

Nico then smashed Val-Yor all over the place with massive fury and more and he really was merciless.

Val-Yor: (weakly) Please. Have mercy!

Nico: (points Leni's sword at his chest) Did you show mercy to Starfire when you called her a Troq?! Your judgement is death!

Lori: Okay. Now I think this is literally going too far!

G1 Tantrum: What makes you say that? I thought you, Lynn, and Lola would be happy that this is happening.

Me: I agree with Tantrum. I've heard a lot about Val-Yor and everything he did but what really makes my blood boil is the fact that he shows complete discrimination towards all Tamaraneans and that really infuriates me.

Robin: It's true.

Tara: I can't believe he would hurt you like that Star. Did he hurt you too Blackfire?

Blackfire: No I was still roaming the galaxy when I heard about it.

Lori: I think we should literally make Val-Yor suffer more by blowing up his entire home planet.

We gasped that Lori would suggest that!

Me: Lori no! That's too extreme.

Varie: Yeah sure Val-Yor deserves to suffer for his racial discrimination but we should never do something so extreme as to blow up his entire planet.

Naruto: That's right.

Val-Yor tried to crawl away but Nico stepped on his hand.

CRUNCH!

Nico: (Val-Yor screams in pain) Oh, don't go! The fun's just getting started!

Me: Okay Nico is really starting to turn sadistic.

Anko: Well who do you think taught him?

Speedy: (to Electrocutioner) Okay. I think this settles things between us.

Electrocutioner: Glad to hear it.

Speedy: (glares at him) But just don't mess with me and Ollie again, okay?

Electrocutioner: I'll keep that in mind. I'm not even Green Arrow's number one enemy anyway. Malcolm Merlyn is.

G1 Hot Spot: That's actually true.

Me: Good.

We then arrested Val-Yor and had him condemned to the Neptune Prison for all eternity.

Later we were watching TV and then our version of the History Instability Alarm went off!

BOING BOING BOING BOING BOING BOING!

BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ BUZZ!

AIR RAID SIREN!

Me: Uh Oh we got a History Instability Crisis.

Nico: What is that?

Me: That's the new History Instability Alarm we set up. It tells us when something going on in history in this universe or any other is happening.

Nico: Wow!

Lincoln: When did you set this up?

Me: Larry and Otto helped me set it up earlier this week.

Laney: That's clever.

We pulled up the mission and we found out that we were gonna visit Stockholm, Sweden in 1894 and we're gonna go meet the famous inventor of the Nobel Peace Prize, Alfred B. Nobel.

---

Alfred Bernhard Nobel; 21 October 1833 - 10 December 1896) was a Swedish chemist, engineer, inventor, businessman, and philanthropist. He held 355 different patents, dynamite being the most famous. The synthetic element nobelium was named after him. He owned Bofors, which he redirected from its previous role as primarily an iron and steel producer to a major manufacturer of cannon and other armaments. Having read a premature obituary which condemned him for profiting from the sales of arms, he bequeathed his fortune to the Nobel Prize institution. His name also survives in companies such as Dynamit Nobel and AkzoNobel, which are descendants of mergers with companies that Nobel established.

Born in Stockholm, Alfred Nobel was the third son of Immanuel Nobel (1801-1872), an inventor and engineer, and Karolina Andriette (Ahlsell) Nobel (1805-1889).[4] The couple married in 1827 and had eight children. The family was impoverished, and only Alfred and his three brothers survived past childhood. Through his father, Alfred Nobel was a descendant of the Swedish scientist Olaus Rudbeck (1630-1702), and in his turn the boy was interested in engineering, particularly explosives, learning the basic principles from his father at a young age. Alfred Nobel's interest in technology was inherited from his father, an alumnus of Royal Institute of Technology in Stockholm.

Following various business failures, Nobel's father moved to Saint Petersburg in 1837 and grew successful there as a manufacturer of machine tools and explosives. He invented the veneer lathe (which allowed the production of modern plywood) and started work on the torpedo. In 1842, the family joined him in the city. Now prosperous, his parents were able to send Nobel to private tutors and the boy excelled in his studies, particularly in chemistry and languages, achieving fluency in English, French, German and Russian. For 18 months, from 1841 to 1842, Nobel went to the only school he ever attended as a child, in Stockholm.

As a young man, Nobel studied with chemist Nikolai Zinin; then, in 1850, went to Paris to further the work. There he met Ascanio Sobrero, who had invented nitroglycerin three years before. Sobrero strongly opposed the use of nitroglycerin, as it was unpredictable, exploding when subjected to heat or pressure. But Nobel became interested in finding a way to control and use nitroglycerin as a commercially usable explosive, as it had much more power than gunpowder. At age 18, he went to the United States for one year to study, working for a short period under Swedish-American inventor John Ericsson, who designed the American Civil War ironclad USS Monitor . Nobel filed his first patent, an English patent for a gas meter, in 1857, while his first Swedish patent, which he received in 1863, was on "ways to prepare gunpowder".

The family factory produced armaments for the Crimean War (1853-1856), but had difficulty switching back to regular domestic production when the fighting ended and they filed for bankruptcy. In 1859, Nobel's father left his factory in the care of the second son, Ludvig Nobel (1831-1888), who greatly improved the business. Nobel and his parents returned to Sweden from Russia and Nobel devoted himself to the study of explosives, and especially to the safe manufacture and use of nitroglycerin. Nobel invented a detonator in 1863, and in 1865 designed the blasting cap.

On 3 September 1864, a shed used for preparation of nitroglycerin exploded at the factory in Heleneborg, Stockholm, Sweden, killing five people, including Nobel's younger brother Emil. Fazed by the accident, Nobel founded the company Nitroglycerin Aktiebolaget AB in Vinterviken so that he could continue to work in a more isolated area. Nobel invented dynamite in 1867, a substance easier and safer to handle than the more unstable nitroglycerin. Dynamite was patented in the US and the UK and was used extensively in mining and the building of transport networks internationally. In 1875 Nobel invented gelignite, more stable and powerful than dynamite, and in 1887 patented ballistite, a predecessor of cordite.

Nobel was elected a member of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences in 1884, the same institution that would later select laureates for two of the Nobel prizes, and he received an honorary doctorate from Uppsala University in 1893.

Nobel's brothers Ludvig and Robert founded the oil company Branobel and became hugely rich in their own right. Nobel invested in these and amassed great wealth through the development of these new oil regions. During his life Nobel was issued 355 patents internationally, and by his death his business had established more than 90 armaments factories, despite his apparently pacifist character.

In 1888, the death of his brother Ludvig caused several newspapers to publish obituaries of Alfred in error. One French newspaper published an obituary titled "Le marchand de la mort est mort" ("The merchant of death is dead"). Nobel read the obituary and was appalled at the idea that he would be remembered in this way. His decision to posthumously donate the majority of his wealth to found the Nobel Prize has been credited at least in part to him wanting to leave behind a better legacy.

Inventions

Nobel found that when nitroglycerin was incorporated in an absorbent inert substance like kieselguhr (diatomaceous earth) it became safer and more convenient to handle, and this mixture he patented in 1867 as "dynamite". Nobel demonstrated his explosive for the first time that year, at a quarry in Redhill, Surrey, England. In order to help reestablish his name and improve the image of his business from the earlier controversies associated with the dangerous explosives, Nobel had also considered naming the highly powerful substance "Nobel's Safety Powder", but settled with Dynamite instead, referring to the Greek word for "power" (δύναμις).

Nobel later combined nitroglycerin with various nitrocellulose compounds, similar to collodion, but settled on a more efficient recipe combining another nitrate explosive, and obtained a transparent, jelly-like substance, which was a more powerful explosive than dynamite. Gelignite, or blasting gelatine, as it was named, was patented in 1876; and was followed by a host of similar combinations, modified by the addition of potassium nitrate and various other substances. Gelignite was more stable, transportable and conveniently formed to fit into bored holes, like those used in drilling and mining, than the previously used compounds. It was adopted as the standard technology for mining in the "Age of Engineering", bringing Nobel a great amount of financial success, though at a significant cost to his health. An offshoot of this research resulted in Nobel's invention of ballistite, the precursor of many modern smokeless powder explosives and still used as a rocket propellant.

Nobel Prize

In 1888, Alfred's brother, Ludvig, died while visiting Cannes, and a French newspaper mistakenly published Alfred's obituary. It condemned him for his invention of military explosives (not, as is commonly quoted, dynamite, which was mainly used for civilian applications) and is said to have brought about his decision to leave a better legacy after his death. The obituary stated, Le marchand de la mort est mort ("The merchant of death is dead") and went on to say, "Dr. Alfred Nobel, who became rich by finding ways to kill more people faster than ever before, died yesterday." Alfred (who never had a wife or children) was disappointed with what he read and concerned with how he would be remembered.

On 27 November 1895, at the Swedish-Norwegian Club in Paris, Nobel signed his last will and testament and set aside the bulk of his estate to establish the Nobel Prizes, to be awarded annually without distinction of nationality. After taxes and bequests to individuals, Nobel's will allocated 94% of his total assets, 31,225,000 Swedish kronor, to establish the five Nobel Prizes. This converted to £1,687,837 (GBP) at the time. In 2012, the capital was worth around SEK 3.1 billion (US$472 million, EUR 337 million), which is almost twice the amount of the initial capital, taking inflation into account.

The first three of these prizes are awarded for eminence in physical science, in chemistry and in medical science or physiology; the fourth is for literary work "in an ideal direction" and the fifth prize is to be given to the person or society that renders the greatest service to the cause of international fraternity, in the suppression or reduction of standing armies, or in the establishment or furtherance of peace congresses.

The formulation for the literary prize being given for a work "in an ideal direction" ( i idealisk riktning in Swedish), is cryptic and has caused much confusion. For many years, the Swedish Academy interpreted "ideal" as "idealistic" ( idealistisk ) and used it as a reason not to give the prize to important but less romantic authors, such as Henrik Ibsen and Leo Tolstoy. This interpretation has since been revised, and the prize has been awarded to, for example, Dario Fo and José Saramago, who do not belong to the camp of literary idealism.

There was room for interpretation by the bodies he had named for deciding on the physical sciences and chemistry prizes, given that he had not consulted them before making the will. In his one-page testament, he stipulated that the money go to discoveries or inventions in the physical sciences and to discoveries or improvements in chemistry. He had opened the door to technological awards, but had not left instructions on how to deal with the distinction between science and technology. Since the deciding bodies he had chosen were more concerned with the former, the prizes went to scientists more often than engineers, technicians or other inventors.

Sweden's central bank Sveriges Riksbank celebrated its 300th anniversary in 1968 by donating a large sum of money to the Nobel Foundation to be used to set up a sixth prize in the field of economics in honour of Alfred Nobel. In 2001, Alfred Nobel's great-great-nephew, Peter Nobel (b. 1931), asked the Bank of Sweden to differentiate its award to economists given "in Alfred Nobel's memory" from the five other awards. This request added to the controversy over whether the Bank of Sweden Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel is actually a legitimate "Nobel Prize".

Death

Nobel was accused of high treason against France for selling Ballistite to Italy, so he moved from Paris to Sanremo, Italy in 1891. On 10 December 1896, he suffered a stroke and died. He had left most of his wealth in trust, unbeknownst to his family, in order to fund the Nobel Prize awards. He is buried in Norra begravningsplatsen in Stockholm.

Kickback: Which time period are we heading to this time?

Me: We're going to 1894 and we're going to Stockholm, Sweden to meet Alfred B. Nobel.

Allenby: Cool! He's the inventor of the Nobel Peace Prize.

Jessie K.: Yep and he was also the inventor of Dynamite, Blasting Caps and the Detonator Plunger.

Me: Yep.

Otto: And he is also the man that tried to kill us.

We gasped.

Allenby: He tried to kill you!?

Tuddrussel: Yeah! He was a jerk!

Me: Well we better go take a look. Something is telling me that you guys met a version of Alfred B. Nobel in an alternate time.

Jimbo, Dolph, Kearney, Fat Tony, Louie, Legs, Krusty, Snake, Cantwell, and Wiggum appeared.

Jimbo: Can me, Dolph, Kearney, Fat Tony, Louie, Legs, Krusty, Snake, Cantwell, and Wiggum come with you guys to find out what's going on?

Me: Sure Jimbo.

Randy Boggs: I don't get it. From what I heard, Nobel was a nice guy. He can't be evil!

Me: This is the one that the Time Squad faced.

Cantwell: Because when I was still teaching, I read up on Alfred Nobel.

Me: Well I think this version is in an alternate universe where he is bad and not good.

Nico: That make sense.

Snake: Dude, I think Nobel needs a crash course on what it means to be a bad guy like us.

Me: You got that right Snake and we're going to show him some T.L.B. (Cracks knuckles) Tender Loving Buttkicking!

We went to our Transporter and we traveled to the universe where the Time Squad met Alfred B. Nobel.

---

Stockholm, Sweden 1894

---

We arrived in a flash of light in 19th Century Sweden.

Elec Man: Here we are in 1894.

Me: Yep. Stockholm, Sweden 1894. My scans show that this is an alternate time where Nobel is now bad.

Lincoln: Looks like we're in for a wild ride.

Me: Yep. We have to find Nobel and stop him.

Nadira: Maybe we should look at the sights before going after Nobel.

Me: As much as we want to enjoy the sights of 19th century beauty we have a job to do.

Wes Collins: Yep.

Allenby: But I've always wanted to find out more about what happened during this time.

Jared: Me too.

Me: It sure is nice here. But right now we have a job to do.

We set out to find Alfred B. Nobel.

Me: So far nothing.

Fat Tony heard something.

Legs: You alright, Boss?

Fat Tony: I'm fine. Just felt like someone was following us.

Me: I sense it. But it's probably nothing.

We walked around and we saw Alfred B. Nobel's mansion.

Me: There it is. Nobel's mansion.

Laney: He has a really nice house.

Lola: He sure does.

Cynder: As long as Nobel's alone, we should be fine.

Me: I've got a bad feeling about this guys. I think he's expecting us and he ISN'T alone.

Nico: Yeah. I sense it too.

We walked towards the mansion and we heard some rustling in the bushes.

Lola: Hey guys look.

We saw a little unicorn eating leaves.

Lola: Aww that is an adorable Pegasus.

Rarity: That's not a Pegasus that's a little Alicorn.

Me: What's one doing here?

Then a flash of light appeared and Flint Hammerhead and crew came.

Flint Hammerhead: Hey guys.

Me: Flint, Sarah, Tony, what's going on?

Sarah Goodman: That's one of the Timeshifters you met. This is Unita.

Rarity: My word! This little one is a Timeshifter!?

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! I didn't know about that.

Lola picked up Unita.

Lola: You are so adorable!

Unita: (Telepathically) Thank you so much.

We gasped.

Me: He's talking telepathically.

Nico: That's so cool!

Me: It sure is.

Apple Bloom: I've never seen a Timeshifter that was like us in Equestria.

Sweetie Belle: That's amazing though.

Laney: It sure is.

Unita: Wow. You're all Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here Unita. I guess every time we time travel we're going to meet one of the Timeshifters.

Unita: I guess so.

Me: And if there's a Timeshifter here then that must mean that Petra Fina is not gonna be too far behind.

Carol: If that's the case then I'm gonna be ready for her.

Eli: Show no mercy on her sis!

Carol: I won't.

Flint Hammerhead: So who are you guys here to see?

Me: We're here to stop an evil version of Alfred B. Nobel, the Inventor of the Nobel Peace Prize. My scanners show that this is an alternate timeline version of him where he is evil.

Sarah Goodman: Whoa! That's interesting. Maybe we can help you out.

Unita: I'll help you out too.

Me: Thanks Unita.

We went into the mansion and it was dark.

Krusty: (to Otto) Know anyone else that Nobel's associated with?

Otto: I have a feeling.

Nobel then appeared!

Nobel: (EVIL LAUGHTER) Foolish Time Squad. You've fallen right into my trap! And Team Loud Phoenix Storm, I didn't expect you to be here.

Me: We aim to please.

Nobel: I had a feeling you would come for me! Now let me introduce my Evil Associates!

He pulled a lever and spotlights shined and revealed 5 figures that were all familiar!

Nobel: BLACK BART! LIZZIE BORDEN! JACK THE RIPPER! RASPUTIN! MRS. O'LEARY'S COW! (Cow moos) And finally Yours truly!

We saw the most evil and most dangerous figures that ever terrorized the 19th Century!

Charles Boles A.K.A. Black Bart

Charles Earl Boles (b. 1829; d. after February 28, 1888), also known as Black Bart, was an American outlaw noted for the poetic messages he left behind after two of his robberies. Often called Charley by his friends, he was also known as Charles (or C.E.) Bolton . Considered a gentleman bandit with a reputation for style and sophistication, he was one of the most notorious stagecoach robbers to operate in and around Northern California and southern Oregon during the 1870s and 1880s.

Charles Boles was born in Norfolk, England to John and Maria Boles (sometimes spelled Bolles). He was the third of ten children, having six brothers and three sisters. When he was two years old, his parents immigrated to Jefferson County, New York, where his father purchased a farm four miles north of Plessis Village in the direction of Alexandria Bay.

California Gold Rush

In late 1849, Boles and his brothers David and James joined in the California Gold Rush, prospecting in the North Fork of the American River near Sacramento. They traveled home in 1852, but Boles later returned with his brothers David and Robert. Both brothers fell ill shortly after their arrival and died. Charles Boles remained in California for another two more years before giving up and returning East again.

In 1854, Boles (who now used this spelling) married Mary Elizabeth Johnson. By 1860, they were living with their four children in Decatur, Illinois.

Civil War

On August 13, 1862, Boles enlisted as a private in Company B, 116th Illinois Regiment (his name is spelled "Boles" in the company records). He was a good soldier and became a First sergeant within a year. Boles was seriously wounded at the Battle of Vicksburg, and took part in Sherman's March to the Sea. He received brevet commissions as both second lieutenant and first lieutenant, and on June 7, 1865, was discharged with his regiment in Washington, D.C.. He returned home at last to his family in Illinois.

Prospecting again

In 1867, Boles went prospecting for gold in Idaho and Montana. In a surviving letter to his wife from August 1871, he told her of an unpleasant encounter with some Wells, Fargo & Company agents and vowed to exact revenge. His wife never heard from him again, and in time she presumed he had died.

Criminal career

Boles adopted the nickname "Black Bart" and proceeded to rob Wells Fargo stagecoaches at least 28 times across northern California between 1875 and 1883, including a number of times along the historic Siskiyou Trail between California and Oregon. He only left two poems - at the fourth and fifth robbery sites - but this came to be considered his signature and ensured his fame. Black Bart was quite successful, often taking in thousands of dollars a year.

Boles was afraid of horses and made all of his robberies on foot. Together with his poems, this earned him notoriety. He reportedly never once fired a weapon during his years as an outlaw.

Boles was invariably polite and used no foul language, despite its appearance in his poems. He dressed in a long linen duster coat and a bowler hat, using a flour sack with holes cut for his eyes as a mask. He brandished a shotgun, but never used it. These features became his trademarks.

First robbery

On July 26, 1875, Boles robbed his first stagecoach in Calaveras County, California, on the road between Copperopolis and Milton. He spoke with a deep and resonant tone as he politely ordered stage driver John Shine to "throw down the box". As Shine handed over the strongbox, Boles shouted, "If he dares to shoot, give him a solid volley, boys". Seeing rifle barrels pointed at him from the nearby bushes, Shine quickly handed over the strongbox. Shine waited until Boles vanished and then went to recover the empty strongbox, but upon examining the area, he discovered that the "men with rifles" were actually carefully rigged sticks. Black Bart's first robbery netted him $160.

Last stagecoach robbery

His last holdup took place on November 3, 1883, at the site of his first robbery on Funk Hill, southeast of the present town of Copperopolis. Boles wore a flour-sack mask with two eye holes. Driven by Reason McConnell, the stage had crossed the Reynolds Ferry on the old road from Sonora to Milton. The driver stopped at the ferry to pick up Jimmy Rolleri, the 19-year-old son of the ferry owner. Rolleri had his rifle with him and got off at the bottom of the hill to hunt along the creek and meet the stage on the other side. When he arrived at the western end, he found that the stage was not there and began walking up the stage road. Near the summit, he saw the stage driver and his team of horses.

McConnell told him that as the stage had approached the summit, Boles had stepped out from behind a rock with a shotgun in his hands. He forced McConnell to unhitch the team and take them over the crest of the hill. Boles then tried to remove the strongbox from the stage, but it had been bolted to the floor and took Boles some time to remove. Rolleri and McConnell went over the crest and saw Boles backing out of the stage with the strong box. McConnell grabbed Rolleri's rifle and fired at Boles twice but missed. Rolleri took the rifle and fired as Boles entered a thicket. He stumbled as if he had been hit. Running to the thicket, they found a small, blood-stained bundle of mail he had dropped.

Boles had been wounded in the hand. After running a quarter of a mile, he stopped and wrapped a handkerchief around his hand to control the bleeding. He found a rotten log and stuffed the sack with the gold amalgam into it, keeping $500 in gold coins. He hid the shotgun in a hollow tree, threw everything else away, and fled. In a manuscript written by stage driver McConnell about 20 years after the robbery, he claimed he fired all four shots at Boles. The first missed, but he thought the second or third shot hit Boles, and was sure the fourth did. Boles only had the one wound to his hand.

Investigation and arrest

When Boles was wounded and forced to flee, he left behind several personal items. These included his eyeglasses, some food, and a handkerchief with a laundry mark F.X.O.7. Wells Fargo Detective James B. Hume found these at the scene. Hume and detective Harry N. Morse contacted every laundry in San Francisco about the laundry mark. After visiting nearly 90 laundries, they finally traced it to Ferguson & Bigg's California Laundry on Bush Street and were able to learn that the handkerchief belonged to a man who lived in a modest boarding house.

The detectives learned that Boles called himself a mining engineer and made frequent "business trips" that coincided with the Wells Fargo robberies. After initially denying he was Black Bart, Boles eventually admitted he had robbed several Wells Fargo stages, though he confessed only to crimes committed before 1879. Boles apparently believed the statute of limitations had expired on those robberies. When booked, he gave his name as T. Z. Spalding, but police found a Bible, a gift from his wife, inscribed with his real name.

The police report said that Boles was "a person of great endurance. Exhibited genuine wit under most trying circumstances, and was extremely proper and polite in behavior. Eschews profanity."

Conviction and imprisonment

Wells Fargo only pressed charges on the final robbery. Boles was convicted and sentenced to six years in San Quentin Prison, but he was released after four years for good behavior, in January 1888. His health had clearly deteriorated due to his time in prison; he had visibly aged, his eyesight was failing, and he had gone deaf in one ear. Reporters swarmed around him when he was released and asked if he was going to rob any more stagecoaches. "No, gentlemen," he replied, smiling, "I'm through with crime."

Final days

Boles never returned to his wife after his release from prison, though he did write to her. In one of the letters he said he was tired of being shadowed by Wells Fargo, felt demoralized, and wanted to get away from everybody. In February 1888, Boles left the Nevada House and vanished. Hume said Wells Fargo tracked him to the Visalia House hotel in Visalia. The hotel owner said a man answering the description of Boles had checked in and then disappeared. Black Bart was last seen on February 28, 1888.

Copycat robber

On November 14, 1888, another Wells Fargo stage was robbed by a masked highwayman. The lone bandit left a verse that read:

So here I've stood while wind and rain

Have set the trees a-sobbin,

And risked my life for that box,

That wasn't worth the robbin.

Detective Hume was called to examine the note. After comparing it with the handwriting of genuine Black Bart poetry, he declared the new holdup was the work of a copycat criminal.

Rumors and theories

There are rumors that Wells Fargo had paid off the aging bandit and sent him away to keep him from robbing their stages, though Wells Fargo denied this.

Some believe that Boles moved to New York City and lived quietly for the rest of his life, dying there in 1917, though this was never confirmed. Others believe the unlikely tale that the former poet bandit with failing eyesight had gone to the wilds of Montana or perhaps Nevada for another try at making a fortune.[ citation needed ] Johnny Thacker, a Wells Fargo detective who had participated in Boles's arrest, said in 1897 that he knew Boles to have gone to live in Japan.

Lizzie Borden

Lizzie Andrew Borden (July 19, 1860 - June 1, 1927) was an American woman tried and acquitted of the August 4, 1892 axe murders of her father and stepmother in Fall River, Massachusetts.

No one else was charged in the murders, and despite ostracism from other residents Borden spent the remainder of her life in Fall River. She died of pneumonia at age 66, just days before the death of her sister, Emma.

The murders and trial received widespread publicity throughout the United States and, along with Borden herself, they remain a topic in American popular culture to the present day. They have been depicted in numerous films, theatrical productions, literary works, and folk rhymes, and are still very well known in Fall River area.

Lizzie Andrew Borden was born July 19, 1860, in Fall River, Massachusetts, to Sarah Anthony (née Morse; 1823-1863) and Andrew Jackson Borden (1822-1892). Her father, who was of English and Welsh descent, grew up in very modest surroundings and struggled financially as a young man, despite being the descendant of wealthy and influential local residents. He eventually prospered in the manufacture and sale of furniture and caskets, then became a successful property developer. He directed several textile mills and owned considerable commercial property; he was also president of the Union Savings Bank and a director of the Durfee Safe Deposit and Trust Co. At his death his estate was valued at $300,000 (equivalent to $9,000,000 in 2019).

Despite his wealth, Andrew was known for his frugality. For instance, the Borden home lacked indoor plumbing although that was a common accommodation for wealthy people at the time. It was in an affluent area, but the wealthiest residents of Fall River, including Andrew's cousins, generally lived in the more fashionable neighborhood, "The Hill", which was farther from the industrial areas of the city and much more homogeneous racially, ethnically and socioeconomically.

Borden and her older sister, Emma Lenora Borden (1851-1927) had a relatively religious upbringing and attended Central Congregational Church. As a young woman she was very involved in church activities, including teaching Sunday school to children of recent immigrants to the United States. She was involved in Christian organizations such as the Christian Endeavor Society, for which she served as secretary-treasurer, and contemporary social movements such as the Women's Christian Temperance Union (WCTU). She was also a member of the Ladies' Fruit and Flower Mission.

Three years after the death of Lizzie Borden's mother Sarah, Andrew married Abby Durfee Gray (1828-1892). Lizzie stated that she called her stepmother "Mrs. Borden" and demurred on whether they had a cordial relationship; she believed that Abby had married her father for his wealth. Bridget Sullivan, (whom they called Maggie) the Bordens' 25-year-old live-in maid who had immigrated to the U.S. from Ireland, testified that Lizzie and Emma rarely ate meals with their parents. In May 1892, Andrew killed multiple pigeons in his barn with a hatchet, believing they were attracting local children to hunt them. Lizzie had recently built a roost for the pigeons, and it has been commonly recounted that she was upset over his killing of them, though the veracity of this has been disputed. A family argument in July 1892 prompted both sisters to take extended "vacations" in New Bedford. After returning to Fall River, a week before the murders, Lizzie chose to stay in a local rooming house for four days before returning to the family residence.

Tension had been growing within the family in the months before the murders, especially over Andrew's gifts of real estate to various branches of Abby's family. After their stepmother's sister received a house, the sisters had demanded and received a rental property (the home they had lived in until their mother died) which they purchased from their father for $1; a few weeks before the murders, they sold the property back to their father for $5,000 (equivalent to $142,000 in 2019). The night before the murders, John Vinnicum Morse, the brother of Lizzie's and Emma's deceased mother, visited and was invited to stay for a few days to discuss business matters with Andrew. Some writers have speculated that their conversation, particularly about property transfer, may have aggravated an already tense situation.

For several days before the murders, the entire household had been violently ill. A family friend later speculated that mutton left on the stove to use in meals over several days was the cause, but Abby had feared poisoning, as Andrew had not been a popular man.

Murders

John Morse arrived in the evening of August 3 and slept in the guest room that night. After breakfast the next morning, at which Andrew, Abby, Lizzie, Morse and the Bordens' maid Bridget "Maggie" Sullivan were present, Andrew and Morse went to the sitting room, where they chatted for nearly an hour. Morse left around 8:48 am to buy a pair of oxen and visit his niece in Fall River, planning to return to the Borden home for lunch at noon. Andrew left for his morning walk sometime after 9 am.

Although the cleaning of the guest room was one of Lizzie's and Emma's regular chores, Abby went upstairs some time between 9:00 am and 10:30 am to make the bed. According to the forensic investigation, Abby was facing her killer at the time of the attack.

She was first struck on the side of the head with a hatchet which cut her just above the ear, causing her to turn and fall face down on the floor, creating contusions on her nose and forehead. Her killer then struck her multiple times, delivering 17 more direct hits to the back of her head, killing her.

When Andrew returned at around 10:30 am, his key failed to open the door, so he knocked for attention. Sullivan went to unlock the door; finding it jammed, she uttered an expletive. She would later testify that she heard Lizzie laughing immediately after this; she did not see Lizzie, but stated that the laughter was coming from the top of the stairs. This was considered significant as Abby was already dead by this time, and her body would have been visible to anyone on the home's second floor. Lizzie later denied being upstairs and testified that her father had asked her where Abby was, and she had replied that a messenger had delivered Abby a summons to visit a sick friend.

Lizzie stated that she had then removed Andrew's boots and helped him into his slippers before he lay down on the sofa for a nap (an anomaly contradicted by the crime scene photos, which show Andrew wearing boots). She then informed Sullivan of a department store sale and permitted her to go, but Sullivan felt unwell and went to take a nap in her bedroom instead.

Sullivan testified that she was in her third-floor room, resting from cleaning windows, when just before 11:10 am she heard Lizzie call from downstairs, "Maggie, come quick! Father's dead. Somebody came in and killed him." Andrew was slumped on a couch in the downstairs sitting room, struck 10 or 11 times with a hatchet-like weapon. One of his eyeballs had been split cleanly in two, suggesting that he had been asleep when attacked. His still-bleeding wounds suggested a very recent attack. Dr. Bowen, the family's physician, arrived from his home across the street to determine that both victims had died. Detectives estimated his death had occurred at approximately 11:00 am.

Investigation

Lizzie Borden's initial answers to the police officers' questions were at times strange and contradictory. Initially she reported hearing a groan, or a scraping noise, or a distress call, before entering the house. Two hours later she told police she had heard nothing and entered the house not realizing that anything was wrong. When asked where her stepmother was, she recounted Abby receiving a note asking her to visit a sick friend. She also stated that she thought Abby had returned and asked if someone could go upstairs and look for her. Sullivan and a neighbor, Mrs. Churchill, were halfway up the stairs, their eyes level with the floor, when they looked into the guest room and saw Abby lying face down on the floor. Most of the officers who interviewed Borden reported that they disliked her attitude; some said she was too calm and poised. Despite her "attitude" and changing alibis, nobody bothered to check her for bloodstains. Police did search her room, but it was a cursory inspection; at the trial they admitted to not doing a proper search because Borden was not feeling well. They were subsequently criticized for their lack of diligence.

In the basement, police found two hatchets, two axes, and a hatchet-head with a broken handle. The hatchet-head was suspected of being the murder weapon as the break in the handle appeared fresh and the ash and dust on the head, unlike that on the other bladed tools, appeared to have been deliberately applied to make it look as if it had been in the basement for some time. However, none of these tools were removed from the house. Because of the mysterious illness that had stricken the household before the murders, the family's milk and Andrew's and Abby's stomachs (removed during autopsies performed in the Borden dining room) were tested for poison; none was found. Residents suspected Lizzie of purchasing 'hydrocyanic acid in a diluted form' from the local drugstore. She defended that she inquired about the acid, so she could clean her furs (despite the local medical examiner's testimony that it did not have antiseptic properties).

Lizzie and Emma's friend, Alice Russell, decided to stay with them the night following the murders while Morse spent the night in the attic guest room (contrary to later accounts that he slept in the murder-site guest room). Police were stationed around the house on the night of August 4, during which an officer said he had seen Borden enter the cellar with Russell, carrying a kerosene lamp and a slop pail. He stated he saw both women exit the cellar, after which Borden returned alone; though he was unable to see what she was doing, he stated it appeared she was bent over the sink.

On August 5, Morse left the house and was mobbed by hundreds of people; police had to escort him back to the house. On August 6, police conducted a more thorough search of the house, inspecting the sisters' clothing and confiscating the broken-handled hatchet-head. That evening a police officer and the mayor visited the Bordens, and Lizzie was informed that she was a suspect in the murders. The next morning, Russell entered the kitchen to find Borden tearing up a dress. She explained that she was planning to put it on the fire because it was covered in paint. It was never determined whether it was the dress she had been wearing on the day of the murders.

Inquest

Borden appeared at the inquest hearing on August 8. Her request to have her family attorney present was refused under a state statute providing that an inquest must be held in private. She had been prescribed regular doses of morphine to calm her nerves, and it is possible that her testimony was affected by this. Her behavior was erratic, and she often refused to answer a question even if the answer would be beneficial to her. She often contradicted herself and provided alternating accounts of the morning in question, such as saying she was in the kitchen reading a magazine when her father arrived home, then saying she was in the dining room doing some ironing, and then saying she was coming down the stairs. She also said she removed her father's boots and put slippers on him, while police photographs clearly showed him wearing his boots.

The district attorney was very aggressive and confrontational. On August 11, Borden was served with a warrant of arrest and jailed. The inquest testimony, the basis for the modern debate regarding her guilt or innocence, was later ruled inadmissible at her trial in June 1893. Contemporaneous newspaper articles noted that Borden possessed a "stolid demeanor" and "bit her lips, flushed, and bent toward Attorney Adams;" it was also reported that the testimony provided in the inquest had "caused a change of opinion among her friends who have heretofore strongly maintained her innocence." The inquest received significant press attention nationwide, including an extensive three-page write-up in The Boston Globe . A grand jury began hearing evidence on November 7, and Borden was indicted on December 2.

Trial and acquittal

Borden's trial took place in New Bedford starting on June 5, 1893. Prosecuting attorneys were Hosea M. Knowlton and future United States Supreme Court Justice William H. Moody; defending were Andrew V. Jennings, Melvin O. Adams, and former Massachusetts governor George D. Robinson. Five days before the trial's commencement, on June 1, another axe murder occurred in Fall River. This time the victim was Bertha Manchester, who was found hacked to death in her kitchen. The similarities between the Manchester and Bordens' murders were striking and noted by jurors. However, Jose Correa de Mello, a Portuguese immigrant, was later convicted of Manchester's murder in 1894, and was determined not to have been in the vicinity of Fall River at the time of the Borden murders.

A prominent point of discussion in the trial (or press coverage of it) was the hatchet-head found in the basement, which was not convincingly demonstrated by the prosecution to be the murder weapon. Prosecutors argued that the killer had removed the handle because it would have been covered in blood. One officer testified that a hatchet handle was found near the hatchet-head, but another officer contradicted this. Though no bloody clothing was found at the scene, Russell testified that on August 8, 1892, she had witnessed Borden burn a dress in the kitchen stove, saying it had been ruined when she brushed against wet paint. During the course of the trial, defense never attempted to challenge this statement.

Lizzie Borden's presence at the home was also a point of dispute during the trial; according to testimony, Sullivan entered the second floor of the home at around 10:58 am and left Lizzie and her father downstairs. Lizzie told several people that at this time, she went into the barn and was not in the house for "20 minutes or possibly a half an hour". Hyman Lubinsky testified for the defense that he saw Lizzie Borden leaving the barn at 11:03 am and Charles Gardner confirmed the time. At 11:10 am, Lizzie called Sullivan downstairs, told her Andrew had been murdered, and ordered her not to enter the room; instead, Borden sent her to get a doctor.

Both victims' heads had been removed during autopsy and the skulls were admitted as evidence during the trial and presented on June 5, 1893. Upon seeing them in the courtroom, Borden fainted. Evidence was excluded that Borden had sought to purchase prussic acid, purportedly for cleaning a sealskin cloak, from a local druggist on the day before the murders. The judge ruled that the incident was too remote in time to have any connection.

The presiding Associate Justice, Justin Dewey (who had been appointed by Robinson when he was governor), delivered a lengthy summary that supported the defense as his charge to the jury before it was sent to deliberate on June 20, 1893. After an hour and a half of deliberation, the jury acquitted Borden of the murders. Upon exiting the courthouse, she told reporters she was "the happiest woman in the world."

The trial has been compared to the later trials of Bruno Hauptmann, Ethel and Julius Rosenberg, and O.J. Simpson as a landmark in publicity and public interest in the history of American legal proceedings.

Speculation

Although acquitted at trial, Borden remains the prime suspect in her father's and stepmother's murders. Writer Victoria Lincoln proposed in 1967 that Borden might have committed the murders while in a fugue state. Another prominent suggestion was that she was physically and sexually abused by her father, which drove her to kill him. There is little evidence to support this, but incest is not a topic that would have been discussed at the time, and the methods for collecting physical evidence would have been quite different in 1892. This belief was intimated in local papers at the time of the murders, and was revisited by scholar Marcia Carlisle in a 1992 essay.

Mystery author Ed McBain, in his 1984 novel Lizzie, suggested that Borden committed the murders after being caught in a lesbian tryst with Sullivan. McBain elaborated on his speculation in a 1999 interview, speculating that Abby had caught Lizzie and Sullivan together and had reacted with horror and disgust, and that Lizzie had killed Abby with a candlestick. When Andrew returned she had confessed to him, but killed him in a rage with a hatchet when he reacted exactly as Abby had. McBain further speculates that Sullivan disposed of the hatchet somewhere afterwards. In her later years, Borden was rumored to be a lesbian, but there was no such speculation about Sullivan, who found other employment after the murders and later married a man she met while working as a maid in Butte, Montana. She died in Butte in 1948, where she allegedly gave a deathbed confession to her sister, stating that she had changed her testimony on the stand in order to protect Borden.

Another significant suspect is John Morse, Lizzie's maternal uncle, who rarely met with the family after his sister died, but had slept in the house the night before the murders; according to law enforcement, Morse had provided an "absurdly perfect and overdetailed alibi for the death of Abby Borden". He was considered a suspect by police for a period.

Others noted as potential suspects in the crimes include Sullivan, possibly in retaliation for being ordered to clean the windows on a hot day; the day of the murders was unusually hot-and at the time she was still recovering from the mystery illness that had struck the household. A "William Borden", suspected to be Andrew's illegitimate son, was noted as a possible suspect by writer Arnold Brown, who surmised in his book Lizzie Borden: The Legend, the Truth, the Final Chapter that William had tried and failed to extort money from his father. However, author Leonard Rebello did extensive research on the William Borden in Brown's book and he was able to prove he was not Andrew Borden's son. Although Emma had an alibi at Fairhaven, (about 15 miles (24 km) from Fall River), crime writer Frank Spiering proposed in his 1984 book Lizzie that she might have secretly visited the residence to kill her parents before returning to Fairhaven to receive the telegram informing her of the murders.

Later life

After the trial, the Borden sisters moved into a large, modern house in The Hill neighborhood in Fall River. Around this time, Lizzie began using the name Lizbeth A. Borden. At their new house, which Lizbeth dubbed "Maplecroft", they had a staff that included live-in maids, a housekeeper, and a coachman. Because Abby was ruled to have died before Andrew, her estate went first to Andrew and then, at his death, passed to his daughters as part of his estate; a considerable settlement, however, was paid to settle claims by Abby's family.

Despite the acquittal, Borden was ostracized by Fall River society. Her name was again brought into the public eye when she was accused of shoplifting in 1897 in Providence, Rhode Island. In 1905, shortly after an argument over a party that Lizbeth had given for actress Nance O'Neil, Emma moved out of the house. She never saw her sister again.

Death

Borden was ill in her last year following the removal of her gallbladder; she died of pneumonia on June 1, 1927, in Fall River. Funeral details were not published and few attended. Nine days later, Emma died from chronic nephritis at the age of 76 in a nursing home in Newmarket, New Hampshire, having moved to this location in 1923 both for health reasons and to avoid renewed publicity following the publication of another book about the murders. The sisters, neither of whom had ever married, were buried side by side in the family plot in Oak Grove Cemetery.

At the time of her death, Borden was worth over $250,000 (equivalent to $4,938,000 in 2019). She owned a house on the corner of French Street and Belmont Street, several office buildings, shares in several utilities, two cars and a large amount of jewelry. She left $30,000 (equivalent to $593,000 in 2019) to the Fall River Animal Rescue League and $500 ($10,000 in 2019) in trust for perpetual care of her father's grave. Her closest friend and a cousin each received $6,000 ($119,000 today)-substantial sums at the time of the estate's distribution in 1927-and numerous friends and family members each received between $1,000 ($20,000 in 2019) and $5,000 ($99,000 in 2019).

Aaron Kosminsky A.K.A. Jack the Ripper

Jack the Ripper was an unidentified serial killer active in the largely impoverished areas in and around the Whitechapel district of London in 1888. In both the criminal case files and contemporary journalistic accounts, the killer was called the Whitechapel Murderer and Leather Apron .

Attacks ascribed to Jack the Ripper typically involved female prostitutes who lived and worked in the slums of the East End of London whose throats were cut prior to abdominal mutilations. The removal of internal organs from at least three of the victims led to proposals that their killer had some anatomical or surgical knowledge. Rumours that the murders were connected intensified in September and October 1888, and numerous letters were received by media outlets and Scotland Yard from individuals purporting to be the murderer. The name "Jack the Ripper" originated in a letter written by an individual claiming to be the murderer that was disseminated in the media. The letter is widely believed to have been a hoax and may have been written by journalists in an attempt to heighten interest in the story and increase their newspapers' circulation. The "From Hell" letter received by George Lusk of the Whitechapel Vigilance Committee came with half of a preserved human kidney, purportedly taken from one of the victims. The public came increasingly to believe in a single serial killer known as "Jack the Ripper", mainly because of both the extraordinarily brutal nature of the murders, and media coverage of the crimes.

Extensive newspaper coverage bestowed widespread and enduring international notoriety on the Ripper, and the legend solidified. A police investigation into a series of eleven brutal murders committed in Whitechapel and Spitalfields between 1888 and 1891 was unable to connect all the killings conclusively to the murders of 1888. Five victims-Mary Ann Nichols, Annie Chapman, Elizabeth Stride, Catherine Eddowes, and Mary Jane Kelly-are known as the "canonical five" and their murders between 31 August and 9 November 1888 are often considered the most likely to be linked. The murders were never solved, and the legends surrounding these crimes became a combination of historical research, folklore, and pseudohistory.

Grigori Rasputin

Grigori Yefimovich Rasputin ; Russian: Григорий Ефимович Распутин; 21 January [O.S. 9 January] 1869 - 30 December [O.S.

17 December] 1916) was a Russian mystic and self-proclaimed holy man who befriended the family of Nicholas II, the last emperor of Russia, and gained considerable influence in late imperial Russia.

Rasputin was born to a peasant family in the Siberian village of Pokrovskoye in the Tyumensky Uyezd of Tobolsk Governorate (now Yarkovsky District of Tyumen Oblast). He had a religious conversion experience after taking a pilgrimage to a monastery in 1897. He has been described as a monk or as a "strannik" (wanderer or pilgrim), though he held no official position in the Russian Orthodox Church. He traveled to St. Petersburg in 1903 or the winter of 1904-1905, where he captivated some church and social leaders. He became a society figure and met Emperor Nicholas and Empress Alexandra in November 1905.

In late 1906, Rasputin began acting as a healer for the imperial couple's only son, Alexei, who suffered from hemophilia. He was a divisive figure at court, seen by some Russians as a mystic, visionary, and prophet, and by others as a religious charlatan. The high point of Rasputin's power was in 1915 when Nicholas II left St. Petersburg to oversee Russian armies fighting World War I, increasing both Alexandra and Rasputin's influence. Russian defeats mounted during the war, however, and both Rasputin and Alexandra became increasingly unpopular. In the early morning of 30 December [O.S. 17 December] 1916, Rasputin was assassinated by a group of conservative noblemen who opposed his influence over Alexandra and Nicholas.

Historians often suggest that Rasputin's terrible reputation helped discredit the tsarist government and thus helped precipitate the overthrow of the Romanov dynasty which happened a few weeks after he was assassinated. Accounts of his life and influence were often based on hearsay and rumor.

Catherine O'Leary's Cow

Catherine "Cate" O'Leary (née Donegan ; March 1827 - 3 July 1895) was an Irish immigrant living in Chicago, Illinois who became famous when it was alleged that an accident involving her cow had started the Great Chicago Fire of 1871. Born Catherine Donegan, she and her husband Patrick O'Leary had three children, one of whom, James Patrick O'Leary, ran a well-known Chicago saloon and gambling hall.

On the evening of October 8, 1871, a fire consumed the O'Leary family's barn at 137 DeKoven Street. Due to a high wind and dry conditions, it spread to burn a large percentage of the city, an event known as the Great Chicago Fire.

After the Great Fire, Chicago Republican (now defunct) reporter Michael Ahern published a claim that the fire had started when a cow kicked over a lantern while it was being milked. The owner was not named, but Catherine O'Leary soon was identified because the fire had begun in her family's barn. Illustrations and caricatures soon appeared depicting Mrs. O'Leary with her cow. The idea captured the popular imagination and still is circulated widely today. However, in 1893 Ahern finally admitted he had made the story up.

The official report simply states: "Whether it originated from a spark blown from a chimney on that windy night, or was set on fire by human agency, we are unable to determine".

Mrs. O'Leary testified that she had been in bed when the fire began, and she had no idea what caused it. Daniel "Pegleg" Sullivan, the first person to raise the alarm, said that on seeing the barn on fire, he ran to free the animals, which included a cow owned by Sullivan's mother. He then informed the O'Learys, who were in their home and were unaware of the fire.

Anti-Irish attitudes at the time encouraged making scapegoats of the O'Leary family. It was claimed that the alleged accident happened because she was drunk or that she had hidden the evidence of her guilt. Neighbors were reported to have claimed that they saw broken glass from the lamp, though all these "reports" were unverified. One man claimed he had found the damaged lamp, but it had been stolen by another Irishman to protect the O'Learys.

Other rumors insisted that Daniel Sullivan had started the fire, or perhaps it was Louis M. Cohn, who claimed to have been gambling in the barn with the O'Learys' son and others. Another theory about how the fire started is that a meteor started the fire.

Death and aftermath

Catherine O'Leary died on July 3, 1895, of acute pneumonia at her home at 5133 Halsted Street, and was buried at Mount Olivet Cemetery. In the PBS documentary Chicago: City of the Century, a descendant of O'Leary's stated that she spent the rest of her life in the public eye, and she constantly was blamed for starting the fire. Overcome with much sadness and regret, she "died heartbroken."

The last living relative of Catherine O'Leary died in 1936. Amateur historian Richard Bales gathered sufficient evidence on Sullivan to convince the Chicago City Council to exonerate Mrs. O'Leary of any guilt in 1997.

Brittney: Black Bart!

Lucy Loud: GASP! Jack the Ripper!

Haiku: Lizzie Borden!

Anastasia: Rasputin!

Lana: Catherine O'Leary's cow!

Nico: I know these people all too well!

Rainbow Dash: Who are these people?

Me: These are some of the most dangerous and most evil people that ever lived during the 19th Century.

Jessie K.: That's right. Black Bart was a very dangerous outlaw from the Old West.

Qin: Lizzie Borden hacked her entire family to death with an axe.

Brittney: Jack the Ripper was the most fucked up wacko serial killer that terrorized all of London and killed over 25 people.

Me: His real name is Aaron Kosminski.

Nico: Yep.

Anastasia: And Grigori Rasputin is the monster who killed my entire family and overthrew the Tsarhood of Russia.

Lana: And Catherine O'Leary's cow is responsible for starting the Great Chicago Fire!

Me: It kicked over a lit lantern and started the fire that destroyed 90% of the city of Chicago back in 1871. Totally reduced to charred rubble.

Qin: That's horrible!

Nico: It was. 3.3 Square miles of the city were lost back then. And because of that cow she died of a broken heart.

Otto: Yeah.

Wiggum: Alright, Nobel! Hands where we can see them!

Nobel: You'll never take me alive copper!

Me: We don't have to take you alive old man!

Cheetah: (to Nobel) I get it. You probably had one of your goons following us so you'd know we were coming!

Nobel: That's right!

Me: Very sneaky!

Molten Man, Ghost, Riddler, Wolf and Zexion appeared.

Me: Molten Man, Ghost, Riddler, Rolf and Zexion.

Ghost: That's right.

Molten Man: Look, guys. I don't know when we'll have the usual battles today. But a new recruit is coming anyway.

Maria: Really? When's he coming?

Zexion: Right now. But promise you won't laugh.

Me: We'll try not too.

But then I got splattered in my face with ketchup!

SPLAT!

Nico: Ketchup!

Condiment King: Who splattered you, do you ask? Why, the Captain of Ketchup, of course! The Master of Mustard! The Monarch of Mayo himself… The Condiment King!

It was none other than the first villain that Nico busted when he first joined us after he moved in to the neighborhood: Buddy Standler A.K.A. THE CONDIMENT KING!

---

The Condiment King is a minor antagonist towards the superhero Batman, as well as Robin and Batgirl. He was originally created as a joke villain who appeared in Batman: The Animated Series, but was later adapted into the comics as well. Although his origins differ in both depictions, he is universally portrayed as a dimwitted criminal who uses condiment-themed weaponry.

Batman: The Animated Series

In Batman the Animated Series, the Condiment King was a stand up comedian named Buddy Standler, who judged an annual stand-up comedy competition. He and his fellow judges rejected a comedian named Shecky Rimshot, who was really the Joker using an alias. A year later, Buddy took up the "Condiment King" alias and used ketchup and mustard sprayers to hold up a popular restaurant. After escaping with the customer's money and jewels, Buddy was quickly defeated by Batman, being hospitalized in the process. It was later revealed that the Condiment King, along with the other strange "villains", were brainwashed by the Joker using Mad Hatter's mind control technology, which resulted in him and the other two being freed of all criminal charges.

Me: Buddy Standler A.K.A. the Condiment King! I thought you were given your job as a comedian back after we got rid of the mind control from The Mad Hatter.

Condiment King: It was because of Tetch that my entire life was ruined. I lost everything that day because of him! He got my show cancelled, I lost all my money, my entire career was flushed down the toilet.

Me: You did all that against your will Buddy. But if we see Tetch we'll kill him.

Nico: (to Condiment King) Look, Buddy. We had to arrest you. But I don't have any hard feelings against you, okay?

Condiment King: I know.

SPLAT!

He splattered Nico with mustard in his face.

Condiment King: Now we're even.

Me: I'm sorry that Tetch ruined your entire career. But if he escapes Arkham you can have first crack at him and blind him with this.

I hand him a bottle of my most lethal hot sauce.

Condiment King: Thank you J.D.

Me: I make my own hot sauces. They are both deadly and spicy good.

Condiment: I like it.

?: He does make good hot sauces from what I was told.

A figure came out and it was SLOGRE from episode 4 of Ninja Steel!

Slogre was a Turtle/Fire Extinguisher-themed monster which appears in Power Rangers Ninja Steel. He serves as the primary villain of the episode "Presto Change-O."

Rather than fight all five Rangers and risk losing his fans, Galvanax summoned a Slogre, a turtle-like monster to fight them instead, the Rangers morphed and they took in Slogre and and army of Kudabots. While the White, Yellow and Pink Rangers took on the army of Kudabots, the Red Ranger took on Slogre, but he was out match, but the Yellow, Pink and White Rangers will able to make a beat down on the monster, but Slogre was able to use his Slow Mist Breath on the three Rangers to disable them, he later encounter the Blue Ranger and right before he could strike the Yellow Ranger, he was struck in the back by the Blue Ranger's Ninja Fire Attack, causing a great deal of harm on the monster, and causing him to flee (right after jumping on the Yellow Ranger) right into the water, tho he did return to tell the Buzzcams that the mist will slow down the three Rangers, and that he will get the Power Stars, he later return to happily see the Yellow, Pink and White Rangers "feeling sluggish", the Rangers will about to morph, but due to how slow they are, Slogre was easily able to steal their power stars one-by-one. But before he could finish of the three Rangers and escape with the Power Stars however, the Red and Blue Rangers appeared, the Blue Ranger was able to used his newly acquired magic to tie up Slogre and stop him, allowing the Red Ranger to take back the Power Stars. He broke free and then after the Red and Blue Ranger morphed, fought the two Rangers, they used the Ninja Metal Attack, but it was just falling metal pans, and with the Steel Slash, Ninja Spin Final Attack, Slogre was defeated, freeing the other Rangers from his spell. He was enlarged by Cosmo Royale thanks to a unanimous vote from the audience, the Rangers summon the Ninja Steel Zords to become the Ninja Steel Megazord to take on Slogre, they had the upper hand at first, but Slogre had the ability to fly, the Red Ranger attempted to use his Robo Red Zord to take Slogre on head first, but unfortunately he gets hit by the Mist Attack and was beat down by Slogre, but then the Blue Ranger was able to use the Dragon Zord to blast Slogre and save Robo Red Zord and the Red Ranger, the Rangers then combined to become newly formed Ninja Steel Megazord Dragon Formation and with the Dragon Lighting Final Attack, Slogre was taken out.

Brody Romero: Slogre!

Slogre: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to fight the rangers to boost the ratings of the fans. You fought the red and blue Rangers and the rest fought your Kudabots.

Slogre: That's right. Mistress Vypra was right about you J.D. You never missed an episode.

Me: Indeed.

Nobel: LETS GET THEM BOYS!

They charged at us.

Slogre just used his Slow Mist Breath on Catherine O'Leary's Cow, making it move in slow motion.

Poliwag: What did you do to the cow?

Slogre: I used my Slow Mist Break to slow it down. If you guys want to have the usual battles now, I can do the same to Nobel and the rest of his buddies.

Me: I think we're gonna have to do the battles later in our gym after we're done here.

Noah Carver: Time to correct a little history!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Lightmask Squad!

Me: I think we're gonna have to do the battles later in our gym after we're done here. LETS GET THEM!

We went at them!

Tuddrussel: GET SOME!

I punched Nobel in the face and Nico kicked Jack the Ripper in the stomach and knocked him down and I punched Black Bart as he pulled out his guns and kicked them out of his arms and Anastasia kicked Rasputin in the face and took his hammer and smashed his face in.

Allenby: You give the real Alfred Nobel a bad name!

Jared: Well said honey!

Tuddrussel kicked Rasputin and Allenby smashed Lizzie Borden's face in with a powerful kick.

Allenby: That was for killing your family!

Dhilas, Chaor, and Lyssta blasted and smashed the 5 all over and Fluttershy and Lana tamed the cow. They could never kill the cow.

The cow realized it's crimes and cried and Fluttershy soothed it.

Hot Spot: Time for some teamwork!

Trent Fernandez: Yeah!

Tantrum and Trent used the Earth and Dino Thunder Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Tantrum's Electro Sword and Trent's Dino Thunder powers 100-fold.

Hot Spot and Dr. Light used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Hot Spot's Fireball Cannon and Dr. Light's powers 100-fold.

G1 Tantrum and Trent Fernandez: THUNDER DRAGON BLADESLASH!

Tantrum fired blades of lightning and Trent fired blades of white light.

G1 Hot Spot and Dr. Light (Mega Man): FIREBALL ENERGY SHOWER!

Hot Spot fired waves of fireballs and Dr. Light fired blasts of energy.

The blasts slammed into the 4 evil figures and knocked them down. We then set our sights on Nobel.

Clyde: Time for some time power!

Tuddrussel: IT'S GO TIME!

Allenby, Jared, Tuddrussel, Otto, Larry 3000 and Clyde: TIME DRAGON OF SWEDISH FIRE!

They fired blasts of energy and fire and the blasts formed into a fiery blue dragon and it slammed into Nobel and exploded!

KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

They were defeated and knocked out.

Me: Take that you 5!

Fluttershy: Yay.

Nico: Alfred B. Nobel you have failed this timeline.

Jen Scotts: Yes he has.

Lincoln: Yep.

Wiggum: Now these 5 are looking at spending the rest of their natural messed up lives in the big house.

Me: That's right. But for Jack the Ripper here he's gonna be hanged for the murders of 25 people.

May: You know, even thought Nobel's defeated, I still feel like someone's following us.

Manaphy: I think some mysteries are better left unsolved, Mama.

Me: I agree. Lets head back home so we can have our battles.

Tuddrussel: Good idea. But first lets go eat steak.

Me: Good idea. I'm starving.

Nico: Can't have our battles on an empty stomach.

Leif: You got that right.

---

We all went back home to the 21st Century in our time and we restored the honor of Nobel. We went to a local steak restaurant and Rolf was taking care of Mrs. O'Leary's cow. We ordered lots of great steaks and we ate them and man were we hungry. But not as hungry as Twilight Sparkle was. She ate five whole steaks and man was she REALLY hungry. Jared and Lisa had salads.

BURP!

Tuddrussel: Ahh. Man that was great.

Me: (Burps) Ahh. You said it Tuddrussel. Great steak.

Nico: It was delicious. I'm stuffed.

Qin: Me too.

Me: But man Twilight you were REALLY hungry.

Twilight Sparkle: I know. I must've missed out on breakfast because of all my studies.

Me: Boy no kidding. Your brain loves knowledge but even your stomach needs to be filled up.

Lincoln: That's right.

Jared: The salad was great too.

Allenby: It sure was.

Condiment King: (to Poromon) Did you really enjoy my condiments?

Poromon: They were really tasty!

Poliwag: Yeah!

Me: They ate a whole barrel full of ketchup from you.

Lincoln: Yep.

Laney: These steaks are really good though.

Sunset Shimmer: They sure are.

We had a really good lunch and when we paid for our food we went back home to the gym.

---

We were ready for our usual battles.

Me: Okay now that we've eaten lets get the battles underway.

?: Not without me. I have a score to settle.

We turned and we saw REGINALD KASTLE!

Nico: (to Reginald Kastle) Dude, can you come back another time?

Otto: Yeah! We just got done fighting a bad version of Alfred Nobel.

Reginald: No I came here to destroy one person!

Eli: Reginald Kastle!

Eli went up to him.

Reginald Kastle: Well if it isn't little Eli. You and I have an old score to settle!

Me: You know him Eli?

Eli: Long story.

But then we got a big shock when we saw the Number Hunters: Yuma Tsukino, Tori Meadows, Astral, Kite Tenjo, Hart Tenjo, Bronk Stone, Caswell Francis, Cathy Katherine, Kari Tsukino, Haru Tsukino, and Mira Tsukino!

Eli: Yuma! Everyone!

Yuma Tsukino: Long time no see Eli.

Me: Yuma it's an honor to meet you.

Yuma: Wow! J.D. Knudson!

Tori Meadows: Wow! It's such an honor to meet you all.

Horsea: (to Tori Meadows) Hi! I'm Horsea. Do you want to cuddle with me?

Tori Meadows: OH YOU ARE SO CUTE! (Hugs Horsea)

Yusei Fudo: Yuma it's great to see you again.

Jaden: Yeah how have you all been?

Yuma: We are now on a quest to find the Numbers Cards.

Astral: That's right.

Isabelle: The Numbers Cards? Oh man this is huge.

Me: And let me guess. Reginald is possessed by one.

Yuma: That's right.

Me: That must mean that we have a new enemy in the world of Duel Monsters.

Nico: Then we have to be ready for them.

Lincoln: Yep.

Me: Lets get the battles underway.

Carol: Guys look at Unita!

We saw that he had turned into his evil form and he was now a nightmare fiery unicorn creature called UNITA-KON!

We gasped and we heard malevolent laughter and we saw PETRA FINA!

Carol: PETRA! YOU MONSTER!

Princess Celestia: Lets get her!

Misty Tredwell and Carly Carmine then appeared.

Misty Tredwell: Let us help out.

Carly Carmine: Yeah.

Me: Thanks girls.

We got the battles underway.

Cole: You will get your shot at him.

Pinkie Pie: We all will!

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) It'll be a most fun adventure.

Brody Romero: Take this! LION FIRE FLAME STRIKE!

He fired blasts of fire and cut him good.

The Megaforce Rangers blasted him all over the place and the blasts all hit him and blasted him all over the place.

Levi then went over and took a selfie with him.

Levi: Smile!

Slogre: Cheese!

He snapped a photo just in time as Slogre fell down and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

They cheered!

Sarah Thompson: In the words of Nico, Slogre you have failed this Universe!

Battle 10: Starlight Glimmer, Juniper Montage, Carly Carmine, Yuma Tsukino, me, Eli and Tori Meadows VS Reginald Kastle

---

We were now facing Reginald Kastle.

Me: I don't understand what has Reginald wanting to kill you and Eli, Yuma.

Yuma: It's a really complicated story.

Reginald Kastle: You're gonna see now. I summon NUMBER 17: LEVIATHAN DRAGON!

He summoned a terrifying blue dragon with 3 sets of wings and he looked really awesome!

Me: WHOA!

Starlight Glimmer: Wow! That is a scary looking dragon!

Me: No kidding!

Carly Carmine: I've never seen anything like this one.

Eli: It's one of the monsters that I'm trying to help Yuma find. It's a really strange history.

J.D. 3: And it's a really crazy one too. Eli and I have been trying to help Yuma and his friends all find 100 mystical cards called The Numbers.

J.D. 3 went over what the Numbers were.

---

Number " (Japanese: Ｎｏ．(ナンバーズ) Nanbāzu, "Numbers") is an archetype of Xyz Monsters that are the focus of the story in the Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL anime and manga. Each "Number" monster has a corresponding natural number included at the start of its name after "Number" (and occasionally a letter, such as C).

"Number Wall" and "Numbers Overlay Boost" are not "Number" cards because they do not have 「Ｎｏ．(ナンバーズ)」 in their Japanese names.

In the anime and manga, there are three basic "Number" monster variants: Emperor's Key "Numbers" (monsters with numbers from 1 to 100), "Over-Hundred Numbers" (monsters with numbers from 101 to 107 that are not pieces of Astral's memory, but instead are the signature cards of the Seven Barian Emperors), and "Barian Numbers" (fake monsters created by Don Thousand).

All 100 original "Numbers" have been revealed by name. 25 "Chaos" versions (Number C), 2 "Shining" versions (Number S), and 3 different non-"Chaos" versions of "Number 39: Utopia" - 1 Rank-Down (Number 39: Utopia Roots), 1 Rank-Up (Number 39: Utopia Beyond), and 1 support (Number 39: Utopia Double) - of the original 100 "Numbers" have also been revealed.

In addition to the original "Numbers", 7 "Over-Hundred Numbers" (Number 10X) and their own "Chaos" versions (Number C10X), 5 fake versions (Barian Numbers), 4 different versions of "Number 0" - 3 "Future" (Number F0: Utopic Future, its signature move version and Number F0: Utopic Future Dragon) and 1 "Shining" (Number S0: Utopic ZEXAL) - and Number XX: Utopic Dark Infinity have been revealed.

As confirmed by Satoshi Kuwabara, "Number" monsters are not chosen randomly but are decided "carefully with attention to details, so that fans can enjoy it in various places", which often results in puns and second meanings for each "Number".

The "Number" archetype has the second most members of any archetype in the TCG / OCG, behind "HERO".

During Astral's battle against Don Thousand, fragments of Astral's power were scattered across Earth and designated the location of the Numeron Code. They took the form of 50 "Numbers", among them the seven Mythyrian "Numbers"[2] and the four "Numeron Gate" monsters.

When Yuma Tsukumo unlocked the door with his Emperor's Key, he opened a portal between Astral World and his own, which allowed Astral to come into his world. Yuma found himself trapped within a sphere of blank cards, which shortly flew away. Astral's remaining power and memories were scattered into 50 more "Number" cards. Astral cooperated with Yuma to regain his lost memories . When Astral collected all of the cards, something else happened besides his memory recovery. Astral thought it'd cause something troublesome, while Dr. Faker claims Astral will obtain a great power and use it for taking revenge on him. It is later revealed that Astral will obtain the Numeron Code, which he was to use to annihilate Barian World in order to Rank-Up Astral World, but Yuma aborted this mission. However, Barian World's leaders, the Seven Barian Emperors, were also trying to collect the "Numbers." If all the Numbers were collected, they would obtain the Numeron Code and use it to destroy Astral World.

Usually, "Numbers" are blank cards that take the form of something that whoever finds them desires the most, design themselves to fit their original owner's Decks and keep that form forever. Some Duelists may have more than one "Number" card that fit their Deck. Their card text is written in a strange alien language that only those who wield them can understand (in the dub, all "Numbers" appear normally like other cards seen with the exception of episode 2, in which "Number 39: Utopia" is blurred). When they are Summoned, their respective numbers are printed on their users, appearing in many places as the forehead, neck, left and right hands (in Cameron Clix's case, it appeared under his right eye and in Number 56's holder's case, it appeared on his left shoulder).

When Summoned, most "Numbers" initially appear in what design sheets refer to as their "neutral form/body", often called a "sealed form" by fans. The "Number" then transforms into the creature depicted in the card's artwork through various means. "Number" monsters use a galaxy-like Overlay Network portal in contrast to regular Xyz Monsters, who use a red spiral portal.

Astral stated that there are 99 "Numbers", but according to Kite Tenjo there are 100 "Numbers". As Astral had successfully retained 1 of the "Numbers", "Utopia", it is possible Astral was referring to the other 99 "Numbers". However, Dr. Faker believes that, aside from 99 "Numbers" which are Astral's pieces of memory, Astral himself is "the Original Number" (ナンバーズのオリジナル, Nanbāzu no Orijinaru ). Later, Astral corrected himself, stating there are one hundred "Numbers".

A "Number" monster is absorbed into Astral when a Duelist using it is defeated. The "Number" can then be used by any Duelist whom Astral is currently with. Each "Number" contains a piece of Astral's memory, which he recovers each time he absorbs one. After Astral absorbs a "Number", they are stored in a Different Dimension Airship within the Emperor's Key. Each has its own pillar within the structure, engraved with its number.

"Numbers" in the anime are dangerous cards as they can easily amplify the darkness and desires of their holder user, whether these cause were good or bad. The "Number" monsters can also easily possess their holder with their power with the exception of Yuma's possession of the Emperor's Key, Kite Tenjo's Photon Transformation, and the Vetrix Family's crests. Some individuals can overcome the possession of a "Number", as demonstrated by Shark with his "Number 32: Shark Drake". However, the power of Photon Transformation and the crests seem to be limited, and has fatal consequences and being used to wield a "Number" card will drastically exhaust their user.

When a Number holder has reached a high level of a certain emotion, "Chaos Numbers" start to appear. For example, Astral and Yuma obtained "Utopia Ray" after Astral was happy to know Yuma considered him a friend. Reginald Kastle also obtained "Shark Drake Veiss" after his desire for revenge was amplified by "Shark Drake".

In the Barian Invasion arc, "Numbers 10X" are introduced as the signature cards of the Seven Barian Emperors. Astral cannot absorb them, as they are not part of his memories. They were later revealed to be created by Don Thousand as a means to release himself from his prison and restore his power.

Later on, the Mythyrian "Numbers" were introduced by Vector and Don Thousand that are located in ruins across the world, protected by guardians. Each of these "Number" corresponds to a legend inscribed on the walls of the ruins, telling the story of the person who occupied that location in a previous era, before they became ruins due to the ravages of time. Rather than take their form based on their holder's Deck, they take a form relative to the legend that is described.

"Numbers" can be Ranked-Up as seen when Yuma/Astral used "Rank-Up-Magic Astral Force" to Summon "Number 39: Utopia Beyond". "Numbers" can also be Ranked-Down, as seen when Yuma performed a Rank-Down with "Rank-Down-Magic Numeron Fall" to Summon "Number 39: Utopia Roots".

What sets "Numbers" apart from other Xyz Monsters in the anime is that they can only be destroyed by battle by another "Number". though this is a card effect and thus can be negated. In the TCG/OCG, "Number Wall" provides this protection instead.

"Numbers" are the result of great power being sealed into a card, as demonstrated by Yuma's "Number F0: Utopia Future", which was created through Yuma's power to believe in others. As a result, "Numbers" possess powers far beyond that of ordinary Xyz Monsters.

We gasped in shock!

Me: WHOA! And these 100 number cards are the fragments of Astral's memory and they are the key to prevent an evil interdimensional force from destroying the planet!? That's horrible!

J.D. 3: It is.

Eli: That's right. The name of this evil force is called Barian and we have to stop it.

Tori Meadows: That's right and I promised Yuma that I would always be there to help him. Because I love him.

Everyone: AWW!

Me: Wow. Looks like we have an enemy that is worse than Dartz. Yuma we'll gladly help you out.

Carly Carmine: Same here. Me and the Masters of Evil all helped with duelists like Reginald before.

Me: Yeah.

Eli: I'll tell you all about the Barian later. Right now we have to save Reginald.

Me: Right. I summon NINE-HEADED DRAGON!

Carly Carmine: I summon EARTHBOUND IMMORTAL ASLLA PISCU!

Tori Meadows: I summon FAIRY CHEER GIRL!

Yuma: I summon NUMBER 39: UTOPIA!

Starlight Glimmer: I summon CONSTELLAR PTOLEMY M7!

Juniper Montage: I summon SYLVAN BLADEFENDER!

Eli: I summon the Egyptian God, SLIFER THE SKY DRAGON!

We summoned said monsters and I saw that Yuma had a Number.

Me: Wow! You have a Number too Yuma?

Yuma: I sure do. But don't worry as long as I wear this, the Emperor's Key, and as long as Astral is with me I won't be possessed by him.

Me: Wow! That's a good safety measure.

Eli: It sure is.

Me: I know.

We fired energy blasts and more and knocked down Reginald and freed him and I took Number 17 and a flash of light went into Astral and he got his memory back.

Me: Whoa! These Number Cards look intense and the power they have is incredible. What memory did Number 17 contain?

Eli: To remind Astral that he has the power to recover all his memories from the 99 numbers.

Me: Wow! And which memory did 39 carry?

Eli: His name, dueling skills, and how the numbers are the fragments of his memories.

Me: Wow! Looks like we have a long way to go if we want to get all his memories back.

Eli: Yeah we have our work cut out for us.

Me: Yep.

Eli: But Reginald will be fine.

Me: Good.

Ghost: (to Yuma) It was nice meeting you and your friends.

Yuma: Same here. But can we really trust you guys?

Riddler: After everything we've been though with Team Loud Phoenix Storm, we've definitely proven to be trustworthy.

Wolf: (looks at Reginald Kastle) So, what happens to him?

Me: He'll be all right.

Isabelle: The Spirit of Number 17: Leviathan Dragon is a representation of Reginald's lust for power. It turned him into a powerhungry kid. He's back to normal and will be on the road of redemption.

Yuma: That's right.

Wolf: That's a relief.

Me: Yep.

Otto: (To the viewers) This is gonna be a fun adventure. But we have a lot of history to go over. Now it's gonna be most fun.

Me: Yep.

We had a nice rest.

Another awesome fanfiction done.

Alfred B. Nobel from the Time Squad episode Nobel Peace Surprise was a strange one and it was really funny! Now we also start getting into finding the awesome and cool 100 Number Cards and we're gonna be on an awesome hunt of majorly interdimensional proportions. The next Number is Number 34 and it's gonna be a tough one for that one. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the vengeful archnemesis of Uncle Grandpa: Aunt Grandma and we're going to make that heartless vengeful witch pay for going after Uncle Grandpa like she does.

See you all tomorrow.

Mean Aunt Grandma

In Sweet Apple Acres we were running through the orchards and we saw that there was a huge turtle with trees on its shell eating the trees.

[stomping]

Me: Whoa! That is a huge turtle!

Laney: Wow! I didn't think turtles could grow plants on their shells.

Yuma: Unless they were island turtles.

Sailor Earth: Yeah.

Lincoln: That is so cool.

Twilight Sparkle : Remind me how this happened again!?

[crunch]

Applejack : And why there's a giant turtle eatin' my family's entire summer crop!?

Fluttershy : Oh, dear. Mr. Tortoise-Snap said he was hungry. But he promised me he would only take a few small bites.

Rainbow Dash : I don't think that thing knows what "small" is.

Me: For someone as big as him it would be a whole orchard.

Mr. Tortoise-Snap : [gulps] [stomping]

The turtle then grabbed a tree with his tongue and accidentally tied spike to the tree.

Spike : Aah!

Rarity : Spikey-Wikey!

Me: Oh no! Spike!

Spike : Whoa!

Mr. Tortoise-Snap : [chomps]

Twilight Sparkle : Applejack and Pinkie, you distract him! J.D., Nico, Sunset Shimmer, Rainbow Dash, Rarity, and Fluttershy, let's save Spike!

Me: Lets do it!

We went at the turtle.

Applejack : [grunting]

Applejack kicked a tree and the apples fell.

[whirring]

Pinkie Pie hurled the apples like a machine gun at the turtle.

Mr. Tortoise-Snap : [low growl]

[snap!]

Rarity tied a ribbon around the turtle like a muzzle.

Fluttershy : Mr. Tortoise-Snap, I'm only asking nicely once! Let my friend go!

Me: Better do what she says.

Mr. Tortoise-Snap : [low growl]

Spike : Whoa! Whoa!

Nico grabbed Spike.

Nico saw that Spike was covered in spit from the turtle.

Nico: Yuck!

Spike was curled in a fetal position and rocking back in forth and Lola and Lori were cleaning him up.

Twilight Sparkle : And now, a simple teleportation spell should-

Princess Celestia : Halt, interloper!

We saw Princess Celestia and Princess Luna flying above us and they wanted to help out too.

Luster Dawn: Princess Celestia, Princess Luna?

Princess Luna : Stay back, friends! My sister and I will take care of the beast!

They went at the turtle and fired magic blasts at the turtle.

Me: Whoa! They are really going at him.

[magic zaps]

Rainbow Dash : All the times we've actually needed their help, and they show up for this ?

Me: Well I think they want to help too.

[whooshing]

[teleportation zap]

They teleported the turtle somewhere.

Me: Oh that is cool!

Twilight Sparkle : That's just what I was about to do!

Princess Luna : [laughs] Goodness, sister! That was fun!

Princess Celestia : No need to thank us. To be honest, we've recently realized we like being part of the action.

Me: Glad you like the superhero fun Princesses.

Nico: But it's not all fun and games just so you know.

Princess Celestia: We know all that.

Princess Luna : Experiencing life instead of just dreaming about it.

Princess Celestia : And making a difference outside the throne room.

Princess Celestia and Princess Luna : [laughing]

Applejack : Y'all think they're gonna be doin' this a lot?

Me: Something tells me Yes.

Later Fluttershy, Angel the bunny, me and Laney were walking over a bridge when suddenly Fluttershy stepped on a loose brick.

[crunch]

It fell out of the bridge and landed in the river.

[splash]

Me: Whoa! That was a close one.

Laney: It sure was. You all right Fluttershy?

Fluttershy : Oh, my. Yes I'm fine. We'd better ask somepony to fix that hole. It seems very dangerous.

Princess Luna : Which is why we're here! [whoosh]

Princess Celestia and Luna swooped in and we got out of the way as they moved the old bridge and replaced it with a Canterlot-Style brand new bridge.

[thud]

Me: WHOA!

Laney: Wow! That bridge looks better that way.

Me: It sure does. But it could use a little something to make it better.

I fired beams of red light and replaced the ball ornaments along the bridge with statues of the princesses and on the ends I turned the apples into our symbol with the Sun and the Moon on top.

Laney: That is Much better!

Fluttershy: Nice bridge.

Princess Celestia: Thank you J.D.

Princess Luna: It's much better than it was before.

[ponies cheering]

Later that night, Rainbow Dash, Nico and the Filly Guides were walking through the woods. Rainbow Dash was trying to find their way to the camp.

Rainbow Dash : [growls] I can't read this thing. How am I supposed to lead a Filly Guides hike if the map makes us more lost?

Nico: Don't worry Rainbow, we'll find the camp.

Princess Celestia : Did somepony say "lost"?

Princess Celestia and Luna appeared.

Princess Luna : Not for long! [laughs]

[zap!]

They fired a blast of magic and made a path through the trees and it lead to the camp.

Nico: Wow! That was helpful. Thanks Princesses.

Princess Celestia: Anytime Nico.

Later at Sugarcube Corner, Lola, Pinkie Pie and Mrs. Cake were making desserts.

Pinkie Pie : [slurps]

Mrs. Cake : Oh, now, this is just terrible!

Lola: What's wrong Mrs. Cake?

Mrs. Cake: Miss Cheerilee ordered cupcakes for school today, and I forgot to make the order!

Lola: Hey no sweat, we can make still make it.

Pinkie Pie : Ah, no biggie. We could- [crash!]

Princess Celestia and Luna made an entrance.

Princess Celestia : Students going hungry? Not on our watch!

Lola: Nice entrance!

Princess Luna : Thank you Lola. Let us bake, sister!

Lola: I can help you.

Princess Celestia: Thanks Lola.

Lola, Princess Celestia and Luna got to baking much to the dismay of Pinkie Pie.

Pinkie Pie : [gasps] [splattering]

Later at Twilight Sparkle's Castle of Friendship, a meeting was being held.

Applejack : And then they carried Granny Smith across the street. There wasn't even any traffic!

Varie: Yeah and traffic is usually a rare sight here in Ponyville.

Fluttershy : It's not that we don't appreciate their help.

Me: They do have fun with us.

Rarity : But suddenly, Celestia and Luna seem to think we can't do anything on our own.

Nico: Oh come on. Why would you think that?

Rainbow Dash : How are we supposed to learn to be rulers of Equestria with them fixing every teensy problem for us?

Twilight Sparkle : Maybe the princesses changed their minds. Maybe they don't think we're up to the responsibility of protecting Equestria after all!

Me: Twilight why would you think that?

Spike : Or maybe this week's just a one-time thing that'll never happen again.

Lily: Hmm. Maybe.

[doors open]

Princess Celestia and Luna came in.

Princess Celestia : Ah! A strategy meeting! What is the danger this time? A rampaging beast? Evil spell? Friendship problem?

Princess Luna : We're ready to do whatever we can.

Me: Love that enthusiasm when you're up and ready for the action.

Twilight Sparkle : Great. But is something wrong? It's just… You've been helping us an awful lot, and we know you have way more important ruler-y things to do, so…

Princess Luna : We've spent more than enough time in the throne room. Real life is happening out here.

Twilight Sparkle : Wait. That's what this is about? You're sick of being princesses?

Princess Celestia : Not exactly. Battling alongside you guys in your usual battles has made us realize what we've missed out on. So, instead of spending the day ruling…

Princess Luna :… and the night patrolling dreams…

Princess Celestia :… we wanted a chance to do the things you do. Save the day! Adventure with friends! Shampoo anteaters.

Spike : I'm pretty sure Fluttershy's the only pony that does that.

Me: Oh I get it.

Nico: That's totally understandable.

Vince: And assisting in our usual battles reignited that in you.

Princess Celestia: It sure did.

Rainbow Dash : Well, there are waaaay more fun things to do than follow us around.

Pinkie Pie : Ooh! You should make a list of all the stuff you never tried but always wanted to! There's a lotta little things out there to do!

Me: Yep. No offense but I think you two need a vacation and get some fun in.

Nico: Good idea.

Princess Celestia : What an intriguing idea. Only… it's much harder to justify a vacation from the castle when it's not an emergency we're responding to.

Twilight Sparkle : Don't worry. Shining Armor and Flurry Heart can cover your palace duties. It'll be a good chance for Flurry Heart to practice and help you out and join us for real.

Princess Luna : Well, if you're sure about that than we don't mind.

Twilight Sparkle : [scoffs] My brother and niece can handle it. Flurry Heart is next to become princess after all.

Princess Celestia : Thank you, Twilight! What a relief to know the Royal Swanifying Ceremony is in good hooves. [laughs]

Applejack : The what now?

Later at Canterlot, Princess Celestia was putting together a list.

Princess Celestia : "Fun Not Yet Had". [squeals] I can't wait to start planning our time off!

Princess Luna : The chance to do whatever we want! And you know what that means!

Princess Celestia : Adventure!

Princess Luna : Relaxation!

They looked at each other.

Princess Luna : Well, it's just that I… I spend each night in everypony's intense dreams. So I could use some real-world downtime.

Princess Celestia : [sighs] I understand. But for me, every day is real-world. Meetings and decrees and meetings about decrees and decrees about the meetings… I crave excitement!

Princess Luna : Uh, I'm not sure how we can both be happy. Unless…

Princess Celestia : [gasps] We take turns doing what we like!

Princess Celestia and Princess Luna : Sister trip!

Princess Luna : And I have the perfect accessories for us to wear! Wait right here! [teleportation zap] (Went to get something) [teleportation zap]

Princess Luna came back with 2 Hawaiian Style T-Shirts.

Princess Celestia : Oh. [nervous laugh] We'll be… twin-sies.

Princess Luna : [giggling] Just like regular pony tourists. I knew you'd love it.

Princess Celestia : I have a few things for us, too. [thud]

Celestia packed backpacks for them

Princess Celestia : Sunglasses, bug spray, ice boots, hoof sanitizer, and travel snacks!

Princess Luna : [slurps, chews, coughs]

Princess Celestia : You have to add water. What do you think?

Princess Luna : It's perfect, sister.

Later we were seeing them off.

Me: You two have fun and the castle will be in good hands while you're gone.

Princess Celestia: Thank you J.D.

Shining Armor: Cadance made shadow clones to help out and guide me.

Cadance: Yep.

Princess Celestia : And here are instructions of how to prepare for the Royal Swanifying.

Princess Celestia handed Flurry Heart the instructions.

Flurry Heart: Thank you Princess. I can handle it.

Princess Luna : One more thing. We're leaving you in charge of raising the sun and moon while we're gone.

Twilight Sparkle and Spike : [gasp]

Me: Whoa! That's gonna be a big job for her.

Twilight Sparkle : [nervous laugh]

Flurry Heart: Don't worry Aunt Twilight, I can handle it.

Princess Celestia : We have put a small part of our power in this amulet. You can activate it with your magic at any time. Preferably dawn and dusk.

She handed her an amulet.

Flurry Heart: Thanks Princess. We won't let you down.

Me: Have fun you two.

They were off.

Cadance: This is gonna be so cool!

We later left and went to the Jupiter Prison.

---

At the Jupiter Prison we were there to visit Bendy, the most hated Imaginary Friend in all of Foster's Home For Imaginary Friends!

Sideways: Here we are, guys. The cell of Bendy.

Me: Oh boy. Brace yourselves guys.

Rainbow Dash: Why?

Me: You guys would hate this little freak. He is a monster and he is no imaginary friend to anyone.

I went over Bendy's history.

---

Bendy is a minor character from Foster's Home for Imaginary Friends and the main villain of the episode "Everyone Know's It's Bendy". He is a troublemaker who always likes to do bad things and blame others for it.

He was voiced by Jeff Bennett, who also voiced Dick Hardly, Major Man, Joker and Jacques von Hämsterviel.

At the beginning of the episode, "Everybody Knows It's Bendy", Bendy's family drops him off because of his supposed antics (i.e. stealing cookies). Frankie and Mr. Herriman assume that Bendy's creator, Gregory, is to blame (as children could sometimes blame imaginary friends when they do something bad). Gregory and his family leave in disgust (but Gregory and Bendy were very sad due to Gregory forcibly abandoning him).

Frankie and Mr. Herriman comfort Bendy and later, Bendy goes into the Arcade Room. Once there, Bloo asked him if he wants to play video games against the winner, but Bendy then pushes a flower and vase (which was an heirloom) off the TV and it breaks. He then runs away for a few seconds until Bendy was called back due to Bloo saying it was him who broke the vase. Bendy was going into fake tears and Mr. Herriman scolds the four of them for blaming Bendy. While Bendy leaves, the four of them are forced to clean up the mess.

Later, Bendy was later laying on the couch and littering the floor with potato chips and shoved the bag of chips into Eduardo's hand. When Mr. Herriman accused Edwardo, he pointed to Bendy, who fully blamed Edwardo (just like earlier in the Arcade Room). Bendy later uses Wilt's shoes to track mud all over the walls and floor and like Edwardo, the same thing happens to Wilt and Wilt has a guilty look on his face which means Frankie will have to get Mr. Herriman over here to punish him.

Later, Bendy comes up from underneath the table and steals frosting from the cake with his finger and blames Coco (like earlier). Finally, he writes Bloo's name on the wall and Bloo grabbed the marker and was blamed just like the others. All four of them were confined to their room with Coco staring down at her nest, Bloo and Eduardo in the corners, and Wilt with his head down on the bed. Later, the four of them placed a baseball and bat near some glass and wait for Bendy to arrive.

When he gets there, he does use the baseball and bat to break the glass, but the four of them still got blamed for it and sent back to their room (especially the fact that because of Coco's tongue slipping, the pictures found at the scene taken by Coco show Bloo holding the bat). Later, he hijacks the intercom and insults Mr. Herriman and Frankie before Bloo grabs it from him.

When Bloo got caught, Bendy was initially blamed, but his alibi was he was scrubbing the toilets with a toothbrush, which resulted in Bloo being punished of no more TV, Video games, and paddle-ball until further notice. Bendy then mentions that the toothbrush he is using is, in fact, Bloo's. While he leaves, Bloo and Bendy start laughing as though it was a competition and Bloo was scolded for laughing. But Bloo comes up with an idea to fully expose Bendy by catching him in the act.

Bendy later walks up to a jar of Frankie's cookies and opens the lid. Just as he was chewing the cookie, a rigged camera took his picture. He goes up to the camera and grabs the photo, which is covered on one side with glue. Because he tried to get the glue covered picture off of his hand, he loses balance and makes a noise when he fell, which draws the attention to Frankie and Mr. Herriman.

He tried to draw on the photo with a marker (that was sabotaged) and it explodes ink all over the place and on him. He runs into the restroom to clean the mess off, but the faucet handle broke off and the sink was overflowing. When Mr. Herriman and Frankie demand the perpetrator to come out of the restroom at once, he was using toilet paper to stop the water from coming out. But it was too late because the house flooded and destroyed part of the house.

When Bendy was thought to be fully caught, Bloo tried to explained that Bendy was guilty the whole time and was framing everyone else, but also mentions what he did to fully exposing him (setting up the camera, putting glue on the photo, sabotaged the marker, loosened the faucet handle, clogged up the drain, and backed up the pipe system).

Because of this, Bloo was scolded for flooding the house, but he claimed that Bendy was the one that took the cookie, which Frankie and Mr. Herriman don't care about. When Mac comes to the doorstep, he asked Bloo what he did. But as Bloo yelled "Bendy did it!," Bendy was using spray paint on the view (breaking the fourth wall), ending the episode.

---

Everyone gasped.

Tigatron: Who in their right mind would make an Imaginary Friend like Bendy?

Me: No one knows Tigatron. Probably a braindead punk.

Nico: Maybe.

Bloo: I hate him more than life itself for everything he did.

Fluttershy: He gives all imaginary friends everywhere a bad name.

We went into his cell and we saw BENDY!

Me: Well well well. Fate hasn't been very kind on you huh Bendy?

Bendy then used the Puppy-Dog eyes on me and fake tears.

Bendy: It wasn't me that did all that! It was Bloo! He did it.

Me: Nice try. But those Crocodile Tears and Puppy-Dog eyes will never work on me.

Bendy: (GROWLS) YOU RUINED EVERYTHING FOR ME! I wanted Bloo and his friends to get in trouble so I can get the room he lived in all for myself! I HATE EVERYONE IN FOSTERS!

We gasped!

Mr. Herriman: (British Accent) Master Blooregard, you have my apologies for ignoring what Bendy did the first time.

Mac: Are you kidding? I'm the one at fault. I should've been there.

Dirge: Mac, I don't think you were even there the first time.

Mac: Oh yeah. I was on vacation with mom in Minnesota.

Fluttershy went over to Bendy and she used the Stare on him!

Fluttershy: YOU SHOULD BE ASHAMED OF YOURSELF! WHO DO YOU THINK YOU ARE DOING SUCH NAUGHTY THINGS AND FOOLING THAT OLD BUT WISE RABBIT TO BLAME IT ON THOSE POOR FRIENDS JUST TO HAVE YOUR OWN SELFISH

FUN! YOU'RE NOT AN IMAGINARY FRIEND, YOU'RE JUST A BIG! FAT ! MEANY!

I then jumped into Nico's arms in fright and Ed jumped into his Arms with me!

Nico: OOF! YOU'RE GIVING ME A HERNIA GUYS!

Ed: Fluttershy's dark side is really scary guys!

Me: Now I am really glad I don't want to get on her bad side.

Varie: Yeah but way to lay down the law on him Fluttershy!

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah!

Bendy was now in the corner of his cell curled up in a fetal position and crying uncontrollably.

Blades: (to Mr. Herriman) You should be flattered that Fluttershy thinks you're wise.

Mr. Herriman: I most certainly am. And Madam Fluttershy is definitely right.

Me: But the way Fluttershy used the Stare on Bendy was genius.

Bendy was sitting in the corner of his cell curled up in a fetal position crying and he was really scared out of his mind.

Nicole: After all the pain he caused I would say that he brought all this on himself.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: Agreed.

* * *

Back at the estate, I was doing more research on the Numbers Cards and Reginald was with me with an ice bag on his head.

Reginald: My aching head.

Me: Sorry about that Reginald.

Eli: Yeah we had to rough you up to save you from Number 17's influence.

Reginald: I appreciate that Eli and I'm sorry I did that to you.

Eli: It's all right.

Blitzwing: (to Yuma) I think it's time you explained more to us about the Number Cards.

Yuma: I would be honored.

Eli: And I can leave out some details that were missed.

They told us about the Numbers without missing any details.

---

"Number " (Japanese: Ｎｏ．(ナンバーズ) Nanbāzu, "Numbers") is an archetype of Xyz Monsters that are the focus of the story in the Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL anime and manga. Each "Number" monster has a corresponding natural number included at the start of its name after "Number" (and occasionally a letter, such as C).

"Number Wall" and "Numbers Overlay Boost" are not "Number" cards because they do not have 「Ｎｏ．(ナンバーズ)」 in their Japanese names.

In the anime and manga, there are three basic "Number" monster variants: Emperor's Key "Numbers" (monsters with numbers from 1 to 100), "Over-Hundred Numbers" (monsters with numbers from 101 to 107 that are not pieces of Astral's memory, but instead are the signature cards of the Seven Barian Emperors), and "Barian Numbers" (fake monsters created by Don Thousand).

All 100 original "Numbers" have been revealed by name. 25 "Chaos" versions (Number C), 2 "Shining" versions (Number S), and 3 different non-"Chaos" versions of "Number 39: Utopia" - 1 Rank-Down (Number 39: Utopia Roots), 1 Rank-Up (Number 39: Utopia Beyond), and 1 support (Number 39: Utopia Double) - of the original 100 "Numbers" have also been revealed.

In addition to the original "Numbers", 7 "Over-Hundred Numbers" (Number 10X) and their own "Chaos" versions (Number C10X), 5 fake versions (Barian Numbers), 4 different versions of "Number 0" - 3 "Future" (Number F0: Utopic Future, its signature move version and Number F0: Utopic Future Dragon) and 1 "Shining" (Number S0: Utopic ZEXAL) - and Number XX: Utopic Dark Infinity have been revealed.

As confirmed by Satoshi Kuwabara, "Number" monsters are not chosen randomly but are decided "carefully with attention to details, so that fans can enjoy it in various places", which often results in puns and second meanings for each "Number".

The "Number" archetype has the second most members of any archetype in the TCG / OCG, behind "HERO".

During Astral's battle against Don Thousand, fragments of Astral's power were scattered across Earth and designated the location of the Numeron Code. They took the form of 50 "Numbers", among them the seven Mythyrian "Numbers" and the four "Numeron Gate" monsters.

When Yuma Tsukumo unlocked the door with his Emperor's Key, he opened a portal between Astral World and his own, which allowed Astral to come into his world. Yuma found himself trapped within a sphere of blank cards, which shortly flew away. Astral's remaining power and memories were scattered into 50 more "Number" cards. Astral cooperated with Yuma to regain his lost memories . When Astral collected all of the cards, something else happened besides his memory recovery. Astral thought it'd cause something troublesome, while Dr. Faker claims Astral will obtain a great power and use it for taking revenge on him. It is later revealed that Astral will obtain the Numeron Code, which he was to use to annihilate Barian World in order to Rank-Up Astral World, but Yuma aborted this mission. However, Barian World's leaders, the Seven Barian Emperors, were also trying to collect the "Numbers." If all the Numbers were collected, they would obtain the Numeron Code and use it to destroy Astral World.

Usually, "Numbers" are blank cards that take the form of something that whoever finds them desires the most, design themselves to fit their original owner's Decks and keep that form forever. Some Duelists may have more than one "Number" card that fit their Deck. Their card text is written in a strange alien language that only those who wield them can understand (in the dub, all "Numbers" appear normally like other cards seen with the exception of episode 2, in which "Number 39: Utopia" is blurred). When they are Summoned, their respective numbers are printed on their users, appearing in many places as the forehead, neck, left and right hands (in Cameron Clix's case, it appeared under his right eye and in Number 56's holder's case, it appeared on his left shoulder).

When Summoned, most "Numbers" initially appear in what design sheets refer to as their "neutral form/body", often called a "sealed form" by fans. The "Number" then transforms into the creature depicted in the card's artwork through various means. "Number" monsters use a galaxy-like Overlay Network portal in contrast to regular Xyz Monsters, who use a red spiral portal.

Astral stated that there are 99 "Numbers", but according to Kite Tenjo there are 100 "Numbers". As Astral had successfully retained 1 of the "Numbers", "Utopia", it is possible Astral was referring to the other 99 "Numbers". However, Dr. Faker believes that, aside from 99 "Numbers" which are Astral's pieces of memory, Astral himself is "the Original Number" (ナンバーズのオリジナル, Nanbāzu no Orijinaru ). Later, Astral corrected himself, stating there are one hundred "Numbers".

A "Number" monster is absorbed into Astral when a Duelist using it is defeated. The "Number" can then be used by any Duelist whom Astral is currently with. Each "Number" contains a piece of Astral's memory, which he recovers each time he absorbs one. After Astral absorbs a "Number", they are stored in a Different Dimension Airship within the Emperor's Key. Each has its own pillar within the structure, engraved with its number.

"Numbers" in the anime are dangerous cards as they can easily amplify the darkness and desires of their holder user, whether these cause were good or bad. The "Number" monsters can also easily possess their holder with their power with the exception of Yuma's possession of the Emperor's Key, Kite Tenjo's Photon Transformation, and the Vetrix Family's crests. Some individuals can overcome the possession of a "Number", as demonstrated by Shark with his "Number 32: Shark Drake". However, the power of Photon Transformation and the crests seem to be limited, and has fatal consequences and being used to wield a "Number" card will drastically exhaust their user.

When a Number holder has reached a high level of a certain emotion, "Chaos Numbers" start to appear. For example, Astral and Yuma obtained "Utopia Ray" after Astral was happy to know Yuma considered him a friend. Reginald Kastle also obtained "Shark Drake Veiss" after his desire for revenge was amplified by "Shark Drake".

In the Barian Invasion arc, "Numbers 10X" are introduced as the signature cards of the Seven Barian Emperors. Astral cannot absorb them, as they are not part of his memories. They were later revealed to be created by Don Thousand as a means to release himself from his prison and restore his power.

Later on, the Mythyrian "Numbers" were introduced by Vector and Don Thousand that are located in ruins across the world, protected by guardians. Each of these "Number" corresponds to a legend inscribed on the walls of the ruins, telling the story of the person who occupied that location in a previous era, before they became ruins due to the ravages of time. Rather than take their form based on their holder's Deck, they take a form relative to the legend that is described.

"Numbers" can be Ranked-Up as seen when Yuma/Astral used "Rank-Up-Magic Astral Force" to Summon "Number 39: Utopia Beyond". "Numbers" can also be Ranked-Down, as seen when Yuma performed a Rank-Down with "Rank-Down-Magic Numeron Fall" to Summon "Number 39: Utopia Roots".

What sets "Numbers" apart from other Xyz Monsters in the anime is that they can only be destroyed by battle by another "Number", though this is a card effect and thus can be negated. In the TCG/OCG, "Number Wall" provides this protection instead.

"Numbers" are the result of great power being sealed into a card, as demonstrated by Yuma's "Number F0: Utopia Future", which was created through Yuma's power to believe in others. As a result, "Numbers" possess powers far beyond that of ordinary Xyz Monsters.

---

We gasped.

Lori: So the Numbers are literally the fragments of Astral's memories?

Laney: And there's 100 of them scattered all over the world?

Lola: And an evil group of interdimensional villains are out trying to destroy Astral's home and our world too? That's horrible!

Me: Looks like we have our work cut out for us. Not only do we have a bunch of interdimensional planet destroying warmongers out to destroy us but we have 100 Numbers that are the fragments of Astral's Memories to find. The Ultimate Scavenger Hunt of Interdimensional Proportions.

Nico: Just what I was gonna say. This is gonna be awesome!

Tori Meadows: It sure is.

Totally Spies Crimson: Besides Reginald, who else has Number Cards?

Nicole: I have one. Number 9.

Jessie K.: Same here. Number 33.

Shanan: And I have Number 87.

Yuma: And I have Number 39.

Nicole: But we pulled them out of packs. We didn't know that they had very important significance.

Eli: That's all right.

Astral: I sense no memories in your versions of the Numbers.

Nico: Wow. So the store-bought cards are not important.

Me: So we have 2 cards out of 100. 98 more to find.

Nico: This gonna be like finding a needle in a haystack as big as the whole planet.

Naruto: Yep.

Blackarachnia: All we have to do is get those Number Cards away from any Duelists that have them. Should be easy.

Eli: That's easier said than done Blackarachnia. Once a Number possesses a person they stay with that person until they are defeated.

Me: Like Reginald and each Number is a fragment of Astral's memories.

Astral: That's right.

Lincoln: What memories did Numbers 39 and 17 possess?

Eli: 39 had Astral's Dueling Skills, and how the Number's are the Fragments of his Memories and 17 had Astral's memory of his ability of recovering his memories by recovering all 99 Numbers.

Me: Wow!

Lincoln: We REALLY have all our work cut out for us.

Isabelle: And each Number is that person's strongest desire so we're gonna really be on alert for them.

Me: Kite, you're a Number Hunter now right?

Kite: That's right. So I will gladly help you all out.

Tori Meadows: We all will.

Me: This is gonna be one hell of an adventure.

Nico: Yep. So we're ALL now a team of Number Hunters too.

Eli: Yep. And I've helped Yuma and his team with facing the Numbers before. So my experiences will come in handy for this.

Me: Awesome.

Skull Man: Has anyone heard from Uncle Grandpa lately?

Me: No nothing. He must be over on an assignment with kids.

But then we got a call and it was from Uncle Grandpa!

Me: Hello?

Uncle Grandpa: J.D. it's Uncle Grandpa! I need your help! I have a bad enemy problem here!

Me: We're on our way Uncle Grandpa! Hang on!

I hung up.

Nico: Where was he calling from?

I looked up where his call came from in the area.

Me: Triangulating. (Computer beep) Found it. It's coming from the Elementary School.

Vince: We better get over there.

Linka: Yeah!

Me: Lets head out guys!

Wolf, Condiment King, Ghost, Molten Man, Riddler and Zexion appeared.

Molten Man: Can me, Condiment King, Ghost, Wolf, Riddler, and Zexion help you guys save Uncle Grandpa?

Me: Sure guys. So Buddy how does it feel being part of the Masters of Evil?

Condiment King: I am Relish-ing in the fun!

Luan: (Laughs) Those condiment puns are great!

Me: They are funny. Buddy is a comedian like you Luan.

Luan: I know. He sure Sauces up the funny. (Laughs to Rimshot) Get it?

We all laughed.

Condiment King: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Me: (Laughs) That was funny!

Pinkie Pie: (Laughs) She is a laugh riot!

Me: Yep. Lets head out.

We were off. I was riding my Rapidash and some of us were flying and more.

Cybertron Ransack: Guys, there's a Pokemon in the middle of the road.

We saw that it was a Galarian Moltres!

Me: WHOA! That's an unusual Moltres!

Nico: Wow! It's a Galarian Moltres!

May: Wow! I've never seen a Moltres like this.

Vince: It's a Dark version of Moltres! This is completely unheard of.

I looked it up on my arm Pokedex.

Pokedex: Galarian Moltres - the Dark Flame Pokemon. Unlke it's Kanto Region Cousin, the Galarian Moltres has flames that burn with intense darkness and it flies in the night. It's most powerful attack Fiery Wrath enables it to unleash a massive aura of black fire and incinerate everything in its range. It is the only Pokemon that has this move.

---

In Galar, Moltres has a similar build, but a drastically different color scheme. Its body is primarily black with scarlet highlights and bright blue eyes. Its scarlet beak is hooked at the tip and leads to markings that run down its front and behind its head. Its feet are also scarlet with black talons. Its wings, crest, and tail are mostly black, with the crest having an extra curl at the front, and all three of these features exude a magenta, flame-like energy that earns it the name of its Kantonian counterpart.

The sinister energy that blazes from within its body is so oppressive that most Pokémon can't even approach it. Galarian Moltres attacks by spreading its wings wide to unleash its energy in a powerful aura that attacks the minds of its foes, inflicting deep fatigue as it burns away their energy from within. The aura has the power to consume the spirit of its victims, reducing them to burned-out shadows of themselves. It is said to have a haughty personality and a calm demeanor. It appears in the Crown Tundra once every few decades to reach Dyna Tree Hill.

Galarian Moltres is the only Pokémon that can learn the move Fiery Wrath.

---

Me: WHOA! That's intense.

Nico: I've never seen a dark Moltres before. This is incredible.

May: It's perfect for you J.D.

Me: Thanks May. I already have a Moltres but I don't have a Galarian Moltres.

Tessa: It's like what happened when Whiskers was Evil-ized.

Spyro: I remember that. That was crazy.

Lincoln: It sure was.

May: Let me help get it weakened.

May fired a blast of ice and weakened it and I threw a Pokeball and caught it!

Me: YEAH!

Ash: That was awesome!

Nico: Nice job!

I picked up the ball and pocketed it.

Me: Lets go!

We continued on and we arrived at the school and we saw a woman beating the living shit out of Uncle Grandpa! We saw that it was his enemy Priscilla Jones, A.K.A. AUNT GRANDMA!

---

Aunt Grandma (real name: Priscilla Jones ) is the main antagonist in the children's cartoon " Uncle Grandpa ". She is Uncle Grandpa's arch nemesis.

She was voiced by Lena Headey, who also played Cersei Lannister on the television adaptation of A Game of Thrones, Morgana in Trollhunters and Ma-Ma in Dredd .

When she was a kid, Uncle Grandpa (also a kid at that time) recklessly ruined her science fair project. Rather than actually help her, he took her on an adventure that she rendered pointless which gave her no time to actually work on her project and she ended up not getting first place in the science fair like she wanted.

Episode Appearances In the episode "Aunt Grandma", she served as the titular antagonist and was her debut, she making Uncle Grandpa feel useless, until he helps a kid, much to Aunt Grandma's dismay, she then tells why became Aunt Grandma, she and Uncle Grandpa eventually fight and she takes of his mustache (which later grows back), after this, Mr. Gus was sure that "we haven't seen the last of Aunt Grandma".

In the episode "Uncle Grandpa Retires", she returned as one of the racers in the Big Fat Race driving her Convertible Cruiser. During the race, she laces the street with thumb tracks in front of Uncle Grandpa's RV (which she ended up successfully dodging with the help of Tiny Miracle).

In the episode "Nacho Cheese", she made a cameo appearance as she was pictured.

In the episode "The Return of Aunt Grandma", she was convincing Uncle Grandpa's gang to come work for her at Aunt Grandma Industries, she had a trick up her sleeve and pulls out a disc of a video showing Uncle Grandpa falsely saying rude comments about the guys while talking to himself in the mirror, meaning that the guys went to work for her. She then tells him he's finished. She even begins to plan ways to take over the world. But when Mr. Gus points out the familiar quotes, she presses a button, presumably used to shut it down as he begins to catch on. When she's exposed, she is rather impressed that he's smarter than she thought. Then the gang turns against her now knowing the truth. She berates tiger for her language lightly, but accepts that she is what they called her, and with or without their help, she'll complete her goals (although if they knew,there was no way the gang would help her). She then summons her trusted robot army to destroy her traitorous ex-workers along with Uncle Grandpa. When they are destroyed, she gets her remote blasted away. She tries to escape but is taken down by Frankenstein. She tries to tell The that it isn't over, but gets a sock in her mouth. Unfortunately she escapes incarceration while one of her robots is arrested.

In the episode "Anger Management", she starts causing trouble for Uncle Grandpa and making her own TV show called "Aunt Grandma". But it backfires when he learns to calm himself down and erases her instead.

In the episode "Uncle Grandpa: The High School Years", she made a minor appearance as the librarian and Uncle Grandpa starts making noise, she eventually sends him out of the library.

Wolf: Who's that beating Uncle Grandpa up?

We saw Aunt Grandma beating him up badly!

Lori: Oh no you will not!

Lori flew over and kicked Aunt Grandma in her face and sent her crashing into a bunch of trashcans.

Lori: WHO THE HELL DO YOU LITERALLY THINK YOU ARE!?

Condiment King had his blasters pointed at Aunt Grandma.

Condiment King: Step away from Uncle Grandpa or you're getting ketchup in your eyes!

Aunt Grandma: I will do no such thing! You can never understand the amount of pain he did to me!

Me: What the hell are you talking about?

Aunt Grandma told us what happened and we were shocked!

Waspinator: Waspinator think Aunt Grandma is petty!

Blackarachnia: I agree and she needs to be taught a lesson that things can never go her way.

Me: Yeah and Uncle Grandpa was only doing his job to help! He loves all kids and you are the worst!

Nico: And I thought that the Smith's were that stupid.

Riddler: (to Aunt Grandma) Riddle me this: Since when is ruining a school project such a bad thing?

Me: Yeah just learn how to deal with it and move on.

Lynn: You can't always win them all.

Lincoln: That's right!

Nico: You need to learn that life can never always go your way.

Then Duskmon, Grumblemon, Arbormon, Mercurymon and Ranamon appeared.

Me: Duskmon, Grumblemon, Arbormon, Mercurymon and Ranamon. Wow! The legendary warriors of Darkness, Earth, Wood, Metal and Water.

Ranamon: That's right y'all.

Maria: We just want to thank you guys for helping out against Necrafa.

Mercurymon: It was our pleasure.

May: Is a new recruit about to appear?

Ranamon: Yep. I actually recruited her myself.

A figure came out and it was FEMME FATALE!

---

Jessica Wilson (also known as Femme Fatale ) is a very conniving supervillainess and an antagonist in Cartoon Network's The Powerpuff Girls . She appeared in "Equal Fights", which was also her debut episode and was the main antagonist of that episode. She also had a cameo appearance in the special Powerpuff Girls Rule! .

She was voiced by Grey DeLisle.

She is a bank robber and master thief who manipulates the Powerpuff Girls into hating males so she can continue to rob banks. She steals only Susan B. Anthony coins since all other current denominations have men on them.

She, at the end of the episode "Equal Fights" (also her premiere episode), is promptly beaten up and taken to jail after the Girls confronted her outside a coin collectors convention in Townsville and tell her the truth of whom the suffragist Susan B. Anthony really was-a woman who illegally voted at a time that women were forbidden from voting, and demanded to face the same punishment that a man would face when she was nearly given a lenient sentence. Thus, the Girls decided to treat Femme Fatale the way they'd previously treated male villains.

She is not seen again until she made a cameo in "The Powerpuff Girls Rule!", which is the series finale.

---

Me: Femme Fatale!

Femme Fatale: Good to see you again J.D. and I'm sorry I beat up William, Riku and your friends on the Redemption Squad like that.

Me: You were just expressing your hatred towards men.

Femme Fatale: (to me) After remembering your advice, I actually am considering a second job as a women's rights activist.

Me: I'm glad you're taking my advice to heart. After centuries of being misused and abused it's time for Women to show that they are just as good and powerful as men are.

Lori: I've literally been a huge supporter of Women's Rights as well.

Rita: Same here. It's so wrong that women have been abused the way they were over the years. It's not right.

Me: I think both men and women are both equal in every way.

Rarity: Powerful belief.

Femme Fatale: You guys have expanded a lot since the last time we faced each other.

Me: That's an understatement. But yeah we sure have.

Astral: Guys! I sense a Number coming.

Me: I feel it too.

Zexion: Another Number Card user?!

We saw a man appear and it was Yuma's teacher Mr. Kay!

---

Mr. Kay, known as Ukyo Kitano (北野右京 Kitano Ukyō ) in the Japanese version, is a character in Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL . He is the teacher of Yuma's class at Heartland Academy.

Mr. Kay is a professor at the Heartland Academy that Yuma Tsukumo attends, and was one of the characters possessed by one of the "Number" cards; "Number 34: Terror-Byte". While under the "Number" influence, he launched a Crashbug Virus throughout Heartland City, causing all electronics system to go haywire and caused mayhem.[1] After Yuma defeated him in a Duel, Mr. Kay revealed that he was planning a special spectacle where he used the city's matrix code of that image to materialized an image of "Crashbug" in the sky. He seems to be the main teacher for Yuma's class, as seen during Parent's Day at Yuma's school.

After Reginald Kastle returned to school after a long absence, Mr. Kay welcomed him and was relieved that he was back. When Shark was about to walk away, Mr. Kay mentioned how much Shark changed after meeting Yuma, stopping him in his tracks. Mr. Kay commented how special Yuma was, stating Yuma's "sun-like" power can changed people for the better, before watching Shark leave.

Later that day, Caswell asked him to help Yuma find the Emperor's Key using the Crashbug Virus he created while he had a "Number". Mr. Kay was confused about this, but then accepted when Caswell blackmailed him with the threat of telling everyone that he was responsible for the Crashbug Virus incident. Using the virus, he located the Key and opened the door to the building where it was held for Yuma to go retrieve it. He was able to override the building's computer network with his Crashbug virus, causing it to explode. At the Heartland Hospital, he was looking after Shark until the boy awakened from his catatonic state, explaining to him that Yuma saved him.

---

Mr. Kay: My name is Kay.

Eli: Mr. Kay!?

Yuma: What are you doing here?

Mr. Kay: To launch my spree of cyberterrorism.

Me: Astral can you identify which Number he has on him?

Astral: Yes. He has Number 34.

Me: Number 34.

Ghost: Maybe I can use my powers to get that card away from him.

Eli: No Ava. We have to beat them in a fight like how we beat Reginald.

Nunnally: This is gonna be awesome!

Devack then appeared.

Devack: Let me help you with this guy.

Me: Thanks Devack.

But then an angel creature appeared and it was a creature that Sailor Venus knows all too well. It was VULTUROS!

Vulturos: (to Sailor Venus) You and I have a score to settle, Sailor Venus!

Sailor Venus: Vulturos!

Shanan: I didn't think an Avionean would show up!

Qin: What are Avioneans?

Shanan: They come from the distant planet Avios VIII. It's a gas giant planet located in the galaxy Cigar Galaxy. It's a huge gas giant planet that is home to the Avioneans. They are a race of angel humanoids that are one of the most peaceful creatures in the universe. But there is a rogue faction of their race that aims to destroy the entirety of the peaceful part. Vulturos is one of them and they were banished from Avios VIII to the distant parts of the universe.

Vulturos: I'm impressed that you know about my kind.

Shanan: You would be amazed at how much I know about the Universe.

Me: It's amazing that there are so many creatures all over the universe.

Laney tied up Aunt Grandma in vines.

Laney: We'll deal with you after we have our usual battles.

Varie and Maria Santiago went over and got Uncle Grandpa some treatment.

Uncle Grandpa: Thanks guys. You're the best.

Varie: No problem Uncle Grandpa.

Maria Santiago: We'll get you healed up and you can help us after the Usual Battles.

Uncle Grandpa: Okay.

We had our usual battles.

Battle 1: Duskmon

Jeri Katou, Leomon, Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle, Scootaloo, Ransack and Crumplezone were facing Duskmon.

Duskmon: (to Jeri) I sense that you have a troubled past, Jeri.

Jeri: I do.

Apple Bloom: What happened Jeri?

Jeri: It was a horrible nightmare that left me scarred forever.

Jeri told them about what happened in her background and with the death of her mother and the nightmare she endured with the D-Reaper

---

At first, Jeri is not very important to the series. She just plays as a school girl Takato has a crush on and won't become a Digimon Tamer until later on. It might be said that she is a sort of perfect child, because of her cheerful and happy personality. However, there was a scene when she had claimed she was not interested in Digimon, but had cards dropping out of her pocket when she fell. She was known for her dog-shaped sock puppet, which she uses to strike-up conversations.

Where Kazu Shioda and Kenta Kitagawa ran away when the existence of Guilmon was proven, Jeri was quick to befriend the strange Digimon, becoming the first non-Tamer to do so.

Jeri is into the Digimon Card Game and has some very rare cards in her possession. Takato's friend Rika Nonaka gave her some pointers on what cards to use, beginning a friendship between the two. Jeri seeks to become a Tamer, and chases after Leomon when he first appears. She eventually becomes Leomon's Partner before she and the other Tamers, as well as Kazu and Kenta, headed out into the Digital World in search of Calumon.

Jeri proves herself to be a very capable Tamer with potential for greatness, even using the rare and powerful LadyDevimon card on Leomon to destroy the evil Digimon Orochimon who had kidnapped her, but unfortunately her career is cut short when Beelzemon destroys Leomon and uploads his data.

Following this Jeri becomes withdrawn, believing that her destiny is to be alone. Some time during their return to the real world, Jeri's cheerful facade is ripped away and through flashbacks and a brief explanation she delivered to Takato, her less-than-cheerful past is revealed. Her biological mother had died of a terminal illness a while ago and when Jeri met her stepmother, she didn't give her a chance, as she was still very deeply traumatized by her mother's death. Following this Jeri began to think she was a bad person because while deep down she knew her stepmother was a nice woman, she still felt unable to accept her and couldn't empathize with her. She also thinks over and over about the words that her father said after her mother's death, which Leomon repeated before dying: "it's all because of Destiny."

Jeri showed no sign of caring about what was going on around her and she kept on looking into her now dead Digivice. The only real reaction came when Takato and Guilmon, now fused into Gallantmon, were about to kill Beelzemon after defeating him; she yelled at them to spare him, and when Beelzemon asked her why, she tearfully said she didn't want anyone else to die because of her. She later showed more emotion when Rika returned after becoming Sakuyamon, where she said she was afraid she had lost another friend. When she disappeared for a moment and then came back, her eyes were different, as if something possessed her, and she had an evil smile, even after the kids were back in Tokyo.

Later, it was revealed that "Jeri" was the D-Reaper's first Agent, who assumed Jeri's form to learn all she could about the Tamers. The real Jeri had been taken away and placed in a space within the D-Reaper. The Agent 1 said that Jeri was the perfect being for the D-Reaper as it used her sadness to strengthen itself. During this time, Calumon somehow sensed her presence and made an attempt to rescue her along with Impmon, who after wallowing in guilt for what he did to Jeri became determined to save her. Impmon Warp Digivolved to Beelzemon Blast Mode to defeat a bunch of Bubbles Agents and managed to open a hole big enough in the Kernel Sphere (the place she was trapped in) for Calumon to enter but was captured himself. He was eventually released and thanks to Gallantmon and Grani who managed to defeat the Agent guarding the Sphere, tried desperately to break Jeri free from her prison. He finally broke through when somehow he was able to tap into Leomon's data and use his Fist of the Beast King. Unfortunately this had an adverse effect, as it was a harsh reminder to Jeri that Leomon was dead and that the perpetrator who caused that was right in front of her. Terrified, she backed away from her would be savior. In the urgency of the situation and encouragement from Takato, Jeri did eventually accept Beelzemon's good intentions, but alas by then it was too late; the Sphere closed up again, trapping her along with Calumon once more.

Meanwhile, Jeri's puppet was being controlled by the D-reaper and it was trying to convince Jeri that humans don't deserve to live. D-Reaper was able to feed off her negative emotions, but gradually, thanks to Calumon she decided to speak up and reject the idea of real death. She spoke what Leomon had spoke (while he was destined to die, she still had a lot to live for, and so did the others) and was rescued by Takato after the D-Reaper was defeated. During the battle Gallantmon and then Gallantmon Crimson Mode attempted to reach the Kernel Sphere and rescue her. Gallantmon Crimson Mode defeated and destroyed many Agents in his attempt to rescue her including the immensely powerful Jeri Type Agent. During this time Jeri managed to break the Kernel Sphere with her D-Ark but it began to become flooded with Chaos Mass. Calumon somehow protected them with a force field and got them out of the Kernel Sphere. Gallantmon Crimson Mode reached the Sphere but she wasn't there but nearby but before he could reach her he De-Biomerged back into Takato and Guilmon. Takato finally rescued her by having Guilmon fling him to her with his tail.

By the end of the series, Jeri snaps out her depression thanks to Takato and Calumon, and realizes that humans can make their own destiny and that she was never meant to be alone. She also allows herself to forgive Impmon, much to his relief.

During the D-Reaper Saga; Calumon seemed to become a sort of second partner to her coming to her rescue with Beelzemon, cheering her up and protecting her somehow with a force field during the final battle before Takato managed to rescue her. Also when everyone said their goodbyes to their partners at the end, Calumon was the one she said goodbye to, thanking him for helping her out.

In the drama CD "Message in a Packet", which takes place roughly a year after the finale, she had messages for both Impmon and Calumon.

For Rika's birthday, Jeri and Calumon helped Seiko decorate for the party. When pressed, Takato claimed the party was her idea.

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Aunt Grandma from Uncle Grandpa was probably the stupidest bad guy ever known to the show. The Next Number we're going to face is Number 83: Galaxy Queen and she is one of the prettiest out of all the Numbers. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a strange and very funny episode of SpongeBob as we head down to the bottom of the sea to investigate the legend of a strange thing only seen in cartoons. We're going to see if the legend of The Main Drain is true. I know it sounds silly that a drain at the bottom of the ocean would be there. But we're gonna find it and stop Patrick from pulling it and destroying the world.

See you all tomorrow.

The Main Drain

At the estate, we were watching TV and eating breakfast.

Me: So far things have been really calm and quiet.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln: But I love good breakfast with everyone.

Laney: So do I.

Then in flashes of sunlight and moonlight came Princess Celestia and Luna.

Princess Celestia: We're home.

Me: Hello Princesses. How was your vacation?

Princess Luna: It was most needed and it was just what the doctor ordered.

Princess Celestia: We had so much fun.

Princess Luna told us so much about it and it was awesome.

Lincoln: Wow! You two had fun.

Lana: Yeah no kidding.

Princess Luna: It's good to be back in action.

Me: Glad you two had fun.

Princess Celestia: We sure did. A Vacation is just what we needed. Thank you guys.

Laney: You're welcome Princess.

Twilight Sparkle: Glad you both had a good time.

We had a great talk. Later we were over in California as we were heading over to the town of Blue Bay Harbor, the home town of the Ninja Storm Power Rangers.

Me: Wow. So this is Blue Bay Harbor.

Luan: Wow. Your home town is amazing Tori.

Tori Hansen: It sure is. This is also where our dojo Wind Ninja Academy where we learned under Sensei Watanabe is located.

Shane Clarke: You guys will love it.

Hunter Bradley: Yep.

We arrived at Wind Ninja Academy and it was an amazing place.

* * *

Before becoming the sensei, Kanoi Watanabe was a student along with his brother, Kiya. Kanoi was chosen as a student for wind style and Kiya for the earth style, one day Kanoi would have to fight a new student that was able to defeat him, Kanoi was surprised when the student revealed herself as Miko, a woman trained as a Samurai who also had a Samurai amulet containing the power of the Green Samurai Power Ranger.

Kiya noticed her amulet and tried to steal it from her in one occasion until he was finally able to, Kanoi eventually caught him and noticed him using dark ninja powers, which was unacceptable in the academy, Kanoi brought him to his sensei and banished him from the academy, not before Kanoi changing his identity to Lothor.

Sometime after, Kanoi and Miko would fall in love, marrying and having a child, Miko eventually died from an illness and forbade Kanoi from training their child in the ways of the ninja, because of the dangerous lifestyle required for Ninjas.

Some years after Kanoi became the headmaster of the Wind Ninja Academy. And became the keeper of a piece of the Scroll of Destiny, which stated that three unlikely students of his would become Wind Power Rangers and protect the planet from his evil twin brother, Lothor. When Lothor returned he captured all students excluding three students Shane Clarke, Tori Hanson and Dustin Brooks who were chosen by the Sensei to become the Ninja Rangers to defend earth. Shane was chosen for the wind style, Tori for the water style, and Dustin for earth.

Lothor captured two students from another ninja academy, Hunter and Blake Bradley and tricked them to fight against the Wind Rangers, they then were able to clear the Sensei's name and show them that he didn't kill their parents but was Lothor and after many fights against them they became good and joined their fight against Lothor.

The Wind Rangers Shane, Tori and Dustin become teachers over the other students of their elements (air, water and earth, respectively). And former villains Marah and Kapri become students as well.

---

Me: Wow. So this is Wind Ninja Academy.

Naruto: Sounds like a perfect place for Hidden Leaf Ninja to train.

Me: It sure feels that way huh bro?

Sakura Haruno: I would love coming here to learn.

Me: We all would.

We went into the academy and we were greeted by Sensei Kanoi Watanabe.

Sensei Watanabe: Team Loud Phoenix Storm. (Bows) It's an honor to meet you all.

Friend Owl: (bows) It's an honor to meet you, Sensei Watanabe.

Sensei Watanabe: (Kung Fu Bow) Same to all of you Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: (Kung Fu Bow) It's an honor to meet you Sensei Watanabe.

Shane, Hunter, Blake, Cam, Dustin and Tori all told us incredible things about you.

Sensei Watanabe: I am honored J.D.

Me: This is an amazing Academy you have here.

Sensei Watanabe: Thank you kindly. I'll show you around.

We saw a lot of the academy and it was amazing. We saw lots of students training really hard and more and it was amazing.

Me: Wow. So many people training really hard.

Nico: No kidding. Look at them all wanting to learn how to be ninjas.

Me: A ninja is not just all about fun and games. It's a lot of responsibility as well as learning the ways of honor and how to use stealth, speed and the shadows to sneak up on your enemies and protect everyone you care about.

Sensei Watanabe: That's correct J.D. How did you know all that?

Me: Well…

I snapped my fingers and showed my Hidden Leaf Ninja uniform.

Me: I learned so much under the code of the Leaf Shinobi and I have thousands of years of experiences with me.

Naruto: Yep. Me and my brother have been all over.

Me: Yep. We all have been to so many places, battled so many dangerous enemies and even saved the world and the universe from total destruction many times. You would be amazed at what we have learned.

Sensei Watanabe: I can see that. I am most impressed at how far you've all accomplished. I am honored to be in the presence of veteran ninjas.

Shane Clarke: We also know more Power Ranger Teams as well.

Nico: We sure do. 45+ years of Power Rangers.

Me: We met the Power Ranger Teams from both Japan and in America from over the course of the last 45+ years.

Sensei Watanabe: Amazing.

Lincoln: It sure is.

Sensei Watanabe: Indeed. We have a bunch of familiar faces here.

We saw two familiar faces. We saw Kapri and Marah, the former daughters of Lothar.

---

Kapri

Kapri was a decent fighter with the ability of teleportation transformation, energy projection, shielding, ice frost and blowing enemies away with her breath.

Kapri constantly annoyed her uncle and often failed him. Marah and Kapri have tried proving to their uncle that they were worthy enough to be in his army and frequently attempted showed each other and the other generals up in order to do so.

She once had her own giant robot, though it was destroyed during its first and only battle.

Kapri and Marah joined Vexacus and plotted to overthrow her uncle by pretending to be masterminds by hiding their ignorance. This ended up being a ruse and part of Lothor's plan to get rid of his generals. Lothor double crossed Kapri and Marah and left them on his exploding ship. She and her sister escaped the ship with the Thunder Rangers and Cam. Kapri, along with Marah, ended up joining the Wind Ninja Academy. Kapri wore a pink ninja suit.

Later, during Dino Thunder's Thunder Storm, Marah and Kapri were shocked when Lothor reemerged with the brainwashed Wind Ninja's on his side. After Lothor captured the ninja students with the Wind Rangers' help, Marah and Kapri agreed to rejoin his army. Later, the sisters outsmarted Lothor and helped the Rangers free the ninja students.

She was a decent fighter, as her powers were teleportation, energy projection, combat techniques, shielding, flight, clothing transformation, and weapon-hand extension.

Marah

Marah constantly annoyed her uncle, often failing him. Marah and Kapri constantly tried to prove to their uncle that they were evil enough to be in his army, and frequently showed up each other and the other generals in order to do so.

Marah's only real friend throughout the series was Beevil, who also resembled her, in certain ways.

One time, she pretended to turn against Lothor, and to the side of good, and tricked Dustin Brooks into believing this too.

Marah briefly had her own giant robot to command, which resembled a giant Beevil that was repainted pink, instead of red. It was destroyed during its one time use.

Marah, along with Kapri, joined Vexacus and plotted to overthrow her uncle, pretending to be masterminds by hiding their ignorance. This ended up being a ruse and part of Lothor's plan to rid himself of his generals.

Lothor double crossed Marah and left her and Kapri on his exploding ship. She and Kapri left the ship with the Thunder Rangers and Cam. Like her sister, Marah ended up joining the Wind Ninja Acadamy. Cam was shocked when he saw her and Kapri arrive. Marah was uncomfortable with the Ninja outfits, fearing they would make her butt look big, later arguing with Kapri, when she remarked that it wasn't as big as her head. Marah wore an orange ninja suit.

Marah and Kapri were shocked when Lothor reemerged, especially with the Wind Ninja's on his side. After Lothor captured the ninja students, Marah and Kapri agreed to rejoin his army. The girls later outsmarted Lothor and helped the Rangers free the ninja students.

Shane: Kapri, Marah!

They hugged the two girls.

Kapri: Glad you both are back. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Marah: It really is an honor to meet you guys.

Thunderblast: The honor's all ours.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you both. We're glad you all abandoned that scumbag Lothar. But if he ever does come back we'll Hakai him and banish him to the Warp.

Marah: Good. He was never our father after the way he treated us.

Me: I remember that. And he has the audacity to call himself a parent after everything he did.

Nico: Yeah.

Lola: I like your hair Kapri. Pink is beautiful on you.

Kapri: Thanks Lola.

Sakura Haruno: It's just as pretty as mine.

Kapri: It sure is. Thanks guys.

Optimus Prime: This is going to sound sudden, but how would you two like to join Team Loud Phoenix Storm?

Kapri: You sure? The last time we were on a team, it didn't work out well.

Me: I remember that but you two have been through a lot because of Lothar and you two are perfect candidates for the Redemption Squad.

Kapri: Well since you put it that way.

Marah: We would be honored.

Me: Awesome.

Kapri and Marah were now part of the Redemption Squad.

* * *

Later we were having an awesome meal at the Krusty Krab.

We were eating Krabby Patties and they were delicious as always. It was Lily's day to work. With us were the legendary warriors of Earth, Darkness, Wood, Metal and Water and Femme Fatale.

Blast Off: Another day at the Krusty Krab.

Me: Always love a good meal at the Krusty Krab.

Duskmon: And the food is delicious.

Grumblemon: It sure is.

Varie: Lily makes awesome food here.

Nico: Even Digimon have to eat. They can't fight or do anything on an empty stomach.

Mercurymon: That's true.

Lola: Aren't you worried that you'll rust down here Mercurymon?

Lana: Yeah Metal rusts here underwater.

Mercurymon: Don't worry. Vypra used her magic to make me completely rust and disintegration proof.

Me: That's a relief.

Ranamon: As someone who's the Warrior of Water, I really like these Krabby Patties.

Lori: They are literally awesome.

Twilight Sparkle: And do you know what the best part is?

Leni: What is it?

Twilight Sparkle: We get to enjoy them as mermaids.

The Knights of the Friendship Table were all merfolk.

Nico: That is so cool that you all can turn into merfolk like that.

Adagio Dazzle: It sure is. Before we were banished to the human world we were Sirens.

Lincoln: Wow! The legendary divas of Greek Myth.

Aria Blaze: That's right Lincoln.

Eli: I think it's so cool that we can now do anything underwater.

We saw that Eli's hair was glowing.

Me: Whoa! Eli how does your hair glow like that?

Eli: I'm actually a hybrid of a creature called a Ferine.

Shanan: The Ferines?

Nicole: The People of the Glittering Hair from Tales of Xillia? That's amazing!

Nicole told us all about them.

---

The Ferines (水の民 Mizu no Tami ?, "Water People"), also known as the Radiant (煌髪人 Kouhatsujin ?, "Glittering Hair People"), are a race in Tales of Legendia .

The Ferines once dominated Shining Blue, worshiping the entity Nerifes, until the Orerines arrived on a giant, island-like ship named the Legacy. This new race of people soon created land upon the surface of the world. Because of this, hatred began to grow among the races due to the creation of land resulting in the deaths of many Ferines. Eventually, this hatred led to war. The Orerines won, and the Ferines were chased from the Mainland. The Merines fled aboard the Legacy, using the Wings of Light to create a new civilization and, subsequently, the Kingdom of Terises in hopes of a brighter future. However, this future did not eliminate the hatred among the races. Several hundred years after the birth of a new Merines, the Ferines revived the power of the Wings of Light, and used the Merines' life to eliminate a large portion of the Mainland that was created when the Orerines first arrived. This calamity would be later referred to as the Cataclysm.

The Ferines are descendants of the Kingdom of Terises, which once flourished upon the Legacy. They retain the Terisians' connection with the sea, and use their ancient form of writing, Relares. Unlike the Terisians, however, the Ferines no longer hold dominion over the majority of the world, instead being reduced to small, hidden villages upon the Mainland, and a colony onboard the Legacy. The Ferines hide their locations using magical barriers that camouflage with the surrounding environment. For example, the Village of the Ferines is protected by a barrier that creates an optical illusion that keeps the settlement invisible. Names are very important to the Ferines. Every Ferines has a common name they use publicly and a "true name" for only other Ferines to know. These true names are Relares words that express religious ideals, such as "blessing" or "one who prays".

The Kingdom of Terises was notoriously aggressive toward the Orerines, using several enormously powerful weapons that were supposedly created by them, one such weapon being the Nerifes Cannon, which was intended to eliminate them and "purify" the world of their "filth". The most powerful weapon the Terisians made was the fabled Wings of Light, a device that caused the Cataclysm, which submerged half of the existing land on the planet beneath the ocean. The Ferines have inherited this age-old prejudice against the Orerines, and are extremely distrustful of them.

Several of the more zealous Ferines aspire to finish the work of their ancestors, bringing the remaining land beneath the sea forever. Exclusively blond-haired and blue-eyed, the Ferines are nearly identical to the Orerines. However, their worship of Nerifes, the sea, grants them several unique powers. Ferines have the ability to breathe underwater, and several have the ability to utilize Eres, a power rare among the Orerines. The Ferines can use this eres to form projections of their souls, known as Teriques, which can perform great magical abilities, such as flying.

---

Me: Whoa!

Nunnally: Wow! Eli I didn't know you were a hybrid with one of the Ferines.

Eli: Yeah it's amazing.

Me: But that is amazing.

Eli: It sure is. I didn't know I was like that until J.D. 3 told me about that.

J.D. 3: I didn't know about myself until I found out about it later on in our adventures.

Me: Wow.

Customer: (to Flame Man) Won't your flames be put out here?

Flame Man: Well, there have been fires here in Bikini Bottom.

Customer: Ah. Yeah that's true.

Me: Don't worry. I used my magic to make our fire inextinguishable even in water and ice.

Customer: Wow.

Mercurymon: (to Mr. Krabs) Mr. Krabs, since Plankton isn't around anymore, what exactly is the Krabby Patty formula?

Mr. Krabs: I swore I would never reveal that.

Lily: It's part of the Krusty Krab code. Never EVER speak the formula. It's only to be discussed in part or in whole with it's creator

Mr. Krabs.

SpongeBob: Yep.

Me: We have to respect that rule no matter what.

Mercurymon: I see. That's understandable.

Lily: Well I got to get back to work. Thanks for lunch guys.

Me: Anytime Lily.

We continued eating.

Later we see Lily coming out of the freezer with a Krabby Patty.

Lily: Nothing like a fresh frozen Krabby Patty with extra freezer burn flavor. [Her nose breaks off. She walks up to the grill] Here we go… [Interrupts herself of the sight of the filthy grill. He takes his finger and observes part of the filth] Hmm, grill look a lot dirty. Better clean it up. [Cuts to the counter with a customer]

Customer: Yeah, I like to order… [Gets interrupted by a noise from the kitchen]

Lily: (Grunts) Really filthy. (To the customer) Don't worry sir the grill just needs to be cleaned up.

Squilliam: Hold that thought. [Lily is cleaning the grill with a red sponge. Squilliam pops his head in the window] Lily, what is all that r… [Lily cleans Lily's face]

Lily: Oops! Sorry Squilliam.

Squilliam: That's all right. I heard that Squidy is back.

Lily: Yep. He's now in the Neptune Prison with the rest of his posse. Maybe someday we can go and visit him.

Squilliam: I would like that. I want to give him a piece of his mind. But I heard that J.D. forgave him and his group.

Lily: He sure did. It showed us how pure his heart is.

Squilliam: I'm glad.

[Squilliam goes back to the counter with his face all dirty and he cleans himself off]

Customer: Uh, so I like to order… [Back in the kitchen, the grill is all cleaned. Lily places the red sponge in a bucket she brought out and wrings it out]

Lily: All nice and clean. [Pops her head out the window] Say! Who wants… the first patty from our freshly cleaned grill?! [Hyperventilates excitedly] (Calms down)

Customer: [Delighted] I would like a Krabby Patty.!

SpongeBob: Okay! Coming right up. How about you, Squilliam.

Squilliam: No thank you I'm fine Lily.

Lily: Okay then.

She went back to the kitchen.

Customer: Why don't you want a Krabby Patty?

Squilliam: Already had 3 of them for lunch. [Cuts to the kitchen]

Lily: Now all I need is a fresh patty. [Walks to the freezer and screams when she is slipping on water. Out the door, she made a path of water, grabs a pole, and slides back to the kitchen and continues screaming, closing the door. She is now lying down]

Lily: OW! Hey, where'd all this water come from? [She noticed the sink was running.] Uh oh. [Sh e walks up to it and turns it off] There we go.

We came in.

Me: Lily are you all right?

Lily: Yeah I'm fine.

SpongeBob came in too.

SpongeBob: Are you okay Lily? Oh my stars and garters, the sink is clogged up. [He places a "Wet Floor" sign] Safety. [Walks back to the sink] Now what seem to be the trouble? [He heard somebody tripped. SpongeBob walks up to that person, which was Patrick] Patrick, what happened? [Patrick sits up]

Nico: Whoa Patrick are you all right?

Patrick: Yeah I'm okay but there I was, walking along, just minding my own business and then BOOM! [Takes out the "Wet Floor" sign] Some dumbbell put this thing in the way. [Throws the sign out and gets up]

Lily: Sorry Patrick, the floor is wet. We have to have the wet floor sign there for safety.

Patrick: Oh Sorry. [Maria puts the sign back] Whatcha doing?

SpongeBob: Trying to see what has this sink all backed up. Would you excuse me a second?

Patrick: Uh-huh. [SpongeBob inhales for breath and holds it. He dives his head into the sink and then he saw a drain plug]

SpongeBob: [Gurgling] Ah-ha! [Takes his head out of the sink] Oh, this is easy. All I have to do is pull the drain plug. [Repeating as the scene goes to Mr. Krabs' office while he is writing] Pull the drain plug. Pull the drain plug. Pull the drain plug. The drain plug. The drain plug. The drain plug. [Mr. Krabs' eyes are bloodshot in fright] The drain plug.

Mr. Krabs: [Frightened] THE DRAIN PLUG?! [Cuts to SpongeBob, trying to pull the drain plug. Mr. Krabs rushed to SpongeBob] SpongeBob! [SpongeBob gets startled and he jumps up to the ceiling, hitting his head. Then he falls down to the floor]

Me: Whoa! Sorry Mr. Krabs.

Mr. Krabs: What in Neptune's bathtub do you think you're doing, lad?

SpongeBob: The sink is clogged, so I was going to pull out the drain plug. [Mr. Krabs smacks his hand]

Mr. Krabs: Stop messing with that drain plug! Are you daft?

SpongeBob: Why don't you want me to pull out the drain plug, Mr. Krabs?

Air Man: I take it that pulling said drain plug is bad?

Me: Yeah what's wrong with pulling the plug? He was just gonna clean up this water all over the floor after draining the sink?

Lincoln: Yeah.

Mr Krabs: Why don't I, but… hmm… one sec. You all might want to sit down for this. This story is going to be very… spooky.

Duskmon: I think that I can handle spooky.

Lucy Loud: Same here.

Brittney: Yeah and the Goths of Darkness love all things spooky.

They agreed.

Mr. Krabs: All right. [Walks to a light switch and turns it off. Then he walks back] Time for a scary story everyone. The story… [Takes out a flashlight and shines to his face]… [Spooky tone] of the Main Drain. [He hears ominous music from Patrick's radio] Patrick.

Patrick: Sorry. [Turns off his radio]

Brittney: Ooh! That was a good spooky chord to add to the mix.

Mr. Krabs: As I was saying… [Takes out the flashlight and shines to his face again] It happened a long time ago… [He hears ominous music from Patrick's radio again] Patrick! [Patrick turns it off again]… to a pair of little kids.

Patrick: [Scared] Two little kids? [Crying]

Mr. Krabs: Anyway, [Takes out the flashlight and shines to his face again] it said that the Main Drain beckoned to them, putting them under its spell. [A flashback appears. In it, we see two kids, an orange fish and a green fish, running and laughing]

Green Kid: Dadadada-dum-da-dumdumdum.

Orange Kid: Whooooo.

Mr. Krabs: [Narrating] One day, those two kids were wandering through the ocean, when they stumble upon it. [The kids found a giant drain plug]

Kids: Huh?

Mr. Krabs: [Spooky tone] The Main Drain.

It was a giant drain plug located at the very bottom of the ocean.

Kids: [They laughed together and then they are about to pull it]

Mr. Krabs: Legend has it that their curiosity got the best of 'em. [The kids pulled the plug and tossed it into the air] And they pulled the plug. [A white tornado sucked the orange kid in] The entire ocean rusted in the drain and sucked those two kids right down. [The green kid escapes by running away, and then the tornado sucked the green kid but gets stuck and then, white arms pushes the green kid in] The drain was so powerful, it pulled all of Bikini Bottom into its gaping maw, causing an apocalypse to the sea! [The drain sucked everything in the ocean, including the water. As the flashback ends, we fade back to Mr. Krabs] And nobody was ever heard from… again.

Me: WHOA! [Turns the light back on]

Dive Man: I get it. It's like in a bathtub.

Me: Except the bathtub is a big as a whole planet.

Nico: That's crazy! There can't be a drain at the bottom of the ocean.

Lisa Loud: Nico is right. It's just absolutely and physically impossible for a water evacuation system to be down here.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Grumblemon: I think after everything you guys have been through, the impossible can be proven.

Me: That's true. We have seen lots of weird things. But I thought a drain at the bottom of the ocean was something you would normally see in cartoons.

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah that is unusual.

Apple Fritter: Yeah.

Skullcruncher: Okay. So, we just need to remember not to pull the drain plug.

Me: If you're Patrick then he will.

Patrick: Duh. (BURPS)

SpongeBob: Where is the Main Drain, Mr. Krabs?

Mr. Krabs: Well it right, I… I don't know where it is, and I'm certainly not going to tell you.

Arbormon: Got a call from Whirlwind. He and some of the others found someone with a Number Card.

Me: Awesome! Location?

Arbormon: Right at the location where Mr. Krabs said those two kids disappeared.

Me: Lets get over there.

Sour Sweet: Hang on. (to Mr. Krabs) Those kids were you and Plankton, weren't they?

Mr. Krabs: Aye. Yes they were. Me and Plankton were the two idiots that pulled that plug.

We gasped.

[Another flashback appears which was almost the same as Mr. Krabs' first story]

Young Krabs and Plankton: [running and laughing] Huh? [finds the Drain. laughed together. both pull the Drain and thrower it into the air]

Young Plankton: [screams while the same white tornado sucked him in]

Young Krabs: [runs away to escape] Mother of pearl! [the tornado sucked him into the drain as well. All of Bikini Bottom and the water gets sucked into the Drain. Fade back to Mr. Krabs.]

Mr. Krabs: It was horrible.

Me: Geez. That drain IS real. Scary. But we need to see this for ourselves. I have always been a Seeing is Believing kind of person.

Nico: Me too. Lets go.

Femme Fatale: (gives Mr. Krabs money) Here you go. Our payment for the food.

Mr. Krabs: Oh thanks Lass.

Laney: Good food as always.

Me: Lets go.

We went to the center of the ocean.

Me: We should be almost there.

But then the Masters of Evil arrived. We saw Whirlwind, Tchang Zu, Tar Pit, Speed Demon, Dark Spicer and Carly Carmine.

Me: Whirlwind, Tchang Zu, Tar Pit, Speed Demon, Dark Spicer and Carly Carmine.

Tar Pit: Indeed.

Nico: Didn't you and Carly both already have your turn Dark?

Dark Spicer: Yeah we did.

May: I take it a new recruit's going to show up?

Whirlwind: You got that right.

King Shark: (to Grim) Said recruit is someone you know. And before you ask, it's not Boogey!

In a flash of sparkle dust came ERIS!

---

Eris, also known as the Goddess of Chaos and Discord, is the secondary antagonist of The Grim Adventures of Billy and Mandy . She is the Goddess of Chaos and Discord and possesses the Apple of Discord, a golden apple that can transform into any shape perpetuates chaos. Grim used to have a crush on her but changes his mind realizing that she is a "psychopath".

She was voiced by Rachael MacFarlane who also voices Mindy

History

She is a goddess whose goal is to create destruction, suffering, and general mayhem. The source of her powers is the "Apple of Discord", a golden apple that can be changed into any form for any purpose she wishes. However, she ostensibly has the personality of a spoiled modern teenage girl. In one episode, she has a romance with Hoss Delgado when she comes to Billy's house when the principal of his school comes over for dinner with the intention of ruining the meeting, and Hoss in turn comes to stop her. Despite their mutual attraction, Hoss threatens to destroy Eris while Eris says she will banish Hoss to the "Puppet Dimension" if he tries anything. Eventually, Eris summons giant alien zombie lobsters that destroy Billy's house and infuriate the principal, and she and Hoss make out onscreen, while Grim complains that this is inappropriate for a kids' show. In the credits sequence, it is shown that Hoss was sent to the Puppet Dimension.

Originally, if Underfist became a series, Eris would split herself into two different forms, Nice Eris & Naughty Eris (as a result of her heartbreak from the breakup with Hoss Delgado). Nice Eris would be portrayed as the "Perfect Girlfriend" who acts like a stalker towards Hoss and to "smother him with love" while Naughty Eris is portrayed as a "Bad Girl" who loves to cause chaos and creating havoc (like the original Eris) and tries to convince Hoss to join her in her chaotic mischief as well as challenging Underfist with her chaotic intentions.

Mandy: Eris, Goddess of Discord & Chaos.

Eris: That's right dearie. Chaos, Discord the works. Cheers

She poured herself some tea and threw the teapot and it hit Nico and exploded.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM!

Eris: (BELCH!) (Belch echoes) Oh dreadful habit.

Nico: (Coughs)

Me: Nice one.

Eris: Thank you.

Lincoln: You are the funny version of Eris that Billy, Mandy and Grim faced.

Eris: That is correct dearie.

Varie: But you are funny too.

Eris: (to Sinbad) I heard that you fought someone with my name before. While I do admire her methods a bit, she doesn't use much Chaos!

Sinbad: No she didn't.

Me: Unlike the Eris you all faced Sinbad, this version of Eris is more funny and comical.

Eris: That's right.

Me: She may be the Goddess of Chaos and Discord we have here but she does make a really good laugh.

Lincoln: Yep.

Eris: Why thank you.

?: I'm here too.

A figure came out and it was JUGGELO from episode 30 of Wild Force!

---

Juggelo was Jindrax' younger brother and an Org. Together they formed Team Carnival. After reviving Juggelo using Toxica's magical staff, Jindrax ate some of the magic beans so he could grow and help his brother fight the Wild Force Rangers, despite Toxica saying he'd stay big if he grew. Their double-team proved to be too much for the Wild Force Megazord, but Merrick and the Predazord intervened, stopping the attack. The Predazord weakened Juggelo with Revolver Phantom and he was destroyed for good by the Wild Force Megazord Soul Cannon attack. But before Jindrax could avenge him, he burped up the beans and shrank back to normal size. So after Juggelo's demise, Toxica takes his place in Team Carnival so Jindrax can keep it alive.

---

Jindrax: Juggelo!

Juggelo: Been a while now "Brother"!

Me: I remember you! You are Jindrax's little brother and you formed Team Carnival together.

Juggelo: Wow. Good memory on you.

Me: Like I told all your fellow comrades, never missed an episode.

Jindrax: Juggelo? Is that you?!

Juggelo: What's wrong, "bro"? You don't seem happy to see me. I'm hurt.

Jindrax: I didn't know that you were revived.

Juggerlo: (angrily) Don't pretend to give a damn! You were the one who sent me to my death! Don Thousand told me about how you ditched me for the Rangers!

Jindrax: What?! Listen, whatever he told you, it's a lie!

Me: Don Thousand!? The overlord of the Barian Empire told you all that bullshit!?

Eli: How can you believe that monster!?

Carly: I hope you don't mind me and Dark being in the usual battles even though we already had a turn.

Jack Atlas: Not at all Carly.

Faye Carmine: We always love having you with us mommy.

Carly Carmine: Thank you sweetie.

But then we saw a light appear and a figure came out and it was SKULKER the Cardian!

---

Skulker is the seventh Cardian that Alan and Ann send to gather energy for the Doom Tree. She can trap people inside bubbles, or else shoot thin strings at people to drain their energy. She appeared in Sailor Moon R Episode 7, Much Ado About Babysitting .

When the energy from little kids was not sufficient enough for the Doom Tree, Alan and Ann decided to target babies next, so they sent Skulker to steal energy from the babies. Skulker succeeded on her first attempt, and although one baby, Jordan Winston, escaped the energy drain, his mother's energy was drained, temporarily leaving her and all the other babies in the hospital. Later, Skulker targeted more babies and attempted to steal their energy, but the Sailor Scouts stopped her. Skulker stopped Sailor Venus's attack, but was attacked by the Moonlight Knight, and Sailor Mercury, angry at Skulker for attacking helpless babies, used a new attack: Mercury Ice Bubbles Freeze, and froze Skulker. Sailor Moon then destroyed her with her scepter.

Skulker is portrayed as one of the more evil and hated monsters, due to her draining energy from babies.

---

Sailor Mercury: Skulker!

Cardian Skulker: Been a while Mercury. You and I have a score to settle.

Me: I think that's strange that you and Skulker in the Masters of Evil both share the same name.

Dark Spicer: I was just about to point that out.

Cardian Skulker: (to Dark) No, I'm not the bounty hunter ghost in your ranks with my name!

Dark Spicer: Very unusual that you both have the same name.

Shanan: That is unusual especially because Ann and Alan brought forth a Amaterasemian.

Qin: What is an Amaterasemian?

Shanan: The Amaterasemian's come from the distant planet of Amaterasia. It's a planet in the Black Eye Galaxy that is much like Venus and it's home to the peaceful race of the Amaterasemian's. Even though they live in such inhospitable conditions they are very benevolent and peaceful.

Cardian Skulker: That's correct. I'm impressed you know so much about my kind Shanan.

Shanan: You would be amazed at how much I know.

Cardian Skulker: Now I have a score to settle with Sailor Mercury!

Me: Looks like we're in for quite a wild ride.

?: I agree.

We saw a figure come out and it was NELSON ANDREWS/THE SPARROW!

---

Nelson Andrews, known as Fuya Okudaira (奥平風也, Okudaira Fūya ) in the Japanese version, is a child actor and one of the "Number" holders in Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL .

Nelson plays the character Sparrow ( Robin in the original), on the popular TV show " The Sparrow " (" D.D. ESPer Robin " in the original), whom Astral is intrigued by and becomes a big fan of. Despite his success, Nelson was lonely and shy when not on camera, the polar opposite of the character he played. Pressured by his mother, Nelson was forced to maintain his public image as "The Sparrow", and wasn't allowed to interact with others unless they are involved with his show.

Having arrived at Heartland City for filming, Nelson stayed in his studio and was practicing his lines alone in his costume. After Yuma Tsukumo snuck in and dropped his Deck in front of him, he saved Yuma from getting into trouble and took him into his dressing room. Nelson returned the deck to Yuma and requested Yuma to Duel him, which the latter agreed to. Excited, Nelson slightly broke his facade and tried to compose himself before being spooked at the sight of a spider. Scared, Nelson screamed and hid under a table, revealing his true self and switching his personal pronouns from "ore" to "boku" (Japanese version only). Nelson explained to Yuma that he was nothing like Sparrow off-set and how he had to hide his true self. When Yuma told Nelson he should be more himself, he became happy that Yuma was the first person to tell him that and accepts him as a friend. The two became friends, but before they can Duel, Nelson's mother interrupted them. Nelson was scolded by his mother and reminded him of the importance of being "the Sparrow". She then forced Yuma out of the room, upsetting Nelson, but Yuma promised Nelson that they would Duel someday. However, Nelson sadly told Yuma it's okay not to fulfill his promise because no one could save him from his life. Later, Yuma and Astral talked about Nelson, and Astral believed the boy was in pain from loneliness.

That night, Nelson stared at the sky from the balcony and before going back inside, he found "Number 83: Galaxy Queen". This resulted in him being quickly possessed by the "Number", making him believe the events from his T.V show were real, and goes attacking people at night as "The Sparrow" and claiming they were minions of "Dead Max" (Furious Max in the dub). This caused a scandal to break out over the incidents, with the press questioning if Nelson really did it or not. The next night, Nelson attacked a man, which caused Yuma to arrived and follow him as he ran away. In a alley, Nelson encountered Yuma, who asked why he doing this, but Nelson told him not to get involved with him and leaped away. On the third night, Nelson went to his studio to get his mask, but was confronted by Yuma. He revealed to Yuma that he under the delusion and really believed that he was "The Sparrow". Although he didn't want to fight with Yuma, he believed that Yuma was a minion of "Furious Max" and Dueled him. Nelson was able to counter all of Yuma's moves and pushed him into a corner by making his monsters indestructible with the effect of "Galaxy Queen".

When his mother arrived, she tried to make him come to his senses, but he brushed her off as he thought that the "Number" was his mother. As the Duel continued, Nelson nearly defeated Yuma, but the latter made a comeback under Astral's instructions. When his "Galaxy Queen" was about to be destroyed by "Number 39: Utopia", he used "Star Sparrow Forever" to revive "Esper Star Sparrow" and redirect the attack to "Esper Star Sparrow" instead, which caused him to lose the Duel (He purposely did this to save what he thought was his mother). When Astral absorbed the power of "Galaxy Queen", Nelson regained awareness and reconciled with his mother, who apologized and promised to let Nelson be himself.

Eli: Nelson Andrews!

Me: He must be the Number Holder.

Eli: Yep.

Me: What Number does he have?

Eli: He has Number 83: Galaxy Queen.

Nelson Andrews: That's right and she is my mother.

Arbormon: (to Nelson Andrews) Look, just give us that Number Card and no one's gonna get hurt!

Nelson: You will not get my mother!

Me: Nelson Number 83 is not your mother. But we'll have to defeat you to show you the error of your ways.

Mercurymon: I have quite a treat for you all. MERCURYMON! SLIDE EVOLUTION! SAKKAKUMON!

We saw that Mercurymon had turned into a massive Sephiroth Symbol Digimon called Sakkakumon and it was Mercurymon's Beast Spirit form! It was incredible!

Me: WHOA! Look at that!

Sakkakumon: You'll like this. Inside each of the 10 spheres of my body are worlds that correspond to each of the 10 elements of the 10 Legendary Warriors. 1 for each element. For our usual battles we're gonna have each battle in one of each of my stages.

Nico: WHOA!

Me: That is Amazing! But you look like the Sephiroth Symbol from Christian Symbolism.

Sakkakumon: I sure do don't I?

Lincoln: This is gonna be so cool!

Laney: I can't wait to see this!

Sakkakumon: Yep.

?: Let us help out as well for each sphere.

We turned and we saw the awesome 10 Legendary Warriors themselves!

The original Ten Legendary Warriors (十闘士 Juttoushi, lit. "Ten Warriors"), also known as the Ancient Ten Warriors (古代十闘士 Kodai Juttoushi ), were a group of ten Mega-level Ancient Digimon possessing ultimate strength that existed only in the distant past and represent the ten elemental attributes. The group fought to save the ancient Digital World from Lucemon, and in their past crusade against it, only AncientGreymon and AncientGarurumon survived to the end to seal the angel away. Each of them passed on their abilities to various Digimon Types, and their might to the thirty-two Variable-attribute Digimon who inherited their Spirits and title.

Their heirs, the modern Ten Legendary Warriors, are divided both into two subgroups defined by their alignment, and into ten subgroups defined by the Ancient Digimon whose legacy they continue. Each of these ten subgroups consists of at least one Human Hybrid-level Digimon and one Beast Hybrid-level Digimon, and sometimes includes the Warrior's Rookie-level form, a half-beast, half-man Digimon produced when their Human forms lose power, their Hybrid-level Fusion-species (融合種 Yūgou-shu ?), which has inherited all the might of that attribute's original Warriors by combining its Human and Beast Spirits, or additional Human and Beast forms. The Warriors of Flame and Light also each have a Hybrid-level Transcendent-species (超越種 Chouetsu-shu ), who possess power that has surpassed even the might of the original Ten Legendary Warriors by combining the Spirits of five different attributes together.

The Ten Legendary Warriors (伝説の十闘士 Densetsu no Juttoushi ?) lived and died long before the DigiDestined came to the Digital World. In the farflung past, Human and Beast Digimon began a war against each other, but the war was ended when the angelic Lucemon descended to the Digital World to bring peace and order. However, his power corrupted him, transforming him from a benevolent and loving ruler into a tyrannical despot. In response, the Ten Legendary Warriors appeared, fighting Lucemon and managing to seal him away within the Dark Area.

At some point, AncientGreymon and AncientGarurumon also fought against the evil Ornismon, and managed to seal it away on the Lost Island. Island of the Lost Digimon

The war eventually took each of the Warriors' lives, but they managed to pass on their powers in the form of the Spirits, which they left to the Celestial Digimon-the Spirits of Wind and Light were given to Seraphimon, Fire, Ice, and Thunder to Ophanimon, and Earth, Wood, Water, Steel and Darkness to Cherubimon. This story and their full appearances are revealed to the DigiDestined by Baromon at the Tunnel of History.

During the DigiDestined's battles against the corrupted Cherubimon's forces, they were swept up by the Lost Island, where they discovered that Murmukusmon had been keeping the war between Human and Beast Digimon running in order to reawaken Ornismon. With the help of Bearmon and Kotemon, the DigiDestined managed to temporarily revive AncientGreymon and AncientGarurumon, who quickly slayed the monstrous bird.

The souls of the Legendary Warriors lay dormant within the Spirits, existing as silent partners to the DigiDestined, but they eventually reveal themselves during the final battle with Lucemon. Having taken on the personalities of the children who wielded their power, the Warriors encourage the DigiDestined, giving them the morale boost they need to evolve into Susanoomon, then eventually dealing the final blow to Lucemon Larva while in the form of their Human Spirits. In the wake of Lucemon's destruction, the path back to the Human World is fading, and so the Warriors throw their human counterparts into the closing portal. As the DigiDestined fly to their destination, they bid farewell and vow to watch over the Digital World in their place.

AncientGreymon lives on in Takuya Kanbara, who wields the Spirits of Flame he created. After saving the DigiDestined from Lucemon Larva's final attack, Agunimon and the other Legendary Warriors take the core blade of the ZERO-ARMS: Orochi, return to their human Spirit forms, and strike down Lucemon once and for all.

AncientGreymon and AncientGarurumon were the last ones standing in the final battle against Lucemon, and the pair also imprisoned the evil Digimon Ornismon on the Lost Island. When Ornismon is revived many years later by Murmukusmon, the two Warriors are also briefly revived by Kotemon and Bearmon, and deliver decisive blows against Ornismon to destroy him once and for all. Nico: WHOA!

Me: Wow! The 10 Legendary Warriors.

Lori: Whoa! So they are ALL the 10 Legendary Warriors?

Me: Yep. You met some of them before. It's great to see you all again.

AncientGreymon: Same to you J.D. We are forever grateful to you for helping us to destroy Lucemon.

Me: I'm glad I could help.

Nico: Amazing.

Me: This is gonna be fun. Lets head into the spheres.

We went inside the spheres.

Battle 1: Tchang Zu

Rainbow Dash, Lightning Dust, Lincoln, Linka, Blast Off, G1 Vortex and AncientBeetlemon were facing Tchang Zu in Sakkakumon's Thunder Stage.

The Thunder Area (雷のエリア Ikazuchi no Eria ?) is a darkened, stone plain where lightning flashes through the sky. Takuya appears here after the DigiDestined are scattered after the Earth Area. Though Takuya wanders for a while, he is eventually attacked by its guardian, Parrotmon. Parrotmon has lightning at its disposal, but Takuya as Agunimon makes short work of it, and so Takuya heads deeper into Sakkakumon.

THUNDERCLAP! THUNDERCLAP!

Rainbow Dash: WHOA! This is so amazing!

Lightning Dust: It sure is.

Linka: Yeah it's like we're fighting on an alien planet.

AncientBeetlemon: It sure feels like it. I didn't know this was like this in Sakkakumon.

Blast Off: It sure is cool though.

Tchang Zu: (to Rainbow Dash) You know, Rainbow Dash. If you really want to go faster, there's this Rabbit Talisman you can use.

Rainbow Dash: I know. It's really awesome! Jade showed it to me and it's amazing at what it does.

Lightning Dust: I would love to see that.

Lincoln: It's an awesome amount of speed.

Linka: Yep.

Rainbow Dash: But no one can outrun me. I am just as fast as Sonic, The Flash, and all the fastest heroes and villains.

Tchang Zu: Indeed. Lets do it. But here are my Pokemon.

Tchang Zu called out his Pokemon. He had a Zapdos, Tapu Koko, Raikou, Jolteon, Electivire and an Emolga.

THUNDERCLAP!

Rainbow Dash: Wow! A Zapdos, Tapu Koko, Raikou, Jolteon, Electivire and an Emolga. Those are perfect choices for the Demon Sorcerer of Thunder.

Tchang Zu: Thank you kindly. Now lets bring the lightning down.

Tchang Zu fired blasts of lightning and they ran fast and flew and dodged the blasts. The blasts hit the ground all over and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMM! KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMM! KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMM! His Pokemon fired blasts of lightning as well and they dodged the blasts all over the place.

Rainbow Dash: I got Lightning of my own! RAINBOW STYLE HARMONY ART: LOYALTY THUNDERSTORM BLAST!

(Two Worlds By Phil Collins Plays.)

THUNDERCLAP!

Phil Collins: (Singing) Somewhere something is (THUNDERCLAP) calling for you, Two worlds, one family, Trust your heart, Let fate decide, To guide these lives we see!

Rainbow Dash fired blasts of rainbow lightning and it formed into the symbol of Rainbow Dash's Cutie Mark and she fired a massive blast of rainbow energy.

THUNDERCLAP!

Lincoln: Yeah it was!

Linka: It sure was!

Lightning Dust: That was so much fun!

AncientBeetlemon: It was fun doing that.

Battle 2: Eris

---

Lane Loud, Pinkie Pie, Maud Pie, Lucy Loud, Centaur Man, AncientSphinxmon, Flame Man were facing Eris in the Darkness Stage.

---

The Darkness Area (闇のエリア Yami no Eria ?) is a single, purple plain covered in darkness, in which the only discerning feature is the Crest of Light hovering in the sky. After defeating Karatenmon in the Wind Area, Koji finds himself here, though it is originally empty of any guardian. On the other hand, Duskmon, who is looking to answer questions about their last clash, forces himself into the sphere. Duskmon uses one of his attacks to view Koji's memories and inadvertently reminds himself of a past which Cherubimon has been suppressing. An image of Cherubimon comes to strengthen his control of his dark Warrior, and Koji uses the opportunity to spirit evolve into Lobomon and attack. The Warrior of Darkness is too much for Koji, however, and he falls to Duskmon's blade. Right before he can strike the finishing blow, Koji finds new resolve in himself about how his past regrets and how he'll live in the future, and that calls Seraphimon's Digi-Egg to give him the power to fusion evolve into BeoWolfmon. Now more evenly matched, the competing powers of light and darkness that BeoWolfmon and Duskmon hold are too powerful, and Sakkakumon rejects their clash out through a portal, just as Agunimon comes a moment too late to help.

---

Flame Man: Man this place is dark.

Lane: Yeah. I can't see a thing in here. The only thing visible in here is the Crest of Light symbol there.

AncientSphinxmon: It sure is dark in here. Darkness is an everlasting void that we must cleanse greatly.

Pinkie Pie: That is really interesting.

Centaur Man: It sure is.

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) But I would love the darkness as much as I would love rocks.

Eris: This is a strange place though.

Lane: It sure is.

Eris: (to Lane Loud) Weren't you mean to your own sister before?

Lane Loud: Yes I was but Jaime helped me get over that.

Pinkie Pie: I'm glad she did.

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) I still think darkness and gloom are my thing.

Lucy Loud: I like how you think Maud.

AncientSphinxmon: Indeed.

Eris: Lets get it on.

She called out her Pokemon and she had a Necrozma and a Nihilego!

Lane: A Necrozma and a Nihilego. Those are great choices for you.

Eris: Why thank you. Now lets bring on the Chaos!

Eris threw her golden apples and they dodged them as the apples exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

They went at her.

Pinkie Pie: Chaos is not as fun as chocolate pudding! PUDDING STYLE NINJA ART: WHITE CHOCOLATE TSUNAMI!

Pinkie Pie fired a massive wave of white chocolate pudding!

AncientSphinxmon: (Echoing) DARK BLAST!

AncientSphinxmon fired waves of lasers and roared.

Maud Pie: This will smash you up. METAMORPHIC STYLE NINJA ART: GNEISS SHRAPNEL SHOWER.

Maud punched the ground and sent a massive shower of gneiss shards at Eris.

Lucy fired waves of black lightning and Lane, Centaur Man and Flame Man fired blasts of light, energy and fire and the blasts all smashed into Eris and knocked her and her Pokemon down.

Lane: YEAH! That was Chaotic! (Laughs) Get it?

Pinkie Pie: (laughs) That was funny!

Lucy: Ha ha.

---

Battle 3: Whirlwind

---

Tom Majors, Princess Cadance, Flurry Heart, Vapor Trail, Sky Stinger, Lori Loud, Air Man, AncientKazemon and Dust Man were facing Whirlwind in the Wind Stage.

---

The Wind Area (風のエリア Kaze no Eria ?) takes the form of a breezy forest, where in spite of the tall trees, wind passes through the area. Koji appears here after the DigiDestined are scattered after the Earth Area, and Karatenmon begins to taunt him. Karatenmon read Koji's hearts and anticipate his moves as Lobomon. He uses his abilities to then emotionally attack him, pointing to his lone wolf persona and loneliness issues. When Karatenmon goes too far, however, Koji slide evolves to KendoGarurumon, where his speed outstrips Karatenmon's predictive abilities. KendoGarurumon races through the trees, cutting them down to give him more space, before dealing the finishing blow to Karatenmon. Koji then scans his foe and enters deeper into Sakkakumon, leading the Wind Area to go dormant.

---

Lori: Wow! This is a breezy forest.

Tom Majors: It sure is.

Vapor Trail: Yeah but it's absolutely amazing that Sakkakumon has all this inside him.

Flurry Heart: No kidding. This is incredible!

Princess Cadance: Yeah.

AncientKazemon: But feel that breezy. It feels so good blowing through your hair.

Sky Stinger: It sure does.

Whirlwind: (to Tom) Guess we now know why Vypra couldn't find Juggelo's spirit.

Tom Majors: Yeah now we know why.

Princess Cadance: We can try to save him.

Flurry Heart: That's right Mom. We have to try.

Vapor Trail: And we will.

Sky Stinger: And we have that chance.

Lori: We have to literally try.

Air Man: That's the spirit everyone.

AncientKazemon: Indeed.

Whirlwind: Lets get it on.

Whirlwind called out his Pokemon and they went at him as he fired wind blasts.

Sky Stinger: This will sting you! LIGHTNING STYLE NINJA ART: SKY BLAST STING!

Sky Stinger fired a massive blast of lightning that formed into a deadly spear of lightning.

Lori: This is literally gonna be awesome!

Lori jumped into the air and she spread her wings and laughed as she flew.

The awesome Equestria version of We Got the Beat by Rachel Platten played in the background as she was emitting a rainbow trail from behind her.

Rachel Platten: (Singing)

Hey! Hey! Hey!

Battle 4: King Shark

---

Peyton, Princess Luna, Ariel, Luna Loud, Dive Man, AncientMermaidmon and Splash Woman were facing King Shark in the Water Stage.

---

The Water Area (水のエリア Mizu no Eria ?) takes the form of a bright, tree-lined world with an extremely large, clear lake at its center. Zoe appears here after the DigiDestined are scattered after the Earth Area, and she takes in the world's natural beauty. Ranamon herself is the guardian of the area, and she has her Honeybeemon fanclub with her. Ranamon takes it easy and has her Honeybeemon lay traps for Zoe, but they are incompetent; their intended target ends up saving them from the very traps they lay for her. Her kindness slowly wins over their idolatry for Ranamon, and they only reluctantly give Zoe the poisoned apple Ranamon concocts for her. Ranamon takes the stage once the apple has pulled to the forefront all of Zoe's negative feelings about having to move from Italy and the trouble she has making friends, and the two battle it out, with Zoe still weak from self-doubt. With time and reflection even in the midst of battle, Zoe grows to believe in herself and her strength, and the Honeybeemon begin cheering for her instead of Ranamon. Zoe defeats and scans Ranamon once and for all, taking both her Spirits. The Honeybeemon help bring Zoe to safety as the Water Area grows dormant.

J.P. finds himself here after being isolated inside Sakkakumon, where he is confronted by Volcamon, who picks at J.P.'s insecurities over his lack of friends. J.P. becomes Beetlemon and defeats Volcamon, only to have his shadow come to life and continue Volcamon's psychological attack. His shadow continues his mental assault, creating a ring to fight Beetlemon in and filling the stands with shallow copies of the rest of the DigiDestined, who hurl insults at him. The real DigiDestined find their way to the area, however, and shout encouragements instead. Their help allows J.P. to power through the insults and defeat his shadow. The DigiDestined reunite, only to be drawn through different portals, while the Earth Area disappears and grows dormant.

But it's also the moment you've all been waiting for as Bobby and Lori finally tie the knot in the wedding of their lives at the start of the chapter.

See you all tomorrow.

Who is the Better Thief?

Today was a big day. At Cloudsdale we were getting ready for an awesome event. It was for the wedding of Bobby and Lori.

Nico: Man J.D. I'm so excited.

Me and Nico were dressed in really special clothes and we were getting Bobby nice and spiffy. He was wearing an awesome tuxedo and he was looking awesome.

Me: I know Nico, I am too and we've been waiting for this day for 3 years.

Bobby S.: I know guys. I am just so nervous about all this.

Me: I know you are Bobby. But you have nothing to be afraid of after everything you and Lori have been through together. You and Lori have been made for each other ever since you and Lori met in high school.

Vince: Absolutely.

It was gonna be awesome.

In Lori's room, Rarity, Carol, Varie and Becky were getting Lori ready. She looked amazing in an absolutely beautiful wedding dress made by Rarity.

Carol: Wow! Lori you look absolutely incredible. And the Jewels that Rarity put in your dress are perfect.

Lori: They sure are. I hope it's not too much.

Becky: No it's not Lori. I think you look so amazing.

Varie: I agree. You look like a true angel from heaven in that dress. 3 years of waiting was all worth it. I hope the weddings before this one hadn't upset you Lori.

Lori: Not at all Varie. They were literally just as amazing as this one is gonna be.

Rarity: I'm glad darling and you look amazing.

Varie: I'm glad.

Me: I know. It feels like forever.

We later got the wedding started.

Fluttershy was in charge of the Bird Wedding March and she had them chirp the Wedding March.

(Wagner's Bridal March plays)

Lucy was playing the organ for it too.

The door opened and in came Lola, Apple Bloom, Sweetie Belle and Scootaloo as flower girls and Lori was walking in with Lincoln walking her down the aisle.

Me: Wow. Lori looks so beautiful.

Bobby: She sure does.

Rita had tears of joy for her and so did Maria and Dr. Santiago for Bobby.

Nico: Wow. Rarity and the girls all did a fantastic job on her dress.

Me: She sure did.

Roxanne: Mom looks so amazing.

Lydia: She sure does.

Lori came up to the altar.

Princess Celestia was the minister for this. Leonard the Pig King was with us and so were some of the Masters of Evil.

Princess Celestia: Good morning everyone. Ladies and gentlemen, mares and gentlecolts, dearly beloved, we are gathered here today to celebrate in holy matrimony the union of wind master Lorelei Marie Loud and crystal master Roberto Alejandro Martínez-Millán Luis Santiago Jr. If anyone objects to the reason why these two should not be wed, speak now or forever hold your peace.

No one answered or objected.

Princess Celestia: Do you Bobby Santiago take Lori Loud to be your lawfully wedded wife whom you shall honor, love and care for her in sickness and in health.

Bobby S.: I do.

Princess Celestia: And Lori do you take Bobby to be your lawfully wedded husband?

Lori: I literally do.

I smiled.

Princess Celestia: May we have the rings please?

Spike brought the rings.

Lori and Bobby put the rings on.

Princess Celestia: By all that is holy and loving in the grace of God, I now pronounce you husband and wife. You may kiss the bride.

We cheered wildly as they kissed.

Lynn Sr. and Rita cried hard in tears of joy and it was awesome.

Nico: I'm so happy for them.

Me: We all are Nico.

Vince: And it's about time too.

Me: 3 years is worth it.

Lincoln: Yep.

We later had the reception at the convention center in the middle of the city.

Marinette: I'm so happy for you, Lori!

Lori: Thank you so much Marinette.

Leonard: We are so happy for both you and Bobby, Lori.

Lori: Me too Leonard.

Me: Congratulations to both you and Lori amigo.

Bobby: Thanks J.D. I wouldn't have made all this possible without you.

Me: Looks like those tickets I won on the Price is Right will be finally used for this.

Lori: They sure will.

Mixmaster: Congratulations, you two. You're now husband and wife!

Lori: I know Mixmaster. We're literally the happiest ever.

Lynn Sr.: (Crying happily) My baby girl is all grown up!

Me: She is a full-fledged woman now Mr. Lynn.

Loki Loud: That's my sister.

Me: Yep.

Nico: Yep. Hey J.D. it's time for the concert.

Me: Yep.

I went to the stage and I had an awesome bass guitar.

Me: Good evening everyone. First off I would like to say congratulations to the newlyweds and second, we have a very special treat for you all today. As you all know these girls are the great protectors of all of Equestria and the awesome members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm and of our very own Knights of the Friendship Table. Please give a warm welcome for the one, the only, you know them, you love them, THE RAINBOOMS!

Everyone cheered and Twilight Sparkle and the Mane 7 were ready.

Everyone cheered wildly.

We had an awesome concert and more.

Later we were seeing Lori, Bobby and their kids getting ready for their honeymoon.

G1 Jazz: Lori, we'll let you two enjoy your honeymoon and take a break from the next mission. You've earned it.

Lori: Thanks Jazz.

Me: You and your family have fun all right?

Bobby: Thanks J.D.

We saw them get in their Just Married Limousine and they were off as we waved to them. They were off for 10 days in the Amazon.

Me: There goes the luckiest family in this group.

Carly Carmine: I'm so happy for them.

Natilee: We all are happy for them Carly.

Samurai Jack: Indeed we are.

Ashi: I'm so happy for them. It's about time those two tied the knot.

Varie: I know. It's so amazing.

Lola: (crying) Now who's going to help me and Lynn brutally beat up villains?

Lynn: (also crying) Without Lori, me and Lola are just a Duo of Violence!

Me: They'll be back you two. Besides you still have Loki here. He can fill in for her.

Jaime: That's right you two. Like you guys Loki, Lynn Jr. and Lexx were known as the Trinity of Violence as well.

Loki Loud: It's true.

Lynn Jr.: Wow. I didn't know that.

Me: Déjà-vu huh?

Slugslinger: Now that Lori's on her honeymoon, we're down one Loud Sister. We have to be careful on the next mission.

Me: Don't worry Slugslinger, the Masters of Evil know about Lori's marriage and it was awesome.

Ashi: I'm so happy for her.

Me: We all are.

Lola: But man, those songs you all performed at the wedding were amazing Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: Thanks Lola.

Me: And it was so awesome that I got to perform with them.

Laney: Yeah and the bus you all have is amazing.

Applejack: Thanks Laney. It's an old 1938 Studebaker Bus we restored and modified and made into our tour bus.

Nico: That's cool!

Lana: Wow! Me and J.D. restored an old retro van for the Ed's.

Me: Yep.

Rainbow Dash: Wow!

Me: Yep. It took a lot of elbow grease but it is now fully restored.

Nico: Yep.

* * *

Back at the estate we were reading books and watching TV.

Lynn Sr. was still crying his eyes out. He was so happy that Lori and Bobby were now married.

Nico: Aww they are just so happy.

Me: Yeah.

Nico: But this was an amazing wedding.

Lincoln: It sure was.

Daring Do: We're all so happy for them.

Princess Cadance: We sure are.

Lola and Lynn were sad.

Me: Lola, Lynn, Lori is not gonna be gone forever. It's only till next week. They'll be back.

Lola: Okay.

Diamond Tiara came in frantic.

Diamond Tiara: Guys, take a look on the news!

We turned on the TV to the news.

Katherine Mulligan: This is Katherine Mulligan reporting to you all live from Lyvsheria where the notorious exiled criminal Phil the Pilferer is back and the whole kingdom is now on full alert.

We gasped!

Lana: Phil the Pilferer!?

Vambre: (British Accent) I thought we had seen the last of that rotten thief amateur.

Prohyas: Yeah.

Nico: Who is Phil the Pilferer?

Lana: He's one of the most dangerous thieves in all of Lyvsheria.

Lana looked up his info.

---

Phil the Pilferer is an antagonist and thief in the animated series, Mighty Magiswords . He often commits petty thefts and is considered a recurring antagonist for the Warriors for Hire. His victory catchphrase is "Even when Phil loses, he wins". He is voiced by Eric Bauza.

In his first appearance, he pretended to be Prohyas' hat in order to get money, even though Vambre stated that hats don't work like that. She uses the cheese magisword on him, which shoots cheese blocks at him in which he comments that it's not the kind of cheddar he wants. She later shoots a tomato Magisword at him for that corny joke. Then, she uses the Blow Dryer Magisword on him which blows him away but damages Prohyas' hair and face as well.

In his second appearance, he swiped Vambre's wallet which she was gonna used for the cloak. She demanded it back but he refused with the phrase "Don't wanna". She used the Mummy Magisword on him asking him if her mother told him not to steal, he replied with "Yes?" and got tied up in mummy rope. Vambre was glad but realized her money was still with Phil in which Phil laughed in victory. Then, she used the Magnet Magisword which pushes her wallet towards the magnet, but with Phil still holding on to it. Phil admits defeat and asked her if she wants to get lunch. She agrees and the two leave.

His first appearance was in "Dolphinominal" where he swiped Prohyas' Dolphin Magisword claiming he wanted one of those since Prohyas got one. Prohyas was even shocked that he gestered with the magisword and tried to use the Chainsaw Magisword to cut the tree Phil was standing on. However, Phil (off-screen) told Prohyas that he already disappeared. Vambre tried to help her brother by using the Attractive Voice Magisword to call Phil. It worked and Vambre demanded that he return the Magisword to him. Phil, sympathetically remarks how Vambre dearly loves her sibling and offers her the sword for 300 gems. As she used the Boulder Magisword on him, he ducts and calls it a duel. As he tries to use the Dolphin Magisword, the love band between the sword and Prohyas was too strong and the sword flies back to Prohyas knocking him down to the floor. Prohyas uses the Dolphin Water trick to flush Phil out of his home and Phil landed on the arms of The Mysterious Hooded Woman, and asked if she was a beautiful woman under the hood. His last line of victory was his catchphrase.

His second appearance was in "The Land Before Slime", where King Rexxtopher stomped on his house. It was actually Grup the Dragon's house, which Phil stated he stole but let him have it back. He last appeared at the end of the episode where it revealed that he was the one who got Hoppus to lie to the Warriors about a fine for the damage in Rhyboflavin as the two walk away to spend the gems on Slugburgers.

In, Phil's in the House, he pilfers Ryboflaven Bazaar. When the Warriors foil his pick pocketing, he moves into the walls of their house to steal their stuff and mess with them.

TV series

Phil debuts in the TV series episode "Cleanliness Is Next to Grupliness" revealing that he purposely locked all of the Warriors for Hire HQ's doors.

He also appeared towards the end of Flirty Phantom, who ended up at Penny Plasm's mansion due to being lost. Penny took that as an opportunity to kidnap and kiss him. Phil popped out and shouted his catchphrase once again.

Phil had a major debut in the episode "Thick as Thieves" where it reveals that he's a member of a cult called the Brotherhood of Thieves. He is shown constantly stealing items from the other members and called the meeting to order, as he is seen wearing the Summoning Hat. He was later informed by the Grand Poobah that Phil has the lowest ranking in becoming the Thief of the Year. The only way for Phil to earn the title is if he stole the Sheepy Mantis isle from the Sheepy Jungle. Phil steals the Warriors Magiswords in order to do so and was almost away with it until the Warriors used their Magiswords against him. Phil decided to bring the Mantis guard to the Brotherhood of Thieves' headquarters to impress the members. The Grand Poobah rewarded Phil by moving him above Naso, one of the members of the cult.

Phil also appeared in the episode "Dungeons and Dayjobs" where he stole several Magiswords and gems from the Warriors. He rewards himself by stuffing himself with profellar burgers with Excaliburger. At the end of the episode, he tries ordering a Slugburger in order to eat it combined with a Propellar burger. Witchy Simone zaps him and returns the stuff he stole to Prohyas. Phil later said an invert of his catchphrase "When Phil wins, he loses!".

---

Nico: Whoa! So he's a thief like Sly Cooper.

Lana: But he's not as good as Sly.

Me: Yeah it says here that Phil is a petty thief. And Sly is one of the best thieves ever because he and his family have been stealing from criminals for over 12,000 years.

Ashi: 12,000 years!?

Samurai Jack: That's very impressive.

Sly Cooper: It sure is.

Me: The Cooper Clan will always be the best thieves ever known. And they always leave the other notorious bad guys in the dust.

Lincoln: Yep.

Swindle: Back when Megatron was around, I was known as a one robot black market. So, if Phil tries stealing from me, I'll beat him to a pulp.

Me: That's a clever trap Swindle. I have a feeling I know where Phil is heading.

Vambre: Where do you think?

Me: Princess Zange's castle.

Daring Do: Why do you think there?

Me: For Princess Zange's most prized possession.

Vambre: Oh no! He's after the Legendary Crystal Jewel Magisword!

Lincoln: What does that Magisword do?

Vambre: It's a very powerful Magisword that can fire money and jewels and make anyone rich beyond their wildest dreams.

Nico: Whoa!

Laney: Who needs money trees when you can just use that?

Lola: No kidding.

Loki Loud: Yeah.

Me: Looks like we're heading out to catch a thief. But for someone as petty as Phil we're gonna need to outsmart him with our whits.

Bentley: I know how we can do it.

Me: Awesome.

Then King Shark, Eris, Tchang Zu, Whirlwind, Tar Pit and Speed Demon arrived.

King Shark: Can me, Eris, Tar Pit, Speed Demon, Whirlwind, and Tchang Zu help you catch this thief?

Me: We would be honored.

Eris: (Sees Samurai Jack and Ashi) Wait a second are you Samurai Jack and Ashi?

Samurai Jack: That is us.

Whirlwind: Wow! I heard so much about you two.

Me: We can talk later. Lets go catch us a thief. Bentley has a plan.

Bentley: Yep. Here's what we do.

We huddled and he told us his plan. Bentley revealed his plan and it was for when Phil steals the Magisword, Bentley will fire a tracer and stick it on to Phil and he will lead us to his hideout so we can ambush him. It was brilliant.

Nico: That's genius.

Speed Demon: Bentley, how about I help you plant the tracer on Phil?

Bentley: I would like that.

Me: Lets roll.

We were off to Princess Zange's castle.

---

Announcer: SOON! AT CASTLE RHYBOFLAVIN!

---

We were in the shadows at Castle Rhyboflavin and it was eerie.

Lola: Are you sure he will come here?

Me: Definitely.

Junk Man: The problem is predicting where Phil will strike next.

Me: He'll come. Once a thief is after a valuable target, they won't stop till they get it. And it takes a lot of smarts out how to get it.

Sly Cooper: That's right guys. Me and my family come from a long line of master thieves and it takes a lot of sneaking and stealing.

Qin: I think that's amazing.

Me: Shh. I sense something.

We hid in the shadows.

We saw a little man sneak passed us as we hid in the darkness.

Lana: (Whispering) That's him.

Me: Shh.

Phil then grabbed the Magisword.

Phil: Abscond!

Bentley fired the tracer and Speed Demon helped speed it along and stuck it to Phil.

Phil: What was that?

He looked around.

Phil: (Shrugs) Probably nothing.

He left and our trap was set.

Pain Yatta: Perfect! The dumbass doesn't even know that we put that tracer on him.

Nico: Yep. Now we know where he will lead us.

Me: Just like following a trail of bread crumbs.

Lana: Get ready Phil, your thieving days are numbered.

Sly Cooper: There's only room on this planet for one thief and that's me and my friends and family.

Me: Yep.

We waited and using the radar system we watched Phil move fast across the country. We saw him move all the way over to Badlands National Park in South Dakota and the blip stopped moving.

Me: He stopped. His hideout is in Badlands National Park in South Dakota.

Nico: All the way over there? That guy is a devious one.

Eris: How about I teleport us all just outside Phil's hideout?

Me: No Eris. We have to be careful around a thief like Phil. He may be smart but he is not a very skilled Master Thief like Sly and the Cooper Gang.

Penelope: That's right. We can't risk blowing our cover as we enter his hideout.

Me: That's right. To catch a thief, we have to think like a thief. Lets go.

We flew over to Badlands National Park and we got to a cave.

Me: His hideout is in this cave.

Whirlwind: Lola, I know you and Lynn miss Lori. So, in honor of her, I'll do the entrance.

Lola: Thanks David.

Me: Lets head in. Quiet now.

We snuck into the cave and we snuck in quietly and we got to his main chambers and we saw that he was flooding his cave with jewels and money and more.

Me: (Whispers) He wants all the money in the world. But he won't have all that money for long. When I count down we do Whirlwind's entrance.

They agreed.

I counted down with my fingers.

3… 2… 1… 0.

Phil: Even when Phil loses he wins!

Then a massive tornado shot out of the ground and blew Phil around and he smashed into the wall and we popped out and he saw us.

Me: Phil the Pilferer you're under arrest!

Phil: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? How did you find me!?

Me: You lead us right to you.

Jessie (Pokemon): Who do you think you are, hogging all that money to yourself?!

Me: And you have a lot of nerve to steal a powerful Magisword from Princess Zange!

Phil: I will not stop till I become the greatest thief in all of Lyvsheria!

Lana: You were banished because of me remember?

Phil: That's right.

Poromon: Money! We're rich!

Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, and Horsea began grabbing all the money they can find.

Larfleeze: Hey! Greed's my thing! (the 4 of them growl at him) It's cool. You can keep all of it.

Tar Pit: You know we're going to have to give all that money back, right?

Larfleeze: Yeah I know.

Nico: You four that's enough.

Poromon, Manaphy, Horsea and Poliwag: Aww.

Me: Most of this money was made with that Magisword.

Lola: You give that Magisword back Phil!

Phil: You can take it over my dead body!

Lana: (Cracks knuckles) That can be arranged!

Phil: (laughs) Looks like Lori Loud isn't here. How do you all expect to beat me when you're down one Loud Sister?

Tchang Zu: You are aware that there are others among us who use wind powers, right?

Loki Loud: That's right!

Loki fired a blast of wind and spun Phil around in a tornado and he lost the Crystal Jewel Magisword and it landed in my hands.

Me: Got it! Lets see how he like being buried in jewels.

Announcer: LEGENDARY CRYSTAL JEWEL MAGISWORD!

I fired a massive barrage of jewels and smashed his face and body in all over the place.

Rarity: These are just magnificent jewels.

Nico: It's amazing that it fires real jewels like that.

Naruto: No kidding.

Me: We got the Magisword.

I put the Magisword in my bracelet.

Me: Now it's time to pulverize this so-called thief.

Sly Cooper: You give us master thieves a bad name Phil.

Tala and Toiletnator came out.

Me: Tala and Toiletnator.

Tala: (Medieval Accent) It's good to see you all again.

Maria: Just two of you today?

Toiletnator: Nope. 4 recruits are coming in. Including an old teammate of mine.

Me: Wow. This is gonna be interesting.

Laney: Yeah.

Toiletnator: Congratulations to Lori and Bobby.

Me: I'll tell them that when they get back.

7 figures came out and they were Thor's Enemies - The WRECKING CREW: Henry Camp A.K.A. BULLDOZER, Brian Phillip Calusky A.K.A. PILEDRIVER, Eliot Franklin A.K.A. THUNDERBALL and Dirk Garthwaite A.K.A. WRECKER, the Kids Next Door's enemy MR. FIZZ, Captain Marvel and the Avengers enemy Karla Sofen A.K.A. MOONSTONE and the Teen Titans enemy Baran Flinders A.K.A. MAMMOTH!

---

Mammoth

Mammoth is an antagonist in the television show Teen Titans .

He was voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson who also voices Trigon.

Teen Titans

Three teenage bad seeds - Gizmo, Jinx and Mammoth - were about to graduate from the H.I.V.E. Academy and were looking to be employed by criminal patron Slade. Slade send them out to destroy the Teen Titans, ostensibly as a graduation test, but actually to surreptitiously (more or less) draw Robin's attention to him. The trio temporarily took over Titans Tower but were ultimately defeated by the Titans; as a result, they were forced to repeat their graduation period.

Later on, Brother Blood took over the Academy and sent his students out on robberies to finance the development of a new weapon. Cyborg infiltrated the Academy in disguise and eventually (and quite literally) brought it down. During his stay in the facility, he befriended Jinx, Gizmo and Mammoth, though this was broken up when Cyborg's true identity was revealed.

Following the destruction of the H.I.V.E. Academy, Mammoth and his two friends went freelance and eventually formed the nucleus of the H.I.V.E. Five; as such, he acted as the team's principal strongman and brawler. However, this did not save him from the influence of Mother Mae-Eye after the Titans had managed to trick them into taking in the pie she was imprisoned in, though the H.I.V.E. Five eventually escaped her control. Later on, Mammoth participated in the attempted capture of Kid Flash, but his immense strength proved no match for the speedster's abilities.

When the Brotherhood of Evil decided to eliminate young superheroes worldwide, Mammoth, Jinx and Gizmo were recruited into their ranks, along with a large number of other villains, most of them old enemies of the Titans. While Gizmo and Billy Numerous attacked Kole and Gnarrk in their arctic underground retreat, Mammoth intercepted Cyborg, who had been sent to aid them, slamming him down a crevasse. However, he did not bother to finish his job properly, and so Cyborg was able to collect Kole and Gnarrk and join his fellow Titan refugees in an all-out assault on the Brotherhood's base. When the H.I.V.E. Five attempted to escape the scene, they were intercepted by Kid Flash and Jinx, who had since converted to good, defeated by a hex blast and carted off to be flash-frozen by Mas y Menos.

Moonstone

Moonstone (real name: Karla Sofen ) is a Marvel villain who is a nemesis of Hulk and once disguised as Captain Marvel ( Carol Danvers ) for a large amount of time, manipulating her allies. Like many other Marvel villains, she eventually redeemed herself and joined the Thunderbolts. She is the archenemy of Carol Danvers/ Captain Marvel.

Karla Sofen was a psychologist under the tutelage of Doctor Faustus who gained her powers through a mystical moonstone, a strange gem taken from the moon which granted its user great power. She stole the gem from one of her patients, Byron Becton aka Nefarius, via psychological inducement. She absorbed Becton's moonstone armor into her body, giving her ultimate power over the gems.

As the new Moonstone, Sofen gained many powers, including superhuman strength, speed, agility, and durability, flight, control of gravity, photon blast projection from her hands, intangibility, and several other powers.

Moonstone's secret identity was revealed to the public after a battle with the Hulk. Moonstone joined the Masters of Evil as well as at one point teamed up with Baron Zemo. She also battled Graviton, another villain with gravitational powers superior to hers. After Graviton killed one of her childhood friends, and her moonstones were taken from her by the Avengers, Sofen became mentally unstable, and Zemo used this as an opportunity to take the moonstones for himself. She eventually got them back and regained her mental stability.

Moonstone was a member of the Masters of Evil and joined Zemo when he and several other villains went under the guise of a new team of superheroes, the Thunderbolts. She often analyzed and manipulated the other members to study their psychological attributes. Even though she stood up to Zemo alongside the others when he unleashed his real plan for world domination, she never truly reformed and later joined Norman Osborn's version of the Thunderbolts and well as his Dark Avengers as the evil counterpart of Ms. Marvel, with whom she had a bitter rivalry.

Mr. Fizz

Mr. Fizz is the Hispanic head of the Soda Control Board. He raised the legal soda drinking age to 13 meaning children were banned from consuming it. He enforces this law strongly and dedicates himself to remove the underground soda bars and their suppliers, one of whom being Numbuh 2 of the Kids Next Door. Despite his occupation, Fizz himself is seemingly addicted to soda which possibly provides him an incentive to prevent children from drinking soda. He utilizes many soda based weaponry most notably his combat suit consisting of mostly soda barrels and bottles. He is tall and thin and dons purple shades and white suit with grey suit attire adorned by a red tie and big white shoes. His more notable characteristics are his chin and mustache.

Codename: Kids Next Door

Mr. Fizz debuted in Operation: P.O.P. He catches Numbuh 2 illegally selling soda to an illegal underground soda bar. After his men destroy the bar, he takes Numbuh 2 into questioning. Despite capturing Numbuh 2's fellow operatives, Numbuh 2 refuses to divulge any information. After the children begin ranting angrily, he storms out for a drink. Once getting a drink he looks through the observation window to find the KND escaping. He sends the guards after them but to no avail. Whilst attempting to escape from the Soda Control Board, the heroes discover a factory in which children are getting stuffed into bottles. While they are in shock, Mr. Fizz appears and reveals his plan to keep control over the children. The Kids Next Door rant angrily at Fizz causing him to go beserk. He bellows "soda" and encases himself in his soda based combat suit. He unleashes rivers of soda onto the children. Whilst Fizz battling on the conveyor belt, Numbuh 2 switches the belt on and off, shaking him rapidly. After the belt is stopped Fizz swears vengance however, before he can enact his revenge, the carbonation in his soda bubbles over leading his suit to explode. Afterwards, while the children are enjoying the soda, Fizz, under the watchful eye of Numbuh 2, searches for Numbuh 5 in all the bottles.

Mr. Fizz returns in Operation S.I.X in another attempt to defeat Numbuh 2. He has his spy, Lt. Seltzer, infiltrate an underground soda bar where Numbuh 2 and Numbuh 3 are recieving a mission. Once Fizz is informed by Seltzer of 2's plans, he sends guards to capture the heroes. However they are subdued by Robobradley while 2 and 3 escape. Once they are on the road, Fizz himself pursues them in a Soda Control Board Carbonator. He almost captures them until Robobradley breaks into the carbonator and releases his smell onto Fizz and his minions. However as Mr. Fizz has Anosmia (an ability to percieve odours) he is not affected. Fizz catches the skunk but is distracted by an oncoming Carbonater manned by Lt. Seltzer and his men. They crash causing a large soda explosion. This does not stop Fizz as he and his men immediately continue pursuing the heroes in soda related cars. They surround them and Fizz is almost catching up to the truck, however Numbuh 2 initiates the turbo boost created a large distance between them. Whilst Numbuh 2 attempts to deploy the PowerPack emergency brake, Fizz kicks him off the truck and laughs while he hangs on to Robobradley. Numbuh 3 drives the truck into a hippopotamus ranch and Mr. Fizz gloats about he will defeat Numbuh 2 on top of his contraband. Numbuh 3 abandons the wheel to save Robobradley and the truck bounces of a hippopotamus sending Fizz flying. He then finds the heroes at the Yipper Youth Club Playtime Pizza Palace and gloats that he finally caught Numbuh 2 redhanded with millions of barrels of soda. However they discover that the contents of the truck was The Delightful Children From Down The Lane's birthday cake. As they escape, Numbuh 2 realises the roadblock was to stop him from delivering the cake. He optimistically acknowledges that at least they were not caught with any soda, but Numbuh 3 returns with one giving Fizz a devious look on his face.

Fizz also makes other cameo appearances in other episodes.

Operation S.O.D.A

Mr. Fizz was the main antagonist of the gameboy advance's Operation S.O.D.A . The plot of the game is that the anti-child senate passed the Soda Control Act prohibiting children under the age of 13 from drinking soda. The Kids Next Door are outraged and decide to rebel against the act by providing soda to children secretly (which in real life could never be passed legally as it violates the right for young children to drink soda, which the U.S. constitution forbids laws that violate the rights of others). The game consists of mission where the player goes up against members of the Soda Control Board in order to deliver soda or to disrupt Fizz's plans. Mr. Fizz himself his the final boss of the game. After the battle, the volcano erupts and washes away Fizz's soda.

Wrecking Crew

Wrecker

Dirk Garthwaite, also known as the Wrecker, is a supervillain in the Marvel Comics who is the leader of the Wrecking Crew and an enemy of Thor. He and his gang are in league with Thunderbolts and the Masters of Evil.

Abused as a child by his construction worker father, Dirk Garthwaite grew up to be a violent demolitions expert who was fired for his temper. Putting together a dark green and light purple costume, Dirk became the Wrecker, using his father's crowbar to commit his crimes. During a robbery, he interrupted a ceremony performed by Loki and his ally the Norn Queen, and his crowbar wound up becoming enchanted. With new powers at his disposal, Wrecker fought Thor, and was defeated by the thunder god's lover, Lady Sif. Since then, Wrecker, alone or as part of the Wrecking Crew, has fought and been humiliated by Thor. He also has fought some of Earth's other heroes over the years such as the Avengers.

Powers and Abilities

Courtesy of an Asgardian enchantment accidentally placed on him by Karnilla, The Norn Queen, Dirk Garthwaite possesses superhuman strength (can lift 50 tons, twice as strong as Spider-Man), stamina and durability (bulletproof). When he initially shares the Norn power with the Wrecking Crew, the Wrecker's abilities were reduced to lifting 10 tons. After training from Ulik the troll, the Wrecker no longer suffers from this handicap and is now capable of using his powers to their full potential and use the crowbar in the same fashion that Thor can utilize the mystic hammer Mjolnir. He has used the crowbar to destroy entire buildings in one blow and to hold off the thunder god, Thor, in battle. Wrecker primarily uses the crowbar offensively as both a throwing and blunt weapon. While The Wrecker is the true source of power, at times power can be tranferred into the crowbar.

The crowbar's secondary abilities include absorbing and shoot energy blasts, creating illusions, generating a force field, creating earthquakes, teleportation and returning to the Wrecker when thrown. The Wrecker also shares a mental link with the crowbar, and can mentally control any weak minded individual touching the object. The Wrecker was also able to temporarily mystically impart super-human strength to the individual and surround him/her in an impenetrable force-field around that person that would protect that person until the individual reached The Wrecker. The individual would be in a trance-like state while they were holding the crowbar and under The Wrecker's control. The trance would be broken once the crowbar was in The Wrecker's possession and the person would have no memory of their experience with the crowbar. The Wrecker is the most powerful member of the Wrecking Crew and while many believe his crowbar is the source of their powers (Thunderball thought that when he attempted to steal the crowbar, until his hand was crushed by The Wrecker in a "friendly" hand-shake while the crowbar was in Thunderball's possession), it is The Wrecker himself that is the source of The Wrecking Crew's powers, especially after Ulik's training.

Thunderball

Dr. Eliot Franklin, better known as Thunderball, is a supervillain in Marvel Comics . He is a member of the Wrecking Crew, who is notable for being one of the few "strongman" style villains to hold a PhD. He is in league with both Thunderbolts and the Masters of Evil.

A physicist with a genius intellect, Eliot Fraklin was nicknamed "The Black Bruce Banner" due to his intelligent mind and his work in the pursuit of gamma radiation study. However, he wasn't as saintly as the friendly doctor, as he robbed people to fund his work, with this criminal lifestyle causing him to go to jail. There, he met Dirk Garthwaite, becoming friends with him.

Later, both men, along with Henry Camp and Brian Philip Calusky, escaped from the prison. After lightning struck one of the men's crowbars, each of the men received new power. From then on, the Wrecking Crew were formed, with Henry as Bulldozer, Brian as Piledriver, Dirk as Wrecker, and Elliot as Thunderball. Later, he enchanted, then used a wrecking ball as his weapon, the enchantment making it very durable.

Both Thunderball and Wrecker have a complicated relationship. The doctor belives he's better than Wrecker due him being smarter than his leader, which causes him to occasionally be upset as his commander. He tried numerous times to ursurp him, but even after his untrustworthyness, Wrecker still keeps him around, as he considers him as the other members a family for him.

Thunderball has dueled many superheroes, such as several members of the Avengers and Hercules. He has also joined the Masters of Evil and Doctor Doom's group during the Secret Wars. The Wrecking Crew also took over Polemachus, the home of Arkon and Thundra. This happened after they lost their power for a while and used a different source of energy.

The Wrecking Crew also went to Los Angeles before being defeated by the Runaways. After being sent to the Raft, a prison on a island, they broke out after Electro attacked it.

Piledriver

Piledriver, real name Brian Philip Calusky, is a supervillain in the Marvel universe. He is a member of the Wrecking Crew, along with the Wrecker, Thunderball, and Bulldozer. He is a criminal with good fighting skills, extra-large fists, and super strength. He was given his power by Loki to help take down Thor.

He was also at one point a member of the Masters of Evil.

Brian Philip Calusky, though born in Brooklyn, NY, was raised on a farm and eventually became a farmhand. Life on the farm was too slow for Calusky and he decided to enter a life of crime for excitement. His criminal activities eventually landed him in prison, where he met and became cellmates with Dirk Garthwaite, who was known as the Wrecker.

Garthwaite, together with Calusky and two other inmates at Ryker's Island Prison, Dr. Eliot Franklin and Henry Camp, made a successful jailbreak and managed to locate his crowbar. Willing to share his power with his allies, the Wrecker had the three other convicts join him in holding onto the crowbar outside during an electrical storm. Lightning struck the crowbar, magically distributing the enchanted strength bestowed upon the Wrecker among the four of them. The Wrecker's three allies then adopted costumes and aliases as well: Franklin became Thunderball, Camp became Bulldozer, and Brian Philip Calusky became Piledriver. As a result of his new-found powers, his hands became over-sized in proportion to his body. Together the four superhumanly strong criminals became known as the Wrecking Crew, who were led by the Wrecker himself.

Piledriver has the demeanor of a "good ol' country boy" (despite being born in the very urban Brooklyn, NY). He has fought many super-heroes over the years, including Spider-Man, the Avengers, the Defenders, and most often, Thor. Unlike Thunderball, Piledriver has remained loyal to the Wrecker and has only been separated from the Wrecking Crew through various incarcerations in prison. While Piledriver and the rest of the Wrecking Crew have faced defeat on many occasions, they always come back for more, making them one of the most enduring supervillain teams in American history.

Along the rest of the Wrecking Crew, Brian joined Hood's criminal army, but was later imprisoned after the events of the Siege of Asgard, where they helped Iron Patriot.

Bulldozer

Henry Camp was born in Topeka, Kansas. His mother left him in a garbage pile two days after he was born. He was then raised in a orphanage before he joined the United States Army. In the Army, he attained the rank of Master Sergeant. During his time in the Army his friends were "blown to pieces for a lie, for oil, for billionaires." At some point he was dishonorably discharged, and shortly thereafter he entered a life of crime and was later caught and headed off to Ryker's Island Prison. He then became cellmates with Dirk Garthwaite, also known as the Wrecker. At some point in his life he was a boxer.

The Wrecking Crew

Garthwaite, together with Camp and two other inmates at Ryker's Island Prison, Dr. Eliot Franklin and Brian Calusky, made a successful jailbreak and managed to locate his crowbar. Willing to share his power with his allies, The Wrecker had the three other convicts join him in holding onto the crowbar outside during an electrical storm. Lightning struck the crowbar, magically distributing the enchanted strength bestowed upon The Wrecker among the four of them. The Wrecker's three allies then adopted costumes and aliases as well: Franklin became Thunderball, Calusky became Piledriver, and Henry Camp became Bulldozer, constructing a special metal helmet for the occasion. Together the four superhumanly strong criminals became known as The Wrecking Crew, who were led by The Wrecker himself.

Bulldozer has fought many of Marvel's superheroes over the years, including The Avengers, The Defenders, and most often, The Mighty Thor himself. Unlike Thunderball, Bulldozer has remained steadfast in his loyalty to The Wrecker and has only been separated from The Wrecking Crew through various incarcerations in prison.

Hood's Criminal Army

Along the rest of the Wrecking Crew, Henry joined Hood's criminal army, but was later imprisoned after the events of the Siege of Asgard, where they helped Iron Patriot.

Pleasant Hill

At some point, he was captured by S.H.I.E.L.D. and was incarcerated at Pleasant Hill.

Numbuh 2: Mr. Fizz!

Me: Karla Sofen A.K.A. Moonstone and the Wrecking Crew: Henry Camp A.K.A. Bulldozer, Brian Philip Calusky A.K.A. Piledriver, Dr. Eliot Franklin A.K.A. Thunderball and Dirk Garthwaite A.K.A. Wrecker!

Robin: And Baran Flinders A.K.A. Mammoth.

Wrecker: Nice to finally meet Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: The Wrecking Crew is also one of the Original members of the Masters of Evil in the Comic Books.

Thunderball: It sure is.

Mr. Fizz: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Numbuh 2: Surprised to see you in our frenemies.

Wrecker: (to Thor) Bet you didn't expect the 4 of us to be here, Thor.

Thor: I most certainly did not foul beings from the underworld.

Lok: Wow! So I get all four of you as my archenemies? That's amazing!

Me: It sure is Lok and they are not called The Wrecking Crew just for show. These guys pack a wallop.

Mammoth: (to me) I really appreciate you sending Mother Mae Eye to me, Gizmo, and See More so we would have payback on her. (laughs) Too bad she's in my cell now all beat up!

Me: Nice to know that old vulture is gonna be spending the rest of her days in your place.

Mary K.: But she made really awesome pies though.

Mammoth: That really amazes me that you weren't controlled by her pies.

Mary K.: Our powers won't let us be brainwashed.

Moonstone: (to Captain Marvel) Remember the good old days when you called youself Ms. Marvel?

Captain Marvel: I sure do. Those were good times.

Me: Things have changed a lot during those times Karla.

Numbuh 2: (to Mr. Fizz) Where've you been all this time?!

Mr. Fizz: (sighs) Well, I waited for hours for you, your team, and Lola to fight you but you all never showed up. So, I decided to retire from the kid fighting business and make an honest living making soda.

Me: I guess everyone telling you about the crimes Father committed over the years and what he was gonna do in destroying the entire human race proved to be a wake up call for you.

Mr. Fizz: Yes it was.

Me: Wow. I'm not surprised. Father was the ultimate evil incarnate. He was gonna stop at nothing to annihilate the entire human race and kill everyone. Starting with all the kids. Without kids, humanity has no future. And that Soda Control Act was like what happened during the laws of the 18th amendment of the United States Constitution - The Prohibition of the Distribution and Sale of Alcohol.

Mr. Fizz: That's true.

Me: Dark times back then all those years ago. All that amendment did was make things worse. The crime rates went through the roof because of it and organized crime was at an all time high.

Nico: It sure was.

Then a figure came out and it was AVALANCHE YETI!

Sunset Shimmer: Who are you?

Avalanche Yeti: Avalanche Yeti at your service! (fires icicles at Sunset Shimmer)

Sunset fired blasts of fire and melted them.

Sunset Shimmer: Nice try.

Lana: That was cool!

Sunset Shimmer: Yeah.

Tala: Oh we found another Number holder for you.

A figure came out and it was SCORCH!

---

Scorch, known as Rikuo in the Japanese version, is one of the top Duelists in a gang of thugs in Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL along with Chills, and was one of the Number holders.

Their gang took in Reginald after he quit Dueling, explaining that Reginald's former fame would be of use to the gang. When Yuma Tsukumo, Tori Meadows and Bronk Stone come to their arcade hideout looking for Reginald, he catches Bronk by surprise and grabs him in a choke-hold, letting him go when Reginald asks him to.

Scorch and Chills later learn of a rare Deck being put on display in a museum, featuring "Chaos End Ruler - Ruler of the Beginning and the End", and set out to steal it with Reginald in tow (planning to frame Reginald for the theft). Another gang member informed Yuma of their attempt, allowing Yuma to intercept them and challenge them both to a Duel, betting his own "Number", "Number 39: Utopia". Scorch and Chills are surprised that there are "Numbers" other than theirs. Reginald teams up with Yuma, making it a 2-on-2 Tag-Team Duel. During the Duel, Reginald correctly guesses that Scorch and Chills had cheated by turning off their D-Pad's shuffling function and placing their cards in a set order so that they know which cards they will draw, allowing Scorch to Summon his "Number" with ease early on. After Chills loses due to protecting him, Scorch angrily attempts to finish Yuma and Reginald off, but Yuma is able to reduce the damage they take and Reginald ends Scorch's Battle Phase. Yuma and Reginald able to beat him with Shark's "Armored Xyz". After he and Chills lost, the two thugs ran away from Shark in fear, having lost the influence from the "Number" cards.

---

Reginald: Scorch!

Eli: Not this brutish thug again!

Scorch: Little Eli, you and I have a score to settle!

Eli: So we do Scorch.

Me: And you better deal with me too.

Scorch: Who the hell are you?

Me: Your worst nightmare.

Lincoln: What Number does he have?

Eli: HE has Number 61.

Me: Lets get these battles on!

Misty Tredwell and Kalin appeared.

Misty Tredwell: Let us help you all out against Scorch.

Eli: Thanks Misty. Thanks Kalin.

Kalin: Lets get them!

We powered up and went at them.

Maud Pie: ROCK STYLE NINJA ART: SHRAPNEL OF SLATE.

Maud fired waves of shards of slate and all that.

Gilda: This is gonna be fun! GRYPHON STYLE NINJA ART: SCREECH OF FIRE!

Gilda fired a scream that was made of a flaming blast of fire.

Megaforce Rangers: ULTRA MEGAFORCE BLAST!

The Megaforce Rangers fired a massive blast of energy and the blasts all hit Avalanche Yeti and he exploded into nothing!

KRABBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Sunset Shimmer: YEAH!

Wallflower: That was so much fun!

Gilda: ROCK ON!

Megaforce Rangers: Mega Rangers that's a Mega Win.

Battle 8: Scorch and Number 61

Eli, Yuma, Tori Meadows, Princess Amore, Princess Luna, Moondancer, Minuette, Misty Tredwell and Kalin were facing Scorch & Number 61.

Scorch: I will kill ALL OF YOU! I summon NUMBER 61: VOLCASAURUS!

In a massive vortex of lava came Number 61: Volcasaurus!

Eli: WHOA!

Princess Luna: That is a scary Number.

Minuette: No kidding.

Misty Tredwell: Yeah!

Kalin: Time for a royal buttkicking!

Eli: Lets get this clod!

Yuma: Yeah!

They went at him!

Princess Amore: I've missed out on so much since I was gone. CRYSTALS TYLE NINJA ART: LASER VISION CRYSTALIZING!

Moondancer fired a massive shower of stars.

Minuette: This is gonna be fun! DECAY STYLE NINJA ART: THE 10 PLAGUES!

Minuette fired massive blasts of energy that formed into the 10 Plagues of Egypt.

Misty, Kalin, Yuma, Tori, and Eli fired waves of energy and fire and the blasts all hit Scorch and Number 61 and knocked them down.

Number 61 was defeated and Astral absorbed its memory.

Yuma picked up Number 61 and it was wicked.

Eli: 5 numbers down 95 to go.

Yuma: Yep.

Battle 9: Phil the Pilferer

---

We regrouped and we were facing Phil the Pilferer.

Troy: Like Sly said, there's only room on this planet for one group of thieves!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ranger J Platoon!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed.

Me: Time for a Royal Beatdown! (Cracks Knuckles)

Sly Cooper: Sorry. But me and my gang are the true thieves!

Bentley: That's right! (Blasts Phil with Bombs)

Murray: The Murray is gonna floss his teeth with your own spine and use it as a backscratcher! (Claps hands and ignites them and punches Phil and burns him all over)

Sly Cooper electrifies his cane and strikes Phil and electrocutes him all over.

Me: That's right! And unlike you, Sly and his family have been stealing from criminals. You steal for the sheer thrill of it!

Nico: Yeah!

We went at him and smashed him all over the place.

Ashi: J.D. and the Brave 12 all saw me in action before. But you all haven't. Watch this.

Ashi went at Phil and punched him in the face and sent him crashing into the wall and then he went at her and Ashi ferociously punched and pulverized him all over the place with incredible fury and more!

Nico: WHOA! Look at her go!

Luna Loud: WHOA! SHE IS BRUTAL DUDES!

Me: Ashi and her sisters were trained their entire lives to try and hunt us down and kill us. For 24 long years they trained hard. The Daughters of Aku are really fierce and brutal.

Nico: WHOA!

Me: Yep. One time we saw Ashi slaughter an entire army all by herself.

Nico: YOU'RE KIDDING!

Me: No I'm not Nico. She totally massacred a whole army all by herself. You should've seen it. It was a brutal bloodbath.

Laney: Yeah it was unbelievable.

Lily: Yeah.

Nico: WOW!

Me: She came back to us totally covered from head to toe in blood.

Nico: Yuck.

Ashi pulverized him all over.

Ashi: Time for some teamwork!

Jazz: Lets do it!

Jazz and Ladybug used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Jazz's Photon Rifle and Ladybug's powers 100-fold.

Ashi and Mixmaster used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys as well and they enhanced Mixmaster's Distortion Rifle and Ashi's strength and abilities 100-fold.

G1 Jazz and Ladybug: IONIC LUCKY BLAST!

Jazz fired a blast of ionic energy and Ladybug fired a blast of red energy.

Ashi and Mixmaster: SMASHING DISTORTION LASERS!

Ashi fired a massive blast of red laser vision from her eyes and Mixmaster fired his Distortion rifle.

Sly Cooper and Eris: CHAOS THIEVIUS RACCOON BLAST!

Bentley and Tar Pit: GENIUS TURTLE TAR SHOT!

Murray and King Shark: SMASHING HIPPO SHARK BLAST!

Dimitri Lousteau and Whirlwind: TORNADO LIZARD BLAST!

Penelope and Speed Demon: SPEEDING MOUSE FIRESTORM!

Panda King and Tchang Zu: FIREWORK LIGHTNING PANDA FIRESTORM!

They fired blasts of elements and energy and the blasts all hit Phil and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Vambre: I've had it with this pain in the Pawnyards!

Lana: Me too!

Sly Cooper, Vambre, Prohyas, Lana and Inspector Fox: HERO THIEF MEGABLAST!

They fired massive blasts of energy and elements and the blasts all smashed into Phil and exploded!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Phil the Pilferer was defeated.

Inspector Fox slapped the cuffs on him and grabbed him.

Me: A nice long stay in the Null Void will be fitting for him.

Nico: Yep.

The Masters of Evil came.

Tala: This was so much fun.

Harry Potter: Glad you all had fun.

Tala: I really am happy that Lori and Bobby are married now.

Inspector Fox: We all are. Too bad they missed out on this mission.

Me: Well they earned a break Inspector. And this wedding was bound to happen for them sooner or later.

Inspector Fox: That's true.

Me: But it looks like Phil here is looking at spending the rest of his little life in the Null Void frozen in crystal.

I fired a wave of energy and trapped Phil in a crystal and sent him into the Null Void.

Me: Good riddance. Lets get the Magisword back to Princess Zange.

Prohyas: And add all this gold, money and jewels too.

Me: Right.

We put the money in a scroll and we went back to Castle Rhyboflavin and we told Princess Zange everything.

Princess Zange: Wow! You guys really did it.

Me: We sure did your highness. Oh.

I spun my bracelet and pulled out the Crystal Jewel Magisword.

Me: I believe this belongs to you.

Princess Zange: Thank you so much J.D. You all did a huge service to Rhyboflavin.

Me: Just doing what we do best your highness.

We later went back home.

Sly Cooper: (To the viewers) This goes to show you everyone, even if you're a master thief like me, true crimes done by people that do them never pay. There's no honor, no fun, no glory stealing from regular people.

Me: That's right Sly.

We had a nice rest. Daring Do then showed us her new book that she made: Daring Do and Team Loud Phoenix Storm in the Spirits of the Jewels of Titans and it was really something.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done!

Phil the Pilferer from Mighty Magiswords was a dangerous and not very bright thief. But now we never have to see that little scumbag again. The next Number is Number 19: Freezadon and we're going to face Chill and it'll be a cold number as we face him. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a blast from the past as Lynn Sr. and Lincoln participate in my favorite game show that I remember watching back when I was a little kid: Legends of The Hidden Temple and it's for the Loud House Episode Legends and we're gonna not only meet Kirk Fogg and it will be so cool as we retrieve a really legendary artifact and beat the Stankco's into the ground for being dirty cheaters!

See you all tomorrow.

Legends of The Hidden Temple

At the estate we were watching TV and playing card games.

Me: Sure has been quiet today.

Lincoln: Yep.

But then we got a huge surprise coming through the door.

Lori and Bobby and their kids came home.

Lori: Hello everyone! We're home!

Bobby S.: Hey guys.

Me: Welcome home newlyweds!

Lynn and Lola: LORI, BOBBY!

They hugged her.

Lori: I missed you both too.

Lynn: The Trinity is back together.

Me: How was your honeymoon?

Lori: It was literally amazing!

Bobby S.: It was so much fun!

Roxanne: You should've seen how many awesome things we saw in the jungles and all that.

Me: Boy you guys had so much fun.

Nico: Yeah you sure did.

Ashi: Glad you guys are back.

Maria: It's good to have you and Bobby back, Lori.

Lori: We literally had the most wonderful time!

Bobby S.: We sure did babe and it's now the start of our awesome family forever.

Me: We're glad you all had a lot of fun amigo.

Bobby S.: Thank you so much for winning those tickets for us J.D.

Me: Anytime amigo. How about we all head over to the Burpin' Burger to welcome you all back?

Lori: I would literally like that.

We went to the Burpin' Burger.

---

In the middle of the city we were walking to the Burpin' Burger and Lori and Bobby and the kids were telling us all about their time in Brazil.

Samurai Jack: Wow. I'm glad you all had so much fun.

Ashi: Yeah that must've been quite an adventure.

Lori: It was and we literally had so much fun.

Bobby S.: I hurled on the ziplines.

We laughed.

Princess Luna: That must've been rough.

Lori: But it was literally so much fun.

Me: I hope Bobby didn't get bit by a bunch of piranha.

Bobby S.: No I didn't.

Me: Good.

Nico: We're so glad you are back. Lola and Lynn were said that you were gone and they thought that the Trinity was just down to two.

Me: But Loki filled in for you while you were gone.

Loki Loud: Yeah and being your male self makes me like you.

Lori: That's true. But it's good to be home.

Then a window was smashed and we saw the bank being robbed!

Me: Uh oh! Looks like we got a 2-11 in Progress!

Blackarachania: Lori, as a welcome home present, you and Bobby can attack these robbers first.

Lori: It would literally be our pleasure!

Bobby: Lets get them babe!

They went at the Robbers and smashed their faces into pulp.

POW! BIFF! SMASH! CRACK!

They were pulverizing the robbers all over the place. Then a horn blast was heard and it hit the robbers and sent them crashing into a wall. We saw that the blast came from Robin's friend Malcom Duncan A.K.A. Herald!

Robin: Herald!

Herald: Been a long time Robin, fellow Titans.

Me: Malcom Duncan A.K.A. Herald. It's an honor to meet you.

Herald: Whoa! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an awesome honor to meet you guys.

Me: Same here.

Marceline: It's nice to meet you, Herald.

Herald: You too Marceline.

Me: That was amazing how you did that with your trumpet.

Herald: Thanks J.D. I have the power to control space and time with the Horn of Gabriel.

Me: Wow! That's amazing.

Nico: Thanks for helping us take care of these robbers for Lori and Bobby.

Lori and Bobby tied the robbers up and threw them into a paddy wagon.

Sheila: Thanks guys. Welcome back you two.

Lori: Thanks Sheila. It's good to be home.

Tom Lair: And congratulations to the both of you. Sorry we missed the Wedding. But we are so happy for you both.

Bobby S.: Thanks Officer Lair. We're so happy.

Me: We sure are.

We later were at the Burpin' Burger having lunch.

Me: A Toast to the Newlyweds Lori and Bobby.

We clinked our glasses.

Herald: I'm so happy for them both.

Robin: We all are.

Shrapnel: Herald, when the Brotherhood of Evil launched its attack on the Titans, how did you manage to defeat See More and Warp?

Herald: I blasted them with my horn and sent them to my dimension.

Me: Wow! Wait Warp as in the Warp Dimension or Emil LaSalle A.K.A. Warp?

Starfire: He means Emil LaSalle A.K.A. Warp.

Me: Oh man! I heard about him. He came from the 22nd century to steal a priceless artifact from here.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: But Starfire defeated him from what I recall.

Starfire: That's right. He was tough but he was a true adversary.

Twilight Sparkle: That's amazing. And I heard that he ruined a Tamaranean version of Friendship Day.

Sunset Shimmer: That's right. What was it called?

Starfire: Blorthog.

Sunset Shimmer: That's right. I'm also very curious about your planet's culture after we had Beast Boy and Tara's Wedding there.

Herald: Whoa! You and Tara finally tied the knot on Tamaran, Gar?!

Beast Boy: We sure did.

Herald: Congratulations dude!

They high five.

Tara: Thanks Mal.

Me: It was the first ever interstellar wedding we've ever had there. It was so cool!

Nico: It sure was.

Me: Yep. Your archenemy See-More is now part of our frenemies in the Masters of Evil.

Herald: That's what I heard. See-More, I don't have a problem with. But if we run into Warp, I'll gladly help you guys send him to the… well, Warp.

G1 Bumblebee: I know. It can be very confusing with the names.

Me: I know. The Warp is an interdimensional plane of psychic energy and Warp is a 22nd Century time-traveling thief.

Nicole: Confusing huh?

Herald: It is.

Me: I know. But the Warp is only for those that are completely beyond any and all hope of redemption and all that.

Herald: I see.

We had a great lunch and more.

Lincoln: [to the viewers] "Lynn Loud Sr., also known as my dad. I love hanging out with the guy, but we're pretty different. So, we've had a hard time finding that one thing we both like doing."

[Flashback to Lincoln in his Ace Savvy outfit.]

Lincoln: [narrating] " We've tried doing stuff that I'm into, like Ace Savvy. "

Flashback Lincoln: "Come on, One-Eyed Jack!"

Lynn Sr.: "Uh, son…" [comes in wearing a One-Eyed Jack costume that does not fit him.] "… my costume's a little snug."

Flashback Lincoln: "Don't worry. You're looking great. Now let's deal out some justice!"

[Lynn Sr. tries to strike a pose, but his costume rips off. Flashback to a dish in the oven.]

Lincoln: [narrating] " We've also tried stuff Dad's into, like cooking. "

[Lincoln is getting the mixer ready.]

Lynn Sr.: "How's that batter coming, son?"

Flashback Lincoln: "Good. Just about to mix it up." [turns on the mixer at high speed and gets splattered with batter.] "Whoa!" [trips and gets eggs on him] "Ugh!"

[Flashback to another failed activity.]

Lincoln: [narrating] " We've even tried doing new stuff together… [He and Lynn Sr. come into the house in deep sea diving gear.] "… but that didn't work out either. "

[They take off their helmets and let out some water and a fish that Cliff grabs. They then sit down and turn on the TV to a familiar Nick game show.]

LEGENDS OF THE HIDDEN TEMPLE

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: "Ooh! I love this show!" [gasp] "You do? I had no idea!"

Lynn Sr.: "Okay, on three, say your favorite team. 1, 2, 3!"

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: "The Orange Iguanas!"

[They hug and drop another fish that Cliff also snatches; end flashbacks.]

We were watching Legends of the Hidden Temple. It is one of my favorite shows from my past.

Octane: What exactly is this TV show called?

Me: You would love it Octane. It's called Legends of the Hidden Temple. It's like a game show version of all of Nicole's awesome treasure hunts and Lincoln and Lynn Sr. love this show as much as I do.

Lincoln: YEAH!

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: GO ORANGE IGUANAS!

Me: See?

Octane: Wow!

We watched the show and it was awesome!

Me: That is always so much fun!

Nicole: It sure is.

Nico: Yeah!

Lincoln: "When we discovered that Legends was doing a special father-son episode, we knew we had to get on it. So we sent in an amazing five-hour submission tape."

[Flashback to their audition tape with them wearing Olmec type masks and Lynn Sr. is drumming.]

Audition Lincoln: [lifting his mask pieces as if Olmec is speaking.] "Ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh-ooh!"

[Cut to them with a slice of lasagna.]

Lincoln: [narrating] " And sealed the deal with a tray of dad's lasagna. " [ends flashback] "And guess what? It totally worked! We're going to be on the show!"

We cheered for them!

Me: All right you two!

Nico: I'm so excited for you both.

Lori: Me too!

Fluttershy: We all are Lincoln. I can't participate in a show like that because I have Stage Fright.

Lincoln: That's all right Fluttershy.

[Enter Lynn Sr. in his Orange Iguana outfit with his briefcase.]

Lynn Sr.: "All aboard, Orange Iguanas! Next stop, Orlando!"

Lincoln: "Whoa! Awesome costume, Dad!"

Lynn Sr.: [holding Lincoln's iguana helmet] " Orange Iguana put yours on, too?" [Lincoln takes it] "Now let's get a move on. I have a feeling it's gonna be a while to get through airport security."

Me: Looks like we're off to the airport.

Toiletnator, Tala, Mammoth, Fizz, Moonstone and the Wrecking Crew then appeared.

Toiletnator: Can me, Tala, Mammoth, Fizz, Moonstone, and the Wrecking Crew go with you guys?

Me: Absolutely. Love that support.

Mr. Fizz: You know back when I was young I loved watching Legends of The Hidden Temple myself.

Lincoln: Really Mr. Fizz?

Mr. Fizz: Loved every second of it. Really an awesome adventure.

Me: It sure is.

Toiletnator: Hey welcome back Lori and Bobby.

Lori: Thanks Lou.

Me: We'll tell you about it on the flight.

[Lincoln gets in uniform and the all of us head for the airport.]

---

Later we were flying to Orlando, Florida.

Thunderball: Are we there yet?

Wrecker: No.

Bulldozer: Are we there yet?

Wrecker: No.

Piledriver: Are we there yet?

Wrecker: Will you guys stop asking? I'll tell you when we're there!

Bart: That's funny! And I thought me and Lisa we're the only ones that did that.

Homer: (Laughs) That is coincidental.

Me: I never get tired of that gag.

Nico: Me neither.

Laney: Me neither.

Me: This is gonna be so cool watching Lincoln and Lynn Sr. play on one of my favorite shows.

Nicole: I know dad.

---

Later we were at the set for the show.

Me: Wow.

[The set for the show.]

We saw Olmec the Idol.

Olmec: "Legends of the Hidden Temple, with your guide, Kirk Fogg!"

[Kirk comes in swinging on a rope and lands.]

Kirk: "Welcome to our very special Father-Son episode. Today's theme is the lost city of Atlantis."

ATLANTIS

[Bubbles float up]

Kirk: "Now, let's meet our first team, the Orange Iguanas: Lynn and Lincoln Loud." [Enter the Louds] (We cheered for them.) "You guys make a mean lasagna."

Lincoln: "What did you think of our five-hour audition tape?"

Kirk: "Huh? Uh… didn't see that." (Sees us) Wow! You all have Team Loud Phoenix Storm with you!?

Lynn Sr.: We sure do.

Kirk: It's an honor to have you all here! Come on over.

We came.

Me: It's an honor to meet you Kirk.

Kirk: I love all your adventures and they are some of the most spectacular I've ever seen.

Me: Not to brag but we do what we have to do to bring peace, love and justice to all.

Kirk: That's a fact. [The Iguanas are disappointed; Kirk turns to the camera.] "And now let's meet their competition, the Silver Snakes: Stan and Steak Stanko!" [enter the Stankos who look like two tough brutes.] (We boo at them) "Who will the gods favor in today's battle? Find out when we return?"

[Kirk pulls on a rope and goes off. The logo appears, cuing a commercial break.]

Stan: "Lasagna, huh? We got on the show by winning five Buff Man competitions in a year."

Lynn Sr.: "Well, congratulations to you both."

Me: Pfft. More like The Five Star Dirtbag of the Millennium Award.

Steak: I WILL KILL YOU FOR SAYING THAT!

Stan: YEAH!

Me: Bring it on!

Steak: " Easy. Get used to saying that, 'cuz we're gonna stomp your butts."

Me: I would like to see you two try because we never lose.

Stan: "Yeah. You ever see a hammerhead go after a guppy? The shark just gets in there…" [starts making roaring and chomping noises.]

Steak: "Just to be clear, you're the guppy."

Lincoln: "No no. It was clear."

I growled at Steak ferociously.

Me: You are the minnow and I'm the bloodthirsty shark.

Steak: I'm not scared of you!

Nico: You should be.

[The Stankos leave to take their positions.]

Me: What a couple of jerks.

Aylene: No kidding.

Lynn Sr.: "Ah, don't worry about those guys. We're just here to have fun."

Lincoln: "Agreed. We're not gonna let them ruin our thing."

Lynn Sr.: "Good attitude, son. Slap me some tail!" [Lincoln slaps his dad's tail so hard, he bends it.] "Oh. Not so hard, there. Papier mache."

Me: This is gonna be so cool!

---

[The show comes back on and the contestants are standing in front of the moat.]

Kirk: [emerges from a trap door] "Alright, teams, Atlantis is sinking, and the only way to safety is by crossing the Moat in these special water shoes." [shows the contestants wearing such shoes.] "The team that flees the city the quickest gets the most points."

Me: I love this part. It's one of my favorites.

Brawlrus: Something about those Stankcos rubs me the wrong way.

Me: I sense it too Brawlrus. It's like those two never play fair.

Superman: Let me check here.

Superman used his X-Ray Vision and what we saw was shocking! We saw that the Stankcos had doubles that were more athletic than the originals and they were winning by switching with the originals!

Me: Why those dirty cheaters!

Zoe Weather: I knew those two were up to something. We'll expose them later. Right now lets focus on helping Lincoln and his dad.

I agreed with Zoe.

[The teams take off. The Snakes manage to run across easily while the Iguanas struggle and fall over]

Zoe used her magic and knocked the Silver Snakes into the water.

Lynn Sr.: "Wait a sec. Our tails! We can use them as paddles."

Me: You can do it guys!

[The Iguanas take off their tails and stroke with them and reach their podium and buzz in.]

Lincoln: "Now that's what I call father-son teamwork."

Lynn Sr.: " Tail me about it."

Me: YEAH! That one was won!

[Lincoln laughs]

[The scoreboard shows the Iguanas taking the lead.]

Lynn Sr.: "Well, Steak, that's not really important to us."

Stan: [laughs] "SHUT UP!"

Steak: "Ha, zing! YEAH You tell them, Dad."

Me: Shut your traps losers.

BURN!

[They growl and run off]

Lynn Sr.: "What do you think those guys had for breakfast? Jerk chicken?"

Lincoln: "Zing! Good one, Dad!"

[we All laugh]

Me: (Laughs) That was a good one!

Luan: (Laughs) Good one Dad!

---

[The Steps of Knowledge]

Olmec: [finishing his story] "And so, the city of Atlantis disappeared into the ocean, never to be seen again."

Me: Ooh!

Nico: That is a good story and more.

Kirk: "Okay, teams, you've heard Olmec's story. He will now ask you some questions about it, and whoever can answer them will descend the Steps of Knowledge."

Olmec: "First question. Where is the lost city of Atlantis rumored to have sunk?"

Steak: [buzzes in] "Atlanta!"

Olmec: "That is incorrect."

Lynn Sr.: [buzzes in] "Off the coast of Northern Africa!"

Olmec: "That is correct."

[The crowd cheers and the Iguanas take a step down.]

Lincoln: "Way to go, Dad!"

Rarity: Wow.

Stan: "Big whoop! You got one right! Let's see you do it again!"

[Another question, Lincoln buzzes in.]

Lincoln: "The shifting of the tectonic plates!"

Olmec: "That is correct."

[Lynn Sr. buzzes in]

Lynn Sr "Utopia!"

Olmec: "That is correct."

[The Iguanas get to the end of the steps.]

Lynn Sr.: "Woo-hoo!"

Lincoln: "Yeah!"

Kirk: "Wow! The Orange Iguanas have clawed their way back into this race."

[The scoreboard shows the Iguanas taking the lead.]

Kirk: "Up next, Olmec's temple games." [picks up two giant leaves and flies off.]

Lincoln: "Great job, Dad. You really nailed that Utopia question."

Lynn Sr.: "Well, you got the hard one with the tectonic plates. I almost said dinner plates."

[They laugh]

Lincoln: "How fun is this day?"

Lynn Sr.: "The best."

Steak: "You nerds made us look dumb, and the Stankos do not like to look dumb!"

Stankos: "We were already cranked up to 11, but guess what's gonna happen now! WE'RE TURNING IT UP TO 12!"

Lynn Sr.: "We already told you guys, we don't care about beating you. We're just here to-"

Stan: [takes Lynn Sr.'s iguana hat] "Whoops! Where'd your hat go? Huh? Ha ha ha! Lost your hat there, fella!"

[The Stankos play hot potato and toss the hat into Olmec's mouth; Olmec crunches it to pieces, making Lynn Sr. gasp in shock.]

I grabbed the hat and punched Stan in the face.

Me: You mess with us and there will be trouble.

Lincoln: [enraged] "You guys want a fight? You got one! You see this?" [does a dial crank gesture] "That's us cranking it up to 1,000."

Stan: "How about we make a friendly wager? Let's say, mmm, 100 bucks."

Lynn Sr.: "Yeah, well, we spent all our money at the Legends gift shop, so how about this ? If you lose, you have to go through the airport tomorrow in our iguana costumes."

Steak: "Deal. And if you lose, you have to go through the airport in your iguana costumes."

Lincoln: "Deal!"

Stan: "Dummy! They like their costumes. Uh… if you lose, you have to go through the airport in your undies !"

Lincoln and Lynn Sr.: "Deal!"

Me: Lets raise the steaks. Lets make it if you lose, you have to suffer one of our beatdowns in your undies.

They gulped.

---

[Olmec's Temple Games]

Kirk: [punches through a stone wall] "It's time for Olmec's Temple Games. First challenge: the walls around Atlantis are crumbling. You must rebuild them by stacking rings on these poles. And… go!"

Lincoln: [takes a ring] "Dad, drop down!"

[His dad drops and Lincoln tries to get his ring on the pole but can't. Suddenly, he starts to descend.]

Lincoln: " Wait! I didn't get my ring on yet!"

Lynn Sr.: "Well, I'm sorry, but we need points! The Stankos already have ten!"

[The Stankos are slamming their rings through their pole easily.]

Zoe was using her magic to knock the rings off and help Lynn Sr. and Lincoln

Lincoln: "Ugh!" [starts to ascend]

Lynn Sr.: "Son, I wasn't ready yet!"

Lincoln: "Mine has to go on first!"

Lynn Sr.: "The order doesn't matter!"

[Later a buzzer sounds and Lynn Sr. and Lincoln have gotten all their rings around their pole, giving them more points.]

Lincoln: "We did it!"

Lynn Sr.: "Yeah we sure did!"

Lincoln: "This was a snap. Lets make those stinkfaces suffer."

Me: Yeah that's the spirit!

---

[The second game]

Kirk: [comes in on and leaps off a leopard] "Next, each team with put together a 3D puzzle representing the Door to Atlantis. And… go!"

Lynn Sr.: "Okay, let's start with the edges."

Lincoln: [says at the same time as his dad suggests the edges.] "Let's start with the middle."

Lynn Sr.: "The middle? You're kidding, right?"

Lincoln: "No, look! I already found two that go together!" [holds up his pieces]

Lynn Sr.: "You don't know that! Take 'em apart!"

[While the Iguanas dispute, the Snakes easily finish their puzzle just by tossing their pieces in place at once.]

Me: Not on our watch.

Zoe was using her magic to make the Stankco's puzzle fall apart.

Lincoln: "Fine. You work on the edges, I'll do the middle."

The Iguanas got their puzzle together first.

[The buzzer sounds and the Iguanas get more points. The Iguanas slap their tails in victory.]

Lincoln: "We did it dad!."

Lynn Sr.: "Son, I minored in puzzles."

Lincoln: "Maybe you should have minored in listening."

Lynn Sr.: "I'm sorry, what?"

Lincoln: "Nothing."

Me: Guys come on it's all about fun.

---

[The third game; the sons have buckets on their heads and the fathers are holding pails.]

Kirk: [being carried in by some temple guards] "In the last of Olmec's Temple Games, teams must work together to bail out the sinking city. And go!"

[The dads take off and Stan already dunks some of his water into Steak's bucket while Lynn Sr. is trying to keep his balance.]

Zoe was using her magic to make the Stankco's buckets fall over. The Iguanas won again!

Lincoln: [apologetic] "I'm sorry, Dad. I didn't mean that any of that back there."

Lynn Sr. [just as apologetic] "I'm sorry, too, buddy. Things were starting to get way out of hand."

Lincoln: "I just want us to have a thing together."

[They hug]

Lynn Sr.: "Me too, son. Hey, maybe Legends can still be our thing. The show isn't over yet. What do you say we ignore those jerks and finish it our way?"

Lincoln: "Slap me some tail!"

[They slap and laugh]

Me: But we're almost done guys.

Later came the Temple Run.

Top Man: So this is the temple?

Me: This is my favorite part of the whole show. The Temple Run is always fun.

Kirk: "The Silver Snakes are ahead, but the Orange Iguanas have one last chance to overtake them. For our last challenge, teams will run through Olmec's Temple and retrieve the Map to Atlantis. First up, the Orange Iguanas. And J.D., Lincoln and Threatpack will go first.

Me: This is gonna be so cool!

The Map of Atlantis was located in the Heart Room.

Olmec: Since you all are going first, when Kirk gives the signal you will race through the gates and make your way through the temple to the Map of Atlantis. Hidden inside the temple are temple guards assigned to protect three specific rooms. You can fight the guards like you do on your amazing adventures. If you reach the Map all of the doors in the temple will instantly unlock and the Temple Guards will vanish. If you return through the gates with the Map in 3 minutes you all will be handsomely rewarded. And here's how!

Announcer: First you will get travel bags. You'll also get a brand new telescope! And if you bring the Map out you will also get $250,000,000 in cash and a cruise to the Bahamas!

Those were great prizes!

Kirk: Okay. Lets start with how you will run through the temple.

Olmec: You could start by climbing through the ledges and sliding downward into the pit, then race into the laser light room. Unleash the power of the special white laser and you choose to go up into the Room of the Mandarin Hand, or into the Jesters Court and travel into the Heart Room where you can grab the Map of Atlantis. Press yourself against the right wall painting and you might have a chance to enter the Dark Forest. Reach into the hole and find the key but be careful! One of the trees might be inhabited by the spirit of a Temple Guard. If it grabs you you will have to fight. Next plow through the wall and into the mine shaft. There ride the elevator up and into the Room of the Secret Password. Find the Tablet with the Right Password and shout it out to open the door to the Shrine of the Silver Monkey. Assemble the statue and you may be headed for the kings store room. Smash the clay pots to find the key and you may be headed for the observatory. Put together the puzzle on the stone column and swing on the rope back across the pit. Pass through the crypt, race down the stairs and back through the temple gate. The choices are yours and yours alone.

Me: This is gonna be good.

Kirk: I love that spirit.

Threatpack: Lets do it!

Kirk: All right! Lets get it on. Set the timer for 3 minutes.

The timer appeared.

Kirk: Ready!

We were ready.

Kirk: Set! GO!

We were off and we ran into the temple and went through the ledges and slide downward into the pit and into the laser room. Then a Temple Guard appeared.

Threatpack: (to the Temple Guards) You're planning to fight us. You guys do know who we are, right?

Me: It's butt-kicking time!

POW!

I punched a guard and we pressed on.

Kirk: Way to sock it to them J.D.!

We made the White Laser and went into the Room of the Mandarin Hand and went into the Jester's Court and Lincoln made the painting and the door opened and we went into the heart room and Lincoln grabbed the map and the doors opened and we went through the temple all the way and we won!

Kirk: YEAH! They got it!

We cheered wildly for them all!

Nico: WAY TO GO GUYS!

Kirk: The Orange Iguanas win it!

Lynn Sr.: ALL RIGHT GUYS!

Me: YEAH! THAT WAS SO MUCH FUN!

Kirk: That was really well done guys!

Me: Thanks Kirk. It was so awesome being here.

---

Later at the airport we were about to get ready to go home.

Me: That was awesome!

Nicole: You guys were incredible!

We saw the Stankco's.

Me: There they are.

Mr. Fizz: So, those cheaters want to play hardball, do they? Two can play at that game! (to Poromon, Poliwag, Manaphy, and Horsea): How would you 4 like to drink some of my sodas?

Poromon: I get it. You're gonna get us drunk so we go berserk on the Stankcos.

Nico: I can't believe I'm saying this. But you 4 drunk might be useful here.

Me: You said it Nico.

They drank the soda and exploded into an atomic sugar rush!

Me: Hey Stankcos!

Scavenger: (to the Stankcos) You two are cheating!

Stan Stankco: So what? We'll do whatever it takes to win. Something you all should understand by now!

POW!

I punched Stan in the stomach.

Me: There is a difference between us and people like you! We fight to protect people from scumbags like you. And we don't fight just to win. We fight for justice and protecting our love ones.

KROW!

Eli kicked Stan in the face and knocked out some of his teeth and then…

DING!

He kicked him in the balls!

Eli: You have no honor in the worlds of gameshows or anything like that.

Tala: (smugly) (Medieval Accent) Poliwag, Poromon, Horsea, and Manaphy would like a word with you two.

Poliwag, Poromon, Horsea, and Manaphy: SUGARY CUTIE ATTACK!

They dogpiled onto the Stankco's and smashed and pulverized and smashed them all over

The 4 were pulverizing them all over and smashing them with crazy and silly shenanigans.

Mammoth: (trying not to laugh) Don't each of you 4 want to say something to the Stankcos?

Me: (Trying not to laugh) This is too funny.

Poromon: I hope you like a Pink House. (Craps in the Stankco's underwear!)

Manaphy: And an atomic pink wedgie!

Manaphy used her long ears to pull the Stankco's underwear up and over their heads.

Horsea: Ink's to be you!

She squirted ink into their eyes.

Poliwag: And this Slaps all around.

SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP SLAP!

He slapped both their faces with his tail.

We were then bursting out with laughter and rolling around on the floor holding our sides.

Motormaster: What do we do with the Stunt Doubles?

Me: Mmm. Since they didn't do any crimes we'll give them community service. But the Stankco's will be doing really hard time in our newest prison. The Broccoli Mines in Saskatchewan.

Nico: Broccoli Mines?

Me: It's a forest prison I found in the Taiga of Saskatchewan, Canada. It's loaded with broccoli.

Nico: Weird but cool.

Moonstone: (to the Stankcos) Alright. Take them off!

Steak Stankco: Take what off?

Moonstone: Your clothes! Take them all off!

Me: Except for your underwear.

They took off their clothes and were humiliated. Then they were arrested and sent to the Broccoli Mine Prison.

Me: Hmph! Good riddance to those cheaters. Never underestimate the wits and honorable winning of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: You said it J.D.

Lincoln: Yep. But it was so awesome that we won!

Me: I know it was awesome! Now lets get back home for our usual battles.

Nico: Good idea.

We went back home.

---

In the gym we got ready.

Nico: So who is coming for the Usual Battles?

Me: They'll be here any second.

Danny Phantom and Lincoln's ghost sense went off.

Then El Oso, and Steam Smythe appeared and with him was our old enemy PYRO, Danny Phantom's enemies JOHNNY 13 & THE BOX GHOST and the Kids Next Door's comical enemy PROFESSOR XXXL. Professor XXXL had a turtle shell on his back.

Me: El Oso, Steam Smythe! Pyro!? Johnny 13, The Box Ghost and Professor XXXL!?

Professor XXXL: That's right. It is I, PROFESSOR XXXL!

Me: Nice entrance and Pyro!? You died! You blew yourself up and took the whole island of San Baquero with you!

Nico: Yeah that was intense!

Qin: Whoa! That's incredible!

Pyro: I sure did and that was rough.

El Oso: It really is good to have you back, Lori.

Lori: Thanks El Oso.

Sunset Shimmer: It's gonna be awesome having you as my archenemy.

El Oso: Thanks Sunset.

Johnny 13: (to me) Look, I know I can cause trouble sometimes. But when you first met me, all I was doing was going joyriding with Kitty. There was no need to put me in the Book of Vile Darkness.

Nico: Now that I think about it, I really do feel like a jerk about that.

Me: Yeah. But we thought you were out to cause trouble like all of Danny Phantom's enemies.

Johnny 13: Oh that's okay then.

Pyro: (to us) Don't expect me to do that self-destruct attack again. That took up all of my energy the first time.

Me: Good.

Pyro: But Mindy those moves you used on me were incredible. How did you learn how to fight like that?

Mindy Chan: I played a lot of Street Fighter and learned all the moves on the fly.

Pyro: That's cool!

Professor XXXL: Personally, I was never interested in Father's schemes. I just wanted to make snowcones.

Numbuh 1: And that last one you made before I was rescued was perfect.

Professor XXXL: Really? All right!

Box Ghost: Hope you guys don't mind me being in the Masters of Evil. If Toiletnator can join, then so can I.

Me: At least it's better than Pestering Danny.

Danny Phantom: True.

But then a shadow came in and it was VAMPEAL!

---

Vampeal is a Cardian who works for Alan and Ann. She is an evil monster who sucks energy from people, particularly young girls. She is the first Cardian that Alan and Ann sent to gather energy for the Doom Tree. She appeared in Sailor Moon R Episode 1, The Return of Sailor Moon .

Luna and Artemis attempted to stop Vampeal themselves and rather than revive the Sailor Scouts, but she was too powerful for them to stop as she was draining Molly's energy. Serena came over at that time and Luna had no choice but to restore her memories of being Sailor Moon. Sailor Moon's energy was nearly drained by Vampeal, but Luna stopped her by biting her arm, giving Sailor Moon the opportunity she needed to destroy Vampeal with Moon Tiara Magic.

Vampeal's name is derived from the word "vampire".

---

Vampeal: I hope you all enjoyed your contest. It's the last one you'll ever have.

Sailor Moon: Vampeal!

Lucy: Not if we can help it.

Shanan: Especially coming from a Vampirinian.

Qin: What are Vampirinians?

Shanan: The most ruthless vampire nomadic race in the universe. Their home planet Vampiria was destroyed when a massive meteor slammed into it in the Black Eye Galaxy and they became a race of wandering universe nomads. Because of this, they were dying slowly. Vampeal is one of the last of her kind.

Qin: Whoa! That's terrible.

Nico: No kidding.

El Oso: Now we have another treat for you. We found another Number for you.

A figure came out and it was CHILLS!

---

Chills, known as Kaio in the Japanese version, is an underground gang member and friend of Scorch in Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL . He is one of the "Number" holders, wielding "Freezadon".

Their gang took in Reginald Kastle after he quit Dueling. When Yuma Tsukumo, Tori Meadows, and Bronk Stone entered their arcade hideout looking for Shark, Chills grabbed Yuma by the ankle when he tried to come to Bronk's aid after Scorch had grabbed Bronk, and held him upside down. Shark told the brothers to let the group go.

Scorch and Chills later learned of a rare deck being put on display in a museum, featuring "Chaos End Ruler - Ruler of the Beginning and the End", and set out to steal it with Reginald in tow after he'd heard them threatening Weasel. Weasel informed Yuma of their attempt, allowing Yuma to challenge them both to a Duel. Reginald teamed up with Yuma, making it a 2-on-2 Tag-Team Duel. After Chills Summoned "Freezadon", Reginald correctly guessed that he and Scorch cheated by turning off their D-Pad's shuffling function and placing their cards in a set order so that they know which cards they and their partner would draw. Chills was eliminated from the Duel after saving Scorch from being defeated by Shark. After he and Scorch lost the two thugs ran away from Reginald in fear, having lost the influence of the "Numbers" cards.

---

Reginald: Chills!

Eli: Oh man.

Me: You guys know him?

Eli: Yeah. He is the holder of Number 19. He's Scorch's best friend.

Me: Whoa man! Lets get it on!

Troy: Sorry, kid. But that Number Card's gotta go!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Mighty Morphin!

Eli: It's butt-kicking time!

Me: And for the battle with Johnny 13 we have a special treat for you. We have a new Motorcycle Battleground for you guys.

Johnny 13: AWESOME!

Nico: Ooh! Way to come through for them.

Roman Goodwin appeared.

Roman: Let me help out too.

We went at them.

Shrapnel: Yeah!

Shrapnel and Blackarachnia used the Decepticon and Predacon Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Shrapnel's lightning blasts and Blackarachnia's weapons 100-fold.

Bumblebee and Marceline used the Autobot and Ooo Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Bumblebee's Photon Rifle and Marceline's powers 100-fold.

Shrapnel and Blackarachnia: LIGHTNING WIDOW MEGABLAST!

Shrapnel fired massive waves of lightning and Blackarachnia fired blasts of bullets and more.

G1 Bumblebee and Marceline: DARKNESS PHOTON MEGASHOT!

Bumblebee fired blasts of photon energy and Marceline fired blasts of darkness.

Lola: Time for you to heat up!

Eli: Yeah!

Yuma, Eli and Lola: INFERNO OF FREEDOM!

They fired a massive wave of fire and the blasts all smashed into Chills and his Number and destroyed the Number and knocked down Chills into Unconsciousness.

Astral Absorbed both Number 61 & 19's memories and he saw that Astral World was under attack.

Me: YEAH!

Nico: 2 more numbers in the bag.

Me: Yep. 94 Numbers to go.

Lincoln: Yep.

The Masters of Evil came.

Steam Smythe: (to Lincoln and Lynn Sr) Even if the Stankcos humiliated you two, we would never laugh at you.

Lola: If anything, the Stankcos deserved humiliation.

Me: Absolutely.

Lola: (To the viewers) We love a good battle but it's great to have fun too.

Me: Yep.

We went to the Living Room to rest.

Another awesome fanfic done!

Legends of The Hidden Temple has been one of my favorite game shows from back when I was a kid and it was so awesome how they went through that temple and did all kinds of amazing challenges and it was so much fun! Kirk Fogg did a great job hosting that show back then and it was awesome! This chapter was for the great crossover episode of The Loud House with Legends Of The Hidden Temple that aired on November 11th, 2017 and it was awesome! NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is Original chapter I made up for called Shrunken Lincoln and it's gonna be about what happens when one of Lisa's experiments goes wrong and it accidentally shrinks Lincoln to action figure size and we have to kepp him protected until Lincoln gets back to his normal size. The Next Number is gonna be Number 12: Crimson Shadow Armor Ninja and his holder Kaze and we're gonna be in for quite a battle. Ninja to Ninja.

See you all tomorrow.

Unshrinking a Small Lincoln

WARNING: The battle in this chapter is bloody and gruesome. Read at your own risk.

---

We were in the Batcave monitoring for any criminal activity and all that.

Me: So far things have been very quiet.

Lincoln: Yep they have.

We saw that Batman was worried.

Batgirl: Is something wrong, Bruce?

Batman: Lucius Fox has been out of contact for some time. And I don't like it.

Scratch: Maybe he's busy. Probably making new gadgets for you.

Me: Maybe. But I sense that something is wrong.

But then I got a call from Bruce Wayne's Secretary at WayneTech Industries, Clara Saberton.

Clara: Help us!

Me: Clara Saberton!? What's wrong?

Clara Saberton: Bruce Wayne's gone crazy! He's taken Mister Fox! Please, Team Loud Phoenix Storm! I think he's going to kill him!

Vinyl Scratch facepalms at this.

Nico: Actually, there's no way in Hell that Bruce Wayne is holding Lucius hostage. (to Batman) Show her.

Batman turned on his Computer and pulled up the security footage and we saw a fake Bruce Wayne and Alfred and us gasped!

I saw the scars on the fake Bruce Wayne's face.

Me: Wait a second. That is not Bruce Wayne. There are too many scars on his face and there's only one man that I know that is capable of imitating Bruce Wayne with a false identity.

Alfred: Yes. Dr. Thomas Elliot A.K.A. Hush.

I went over his history.

---

Thomas "Tommy" Elliot, also known as Hush, is a villain from DC Comics, appearing as an enemy to Batman and Batwoman. He and Bruce Wayne/Batman were childhood friends, but they were also each others opposite. Hush became a villain at an early age, and managed to become a surgeon. He serves as the titular main antagonist of the Batman: Hush storyline.

Thomas Elliot, was born with a rich family and was a childhood friend to Bruce Wayne, but, unlike Bruce, despised his parents due to his father's abusive nature and his mother's inability to control her husband's temper towards Elliot. Driven by independence and wealth, he cut the brakes of his parents car and managed to get his father killed and mother severely injured, but she was saved when Thomas Wayne used his surgical skills on her.

Elliot was then forced to wait for his mother to die many years later to inherit her wealth and property, causing a violent and maddened rage towards the Wayne family, which he only wanted revenge on Bruce after his parents deaths. Elliot, due to revenge, spent decades to come up with a elaborate plan to ruin his life and be satisfied with victory.

At some point he took a job at Arkham Asylum, and was on the roster for the night shift in the medical bay. Some time before entering Arkham Cty, he began murdering people to steal their faces, so he could construct a perfect duplicate of Bruce Wayne's.

These three murders earned him the nickname "Identity Thief" by the media.

Sometime before the events of Arkham City, he was responsible for the surgery that separated both Mr. Hammer and Sickle, he was hired by Joker to perform the surgery in exchange for finances which funded his later surgeries.

In the Gotham Cathedral which is the location of the medical team in Arkham City,Batman sees a man with a bandaged face laying on a bed with a box in his hands. When Batman asks a nearby doctor about the man, the doctor claims that it is no inmate but a doctor as well. He claims that the place must have turned the man mad and that they realised too late. He claims that the man stole painkillers and then cut off his own face. He says as well that no one knows what's inside the box he is holding, as no one could pry it lose. When the player waits long enough, he can hear the bandage faced man, who is in truth Thomas Elliot, mutter "Wayne". When Batman returns to the cathedral again, Elliot is gone.

During the game, Batman can find three victims of Elliot who have been dumped in the city. Each time he talks to witnesses they claim that the murderer was Bruce Wayne, which Batman of course does not believe. When talking to the last witness, believing that he was the murderer, the inmate instead tells him that Bruce Wayne told him to dump the body and tells Batman where to find him. Batman locates Hush's hideout and searches for evidence. While he listens to an audiotape in which Elliot reveals what he has done, the doctor himself arrives and traps Batman. Hush then removes the bandages around his head and reveals his new face; planning to seek vengeance against Bruce by committing crimes with this new disguise. Claiming that Batman has enough to do at Arkham City, Hush tells him that he will leave Batman alone for this time, but claims that he will not be so generous if their paths cross again. Hush then leaves the building and flees from Arkham City.

Remaining behind during Scarecrow's attack, Hush infiltrates Wayne Tower, gaining access to Lucius Fox's office on the top floor. After failing to gain access to a computer due to security protocols he didn't expect, Elliott takes Fox hostage and uses his retina to access the Wayne Enterprises mainframe. He then proceeds to transfer

Wayne Enterprises funds to his own account.

Before he can do more, Batman enters the room. With Fox as his hostage, Elliott demands that Batman finds Bruce Wayne and brings him before him, planning to kill Wayne. After a brief discussion about Hush's motives, Batman removes his mask and reveals his identity to Hush. Shocked, Hush gets edgy and attempts to shoot Batman, but Batman disarms him in the split second before Elliot can do so. Fox then assaults Elliot with a vase. A distraught Elliot clutches his now scarred face before Batman lifts him in the air and smashes him through him through Fox's desk, thereby knocking Elliot out. Knowing he cannot deliver Hush to the G.C.P.D. without putting himself under investigation, Batman instructs Fox to lock the unconscious Elliott in the vault under the building.

---

We gasped in shock!

Linka: So he was a close friend of Bruce and he wants revenge on him for having a good life.

Me: Yeah. Looks like we have another one of Bruce's fucked up maniac archenemies running amok. We got to go after him.

Nico: Right! Lets go!

Me: Yeah!

We went after Hush.

---

In WayneTech Industries, Hush was holding Lucius Fox hostage. Suddenly…

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

A massive fiery explosion blasted through the windows and a phoenix cry was heard and we all landed and we were facing Dr. Thomas Elliot A.K.A. HUSH!

Me: Dr. Thomas Elliot A.K.A. Hush. Nice to meet you.

Hush: So you all know who I am.

Lucius: Thomas? I thought you were dead.

Batman: Let him go!

Hush: We're just negotiating, aren't we, Mr. Fox? (to Batman) I have a job for you and Team Loud Phoenix Storm, Batman. Bring me Bruce Wayne or I bring down this tower.

Me: Fuck you Hush! Not gonna happen! We don't negotiate with fucked up psychopaths.

Bludgeon: (keeping Batman's identity secret): Why Wayne? The two of you were friends.

Hush: (not letting go of the gun) That brat's family destroyed me, and now I will destroy him.

Lola: After how the Wayne's stood by you?!

Hush: Ah yes. The great surgeon Thomas Wayne. To think he was once my idol. Until he ruined everything.

Lynn: He did all he could to save your parents after the crash. We're sorry you lost your father, but he saved your mother's life.

Hush: (angrily) He denied me what was rightfully mine!

Lori (realizes something): The car crash literally wasn't an accident, it was you. You wanted to kill them.

Hush: I only want what I deserve! Bruce Wayne had his riches handed to him on a plate. He never had to fight for anything in his life! Now bring me Wayne, or I'll destroy this tower and everything he stands for!

Nico: FUCK YOU!

Me: Dr. Elliot listen to yourself! Bruce didn't have all that money and all that handed to him on a silver platter. He earned it. Everyone loves him now. Unlike you all you wanted was the opposite. Money handed to you on a fucking silver platter. And you would do anything to get it.

Batman then took off his mask and revealed to them that he is also BRUCE WAYNE!

Hush: Bruce… that's impossible!

Me: Didn't expect that did you? Batman and Bruce Wayne are both one in the same. But you aren't the only one with a few surprises.

But then a clone of me smashed a chair on Hush's head and knocked him out and the clone vanished.

We got Lucius Fox up safely.

Me: You okay Lucius?

Lucius: Yes thanks to all of you.

Batman: (puts his mask back on) I take it you didn't hear the news.

Lucius Fox: Not recently, no sir.

Batman: Lucius, there's no need for me to hide my identity anymore. The world knows who I am.

Lucius Fox: I… I don't know what to say, Mister Wayne. What does this mean? Is this the end of Batman?

G1 Ironhide: Are you kidding? Batman ain't done until we say he's done!

Me: That's right Lucius. The world always and forever will need a Batman.

Nico: That's right.

Vince: What happened with Bruce Wayne having his identity revealed was an unforeseen surprise.

Me: Yep.

Lucius: I see. I'm glad you all came.

Nico: But don't worry about Hush. He's going to the Arkham Asylum branch of the Saturn Insane Asylum.

Me: Yep. You know it's pretty ironic. The man that Hush wants to kill the most turns out to be the Dark Knight himself.

Batman: That's true.

Me: But someone as fucked up as Hush deserves nothing more but the worst.

Lincoln: Yeah he's a total psychopath.

Laney: He is a monster.

Me: A Fucked up Whack Job.

We got everything fixed up in WayneTech and Laney put Hush in a straitjacket and we sent him to the Arkham Asylum branch of the Saturn Asylum forever with no hope of parole or release.

Later back at the estate in Lisa's lab, she was working on an interesting and amazing project.

Luminous: Hey, Lisa. What are you working on?

Lisa Loud: I'm working on an new way for us to get into those little small places that humans can't reach in. It's called the instant shrink serum.

Nightshade: Interesting.

Luminous: Those small places to get to are a major pain.

Lisa Loud: Indeed. Now just have to add a couple more ingredients for it to be complete. She carried it and then when she wasn't looking, she tripped on a book and spilled the formula and it landed on Lincoln and it got all over him and then he shrunk down to the size of an action figure.

Luminous: Hey it works!

Nightshade: Oh man. We have to get everyone up here.

They went and got us.

Me: What happened?

We saw Lincoln and he was small now! He was only 1 foot tall!

Me: Whoa!

Lily: Big bro!? What happened to you?

Nico: You're about as small as an action figure.

Babs Seed: Lincoln, I still can't understand how this could've happened.

Lincoln: (Tiny voice) It was all an accident Babs.

Girl Jordan: Aww you look so cute this size.

Girl Jordan put blue lipstick on and kissed him on his head and left a blue lipstick mark.

Lincoln laughed goofily.

I picked him up.

Me: How did this happen to you Lincoln?

Lincoln: It was all an accident. Lisa tripped and the experiment she was working on landed on me and I shrank to this size.

Lisa Loud: It was all an accident like elder brother said. I tripped over a book carrying my Instant Shrink Serum and I accidentally shrank Lincoln.

Me: An Instant Shrink Serum? That's really interesting. What was it supposed to be used for?

Luminous: It was to be used to have us shrink down and clean those hard to reach places.

Me: Oh yeah those areas are hard to get to. They are a major pain in the ass.

Nico: No kidding.

Wallflower, Varie and everyone else came.

Varie: Whoa! Lincoln shrank big time.

Wallflower: Aw, Lincoln. You look so cute at this size.

Lincoln: (Blushes) Thanks Wallflower.

Varie: How did Lincoln get so small?

Me: Lisa's experiment backfired in his face.

Lily: Wow. This reminds me of the time where SpongeBob accidentally shrunk himself.

SpongeBob: It's true. I was shrunk down to Lincoln's size right there because the grill was turned up to high.

Lincoln: Wow. I didn't know that happened to you.

SpongeBob: I know.

Applejack: Poor Lincoln. This reminds me of the time we were exposed to Poison Joke and this happened to me.

Me: Poison Joke? What's that?

Twilight Sparkle: It's a strange blue flower. Instead of causing you to itch like crazy like poison ivy or poison oak it causes really funny and humorous things to happen to you. It made my horn all floppy with blue spots on it.

Rarity: I got dreadlocks all over me. I looked like one of those big dogs that were like that.

Laney: You mean like a Komondor Dog?

Rarity: Exactly.

Pinkie Pie: My tongue was big and swollen and it had blue spots.

Fluttershy: I had a really deep mans voice.

Rainbow Dash: My wings were on my underbelly and I was flying uncontrollably and crashing all over the place.

Applejack: And I was about Lincoln's size as he is now.

Me: Weird. But that is not funny.

Luan: No kidding. I may like funny things but that is not funny.

Spike: And I came up with funny names for them. I called Twilight "Twilight Flopple", Rarity "Hairity", Applejack "Apple-Teeny", Rainbow Dash "Rainbow Crash", Fluttershy "Flutter-Guy and Pinkie Pie "Spitty-Pie".

Me: (Glares at him)

Lincoln: Those names are not amusing.

Sunset Shimmer: I agree.

Spike: Sorry.

Apple Bloom: We all thought it was some kind of curse placed on them by our friend Zecora because everyone was scared of her in Ponyville.

Me: Geez the way that sounded like that made it seem to think that you all thought she was some kind of Satanic Voodoo Priestess. No offense.

Lucy Loud: None taken.

Brittney: Sounds like someone I could get along with.

Ink Rose: Me too.

Lincoln and Danny had a ghost sense and then Box Ghost, Pyro, El Oso, Professor XXXL Johnny 13 and Steam Smythe then appeared.

Box Ghost: Hey, guys. Me, Pyro, El Oso, Professor XXXL, Johnny, and Steam Smythe just thought we'd stop by and check up on all of you.

Me: Thanks guys. But we have something interesting happen to Lincoln.

I showed Lincoln and he was now the size of an Action Figure!

They gasped!

El Oso: Ay Caramba! What happened to Lincoln?

Me: Lisa's experiment backfired and it hit Lincoln.

Johnny 13: I think Lincoln's powers were weakened too.

Danny Phantom: What makes you think Lincoln's powers are going to be weakened when he's tiny?

Johnny 13: (to Danny) It happened to you before, didn't it?

Danny Phantom: Yeah it did and that was weird.

Me: Wow.

Alister: What should Lincoln do until this wears off?

Me: We'll have to keep him low. But first lets see how strong his powers are at this size.

Lincoln: Okay.

Lincoln spread his wings and then he fired a massive blast of lightning and it was just as powerful as his normal size lightning was. It hit the fireplace but it blew him back from a massive recoil and Lily caught him.

Lily: Whoa! You okay big bro?

Lincoln: Yeah.

Me: Whoa! Lincoln's powers are amplified at this size.

Pan: Big Things do come in small packages.

Pyro: If any criminals not in the Masters of Evil find out about this, they'll be out for Lincoln's blood. Especially now that he's small.

Me: No kidding. But we'll be ready for them.

Then the alarm went off.

Nico: Guys we have huge problems!

Nico showed us on the radar and we saw a massive horde of criminals from all over the city converging all on our Perimeter! They were coming at us from all directions by the 10s of thousands!

Me: WHOA! We got a huge Criminal Convergence Ω Emergency!

Laney: All the criminals from all over the country are coming at us! They are heading after Lincoln.

Me: Lisa, you get to work on the antidote. While we face the Criminals we're going to really be fighting.

Lisa Loud: Affirmative.

Steam Smythe: I'll have my Mechanoids split those criminals up. That way, we'll pick them off easily.

Me: Good thinking.

Nico: Until Lisa makes the Antidote we need to kill ALL these Criminals.

Laney: Right!

Vypra and ALL the Masters of Evil then appeared.

Vypra: Let us help you all too.

Me: Thanks Vypra.

Vypra: And I have new recruits for you all.

6 Figures came out and they were Angel Lopez A.K.A. ANGEL and former members of Skeletor's evil Horde, EVILSEED, MER-MAN, TRI-KLOPS and EVIL-LYN and former member of the Hellfire Club Selene Gallio A.K.A. SELENE!

---

Angel

Angel is a former student of the H.I.V.E. Academy and an enemy of the Teen Titans.

The exact origin of Angel is unknown, but at some point she was recruited as a student into the H.I.V.E. Academy. Cyborg later infiltrated the institute to discern the latest plans of its then-current headmaster, Brother Blood. In the wake of the resulting conflict the academy was destroyed, and most of its students, including Angel, went freelance (she escaped the academy together with Kyd Wykkyd after he saved her from its destruction).

At some later point of time, Angel was recruited into the Brotherhood of Evil as seen at the end of "Homecoming - Part 2", standing next to Kyd Wykkyd, along with most of the other former H.I.V.E. Academy students. When the Brotherhood finally executed its plans to eliminate all young superheroes around the world, Angel and Punk Rocket were sent to bring down Bumblebee, but after taking their quarry by surprise and battering her senseless, they lost her in the city below. When the Titans mounted a final assault on the Brotherhood's base, Angel was defeated. Though she attacked Raven in mid-flight, she wasn't seen fighting anybody in particular, except for when she attacked Beast Boy, but it is assumed that her whereabouts are unknown because she escaped.

Evilseed

Evilseed appears in the 2002 cartoon where he is an enemy of Moss

Man.

He is first seen imprisoned in the Root Cellar when Orko stumbles into it looking for Moss Man to help the Royal Palace's garden. He tricks Orko into thinking he is Moss Man and gives him seeds that eventually create vines that capture everyone in the Royal Palace and frees Evilseed. With the Masters, King Randor, and Queen Marlena as captives, Evilseed begins his revenge on them for gorging plant life. When the real Moss Man appears at the Royal Palace's garden, Orko learns that Evilseed gave him those seeds. When they go to free the captives, Orko unwittingly reveals the power within Castle Grayskull and Evilseed ventures there with He-Man and Moss Man in pursuit. He-Man and Battle Cat battle one of Evilseed's evil plant monsters and win as Evilseed is imprisoned again.

Later on, Skeletor frees Evilseed to join his Council of Evil where Evilseed uses a dangerous underwater plant to capture Ram-Man and Man-E-Faces. When He-Man goes to rescue the captive Masters and defeat the three giants, he is ambushed by Evilseed whose vines strangle him and Battle-Cat, and Count Marzo turns the vines to stone. When it comes to the battle at Castle Grayskull, the Masters are freed by Moss Man and Evilseed flees.

Mer-Man

The Mer-Man toy was part of the first series of Masters of the Universe action figures released by Mattel in 1981-1982. The character was conceived as Skeletor's most prominent henchman after Beast Man.

Mer-Man features as a major character in almost all the various Master of the Universe media since the toyline's inception. This includes the original mini-comics that accompany the action figures, the Filmation animated series, both the DC Comics and Marvel Comics versions and the more recent animated series produced by Mike Young Productions. He is not present in the 1987 film Masters of the Universe .

In all these different interpretations of the Masters of the Universe mythology the major aspects of Mer-Man's character remain relatively unchanged. Mer-Man is apparently the king of a species of amphibious humanoid creatures who inhabit at least some part of the oceans of the planet Eternia. Sometimes it is stated that Mer-Man is not just the ruler of his own race but also the ruler of all that lies beneath the sea. Though a king in his own right Mer-Man is a thrall to Skeletor, the Lord of Destruction and ruler of Snake Mountain. Mer-Man's service of Skeletor means he is constantly at odds with He-Man and the other heroic champions of Eternia. When engaging the Heroic Warriors, Mer-Man is most frequently teamed up with Beast Man.[1]

He seems to hail from the Crystal Sea. In the episode " Teela's Quest " Skeletor refers to this location as Mer-Man's "home territory."

Tri-Klops

Tri-Klops is a character from both Mattel's toyline, Masters of the Universe and the Filmation and Mike Young Productions animated series' of the same name. He is a minion of the evil Skeletor and enemy of He-Man and the other heroes of Eternia. He wears a rotating visor helmet with three artificial eyes fixed to it, each with a special type of vision. In some media this gives him the advantage of seeing in three directions at once, while in others he sees only out of the front eye and rotates his visor depending on which type of vision he requires. The exact function of each eye varies in different versions of the franchise, although they usually are portrayed to be Distavision (the ability to see from far distances), Nightvision (the ability to see in the dark), and Gammavision (the ability to see through objects or around them); each eye also has a different optic blast.

Tri-Klops is reused in the 2002 relaunch of the MOTU toy line and series. His design is slightly modified and his helmet is shown to be a cybernetic attachment, capable of firing a different-colored laser from each eye. In one episode of the cartoon, "Rise of the Snakemen, Part 1", when the helmet is melted by acid we see that his artificial eyes are wired cybernetically into his real eye sockets.

The revamped figure has a window on top of the head which tunnels light into light up the forward-facing eye (which now looks like jewels). When the figure was being designed, the Four Horsemen had considered the eyes to be lit up by batteries, but this was dropped due to production budget restraints.

The cartoon gives Tri-Klops a much bigger role than the 1980s one did, and he is depicted as an irritable technologist and inventor, far removed from the original concept of the character as a more primitive warrior. He is Skeletor's main inventor and spends most of his time in his workshop coming up with all sorts of weapons and vehicles to aid Skeletor, one of his most notable inventions being the Doomseekers, which are used to spy on He-Man and the Masters (a Doomseeker was also included with the new version of the figure). Shown to be considerably more intelligent than most of Skeletor's minions (which is more in keeping with the vintage line's original mini-comics), the cartoon also retains the portrayal of him as one of the more loyal of Skeletor's minions. However, he does finally branch out on his own and attempts to betray Skeletor in the episode "Roboto's Gambit", in which he uses his latest invention in an effort to take over Eternia for himself after the invention is rejected by Skeletor.

The cartoon's accompanying comic series gives him an origin story, which ties in with the original idea of the character as a medieval-style swordsman. He began as a noble swordsman who (bizarrely enough) wore a bandana which concealed his eyes completely, was blinded by a magic spell, and became the defender of a scientific research center. In this role he used his senses of smell and sound to fight his enemies, now wearing a helmet over his eyes in place of the bandana. Having been given this position by the building's owner, whose life he had saved, when the building came under attack by Keldor, prior to his transformation into Skeletor, the two began to battle. Keldor tricked Tri-Klops into believing the tower's owner had used the helmet to keep the spell on his sight intact for the sake of using him as his defender, and Tri-Klops helped Keldor overcome the tower. Keldor rewarded Tri-Klops by creating the mechanical visor he wears today to restore his sight, but the visor also secretly serves to keep Tri-Klops loyal to Keldor, and Tri-Klops has remained in Skeletor's services ever since, mistakenly believing that he saved his life.

Evil-Lyn

Evil-Lyn is an evil witch who aids Skeletor as his second-in-command with her powers of darkness.

She is vastly more intelligent than Skeletor's other minions. While she admits that she is not as powerful as Skeletor, she readily confesses that she hopes to seize her master's powers and lord it over Eternia herself one day. Thus, she has worked completely independent of Skeletor on multiple occasions. Her trademark is the magic wand crowned with a crystal orb. Evil-Lyn typically generates magic without the assistance of any instruments.

In the 2002 series, much more of Evil-Lyn's background is revealed, including the fact that her father, known as The Faceless One, is a powerful sorcerer who despairs of his daughter's choice to follow Skeletor. Although Evil-Lyn is shown to have her own agenda, she still maintains some loyalty to her bloodline. Her first meeting with Keldor shows her as a young woman with collar-length white hair who is physically attracted to the man who would become Skeletor. Later in the series, her hair is shown to be close cropped. This version of Evil-Lyn relied heavily on her magical staff to cast her spells. Without it, her powers were significantly diminished.

The original figure has yellow skin, although she is depicted in both animated series as having a pallid Caucasian flesh tone. In "The Witch and the Warrior," she removes her helmet for the only time in the series because of extreme heat, and has closely cut white hair. In an earlier episode she appeared to the Widgets as a blonde, but she was specifically using a magic spell to alter her appearance, even though she wore her usual clothing.

Selene Gallio A.K.A. Selene

Selene Gallio is a centuries-old psychic vampire and a supervillainess from Marvel Comics. Also known as the Black Queen, Selene is a longtime member of the Hellfire Club, and as such has often tormented the X-Men and their allies. She is immortal and possesses great magical powers, her chief among them being the manipulation of shadows and darkness. She can also drain the life-force from any living being that comes in contact with her skin.

Eventually she became one of the main antagonists of both the original run of the New Mutants series and the main antagonist of the Necrosha story arc.

Selene Gallio was born 17,000 years ago in central Europe, "After the Oceans swallowed Atlantis" and "Before the rise of the sons of Aryas". Selene's mother was young when she bore her, but would be dead before Selene spoke her first words. The tribal elders ordered her mother's people to sacrifice themselves to Selene until none remained. They thus gave her sustenance and her name.

Hyborian Age

Selene was revealed to have been an old enemy of sorcerer Kulan Gath. Kulan Gath was active during the Hyborian Age (before any recorded civilizations) and is known to have faced both Conan the Barbarian and Red Sonja. In fact, Sonja reportedly managed to kill him and his spirit would not manifest again until the modern era. Thus, Selene was active at least as early as the Hyborian age.

Rome and Eliphas

Selene is assumed to have been wandering the world for millennia. She approaches Eliphas, a well respected senator whose wife had left him for a general named Mascius. Selene offers him immortality in exchange for helping her kill and absorb every soul in Rome. Eliphas goes about drawing pentagrams and performing rituals at several locations in the city, but warns a small girl to get her family out. The girl's father alerts the authorities and Eliphas and Selene are captured before the spell can be carried out. Just before they are burned at the stake, Selene kills the guards. She then curses Eliphas for his perceived betrayal with an eternal life of torture, turning him into a vampire-like creature. Eliphas is buried alive for 700 years until a farmer discovers him in his field.

Nova Roma

In Nova Roma, Selene attempted to kill Amara Aquilla. She knocked Amara into a lava pool, thereby releasing her latent mutant powers, as Magma. Selene fought and defeated Magma, and plotted to turn Danielle Moonstar into a psychic vampire like herself and conquer the world. Selene fought the New Mutants, and was cast into lava and buried alive.

Becoming the Black Queen

Selene directed her worshipers to undertake tasks that eventually allowed her to leave Nova Roma. In New York City, she nearly seduced and attacked the Juggernaut. She attacked Rachel Summers and fought the X-Men. Selene soon became the Black Queen of the Hellfire Club. She then overcame and destroyed her ancient enemy, Kulan Gath. She was later revealed to have been manipulating a power struggle within the Hellfire Club. After Selene left Nova Roma, the citizens regained their memories and sought to return to their previous lives. Later stories attempted to suggest Nova Roma had been an illusion, sustained by Selene, and later the mutant known as Empath. This was ultimately disproved by Magma, who discovered that the supposed revelation of Nova Roma being an illusion was a ploy to steal her away from her home and torment those who loved her.

It is possible that Selene was the one who made Magma think Nova Roma was not real. Of all the X-Men and their related teams, she possesses particular hatred for Magma and Rachel Summers. In particular, Rachel almost killed her once, before being stopped by Wolverine. She was seen during a membership change in the Hellfire Club, where she apparently has been kept prisoner beneath the building. However, she gained limited mobility from an alliance with Donald Pierce. She tried once again to take vengeance on Rachel, but was thwarted in this attempt as well. Selene remained trapped for a time beneath the Hellfire Club headquarters.

After M-Day

Selene was one of the few mutants to retain her powers after the events of M-Day. Selene, disguised as an old woman, befriends Wither and they live together in Mutant Town. She encourages him to use his powers and not be afraid of his natural gifts. She then asks him if he would use his powers to save his or her life. She had been killing a large number of people by draining the life out of them, and during her last feeding her disguise was spotted by a witness.

She reveals to Wither that Wallflower has died while he was away. Later she is attacked by the police and managed to kill two of them before being shot multiple times. Wither arrives and kills the other two officers, only for Selene to drop her disguise, telling him she is immortal and that they are two of a kind and should be together. She tells Wither that she will be his queen if he agrees, then kisses him, and he consents.

Eli Bard's offering

Selene's relationship with Eli Bard the rogue member of the Purifiers, is explained by Warpath to the other members of X-Force. It is revealed he had originally planned to sacrifice the Purifiers to Selene but changed his plans upon seeing Bastion reprogram an offspring of Magus. Using the Technarch transmode virus he re-animated the corpses in the burial grounds of the Apache tribe that he decimated decades earlier as well as Caliban and presented him to Selene for the purpose of finding other dead mutants and resurrecting them by the same means, so Bard can sacrifice them and their powers to her. Wither did not appear with her. There were, however, several figures standing behind Selene in the shadows, but it is unknown if he was among them.

Necrosha

One week before the event of Necrosha, Selene has the recently resurrected Destiny brought before her where she asks what her future holds. Selene returns to the place of her birth in central Europe, accompanied by new Inner Circle, consisting of Blink, Senyaka, Mortis, Wither, and Eli Bard. She sets her plan into motion of becoming a goddess with her Inner Circle; they go to the New York branch of the Hellfire Club where they slaughter every person there. She then targets others who, according to her, have failed her in her quest for godhood such as Sebastian Shaw, Donald Pierce, and Emma Frost (with whom she holds a particular grudge for having taken the "Black Queen" moniker when working for the Dark X-Men) as well as the X-Men because they got in her way and Magma. Caliban and Thunderbird then lead her to the ruins of Genosha where she claims this is where her journey will end and welcomes them to what she now dubs Necrosha.

While most of the resurrected mutants attack the X-Men and Utopia, Selene is seen with Eli Bard resurrecting the massacred residents of Genosha, with Cerebro detecting the rise of mutant numbers in millions. She is next seen with Warpath and an Unknown Female (Presumably Negasonic Teenage Warhead) discussing the fate of her pupils. As soon as that conversation ends, her Inner Circle returns with both the knife and Warpath in custody. Eli Bard proceeds to apologize to Selene for his betrayal those many years ago and proclaims his eternal love. Selene at first greets him endearingly, claiming that Eli was always her true love. She then stabs him in the stomach (to the delight of Wither), claiming that he was also her greatest disappointment. Once she has the dagger she gathers all her collected souls to attack X Force who are coming to stop her once and for all.

Whilst she has X Force occupied with the attacking dead she gathers her inner circle together to carry out the ritual which will finally make her the dark goddess she has always wanted to be. The ritual is a success and the collected souls seem to disintegrate and be attracted to a glowing blue/white light in the centre of Necrosha, presumably Selene herself. At the end of the issue it is confirmed by the escaped Warpath that she has finally became a god - probably because of the vast amount of souls which she has "reaped" - but it appears she is not invincible and Warpath knows a way to kill her. Performing an ancient Apache ritual, Warpath uses a sacred blade to kill Selene.

Return

It was later revealed that sometime after her physical destruction, Selene's body and soul had been preserved as airborne particles and somehow stored in stasis in a vault located somewhere in New York City. Lady Deathstrike and the Enchantress gained access to the vault, and through the newly enhanced magic granted to her by the sentient virus, Arkea, she was able to fully restore Selene to physical life for the purpose of adding her to the newly-formed Sisterhood of Mutants.

Vypra: We also found another Number for you all.

A figure came out and it was Kaze!

---

Kaze, known as Yamikawa in the Japanese version, is a character in Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL . He is a reformed student of Roku's Duel Sanctuary, as well as one of the Number holders.

Kaze was a student at Roku's Duel Sanctuary, but after Dueling him and losing his faith, he grabbed a sword and slashed a statue of "Blade Armor Ninja", cutting it in half. Afterwards, he left the Duel Sanctuary and hadn't been seen since.

Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL

After Yuma Tsukumo and his friends went to the Duel Sanctuary to help Roku out, Kaze showed up again and challenged his former master to a Duel, which he easily won. He then ran inside and went to take the Legendary Deck, but was stopped by Yuma, who challenged him to a Duel.

As the Duel progressed, both continued to overthrow each others' strategies and it was revealed that all of Kaze's hatred caused him to become possessed by a "Number" card, "Number 12: Crimson Shadow Armor Ninja". Kaze ultimately lost when Yuma Summoned "Number 39: Utopia" and defeated his "Number". He then went to slash the statue again, but was stopped by Yuma who convinced him that it was wrong, to which he apologized and began to study at the Duel Sanctuary again.

---

Eli: Kaze!

Me: Oh man! What number does he have?

Eli: Number 12.

Kaze: (to Yuma) After these fools are dealt with, you're next, Yuma!

Eli: Not if we destroy you first Kaze!

Me: And I have the perfect arena for you all.

I pressed a button and the lights went off and it was as dark as night and then a castle appeared with a lone light on and it was a dark castle arena.

Me: This is the Phantasmagoric Dark Castle Arena. I figured it would be perfect for this.

Trini: So cool! Activating Power Beam!

Battle 8: Kaze and Number 12

---

Eli, Nunnally, Lily Loud, Linka, Yuma, Maxxor, Tori Meadows, Carly Carmine, Yugi Moto, Kaiba and Joey were facing Kaze and Number 12.

Eli: Get ready for a merciless butt-thrashing Kaze!

Carly Carmine: Yeah you fucking jerk!

Tori Meadows: I have always hated your guts Kaze!

Kaze: I will kill all of you! I summon NUMBER 12: CRIMSON SHADOW ARMOR NINJA!

He summoned the Crimson Shadow Armor Ninja and it was a terrifying ninja that was blood red and scary.

Lily: Whoa! So that's Number 12.

Eli: Yep.

Me: I have the perfect arena for you.

I pressed a button and wind fans turned on and a forest appeared and they were in a forest of wind arena.

Me: This is the Forest of Gentle Wind Arena.

Eli: Cool!

Kaiba: This guy is really weak compared to us.

Yuma: Good riddance.

Eli: That's it for him.

We had the usual battles done.

Me: That was epic!

Lincoln: Yeah!

Wallflower: It sure was!

Pinkie Pie: This was so much fun!

Linka: YEAH! (To the viewers) This was a brutal and very interesting adventure. I hope we have many more like this. But the moral to this is always be careful where you are going and make sure you have no objects in front of you. Especially if you're carrying formulas.

Me: Ain't that the truth.

We went to rest.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

This was an original chapter I've created and it was awesome! The first part is based on the battle with Hush from Batman, Arkham Knight and that was cool. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next Number that is going to appear is Number 16: Shock Master. Get ready for a prismatic and electrifying adventure with that one. The next chapter is for the awesome and funny episode of SpongeBob, Ripped Pants. It's gonna be a land version of that episode where Lincoln and Girl Jordan go to the beach to have fun and Lincoln accidentally finds another form of comedy.

See you all tomorrow.

A Ripping Day at The Beach

It is a nice morning in the city as we head towards Woody Woodpecker's treehouse. We see Woody relaxing on a branch when felt something landing on his branch. He opens his eyes to see a Delibird with a sling bag staring at him.

Woody: Sup, buddy! Do you need anything?

Later that day, we see J.D. and everyone hanging around the park when Woody and the Delibird arrived.

Woody: Yo, J.D.!

Me: Hey, Woody! Do you need something?

Woody turns to the Delibird.

Woody: This guy wants to see you.

Me: Woah! A Delibird!

Lynn then brought out a PokeBall.

Lynn: Nice! I'm catching this one!

Woody: Wait! Wait! Wait! This guy ain't born to be catch! He is some sort of delivery Pokemon and had something to give to J.D.

Me: Really? (The Delibird then handed me a letter) A Letter? (I opened the envelope and began reading the letter) Dear Mister Knudson, it is I, you friendly neighborhood creepy-looking scientist (I chuckled) What is he now, Spiderman? Anyway… I hope all of you are doing well, I'm doing well in my researches when I came across three Prison Stones (On cue, I found three Prison Stones inside the envelope) Woah! Prison Stones!

Alan Wake: Indeed! I wonder how that guy found it.

(I continued reading)

Me: Found these things under someone's mattress.

Varie: That's quite an answer.

(I continued reading)

Me: Anyway… you know what do with it, Mister Knudson. I'll mail you again once I came across more Prison Stones. With love, the Creepy Looking Scientist (Chuckles) We may not know anything much about him but I'm glad that he's helping us.

Jack Spicer: Yeah.

Lincoln Loud: I think we should get the people out of those things.

Me: All right. Nico help me on this one.

(Nico nodded)

Nico: Okay!

(And with that, me and Nico held one Prison Stone on their palms and after channeling our energies into it, the stones exploded into a bright light, freeing two persons on the process. One is a teenage boy and the other is a middle aged man.

Teenage Boy: The name is Daniel Kusou but you can call me Dan! Thanks for getting me out of that thing, I owe you one! (He said with a thumbs-up)

The Middle Aged Man: I'm the Soldier, a mercenary from Mann Co. And as gratitude for saving me, I'm now in your service! (He declared before giving them a salute)

Me: Whoa! It's Dan Kuso, one of the famous Bakugan Battle Brawlers and the Soldier from Team Fortress 2!

Dan: An honor to meet ya, J.D.!

The Soldier: The feelings the same!

Nico: You know… releasing these heroes from those stone feels something you do in a Gacha Game.

Woody: I was thinking the same thing.

Lincoln: There's one more stone left!

(I held one Prison Stone in his palm and after channeling my energies into it, the stones exploded into a bright light, releasing another person which is an angry-looking tall man with a very muscular physique.)

Man: I am Kratos, the God of War, and I don't know who are you people but I am at least grateful for helping me.

Me: You're welcome.

(Everyone stares at Kratos in utter shock and amazement)

Lincoln: Well… looks like we found someone with a much more worse temper than Lori.

Lori: HEY!

At the estate we were watching TV and playing card games and reading books.

Me: So far things have been quiet. Lets hope it stays that way.

Nico: Yeah.

Akira: Arixam, if Maria wasn't turned into a Heartless, how were you created?

Bad Juju: It's a very dark story.

Maria: Yes it is. I was never turned into a Heartless which normally would've made Arixam. But that's not the case.

Arixam: I was made from after Maria got her powers and her humanity back.

Me: Maria was blessed by the Water Stallion of Tefnut, the Goddess of Water in Egyptian Myth.

Carol: That's right. She helped give Maria her humanity back.

Hikaru: I get it! Because you had a strong will, Arixam was born after you became human again.

Apple Bloom: And because you didn't have a heart, you had a grudge against Maria.

Arixam: Exactly. Until Maria showed me the ways of being a good human and more.

Maria: Yep.

Me: But things took a dark turn because of Lucy's dad Judde Heartfilia.

Linka: Yeah he shot Arixam in cold blood.

Vince: In the back like a total coward.

Jessica Shannon: Are you kidding me? Lucy's so called dad shot you in the back?!

Hook: He was a real scumbag.

Me: That's putting it mildly Hook and we made him suffer for it.

Weiss: I can't believe that monster! Lucy your so-called dad and my so-called dad are very similar.

Lucy H.: Yeah I know.

Me: No comparison between you two.

Yang: Speaking of Weiss' dad, last time we saw him, he was sent to prison for working with Watts.

Ratchet: I have a feeling that while we were fighting Salem, he took advantage of that to get out. He's probably fixing his public image by saying that Salem made him do those things.

Me: If he is up to something, we'll know and Weiss, we may have no choice but to kill him like we did to all the others.

Weiss: I understand J.D. He was never my father to begin with.

Linka: Yeah he was a monster.

Me: Yeah. And he will pay for his crimes 10 fold.

Lincoln and Girl Jordan came down and they were dressed in their summer and swim clothes.

Girl Jordan: Well we're heading out to the beach to have some fun and relaxation.

Me: Have fun you two.

Nico: You and Girl Jordan have fun at the beach, Lincoln. The rest of us are heading to Yuma's home city to find out where Don Thousand's hideout is.

Burst Man: That way, we'll know where to find him when it's time to take him down.

Lincoln: We will. We're gonna have a great time.

Girl Jordan: You said it.

Me: Have fun you two lovebirds.

Lincoln: We will.

They were off to the beach.

Me: Well lets head over there.

Everyone: YEAH!

Evilseed, Mer-Man, Tri-Klops, Evil-Lynn, Selene and Angel then appeared.

Evilseed: Can me, Merman, Tri Klops, Evil-Lyn, Selene and Angel go with you guys to Yuma's city?

Me: Sure. We've never been there ourselves but we heard from Yuma and friends that it's amazing.

Eli: It is. Trust me you guys will love it.

Nunnally: We've been there before several times before our worlds merged and it's amazing.

Linka: Wow.

We were off to Heartland.

---

We were flying over the central portion of America.

Needle Man: What's this place called again?

Eli: It's called Heartland and you guys are in for an amazing thrill when we get there.

Nunnally: Yeah it looks like an advanced city from the distant future.

Eli: We're here guys.

We arrived at Heartland City and it was incredible!

---

Heartland City is a city in a near future, where the main events of Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL take place. The mayor of Heartland was Mr. Heartland, while its founder is Dr. Faker. It has the defining characteristic of almost every building being brightly colored.

In several parts of it, it resembles New Domino City, especially the pier as several highways tower over it. By the river, there is a place that looks like the same site where the Duel between Yami Yugi and Strings took place.

Heartland City was the setting for the World Duel Carnival, which set up to find all the "Number" cards and their holders.

In the center of Heartland City is Heartland, which is surrounded by a wall and contains Heartland Tower.

---

Me: WHOA! So this is Heartland City.

Nico: Wow! When you said it was a city from the distant future you weren't kidding.

Linka: This is incredible!

Lori: Wow! This is literally an amazing city from the future.

Eli: We'll show you all around.

We walked around and we saw that it was like a city from the year 5000.

Laney: This is amazing!

Lola: Wow! It sure is!

Sailor Moon: Wow! It's like we went to the future in the 30th Century.

Me: It sure feels that way. But this city looks like something from the year 5000.

Nico: But this is so cool!

Yuma: Yep. Home sweet home.

Lily: But this is amazing that all this is here.

Vince: Yeah and in my home state where I'm from.

Lana: This is so cool though!

Mer-Man saw a fishstick cart.

Mer-Man: Are you kidding me? They're serving fishsticks here?!

Me: Yeah you don't like that Mer-Man sorry.

Jared: I don't even eat them anyway. I'm a vegetarian. No offense Evilseed.

Evilseed: None taken Jared.

Yuma: But I'll show you all where I live.

We went up to Yuma's House and it was a nice place.

Me: Your house is nice.

Yuma: Thanks J.D.

We went in.

Yuma: Mom, dad, I'm home and I brought friends!

Yuma's mom and dad Mira and Kazuma Tsukumo came.

Kazuma: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you all.

Apeface: (to Yuma's parents) It's nice to meet you two.

Mira: Same to all of you.

Kazuma: It's an honor to meet you all too.

Mira: We heard so much about all your adventures.

Me: We get that all the time.

Eli: Mira and Kazuma it's been a while.

Kazuma: Little Eli it sure has been a while.

Mira: Look how big you've got.

Eli: I still have a lot of fight in me.

Nunnally: He sure does.

Me: Yep.

Mira: You guys have a bunch of bad guys with you?

Me: Don't worry, it's not their turn to face us. They are just along for the ride and to help us if we run into any bad guys.

Evilseed: Yep.

Tri-Klops: What do you two do for a living?

Kazuma: We are adventurers and interdimensional explorers.

Mira: Our biggest journey took us into the Astral World where we met the benevolent people of the Astral Dimension.

Me: That's amazing.

Eli: It sure is. And you guys would love seeing it.

Astral: But only until after we get all my memories back and destroy Don Thousand.

Nunnally: Yeah.

Me: Yeah. The Number Cards are back and so is Don Thousand and all his minions.

They gasped.

Me: We're searching for the Numbers and we're going to kill Don Thousand and all his followers.

Applejack: That's right. We already caught 7 Numbers and we have 93 more to find.

Me: We're making really good progress.

Laney: We sure are.

Mira: We can help you guys find them.

Me: We would be honored. 2 adventurers with your skills would really be beneficial to helping us find them.

Kazuma: Thank you.

Mira: Which Numbers did you find?

Me: Well more like they came to us.

I pulled out the Numbers we have.

Me: We have Numbers 39, 17, 34, 83, 61, 19 and 12. 7 out of 100.

Kazuma: Awesome.

Me: We're also finding clues as to where Don Thousand's hideout might be.

Mira: That's gonna be very hard because he lives in the Barian World. It's another dimension beyond the reach of time and space.

Me: We've managed to find all kinds of strange things over the years. But we have seen many weird things over the worlds of the mystical, supernatural, paranormal, otherworldly and interdimensional.

Nico: It's true.

Me: Yeah and even some things that defy the laws of physics.

Mira: Wow. You all have been busy.

Me: That's an understatement. But we've also been to numerous planets all over the universe as well. It's amazing.

Kazuma: Wow!

Mira: What was one of your greatest adventures.

Me: Oh gosh, we've had so many of them. Picking one of them as the Greatest Adventure is like picking one of them out of the whole kit-n-kaboodle. It's like Lincoln calling one of his many siblings his favorite.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: No offense guys.

Loud Kids: None taken.

Me: Good.

Rarity: That would be a tough thing to pick.

Fluttershy: It sure would.

Mira: By the way where is Lincoln?

Me: Oh he and Girl Jordan are relaxing and having fun at the beach for the day. After everything that happened yesterday, Lincoln and Girl Jordan both deserve a break.

Wallflower: Yeah.

Nico: So we gave them the day off.

Mira: That's nice of you guys.

Laney: Thank you.

Twilight Sparkle: We are also here to check out the area and look for any clues as to where we might find Don Thousand's hideout.

Maria: How are we going to find clues about Don Thousand's hideout?

Itsasis: Simple. We interrogate the local thugs of this city about what they know.

Me: I'm not sure they know anything. But if they do they are probably gonna be very tough nuts to crack.

Nico: Yeah. But we got to try.

Me: Lets head out to find them.

We went out into the city and searched for thugs. Evil-Lyn then found a thug and grabbed him.

Evil Lyn: (to a thug) What do you know about Don Thousand's hideout? (the thug faints)

FWOMP!

May: Dammit! He fainted before we could get anything out of him!

Me: Lets keep looking. But we try my approach this time.

We went to a local thug bar.

Me: All right blockheads listen up! We need information.

The thugs all growled ferociously at me.

My eyes glowed red with ferocious fury and they all calmed down.

Buzzsaw: Does anyone know where to find Don Thousand's hideout? (the thugs run away) This is going to be tougher then we thought.

Me: They obviously know about Don Thousand and the mere mention of his name strikes fear into the hearts of even the most evil of men like Melkor in Lord of The Rings.

Nico: I hate that name.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja me too.

Angel: I'll take to the skies to look for more clues.

Skyla: I'll come with you to provide more air.

Angel: Thanks Skyla.

They flew to the air.

We searched high and low for thugs and more and then Slash Man found one.

Slash Man: (pins a thug to a wall) Now, unless you want to be impaled through the chest, you'll tell us where Don Thousand's hideout is!

Me: Better do what he says buddy or else you'll be joining over 90,000 criminals and thugs that we butchered for coming after us yesterday.

Thug: (Fearful) OKAY OKAY OKAY! I'LL TALK!

Me: There now was that so tough?

He pointed to the main capital tower of Heartland City.

Thug: It's located in the tower and Dr. Heartland is building a portal that will take people to the Barian World.

Me: Why does he want to do this?

Thug: It wants to bring the Barian Rulers to Earth and he will silence anyone that gets in his way.

Me: We'll see about that. Thanks for your help. But we're keeping an eye on you.

Selene: We got our information. Now, we just need to get home before one of Don Thousand's lackies come after us.

Me: (Senses something) Uh I think you spoke too soon Selene.

Then a figure came out and it was FORTUNO!

---

Fortuno, known as Jin (ジン Jin ) in the Japanese version, was a fortuneteller and a "Number" holder who became obsessed with the power of "Numbers" to become Kite Tenjo's servant.

He Dueled a "Number" holder who carried "Number 16: Shock Master" and won, taking his "Number" monster and leaving him shriveled and motionless like Kite's victims, due to his ability to use the Photon Hand. Later, Fortuno kidnaps Tori and the rest of the Super Secret Number Card Investigation Club, except Cathy, who ran away, in order to entice Yuma Tsukumo into Dueling him so that he could obtain his "Numbers" for Kite.

After Fortuno lost to Yuma and his new "Number C39: Utopia Ray", he was shown to possess a third "Number" monster, which he kept hidden. However, at that moment, Kite arrives.

Feeling grateful to be graced with his presence, Fortuno offered his services to Kite, but Kite's intention was just to take away his last "Number" monster, resulting in his defeat. It was also shown that he never actually worked for Kite; he just worships him. He offers himself to be Kite's servant, but Kite took his soul regardless.

---

Yuma: Fortuno!

Eli: Not this douchebag again!

Fortuno: Don Thousand's not happy about you all snooping around. But maybe I'll just bring you to him myself!

Eli: Not if I kill you myself!

Nunnally: Yeah you freak!

Carly Carmine and Devack then appeared.

Carly: Save seconds for us.

Me: But not in this area. Lets head to the park.

Yuma: Good idea.

Me: What number does Fortuno have?

Eli: Number 16.

Me: Oh man.

We went to the park and we were facing him and then Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind appeared.

Me: Xiao Fung. Just you today?

Xiao Fung: No more recruits are coming. Fancy seeing you all here.

Bai Tza: Same here brother. How have you been?

Xiao Fung: Good thanks. Here come the new recruits.

P'andor

P'andor is one of the five Andromeda Aliens from the Andromeda Galaxy who was captured by Aggregor and the alien Ben scanned to obtain NRG.

P'andor first appeared in Galapagus's flashback in Escape from Aggregor . He, along with Bivalvan, Andreas and Ra'ad were already prisoners on Aggregor's Ship when Aggregor captured Galapagus. P'andor seemed to have a rivalry with Bivalvan in their captivity. When Bivalvan shorted out the device Aggregor used to neutralize the powers of the prisoners and they escaped their cell, P'andor opted to overthrow Aggregor and take control of the ship. Bivalvan on the other hand, wanted to take advantage of their unknown escape and call for help.

P'andor led Andreas to the bridge to confront Aggregor while Bivalvan (after P'andor burnt his arm), Galapagus and Ra'ad went to call for help. However, P'andor and Andreas' attack on the bridge alerted Aggregor to the others' plan which resulted in the five of them being put back in their cell. When Magister Prior Gilhil appeared, he, along with Bivalvan, Andreas and Ra'ad escaped, leaving Galapagus to be captured.

When Galapagus returned to only neutralize their powers again, P'andor called him a traitor. Eventually, the five managed to escape thanks to Galapagus, but they unfortunately crashed on Earth. P'andor then left the group to find a way to open his suit and to feed on any energy he could find to sustain himself.

In Too Hot to Handle, P'andor offered one million dollars to anyone who could break him out of his containment suit. Surgeon, Buzz and Hammer each tried, but failed. Kevin, originally searching for the fugitives, heard about P'andor's offer and decided to try his luck, using a sample of Taydenite to cut through the suit.

However, Kevin stopped when his Plumber Badge detected radiation coming from P'andor's suit. Angrily, P'andor offered one hundred thousand dollars to the failed safecrackers if they could capture Kevin, who escapes, but accidentally left the Taydenite behind, which is what P'andor would need. After a failed attempt at using a drill and Taydenite combo (which broke the drill itself), P'andor needed the Osmosian and had Kevin captured.

Tricking Kevin into losing his temper and absorbing the Taydenite, P'andor succeeded in getting him to break the seal of his suit and releasing his true form. Immediately, P'andor began feeding on power lines, increasing his size, strength and radiation levels. The three safecrackers that he used questioned about the money he promised them earlier, only to be fired upon by P'andor. While he was feeding, the Ultimatrix scanned his DNA, which he mistook for a weapon and fired at Gwen, who survived. Jetray then attempted to stop him, but he was unable to touch him and his laser blasts only fed P'andor.

After finishing absorbing energy from the power lines, P'andor set his sights on the nearby nuclear reactor. Ben attempted to convince P'andor to leave by changing into Water Hazard to pose as Bivalvan, which failed. Ben then attempted to use Water Hazard's powers to stop P'andor, but failed. Ben then became Big Chill to match P'andor's nova powers with ice and even it so that P'andor couldn't touch him either. Unfortunately, Big Chill's ice kept melting off P'andor. Kevin and Gwen arrived with P'andor's repaired containment suit and tried to shove him back in it, but P'andor still proved too difficult to get a hold of. Eventually, P'andor fed off the plant's main reactor (Uranium), grew to a giant, bulky size and complimented the dish ("Not a meal, a feast!").

After absorbing the carbon rods on top of the reactor core, Kevin managed to drain away P'andor's extra energy and shrink him back down to his regular size. Ben then became Ultimate Cannonbolt and helped Kevin put P'andor back in his suit. After the battle, the Plumbers had P'andor deported back to his home planet. Unfortunately, just before the ship could leave the solar system, it was attacked by Aggregor's ship and captured, killing the two pilots that escorted P'andor.

In Andreas' Fault and Fused, P'andor is seen in a stasis pod along with Aggregor's other prisoners.

In Ultimate Aggregor, P'andor and the others were forced to fight Ben and his team by Aggregor, and he presumably died when Aggregor absorbed the five Andromeda galaxy aliens.

As of the end of Absolute Power: Part 2, P'andor, as well as the other Andromeda Galaxy Aliens, are back to life after Ultimate Kevin was turned back to normal.

Raven Branwen

Raven Branwen is a major antagonist in the American animated webseries RWBY . She is the mother of Yang Xiao Long, the twin sister of Qrow Branwen, the leader of the Branwen Tribe, and a former member of Team STRQ. She is also the true Spring Maiden.

She is voiced by Anna Hullum, who also voiced Trixie in Nomad of Nowhere .

Raven Branwen and Qrow were raised in a tribe of murderers and thieves. When they were teenagers, they were sent to Beacon Academy in Vale to learn combat and how to kill Huntsmen and Huntresses. The two formed half of Team STRQ, which also comprised of Summer Rose and Taiyang Xiao Long. The team eventually graduated and settled down with Taiyang and Raven marrying and giving birth to their daughter Yang Xiao Long. However, when the time came to return to the tribe, Qrow refused, instead preferring his new life as a Huntsman. Upon learning a terrible truth about Beacon's headmaster Ozpin's past, Raven abandoned her family and returned to the tribe alone. Taiyang was devastated, but ended up marrying Summer and giving birth to a second daughter, Ruby Rose.

Raven returned to the tribe and became their leader, running the tribe and leading them on violent raids and attacks against villages for food and supplies to ensure the survival of the tribe. At some point in time, Raven and her tribe came across the Spring Maiden and saw that she was very weak and tried training her, but she was unable to make the Spring Maiden meet her standards and knowing that she would be a target of Salem, Raven killed her and became the new Spring Maiden.

Volume 2

In "No Brakes", Raven first appears when Neopolitan is about to execute Yang, teleporting in and silently challenging her, and Neopolitan flees immediately. Raven leaves just as Yang recovers, and Yang gets a brief glimpse of her rescuer before she disappears into a red portal.

Volume 3

In "Destiny", Yang is visited by her uncle, Qrow Branwen. Yang tells Qrow that she saw her mother when Qrow reveals that he asked him to pass on a message to her daughter, Raven saved Yang once, but will not do so a second time. Qrow muses that Raven is dangerous, with a worldview that not many agree with. He then offers some information that might help Yang find her.

Volume 4

In "Family", Qrow stays at an inn in Higanbana. He is served a drink he did not order, which the waitress explains is from a lady upstairs with "red eyes". He goes up the stairs and Raven wants to find out if Salem has Ozpin's relic, but the tribe of bandits attacked Shion.

Raven chastises him for leaving the tribe behind, their "family," a term Qrow objects to her using to describe "killers and thieves." Qrow asks if she can tell him where the Spring Maiden is. Raven refuses to answer and exits through one of her portals, leaving an annoyed Qrow and a startled waitress.

Volume 5

In "Dread in the Air", Raven Branwen and two members of her tribe encounter Weiss Schnee, at the airship crash site and she is knocked unconscious and taken back to her campground to be held for ransom. She is also revealed to have the Spring Maiden, Vernal, among her tribe, having presumably taken the latter in once she ran from her responsibilities as a Maiden.

In "Lighting the Fire", Yang arrives at the Branwen Tribe camp with the defeated bandits and Raven Branwen congratulates her. She offers answers and a special meal, but Yang instead states that she is there to get her mother to use her Semblance to create a portal that will bring her to Qrow Branwen and therefore Ruby. Raven scoffs and attempts to send her away, but Yang is determined enough to fight. Weiss Schnee sees her former teammate when a tent crashes and she gives up trying to escape with subtlety. Weiss makes the Armored Knight break her cage and she joins Yang in the center of the fight. At Raven's request, Vernal causes lightning to strike in front of the Armored Knight before a fight can really begin. Raven calls a halt, warning everyone they will attract Grimm if they do not stop. She invites the two girls into her tent to learn the truth before they go after Ruby.

In "Known by its Song", Raven begins to tell Yang Xiao Long and Weiss Schnee the "truth". She reveals to them that she and Qrow initially attended Beacon so that they could serve as a counterforce against other Huntsmen that posed a threat to their tribe. However, over time, Ozpin saw great potential Team STRQ, and held them in high regard. He then told the team many secrets about the world of Remnant at large, including the existence of Salem. Raven then shows off to the two of them her ability to shapeshift into a raven, which she heavily implies is an ability Ozpin gave to her and Qrow. Raven then opens up a portal with her Semblance, but not before offering them a choice: to stay and get their questions answered, or to join Ozpin in his war against Salem, which she believes is hopeless. Yang chooses the latter, as all she cares about is making sure her sister is safe. Before Yang and Weiss leave, Raven warns Yang that the next time they meet she may not be so kind, to which Yang responds by saying that she was not kind this time either. After Yang and Weiss leave and the portal closes, Raven solemnly remakes that she knows that she was not kind to her daughter during their meeting.

In "A Perfect Storm", Raven is shocked upon learning from Vernal that Salem has found them with four of her followers waiting for her: Cinder Fall, Arthur Watts, Mercury Black and Emerald Sustrai. During their meeting, she keeps a confident persona, orders her tribe to prepare to move, and has Vernal display her mastery over the Maiden powers. But after learning that the Haven Academy Headmaster, Leonardo Lionheart, is working for Salem, Raven loses her cool and states her refusal to get caught in the war between Salem and Ozpin. She is then pressured by Cinder and Watts with the White Fang's upcoming attack on Haven. Raven seemingly gives in, but asks for the death of her brother as he knows she has the Spring Maiden. After Salem's followers leave, she has Vernal follow them to learn where they are staying. Raven then reveals her plans to take the Relic of Knowledge for herself to ensure the survival of the Branwen tribe. She then shapeshifts into her bird form and flies to Mistral where Qrow is.

In "True Colors", Raven arrives at Haven Academy and manages to have Leo call Qrow and tell him that he managed to convince Mistrel's council to send in a small recon team to extract the Spring Maden from the Branwen Tribe. After the call, Leo is seen being in the same room with Raven where she admits how she's impressed that Leo is the first one to betray Ozpin and that he shouldn't be ashamed for trying to survive when he explains why he continues to cooperate with Salem. Though when asked who she was trying to convince, Raven abruptly makes her way out.

In "Vault of the Spring Maiden", Raven heads down to the vault with Vernal and Cinder. After dealing with Cinder who is mildly brags that Vernal must feel special, Vernal merely asks how to open the vault. Cinder reveals that the only way to open it is for the Spring Maiden to touch the final door at which point it will only open for her. At that moment Cider quickly uses Ice Dust to freeze Raven, after doing this Cinder tries to use her newly revealed Grimm arm to steal the Spring Maidens power from Vernal. However, as Vernal collapses and Cinder is left confused on why she can't sense the Maidens power, Raven shouts that the true Spring Maiden is not Vernal but herself and prepares to attack Cinder.

In "Downfall", engages in a fight with Cinder who seeks to posses the Spring Maiden's power and during the fight, Raven destroyed one of Cinder's swords and a shard jabbed in her Grimm arm causing great pain. Raven remarked how Cinder's arm can't be protected by Aura due to the nature of Aura and how Cinder turned herself into a monster all for power. The fight progressed and the two maidens eventually unleashed their true powers to defeat each other. During the fight, Raven managed to get the upper hand, but rubble began to fall and stunned both maides. Raven was pinned down by Cinder, but she froze Cinder's feet to distract her and broke free. At the height of their fight, Vernal used her last breath to distract Cinder to give Raven the opportunity to deliver a final blow against Cinder and send her falling into the abyss. As she fell, Cinder froze Cinder and let her fall and gave her final respects towards Vernal in honor of her sacrifice. She opened the vault and was ready to take the Haven Academy relic, but Yang showed up and stopped her from doing so.

In "Haven's Fate" Raven is confronted by Yang and tries to make her daughter leave, but she doesn't and she continues to confront her mother and call out Raven for her hypocrisy, cowardice, and how she continues to abandon her friends and family to run away from trouble. Raven got upset and was even called out by Yang for being scared of Salem and yet, she continued to push forward the idea of survival making her appear as nothing more but a hypocrite. Yang admitted that she was scared, but was honest to admit it and wouldn't leave. Yang walked into the vault and took the relic, but Raven said she was sorry seconds before she turned into a Raven bird and fled from Haven Academy completely. In the after credits scene of the episode, a black feather flew by Taiyang's house implying that she returned to her home and original husband.

Gizmo

Gizmo is the secondary antagonist of the Teen Titans animated series.

He is voiced by Lauren Tom (shared with Jinx), who also played Councillor Chang in American Dragon: Jake Long .

Gizmo is a criminal expert of technology who has confronted the Teen Titans on a number of occasions. He is usually affiliated with the H.I.V.E..

Gizmo is a pint-sized boy-knowledgeable with a nasty attitude and an extensive arsenal of high-tech weapons. Along with Jinx and Mammoth, he was a graduate student at the H.I.V.E. Academy, and he and his compatriots were looking to be employed by criminal patron Slade. But first he asked them to pass one final exam: destroy the Teen Titans. The three criminals took over Titans Tower and evicted the Titans, but in turn were ultimately defeated by them. During their altercation, Gizmo temporarily took over Cyborg's systems, causing the latter to develop an intense dislike for the dwarven brainiac. The fact that Gizmo later appropriated Cyborg's newly-built T-Car and caused its eventual demolition by the electric villain Overload didn't help matters at all.

Gizmo, along with Cyborg, Robin and Beast Boy as well as a few independent heroes, was later drafted into a competition by the Master of Games, which was only held to increase the Master's personal power. Robin managed to defeat him and liberate the other contestants, and he gave them all a Titans Communicator, making them all Honorary Titans. Gizmo, however, kept this privilege for just about three seconds before Cyborg objected and took the Communicator from him.

Some time later, Cyborg infiltrated the H.I.V.E. Academy as a villainous student named Stone in order to find out about the plans of its then-headmaster, Brother Blood. Unknowingly, Gizmo, Mammoth and Jinx - the latter more intensely - befriended Cyborg, though Gizmo quickly became jealous about his good standing with the headmaster. After the Academy was destroyed by Cyborg, the students scattered and most went freelance. Gizmo, Jinx and Mammoth, however, formed the nucleus of what was to become known as the H.I.V.E. Five, a group of delinquent young superteens. At some point in between, Gizmo was "persuaded" to aid Cyborg when the Titan was infected with a computer virus accidentally planted into him by Beast Boy; in order to do so, he shrunk down to microscopic size and, accompanied by Beast Boy as an amoeba, entered Cyborg's body to take out the virus from within. In the course of that undertaking, Gizmo tried his best to get rid of Cyborg as well, but Beast Boy's final measure against the virus prevented that and expelled Gizmo from Cyborg's body. After the Titans came under the influence of Mother Mae-Eye, they suffered a humiliating defeat by the hands of the H.I.V.E. Five, but this favor was returned after the Titans had freed themselves of the hag's control - they just sent the pie in which Mother Mae-Eye was imprisoned to the H.I.V.E., who promptly fell under Mae-Eye's spell as well.

Shortly afterwards, Gizmo and his former co-students were recruited by the Brotherhood of Evil, who were attempting to take out all young superheroes worldwide. After an unintentional explanation from Starfire, Gizmo participated in a race held by Ding Dong Daddy for Robin's most prized possession, and even notified a number of other villains about the race in order to raise the stakes for thrills. Gizmo and the other villains, however, were quickly taken down by Red X, with Gizmo being the last to go.

When the Brain executed its plans, Gizmo was sent with Billy Numerous to capture Kole and Gnarrk, but failed. During the final battle against the united Titans in the Brotherhood's base, Gizmo and his H.I.V.E. Five mates were knocked unconscious by a hex from the reformed Jinx while trying to escape, and Kid Flash placed them in the Brotherhood of Evil's freezing machine, taking them out for the rest of the battle.

See-More

See-More is an antagonist of the Teen Titans media. He is a student of the H.I.V.E. Academy and an enemy of the Teen Titans.

He was voiced by Kevin Michael Richardson.

Like the rest of the H.I.V.E. students, See-More studied the ways of villainy at the H.I.V.E. Academy. When the Academy was destroyed, See-More escaped and became a renegade villain.

At some point, See-More joined the H.I.V.E. Five. He attacked the Teen Titans but was defeated along with his teammates by Mother Mae-Eye and later put under her control.

See-More, like the other H.I.V.E. students, later was recruited into the Brotherhood of Evil. He helped the H.I.V.E. Five try to capture Kid Flash but was no match for the clever speedster. He helped Jinx find the location where Kid Flash was hiding.

Under the orders of the Brotherhood of Evil, See-More was sent with Warp to take down Herald, but both were defeated.

See-More participated along with the other H.I.V.E. students in the final battle with the Titans in the Brotherhood's base, but was defeated by Jericho and ended up flash-frozen with the rest of the villains.

Yang: Mom!?

Ben: P'andor!

Robin: Gizmo and See-More.

Danny Phantom: Kitty!

Shanan: So you are P'andor, the Prypiatosian-B that Ben and Team know.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) That's right Shanan. I'm impressed that you know who I am.

Me: I was told many things about you P'andor. You're one of the 5 aliens that Aggregor captured so that he could destroy the entire universe.

P'andor: That's right. (to Ben) I admit I did go a little overboard when I fought you and your team. But I was just doing what was necessary for me to survive and to escape from Aggregor.

Ben: Considering that Aggregor's one of the few enemies I haven't defeated properly, I don't blame you.

Me: Aggregor will get what's coming to him if he ever escapes from the Null Void. He will die a horrible death in the Warp.

Nico: Yep.

Me: But how come our Plumber's badge's aren't flashing red because of your radioactivity? Usually in the presence of radioactive materials or aliens made of pure radioactive energy it flashes red.

P'andor: I was equipped with a special spell that prevents my radiation from hurting anyone in the area.

Me: That's a relief.

Kitty: It's good to see you all again.

Me: Same here Kitty.

Minuette: Your boyfriend puts up an amazing fight with Johnny 13.

Me: Yeah it was awesome.

May: I hope there are no hard feelings between us, Kitty.

Kitty: None whatsoever. You guys were just doing your jobs.

Me: Thanks Kitty.

Nico: Yeah.

Witchy Simone: You know the funny thing is we both sound so much alike.

Kitty: We sure do.

I then looked at Yang and Raven and saw a deadly tension building up.

Me: (Gulp)

Yang: (Angrily) What the Hell do you want, "Mom"?! Come to check up on me only to abandon me again?!

Raven Branwen: Yang…

Yang: (in denial) Well, you can just get the Hell out of here! You've already hurt me and Ruby enough!

Raven Branwen: Yang, please.

Yang: (starts to cry) Didn't you hear me?! I SAID GET THE FUCK OUT OF HERE!

Raven Branwen: (smiles with tears in her eyes) Yang, I really am sorry.

There was a few seconds of silence. And then, Yang and Raven hugged each other while crying.

Yang: (sobbing) Oh, Mom! I missed you!

Raven Branwen: (sobs as well) I missed you too, Yang.

Manaphy, Poromon, Horsea, and Poliwag: Aww!

Nico: (awkwardly) Um… did I mention that Salem's dead?

Yang: (glares at me with red eyes) Do you mind?! We're having a moment here!

Me: Bittersweet reunion huh?

Nico: Yeah.

Linka: Not the outcome we were expecting.

Robin: Nice to have you back Gizmo.

Gizmo: I can't believe I'm saying this but you guys actually aren't so bad. (smirks) For a bunch of barf brains.

Jinx: (laughs) I missed you too, Gizmo!

Me: Glad you are part of the Masters of Evil now, Vomit Nose.

Gizmo: HEY!

We laughed.

Me: Sorry Gizmo. I've been called worse than that.

Gizmo: Oh.

Herald: Nice that you are too See-More.

See-More: Same here Herald.

?: That is A lot of trash talk.

A figure came out and it was GARBAGE MOUTH from episode 24 of Season 3 of Mighty Morphin!

---

Garbage Mouth is a garbage-themed lizard monster created by Finster.

It's job was to capture Kat but she was able to get free by stomping on his foot. Garbage Mouth could project exploding energy blobs at his enemies. He had a trash can that could blow out smoke. It was destroyed by the Shogun Megazord.

Garbage Mouth is among the monsters that attend Master Vile's End of the World party.

Garbage Mouth was among the monsters that attend Master Vile's conference. He was later seen among the monsters that join Professor Longnose into fighting the Aquitar Rangers. When Professor Longnose was destroyed, Garbage Mouth and the other monsters disappear.

---

Kat: (Australian Accent) Garbage Mouth!

Garbage Mouth: Been a long time Pink Ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were sent to capture Kat and she got away from you by stomping on your foot.

Garbage Mouth: Good memory on you for a fucked up monster!

Me: Been called worse you pile of fucking filth.

Lana: I really like your trash can!

Garbage Mouth: Thanks! I actually did meet Oscar the Grouch from Sesame Street. You guys should visit that place sometime.

Me: We should but some of us really outgrew Sesame Street.

Lori: Yeah I'm literally married and at 17 years old.

Lola: Me and Lana are still watching it and we're in first grade.

Lana: Yep.

Lisa Loud: I am far above the academic requirements for such a show like that.

Darcy: I'm not.

Laney: I don't watch t.v. that much.

Me: Well yeah. But Lola, Lana, Leif and Lexx can go there.

Nico: That's true.

Me: You stay right there Fortuno. We'll deal with you after we have our fun in the usual battles. Lets have our fun!

We went at them.

Battle 1: Ulrich, Rainbow Dash, Scootaloo, Silv, Burst Man and Cloud Man VS Xiao Fung

---

Xiao Fung the Demon Sorcerer of Wind was first.

Xiao Fung: (to Ulrich) I hope you're able to use your Lyoko abilities here.

Ulrich: As a matter of fact I can use them even here.

Rainbow Dash: Wow! I can't wait to see them! This is gonna be awesome1

Scootaloo: Yeah it is!

Silv: I heard from J.D. from time to time that you all faced an evil supercomputer named X.A.N.A. What was that like?

Ulrich: It was a neverending battle.

---

XANA is the main antagonist of Code Lyoko . It is a sentient and dangerous computer virus that can control electricity. It infects the Supercomputer that holds Lyoko, and seeks to rule the world and eliminate the obstacles that stand in its way, the Lyoko Warriors.

It was voiced by David Gasman.

XANA was created to counteract and destroy a French military project named Carthage, of which its creator, Franz Hopper, was a contributor. Along with XANA, Franz created a virtual world called Lyoko to give XANA access to the real world through its supercomputer. Hopper also created a Time Reversion program as a byproduct, allowing him to perfect his work and increase the supercomputer's power along with XANA's upon use.

He had spent almost seven years on June 6, 1994, and was slowly losing it while XANA's intelligence grew exponentially with each day. Sometime between later reversions, a hole in XANA's programming allowed it to be infected by a virus that caused it to turn evil.

Hopper was in the final stages of Lyoko's creation when XANA betrayed him and alerted the men in black to his location. To avoid being arrested, Hopper virtualized himself and his daughter, Aelita onto Lyoko. XANA then attacked them and refused any notion of peace with Franz. Hopper shut down the supercomputer from Lyoko when XANA turned him down, trapping all three in the Supercomputer.

First Encounters

The factory, XANA and Aelita were rediscovered by Jeremy Belpois six years after being shut down. XANA launched an attack by activating its first Tower, which went undiscovered until after its plans were thwarted for the first time by Jeremy and his friends. The newly dubbed Lyoko Warriors made a pact to free Aelita from XANA's clutches so the latter could be terminated.

XANA launches random attacks against the city, Kadic Academy, and against its mortal enemies. It hacks technology, manipulates objects and forces, projects electromagnetic phenomena through networks, sets elaborate traps, and causes disasters.

When they finally managed to materialize Aelita, XANA took her memories of Earth. To survive, it uses them as a tether to keep the group from shutting down the Supercomputer, because doing so would kill Aelita too.

Evolving Enemy

XANA displays signs of evolution, becoming smarter, more powerful, and more dangerous. It now seeks to steal Aelita's memory to gain the Keys to Lyoko using its newest monster, the Scyphozoa. XANA's growing power allows it to create new monsters on Lyoko, possess humans to do its bidding, and can generate polymorphic ghosts that appear as human. Its attacks are no longer random destruction, and are for achieving the aforementioned goal of stealing Aelita's memory.

The group also discovers Carthage, a fifth sector in the world of Lyoko. It is where XANA lives, and where the group can access all of Lyoko's and XANA's own data and information.

For the Scyphozoa to get to Aelita's memory, XANA launches attacks centered around getting her to Lyoko. This mainly includes having possessed humans take and virtualize her by force and isolating her from the others, but also methods like brainwashing her, taking advantage of her loyalty to her friends, blackmail, or using her stolen memories to compel her curiosity.

A few of Aelita's memories of her former life start to slip through and the Lyoko Warriors get closer to finding out the origins of Aelita, Franz Hopper and XANA. It used Franz's identity to trick them into thinking that he (who was really a polymorphic spectre) had emerged from the recesses of Lyoko, and tries to eliminate them along with taking Aelita's memory, but fails thanks to Jeremy.

The real Franz Hopper makes contact with the group by using a Tower to possess Sissi. XANA retaliates by sending Megatanks to attack his Tower to shut it down, and possessing a doctor to eliminate Sissi in the real world. It succeeds with the former, but the group deactivates XANA's Tower before the latter happens. Later, when the group decode Franz Hopper's diary and XANA tries to take over to gain access to all the Lyoko Warriors' data and programs, Hopper saves their operation at the last moment.

Its last tactic was to trick Jeremy into sending his friends after Aelita's missing memories using a fake signal hidden deep in the center of Carthage. This trap worked as Aelita was left alone so the Scyphozoa could take the Keys to Lyoko from Aelita. After succeeding, XANA left Aelita lifeless on the floor, then activated Towers in all four surface sectors for its entire being as a giant, swirling spectre to escape from the Supercomputer and rendering the virtual world dead. Although XANA had escaped, Franz has revived Aelita with her real memories and used all his power to bring Lyoko back to life, deactivating all of XANA's Towers.

Destroying Lyoko

XANA had escaped the Supercomputer into the world network. It didn't launch a single attack since then, thinking the Lyoko Warriors cannot interfere with its plans anymore, until Jeremie and Aelita upgrades the Superscan to track XANA on the network. It is alerted to this and changes tactics, responding by launching attacks focused on destroying all of Lyoko as well as the group.

It mostly sends monsters to assault the Core of Lyoko in Carthage, which would cause the entire virtual world to disappear. The core has two layers of shields, which take time for their Lasers to break through. XANA tries many attempts to hold them back while its monsters do their work, with Earth attacks or distractions, but the Lyoko Warriors always succeed in stopping them. XANA also uses possessed humans to target the Supercomputer to destroy Lyoko in the real world.

To lower their chances of stopping its attacks, XANA also destroys Lyoko's surface sectors one by one. It does this by using the Scyphozoa to brainwash Aelita, making her go into Way Towers to plant its virus code into the interfaces, allowing it to erase sectors off the Lyoko map and cutting off their access to the Core of Lyoko. XANA successfully wipes out the sectors in the order of Forest, Desert, Ice, and Mountain in this season.

Jeremy discovered the way to virtualize the team directly into Carthage, right when XANA destroys the last surface sector. At the same time, the group decided to recruit William Dunbar to help fight XANA and balance the team. While every member of the group was held up by real world matters, XANA wastes no time in attacking the Core of Lyoko. Aelita has to send herself and a rookie William to defend the Core of Lyoko. However, William, enraptured by Lyoko and his superior abilities, gets too cocky and allowed himself to be separated from Aelita. XANA takes the opportunity to capture him with the Scyphozoa, possessing his mind. William then proceeded to the Core to join the army of monsters who were preparing to attack it.

As William and the monster army easily rip through the Core's shields, the other Lyoko Warriors finally catch up with him, but none of them could defeat William. With the Core now exposed and no one left to stop him, William personally destroys the core along with Carthage and was deleted shortly after. However, XANA has salvaged his avatar code and turned William into its loyal slave.

World Domination Scheme

With data sent by Franz Hopper, the Lyoko Warriors managed to reconstruct Lyoko. XANA used this as an opportunity to send

William to Earth as an agent to kidnap Aelita. William is now in the clutches of XANA, as a dark Lyoko Warrior in its eternal service. Determined to save William, as well as uncover XANA's plans for the network, Jeremy and Aelita builds a digital submarine named Skidbladnir to go after XANA on the network and retrieve William and Franz Hopper.

While XANA still continues attacking the Lyoko Warriors and targeting the Supercomputer, it is determined to eliminate Franz Hopper, its creator. XANA concludes that he is the main obstacle to its power and realizes the reason the Lyoko Warriors keep coming back from defeat is because he is always there to bail them out. To take out Franz Hopper, XANA tries to throw Aelita into the Digital Sea in order to lure him out because it knows he would come out of hiding to save his daughter, which they figured out the first time he appeared for this.

Having a Lyoko Warrior at its disposal allows XANA to use more effective means of fighting its enemies. It has turned William into a fighter that is more than a match for any warrior, lets him command its monsters like a general, and gave him a copy of the Keys to Lyoko, which allows him to influence or deactivate protected Towers activated by its enemies. XANA also gives him the Black Manta, a special Manta monster that he can summon and ride on like a vehicle, and a Nav Skid based on Skidbladnir data stolen by the Scyphozoa to fight in the Digital Sea. XANA can also materialize him using the Scanners without activating a Tower as a pixelized human to carry out missions on Earth, like kidnapping Aelita or sabotaging the Supercomputer.

Using their new ship to travel in the Digital Sea, the Lyoko Warriors find Replikas created by XANA, smaller copies of Lyoko, in the world network. They realize XANA uses them to infect other supercomputers, spreading its power over the world. They decide to track down and destroy them all, and isolate XANA's program in the network. In response, XANA launches attacks to destroy the Skidbladnir to keep them from destroying more Replikas.

XANA's supercomputers let it take over territories in the real world, like secret facilities and laboratories to use for its own evil purposes. The group found the Forest Replika connected to a laboratory in the Amazon Rainforest that makes cybernetic spiders, the Desert Replika for an automated New Mexico production factory for electronic implants, the Carthage Replika in a space station that produces dangerous floating, metallic spheres, and the Ice Replika in a research facility in Siberia with brains in tanks.

When inside the Ice Replika, XANA creates a new, gigantic monster called the "Kolossus" which forces them to retreat the first time, but not before it uses a Tower to teleport William into the arctic base. By doing this, XANA made the mistake of revealing the programs it uses to control William in the Tower's interface, which Aelita downloads to the Supercomputer. Their next encounter to the Ice Replika revealed XANA's plan of building weapons of mass destruction, powerful armies of robots to conquer humanity and the world. It sends William and the Kolossus against the Lyoko Warriors. Using a program made from William's data from the Tower, the group finally frees him from XANA's clutches, but the Kolossus destroys the Skidbladnir in the battle, taking out their way of traveling in the Digital Sea.

Due to XANA destroying their submarine, Jeremy devised an "Anti-XANA Program" based on Franz Hopper's original design of XANA, which he used a prototype version of to slow down the Kolossus long enough to save William. With the sub destroyed, their only remaining option was to enhance the program so that it would be powerful enough to destroy every trace of XANA in the world.

Destruction

After William was freed from XANA's control, Franz Hopper sent Jeremy some additional data to improve the Anti-XANA Program, prompting Jeremy to bring his friends to Lyoko and protect Franz while the two finish the program. However, William was still anxious to go to Lyoko, so he joined them at the Factory, but they have him stay in the lab and only come as backup when they will need him. This would prove to be a bad compromise, as XANA possessed William, knowing its destruction was drawing near.

The possessed William would attack in the Factory, knocking out Jeremie to slow his progress on the program. Meanwhile, the Kolossus threatens Franz Hopper as it dredged closer on Lyoko.

Even though the Kolossus was taken down, the program didn't have enough power to be launched by Jeremie, so only Aelita could do it from the fifth sector's interface. Upon arriving, she noticed her father who was sending the needed data from his own virtual energy to power up the program, was under fire and hesitated to launch the program. XANA's monsters finally destroyed Franz Hopper, which forced Aelita's hand.

The program was run, causing a powerful force to emerge from the Core of Lyoko that destroyed XANA's monsters and all of its Replikas on the network. Meanwhile in the real world, the spectre possessing William that was XANA's manifestation was ejected from William and writhed in agony before disappearing completely as its Tower deactivates, assuring that the malevolent program had finally been destroyed.

Legacy of Damage

Even though XANA was completely destroyed, the Lyoko Warriors were far from celebratory with its demise. Aelita and Jeremy were emotionally stirred by Franz Hopper's death, the other Warriors, except William and Yumi, felt that they shouldn't shut down the Supercomputer due to its impact on their lives.

After deciding to move on with ther lives after Sissi discovers Jeremie's diary on the entire venture, the Lyoko Warriors shut down the Supercomputer and silently move on with their lives, leaving XANA as a bad memory.

Returns

However, despite apparently being destroyed, XANA managed to survive in two separate continuities, indicating that the program managed to escape total destruction from Jeremie's multi-agent program.

In the first continuity, the live action series Code Lyoko Evolution, XANA managed to infiltrate a virtual world known as the Cortex. As the Cortex was not registered as one of the program's Replikas, in addition to having a powerful firewall capable of destroying programs meant to cause direct harm to its functions, the multi-agent program was unable to destroy the remaining traces of XANA. However, the process had left XANA severely weakened and trapped in the Cortex. Unlike Lyoko, the Cortex had much more protective coding, making it near impossible for XANA to fully take control of it. However, XANA had a backup plan, just before its initial defeat, it had split a copy of its Source Code into four and integrated it into the Lyoko Warriors sans William and Jeremie without their knowledge, and rendered said codes dormant so as to avoid detection. After six months, XANA activated the codes and lured the Lyoko Warriors into reactivating the supercomputer, giving it the means to sustain attacks via its polymorphic specters, altered so that physical contact with the heroes would drain the Source Codes from them, increasing XANA's strength so that it could break out of the Cortex. Unfortunately for XANA, the program was unable to launch large-scale attacks due to needing the Warriors alive, and the interference from Professor Tyron, the man who created the Cortex, limited XANA's activity. The Lyoko Warriors eventually uploaded a virus into the Cortex, which threatened to delete XANA once and for all. Tyron had his supercomputer shut down so as to program in an anti-virus to stop this. At this time, XANA had retrieved 95% of its Source Codes, and, like the Cortex, was rendered dormant, meaning that once Tyron succeeded in programming it the anti-virus, XANA would be free once again. Due to the 2013 judicial recovery procedure against Moonscoop SA in France, which resulted in Moonscoop entering bankruptcy proceedings, resulting in the series not being renewed however, XANA remained down, but not out.

In the second continuity, a novel series known as Code Lyoko Chronicles, XANA was defeated at an earlier point in time. XANA's attempt at obtaining the Keys to Lyoko ended in failure, as Franz Hopper managed to reveal himself earlier, and gave the Lyoko Warriors the means to power up a different version of the anti-XANA program, which merely ejected and separated XANA from Lyoko. The process weakened XANA immensely, leaving it to drift in the world network without the means to empower itself. Desperate and without memories, XANA eventually created a file housing its programming, looking for a vessel that would be best suited for infiltrating Kadic and destroying its enemies once and for all. Choosing a girl known as Eva Skinner, XANA began to settle into its new circumstances, and learned of the Lyoko Warriors researching the history of the Supercomputer. Seeing a chance to gain its strength back, XANA befriended the group but planned on destroying them from the inside out. Seducing Odd, XANA managed to brainwash the boy, laying the groundwork for its return. XANA however, would later learn from Hopper's archives, a shocking truth, that it had been made with altruistic purposes in mind, and had been corrupted by leftover coding from a dark zone program that had been inserted Project Carthage, whose templates Lyoko had been created from. XANA would thus ally itself permanently with humanity, helping the Lyoko Warriors to defeat a terrorist group that was hoping to use Lyoko as a substitute for Carthage. While XANA seemingly sacrificed itself to upload a self-destruction program that would delete Lyoko for good, his programming was salvaged by the Lyoko Warriors, who managed to recreate XANA and bring him into the real world as a human.

It should be noted that neither of the above continuities are completely canon, as Evolution was disowned by the original show-runners, who confirmed that only a few of their ideas made it into Evolution and that the events within were not canon. Similarly, while the novels were written with the original documents in hand, not all of their events are noted to be canon either. Whichever is the case, it can be safely confirmed that while XANA suffered a crippling blow at the end of Code Lyoko, the program found a way to survive regardless.

They gasped in shock!

Rainbow Dash: WHOA! I may not be a whiz on computers but XANA sounds really dangerous.

Scootaloo: No kidding. I would not want something like XANA coming back at all.

Silv: Man XANA is a monster. If it does come back like some of the enemies you've all had before we will destroy it completely instead of banishing it to the Warp.

Burst Man: Yeah. We saw XANA before and it was horrible.

Cloud Man: No kidding. A rogue malevolent computer virus is just as dangerous as 100,000 Dr. Wily's.

Raven Branwen: I agree with you.

Lucy Loud: We all are glad she is dead.

Raven Branwen: (to Lars) I guess we both have had family issues.

Me: That thought never came to us. Good idea.

Yuma: I agree.

Nico: Yeah.

Eli: This was fun though. (To the viewers) Numbers and Don Thousand beware because we mean business.

Me: Yep!

---

Later at the estate I was holding the Bewitching Bell that once belonged to the evil Devil of Equestria: Grogar.

Me: So this bell once belonged to the evil Grogar?

Twilight Sparkle: That's right and this bell is infused with his evil magic and life force. Let me tell you all about his history before you do anything.

Twilight went over his history.

---

Grogar is a ram sorcerer who appears as a villain in the My Little Pony franchise. He appears as one of the antagonists in the G1 series, My Little Pony 'n Friends, appearing as the main antagonist in the four-part episode, " The Return of Tambelon ". In the G4 series, My Little Pony: Friendship Is Magic, he serves as the posthumous overarching antagonist and a disguise for the redeemed villain, Discord.

The G1 version of Grogar was voiced by Michael Bell, who also voices The Fear in Metal Gear Solid 3: Snake Eater, Medivh in the Warcraft games, Quackerjack in Darkwing Duck, Lex Luthor in the 80s Superman Cartoon, the Riddler in Challenge of the Super Friends, Doctor Octopus in Spider-Man and His Amazing Friends, Zzzax in the 90s The Incredible Hulk, the Bunny in The Grim Adventures of Billy & Mandy, Ixis Naugus in the Sonic the Hedgehog SatAM series, Aziz in the Aladdin series, Ezekiel Rage from The Real Adventures of Jonny Quest and Redbeard in The New Scooby Doo Movies

The G4 version of Grogar was voiced by Doc Harris when Discord poses as him.

The G1 version of Grogar appears only in the four-part episode " The Return of Tambelon " as the main antagonist. He is an evil demonic ram sorcerer and the leader of the kingdom named Tambelon which is also the Realm of Darkness, who conquered the Troggles and once ruled Ponyland with an iron hoof 500 years ago before he was defeated when the ancient bell was rung. This banished him and the city to the Shadow World. However, Grogar swore that he would return in 500 years to retake Ponyland. Overtime, the memory of Grogar and his reign over Ponyland became forgotten from history and were only told as a legend that Paradise had heard about.

Grogar and Tambelon slowly started to return to Ponyland 500 years later, capturing all the Unicorn Ponies one by one when they winked in and out of the city. When Ribbon sends a dream message to Megan to tell where they are, Grogar intercepts it. After his second in command, Bray, feeds the Unicorns, Grogar orders him to prepare the Troggles to attack Ponyland and threatens him to not doddle. Tambleon fully returns and Bray and the Troggles conquer

Dream Valley and capture most of it's inhabitants much to Grogar's pleasure.

However, Bray informs him that nearly all of the ponies and their friends have been captured much to Grogar's anger seeing as that he plans to banish his enemies to the Realm of Darkness and plans to make the humans slaves seeing as that they like the Troggles have hands.

When the captured Ponies, Bushwoolies and Grundles escape the dungeons, they find the ancient bell but don't yet realize its purpose before meeting with Megan and Lofty who had sneaked into Tambelon to free them. Unfortunately, they are caught escaping by Bray and the Troggles. Bray informs Grogar of this and Grogar easily recaptures his prisoners except for Peach Blossom who witnessed the events. He orders Bray to return the old and new prisoners to the dungeons and threatens to throw him in the dungeon if they try to escape again.

Meanwhile, Danny, Molly, Spike, the Ponies and their friends realize that the bell on Grogar's collar is the source of his powers and plan to take it from him. They manage to get Danny's tape recorder and record and splice up Bray's voice in order for Masquerade to lure Grogar out. This succeeds and everyone ambush Grogar. Unfortunately, Grogar proves to be too strong and attacks them. Spike nearly takes his bell but Grogar throws him off and captures Paradise and Forget-Me-Not while everyone else escapes.

Later, a Troggle named Drog abandons Tambelon and joins the humans, Spike, the ponies and their friends. However, a few Troggles (either out of fear or loyalty) inform Grogar of Drog's treachery and he prepares an ambush. This succeeds when Drog, the humans, Spike, the ponies and their friends enter Tambelon and get themselves captured and Grogar informs them of his plan to banish them to the Realm of Darkness.

Later, Bray informs Grogar that the Moochick and the baby ponies have been captured which pleases Grogar. He then orders a celebration and threatens that any of the Troggles not celebrating, will be banished with his prisoners to the Realm of Darkness at midnight. Grogar then prepares the spell that will banish his prisoners at midnight forever.

However, the ponies, humans, Spike, Drog, Bushwoolies and Grundles escape the dungeons and prepare to leave with the Troggles. After being informed of this, Grogar threatens to banish Bray to the Realm of Darkness if they escape. When he sees everyone escaping, he decides to use his magic to kill them instead. However, Spike unknowingly gives Paradise the idea of the ancient bell in Tambelon and informs her friends that when the bell is rung, Grogar's power will be destroyed. Grogar was defeated again by Megan after she rang the ancient bell for the second time, destroying the bell containing his power and banishing him and the whole city back to the Realm of Darkness.

It is said he is unlikely to escape the Realm of Darkness again.

The G4 version of Grogar appears as the posthumous overarching antagonist of the series, My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic . He is first mentioned in the Season 7 episode " A Flurry of Emotions ". His story was told in the book called "Gusty the Great": Millenia ago, long before the three pony tribes came together as one, the land that would become Equestria was once a mere collection of farms and pastures until Grogar took control and declared himself "Emperor of All He Saw". He wielded a powerful artifact known as the Bewitching Bell, a talisman that allowed him to steal the magic of others and transfer it into himself to increase his own formidable magic, which made him extremely powerful. Grogar earned the title of the "Father of Monsters" after he created several terrible creatures to terrorize the populace and ruled his domain with an iron hoof, until he was confronted by a pony named Gusty the Great and her Unicorn Warriors. As told in the book by Twilight Sparkle, he encountered them on top of the hill that leads to Cloudsdale. The unicorn warriors shot magical beams into the clouds and wrapped around Grogar and pulled him to the ground, but the evil ram managed to break through the bonds as fear gave him power. The rest of the conflict was left unknown due to the interruption by Flurry Heart, but in Season 9, it is revealed that Gusty took his bell and banished him. Since the Bewitching Bell could not be destroyed, Gusty hid it in an enchanted cave high atop Mt. Everhoof. Overtime, the memory of Grogar, his reign over Equestria and Gusty became forgotten from history and were only told as legends that Equestria and a few villains have heard about.

In the ninth and final season, the redeemed spirit of chaos, Discord disguises himself as Grogar, in a misguided effort of preparing Princess Twilight to take over as ruler of Equestria when Princesses Celestia and Luna retire. Using this disguise, he then creates a syndicate of the most dangerous villains in Equestria, believing that the combined threat would pose an even greater challenge for Twilight and her friends and boost their confidence. These villains include the former tyrant of the changelings, Queen Chrysalis, the power-hungry centaur, Lord Tirek, and the treacherous pegasus filly, Cozy Glow. He even revives the dark unicorn, King Sombra, who was previously destroyed, though the latter refused to work with the other villains, which got him destroyed yet again.

After cementing his place as their leader, Discord (as Grogar) then later sends the villains on a mission to retrieve the real Grogar's Bewitching Bell from Mount Everhoof. Even though the villains claim to have failed to obtain the bell, they did learn to work together, which was apparently enough to please Discord (as Grogar). Unbeknownst to him, they actually did get the bell but kept it so that they could use its power to betray him and take Equestria for themselves, which they did near the end of the season. Using the bell, they gained new super forms and then drained Discord of his own magic, which also exposed him of his disguise.

The existence of the Bewitching Bell means that Grogar was indeed real in history and Gusty the Great had banished him successfully, never to return again. He only ever appears in illustrations or flashbacks.

---

I gasped in absolute shock and horror.

Me: WHOA! Grogar is Evil Incarnate!

Twilight Sparkle: That's right. Grogar is Equestria's version of the Devil and is the source of all the Dark Magic and all the darkness in all of Equestria. The Power of the Elements of Harmony couldn't destroy this bell completely.

Me: But I sense that his life force and evil magic are bound to this Bell. But if the Elements of Harmony and the power of the Magic of Friendship couldn't destroy this bell, maybe the combined power of the Elements of Harmony, The Magic of Friendship and the power of a blast capable of destroying 100,000 planets can.

Twilight Sparkle: It's a longshot J.D. but If anyone can do it, you can.

Me: Thank you Twilight. I'll be back.

I flew into the sky and went into the endless voids of space. At the very distant edge of the galaxy I arrived with the Bell.

Me: (Echoing) You have caused too much trouble and pain Grogar. You will never torment anyone ever again.

I threw the bell.

Me: FRIENDSHIP STYLE ULTIMATE NINJA ART: HARMONY KAMEHAMEHA BURST!

I fired a massive Rainbow Kamehameha Blast infused with the powers of the Elements of Harmony and the Magic of Friendship and it hit the bell and exploded with incredible power!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion was powerful and massive enough to obliterate the entire bell and Grogar in the Realm of Darkness felt his power and magic being destroyed and he died in an instant and turned into a skeleton and then disintegrated into dust and a portal opened up and he was banished to the Warp forever. The effect of Grogar's demise swept through all of the lands of Equestria like wildfire and all the Dark Magic all over the land was destroyed forever. Even Lord Tirek felt his powers fading away. Now Lord Tirek was powerless.

When the explosion faded, the bell was totally gone and destroyed.

Me: You are finished Grogar.

I went back to Earth.

Me: It's done Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: YES!

She hugged me.

Twilight Sparkle: Thank you so much J.D.

Me: You're welcome Twilight. But Equestria's evils are not finished yet.

Twilight Sparkle: Right.

Later at the beach, Lincoln and Girl Jordan were having an awesome time.

Lincoln: Ahh! What a wonderful day!

Girl Jordan: You said it.

Lincoln: Especially with you.

Girl Jordan: I wonder how the others are doing. I hope they're okay.

Lincoln: They're doing fine. As long as we are having fun and more. gets up and dashes Hey Girl Jordan! Look!

(Girl Jordan looks up at Lincoln who is completely covered in sand)

Lincoln: I'm Sandy!

Girl Jordan: giggles 😊

(Lincoln then uses the sand to dress himself up as Lori)

Lincoln: as Lori Hey, Girl Jordan. Who am I now? posing

Girl Jordan: laughing 😆

(Sand Phone rings, Lincoln answers it)

Lincoln: as Lori Ugh! Lincoln, stop calling my phone! I'm literally trying to talk to my Bobby Boo Boo bear!

Girl Jordan: laughing OMG Lincoln! 😂

(Lincoln then dresses himself up as a pizza delivery guy with boxes of pizza made out of sand)

Lincoln: Did somebody order 20 large pepperoni sand pizzas?

Girl Jordan/Lincoln: laughing hysterically 😂

(Chandler appears)

Chandler: Hey, Girl Jordan! Hey Larry.

Lincoln: It's Lincoln.

Girl Jordan: Hey, Chandler! 😊 (Gasp) Chandler!? I thought you were still in Prison after everything you did.

Chandler: I was released early on good behavior. But being in that prison reminded me what a monster I was.

Lincoln: I'm still keeping my eyes on you.

Chandler: I figured. Say, you guys wanna go lift some weights?

Girl Jordan: Sure! gets up and walks with Chandler Come on, Lincoln! 😊

Lincoln: disappointed Right behind you. 😒

(Transitions to the body building area, where all muscular men lift weights. There's also the junior body building area, where Chandler, Girl Jordan, & Lincoln are at)

Chandler: Give it a try, Girl Jordan!

Girl Jordan: strains as she picks up a 15 lbs weight over her shoulders Yaa!

(Applause)

Lincoln: Great job, Girl Jordan! 😄 Welp that's pretty much does-

Chandler: How about a little more weight? points at a 20 lbs weight Observe.

(Chandler proceeds to lift the 20 pound weight over his shoulders at ease. Everyone applauds, even Girl Jordan. Lincoln starts to get a little jealous)

Lincoln: All right! Stand back, everyone! lifts a stick over his shoulders

(Awkward Silence. Lincoln sinks into the sand with half of his body still above the sand. Girl Jordan softly giggles at Lincoln, causing him to blush a little.)

Girl Jordan: Everyone watch this! lifts a 25 pound weight over her shoulders Yaaah!

(Everyone applauds, then Chandler lifts two chairs with people sitting on it over his shoulders. A louder applause goes to Chandler)

Girl Jordan: Way to go, Chandler!

Lincoln: to the viewers Dang it. I better do something before I lose not only my audience, but Girl Jordan as well!

(Lincoln digs through the sand towards where Luna and Sam are roasting marshmallows over the fire. Lincoln picks two marshmallows out of the bag)

Lincoln: Hey Sam, Luna, can I borrow these?

Luna: All yours bro! munches on the marshmallow 😁

Sam S.L.: Have fun Linky.

(Lincoln heads back to where everyone is and puts two marshmallows on opposite ends of the stick)

Lincoln: And now, with the addition of two… Count em- Two! Marshmallows!

(Lincoln cracks his knuckles, rotates his shoulders, then does a couple of squats, pounds his chest, exhales before grabbing the stick with two hands and attempts to lift it. Unfortunately, Lincoln is struggling. He stops and exhales, then looks at the audience who looks unamused. He attempts to lift it again, but is still struggling up until a ripping sound is made)

RIP!

All: gasps

UH OH!

(Lincoln looks down and sees that he ripped his swimming trunks)

OOPS!

All: laughing hysterically 😂

Lincoln: blushing while quickly walking away covering the ripped trunks ☺️😁

Girl Jordan: laughing 😂

Lincoln: sighs sadly 😔

Chaz: laughing Whoa, dude! That was too funny! slaps Lincoln's back You are hilarious! Chaz like!

Girl Jordan: giggles Isn't he the funniest & cutest guy you ever saw on the beach? 😊

Lincoln: ding! That gives me an idea! 🙂💡

(Later…)

Chandler: How 'bout some volleyball, dudes? serves the ball

(Lincoln, Girl Jordan, Chandler, & the other kids play a game of volleyball. Chandler spikes the ball, knocking some kids to the ground. Everyone cheers. A player serves the ball)

Lincoln: I got it!

(Lincoln hits the ball, but had zero effect, causing the ball to drop to the ground.)

Lincoln: Incoming! attempts to serve the ball, but has zero effect again

(Everyone boos)

RIP

Lincoln: Whoops! Looks like I ripped my pants again! 😁

(Everyone laughs hysterically)

Chaz: Once again, dude! slaps Lincoln's back You have split Chaz' sides! laughing

(Transitions to Chandler, Girl Jordan & Lincoln playing frisbee. Chandler throws the frisbee to Girl Jordan, she dives for it catches it successfully. Everyone cheers)

Lincoln: Hey Girl Jordan! How about tossing it to me?

Girl Jordan: Alright, here it comes! 😁

(Girl Jordan throws the frisbee to Lincoln, but then he puts his hands down and gets beaned by the frisbee, causing him to fall to the ground)

Lincoln: I could use a hand here! laughs

(Gir Jordan runs over to check on Lincoln)

Girl Jordan: Are you okay, Lincoln? That looked a little painful. rubs Lincoln's head 😟

Lincoln: I'm okay. Except I ripped my pants again! RIP! 😁

(Everyone laughs again)

Chaz: You still got it, dude!

(Transitions to Ice Cream Stand)

Harold: May I help you kids?

Lincoln: We'll take two banana splits. 😁

Harold: Uh… I don't have any in stock.

Lincoln: That's okay. I already split my pants! Haha! 😆

Girl Jordan: laughing 😆

Harold: unamused Ha ha. Very funny. Anything else? 😒

Lincoln: Sure. How about… Ripple?! 😆

Girl Jordan: laughing 😂

Lincoln: No thank you! Looks Like I already got one! 😁

Girl Jordan: laughing hysterically OMG!

(Lincoln runs over to the snack bar)

Lincoln: Is that a sandwich you're eating?

Phil: Why yes it is. 😊

Lincoln: You know what would go great with that?

Phil: No, what?

Lincoln: whispers Ripped… Pants!

RIP!

Phil: 😒

Lincoln: runs around the bar laughing Ripped Pants, a la mode!

RIP

(The kids & teens at the bar are unamused with Lincoln's new gag that is starting to get old)

Lincoln: Excuse me, sir? Did you order 15 cases of… Ripped Pants?! laughing

Fry Cook: Ugh. 😒

(Transitions to the Surfing Contest)

Grant: Surf's up at the Gotham Royal York Beach! There's Chandler using his signature pose known as the "Layback"!

(Chandler posing his signature move on the waves)

Grant: Here comes Girl Jordan hanging ten! Those cheerleading practices are paying off as we can see!

(Girl Jordan hanging ten on the waves)

Grant: And there goes Lincoln… !

RIP

Grant - Ripping his pants… again. 😒

(Lincoln doing the "Ripped Pants" pose while on the waves until suddenly, he wipes out and arrives on shore unconscious)

Bobby: Oh look! A cardboard box washed up on the beach!

(Bobby looks on his binoculars to see that it's actually Lincoln laying face down unconscious on the beach)

Bobby - shrieks Holy Cow! It's bro and he's unconscious! 😱

(Bobby runs over to the unconscious Lincoln & flips him face up)

Bobby: crying Why? Why?! WHYYYYY?! 😭

Girl Jordan: worried Lincoln! 😟 😭

Lincoln: weakly Come… closer… I need… I need… gasps for air

Bobby: crying What do you need, bro? 😭

Girl Jordan: 😟😥

Lincoln:… A tailor. Because I ripped my pants! Hahaha! falls to the ground

(Everyone gets ticked off at Lincoln's cruel joke and walks away)

Girl Jordan: Lincoln, that wasn't funny. You literally had me worried sick! walks away from Lincoln 😟😞

Chaz: disappointed Dude… 😞 slowly shakes his head as he walks away

Lincoln - Uh oh. 😞

(Transitions to Lincoln inside a tent)

Lincoln: (in thought) Come on, Lincoln! You're losing them! Think! Your audience is waiting! (Out thought) Okay, let's see… Lifting weights; big laughs. Frisbee in face; literally kills. Surfing; knocks 'em dead! Pretending to drown; NO. Come on, think!… gasps I got it!

(Lincoln jumps out of the tent)

Lincoln: Hey everyone! Not ripped pants… rips his trunks off Pants ripped off! Get it?! Someone call the police! There's a pants thief on the loose!

(Awkward Silence. Lincoln looks over to Girl Jordan, who is playing volleyball with Chandler)

Lincoln: Oh no! Everyone's gone! Even Girl Jordan! She'd rather hang out with Chandler! collapses to the sand, laying on his back Oh no… We blew it, Trunks. drops his trunks on the sand

Trunks: What do you mean "we"? walks away

Lincoln: sighs I feel like an idiot trying to get Girl Jordan's attention all because I was jealous. Am I the biggest loser on the beach?!

(Becky appears)

Becky: No, I am. I forgot to put on sunscreen today. 😔 places her hand on her belly, then her print disappears through her sunburn (Electronic Beep was heard)

YICHIHUAHUAS!

Lincoln: Ouch… 😣

Becky: I know, right? 😣

Lincoln: Man that must hurt Becky.

Becky: It does.

(Rusty, Zach & Liam appears)

Liam: Na, we're the losers.

Zach: We got sand in our buns.

(Rusty shows the buns covered in sand)

EW!

Rumble

Josh - appears out from the sand No. I'm the biggest loser on the beach. They buried me in the sand and forgotten me.

All: What about you, Lincoln?

Lincoln: I lost one of my girlfriends.

Becky: Aww. Poor thing. 😓

Liam: How'd that happen?

(Lincoln pulls out a guitar)

Lincoln: (Singing) When I ripped… RIP! My pants.

(Song Ends. Everyone cheers for Lincoln & his bandmates around the stadium)

We all were there too!

Me: WAY TO GO BUDDY!

Loud Sisters: That's our bro! Go, Linky! Rockin' bro! 😆

Lincoln: to the viewers Yep. Like the song says; Just be yourself & people will like you! I just wish Girl Jordan heard this.

Girl Jordan: Lincoln! 🙂

Lincoln: Girl Jordan?!

(Girl Jordan hops onto the stage & gives Lincoln a heartfelt hug)

Girl Jordan: That song was amazing! You were amazing! 😄

Lincoln: Thanks! 😁 Listen… I'm sorry about the way I acted today. And I'm sorry for being jealous a little earlier. 😔

Girl Jordan: It's okay, Lincoln. I forgive you. gives Lincoln a kiss on the cheek 😘

Lincoln: blushes Heh heh… 😳😊

Girl Jordan: giggles & pokes Lincoln's nose Cutie. 😊

Loud Sisters: Aww!

Chandler: Hey Larry- I mean… Lincoln. That was pretty cool, man. 😎

Lincoln: Thanks, Chandler. 😊

Chandler: Would you… Sign my pants? 😁

Lincoln: Absolutely, buddy.

(Lincoln proceeds to sign Chandler's pants, but then a ripping sound appears. Lincoln's underwear rips, and everyone gasps & whistles)

Lincoln: face turns pink and covers himself Dang it. 😚

I covered him in a robe.

Me: Come on buddy lets get you home.

Lincoln: Thanks J.D.

Me: How was your time at the beach while we were gone?

Lincoln: It was awesome!

Girl Jordan: Yeah we had so much fun!

Me: Glad you two did.

Nico: You two earned this break.

Lincoln: But why is Chandler out of prison?

Me: He told me that he wants to redeem himself. I removed his dark side from him and made him a better person. But it looks like everyone in the schools still hate him.

Lincoln: I know.

Nico: But he really changed.

Eli: I'm glad he did. Me and J.D. hated that jerk.

Me: Yeah but he still doesn't have a home so we gave him a place to stay at the estate.

Nico: That's good.

We went back home.

Another awesome fanfic done.

Ripped Pants is one of my favorite episodes of SpongeBob. It was so funny and more. It aired on July 17th, 1999 and it was the 2nd episode of the series. Awesome! Get ready for a flying funny time as we see SpongeBob and Patrick turn their brains into flying toys of fun and we save them from an old fish.

See you all tomorrow.

Whirly Brains

Over in Prickly Pines, Wisconsin we were over there to have a very special record-breaking contest. We were there to help Lincoln become the net record-setting champion of the Bean Stacking Record.

Lincoln had a bunch of cans of beans set up.

Lincoln: Thanks for helping me with this J.D.

Me: No problem Lincoln. These beans will be perfect for this. These are really rotten beans.

FART!

Lincoln: And just the look of them makes them feel rotten.

Nico: Yeah they are.

Lincoln then got to stacking beans.

Spoiled Rich: What are you doing, Lincoln?

Lincoln: I'm gonna try to see if I can beat the bean-stacking record. If Lazlo could do it so can I.

Me: You can do it Lincoln.

Nico: Yeah go for it!

Lincoln had 20 beans stacked up.

Sailor Moon saw him.

Sailor Moon: (sees Lincoln stacking beans) Lincoln, I've got one thing to say to you.

Lincoln: (fearing the worse) What's that?

Sailor Moon: Keep stacking those beans!

Me: YEAH!

Linka: Go for it bro!

Lincoln: Okay!

Lincoln got to stacking.

A beaver man went to a bar.

Beaver man: There's a kid outside.

The men and people in the bar growled ferociously.

Beaver Man: And he's stacking beans.

Everyone cheered excitedly and it was like they were saying it's about damn time someone tries to challenge that record. They went over to see Lincoln spitting beans out of his mouth and stacking them.

Laney was counting them as she was flying into the air.

Eddy: See Lincoln stack beans! 25¢!

Swindle: $25.00 to see Lincoln stack beans!

Everyone poured in their money to see this it was a lot of money! They put coins, jewels and more and so much more.

Apple Fritter: Wow! Look at all the money come in.

Edward: I hope that old turtle doesn't show up to ruin everything again.

Shockwave: Was he really a turtle?

Lazlo: Yeah he was.

Samson: It's true guys. He was the original holder of the record for Bean Stacking. He set the record 140 years ago. He died of natural causes.

This was so cool seeing Lincoln do the Bean Stacking Record. Lincoln was already up to the record setting number of 128,513 and counting!

Me: Wow! Lincoln is already beyond the record.

Raj: (India Accent) What happened to that Dan Kuso guy?

Wheeljack: He went back to his city. But we'll see him again real soon.

Me: But I'm glad we got to meet him. Someday we're gonna meet him and his friends and help the Bakugan Battle Brawlers take down one of their enemies.

Nico: This is gonna be so cool to see that.

Me: But it's gonna be really cool having Kratos with us too.

Nico: Yep.

Lincoln then set the record at 527,397,927 beans! Instantly shattered the record!

Laney: 527,397,927!

Everyone cheered wildly!

Lincoln set the record for the biggest bean stacking record ever and we even made a lot of money out of it too. Eddy made $918,278.00 and Swindle made $728,473,846,956.00.

Eddy: Want to go get jawbreakers Luan?

Luan: You bet Eddy.

Fluttershy: I'm very amazed that Lincoln was able to pull that record off.

Sailor Moon: Me too.

Me: We all are. I didn't even know a record for bean stacking even was possible until we saw it ourselves.

Nico: Yeah.

Lincoln was immortalized in the Guinness Book of World Records as the Greatest Bean Stacker ever in over 140 years.

In the estate we were watching TV.

Nico: Hey J.D. How did you recruit Sunburst?

Me: That was an interesting part.

---

We were over in the Crystal Empire and we were there to recruit Starlight Glimmer's friend Sunburst. After we went to the Crystal Empire, I moved it to the Estate grounds where it will be under our protection.

---

Sunburst is a male unicorn pony, Starlight Glimmer's childhood friend, and royal crystaller to Flurry Heart. As of A Horse Shoe-In, he is the vice principal of the School of Friendship. He first appears as a colt in the past in The Cutie Re-Mark - Part 2, and he appears as a full-grown stallion in present day in the season six premiere.

In The Cutie Re-Mark - Part 2, Starlight Glimmer takes Twilight Sparkle and Spike back in time to her youth, where they witness a young Sunburst and Starlight playing a book-stacking game. When Starlight's move nearly causes the books to topple onto her, Sunburst saves her using telekinesis, earning him his cutie mark. Afterward, Starlight loses touch with Sunburst because he earned his cutie mark before her, and she starts believing that cutie marks ruin friendships.

Season six

In The Crystalling - Part 1, Starlight says that Sunburst "knew everything there was to know about magic" when they were foals, contradicted in the flashbacks by Starlight being better at spells than him, and would occasionally help her along in her magic development. When Starlight later approaches him in the Crystal Empire to reconnect with him, he mainly acts awkward around her and purports to be an important wizard.

However, it is later revealed in The Crystalling - Part 2 that, although Sunburst is very knowledgeable about magic, he is untalented at casting it. He uses this knowledge of magic to help Starlight and her friends restore the Crystal Heart and complete the newborn baby Flurry Heart's Crystalling ceremony. Following this, Sunburst is appointed as Flurry Heart's "crystaller" and magic advisor, and he and Starlight promise to stay in touch.

Sunburst also appears in The Times They Are A Changeling, staying close to Flurry Heart during a suspected changeling incursion. In To Where and Back Again - Part 1, when Princess Cadance, Shining Armor, and Flurry Heart are captured by the changelings, Sunburst dispatches Thorax to notify Twilight in Ponyville and to help save Equestria.

Season seven

Sunburst appears at Starlight's graduation ceremony in Celestial Advice and during a magic simulation when Twilight considers possible places to send Starlight. He is also verbally alluded to by Trixie in All Bottled Up.

In Uncommon Bond, Sunburst visits Starlight in Ponyville and learns that he shares Twilight's love of antiquing, Trixie's love of stage magic, and Maud Pie's passion for geology, much to Starlight's disappointment. When he realizes how left out she feels, Sunburst organizes a life-sized version of their favorite board game for them to play together.

In Shadow Play, Sunburst comes into possession of Star Swirl the Bearded's lost journal, and he plays a role in both releasing the Pillars of Old Equestria from limbo and saving Equestria from the Pony of Shadows.

Season eight

In The Parent Map, Sunburst and Starlight are called by the Cutie Map to their old hometown of Sire's Hollow, where he is forced to deal with his mother Stellar Flare's overbearing concerns about his future. As he looks for the friendship problem he was called for, Stellar puts constant pressure on him to succeed, eventually causing him to explode at her in anger. Realizing his strained relationship with his mother is the very friendship problem he was summoned to fix, Sunburst talks it out with Stellar Flare, and they reconcile.

Season nine

In Student Counsel, Sunburst attends Maud and Mudbriar's spring solstice party and helps Starlight Glimmer and Terramar search for Silverstream in the Everfree Forest, where they run into a flock of cockatrices during their migration period.

In Between Dark and Dawn, Spike mentions Sunburst when he gives Twilight instructions on how to fix the amulet that controls the sun and moon when it malfunctions.

In A Trivial Pursuit, Sunburst takes part in Ponyville's Trivia Trot game. Partnered with Cranky Doodle Donkey at first, he is forced out of the game when Cranky is disqualified for sleeping (thanks to Twilight). After Twilight gets Pinkie Pie disqualified, Sunburst partners up with Twilight, but upon seeing how frazzled she is, Sunburst tries to get her disqualified in order to preserve his right answer percentage record. Twilight is outraged by this at first, but the two reconcile when she realizes she had done the same to Pinkie.

Sunburst appears in A Horse Shoe-In when Trixie recommends him to be Starlight's vice principal at the School of Friendship. With Sunburst no longer needed to serve as Flurry Heart's crystaller, Starlight hires him.

In The Ending of the End - Part 2, Sunburst takes part in the final battle against Queen Chrysalis, Lord Tirek, and Cozy Glow. In The Last Problem, Sunburst attends Twilight Sparkle's coronation ceremony. He later appears as an older stallion still serving as the School of Friendship's vice headmare in future Ponyville during The Magic of Friendship Grows.

Lana: So why are we here in the Crystal Empire?

Me: We're here to recruit Sunburst. Starlight Glimmer knows Sunburst all too well from her past.

Starlight Glimmer: Me and Sunburst go way back.

Me: It'll be awesome to meet him.

We arrived at his house and Starlight knocked on his door and he answered.

Sunburst: Yes?

Starlight Glimmer: Hey Sunburst. It's us.

He saw us.

Sunburst: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm! It's an honor to meet you all.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Sunburst. Starlight told us so much about you.

Sunburst: I love all of your adventures and how you always defeat the bad guys. But it's also amazing how you destroyed King Sombra, J.D.

Me: Well that was one of my most amazing adventures on my birthday. But I did not expect there to be a statue of me you know.

Sunburst: That's understandable. But what brings you all here?

Me: We came to recruit you for the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Starlight Glimmer: It's a branch team that J.D. made for Team Loud Phoenix Storm where all the people of both Equestria and Earth use their powers of Friendship to fight evil and participate in the usual battles we have with our frenemies.

Sunburst: Wow! That's amazing!

Nico: It sure is.

Me: Yeah.

Sunburst: I would be honored to join you all.

Me: Awesome!

We later went to the living room to watch TV.

FLASHBACK ENDS

Me: That's how it went.

Nico: Right I remember that now.

---

Later we were getting ready. Me and some of the Loud Kids and the Neptune Crusaders were heading to Bikini Bottom to have some fun with SpongeBob and crew. Nico was gonna be placed in charge for the time we are gone.

Nico: You guys have fun in Bikini Bottom. We'll take good care of the City while you're gone.

Me: We will dude. Thank you.

We left for Bikini Bottom leaving Nico in charge.

Ravage: Okay, boss. I know you're planning on something while the others are gone.

Nico: You know me all too well, Ravage. There's an auction going to be held today. And one of the items is the Big Eye Number Card.

Zarya: Looks like an easy picking.

Tahu: Sounds a little too easy.

Syd Chang: But I'm always up for it.

Nico: J.D. will kill me for this. But if this all pays off it will be worth it.

Gizmo, See More, P'andor, Raven Branwen, Xiao Fung, and Kitty appeared.

Gizmo: We can help out with that too.

P'andor: (Russian Accent) This is gonna be most fun comrades.

Raven Branwen: Me, Gizmo, See More, P'andor, Xiao Fung, and Kitty should go with you all to guard the auction in case something goes wrong.

Nico: Good idea. That will give you some time for you, Ruby and Yang to do some family bonding.

Yang: I like that.

See More: Why don't we just swap that card out with a fake?

Nico: There's no need for that, actually. We just need the winning bid.

Gizmo: Okay then.

They went to the auctioneer building.

When they arrived they saw that there were many people there.

Maria: Wow. Lots of people here.

Nico: May, you, Maria, and William will go with me to the auction.

May: Why us?

Kapri: Three reasons. 1. Having a lady at Nico's side will help avoid suspicion. 2. You're Nico's wife. 3. William's is Maria's boyfriend.

May: Good reasons.

William: Yeah.

They went in and everyone else stayed outside to watch.

Nico, May, William, and Maria were seated at the auction alongside several other people.

Drag Strip: (through my comlink) Boss, how much do you plan on paying for the card?

Nico: $20,000,000,000.00. but it will be worth it.

Starscream: J.D. is gonna wring your neck for spending that kind of money.

Nico: I know.

P'andor: (he and the others are outside) What does the Big Eye Number Card do anyway?

Ruby Rose: Whatever it does it's really bad news.

Eli: Yeah all the Numbers usually are.

Later Nico made the winning bid. But then a surprising twist happened! Good news? The Big Eye Number Card was successfully sold to him. Bad news? The lights suddenly went off. When they turned back on, the card was gone.

Mr. Boss: (contacts Nico through his comlink) Nico, what's going on?! We hear shouting!

Nico: The good news is the Number was sold to me. The bad news is the lights went off and someone swiped it.

Mr. Boss: WHAT!?

Nico: I think one of Don Thousand's Goons took it!

Kitty: How did one of Don Thousand's goons manage to get the Number without you guys seeing him?

Maria: Well, there's no way he would have made it in without a guard or you guys outside noticing.

May: He was probably disguised as a bidder.

Nico: That could be the case. But just to be safe… Laney, Sunset, we'll need your artistry to help in setting up a trap.

Sunset Shimmer: I think I see what you're about to do Nico.

Laney: Leave it to us.

Mindwipe: Why won't we simply find the culprit energy signature and recklessly charge at him like we usually do?

Nico: I've got something much better in mind. We're gonna hold another auction. But this time, the item will be a card with a fake number.

Sunset Shimmer: Clever trap. Leave this to me and Laney for making the card.

Laney pulled out her art supplies and some card stock paper. They got to work and made an awesome card.

Jinx: Is Nico sure about the people he invited?

Xiao Fung: If we know Don Thousand, he'll most likely won't resist sending his goons to collect another Number Card.

Laney: Like baiting a mouse trap.

Rattrap: Just what I was thinking.

The fake card was called Number 818: Crystal Envy Dragon. It looked like a dragon made of solid crystal and the background for it was a cave of crystal. It had 5000 ATK and 4500 DEF and was a level 12 Light Dragon Monster. The auction was being held at an abandoned warehouse by the docks and the auctioneers gathered.

Bidder #1: What's going on here? I came here for an auction! Are we really going to hold it here?

P'andor, Gizmo, See-More, Xiao Fung, Raven Branwen, and Kitty dropped down.

Bidder #2: Who are you guys?

Gizmo: We're the bad guys everyone's talking about, barf brain.

Nico, Maria, May, and William take off our disguises.

Nico: Sorry about this. But there's not going to be an auction today. We just need to ask all of you to cooperate.

Raven Branwen: That's right. We apologize for doing this. It's part of a trap we all have set up for a robbery that occurred recently with another auction.

May felt all of the bidders faces. But they were all real.

May: All of the bidders are the real deal.

Indigo Zap: Nico, what's going on here?

Nico: Nothing special. (smirks) I just know who our culprit is now.

Nico summoned Deadshot's guns and fired at the auction master.

BANG!

He was revealed. Nico saw that he looked like Mr. Burns but with hair! WHAT THE FUCK IS GOING ON!?

May: MR. BURNS!?

Augustus: Actually I'm Augustus Burns IV!

Nico: Are you his son!?

Augustus: Illegitimate Son! You sent my father to prison!

Qin: Because he was trying to tear our planet and everyone's lives apart!

---

The U-Foes are a team of supervillains in Marvel Comics. In an attempt to recreate the cosmic accident that transformed the Fantastic Four, Simon Utrecht, Ann and James Darnell, and Mike Steel flew into space and were bombarded with cosmic rays, giving them powers as well. Simon became Vector, Mike became Ironclad, Ann became Vapor, and James became X-Ray.

Shortly after this, they battled the Hulk and entered his rogue's gallery. Strangely enough, the U-Foes have never faced the Fantastic Four, despite being inspired by and similar to them.

Vector

Vector is a supervillain from Marvel comics and a member of the U-Foes, a gang of criminals who act a bit like an evil-version of the Fantastic Four. He is a member of Thunderbolts.

Simon Utrecht was obsessed with gaining power to go up into space. Utrecht and his crew were interrupted by the Hulk before they crashed back to Earth, much like the Fantastic Four themselves did. Upon seeing themselves after the crash, the quartet have become the newly-christened U-Foes. The U-Foes became professional criminals, and clashed with many heroes including the Avengers.

Vector, along with the other U-Foes, registered under the Superhuman Registration Act, and served in Norman Osborn's forces, before joining the Hood's Gang.

Vapor

Vapor is a supervillain from Marvel comics and a member of the U-Foes - a group of criminals who act as a kind of evil version of the Fantastic Four. She is a member of Thunderbolts.

Vapor's history prior to being recruited as a technical specialist for his space mission by Simon Utrecht has yet to be revealed. She, along with her brother James, was among the small group led by Utrecht to simulate the crash that gave the Fantastic Four their powers and has remained with the U-Foes ever since.

Alongside her teammates, she has had encounters with heroes including Hulk, the Avengers, Spider-Man, Crossfire, Puma, Darkhawk, and Portal.

During the Acts of Vengeance, Vapor attempted to kill the Scarlet Witch.

Vapor and the other U-Foes were recently recruited to serve Norman Osborn in his scheming, and have since joined the Hood's Gang.

X-Ray

X-Ray is a supervillain from Marvel comics and a member of the U-Foes, a gang of criminals that are similar to an evil-version of the Fantastic Four.

Jimmy Darnell was part of a team organized by Simon Utrecht a millionaire, public official, and industrialist who wanted to simulate the crash that led to the powers of the Fantastic Four. He promised each member of the team superpowers due to exposure (although intentional, not accidental) to cosmic radiation. During this launch, Dr. Bruce Banner (known as the Hulk) was on hand at the base, and believing the ship to be having problems, guided it back to Earth. The now-changed humans called themselves the U-Foes (possible in connection with Utrecht's last name) and blamed Banner for cutting short their radiation exposure.

They again battled the Hulk and this time defeated him. In triumph, they exhibited the captive Bruce Banner on national television. However, Banner was freed by Rick Jones, Betty Ross, and the alien Bereet, and Banner transformed into the Hulk and defeated the U-Foes.

Along with the other U-Foes, he joined Thunderbolts Army and after the Civil War. James was among the 142 registered superhuman who registered as part of the The Initiative. Hood

Though a registered hero, X-Ray later joined the Hood's criminal organization who planned to take advantage of the split in the superhero community caused by the Superhuman Registration Act. During the Skrull Invasion, he was among the many supervillains who rejoined the Hood's Gang and attacked an invading Skrull force.

When a Skrull booby trap went off in Project P.E.G.A.S.U.S., he was one of the two U-Foes who were attempting to escape and was dealt with by Nova.

Ironclad

Ironclad, also known as Mike Steel is a supervillain from Marvel comics who is one of the four members of the U-Foes. has taken on Captain America, Hulk and other prominent heroes.

Mike Steel was an engineer, a scientist, and a pilot before gaining his superhuman powers. With his teammates, he attempted to duplicate the original rocket flight of the Fantastic Four through a cosmic ray belt, and gained superhuman powers just as they did. His team then first battled the Hulk, although during the battle

Ironclad lost control of his powers and sank into the ground. Later, he rescued his teammate X-Ray and was reunited with the U-Foes. They again battled the Hulk and this time defeated him. In triumph, they exhibited the captive Bruce Banner on national television. However, Banner was freed by Rick Jones, Betty Ross, and the alien Bereet, and Banner transformed into the Hulk and defeated the U-Foes. With the U-Foes, Ironclad later escaped a special government prison, but was accidentally "deflected" by team leader Vector into the "Crossroads" dimension. There, he battled the Hulk and defeated him with the help of the alien "Puffball Collective," though he became trapped in a dimension of quicksand. Ironclad later escaped back to the "Crossroads" dimension, and with the U-Foes he escaped back to Earth through a dimensional warp unintentionally opened by the Mutant Charles Little Sky. The U-Foes battled the Avengers and Puma, and Ironclad was defeated by Captain America and Gilgamesh.

Some time later, alongside other superhuman criminals, Ironclad attempted to escape from the Vault, and battled the Avengers and Freedom Force. Alongside Electro, Ironclad sided with Thunderball against Venom for leadership of the convicts. Ironclad was later freed from the Vault, and with teammates Vapor and X-Ray, Ironclad attacked the Avengers West Coast, mistakenly believing they had killed Vector. Vector then reappeared alive and well, and led his teammates in a strategic retreat. With the U-Foes, Ironclad later attacked a New York hospital in search of Charles Little Sky (who was now known as Portal), where they battled Darkhawk, Daredevil, and Captain America.

Mike was one of the 142 superhumans who registered as part of the Super-Human Registration Act.

The Hood

Though a registered hero, Ironclad later joined the Hood's criminal organization who planned to take advantage of the split in the superhero community caused by the Superhuman Registration Act.

Ron Hambone A.K.A. Bronze Kneecap

The Bronze Kneecap (real name: Ron Hambone ) is a major comic book supervillain and arch-nemesis of the Crimson Chin in the Fairly OddParents .

He first appeared in "Chin Up!", where he took the Mayor of Chincinnati hostage after the Crimson Chin became too depressed to fight anymore, thanks to Timmy Turner's revelation to the Chin that he was just a comic book hero. Timmy became Cleft the Boy Chin Wonder and attempted to stop the Bronze Kneecap himself, but was quickly defeated and then tied to a bronze knee shaped rocket. After calling the Chin for help, Cleft is saved by the Crimson Chin who then proceeds to defeat the Bronze Kneecap with some assistance from Cleft.

In, "Lights… Camera… Adam!," he emerged from the comic book Timmy carelessly left open. When he heard about the Crimson Chin movie being in production, he decided to impersonate as the movie's director and turn the film into a mockery so he can ruin the Chin's reputation and have his comic book canceled. However, the Kneecap's plot was foiled with Timmy summoned the real Crimson Chin and was pushed back into the comic book after a brief fight.

In "The Masked Magician", his origins were explained much better. Before he became the Bronze Kneecap, he was Ron Hambone a famous Jai alai player who always ended up in 3rd place Bronze. One day, the Crimson Chin participated in a celebrity competition against him. During the match, Ron seemed to have the upper hand as he only needed one more point to finally win the 1st place gold trophy until the Chin accidentally tripped him with his large chin causing him to break his knee… which caused him to lose, and once again earn him the 3rd place bronze trophy. Angry and wanting to get revenge on the Chin for ending his career, Ron melted all his bronze trophies to create his bronze suit and became… The Bronze Kneecap! His goal is to destroy the Crimson Chin as his revenge! He didn't move on with his life after the incident simply because the Chin never apologized for tripping him (as proven when Timmy asked him why he did not move on since that was an accident) - he'd stop if the Chin apologized, but the Chin refuses to.

Citrocett A.K.A. Stinky Butt the Foul

Citrocet is the only recurring antagonist of the Canadian cartoon show The Ripping Friends .

Biography

Citrocet was born in the fictional country Euroslavia. He is also the country's merciless dictator. He has made several attempts to defeat the Ripping Friends. For example, in his debut in episode 4 of The Ripping Friends, he notices that the Ripping Friends were on an asteroid heading right towards Euroslavia. Citrocet said that he will finally destroy them at last, but as soon as the asteroid hits the country, Citrocet is defeated. A second time, in episode 7, He destroys most of the Earth. The Ripping Friends pound him on the ground so hard he ended up in an underground world that is similar to Hell. A fart fairy gives Citrocet actual super powers, the power to produce super farts. He then renames himself, Stinky Butt. The Ripping Friends were beaten up by Stinky Butt and his his super farts. The four brothers found out a way to stop Stinky Butt, by shrinking Chunk so he can go inside Stinky Butt and disable his fart gland. Chunk was able to disable it and got out of there just in time, due to Stinky Butt farting himself into another dimension. In episode 9, he and his gorilla friend, Anaxaminder, kidnap the Ripping Friends' man servant, Jimmy, and by torturing him, the four brothers will have to give in into Citrocet's demands. Rip was sent to rescue Jimmy. He threw a trash can very hard on the ground, which was meant to distract Anaxaminder. The gorilla went upstairs to the back door. He answered it, until Rip judo flips him and rips off his fur to disguise himself as Anaxaminder. Rip then gave Citrocet a taste of his own medicine by tying up the dictator to the chair where Jimmy was tied up to, painted his face with "Jimmy Paint", gagged him, then went back upstairs to help Anaxaminder regain conciseness by putting a banana on top of his nose, then Rip left with Jimmy. When Anaxaminder regained conciseness, he ate the banana that was given to him by Rip, he goes back downstairs. He led to believe that Citrocet is Jimmy, so Anaxaminder began torturing Citrocet, not knowing that Jimmy is no longer there.

Dirty Bubble

The Dirty Bubble is an antagonist from SpongeBob SquarePants and the #2 arch-nemesis of Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy behind Man Ray.

He was voiced by the late Charles Nelson Reilly in his first appearance and in " Lights, Camera, PANTS! ", and then he was replaced by Tom Kenny, making him the current voice of this fiend since " Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy II ".

In '" The New Adventures of Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy ", The Dirty Bubble is the Number one most arch-nemesis. His goals are to trap people inside of himself, especially Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy. SpongeBob defeats him in this fiend's first appearance with a pencil.

During the episode " Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy V ", Dirty Bubble was part of a villainous alliance named E.V.I.L., along with Man Ray and Barnacle Man, an evil alter-ego of Barnacle Boy. He, Man Ray, and Barnacle Man had been repeatedly committing crimes together around Bikini Bottom. Later, they confronted Mermaid Man while they were teasing fish who were in Make-Out Reef. After Mermaid Man's acquaintances ended up defeating themselves, Mermaid Man had nothing left and fell on his back. Knowing that Mermaid Man essentially surrendered, Barnacle Man boasted at him that he would have to give in to his demands. When Mermaid Man requested suggestions of what he needed to give in to, the Dirty Bubble suggested that he should eat dirt. After Barnacle Boy returned to the light side with Mermaid Man under his three special conditions, E.V.I.L. fell apart, leading to the eventual arrests of Man Ray and the Dirty Bubble.

In Bikini Bottom, SpongeBob and Patrick are hitting a plastic cup with a stick, feeling bored.

SpongeBob: [sighs] Your turn. [gives Patrick the stick]

[Patrick hits the cup with the stick.]

Patrick: Now you. [gives SpongeBob the stick]

[SpongeBob hits the cup with the stick.]

SpongeBob: Hey, Patrick.

Patrick: [sighs] Yes, SpongeBob?

SpongeBob: Do you think it will make the game more exciting if we played it with… [holds out two sticks] two sticks?

[Patrick's head buffs up and snatches the sticks from SpongeBob's hands.]

Patrick: Two sticks?! That's against the rules! You can't change the rules, SpongeBob, just because I'm winning!

SpongeBob: I'm sorry, Patrick. I'm just so bored playing "Stick in a Cup."

Me and the Neptune Crusaders then appeared.

Me: Hey guys.

Lily: Hey SpongeBob. Hey Patrick.

Patrick: Hey guys.

Me: What's going on?

SpongeBob: We're bored.

Nathiel Waters: [on television] Are you tired of playing with an old stick and a cup?

SpongeBob and Patrick: [turn their heads to the TV] Yeah.

Me: Looks like he's talking to you two?

Nathiel Waters: [on television] Well, say goodbye to boring and hello to whirly brains! The exciting new toy that puts you in the driver's seat of your own mind! It's so simple! Just flip your lid, attach the propeller, and watch your brain soar hundreds of feet into the air as you control the action!

[SpongeBob and Patrick get very excited about the advertisement on TV and their eyes were put in a trance. Two fishing poles dragged them to the screen.]

Nathiel Waters: Get your whirly brain today and free your mind!

SpongeBob: Free my mind! Free my mind! Free my mind! [chews on a stick]

[Patrick chews on a cup. Both SpongeBob and Patrick grab to television and started doing a tug-of-war with it.]

SpongeBob: I want it!

Patrick: No, I want it!

SpongeBob: No, I want it!

Patrick: No, I want it!

SpongeBob: No, it's mine!

Patrick: I want it! I want it!

SpongeBob: No, it's mine!

[They pulled so hard that they accidentally break the television into pieces.]

Varie: Whoops.

Patrick: Sorry to hear about your TV, SpongeBob.

[They put the television back together and it turns on.]

Nathiel Waters: [on television] Whirly brains available now at Bikini Bottom Toy Shop.

Lana: Looks like we're off to the toy store.

[They put the television down and start dancing around.]

SpongeBob and Patrick: Whirly brains! Whirly brains! Whirly brains! Whirly brains! Whirly brains!

[The scene changes to SpongeBob opening the Whirly Brainbox and taking out the propeller. SpongeBob climbs up on Patrick.]

SpongeBob: Okay, Patrick. Just let me flip your lid so I can attach the propeller directly to your brain.

[SpongeBob tries to open Patrick's head, but failed as it gets out of shape. SpongeBob slides down and Patrick straightens out his face. SpongeBob reads the instruction paper.]

SpongeBob: Step one… [reads] Oh, I see what to do.

[SpongeBob pulls out a monster mask, puts it on and scares Patrick out of his wits. Patrick's head opens up.]

Me: WHOA! That mask is scary.

SpongeBob: [takes off mask] It's just me, Patrick.

Patrick: Oh! [sighs]

[SpongeBob attaches the propeller on Patrick's brain and gives

Patrick the mask.]

SpongeBob: Now, you do me!

Me: I can do that.

I turn into The Blair Monster Thing and scared SpongeBob.

[SpongeBob screams as his head opens up. Patrick attaches the propeller on SpongeBob's brain and takes off the mask. SpongeBob takes out the remote controls and gives one to Patrick.]

SpongeBob: It's time to free our minds.

Me: Contact.

Gali: Contact.

[SpongeBob and Patrick activate the remotes and their brains slowly exit their heads with their eyeballs attached, leaving their bodies blind. Their whirly brains then fly around the air.]

Luna: Oh that is amazing dudes!

Girl Jordan: Yeah it is!

SpongeBob: Wow, Patrick. I've never seen the world from this angle before.

Patrick: [laughs] And the propeller tickles my think folds. [laughs] Hey, hey, hey, SpongeBob! Eye bump!

SpongeBob: Eye bump!

[SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains crash into each other and injuries their eyes.]

SpongeBob: Patrick, no more eye bumps. Okay?

Patrick: [rubs his eye hole] I feel you.

Me: How's the view from up there guys!?

SpongeBob: It's amazing!

Patrick: Yeah it is!

[The scene changes to SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains fly around SpongeBob's house. The whirly brains fly through the chimney and come out through the sink faucet. SpongeBob's whirly brain flies around the kitchen to look for Patrick's whirly brain. Patrick's whirly brain, who is in the freezer, sneaks up on SpongeBob's whirly brain and pulls it in. The two whirly brains fight each other inside, which makes the refrigerator bounce around the house and sends it crashing outside. SpongeBob and Patrick laugh as their whirly brains feel dizzy.]

SpongeBob and Patrick: Brain freeze!

We laughed.

Lily: That was funny!

[SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains fly through a bush and makes a SpongeBob and Patrick-shaped topiary. Patrick's whirly brain slices the pineapple peel off of SpongeBob's house, revealing Gary doing his business in his litter box. Gary hides himself in the curtain. SpongeBob and Patrick laugh.]

Me: WHOA! That is so cool!

Varie: It sure is.

SpongeBob: Hey, Patrick. I know who we can spy on. [laughs]

[Squilliam is in his bathtub.]

Squilliam: [sighs] The sanctity of my bathroom. The only place in the world where I can… [unravels his nose] let it all hang out. [sighs] Me… [sinks into his tub and rests]

[SpongeBob and Patrick whirly brains peek inside Squilliam's bathroom.]

SpongeBob: Hey, where's Squilliam? I'm sure I saw him in here.

[SpongeBob's whirly brain flies in and lays on Squilliam's head.]

Patrick: Well, maybe he fell in the toilet. I'll check!

[Patrick's whirly brain flies into Squilliam's toilet.]

Patrick: Squilliam, are you in here? Did you fall in? Squilliam!

[Squilliam wakes up.]

Squilliam: Hey what's going on?

[Squilliam takes out a mirror and looks at his reflection. But to his horrifying surprise, he sees SpongeBob's whirly brain on his head and freaks out.]

SpongeBob: Found him!

[Patrick's whirly brain flies out of Squilliam's toilet.]

Patrick: Yep, that's him. Hi, Squilliam!

[Squilliamis freaked out.]

Squilliam: Aliens from Mars! It's an invasion!

I came in.

Me: It's all right Squilliam. It's just SpongeBob and Patrick. They are playing with their new toys called Whirly Brains. They turned their brains into drones essentially.

Squilliam: Oh. That's really something. I was afraid that Martians were invading there for a second.

Me: There's no such thing as Martians.

[The scene changes to SpongeBob and Patrick flying their whirly brains around until they sliced their heads. The heads fall on the wrong bodies.]

We laughed

SpongeBob and Patrick: Whirly brains are go!

Varie: Yeah they are!

[The scene changes to SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains switching Perry and Evelyn's cups at the Le Café. They both drink the wrong cups until they spit in each other's faces. SpongeBob and Patrick laugh.]

Patrick: She spit in his face! [laughs]

We laughed some more.

[The scene changes Mrs. Puff and Mr. Krabs going on a date. SpongeBob and Patrick both spy on them with their whirly brains.]

Mr. Krabs: Mrs. Puff, we've been dating for 16 years now. So, I was sincerely hoping that today might finally be the day that…

Mrs. Puff: Yes, Eugene?

Mr. Krabs: Can I steal a little kiss?

Mrs. Puff: Oh! [laughs] Oh, Eugene! I thought you'd never ask.

[SpongeBob turns the brain gas lever on the remote.]

Mr. Krabs: Come here, you.

[As Mrs. Puff and Mr. Krabs are about to share a kiss, SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains pass gas, which causes Mrs. Puff to inflate herself.]

Mr. Krabs: What a woman!

Mrs. Puff: [blushes] Oh, Eugene!

We laughed some more.

[SpongeBob and Patrick laugh. The scene changes to SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains flying around, creating a whirly brain-shaped cloud with the gas. SpongeBob and Patrick laugh until someone throws eggs in their faces.]

SpongeBob and Patrick: What was that?

[Right in front of SpongeBob and Patrick was a kid who also has a whirly brain. But he is using it to bully people like throwing eggs.]

Kid: Oh, that smarts! [laughs] Bullseye!

Patrick: I thought we were the first kids on the block to get whirly brains!

Kid: What are you? Thick? Every kid in town's got a whirly brain! [spits]

[Numerous whirly brains fly around SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains.]

Buddy: Daddy, daddy! Can I have a whirly brain too?

Fred: Absolutely not, son. Your brain is your body's most important organ, not a toy.

[Buddy cries while a whirly brain flies towards Fred and hits him. Buddy laughs.]

SpongeBob: Hooray! Now, we can play whirly brains with the whole neighborhood! Hey, kid! Race ya to the end of the street!

Kid: Eat my brainstem slowpoke!

[The three whirly brains take their positions for their race.]

Patrick: Get ready, get set, punch it!

[The three whirly brains fly through the air at fast speed. The kid's whirly brain spit out gas to blind SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains. SpongeBob and Patrick cough and continue to fly. The kid's whirly brain laughs as he is beating them. But unfortunately, the kid's whirly brain ended up flying into a fat guy's butt. SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains fly past the fat guy.]

SpongeBob: Yes! We're gonna beat him, Patrick! We're gonna win!

[SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains continue flying until suddenly, they get hit by someone's can and fell on the ground. The cane belonged to a grouchy old man who thought kids were invading his property with toys.]

Angry Old Timer: Play your toys into my yard, will ya? Well, they're mine now!

[The old man takes SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains inside his house and stores them into a barrel where he keeps the other whirly brains in. He wraps a sheet over the barrel so they won't fly out.]

Me: HEY YOU OLD JERK! Give those back now!

Angry Old Timer: Make me!

SpongeBob: Hey, what's going on? Everything went dark! Uh, Patrick, can you see anything?

Patrick: Only the dismal abyss of black nothingness. [his eyeholes widen]

SpongeBob: Aw, our remote controls are dead too! Oh, Patrick, I don't want to jump to any conclusions here, but I think that we have lost our minds!

Patrick: [laughs] M-O-O-N. [laughs] That spells moon! [laughs hysterically]

SpongeBob: Okay, don't panic, Patrick. We'll find them. Just take it easy. Take it easy! PATRICK, TAKE IT EASY!

Patrick: I'm taking it easy, SpongeBob.

SpongeBob: Our brains are probably right around here somewhere. Uh, here brains! Brains! Here, boy! [stutters]

Patrick: Here, brains!

Me: That old freak stole your brains!

[SpongeBob and Patrick look for their whirly brains. SpongeBob

touches Nazz who is holding her baby.]

SpongeBob: Brainy, where are you?

[Patrick touches Officer John.]

Patrick: Brain, brain, brain! I think I found it, SpongeBob!

SpongeBob: I've found mine too!

[SpongeBob has the baby on his head with its feet sticking out of his eye holes while Patrick has a fire hydrant on his head.]

SpongeBob: Oh, darn it. I still can't see.

Patrick: Yeah, my brain won't fit back in.

[Patrick hits the fire hydrant with a hammer. Nazz takes her baby out of SpongeBob's head, leaving its stinky diaper behind.]

SpongeBob: Oh, uh, ma'am, you forgot something.

Nazz: That's okay. You can keep it. [she leaves]

Patrick: I'll take it!

[Patrick takes the smelly diaper and puts it in his head. He closes his head and marks dots on it to make it look like eyes.]

Patrick: Oh, yeah! Lookin' good!

SpongeBob: Ew! Give me that!

[SpongeBob kicks open Patrick's head and throws away the smelly diaper.]

Patrick: Aww, man! That felt all squishy! [laughs]

SpongeBob: Patrick, we need help. Let's call Sandy.

Patrick: Okay. Sandy!

SpongeBob: [takes out phone] Patrick, I meant on the phone.

[SpongeBob dials the number and calls Sandy.]

Sandy: [on phone] Hello?

SpongeBob and Patrick: Sandy!

[The scene changes to Sandy using her brain detector while SpongeBob and Patrick are tied to a rope so they won't get lost.]

Sandy: Dang. You two sure are lucky that I created this brain detector last summer. I was beginning to think I'd never use this thing.

SpongeBob: Oh, I hope we find our brains soon. They're probably cold and hungry by now. Poor things.

Me: We'll find them.

[Soon, everyone in town is looking for their missing whirly brains and as they look, they end up crashing into each other.]

Sandy: And it looks like you're not the only critters around these parks to lose your minds. [looks at her detector] Hmm… And my detector is leading us directly to that house.

[The old man who stole SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains is sleeping on his rocking chair on the porch.]

Sandy: Excuse me, kind sir. Would you mind too terribly if we just came in your house for a minute and looked around for my friend's missin' brains?

[The old man is still sleeping.]

Sandy: We're gonna take that as a yes. Step lively, fellas!

[Sandy, SpongeBob and Patrick enter the old man's house.]

Sandy: This place has a ten-gallon case of the creepies. I wonder what's in…

[Sandy takes a peek inside the barrel.]

Sandy: [gasps] Hey, fellas! I think I've found your brains!

Me: All right!

SpongeBob and Patrick: Hooray!

[SpongeBob and Patrick jump in excitement but accidentally creaks the floor.]

Angry Old Timer: [offscreen] Hey!

SpongeBob, Sandy and Patrick: Huh?

Angry Old Timer: What are you sneak thieves doing into my house? Them brains violated my air space and I'm keepin' them! I'm callin' the cops!

[SpongeBob and Patrick pleads the old man not to call the police, crying.]

Sandy: Sorry nothin'! Look, Old Timer, one false move and I'll be on you like a horsefly on a cracker barrel!

Me: And we'll be all over you like a bunch of maggots eating a dead carcass!

We cracked our knuckles!

Angry Old Timer: Bring it on, Slimmy Whiskers! All twenty-threes can do your bees knees with one nickel, sister!

Sandy: Alright! Now you listen to me, you twisted coot! You can't steal somebody's brain just because it flies into your yard! That's brain-napping! And it looks like I'll be the one callin' the police!

Me: And we will make sure you don't get anything ever again you crazy old codger!

SpongeBob: Oh, I love it when Sandy gets aggressive. Let's give her some room.

[SpongeBob and Patrick back up but they both trip over the barrel and frees the whirly brains the old man stole. The whirly brains fly out of the old man's house and heads back to town to find their owners. Some of the whirly brains ring the doorbells.]

Fred: Oh, Brainy, you're back!

[Everyone cheers as their whirly brains have been returned. SpongeBob and Patrick's whirly brains fly back into their heads. SpongeBob and Patrick remove the propellers from their brains and close their heads, returning to normal.]

SpongeBob: Whew! I'll never be a no-brainer again! [laughs]

Sandy: Everyone has their brains back, so I'm a let it go this time. But if you steal as much as a beach ball, so help me I'll…

Angry Old Timer: [cries] I'm sorry, Squirrel Lady! I just couldn't take watching all the kids have fun in the air while I'm stuck here with this crotchety cane on the ground!

SpongeBob and Sandy: Aww!

Sandy: Well, I think we've got a cure for what ails you. Right, SpongeBob?

SpongeBob: Sandy, are you thinking what I'm thinking?

Sandy: I think I'm thinkin' what you're thinkin'.

SpongeBob: Patrick?

[Patrick is pulling his head with a plunger.]

Patrick: My think is clogged.

[The scene changes to the old man flying through the air with the whirly brain propellers and is having a lot of fun.]

Sandy: Sure was nice of you two to donate your whirly brains to the old timer. You fellas did a good deed today.

SpongeBob: Oh, no need to thank us, Sandy. If we can just make one angry old man happy, that and itself is thanks enough. The dignity of the elderly was the victor here today.

Angry Old Timer: [laughs] Look out my dears below! Take a ride on the love copter!

Me: That was funny! Lets head home.

We did so.

We went back home and found everyone talking.

Herald: Nico, how much did you spend for that fake auction?

Nico: $100 Million dollars. And that's added to the $20 billion dollars I spent for the Card.

Lola: (shocked) SAY WHAT?!

Lynn: I can't believe you spend so much money! Even if it was to get a Number Card!

Nico: (laughs) You girls would make excellent spouses.

Lori: Don't even joke about this! Now, sit down! (sits Nico down) Listen here! Money saved is money earned!

May: We'll just leave you two alone.

Maria: (she and May are about to get up) We need to feed Manaphy and Horsea.

Lori: (sits them down as well) You two sit down too! You need to hear this!

Me: Lori that's enough! Let me handle this.

I went over to Nico and everyone.

Me: Nico, Good job guys!

Everyone: (Confused) Huh?

Me: I'm proud of all of you. That was a genius trap you all set up.

Nico: But aren't you mad at me for using all that money?

Me: Not at all man. I didn't need that money anyway. But you saved me the trouble of having to find Mr. Burn's son for a long time. I did some geneological research and found him on the family tree as illegitimate.

Nico: Wow.

Me: But you saved me the trouble of having to find him and now he's in prison with his father at the Earth's core.

Nico: Wow. (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure and I can't wait for tomorrow.

Me: Me too.

We had a great day.

Thanksgiving 2020 Adventure

HAPPY THANKSGIVING 2020 EVERYONE!

---

Today was a very important holiday in our country's history. Today was November 26th, 2020 and it was Thanksgiving, the day we give thanks to everything we are thankful for.

Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, and Horsea: HAPPY THANKSGIVING, EVERYBODY!

Me: And a good Happy 399th Thanksgiving to all of you too.

Laney: I love Thanksgiving.

Volcana: Me too.

Larxene: It's so amazing.

Me: It sure is. 399 years ago today in 1621 we had Thanksgiving in America.

Nico: I know. I love the food.

Lynn: I like the Football games. Go Detroit!

Lynn Sr. was getting everything ready for the dinner.

Supernova Zap: (to Poromon, Manaphy, Poliwag, and Horsea) You 4 better not eat the food ahead of time!

Lana: Yeah! The Feast force is watching you!

Lola: Yeah!

Misty (Pokemon): Where's Applejack?

Me: She's getting apples for the pies for the desserts and she has a special surprise for the Knights of the Friendship Table. She called on Rarity to make the costumes.

Nico: Cool!

Later Rarity and Applejack came back.

Rarity: Time for the surprise everyone!

We went out to the backyard and Sam Manson finished setting everything up Applejack. She and Riley made a huge cornucopia and it was full of vegetables, fruit and flowers.

Nico: WHOA! It's a giant cornucopia.

Lincoln: Yeah!

Me: This is gonna be fun.

The Knights of the Friendship Table all came out and they were dressed like fruits and vegetables of many kinds and more.

Brawl: Those are some nice costumes.

Applejack: Thank you kindly. It's for the photo we have set up for y'all.

Pinkie Pie: And it's gonna be the best photo EVER!

Our friend Photo Finish came out.

Everyone gathered.

Me: Say Happy Thanksgiving!

Knights of the Friendship Table: HAPPY THANKSGIVING!

FLASH!

The picture was taken and it was so perfect! It was all the Knights of the Friendship Table in front of the cornucopia and they were all dressed like fruit, vegetables, nuts and flowers and Naruto made a Genjutsu that made it look like the beautiful Cape Cod countryside.

Prowl: I think the Photo came out nicely.

Me: It sure did. The Thanksgiving Photo is a great idea and all that.

Lori: I literally love the Cornucopia photo.

Me: This is also your first Thanksgiving as a married coupled Lori.

Lori: It sure is.

Vypra: I'm happy for you Lori.

We made a great picture for Thanksgiving and it was beautiful. We put maple leaves, turkeys, pictures of the food and decorations on the frame.

Lincoln: That picture is so beautiful!

Nico: It sure is.

May: Yeah.

Dark Spicer: That picture rocks! I love how you girls are all dressed like that.

Eli: Awesome! I love Thanksgiving because of all the food and more.

Nico: Me too.

Me: We still have a long time before Thanksgiving Dinner, lets watch a movie.

Maria: Is there any movie about Thanksgiving we can watch?

Me: I have just the one.

I pulled out a DVD case from the movie cabinet and it was for the awesome 2013 movie Free Birds.

Me: Free Birds.

Lincoln: That's one of my favorites!

Vypra: Funny movie.

Linka: It sure is. Owen Wilson did a great job in that one.

Me: He sure did. This is a great movie. You all ready?

Everyone: YEAH!

We got to watching the movie and it was awesome!

---

Reggie is a turkey who has always feared Thanksgiving because turkeys have always been on the menu, but his incessant attempts to warn his flock have made him an outcast. When the other turkeys finally realize what is happening, they thoughtlessly throw Reggie outside in an attempt to save themselves. To his surprise, he is named the "pardoned turkey" by the President of the United States and is subsequently taken to Camp David. Although initially hesitant, Reggie soon eases into a routine of doing nothing but enjoying pizza from the "Pizza Dude" and watching Mexican telenovelas.

Reggie is kidnapped by Jake, a member of the Turkey Freedom Front, who tells him that "The Great Turkey" told him to find Reggie and take him back to the first Thanksgiving with him to take turkeys off the menu. They steal a time machine controlled by an A.I. named S.T.E.V.E. (Space Time Exploration Vehicle Envoy) from a Government facility. Jake instructs S.T.E.V.E. to time-travel back to the same day in 1621, three days before the first Thanksgiving. Once there, they are ambushed by colonial hunters led by Myles Standish, but they are quickly rescued by native turkeys led by Chief Broadbeak and his two children, Ranger and Jenny.

Broadbeak explains that the turkeys in the area have been forced underground since the settlers came and that they cannot risk fighting back without the settlers taking them. The next day, Broadbeak orders Jake and Ranger to spy on the settlers while Reggie and Jenny spring all the humans' hunting traps. Despite initial hostility, Ranger and Jake find out that the settlers have already begun preparations for Thanksgiving and where they keep their weapons.

Meanwhile, Jenny is unconvinced Reggie is from the future, but is impressed with his accidental unorthodox way of springing the traps. However, they are soon intercepted by Standish and Reggie is forced to send her into orbit aboard the time machine, validating everything he said. Reggie asks Jenny to go back to the future with him once everything blows over, but she refuses to leave the flock no matter how much she likes him. Jake then drags Reggie away and tells him he has a plan to attack the settlers. However, Reggie has become tired of Jake's improbable stories and threatens to leave.

Desperate, Jake tells Reggie that this trip was more about him making up for his failure to save turkey eggs while escaping a factory farm when he was young, maintaining that the Great Turkey convinced him to go through with this. While still reluctant to believe what he said, Reggie still goes along with the plan. They blow up the weapons shack, but Jake inadvertently leaves a gunpowder trail back to the turkeys' hideout. Standish and his men flush the turkeys out from underground, capturing enough for the feast; Broadbeak sacrifices his life to help the remaining turkeys escape. Disgraced, Reggie returns home, where he discovers from S.T.E.V.E. that he is the Great Turkey. He travels back in time to send the young Jake on his mission. Jenny is sworn in as the new chief and orders the remaining turkeys to prepare an attack on the settlers.

Jenny, Jake and Ranger lead the turkeys in an attack on the settlement just as Chief Massasoit and his tribe arrive. Inspired, Reggie goes back in time to stop the attack, inadvertently trapping Standish in the time stream. Through S.T.E.V.E. and the Pizza Dude, Reggie convinces the settlers and Indians that pizza is a more acceptable food than turkeys, taking them off the Thanksgiving menu entirely. Reggie stays with Jenny while Jake takes S.T.E.V.E. in order to look for new adventures.

In the mid-credits, Jake returns moments after leaving Reggie and Jenny. With a chicken and a duck in his wings, Jake starts to tell every turkey present about the turducken.

We saw that it was really funny and more and it was awesome! When it was done we cheered wildly.

Nico: That was awesome!

Lincoln: Yeah it was!

Laney: Sorry I couldn't watch it. I never liked watching TV.

Joey: (British Accent) That's all right luv.

Luna: But I love watching movies like this dudes.

Princess Luna: They sure are awesome.

Princess Celestia: But that Captain Myles Standish was a monster.

Robo Blaze: We should pay Reggie a visit.

Me: Good idea. This is gonna be cool meeting Reggie and his pals. The strange part is that in real life over 400 years ago, Myles Standish was really a Military Strategist and not a hunter.

Lola: Wow.

Vypra: Very interesting.

Nico: What does it say about Captain Myles Standish?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up his info.

---

Captain Myles Standish (simply known as Myles Standish ) is the main antagonist of Reel FX's first animated feature Free Birds .

He was voiced by Colm Meaney who also played the King of Hearts in Alice .

When Reggie and Jake go back in time to the first Thanksgiving to rescue all turkeys, they discover that an entire population is in danger, courtesy of Myles Standish.

One night, when Reggie and Jake screwed up by accidentally making a trail of gunpowder, Standish lights the gunpowder trail and follows it. He blows the turkeys' colony into flames and captures almost all of them. After Jenny's father, the chief, is crushed to death in the fire, she vowed that the turkeys would fight for their freedom. Standish summons an army and prepares to kill the turkeys with a line of cannons, but the time machine that Reggie was driving, blocks his path, leading the menacing villain to be sucked into a huge vortex, being erased from history in the process and being struck by lightning.

---

We gasped in shock.

Lincoln: WHOA! So he is disgracing the Real Myles Standish's really name.

Me: He sure is.

?: Perhaps I can help you all take him down.

A figure came out and it was TURKEY JERK from episode 48 of Season 2 of Mighty Morphin!

---

Turkey Jerk is a turkey monster created by Bulk and Skull but brought to life by Lord Zedd. Determined to learn the secret identities of the Power Rangers, Bulk and Skull decided to create a monster of their own, to occupy the Rangers long enough to unmask them. However, due to Skull getting their monster-making manual mixed up with the Thanksgiving cookbook he had gotten for his mother, the end result was a failed robotic turkey. Seeing someone had done the prep work for making a monster, Lord Zedd decided to bring the monster to life for them. Despite being brought to life by Zedd's magic, Turkey Jerk regarded Bulk and Skull as his parents, wishing to fulfill their goal of unmasking the Rangers. Turkey Jerk possessed a basting-themed ray gun he used in combat against Billy, Adam, and Aisha. He also threw cranberry-themed grenades, at the heroes. The Turkey Jerk monster was soon destroyed by the Power Cannon. The Rangers teleported away before Bulk and Skull had a chance to unmask them.

---

Bulk: Turkey Jerk!

Turkey Jerk: Been a while you two.

Me: I remember you! You were brought to life by Lord Zedd after Bulk and Skull made you and you were sent by Bulk and Skull to learn the identities of the Power Rangers.

Turkey: That's right.

Vypra: Didn't I tell you that his memory was incredible?

Turkey Jerk: You sure did.

Lincoln: You are the perfect Power Rangers monster for today.

Turkey Jerk: Mistress Vypra figured that since I'm a turkey, I can help out on this mission.

Me: Awesome Turkey Jerk.

Nico: I hope you aren't like that silly turkey I saw in that cartoon the Jerky Turkey.

Turkey Jerk: (Laughs) No but that was a funny one.

Me: That was funny. Lets head to the simulator for this.

We cheered and we went to the Simulator.

---

We went to the simulator for an awesome adventure. We were getting ready and we went into the simulator. It activated and we were in the forests of 17th Century Massachusetts.

Firefly: Where are we now?

Me: 17th Century Plymouth, Massachusetts, 1621. This is the time of the 1st Thanksgiving.

Nico: This is so cool. We're back to when America was still in its infancy.

Laney: Yep. When America was still in diapers so to speak.

Applejack: This is gonna be amazing!

Me: Lets find Reggie and his friends.

We walked around in the forest.

Me: You know guys this is a true story but I am also the descendant of William Bradford of the Pilgrims.

Nico: Wow! I didn't know that.

Lincoln: That is so cool! I guess we're going to meet your ancestor here probably.

Me: We just might.

Laney: That is gonna be so cool!

?: WOW!

We saw Reggie and his 17th Century friends.

Me: Reggie and crew.

Reggie: Team Loud Phoenix Storm, It's nice to meet you guys!

Me: Same to you Reggie.

Fluttershy: You are an amazing turkey. I would never eat one like you.

Jared: Me neither. I'm a vegetarian.

Lisa Simpson: Me too.

Reggie: Thank goodness.

Me: Yeah. We came to help you guys take turkeys off the menu.

Reggie: We greatly appreciate it.

Electro: What are you doing out here?

Reggie: We're coming up with a plan to beat Captain Myles Standish.

Me: We can help you all out. And we're going to make that monster that's disgracing the TRUE Myles Standish pay for ruining his image.

Reggie: What do you mean by that?

Me: In the 21st century where we came from Myles Standish was really a Military Strategist and not a hunter.

Reggie: Wow. But why are a bunch of villains and bad guys with you?

Me: Oh it's their day off. We arranged for them to be off on the major holidays of the year and arranged for Lynn's twin sister Lena to be with us as well.

Lena: It's true and I'm so honored to get part of the action even with my condition.

Lynn: You will love it sis.

Reggie: What's wrong with Lena?

Me: Shes… (Taps head) Not right up here.

Lena: But I'm taking medicine for it.

Reggie: Oh I get it.

Me: Yep. We're gonna replace turkeys with our all time favorite: Pizza.

Reggie: Ooh! Perfect!

Poromon: Please tell me we can still eat Turkey at the Estate!

Nico: We can. And we can add pizza as well.

Everyone cheered for that.

Laney: I love pizza!

Lola: ME TOO!

Me: But instead of killing turkeys for our dinner I have the perfect tool for that.

I spun my Magisword bracelet.

Announcer: THANKSGIVING TURKEY MAGISWORD!

Vambre: (British Accent) Ooh nice Magisword.

Me: Thanks. This Magisword makes whole fully cooked Thanksgiving Turkeys without having to kill them to get one.

Nico: Clever.

Vambre: That is genius.

Laney: I like that.

Snake: Dude, you know we already bought turkeys from the grocery store, right? Do we still keep them?

Me: I know. We'll see what we can do about those.

Nico: Yeah.

Manaphy: Me, Poromon, Horsea, and Poliwag can eat the Turkeys we bought to make room for the new ones.

Me: That works. You guys are always hungry.

Laney: Hey Twilight, does Equestria have it's own version of Thanksgiving?

Twilight Sparkle: As a matter of fact we do Laney. It's called the Harvest Festival.

Rainbow Dash: Lots of great food in that one.

Applejack: It's where we give thanks to the great fruits and vegetables of Harvesting Season and we celebrate it with a huge festival.

Lana: Wow. That's really cool.

Me: Lets figure out what Standish is up to and then we'll come up with a plan of attack.

Shiv: (to Manaphy, Poromon, Poliwag, and Manaphy) How about you 4 scout out the area before we go pay Standish a visit?

Poliwag: You got it!

Poromon: Lets go!

They were off and they looked for things through the bushes and trees and were quiet.

Horsea: See anything yet?

Poliwag: Nothing yet.

But then they heard a voice.

They saw CAPTAIN MYLES STANDISH and his crew out on the hunt and they overheard him talking and it was not good.

Later they came back to us.

Poliwag: We found something out!

Me: What is it?

Poliwag: Standish is gonna kill all the turkeys here to give to everyone in Thanksgiving!

We gasped.

Me: He's on the hunt. Now it's time for some butt-kicking!

Dark Spicer turned into Sockin Chicken.

Sockin Chicken: This should be an appropriate form for this mission.

Me: It's perfect Dark.

Eddy: Yeah!

Me: Come on guys. (Cracks Knuckles) It's Butt-Kicking Time!

Eli: Yeah!

Nico: Lets get them!

Applejack: And we can use an entrance from me for it.

Me: Ooh this will be interesting.

May: (to Captain Cold) Snart, did I ever tell you that my ice gun is very similar to yours?

Captain Cold: No you didn't May.

Qin: This is gonna be good.

We went after him.

---

Captain Myles Standish and his crew were hunting. But then a massive rumble was felt.

Standish: What's that?

Then a massive avalanche of apples of all kinds was barreling towards them!

Standish: RUN!

They ran back to the camp and we were surfing on the apples.

Me: YEE-HAW!

Applejack: YEEHAW!

Eli: This is awesome!

Nunnally: YEAH!

We arrived in the camp of the pilgrims and we saw STANDISH!

Emma: You're not killing any turkeys on our watch!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary 6th Ranger Mode!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the 6th Rangers! Troy was the Gold Zeo Ranger, Noah was the Red Quantum Ranger, Jake was the Green Samurai Ranger, Gia was the Lunar Wolf Ranger, Emma was the SPD Shadow Ranger and Orion was the Titanium Ranger.

Me: Lets get them!

Lisa Simpson: You give the Myles Standish we know a bad name!

Me: That's right!

Lincoln: YEAH!

Lincoln fired a blast of lightning at him and electrocuted him all over.

Me: In the name of Team Loud Phoenix Storm…

Dark Spicer: Here's your warning…

Maxxor: By order of the Tribal Alliance…

Tommy Oliver: IT'S MORPHIN TIME!

Winx Club: MAGIC…

Will Vandom: GUARDIANS…

Arkayna: MYSTICONS…

Ripping Friends: IT'S RIPPING TIME!

Numbuh 1: KIDS NEXT DOOR…

Twilight Sparkle: Knights of the Friendship Table…

Optimus Prime: AUTOBOTS…

Starscream: DECEPTICONS…

Optimus Primal: MAXIMALS…

Scorponok: PREDACONS…

Me: YOU ARE HEREBY SENTENCED TO DEATH!

Dark Spicer: YOUR FUCKING ASSES ARE ABOUT TO BE KICKED!

Maxxor: WE'RE TAKING YOU DOWN BY FORCE!

Winx Club: WINX!

Will Vandom: UNITE!

Arkayna: ENERGIZE!

Numbuh 1: BATTLESTATIONS!

Knights of The Friendship Table: HARMONIZE!

Optimus Prime: TRANSFORM AND ROLL OUT!

Starscream: TRANSFORM AND SCOURGE!

Optimus Primal: MAXIMIZE!

Scorponok: TERRORIZE!

We transformed and powered up and we were ready! We went at him. But then a massive vortex of darkness exploded out of the ground and sent Standish crashing into a tree and knocked him out!

Me: WHOA! What is that!?

Eli: Looks like we have a Number appearing!

A figure came out and it was NUMBER 96: DARK MIST!

---

Number 96 (also known as Dark Astral ) is the recurring antagonist in Yu-Gi-Oh! ZEXAL . He is the dark counterpart of Astral.

He was voiced by Marc Thompson.

During the battle between Astral and Don Thousand, a shard of Thousand's malice was trapped inside Astral. It eventually developed into the form of Number 96.

---

Eli: WHOA! It's Number 96: Dark Mist!

Nico: That's Number 96?!

Me: GEEZ! He's a monster of pure darkness!

Eli: And he's the scariest out of all the Numbers.

Lincoln: WHOA!

Laney: I'll have nightmares about that Number for a while!

Varie: He's pure evil!

Lincoln: How did he get like this!?

Eli: He was made like this during the battle with Astral and Don Thousand. A shard of Thousand's Malice was trapped inside Astral and it formed into this monster.

Me: Whoa!

I looked at Astral and I saw the spiritual shard of malice inside Astral.

Me: You're right Eli! I see it!

Danny Phantom: I'll get it out.

Danny went intangible and went inside Astral and got the shard out and he handed it to me. It was a red crystal.

Me: It's a black crystal.

I crushed the crystal and then we all got a massive power boost of incredibly explosive power!

Me: WHOA! That was as strong as taking down 100 quintillion Changelings enhanced 500,000,000,000,000-fold!

Nico: WHOA! That was intense!

Applejack: No kidding!

Me: Lets take him down!

We went at Dark Mist and I punched him in the face and kicked him in his head and fired energy blasts at him and the blasts all hit him all over and blasted him all over the place. Vypra and Lord Drakkon blasted and smashed him all over the place and more. We really let him have it and more.

Laney: Try this one on! BIRD STYLE: TURKEY GOBBLEMANIA!

Laney fired waves of energy and it formed into a massive swarm of turkeys that came after Dark Mist and they pecked and smashed and more all over him.

Sam Manson: I'm a vegetarian! VEGETABLE STYLE: MASHED POTATOES OF CREAMINESS!

Sam Manson fired a massive wave of mashed potatoes and it smashed into Dark Mist and buried him.

Pinkie Pie: This is gonna be fun! BERRY STYLE: CRANBERRY MAYHEM!

Pinkie Pie fired a massive barrage of cranberries and they hit Dark Mist all over the place.

Lena: This is gonna be so much fun! How about this one as well!? GOURD STYLE NINJA ART: PUMPKIN LA BOMBA!

Lena fired numerous pumpkin bombs and they all smashed into Dark Mist and exploded all over.

KRABBBOOOOOOOOMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOMMMMM!
KRABBBBOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMM!
KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOMMMM!

Nico: WHOA! Exploding pumpkins? That was awesome!

Applejack: YEEHAW! That was amazing! Watch this one! FRUIT STYLE: APPLESPLOSION!

Applejack fired a massive wave of apples and they hit Dark Mist and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Vypra: Those were awesome techniques!

Prowl: They sure were. Lets show some teamwork!

Misty (Pokemon): YEAH!

Prowl and Misty both used the Earth Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Prowl's Acid Pellets and Misty's water powers 100-fold.

Brawl and Supernova Zap used the Earth and Equestria Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Brawl's Electron Gun and Supernova Zap's powers and lightning abilities 100-fold.

The explosion destroyed Dark Mist and he turned back into a card and Astral got his memory and Eli picked up the card.

Eli: 10 numbers down 90 more to go.

Captain Myles Standish then came back.

Fluttershy: You just won't learn your lesson!

Applejack: Lets hogtie this monster!

Fluttershy, Jared, Reggie, Lisa Simpson, Apu, Applejack: NATURE IS RESPECTED MEGABLAST!

They fired blasts of energy and elemental fire and the blasts all hit Standish and exploded.

The blasts completely obliterated him in an instant!

Me: YEAH!

Nico: Captain Myles Standish you have failed this world.

Me: He sure has.

?: (British Accent) What happened out here.

We then saw my ancestor William Bradford himself.

I went up to him.

William Bradford: You look familiar to me.

Me: That's because we are family. My name is James Dean Knudson and I am your descendent from 399 years into the future.

William Bradford: Really!?

Me: I am not kidding you. We are family.

I showed him his ring that I am wearing on my left middle finger.

William Bradford saw the same ring.

William Bradford: We ARE family. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here ancestor.

We got to having a nice talk and we had a good chat.

We got another Number and we had an awesome Thanksgiving! We went back home.

Nico: This was the best Thanksgiving ever.

Me: You said it buddy. Lets go have dinner.

We did so and we had turkey thanks to the Thanksgiving Dinner Magisword and we had pizza and more.

Reggie: (To the viewers) I hope you all have an amazing Thanksgiving and eat lots of turkey. But not like me.

Me: (To the viewers) Happy Thanksgiving to you all. Now we have to get ready for Black Friday. See you all later.

I winked at the camera and a turkey irised in around me and "Happy Thanksgiving 2020" appeared around it.

THE END

Another fanfiction complete.

Happy Thanksgiving to you all. Free Birds is one of my favorite movies from 2013 and it was awesome and really funny! Owen Wilson did a great job in that movie and it was so funny. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this one. Thanks guys. Now we go after the Number cards at random and we're going to be facing Number 87: Queen of the Night and this will be a battle with flowers as our friend Cookie is possessed by her. Next chapter is for The Flintstones, the modern stoneage family and we're going to face Grandma Dynamite and stop her explosive crime spree.

See you all tomorrow.

The Modern Stone Age Family

Gotham Royal York Mall, we were there for the most epic Black Friday Shopping Spree ever. Today was the Day After Thanksgiving, November 27th, 2020 A.K.A. Black Friday, the most hectic and most chaotic shopping day of the year.

We were standing in a waling inside the mall at 12:55 AM and it was gonna be hectic. People were standing outside the stores and it was gonna be one mother of a shopping spree.

Atem: It's always so crowded on Black Friday.

Eli: It always gets that way father. Numbers of people come to the mall every day after Thanksgiving and it is always hectic.

Me: But the deals we get on Black Friday are always worth it.

Lori: They literally are.

AncientMermaidmon: It's still so cool that you all can do all this.

Me: The day after Thanksgiving is ALWAYS hectic this time of year and night. When those doors open all Hell will break loose as we go after the best deals ever.

Nico: I heard that we get a special discount only for those on Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Yep. It's crazy but because of our love for Black Friday, we get 99% off everything.

Lincoln: That is an amazing discount!

Rainbow Dash: Awesome!

Luna: You know it dude.

Lola: I can't wait till everything opens!

Me: We only have 3 minutes left.

Sly Cooper: Maybe when no one's looking, I can steal some of the stuff we're going to buy.

Me: Sly you said there's honor and no fun stealing from ordinary people.

Sly Cooper: I'm just kidding J.D. and yeah you're right.

Applejack: I think it's really cool that your family was that amazing over the years Sly.

Apple Bloom: It sure was.

Sly Cooper: Thanks Applejack.

Me: 30 seconds left everyone.

Armada Starscream: Let's get as much stuff as we can find!

Me: Lets do it! Operation: Black Friday Shopping Extravaganza is a go! FAN OUT!

Eli: CHARGE!

We fanned out and went to all the stores. It was gonna be one wild shopping spree.

When those doors to the stores opened, it was hectic. We rushed into the stores when they opened up like a stampede of mad elephants and we were buying everything. Clothes, comics, games, electronics, video games, TV's, jewelry, everything all for great deals.

We later regrouped 5 hours later and it was brutal.

Me: (Panting) Wow!

Jetfire: (Australian Accent) What did you guys get?

Lori: We got a bunch of new clothes.

Leni: Jewelry.

Luna: Music equipment.

Luan: Novelty items.

Lynn: Sports gear.

Lincoln: Comics, video games, and toys.

Me: It was really chaotic. But we got a lot of great deals on all sorts of stuff.

Nico: 99% off was really worth it. We only spent $100.00 out of all this.

Me: Some of the stuff was free to us.

Nico: That's true.

Pinkie Pie: I got a lot of party stuff!

Rainbow Dash: I bought all the great Daring Do Books and more.

Laney: Forensic Psychology for me.

Rarity: I bought all of the Shadow Spade Books and I also bought the most exquisite dress making materials as well as a lot of jewels.

Me: Wow. We bought lots of things huh. But man look at us. We're a mess.

We looked at ourselves and saw that our clothes were torn and more.

Me: Don't worry I can fix us up when we get back.

We saw that it was the Crack of Dawn.

Me: Lets get home guys. I'm exhausted.

Nico: Me too.

We went back home and we went to sleep.

We were so exhausted and tired.

We got some sleep.

Later we were getting ready to visit an awesome place that is part of my favorite cartoon series: The Flintstones. We were getting ready to head to Bedrock in the year 10,000 B.C. It was gonna be so awesome!

---

Bedrock is a fictional prehistoric city which is home to the citizens (known as Bedrockians or Bedrockers) and characters of the original series, The Flintstones and the rest of the franchise.

Though the first two seasons' opening credits of the original series stated the town's population as only 2,500 people (though it did swell to 30,000 in a dream sequence in the episode of the sixth season, " Rip Van Flintstone "), Bedrock was generally presented as a medium-sized American city, with all the amenities of such, but with a "prehistoric" twist. For instance, dinosaurs were seen being used as cranes at the town's most well-known employer, "Slate Rock and Gravel Company" (also known as "Rockhead and Quarry Cave Construction Company" in the series' earlier episodes).

Bedrock is the county seat of fictional Cobblestone County, and stated in the episode of the first-season, " The Tycoon " to be 200 feet below sea level; presumably, the nearby town of Red Rock was located in Cobblestone County as well. However, no further information was ever given for any of these locations, besides being set in a prehistoric version of the United States. Near Bedrock lies Granitetown, given in one episode as the one-time childhood hometown of Barney Rubble and Fred's boss, Mr. Slate.

The climate of Bedrock is somewhat undetermined, since different Flintstones episodes and media have portrayed it differently. Palm trees and cycads are common yard trees, suggesting a warm climate. However, episodes and movies set at Christmas time depicted plenty of snow. Sometimes the wilderness on Bedrock's outskirts appears to be desert-like, whereas at other times it resembles a tropical/subtropical jungle (as shown in the opening scenes of the 1966 animated film, The Man Called Flintstone ). The people of Bedrock tend to be fairly friendly, if not without having various quirks. The denizens of Bedrock have a strong sense of civic spirit and tend to participate in various charities, parades, and so forth. The city is home to a number of service organizations, the best known of which (in the context of the spin-offs) is the Loyal Order of Water Buffaloes (known as "The Loyal Order of Dinosaurs" in the series' earlier episodes), which counts among its membership including Fred and his friend, Barney.

Law and Government

The city's police department helps protect the residents; for a period of time, Fred and Barney were members as part-time police officers along with their partner and brief pet, Shmoo in the spin-off, The Flintstone Comedy Show . Also, their headquarters is the Bedrock Police Station.

Bedrock has also been shown as having a volunteer fire department, although the episode in which the volunteer fire department (just as introduced in the episode, " Arthur Quarry's Dance Class ") was introduced suggests the uselessness of such a service in a city of stone buildings; instead, its members use it as an excuse to create a social club. However several other episodes feature a more traditional full-time firefighting service. Also located near Bedrock is Camp Millstone Army Base, where Fred and his best friend Barney Rubble were stationed after they were mistakenly inducted into the Army in the episode of the first season, "The Astra' Nuts" .

Bedrock's city government played a role in the episode, " Mayor May Not ", from The Pebbles and Bamm-Bamm Show where Pebbles became the city's temporary student mayor for a week.

Regarding health care, Bedrock had the Rockopedic Hospital, where Pebbles was born.

Media

For a town its size, Bedrock has a sizeable concentration of media. Bedrock has at least several radio stations (one of which has the call letters "BDRX"), several television stations, and several newspapers. One of Bedrock's TV stations is an affiliate of ABC (the "Abbadabba Broadcasting Company"). Later spin-offs show the people of Bedrock also enjoy cable and satellite television service.

Television programs produced in Bedrock included the cooking program, The Happy Housewife Show (which, for a time, starred Wilma) and the teen dance program Shinrock (from " Shinrock A Go-Go "). Other favorite programs of Bedrock citizens, though not produced there, include such fare as Peek-a-Boo Camera (from the episode of the same name) and variety program The Ed Sulleystone Show (from " Itty Bitty Fred ").

One of Bedrock's newspapers is The Daily Granite, edited by Lou Granite in the Captain Caveman segments of The Flintstone Comedy Show . For a time, The Daily Granite employed Wilma Flintstone and Betty Rubble as reporters. Another newspaper is The Daily Slab (which usually ended up clobbering Fred after being "delivered" by Arnold the Newsboy).

There are also two recording companies located in Bedrock, the Keen Teen Record Company and the Flippo Record Company.

Cultural and Educational Institutions

In terms of educational features, Bedrock apparently has two schools, Bedrock Elementary School which Fred and his childhood friends along with Philo Quartz attended in the past from The Flintstone Kids and Bedrock High School, alma mater of Fred Flintstone, his wife Wilma, and later his daughter Pebbles along with her friends, Moonrock Crater, Wiggy Rockstone and Penny Pillar.

Universities in or near Bedrock include Prinstone University, as well as its arch rival school Shale University; both universities are members of the Poison Ivy League.

Bedrock is also not far from Oceanrock Aquarium, home of Dripper the Sealasaurus.

Businesses

Businesses in Bedrock include bowling alleys, pool halls (including Boulder Dan's, which Fred and Barney almost bought), health clubs, hotels, supermarkets (including Safestone's), one catering service-Cobblestone Caterers (as the owner proclaimed, "we're the only caterer in town!"), a costume store, and an amusement park.

Several department stores service Bedrock; among them include Macyrock's (where Fred once worked as a department store Santa Claus during the Christmas season including " Christmas Flintstone " for example) and Gimblestone's (where Pebbles briefly worked as a teenager). Bedrock also features the Pyrite Advertising Agency, where Pebbles works as an adult in I Yabba-Dabba Do! .

In the first season episode, " The Tycoon " (in which Fred switches places with his double, J.P. Gotrocks), Bedrock is introduced by a narrator as having "a butcher, a baker and a pizza pie maker."

Entertainment

In terms of entertainment, Bedrock features a drive-in movie theater where films such as The Monster (as seen on the marquee in the original series' opening and closing credits) and Tar Wars (produced by Gorge Lucas, as seen in the 1994 live-action movie) would play. Other features include the amphitheater, the Bedrock Bowl and several nightclubs, ranging from middle-class to high-end exclusive clubs for the city's wealthy residents. The 1994 live-action movie featured the exclusive nightclub Cavern on the Green, featuring its house band, "The B.C. 52s".

In the episode, " The Big Bank Robbery ", at the other end of the scale, there was The Poiple Dinosaur, a dive located by the wharf that was known for attracting seedy, criminal types.

Dining

Bedrock features plenty of dining options, including a drive-in restaurant serving brontosaurus ribs (as seen in the original series' closing credits), as well as several diners.

The two live-action films also showed Bedrock with two fast-food restauants, including RocDonald's and Bronto King.

Bedrock also has a number of upscale restaurants, including the Rockadero, Maison-LaRock and Le Chateau Rockinbleau.

Sports

Bedrock has fielded a major league baseball team, the Giants (though in an earlier episode the team is known as the Boulders). The 1981 primetime special, " Wind-Up Wilma " also shows Bedrock has a baseball team named the Dodgers.

Bedrock also features a professional football team, the Brontos.

Boxing matches are also popular in Bedrock. The episode in the third season, " Nuthin' But the Tooth " features Fred and Barney trying to see a match featuring boxer Floyd Patterstone.

Nico: This is gonna be so awesome! I can't believe we're gonna go meet the Flintstones.

Lincoln: I know. They're one of my favorite shows.

Lana: Mine too bro.

Lola: Most of the people around the world love the Flintstones.

Nico: They sure do.

Me: I know. From September 30th, 1960 to April 1st, 1966 they were so popular. And they are still popular to this day because of our favorite breakfast cereal Fruity and Cocoa Pebbles.

Lily: Those are my favorites too.

Laney: Yeah they are.

Lynn Sr.: I haven't watched the Flintstones in a long time guys.

Rita: Me neither. They are so awesome!

Linka: Yeah they are.

Me: Just about ready. Are you all ready to head out?

Everyone: YEAH!

Artie Ziff, Stinky Butt, the U-Foes, Bronze Kneecap, Dirty Bubble and Knightbrace all appeared.

Artie Ziff: Can me, Stinky Butt, the U-Foes, Bronze Kneecap, Dirty Bubble, and Knightbrace come with you guys to Bedrock?

Me: Absolutely. But first we need to make a pit stop in the Everfree Forest to recruit Zecora.

X-Ray: Who is Zecora?

Twilight Sparkle: She's a zebra that we know. Her potion books are what Apple Bloom is learning from.

Me: She's also an amazing healer from what we were told.

Laney: This is gonna be cool.

We were off to the Everfree Forest.

---

The Everfree Forest is a wild wooded area on the outskirts of Ponyville that is introduced in Friendship is Magic, part 2. It is presented as a mysterious place that is home to a variety of creatures and animals, and it possesses a quality that allows plants and animals to thrive without pony intervention, which ponies consider "unnatural". It is also where Zecora makes her residence and contains other locations such as the Castle of the Two Sisters and the Tree of Harmony.

The Everfree Forest is first introduced in Friendship is Magic, part 2, when Twilight Sparkle reads the book The Elements of Harmony: A Reference Guide . It specifies that the Elements of Harmony's last known location is in the ancient Castle of the Two Sisters, and that the castle itself is located in what is now known as the Everfree Forest. Twilight Sparkle and her friends enter the forest in order to retrieve the Elements.

When the ponies venture for the first time into the forest, Applejack surmises that "It ain't natural; folks say it don't work the same as Equestria". In Bridle Gossip, Applejack, Fluttershy, and Rainbow Dash elaborate that the plants grow on their own, animals take care of themselves, and clouds move without pony intervention.

Granny Smith's flashback of the Everfree Forest.

Fluttershy, who lives in a cottage near the edge of the forest, tells the Cutie Mark Crusaders in Stare Master that the forest is "much too dangerous" and is "filled with far too many strange creatures". These include timberwolves, the manticore, a notable sea serpent, Ursas, parasprites, dragons, and the cockatrice. Timberwolves are shown in both Family Appreciation Day and Spike at Your Service, while the rest are respectively featured in Friendship is Magic, part 2, Boast Busters, Swarm of the Century, Owl's Well That Ends Well and Stare Master. The abundance of monsters explains why the ponies are wary of the fact that Zecora makes her home in the Everfree Forest, citing it as one of the reasons they fear her in Bridle Gossip.

In Boast Busters, Trixie lies that she saved Hoofington from an ursa major that came from the Everfree Forest.

The forest is mentioned more than once as a place of banishment. When Rainbow Dash panics over her impending performance in Sonic Rainboom, she fears that she will be banished into the Everfree Forest for her failure. Similarly, in A Bird in the Hoof, Twilight suggests that she and Fluttershy will be banished and possibly imprisoned in the Everfree Forest for kidnapping Princess Celestia's pet phoenix, Philomena.

The Everfree Forest also contains many types of flowers, poison joke being among them. In Bridle Gossip, Zecora cures Twilight Sparkle and her friends by using medicinal plants.

Season two

Granny Smith mentions in a flashback in Family Appreciation Day that she ventured into the Everfree Forest one night when she was young and discovered zap apples. Shortly after, she was chased back to her farm by timberwolves.

Season three

The Mirror Pond.

In the episode Too Many Pinkie Pies, Pinkie Pie ventures into the Everfree Forest to look for a magical pond that she recalls from a nursery rhyme. She pushes through dense brambles and unexpectedly falls down a hole but ends up in an underground cavern that houses the Mirror Pool. She recites, "And into her own reflection she stared, yearning for one whose reflection she shared, and solemnly sweared not to be scared at the prospect of being doubly mared!" and steps through the surface of the pond, successfully cloning herself. This process continues until there are a sizable number of clones, who start overwhelming Pinkie's friends. When all the clones are sent back, Twilight seals the entrance to the Mirror Pool with a boulder.[1]

In the episode Magic Duel, Twilight trains in the forest with Zecora in order to defeat Trixie after she loses to her thanks to Trixie's Alicorn Amulet.

In Spike at Your Service, Spike accidentally enters the Everfree Forest and is attacked by Timberwolves, and saved by Applejack.

Season four

In season four's two-part premiere, the Everfree Forest begins to grow out of control, causing bramble vines to overrun Ponyville. To prevent the vines from overrunning all of Equestria, Twilight and her friends return the Elements of Harmony to the Tree of Harmony, which lies in the heart of the Everfree Forest. It is later revealed that the vines are the work of Discord, who planted plunderseeds long ago when he first fought Celestia and Luna. The magic of the Tree of Harmony kept the vines from growing properly over the centuries, and it was only recently that the spell was weakened enough for the vines to grow outside the forest. With the Elements returned to the Tree, the protective spell is reinforced and the vines destroyed.

In Castle Mane-ia, the main cast delves deep into the Everfree Forest and head to the ancient Castle of the Royal Pony Sisters. The Castle and the Everfree Forest are seen again in Inspiration Manifestation, Twilight's Kingdom - Part 1, and Twilight's Kingdom - Part 2.

Season five

In an alternate timeline in The Cutie Re-Mark - Part 2, Zecora uses the Everfree Forest as a base for her resistance against the changeling invasion. Queen Chrysalis finds the hideout and engages Zecora in combat, forcing Twilight Sparkle and Spike to flee.

Season six

In Flutter Brutter, Fluttershy's brother Zephyr Breeze attempts to live on his own in the Everfree Forest after she kicks him out of her cottage. In 28 Pranks Later, Rainbow Dash scares Fluttershy and her animals friends to prank her as they walk through the forest at night.

Season seven

In It Isn't the Mane Thing About You, Rarity and Pinkie Pie travel through the Everfree Forest in order to reach Zecora's home. In A Health of Information, Fluttershy and Zecora visit a swamp in the Everfree Forest to collect crisscross moss. After getting sprayed with pollen from a lilypad flower, Zecora contracts Swamp Fever.

Season eight

In School Daze - Part 2, the Everfree Forest can briefly be seen around the Castle of the Two Sisters as the party cannon is used to blast away puckwudgies after they attack the Young Six. In Molt Down, Spike, Rarity, and Zecora get attacked by a giant roc while visiting the latter in the Everfree Forest. Spike eventually defeats the Roc after completing the molt effect. In The Mean 6, Twilight and her friends (including Starlight Glimmer) make their way through the forest in order to get to the camp site Twilight set up by the Tree of Harmony. Queen Chrysalis uses several of the forest's trees as part of a spell to create copies of Twilight and her friends, seeking out the Tree of Harmony in order to steal the Elements of Harmony.

Season nine

In The Beginning of the End - Part 1, Queen Chrysalis plots revenge against Twilight Sparkle and her friends for stealing her kingdom in the forest. In The Beginning of the End - Part 2, the destruction of the Tree of Harmony in the prior episode causes the forest to start growing out of control. Twilight and her friends attempt to deal with it, and are relieved by the arrival of Celestia, Luna, and Star Swirl the Bearded. The three take over containing the plant life, with Star Swirl revealing that he had filled a similar role before the Tree of Harmony's creation. In Uprooted, the Young Six try to build a tribute to the Tree of Harmony in the cave inside the forest.

In Student Counsel, Starlight Glimmer and her friends journey through the forest in hopes of finding the missing Silverstream. In Between Dark and Dawn, Celestia and Luna help a lost Filly Guide troop when they get lost in the forest by blasting a path to their campsite. Celestia and Luna later visit the forest during their vacation and split up. Celestia gets lost in the forest, but eventually reunites with Luna. In The Last Crusade, the Cutie Mark Crusaders unsuccessfully stage a fake "banshee beast" sighting in the forest to convince Scootaloo's parents to let her stay in Ponyville. In She Talks to Angel, Fluttershy in Angel's body runs through the forest to Zecora's house to have her switch back their bodies. In Angel's body, she is incapable of communicating with Spike and Twilight and narrowly escapes being attacked by an eagle. Upon arriving, Zecora also fails to understand her.

Nico: So what is Zecora's Story?

Twilight Sparkle: Well when she came to Ponyville, we didn't show praise to her.

Twilight Sparkle went over her history.

---

Zecora is a female zebra who resides in a hut in the Everfree Forest and first appears in Bridle Gossip. Initially believed to be an evil enchantress by the terrified populace of Ponyville, she later befriends the ponies and frequently helps them out with her knowledge of magical ailments. She speaks with a strong African-esque accent, forming rhyming couplets with all her sentences.

Zecora first appears in Bridle Gossip standing in Ponyville and digging at the ground with her hoof. Due to her scary appearance, the ponies in town all hide from her indoors. Twilight Sparkle and her friends spy on her from inside Sugarcube Corner while she visits the town. Twilight tells her friends that Zecora is a zebra and that she comes from "a faraway land." Her mysterious demeanor and appearance lead to widespread rumors that she is an evil witch, and Pinkie Pie even sings a song about it.

Apple Bloom decides to find out more about Zecora on her own and goes after her, making the six main characters venture into the forest. There they find Apple Bloom but unwittingly wander into a patch of poison joke and receive a cryptic warning from Zecora about the blue flowers, which according to her are "not a joke." However, Applejack and the other ponies ignore this warning, yell at Zecora, and warn her to stay away from them.

The next morning, the ponies find out they have various ailments. With the exception of Twilight, they suspect that Zecora has put a curse on them. Apple Bloom follows Zecora into the forest again and meets her at her hut, where she befriends her and helps her gather ingredients to cure the ailments. They secretly witness her reciting a chant while brewing a soup. The ponies misinterpret Zecora muttering to herself that her soup has the perfect temperature for ponies and break into her hut. When the ponies come in and begin to knock things over, Zecora panics and shouts something in her native tongue. Rainbow Dash knocks over the cauldron, leaving Zecora stunned as her potion spills over the floor. Twilight begins to accuse Zecora of cursing her, and Zecora responds indignantly to Twilight destroying her home and making wild accusations. The conflict escalates to Zecora and Twilight butting heads until Apple Bloom arrives and clears up the situation. Twilight apologizes for her behavior and helps Zecora brew another batch of potion. Zecora and the main characters become close friends and Twilight takes her into town to confront the townsponies, which causes a panic when Zecora enters the town with the main ponies. The ponies add the herbal remedy to a bath at the local spa to revert the effects of the poison joke, and Zecora gains more respect from the community.

Zecora next appears meditating in her hut in the episode Swarm of the Century by balancing on her head on top of a bamboo pole. Twilight Sparkle seeks her aid in ridding Ponyville of a parasprite infestation. While Zecora recognizes the parasprites, she does not know how to get rid of them and simply states that the town is doomed.

Zecora is mentioned in Stare Master, where Twilight Sparkle states that she intends to visit Zecora for some of her favorite tea. However, Zecora does not physically appear in the episode.

Season two

She makes a brief appearance in The Return of Harmony Part 2 in one of Twilight's flashbacks, showing the ending scene of Bridle Gossip.

The episode Luna Eclipsed shows her talent as a narrator of spooky stories. Introduced by Mayor Mare and wearing a creepy costume, she tells a variant of the legend of Nightmare Moon. Zecora showcases magical capabilities as she throws some powder, which generates luminescent and moved illustrations of the story she is telling.

In The Cutie Pox, Zecora shows up shortly after Apple Bloom chips her tooth and takes her to her house, where she creates a special brew to mend the tooth. Hearing of Apple Bloom's cutie mark-related troubles, Zecora tells her she must have patience. After Apple Bloom's tooth is fixed, she subtly suggests using a potion to give her a cutie mark, but Zecora says not even a potion can make a cutie mark appear. Zecora goes on to make a potion for a rooster who lost its ability to crow using a special flower called Heart's Desire.

Later on in the episode, Zecora enters Ponyville, believing the residents are still scared of her. Twilight Sparkle and Applejack explain to her that Apple Bloom has the Cutie Pox. Zecora explains that she had come to Ponyville to ask Apple Bloom about her missing Heart's Desire. She says that the cure for the Cutie Pox lies within the Seeds of Truth, which only grow if a pony speaks the truth about something they have lied about. When Apple Bloom tells the truth, the seeds grow into a flower that cures Apple Bloom once she ingests it. Apple Bloom apologizes to Zecora for stealing the Heart's Desire and asks if she can still visit her; Zecora accepts her apology and says she is always welcome to visit.

In Secret of My Excess, Zecora diagnoses Spike to be maturing, which she says is fueled by his greed. She further warns that as Spike gets more things, he will grow bigger, which will make him want more things. Zecora finishes the warning by telling Twilight Sparkle to stop this cycle or Spike will become a monster.

In A Friend in Deed, Pinkie Pie wishes her a "happy day-after-your-birthday".

Season three

Zecora reappears in Magic Duel, in which she teaches some magic to Twilight Sparkle to help her beat Trixie. At one point, she shows an example of her skills by conjuring water in her cup. In the end, Zecora helps Twilight formulate a plan to beat Trixie. After Trixie is defeated, Zecora takes the Alicorn Amulet that Trixie was wearing and "puts it back in hiding where it belongs".

She later appears in Just for Sidekicks helping Spike with the pets he is looking after. Spike grudgingly pays Zecora for her help with a gem, which she promptly donates to charity, hoping to teach the baby dragon a lesson about generosity.

Zecora is later mentioned by Spike in Magical Mystery Cure. He suggests using Zecora's Seeds of Truth in order to return Twilight's friends' cutie marks back to normal. Twilight brushes the idea off, saying that it would not work. During Celestia's Ballad, Zecora is shown in a flashback.

Season four

Zecora appears in the season four premiere Princess Twilight Sparkle - Part 1 and Princess Twilight Sparkle - Part 2. In the premiere, she is forced to leave her home in the Everfree Forest due to its overgrowth. She also helps Twilight find out what's going on by giving her a magic potion that allows her to view past events.

Zecora makes an appearance in Filli Vanilli, helping Big McIntosh regain his voice. She also assists Fluttershy in making her voice like it was in Bridle Gossip in order for her to sing in Big McIntosh's place. She also appears in Twilight's Kingdom - Part 2 amazed at seeing Twilight's new castle.

Season five

Zecora appears in Slice of Life on the balcony by the Cutie Mark Crusaders and Big McIntosh during Cranky Doodle Donkey and Matilda's wedding.

In What About Discord?, Twilight requests a potion from Zecora in the hopes of breaking a spell that she believes Discord has cast on her friends. In The Cutie Re-Mark - Part 2, due to Starlight Glimmer and Twilight altering the timeline, Zecora becomes the leader of a band of savage ponies paranoid of changelings. She realizes that time has been altered after meeting Twilight and Spike, and she later engages Queen Chrysalis in battle when the changelings discover her camp, buying Twilight the time she needs to go back and restore history.

Season six

Zecora appears in On Your Marks helping the Cutie Mark Crusaders make potions in her hut. In The Fault in Our Cutie Marks, Gabby helps Zecora make potions during Find the Purpose in Your Life.

Season seven

In Celestial Advice and Fame and Misfortune, Zecora appears in the group photo from the show's opening on Twilight's mirror.

In It Isn't the Mane Thing About You, Zecora gives Pinkie Pie a magical remover potion to clean up a mess of silly string at Sugarcube Corner and Rarity a sudsy shampoo to clean the string out of her mane for a magazine photo shoot. Unfortunately, the two bottles get mixed up, causing most of Rarity's mane to fall out. Zecora tries to make a cure to fix Rarity's mane in time for the shoot, but her lack of expertise in mane-mending magic prevents her from doing so.

In A Health of Information, Zecora comes down with a terrible disease called Swamp Fever, for which a cure has not been discovered. She spends most of the episode bedridden, and as her condition worsens, she even stops rhyming. Fluttershy eventually finds a cure for the disease and heals Zecora.

Zecora is mentioned in Marks and Recreation when Apple Bloom tells Rumble that she sometimes does potion-making with Zecora despite what her cutie mark represents.

Season eight

In Molt Down, Zecora helps Spike with his irritating stone scales and body odor as a result of his molt and Rarity with her loss of hearing. In the process, she and Spike are terrorized by a roc that is drawn to the smell of Spike's molting. After Spike undergoes a metamorphosis and gains wings, he and Twilight save Zecora and Rarity from the roc.

In A Rockhoof and a Hard Place, Zecora appears in a flashback, where Rockhoof brings her an entire tree instead of just a few leaves as she requested. However, the tree turns out to have a hive full of bees, who sting Zecora multiple times.

Season nine

Zecora is mentioned by Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle in The Last Crusade. She also makes a cameo appearance in Between Dark and Dawn during Lotta Little Things. In 2, 4, 6, Greaaat, Rainbow Dash asks Zecora for help on her cheer squad, but Rainbow thought she wasn't helpful so she just got a rhyming dictionary from the school library.

In She Talks to Angel, Zecora helps Fluttershy and Angel with their relationship problems by giving them a potion that causes them to switch bodies. She also brings what she believes to be a smoke-breathing gecko to the Sweet Feather Sanctuary but it later turns out to be a fire lizard.

In The Ending of the End - Part 2, Zecora takes part in the final battle against Queen Chrysalis, Lord Tirek, and Cozy Glow. In The Last Problem, Zecora attends Twilight Sparkle's coronation ceremony. She also briefly appears in Pinkie Pie's group shot during The Magic of Friendship Grows.

---

We were amazed.

Me: Wow.

Laney: That is amazing that she knows so much about potions and all that.

Me: Yeah and it's so cool how she talks in rhymes like that. Very mysterious and enigmatic.

Nico: But cool.

Fluttershy was shaking in fright.

Lana: Fluttershy I know you're scared of this forest but there's nothing to be afraid of here.

Lincoln: That's right Fluttershy, it all grows here because it's natural.

Fluttershy: Maybe you're right.

We arrived at Zecora's place and it was a tree house.

Laney: Wow. She lives in a tree.

Me: Reminds me of like how the Witch Doctors of the Florida Everglades live. No offense Mage Meadowbrook.

Mage Meadowbrook: None taken.

We went up to the door and Apple Bloom opened it and we went in.

Zecora was working on a potion and she saw us.

Zecora: Ah Team Loud Phoenix Storm, welcome to my stay. To what do I owe you on this wonderful visit today?

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you Zecora. We heard amazing things about you. Also we came to recruit you for our new team on Team Loud Phoenix Storm: The Knights of the Friendship Table.

Zecora: An amazing honor to join you this would be. I graciously accept joining you for all to see.

Nico: Wow. That was easy.

Lincoln: It sure was.

We were later off to Bedrock.

Lucy opened a portal and we had arrived in Bedrock.

Me: Wow.

Cybertron Scourge: So this is Bedrock? Almost reminds me of Jungle Planet.

Me: It sure does. But this is the year 10,000 B.C. This is the world of The Flintstones, one of the most popular cartoons of the mid 20th Century.

Lana: And Fred Flintstone and Barney Rubble always went after Fred's Fruity and Cocoa Pebbles.

Me: That is always really funny.

We walked around and we saw all kinds of amazing places from the Stone Age and more and it was really cool.

Varie: Wow. This is so cool.

We then arrived at the home of Fred, Wilma and Pebbles Flintstone.

Me: Here we are guys.

We went up to the door and I knocked on the door.

The door opened and Answering it was none other than Fred Flintstone himself. And in his house was Wilma, Pebbles, Betty, Barney and Bam-Bam.

Fred Flintstone: Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Me: Fred Flintstone.

Fred Flintstone: It's nice to meet you guys!

Totally Spies Alice: Same here, Fred.

Fred Flintstone: It's such an honor to meet all of you.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you too Fred and you too Wilma.

Pebbles: Wow. It's awesome to meet you all.

Lori picked up Pebbles:

Lori: You too Pebbles.

Barney Rubble: Yeah you guys burn up the bad guys! (Laughs)

Luan: (Laughs) Good one!

Me: That laugh of yours Barney always cracks me up.

Bam-Bam: But you guys are so awesome at what you do.

Nico: We don't like to brag.

Ironclad: (lies down of Fred's coach) I could get used to this.

Vector: Don't get too comfortable, Ironclad. We still have to find out if there's trouble here.

Fred: Yeah there's always trouble here.

Billy: You know Fred, I found you in Endsville at one time.

Fred: Really Billy?

Billy: Yeah you were frozen in ice.

Me: Wow.

Long Haul: Hey, Fred. If you want, me and the other Constructicons can help improve your house.

Fred: We would like that. But we don't have much money.

Me: We do most of our things for free because we love to help people.

Nico: Absolutely. Constucticons get to work.

Long Haul: You got it boss!

They got to work on his house and turned it into a massive mansion fit for a king!

Fred: Wow! You guys are great!

Me: So we have seen. But it is a nice house.

Stinky Butt: (to Billy) Did you really meet Fred once?

Mandy: It's true.

Grim: Because of that incident, show and tell was cancelled for a week.

Me: Whoa.

Laney: That's horrible.

Twilight Sparkle: That's just what I was gonna say Laney.

Lana: Wow.

Me: That's because Fred was 12,000 years out of his time and he woke up in the 21st century.

Fred: Wow.

Undermine: Fred, are there any enemies of yours we should know about?

Fred: Hmm. Lets see.

He began thinking. But then…

KRABOOM!

We heard an explosion and we saw the cops chasing an old woman that was armed with sticks of Dynamite! It was GRANDMA DYNAMITE!

---

Grandma Dynamite (disguised as "Dinah" a housekeeper) is a bank robber, the main villain and a one-time character of the episode, " Foxy Grandma ", featured in the third season of the original series, The Flintstones .

Background

She is a dynamite-throwing and bank-robbing granny who holes up at the Flintstone home, posing as "Dinah", a housekeeper for Fred and Wilma.

Physical Appearance

Grandma Dynamite is a short and slender woman with fair skin, a large nose, white hair and a pair of glasses. She wears a short-sleeved loin-cloth dress with a brown button on top and a black hat with a yellow stripe and a flower on top. During a robbery, she also wears a blue mask.

---

KRABOOM!

Me: WHOA!

Knightbrace: Who's that?

Fred Flintstone: That's Grandma Dynamite! She is the notorious bank robber that blows up banks with dynamite!

Lana: WHOA! I remember her!

Fred Flintstone: You do Lana?

Lana: We watched you all the time in the 21st Century on TV.

Lola: Yeah and you guys are awesome!

Quake Woman: (to Bomb Man) She'd give you a run for your money.

Bomb Man: She sure would.

Blast Man: No kidding!

Dirty Bubble: Let's be positive about this. There's a small chance she could trip and the cops can easily arrest her.

Fred Flintstone: Yep and she and her grandson are notorious partners in crimes. They robbed 6 banks here in Bedrock.

Laney: Whoa!

Me: It's time for this old timer to learn that crime doesn't pay!

Nico: Yeah!

Me: Lets go!

We stood in her way.

Energon Scorponok: Hey! Put down those dynamite sticks before someone gets hurt!

Grandma Dynamite: Try and make me freaks!

She lit a stick and threw it at us!

Me: Incoming!

Eli used the Force and sent the stick of Dynamite back and it slammed into their car and then…

KRABOOM!

The stick of Dynamite exploded and destroyed their car!

Nico: Nice one Eli!

Eli: Thanks.

Bronze Kneecap: Don't make me use this! (smirks) Or do. Either way, you're getting hurt.

Me: Normally I should respect my elders, but in this case I'll make an exception!

Eli: Yeah! It's Butt-Kicking Time!

But then we saw Pete, Control Freak, I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R., the Demon Sorcerer of the Mountain - Po Kong, Carmen Dillo and Nergal appeared.

Me: Pete, Control Freak, I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R., Po Kong, Carmen Dillo and Nergal.

Control Freak: Surprised to see us here huh?

Nergal: Indeed.

Bowser Jr. just gave Control Freak a list.

I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R.: What's that list for?

Bowser Jr.: (solemnly) It's a list of all the monsters Dad ever use. I'd like Control Freak to use his remote to summon those monsters in his battles in honor Dad.

Control Freak: Wow. I don't know what to say.

Nicole: It'll make our usual battles more interesting.

Nico: I think all our favorite characters have one.

Samus: We sure do.

Fox: We made a book of ideas for you.

Pete: (to PJ) Hey, son! Did you miss me?

P.J.: DAD!

P.J. went over and hugged his father.

Lincoln: Glad you're out of prison Pete.

Goofy: Glad you're back on the outside Pete.

Pete: Good to be back Goof. And Vypra is a much better boss than Maleficent was. (To 2014's Maleficent) No offense.

Maleficent 2014: (British Accent) None taken. But I'm glad you think so Pete.

Me: After we're done here Maleficent, I'm going to deliver an ultimatum to your version of King Stefan, I sense big trouble going on in your world with the adult version of you and that King Stefan.

Maleficent 2014: Okay.

Po Kong: (to Bai Tza) It's good to see you again, sister.

Bai Tza: Glad you're back sister.

T.J. Johnson: Amphibitor.

Amphibitor: Things got crazy back at that zombie world, huh?

Me: Boy they sure did.

Nico: At least we killed many zombies all over.

Linka: 7 planets full of zombies.

Me: But the best part is that all our Zombie Apocalypse survival skills Shaun taught us all paid off.

Amphibitor: I'm glad they did.

Nergal: We also found another Number for you. But I'm afraid you aren't going to like who the holder of it is.

---

Radiant Hope is a female Crystal unicorn pony and supporting character who appears in the IDW comics' My Little Pony: FIENDship is Magic Issue #1 and My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic story arc Siege of the Crystal Empire. She is a childhood friend of King Sombra's.

Radiant Hope first appears in My Little Pony: FIENDship is Magic Issue #1 as an orphan filly at Chestnut Falls' Crystal Heart Foal Center. She befriends a young Sombra due to their mutual ostracism by other foals. When Hope tells Sombra about the Crystal Faire and the Crystal Heart, they visit the Heart and see future visions of themselves in its surface, with Hope seeing herself as a beautiful princess.

Despite her excitement every year for the Faire, Hope stays by Sombra's bedside when he falls ill. One year, she uses her magic to heal Sombra when his body starts to break apart, and she gains her cutie mark. Princess Celestia and Princess Luna recognize Hope's magical talents and invite her to study with them in Canterlot. However, she is forced to witness Sombra's descent into darkness, Princess Amore's apparent destruction, and the disappearance of the Crystal Empire.

Siege of the Crystal Empire

Radiant Hope appears again in the My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic Issue #34-37 story arc Siege of the Crystal Empire. As told via narration in Issue #35, she left to study magic with Celestia and Luna after the events of FIENDship is Magic Issue #1 . Unable to concentrate on her studies, she returned to the Arctic Wastes and entered the world of Sombra's people: the umbrum. Here, Hope would spend the next one thousand years never aging and getting to know the umbrum personally.

In Friendship is Magic Issue #34, Hope returns to Equestria and brings Flim and Flam, Iron Will, Lightning Dust, and the changelings together to invade the Crystal Empire. As they distract Twilight Sparkle and her friends, Hope uses her healing magic to restore Sombra's body. As a result, Sombra is able to turn Celestia and Luna to stone in Issue #35.

In Issue #36, after Sombra distances himself from her, Hope is confronted by Princess Cadance. In an effort to convince Cadance of the nobility of her quest, Hope takes her to see the umbrum. However, Cadance's magic reveals the umbrum's true monstrous nature, and they barely escape. Hope tries to convince Sombra not to unleash them upon Equestria, but due to Twilight and her friends' intervention, she gets injured shielding Sombra from Twilight's magic.

In Issue #37, after the umbrum are released from their prison and Sombra assumes the throne, Hope is declared "Empress" of the Crystal Empire. As a result of everything that happened, she has become detached and unemotional. Though she now sees Sombra as a monster, she accepts her "destiny" of being with him against her will.

After an uprising by Twilight's friends is quelled, Hope suggests destroying the Crystal Heart so the umbrum can remain free. Sombra, remembering Hope's earlier words about destiny, places the Heart back on its pedestal, causing the umbrum to be imprisoned again. Sombra starts to fade away, but Hope uses her magic to maintain his form, and she and the princesses transform him into a real unicorn.

Having been given a second chance, Sombra sets out to find the fragments of Princess Amore scattered across Equestria and restore her, and Radiant Hope accompanies him.

Twilight Sparkle: Radiant Hope.

She landed by them in human form. She had beautiful sky blue hair and a blue and white dress and she had blue boots and black socks and had beautiful blue eyes and her cutie mark was the Caduceus Symbol.

Radiant Hope: Wow. Nicole Knudson and the members of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Nicole: Same here Radiant. I am so sorry about what King Sombra did to you.

Radiant Hope: I never want to see that monster again. Not after everything he did.

Nicole put her hand on her shoulder.

Nicole: If King Sombra ever returns, we all will kill him and make sure he pays the ultimate price for his crimes against all of Equestria. He doesn't deserve to live after doing everything he did during his reign of terror.

Twilight Sparkle: That's right. King Sombra was Evil Incarnate.

Luster Dawn: He will suffer 100 Quintillion deaths for his crimes 100-fold.

Nicole: That's right. Dad may have killed him in Equestria. But in our universe his hatred and evil still lives on.

Me: Whoa! That's enough dynamite to blow up 10 city blocks!

Nico: No kidding!

Carmen Dillo: So, what do we do with all this dynamite?

Me: We'll put it in our storage room. Blast Man and Bomb Man can probably use it later on.

Blast Man: That's a good idea.

Fred: It was so amazing meeting all of you.

Me: Same here Fred. But I have a feeling that there are more enemies here.

Fred: We sure do and I have a feel that you all are gonna meet the Jetsons next.

Me: You said it Fred.

We went back home and made a portal to Bedrock in the year 10,000 B.C.

Later I was over at King Stefan's castle in the world of Maleficent 2014.

Me: King Stefan's castle.

I walked over and went into the castle and I was standing before the evil King Stefon himself.

King Stefon: (Scottish Accent) J.D. Knudson of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. What brings you here?

Me: King Stefon. I'm here to deliver a message to you regarding Maleficent.

King Stefon: That witch will die by my hands for cursing my daughter!

Me: Because you made her this way. Now here's my message.

King Stefon: What is your message?

Me: An ultimatum.

The guards came at me and I blew them away with a swipe of my hand.

Me: You are to return Maleficent's wings to her and put aside this ridiculous quest for vengeance against her or I will destroy this entire kingdom and burn it all to the ground.

King Stefon: I will do no such thing for that monster!

Me: Perhaps I am not being clear.

I fired a massive blast of fire and burned much of the kingdom all over.

Me: Does that look like I'm speaking an empty threat?

King Stefon: You are a monster!

Me: You are the monster Stefon. That was only a small taste of my power. You have 6 months to meet my commands or you will face the consequences. Don't test me.

I teleported out.

Guard: Sire, I would do as he says.

King Stefon: I will not bow to that worthless monster!

Guard: Sire are you crazy!? He will destroy the entire kingdom!

King Stefon: Not if we call forth our allies. Prepare for war!

UH OH!

Another awesome fanfic complete.

The Flintstones was one of my favorite cartoons that I loved watching since I was a kid. From September 30th, 1960 to April 1st, 1966 it was that popular and it became a very iconic show. Also they are the characters of Fruity and Cocoa Pebbles and I love the commercials and I love those. Barney is always trying to steal Fred's pebbles and it was awesome! The next Number Card is gonna be Number 85: Crazy Box and that one is gonna be in the possession of Pip Squeak and he is gonna be showing us how he solves numerous Rubix Cubes all at once. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is where we travel to the future and meet the iconic futuristic family in the year 2062, The Jetsons and it's gonna be so awesome seeing the world of the future in The Jetsons and it's gonna be so cool!

See you all tomorrow.

Meeting the Jetsons

It was a grand day we were getting ready for in all of Equestria. We were getting ready for an awesome day called the Grand Galloping Gala.

Pinkie Pie : Ahh! I… can't… believe… the Grand… Galloping… Gala… is… tonight!

Pinkie Pie was bouncing on a trampoline.

Twilight Sparkle : Pinkie! Please stop shouting, I'm trying to concentrate!

Rarity : Pinkie Pie! Stop that right now. It's time to prepare for the Gala, and I refuse to let you put on your new dress when you're all sweaty.

We all came.

Me: Hey girls. What are you all doing?

Rarity: We're getting ready for the Grand Galloping Gala.

Me: Ooh that sounds interesting.

Nico: What's the Grand Galloping Gala?

Rarity: Why it's only the most amazing event in all of Equestria.

Me: We are still new to Equestria. Can you tell us all about it?

Rarity: I would be honored.

Rarity told us all about it.

---

The Grand Galloping Gala is an annual royal ball held to celebrate the completion of Canterlot after Equestria was founded. It is attended primarily by high-class ponies and is a major plot point in the first season. To attend this event, held in Canterlot, one must possess a golden ticket, as shown in The Ticket Master and Make New Friends but Keep Discord.

The gala is first mentioned in The Ticket Master. Spike reads that "the Grand Galloping Gala [is] to be held in the magnificent capital city of Canterlot, on the 21st day of" before skipping to the end of the letter. None of the Mane Six had ever attended before, and they each describe to Twilight Sparkle how they'd spend their time at the gala. Pinkie Pie believes it is the single biggest party in all of Equestria, filled with snacks, decorations, and party games. Rainbow Dash proclaims that the Wonderbolts perform every year and imagines herself performing with them. Fluttershy says that all the flowers in Canterlot's private garden are in bloom during the night of the event, with some of the most exotic avian wildlife in Equestria present. Rarity mentions that every year she designs dress attire for clients who have been invited to the Gala; the plot of the episode Suited For Success revolves around Rarity designing gowns for the Gala for her friends. She says she hopes to meet a prince there, believing they will fall in love and marry. Twilight thinks it will be an opportunity to meet with Princess Celestia and talk about her adventures in Ponyville. Applejack claims the Gala will be the perfect place to sell her apple-based homemade food so she can use the money to fix the roof on her barn, Big McIntosh's plow, and Granny Smith's hip. Finally, Spike claims that he wants "no part of this girly gala gunk", and pretends to be disdainful about the ticket that Celestia gives him.

At the end of the season in The Best Night Ever, all of the six ponies' expectations are crushed: Pinkie Pie is let down by the lack of partying; Rainbow Dash, though she does get to meet the Wonderbolts, doesn't get to perform or spend much time with them; Fluttershy explores the private garden but fails to befriend the animals, causing her to snap and start terrorizing them; Rarity meets a prince, Prince Blueblood, but although he looks exactly like the one in her imagination, he is very snobbish and off-putting; Twilight meets the princess, but finds she is busy greeting all the gala goers; and Applejack sets up a food stand but only manages to sell to Soarin.

The Mane Six attempt to make it special in their own way, only to have everything literally fall apart and the party descend into total chaos, causing the Mane Six to run away. As they rue their "worst night ever" in Joe's shop, Princess Celestia arrives and states that she finds the gala to be "awful" every year, and that they had made the Gala livelier with their involvement.

Season two

In Sweet and Elite, Twilight Sparkle notes that "the Grand Galloping Gala [is] coming up". Earlier in the episode, Rarity mentions the gala.

In A Friend in Deed, Cranky Doodle Donkey reflects on meeting his love Matilda at the Gala.

Season five

In Castle Sweet Castle, the Gala from The Best Night Ever is mentioned by Fluttershy.

The Grand Galloping Gala makes another appearance in Make New Friends but Keep Discord, with Twilight helping Celestia host the event to ensure she enjoys the festivities for once. Each of Twilight's friends is also invited and brings a plus one to the event: Fluttershy takes her new friend Tree Hugger; Applejack, Rarity, and Rainbow Dash take the Cutie Mark Crusaders; and Pinkie Pie invites her sister Maud Pie. Princess Celestia also invites Discord in the hopes that he might liven up the event. Having received his ticket late due to the mail pony Parcel Post getting lost, Discord feels snubbed for not being Fluttershy's plus one and invites another friend, the Smooze, which Twilight fears will ruin the event. The Smooze quickly begins devouring all the treasures and valuables he can find at the Gala, growing in size until he floods the entire floor with his slimy form. Tree Hugger eventually appeases the Smooze while Discord restores him to his original size, and the Gala continues as normal. To Twilight's shock, Celestia declares it to be "the most fun Gala in years" thanks to Discord.

Depiction in Equestria Girls

In My Little Pony Equestria Girls, Twilight mentions the Grand Galloping Gala to Principal Celestia, citing similarities between it and Canterlot High School's Fall Formal.

Other depictions

According to the iOS app Twilight Sparkle: Teacher for a Day, the Grand Galloping Gala originated when the unicorns celebrated the completion of the construction of Canterlot and invited the other ponies to a huge party, which was greatly enjoyed by all. The party is therefore organized once every year ever since then, and continues presently.

One of the stories in the French magazine is about the Gala, albeit it does not follow the same continuity as the television series.

The My Little Pony Live Show features the Grand Galloping Gala as inspired by the events of The Ticket Master.

WeLoveFine's descriptions of their formerly available men's T-shirt and hoodie "Magnet Pony" mention the Gala. The "Magnet Pony", whom is actually a fan-made pony version of the X-Men character Magneto, is based on an inside joke by a group of bronies whom were inspired by an advert that randomly appeared on a notable live-stream of The Best Night Ever when it made its debut airing.

On the official My Little Pony Twitter and Facebook pages, the Gala apparently takes place on New Year's Eve.

Me: Wow! That's so cool!

Nico: So it's to commemorate the completion of Canterlot after all of Equestria was founded? That's amazing.

Sunset Shimmer: This will be my first ever Gala after returning to Equestria after everything I did a while back.

Me: First for us too. We are probably the first ever humans to ever go to a very prestigious event like this.

Twilight Sparkle: You all sure are. No humans have ever been to the Grand Galloping Gala before.

Me: First time's for everything. Especially for Tamaraneans, Saiyans, Thanagarians and more.

Pinkie Pie : What's Twilight doing?

Spike : She's got an awesome magic spell she's been working on for the Gala.

Me: Ooh can't wait to see it.

Rarity : Where are the others? It's getting late.

Applejack and the others came.

Applejack : Hold your horses, girl. We're here. Howdy J.D. Howdy everyone.

Me: Howdy girls.

Twilight finished.

Twilight Sparkle : Perfect. I'm ready!

Rainbow Dash : For what?

Twilight Sparkle : All right, Spike.

He placed an apple on the ground.

Pinkie Pie : An apple! Are we having pie?

Spike : Shh! Watch!

Twilight used her magic and turned the apple into an awesome Cinderella-Like Carriage. Except it was made from an apple and not a pumpkin.

Applejack, Pinkie Pie, Rarity, and Rainbow Dash : [Awesome! Wow! Lovely!]

Me: Wow! It's just like Cinderella's carriage. Except hers was made from a pumpkin and not an apple.

Laney: That is so cool!

Lola: It sure is.

Sora: Yeah!

Me: I think I have some more carriages for all of us.

Laney: And I know just the fruit to use.

Laney grew an orange, a lemon, a lime, a watermelon, a Pumpkin, A tomato, a cantaloupe and a honeydew melon.

Me: Here we go. I think I can use Equestria Magic too.

Twilight Sparkle: With everything you all can do I'm sure you can.

Me: Lets see.

I fired blasts of magic and formed the fruit and vegetables into carriages like how Twilight did.

Nico: WOW! Not bad for your first time doing that J.D.

Me: Thanks Nico. It was really cool. I've had a lot of practice with it since I formed the Knights of The Friendship Table.

Laney: It sure was. Twilight did a great job too.

Twilight Sparkle : Thanks, but that's just the start. Fluttershy, did you bring your friends?

Fluttershy : Yes. Will they be safe, Twilight?

Twilight Sparkle : You have my word. [She turned the mice into horses like in Cinderella] Ta-da!

But the horses had mice whiskers and teeth.

Main cast sans Twilight : [Oh. Uh. Ah. That's a choice. Interesting.]

They were also squeaking like mice too.

Twilight Sparkle : Neat, huh? And don't worry, they'll be mice again at midnight.

Fluttershy : Opalescence, no!

Opalescence : [meows]

Opalescence pounced on one of the mice horses.

[neighing]

They ran away.

Twilight Sparkle : Wait! Come back! Those horses were supposed to pull our carriage. How will we get to the Gala?

Rarity : [sarcastically] Whatever shall we do?

Me: Don't worry girls I got this.

I whistled and then a rumble was heard and then a bunch of Rapidash came.

Twilight Sparkle: Oh yeah. Right.

Later we were getting ready for the Gala.

The girls were getting their hair done and Pinkie Pie turned on a big fan.

Pinkie Pie : Ooo-aah!

It blew her into the wall.

[crash]

Spike : [moan] [knocks door] come on, you guys. Let me in!

Rainbow Dash : Sure thing, Spike.

Rarity : Heavens no, we're getting dressed!

Applejack : Dressed? Uh, beg pardon, Rarity, but, uh… we don't normally wear clothes.

Rarity : [moan] [Opens the door] I'm sorry, Spike. Some of us do have standards.

Spike : I still can't believe we're gonna be at Canterlot tonight. Our hometown, Twilight! And the best part is that we all get to hang out together all night long!

Me: (From outside the changing rooms) I know. This is gonna be so awesome. I can't wait to see what it's all like.

Nico: Me too.

Rainbow Dash : Uh… I-I don't know, Spike.

Rarity : We'll just have to see.

Applejack : [spits] We're gonna be a mite busy.

Pinkie Pie : Busy having fun ! [boing]

Spike : Oh… okay.

Twilight Sparkle : Don't worry, Spike. We'll all get to spend some time together.

Spike : Great!

Later we were driving our carriages.

Spike : 'Cause I planned out my insider's tour of Canterlot. I've gotta show Rarity the crown jewels, and Applejack the Princess's golden apple tree. And Pinkie, we gotta go to my favorite donut shop. [excited chatter inside carriage]

Me: I'm really excited for this Spike.

I was driving the watermelon carriage.

Nico: Me too.

Spike : Then let's get moving! Hyah!

Me: This is gonna be so cool.

Jetfire: (Australian Accent) I know mates. This is gonna be amazing.

We all arrived in Canterlot and we opened the doors and everyone came out and were dressed in awesome and amazing clothes and dresses.

Spike : Whoa! You all look… amazing!

Me: Wow! Your dresses are all phenomenal. They really accentuate all your personalities.

Nico: They sure do. Rarity did a magnificent job on them.

Varie: She sure did.

Twilight Sparkle : I can't believe we're finally here. With all that we've imagined, the reality of this night is sure to make this… The Best Night Ever!

Me: Yeah it is!

Me: You can still hang with us Spike.

Spike: Thanks J.D.

Twilight went up to Princess Celestia.

Twilight Sparkle : Princess Celestia!

Princess Celestia : Twilight! It is so lovely to see my star student.

Twilight Sparkle : Oh, I'm so excited to be here! We have so much to catch up on.

Princess Celestia : Well, I want you right by my side the entire evening, so we'll have plenty of time together.

Twilight Sparkle : That's just what I was hoping you'd say.

We went up to the princess.

Me: Hello Princess. It's an honor to be here at the Grand Galloping Gala.

Princess Celestia: It sure is. You all are the first humans ever to be here and Sunset this is your first Grand Galloping Gala in a long time.

Sunset Shimmer: I know. It's great to be back Princess.

Rarity : [gasp] [squeals of excitement] Hurry, Rarity… oh, but not too fast. But don't wanna lose him… wait! Have to play it cool. Oh, but don't be cold! I can't lose him, I can't! He's everything I imagined! Even better than I imagined. [bird chirping]

Fluttershy : Oh my! A meadowlark! [whistling]

She heard whistling.

Fluttershy : I think she's calling to me. It's exactly what I wished for! [humming] [whistling]

Applejack : Howdy, partner! You hungry?

Soarin : As a horse!

Applejack : Well, what'cha hankering for? Caramel apple? Apple pie? Apple fritter? Apple fries?

Soarin : I'll take that big apple pie!

Applejack : (Soarin hands her some gold) Well, thank you kindly, sir! (Hands him a pie) Yee-haw! In the first minute, I made my first sale. Just like I expected.

Nico: Hey Applejack. It looks like your apple sales are off to a good start. I'd like some apple fries.

He handed her some coins and he got some apple fries.

Nico: Thanks Applejack.

Applejack: You're welcome Nico.

We later saw how many people were at the Gala.

Me: Wow.

Sheep Creep sees how many people there are at the Gala.

Sheep Creep: (Bleets)

Laney: I know. There's so many people here. Lots of ponies too.

Nico: I know.

Me: This is our first ever Grand Galloping Gala ever.

Lori: This is literally gonna be so cool.

Carol: It sure is.

Captain Flynn: (To me) What's to stop us from breaking into Stefon's castle again, taking Maleficent's wings from him by force, and banishing Stefon to Warp for all eternity?

Me: We'll get our shot Flynn. We just need to wait for the right time and be patient. When dealing with a monster like Stefon we need to strike at the right time. I'm picking when 2014's Maleficent revives Aurora on her Birthday.

Nico: How come?

Me: I have my reasons. That's when Stefon springs his trap on Maleficent.

Soarin came with his pie.

Spitfire : Always hungry after a show. Eh, Soarin?

Soarin : Heh. Yeah! (He accidentally drops his pie) [gasp] My pie! (Rainbow Dash swooped in and saved it) You saved it. Thanks Rainbow Dash.

Rainbow Dash : Hey, no prob Soarin.

Me: Hey Captain Spitfire. Soarin.

Spitfire: What's happening J.D.?

Me: Not much. This is the first ever Gala we've ever been to.

Soarin: It sure is for you guys.

Spitfire : Looks like all the Wonderbolts are here for the party.

Rainbow Dash : Heck yeah they sure are and the Shadowbolts are here as well.

We saw Indigo Zap and everyone.

Spitfire : Well, Rainbow Dash. Looks like your skills saved us again. Oh, well, at least they saved Soarin's apple pie.

Soarin : [eating noisily] Yeah…

Me: He sure is hungry.

Spitfire : Yeah he is. Guy loves pies.

Me: He sure does.

Pinkie Pie : (Walks to the dance floor) The shiny dance floor… the pretty party ponies… ooh, the fancy band… shiny! Pretty! Fancy! [anxious noise] Gotta dance!

[Pinkie Pie]

I'm at the Grand Galloping Gala,

I'm at the Grand Galloping Gala,

I'm at the Grand Galloping Gala,

It's all I ever dreamed.

It's all I ever dreamed, woo hoo!

It's all I ever dreamed, yippee!

I'm at the Grand Galloping GalaaaaaaaaaAAAAAAAAAAAA!
[pause]

It's all I've ever… dreamed?

Swindle: (sees Manaphy and Poromon dancing together) Looks like Manaphy and Poromon are getting into the mood.

Nico: Aww that is so adorable.

May: You said it.

Me: Yeah.

Sunstreaker: (sees Horsea and Poliwag dancing together) Poliwag and Horsea are dancing as well.

Nico: So cute!

Maria: That is so adorable!

Lincoln: It sure is.

Me: Looks like the Loud Couples had the right idea,

We saw Leni and Ed, Luna and Sam, Luan and Eddy, Lynn and Lightning, Lincoln and his fiancés, Edd and Linka, Lucy and Rocky, Laney and Joey, Lana and Skippy, Lola and Winston, Lisa and Dexter and Lily and Carlitos and many couples are dancing too.

Me: Aww so adorable.

Prince Blueblood : Well, hello. I am Prince Blueblood.

Rarity : I am… Rarity. Oh my, what a lovely rose.

Prince Blueblood : You mean… this rose? Thank you. It goes with my eyes.

Rarity : [moan]

Fluttershy : [humming] [whistling]

She ran to the source of the whistle.

Fluttershy : [gasp] My little meadowlark is right around this bend!

She saw that it wasn't what she thought.

Mr. Greenhooves : [whistling]

Fluttershy : Was that you?

Mr. Greenhooves : Yep! I love whistlin' while I work. [whistles]

Fluttershy : Oh! Yes… well… e-excuse me. [animal noises]

She saw lots of different animals.

Fluttershy : Oh! I see a toco toucan! And a spider monkey! [gasp] And, oh! Is that a wallaroo? (They ran) Oh, Fluttershy. You're such a loudmouth.

[ponies chattering]

Rainbow Dash : Hey, Spitfire! You ever done a rain cloud double backflip? [to Soarin] You ever soared past lightning? It's awesome!

Princess Celestia : Welcome to the Grand Galloping Gala.

Twilight Sparkle : Princess! I've been so excited to spend time with you and-

Princess Celestia : Yes. Me too, Twi- oh, good evening! Welcome to the Gala. Which is why I- ladies! Lovely to see you again.

Twilight Sparkle : [sigh] Looks like getting a chance to talk to the Princess is gonna be a magic trick in itself.

Applejack : First minute, first sale. Second… fourth… sixth… sixtieth minute… no sales. [sigh] This ain't what I expected at all.

Nico: I'll buy everything you got Applejack.

Applejack was ecstatic!

Nico pulled out a huge bag of gold coins and gave it to her and he was eating everything.

Me: You sure love her food don't ya buddy.

Nico: (Eating apple fritters) What can I say? It's all that good!

Me: (Laughs) It sure is.

Pinkie Pie : I'm at the Grand Galloping Gala… and it's not what I dreamed.

Rarity : This isn't at all what I imagined.

Princess Celestia : [in background] Good evening! So nice to see you. Welcome!

Twilight Sparkle : This isn't what I hoped.

Rainbow Dash : This isn't hanging out.

Fluttershy : This isn't what I wished for.

Twilight Sparkle : No!

Rarity : I waited all my life…

Fluttershy :… for this moment!

Pinkie Pie : And I'm not going to…

Applejack :… let it slip by!

Rainbow Dash : If it's the last thing I do…

Twilight Sparkle :… I'm gonna make this…

Main cast :… the best night ever!

Fluttershy was making a carrot under the box trap.

Fluttershy : I just have to be more bold, like Twilight says. [loudly] I'm so sorry to have scared you, my friends! But I'm leaving now, so you can all come out! [crunching]

She thought she caught one.

Fluttershy : Gotcha! It's okay. I promise not to hurt you. I just wanna be your… friend?

Mr. Greenhooves : Mmm… sounds good to me.

Rainbow Dash : Come on, Rainbow! If they don't notice you, you gotta make 'em notice you. [whistles]

Rainbow Dash rammed him and he went flying.

Count Caesar : [yells] [grunts]

Rainbow Dash saved him.

Didn't get their attention though.

Rarity : Just give him a chance, Rarity. His princely side is sure to come out if you're just patient.

Prince Blueblood : Miss Rarity! Stop!

Rarity : Oh. Prince Blueblood! How chivalrous.

Prince Blueblood : One would hate to slip.

Rarity : Yes. One certainly would.

Prince Blueblood : One's cloak should take care of the problem.

Rarity : Oh, of course it will.

I saw this.

Me: Very chivalrous.

Pinkie Pie : [gasp] [whispering] C'mon, everypony! I know what will make you shake those groove-thangs!

[Pinkie Pie]

You reach your right hoof in

You reach your right hoof out

You reach your right hoof in

And you shake it all about

You do the Pony Pokey meeting lots of folks with clout

That's what I'm talking about

You step your left hoof in

You pull it right back out

You step your left hoof in

But you better help him out

You do the Pony Pokey but should find a different route

That's what it's all about

You kick your back left in

You pull your back left out

You reach your back left in

Just be brave and have no doubt

You do the Pony Pokey feeling like you're gonna pout

That's what I'm singing about

You tilt your head in

You tilt your head out

You tilt your head in

Then you shake it all about

You do the Pony Pokey even though your date's a lout

You're better off without

You stomp your whole self in

You stomp your whole self out

You stomp your whole self in

And you stomp yourself about

You do the Pony Pokey and you give a little shout-

Fluttershy : COME OUT!

[Pinkie Pie]

That's what I'm talking about

You do the Pony Pokey

You do the Pony Pokey

You do the Pony Pokey

And that's what it's all about

Yeah!

Lyrica Lilac : Young lady, this is not that kind of party.

Me: Oh just let her have her fun Lyrica. She is Pinkie Pie after all.

Lyrica: Yes of course.

Pinkie Pie : Ohhhhhh… they don't want a party. These ponies want a paaartay!

Rarity : Two apple fritters, please.

Applejack : Two apple fritters comin' right up. That'll be four bits.

Rarity : Ahem.

Prince Blueblood : Ahem.

Rarity : Ahem!

Prince Blueblood : Ahem!

Rarity : [sigh] I'm going to have to pay, aren't I?

Applejack : It's okay, Rarity. I got you covered.

Rarity : Thank you, Applejack. At least somepony here has good manners.

Prince Blueblood : [gags] Oh! Fritters! Dumplings! Caramel apples! My royal lips have touched common carnival fare! I'm going to the buffet for some… hors d'oeuvres.

Applejack : Well, no wonder nopony wants my food. They're fillin' up on those fancy-schmancy vittles. Well, my down-home apples are plenty good enough for this crowd. I'll just dress 'em up a bit and prove it to 'em.

Fluttershy : I'll catch you yet, my pretties. Oh yes. As soon as one of you little birds or monkeys or bears touches this net… you'll be mine! Mine! [evil laugh] Whoa!

Pinkie Pie : Come on, everypony! You wanted a partay? Now it's paaartaaay!

Me: YEAH BABY!

Pinkie Pie: Yeah! Uh! Now that's a beat, yeah! Uh! C'mon, dance! Yeah, woohoo!

Applejack : Okay, all you high-class ponies. Here's a highfalutin apple cake for your hoity-toity taste buds.

Nico: Wow! That looks awesome Applejack.

Vince: It sure does.

Applejack: Thank you.

Nico and Vince took a picture of it with their phones. Same with me.

Pinkie Pie : Stage dive!

She landed on the cart with the cake and sent it flying.

Rarity and Prince Blueblood : [scream]

The pie went at them and Prince Blueblood used Rarity like a shield and she got hit with it.

SPLAT!

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: Oh shit.

Laney: That's not good.

Rarity : [angry growl] You, sir, are the most uncharming prince I have ever met ! In fact, the only thing royal about you is that you are a royal pain !

Prince Blueblood : Ewww… ! Uh, stay back! I just had myself groomed!

Lola: Geez he is just like me in every way when I like being clean that it's scary.

Winston: No kidding.

Rarity : Afraid to get dirty ?! [babbles]

She shook herself and splattered cake on him.

Prince Blueblood : [whimpering]

He accidentally knocked over the Alicorn statue.

Rainbow Dash : This is my chance! (She caught the statue just in time) Yes!

Lynn: WHOA! Nice save R.D.!

But then Rainbow Dash lost her footing.

Rainbow Dash: Whoa! [crash]

It hit a column and knocked all the columns down like dominoes.

The statue shattered.

Me: Oops. What a mess. Is everyone okay?

They all said they were fine.

Twilight Sparkle : Well… it can't get any worse. [rumbling]

Me: Uh oh!

Eli: Everyone brace for impact!

[door opens]

The animals came in all over!

[animals chattering]

Fluttershy : (SCREAMING MANIACALLY) YOU'RE.. GOING TO LOVE ME! [ponies screaming]

Pandemonium and panic all broke out and all hell was breaking loose!

Me: WHOA!

Twilight Sparkle : Um, um, uh, eugh…

Princess Celestia : Run.

Twilight Sparkle : [whistles]

Me: (Whistles) Yo! Everyone out of the pool!

We ran fast and down the stairs and Rarity lost her glass slipper.

Pinkie Pie : Ooh! Rarity, your glass slipper! Now your prince is sure to find you.

Rarity : [shriek] No! Ugh! Let's go!

We ran fast.

Later at the donut shop Spike was getting drunk on donuts and hot chocolate.

Spike : Hey, Pony Joe. Another donut.

Joe : Don't you think you've had enough?

Spike : Another donut! Extra sprinkles! [bell rings]

Joe : Twilight Sparkle, ha ha! Long time no see. And Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor to have you all here.

Me: It's a pleasure to be here.

Spike : Hey, how was the Gala? How was your best night ever?

Me: (Sighs) It's a really ugly story.

We all sat down and told Spike all about it.

Spike : That sounds like the worst night ever!

Main cast sans Spike : It was! [laughter]

Me: It was a total catastrophe.

Nico: Yeah but at least Applejack's food was great.

Applejack: Thank you kindly and thanks for the money though Nico.

Nico: You're welcome Applejack.

Me: I liked it too.

Laney: But the buffet was great too.

Lola: Yeah it was.

Lana: And so was the punch and the dancing.

Me: We all had great fun dancing.

Twilight Sparkle : I just hope Princess Celestia isn't upset with us for ruining the Gala.

Princess Celestia came in and surprisingly she wasn't upset at all.

Princess Celestia : That was the best Grand Galloping Gala ever!

Main cast : Princess Celestia!

Everyone else: (Confused) Huh?

Twilight Sparkle : Pardon me, Princess, but tonight was just awful.

Me: Yeah it was a total disaster.

Princess Celestia : Oh, Twilight, everyone The Grand Galloping Gala is always awful.

Twilight Sparkle : It is?

Me: Really?

Princess Celestia : That is why I was thrilled you were all attending. I was hoping you could liven things up a bit. And while the evening may not have gone as you planned, I'm sure you'll agree that in the end it didn't turn out so bad for this group of friends.

Me: Huh. Yeah it did turn out great.

Twilight Sparkle : You're right, Princess. Friends have a way of making even the worst of times into something pretty great.

Nico: You got that right Twilight.

Sunset Shimmer: But this was pretty fun.

Rainbow Dash : Yeah! Hanging out with friends!

Fluttershy : Talking!

Pinkie Pie : Laughing!

Sunset Shimmer: Spreading fun!

Spike : You mean doing exactly what I wanted to do the whole time?

Twilight Sparkle : Yes, Spike. You were right.

Applejack : As horrible as our night was…

Rarity :… being together here has made it all better.

Pinkie Pie : In fact, it's made it…

Main cast :… the best night ever!

All : [laughter]

Me: Yes it has. Sorry we trashed the ballroom Princess.

Princess Celestia: Oh that's all right J.D. I can fix it in the morning.

Nico: Good.

Me: And girls I'm so sorry your best night ever didn't turn out like you planned.

Applejack: That's all right J.D. But you did give us a lot of money for the farm.

Me: Well you know how much Nico likes his food.

We laughed.

Eli: But this was fun. Pinkie we're sorry you didn't liven things up like you wanted to.

Pinkie Pie: It's all right Eli.

Laney: Sorry you didn't find any animal friends to be with you Fluttershy.

Fluttershy: That's okay Laney.

Lola: And Rarity, I'm sorry your Prince Charming turned out to be a dirt clod.

Rarity: That's all right Lola.

Me: But there's still plenty of fish in the sea. Metaphorically speaking.

Sunset Shimmer: But it was really fun.

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah it sure was.

We had a nice talk and more. But then we got an awesome surprise.

We saw Shining Armor and Twilight Sparkle's parents: Twilight Velvet and Night Light.

Twilight Velvet: Twilight!

Twilight Sparkle: Oh hi mom, hi dad.

Night Light: How have you all been Twilight?

Twilight Sparkle: We've been doing great.

Me: Are you Twilight Sparkle's parents?

Twilight Velvet: We sure are J.D. and it's an honor to meet you and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. I'm Twilight Velvet.

Night Light: And I'm Night Light.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet you both. Sorry the Gala didn't go as what you thought.

Twilight Velvet: That's all right.

Night Light: But it is great that Twilight goes on all your adventures with you.

Me: She has lots of fun.

Nico: We all do.

Leni: And me and Rarity can totes fix all your dresses for you girls.

Twilight Sparkle: Thanks Leni.

Varie: We all can do it.

---

Later we were getting ready. We were getting ready to journey to the world of the awesome futuristic family The Jetsons. They were the iconic futuristic family from back in the 60s.

Eartha: Where are we going this time?

Me: Someplace really awesome. We're going to the world of The Jetsons.

Lola: WOW! I love the Jetsons!

Nico: All right! That's one of my favorite shows.

Vince: Me too. It was awesome!

Me: Yep. It lasted from September 23, 1962 - March 17, 1963.

Carol: Not nearly as long as the Flintstones.

Me: No. But we're going to the year 2062 and that's where it takes place. Too bad the Jetsons weren't on as long as the Flintstones were. They were on only for 6 months where as the Flintstones were on for almost 6 years.

Nico: Wow.

Vince: Huge difference.

Eli: What a ripoff!

I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R., Pete, Po Kong, Carmen Dillo, Nergal and Control Freak appleared.

I.N.S.T.I.G.A.T.O.R.: Can me, Pete, Po Kong, Carmen Dillo, Nergal, and Control Freak come along too?

Me: You sure can. We are gonna see the world of The Jetsons.

Carmen Dillo: Wow! I used to watch The Jetsons a long time ago! It was awesome!

Me: It sure was.

Then the teacher of Apple Bloom, Scootaloo, Sweetie Belle and her friends came in frantic and she was human and on all fours.

Me: Ms. Cheerilee?

Apple Bloom: Ms. Cheerilee? What's going on?

Cheerilee: Oh hello everyone.

Me: You're human now so you have to stand up.

We helped her up.

Me: It's gonna take a while for you to get used to it. Humans are bipedal creatures.

Cheerilee: Sorry. This is all too new to me.

Me: That's all right. But what's wrong? You came in all frantic.

Cheerilee: Right sorry. It's Pip Squeak. He disappeared!

Sweetie Belle: Pip Squeak is gone!?

Scootaloo: What happened to him?

Cheerilee: I don't know. He suddenly disappeared.

Me: Okay lets not panic. Ms. Cheerilee, when was the last time you saw him?

Cheerilee: Lets see. Yesterday by the playground. But I saw that he was solving rubix cubes. He was really good at it for a pony with no hands.

Me: Hmm that's unusual.

Nico: Weird.

Me: We'll find him Ms. Cheerilee. He couldn't have gone far.

Radiant Hope: Yeah we'll find him.

Apple Bloom: That's right. We helped him become Student Pony President so we'll find him.

Me: That was cool. But don't worry Cheerilee. We'll find him. I promise.

Cheerilee: Thank you.

Me: I have a feeling he'll appear on our mission. We're going to Orbit City in the world of The Jetsons. Lets head out.

We were off and we opened a portal and we arrived in the year 2062 in Orbit City.

---

It is a city on Earth. In Orbit City, all the homes and businesses are built on columns that allow buildings to be elevated into the sky. George Jetson and his family live there in Skypad Apartments.

---

Me: WOW!

We saw a massive and mega advanced megametropolis that looked like it was something out of the year 4,000 and it was amazing! We saw flying cars, buildings all mounted on columns and more. Everything was so advanced and more.

Me: WHOA!

Scrap Shooter: This place is really futuristic, see.

Me: It sure is.

Nico: Wow! This is far more advanced than what we know in 2020.

Lincoln: It's amazing.

Lori: How's Cookie?

Lincoln: Exhausted. Number 87 really did a doozy on her.

Lana: I hope she gets better.

Me: Robo-Lori and Nurse Santiago are helping her and all the holders of the Numbers. But Scorch and Chills are looking at serious jail time.

Eli: I hope so.

Me: Lets take a look around.

We walked and flew around and we saw the world of the Jetsons and it was one of the most amazing cities we had ever seen.

Laney: Wow! This is so cool!

Megan: This is amazing!

Lola: Everything is so advanced!

We looked down and we saw that everything was high above the Earth!

Me: Whoa! We're way high up above the surface.

Po Kong: Wow! This is higher than the tallest mountains.

Bai Tza: It sure is.

Lola: This is incredible!

Vince: So where do the Jetson's live?

Me: (Points to a building) Right there. The Skypad Apartments.

Nico: This is gonna be so awesome!

We got to the apartment building and we looked at the directory.

Me: Lets see.

I looked and found the Jetsons.

Me: There it is. Apartment 212.

I pressed a button and we went to the floor it was on and we went to the door and rang the Doorbell.

Me: Never forget that doorbell.

The door opened and it was George Jetson himself!

Pete: Hey there. Are you George Jetson?

George Jetson: I sure am. (Gasp) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's such an honor to meet you all.

Me: Same here George. We came from the year 2020 to meet you.

Jane Jetson: It's such an honor.

Elroy: Wow! I love all your awesome adventures.

Judy Jetson: Yes they are so awesome!

Astro: Reah! Rawsome!

Scooby Doo: You talk like me.

Me: It's a pleasure to meet the awesome Jetson Family.

We went into their apartment and it was nice.

Headstrong: This is a nice house.

Me: It's actually an apartment. But yeah it sure is.

George Jetson: Thank you. It's home sweet home.

Me: It sure is. We met the Flintstones yesterday.

George Jetson: Wow! You met our friends the Flintstones?

Me: We sure did.

George Jetson: How is Fred and the Family?

Me: Doing great.

Elroy: What about Pebbles and Bam-Bam?

Lola: They are doing great Elroy.

Me: This is amazing that you all live in such an incredibly advanced world. And it's amazing that the world has changed so much over the millennia.

George Jetson: No kidding.

Elroy: (to Carmen Dillo) Are you really a talking armadillo?

Carmen Dillo: Damn straight! And I'm the best armadillo there is!

Elroy: Wow!

Me: He wasn't always like that. He was exposed to an experimental biohazardous mutagenic gas that mutated him into an anthropomorphic armadillo.

Elroy: Wow.

Rosie the Robot was pouring food into Po Kong.

George Jetson: Wow! Po Kong is hungry.

Nico: She has an appetite as big as a mountain and they don't call her the Demon Sorcerer of the Mountain for nothing.

Judy Jetson: Wow!

Heckyl: Anything you all like to do for fun around here?

Elroy: We have lots of things to do here.

Judy Jetson: Yeah it's awesone.

Po Kong: (burps) I haven't eaten anything since I ate Edzilla as a Heartless.

Ed: (GROANS IN EMBARRASSMENT)

Leni: But that was gross.

Po Kong: Sorry.

Me: No worries. But George we love watching you all a long time ago in the past and it was awesome!

George Jetson: I'm honored. I just wish that Mr. Spacely would give me a better job.

Chomp Chest: Why don't you guys tell us about this Spacely guy?

Me: We do know that he's George Jetson's boss and he owns a sprocket company but that's all we know.

Lana: But his trademark line JETSON YOU'RE FIRED is really funny.

We laughed.

George Jetson: That's right you watched us in the year 2020.

George told us about his boss.

---

Mr. Cosmo Spacely is the overall main antagonist of the Jetsons franchise.

He was voiced by the late Mel Blanc in the series, and Jeff Bergman in the film.

The mean-spirited boss of George Jetson and business rival of Spencer Cogswell, Spacely, like the stereotypical portrayal of bad bosses, is verbally aggressive towards his employees, demanding and greedy. He is also a man who is fond of making his employee's lives miserable even outside work, having a keen interest in George's private affairs, whether it be forcing him to do a task with nothing in return, punishing him for mistakes either of them made, blinding George from his family, or simply thieving tickets out of George's hands as if they were gifts just so he could cooperate. Mostly he usually threatened or fires George every episode and re-hires him every episode.

The only reason why he usually re-hires George or never officially fire him for good is mostly no one can run the RUDI computer and that is the only way Spacely makes money on his sprockets is the RUDI computer. That explains why he always re-hires George. Mostly, he is very cheap, selfish and greedy. He also hates surprises, especially from George.

Although perhaps not a true villain, he is nevertheless a character that has been consistently aggressive and antagonistic throughout his stay in the series - he was a particular antagonist in Jetsons: The Movie, in which he willingly endangered the entire population of an underground society on an asteroid to extinction just to keep his business running. Even after the issue was resolved for both parties, he almost demoted George to his old job but instead cut his salary.

Cosmo is also a minor villain in the Flintstones / Jetsons crossover special - where he exploits the time-tossed Flintstones in order to try and profit from their misfortunes.

---

We gasped.

Me: WHOA! Looks like he needs a huge lesson in humility.

Nico: Yep.

George Jetson: On no! You're not gonna kill him are you?

Me: No we've dealt with this kind of situation before. We're just gonna reprimand him and then punch him in the face and give him a black eye. Simple as pie.

We were off to the Spacely Sprocket company. We arrived there and it was amazing.

George Jetson: You sure you guys want to confront Mr. Spacely? We should just leave him alone for now.

Nergal: Relax. We're just going to walk in, yell at him, give him a black eye, and leave. Should be simple enough.

Me: But villains have always made our job harder before. So we have to always be prepared for anything that comes our way.

Leni: That's totes right.

Lola: Yeah.

We arrived at the office of Mr. COSMO SPACELY!

Mr. Spacely: Oh hello Jetson. Wasn't expecting you to come in today since it's your day off.

George Jetson: It is but that's not why I'm here.

We came in.

Spacely: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? What are you all doing here?

Me: What does it look like Spacely? We came to teach you a lesson in humility. (Cracks Knuckles) Team Loud Phoenix Storm Style.

Spacely: You think you're all just going to walk out of here? (chuckles) Think again! (presses a button)

Several robots with red eyes appeared.

Rumble: You son of a bitch. Have you lost it?!

Spacely: You all just walked in, threatened me, and gave me a black eye. Did you really think I wouldn't retaliate?

Maria: Um… maybe?

Spacely: Security. Throw out these people. With excessive force.

Me: Bring it on!

Eli: It's Butt-Kicking Time!

Po Kong: I got this!

Po Kong jumped and then…

KRASSSSMAAAAAAAAAAAASSSSSSHHHHHH!

She smashed all the robots into rubble with her massive girth.

Bai Tza: WOW! Well done big sis.

Po Kong: That was fun.

Me: Now where were we before we were rudely interrupted?

Control Freak: I know just the monster to use.

Control Freak used his remote to summon Goomboss.

Nicole: Goomboss from Paper Mario in the year 2000. Good choice.

Control Freak: Yeah!

They high five.

But then Kyd Wykkyd, Mojo Jojo, Trumbipulor, Avalanche, Man Ray, Billy Numerous appeared.

---

Kyd Wykkyd

Kyd Wykkyd is an antagonist in the Teen Titans media. He is the most mysterious member of the H.I.V.E.. He does not speak and rarely interacts with the other villains.

Kyd Wykkyd is a villain who seems almost emotionless but on some occasions has a sense of humor in some episodes. Along with the other students at the H.I.V.E. Academy, he was recruited into the Brotherhood of Evil. He joined the H.I.V.E. Five, led by Jinx, but was more out for money than power while with the team. He tries to help the H.I.V.E. Five capture Kid Flash for the Brotherhood of Evil but he did not stand a chance against the super-speedster.

When the Brain executed its plans, Kyd Wykkyd was sent with Psimon to defeat Raven. They succeeded in overpowering her and with Psimon's psychic powers, creating a portal, sent her to an unknown region. However, Raven returned and brought reinforcements. During the final battle against the united Titans in the Brotherhood's base, Kyd Wykkyd and his H.I.V.E. Five mates attempt to escape but are stopped by Kid Flash and are knocked out by a hex from the reformed Jinx, and is flash frozen with the rest of the villains.

Mojo Jojo

Mojo Jojo is the main antagonist of The Powerpuff Girls franchise, serving as the main antagonist of the original 1998 series, the 2006 anime series, and the 2016 reboot. He also serves as the main antagonist of Cartoon Network's 2nd animated feature film, The Powerpuff Girls Movie. He is an evil anthropomorphic ape, the girls' arch-nemesis, being indirectly responsible for their creation, and Professor Utonium's former pet and lab assistant.

He was voiced by Roger L. Jackson, who also played Wizeman the Wicked in NiGHTS: Journey of Dreams and voiced Ghostface in the Scream franchise.

Mojo often comes up with plans to rule the world and is constantly stopped by the Powerpuff Girls. He is a notorious genius chimpanzee whose main goal is to destroy the Powerpuff Girls, crush Townsville and conquer the world, in that order. In order to do this, he spends much of his time plotting and inventing new weapons technology. This normally comes in the shape of giant robots or large energy weapons. He is the archenemy of the girls and the creator of the Rowdyruff Boys. Somehow, he has high-vocabulary use and long-lasting sentences, complete with a Japanese accent.

Mojo was also the leader of the Beat-Alls, a "band" of four supervillains consisting of HIM, Fuzzy Lumpkins, Princess Morbucks, and Mojo himself. Sadly, the group did not last very long after he split up with them.

At first, Mojo was not exactly evil, but rather a troublemaking chimp. As seen in the movie and Mr. Mojo's Rising, mojo was once a favorite thing to Professor Utonium, but when he attempted to create the Powerpuff Girls and started to ignore Mojo, he became jealous and tried to destroy the experiment in order to make him spend time with him instead, but unintentionally became responsible for their birth. The Chemical X also hit Mojo, who threw it out of the house and giving him an enormous brain sticking out of his head. However, it also gave him new emotions that he never felt before, such as envy and somewhat of an inferiority complex. The girls thought that Mojo was there to help them, but all Mojo cared about was returning to Townsville and revenge.

After the creation, he turned out to be evil, sinister and villainous, so he decided to invade the city and to do that he used the girls (manipulating them by befriending them) and he created a full army of kidnapped primates from the zoo, and then tried to kill the professor by transforming himself into a ferocious and aggressive monster the size of King Kong.

Mojo has dedicated his life to take revenge on The Powerpuff Girls to reclaim his birthright. Having no choice but to live in a box out in the street, Mojo was isolated for a great period of time after being thrown out of the house, which has made him sort of a loner. However, before it happened, Mojo was unwanted in the society for the uniqueness of being a chimpanzee with an oversized brain.

However, in the end of the tenth anniversary episode (or movie), he actually turned good for helping everyone in town and everything was peaceful and nonviolent. But then he snapped and went on a rampage like always and was sent to jail.

Mojo Jojo is one of the biggest threats in the series. He actually managed to succeed in defeating the Powerpuff Girls in Mr. Mojo's Rising, easily curb-stomping all three of them all down at once, and he even outsmarted them when they attempted to come up with a failed plan to wear him down . In the beginning Mo Job as well, Mojo nearly destroyed the Girls until the police caught him. This resulted in the Girls defenselessly ending up in the hospital with broken arms and sharp wounds. He also managed to turn the whole world into dogs in order to rule the world, and turned the Powerpuff Girls into puppies, causing them to lose their powers, and therefore cannot fly after him.

He is often called a monkey. This is scientifically incorrect as Mojo is a chimpanzee, one of the species of apes.

Also noted, Mojo Jojo is also responsible for creating the Powerpuff Girls by pushing Professor Utonium to hit the Chemical X and create the Powerpuff Girls. Mojo Jojo became the second father to the Powerpuff Girls while Professor Utonium is the first father. In the Powerpuff Girls Movie, it is revealed that not only is Mojo Jojo a father of the Powerpuff Girls, he is also their brother, due to them having similar powers that was caused by the Chemical X such as the Powerpuff Girls having superpowers and Mojo Jojo having powerful intelligence.

Trumbipulor

Trumbipulor is an antagonist from Ben 10 . He is from an unknown species and an unknown planet. He resembles a humanoid elephant. He talks with his trunk and his trunk has teeth.

Trumbipulor was seen having been defeated by Ben's team at the beginning of "Basic Training" for illegally trading level 3 technology. He can talk while Ben can understand him clearly with his universal Kevin mocked Trumbipulor's name, Ben mocked his resemblance to an elephant. Trumbipulor's name and design appear to be a reference to the 1980 Parliament record Trombipulation, which features a human/elephant hybrid on the cover.

In "The Purge", Trumbipulor fought Ben's team again but Trumbipulor managed to escape from custody. Trumbipulor played his first major role as the main antagonist where he was to grow to a major size. Ben was able to defeat him as Echo Echo by taking advantage of his supersensitive hearing to blast him with sound waves.

Trumbipulor has able to go toe-to-toe with Four Arms, Armodrillo and Humungousaur. As shown in "Blukic And Driba Go To Mr. Smoothy's", Trumbipulor can grow into a massive size when he eats peanuts. His strength increases with size. He is able to go toe-to-toe with Way Big after eating peanuts.

Man Ray

Man Ray is Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy's #1 arch-nemesis in the SpongeBob SquarePants franchise. He is a spoof of Black Manta. He was first mentioned in Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy and made his first physical appearance in Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy III .

He was voiced by John Rhys-Davies (who also voiced Cassim from Aladdin and the King of Thieves ) and Bob Joles (who also voiced X-Brawn from the 2001 cartoon, Transformers: Robots in Disguise ).

A long time ago, Man Ray tried to become the leader of the Bikini Bottom, using his ray-gun. But Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy managed to save Bikini Bottom, by pouring tartar sauce on Man Ray. Patrick ends up eating the tartar sauce which trapped Man Ray, making Man Ray escape and defeat Mermaid Man & Barnacle Boy and take over Bikini Bottom. In the end, SpongeBob and Patrick get to defeat Man Ray and rescue Bikini Bottom.

He is one of the main antagonists in SpongeBob's favorite Saturday morning show, The New Adventures of Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy . Man Ray has a belt that is controlled by a remote. When you press the button, it tickles him. His name is a reference to a manta ray, yet episodes of SpongeBob SquarePants rarely feature a manta ray.

Man Ray was somehow arrested by Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy and imprisoned in a frozen tarter-sauce prison. SpongeBob and Patrick, during their time watching the Mermalair during the heroes' vacation, accidentally free him from his prison, but are able to subdue him due to the tickle belt. Knowing that he needs to get rid of the belt in order to escape, Man Ray pretends to want redemption from being evil. SpongeBob and Patrick try to teach him how to be "good", through the demonstration of Patrick dropping his wallet and then struggling with a heavy package, but Man Ray gets quickly annoyed by Patrick's stupidity and injures him. In revenge, Patrick tries to push the tickle belt button too many times to torture the villain, but the remote then breaks, causing Man Ray to suffer eternal tickling. Man Ray says "Please" when asking it to stop, which is enough for SpongeBob and Patrick to "graduate" him from their "goodness" class. However, Man Ray double-crosses them, stealing some weaponry from the Wall of Gadgets and then tries to rob a bank. However, Man Ray still feels the tickle whenever he tries to rob the bank, leading him to give up and to open a checking account instead. He then apologizes to SpongeBob and Patrick for his actions and gives them his helmet before walking off, seemingly redeemed.

Man Ray would later return to being evil in future episodes and video games.

Billy Numerous

Billy Numerous is an antagonist in the television show Teen Titans .

He was voiced by Jason Marsden, who also played Billy Yoder in Jurassic Park: The Game .

Billy Numerous is first seen as a student of the H.I.V.E. Academy where his power of duplication was subtly hinted. When the Academy was destroyed, Billy Numerous escaped and became a renegade villain.

Later, Billy engaged in a battle with the Teen Titans while he was in a robbing spree all across Jump City. The Titans were subdued by Billy's duplication power, which made Cyborg more obsessed to catch him. Cyborg and the other Titans managed to catch Billy in an old stadium by using holographic projections created and controlled by Cyborg to look like they duplicated themselves. In order to bring the Titans down, Billy created more clones of himself but pushed his power to the limit. The result came when his clones were reabsorbed into him and he experienced a physical and mental shock, stunning him.

At some point, Billy joined the H.I.V.E. Five and was also recruited into the Brotherhood of Evil. When he was with the H.I.V.E. Five, he helped his teammates to attempt to capture Kid Flash but even his numerous clones were unable to stop the super-speedster. When the Brain executed its plans to attack all superheroes, Billy Numerous was sent with Gizmo to capture Kole and Gnarrk, but were both defeated. When the final battle with the Teen Titans started, Billy Numerous attempted to escape with the rest of the H.I.V.E. Five members but was blasted by one of Jinx's hexes and ended up flash-frozen with the other villains.

Billy Numerous has the power to duplicate himself as many times as he wants. All his clones share his personality and his trickery. The exact number of duplicates he can create is unknown but it is shown to be higher than a hundred. However if he creates too many clones, he will experience a physical and mental shock that results in reabsorbing his clones and stunning him.

In 2008, he was added to the main DC universe as an enemy of Catwoman.

Avalanche

Avalanche is an X-men villain from Marvel comics and media.

He is a mutant with the power to create seismic vibrations in the earth or on earth-bound objects. He was part of Mystique's Brotherhood of Evil Mutants

Dominic Petros is an immigrant from Greece and a mutant with the powers to generate powerful seismic waves from his hands strong enough to shatter inorganic matter and create localized earthquakes. Being a mutant and seeing his own kind hunted and killed made him realize how ignorant mankind can be and he decided to hide his mutant powers from the world.

Brotherhood of Mutants

He was approached by the mutant known as Mystique to join the second incarnation of the Brotherhood of Mutants in hopes of assassinating Senator Robert Kelly who wanted to register mutants. They attacked him during Kelly's hearings on the menace that mutants allegedly pose to humanity in general, but were stopped by the X-Men.

Petros remained with the Brotherhood for quite some time, only briefly leaving to attempt to blackmail the state of California into paying him an enormous sum to prevent him from using his power to trigger a major earthquake. He returned to the Brotherhood after being stopped by the Hulk.

Freedom Force

Petros was among the Brotherhood members when Mystique turned the team over to the government to serve time for their crimes as the government's strike force. Often finding themselves in semi-legitimate covert operations as a member of Freedom Force, Petros clashed with several superhero teams such as the X-Men and the Avengers.

On a mission in Kuwait during the war of Operation: Desert Storm, Petros was forced to abandoned his Freedom Force teammates Blob and Pyro. After this mission, Freedom Force was dissolved, and Petros became a free agent mercenary.

Legacy Virus

When Pyro, a good friend of Petros, was diagnosed with the Legacy Virus[1], he did whatever he could to aid him in his struggle for survival, while free from the Legacy Virus himself, he would join a band of infected mutants to seek a cure by attempting to obtain Isotope-E from the High Evolutionary. The mutant Quicksilver was headquartered at the Evolutionary's base at the time, and elicited help from Heroes for Hire, who defeated the mutants.

X-Corps

Petros was later recruited by the X-Men's Banshee to form a paramilitary force that could police the mutant community, the X-Corps, which enjoyed official sanction from many countries in Europe. When the X-Men learned of the team's existence, they warned Banshee to abandon the idea because he had recruited several known villains.

In fact, Banshee had imprisoned Martinique Jason and used her psychic powers to dull the violent impulses of the "reformed" villains on his team, including Petros. The villain Mystique infiltrated the X-Corps under the guise of a mutant named Surge, and freed Mastermind and the other villains. The villains embarked on a rampage through Paris were Petros used his earthquake powers to destroy the Eiffel Tower, but before more damage could be done, the X-Men were able to defeat the rogue villains.

Exodus' Brotherhood

When the Brotherhood reassembled under the leadership of Magneto's protégé Exodus, Petros was among their number. The Brotherhood first appeared when they were terrorizing Philadelphia, but they were confronted by the X-Men. The Brotherhood were able to flee before their ultimate purpose was revealed, but they soon took the battle directly to the X-Men, using their member, Juggernaut, to infiltrate the team.

In fact, Juggernaut had turned a new leaf, and betrayed the Brotherhood to side with the X-Men. The X-Men only managed to hold the Brotherhood at bay until their associate Xorn managed to defeat them all by removing his helmet and exposing the Brotherhood and the Juggernaut to the black hole it contained. They were all sucked inside.

The black hole was a portal to Mojoworld, where the Brotherhood would sell the traitor Nocturne and Juggernaut to Mojo and Spiral for a way back home. While Petros alongside Mammomax and Black Tom made it back home, Exodus was accidentally transported to another realm. Leaderless, Petros left the team.

M-Day

After M-Day, Petros still had his powers, but with so many mutants gone, Petros thought his fight for mutant rights were a thing of the past and retired as a mercenary and activist/terrorist. He opened up a small bar in the Sunset District of San Francisco, called the Gene Pool. When the X-Men moved their headquarters to San Fransisco, Petros was frightened that they would eventually come for him for his past crimes, as he was packing in hopes of leaving his new found life, the X-Men popped in with a friendly warning, that they had a truce, but they would be back if he ever decided to return to a life of crime. As they left, with his place of business and apartment trashed, Petros looked around, mumbling to himself; "F *!ing X-Men..:"

During San Francisco riots, Hellion, Lorelei, Meld, Sunspot, Adam X, Match and Avalanche met in this last's bar and choose to oppose to the H.A.M.M.E.R. curfew.

They were all stopped and jailed by the Dark X-Men and H.A.M.M.E.R agents.

Later, he was seen in San Francisco Subway, fighting Nimrods alongside Husk, Sunspot and Boom-Boom.

He was offered a place at the Jean Grey School by Wolverine but he declined due to the fact that he had a bar in San Francisco, along with the fact that being associated with Utopia offered him all kinds of protective benefits.

Avalanche was captured by the Red Skull who removed part of his brain, replacing it with a machine that turned Avalanche into a puppet. Avalanche was made to go berserk in New York to renew hatred and fear for mutants. After a fight with Captain America, Avalanche was made to jump off a cliff, unwillingly killing himself.

Me: Kyd Wykkyd, Avalanche and Billy Numerous!

Blossom: Mojo Jojo!

Ben: Trumbipulor!

Man Ray: Did you miss me, Spongebob?

Patrick: Muh-muh-muh-ma-muh-muh-ma-muh-ma…

SpongeBob: It can't be!

Patrick: Muh-muh-muh-ma-muh-muh-ma-muh-ma! Muh-muh-muh-ma-muh-muh-MA-muh-ma!

They hugged in fright.

Lily, SpongeBob and Patrick: Muh-muh-muh-ma-muh-muh-ma-muh-ma! Muh-muh-muh-ma-muh-muh-ma-muh-ma! Man Ray! [All three

Scream]

Varie: The number 1 Arch-Nemesis of SpongeBob and Patrick's favorite heroes MermaidMan and Barnacle Boy next to the Dirty Bubble.

Nico: Wow! It's like the Neptune Crusaders and the I.J.L.S.A. have teamed up.

Man Ray: It does feel like it huh?

Lisa Loud: Kyd. Before the usual battles. I have something to give you for your speech problem.

Kyd looked confused.

Lisa put a special device on his neck and then…

Kyd Wykkyd: What is this device?

For the first time ever he could talk with his voice!

Kyd Wykkyd: Hey! I can talk! I can talk!

Me: You sure can!

Lisa: Thanks to my new voice transmogrifier choker. It activates the vocal cords and gets them to work.

Me: That is genius.

Nico: WOW!

Blossom: Glad you're back Mojo.

Mojo: So what changed your minds about me? You were all dead set on letting me rot in prison before.

Me: Well it wouldn't be the same for the Powerpuff Girls unless they have their Number 1 arch-nemesis back. The Powerpuff Girls beat you more times than anyone else can even count.

Blossom: It's true Mojo. We missed beating you every time.

Bubbles: Yeah we sure did.

Mojo Jojo: I'm touched that you feel that way about me. (Sees both Bunny's) Who are the new girls?

Bunny: My name is Bunny.

Bunny (Young): And I'm her younger self.

Me: There's a really dark story behind them.

I told Mojo Jojo everything with Bunny and it was shocking and dark.

---

Bunny is one of the created, short-lived sisters of the Powerpuff Girls. She is shown only once in "Twisted Sister". The Powerpuff Girls each have a unique ingredient for her; sugar, spice, and everything nice. Just as each of the other Powerpuff Girls has a signature color, hers is lilac.

In the episode "Twisted Sister," the Girls created a fourth Powerpuff Girl named Bunny so that they could ease the burden of saving the town by themselves.

The girls were too overworked for the day, so they sneak into the lab to create a fourth Powerpuff Girl. Unlike her predecessors, she was created by the girls using imitation objects of those which gave the girls life (artificial sweetener instead of sugar, dirt, and twigs instead of spices, what the girls considered to be "everything nice"), and Chemical X added "accidentally" along with the beaker containing it. While she possessed the same powers as the girls and a similar color theme (having purple eyes and a purple dress to match), she has a hunch back, a stray tooth, big lips and a raggedy brown ponytail, unlike the Powerpuff Girls. She couldn't speak in complete English, so Bubbles gave her the name Bunny (although Buttercup named her Braces at first, because of her crooked teeth, much to Blossom's disapproval). Bunny wants to please her sisters/creators, but her size and weight don't help. However, despite her physical and mental abnormality, they let Bunny join them in fighting crime. When they started their usual day of crime-fighting, she thought that having a gun made a person a criminal, and when she alone saw and alone confronted two cops taking in two crooks and brandishing guns, she threw the cops into jail and started to release criminals, thinking they were good people.

As a result of her mishaps, the girls send Bunny away, only to be confronted by every convict Bunny released throughout the episode. To redeem herself and save the girls, she defeats every criminal herself. However, due to her instability, she exploded in a flash of light after defeating the criminals. After which, a piece of her dress fell to the ground as the girls kneeled to it in mourning.

---

Most of us gasped in shock and sadness.

Me: Yeah it was really dark.

Nico: They were sad as all get out.

Lola: Yeah it was sad.

Bunny (Adult): But I'm back and made right.

Bunny (Young): Yeah.

Ben: (to Trumbipulor) You know, during the final Total Drama season, I thought Elestomp was you.

Trumbipulor: Really? Well, unlike him, I'm a lot stronger!

Me: It's gonna be really cool for Ben to have you as his archenemy in the Masters of Evil.

Ben: It sure is.

Riley: Me and Ben can help face you Trumbipular.

Ben: Yeah!

Trumbipulor: I thought Julie was your girlfriend Ben?

Ben: It didn't work out between us.

Julie Yamamoto: Yeah so I help Ben out as a friend.

Avalanche: I hope you're not expecting to see my rock monster form again. Because that serum was a one time use only.

Me: I'm just amazed that you were able to survive being thrown into the ocean like that Dominikos. Edzilla packed a huge throw on him.

Avalanche: He sure did.

?: That was quite a throw from what we were told.

A figure came out and it was PRAYING MANTIS from episode 22 of In Space!

---

Praying Mantis was a robotic mantis monster used by Astronema. Praying Mantis was sent by Astronema to take advantage of Zhane's morphing time limit. Astronema attached a digital 2:30 timer strip on Praying Mantis's shoulder and if he could detain Zhane for two and a half minutes, the device would do the rest. When the monster put down his scythe in the ground, it made a fog to hide himself. His shoulder blades could detach and trap Zhane. He was finally destroyed by the Mega Voyager.

---

Zhane: Praying Mantis!

Praying Mantis: Been a while Silver Ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Astronema to take advantage of Zhane's morphing time limit and detain him.

Praying Mantis: Good memory on you.

Nico: But that 2 minutes and 30 seconds time limit was all he needed.

Praying Mantis: (to Zhane) I see you have your powers at full strength again, Silver Ranger.

Zhane: And I intend to use them on you for some payback Mantis Breath.

Manterror: This monster makes Praying Mantis's everywhere look awful!

Laney: I was just about to point that out.

Me: Yeah and that scythe is cool.

Praying Mantis: If you all defeat me I'll give it to your friend Shino.

Shino Aburame: You got a deal.

But then a Rubix Cube came and rolled to me.

Me: Huh?

I picked it up.

Me: A rubix cube? Where did this come from?

?: (British Accent) That's for me.

Apple Bloom: Pip Squeak?

A figure came out and it was Pip Squeak.

Apple Bloom: Pip Squeak! Thank goodness you're all right.

Cheerilee: I was so worried about you!

Me: Pip how come you like solving Rubix Cubes so much? These things are almost impossible to figure out.

Pip Squeak: It's thanks to my friend here.

He held up a Number card and it was NUMBER 85: CRAZY BOX!

We gasped!

Eli: Number 85: Crazy Box!

Apple Fritter: He had a Number on him!

Me: And its design is similar to the Lament Configuration Box from the Hellraiser Movies!

May: Pip, give us that card before you hurt someone!

Pip Squeak: No way luv. I found it and I love solving Rubix Cubes.

We saw that he had a huge pile of solved Rubix Cubes.

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa! How was he able to solve that many rubix cubes?

Me: It's Crazy Box's power.

Qin: Not even I am capable of solving that many Rubix Cubes in one sitting.

Me: Lets go at them. We'll deal with you in a second Spacely.

We went at them.

Battle 1: Takanuva, Moonlight Raven, Ink Rose, Maud Pie, Marble Pie, AncientSphinxmon, Dharc the Dark Charmer, Eartha and Dreadbane VS Kyd Wykkyd

---

First up was Kyd Wykkyd.

Dharc: So how does it feel to talk for you?

Kyd Wykkyd: It feels great! I couldn't talk before but now I can!

Ink Rose: We're glad you can.

Kyd: (to Takanuva) Weren't you a Matoran named Takua before?

Takanuva: Yes I was. But then I put on the Kanohi Mask of Light and became the Seventh Toa. Now I am Takanuva the Toa of Light.

Moonlight Raven: That is amazing that you would become like that.

Ink Rose: It sure is.

Marble Pie nodded.

Kyd Wykkyd: What's wrong with Marble?

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) Marble can't speak so she lets Pinkie usually talk for her and sometimes I do too.

AncientSphinxmon: Wow. So both of us have mute people.

Kyd Wykkyd: We sure do.

Dharc: Lisa might have to make a second one of those devices for Marble.

Ink Rose: That's a good idea.

Marble nodded.

Eartha: Always ready for some fun though.

Dreadbane: Yeah me too!

Kyd Wykkyd: Here's my Pokemon.

He called out his Pokemon and he had 4 Murkrow and a Darkrai.

Takanuva: 4 Murkrow and a Darkrai. Those are perfect for you.

Kyd Wykkyd: Thank you. Lets do it.

Kyd Wykkyd then teleported behind them and Takanuva threw him to the front.

Moonlight Raven: This is gonna be fun! DARKNESS MOON STYLE NINJA ART: NEW MOON THUNDERSTRIKE!

Moonlight Raven fired blasts of black fire and it formed into a black moon of darkness.

Ink Rose: This is darkness. DARKNESS ROSE STYLE NINJA ART: ROSES OF THE NETHERWORLD!

Ink Rose fired waves of black rose petals and they formed into scary rose flowers.

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) I love to use rocks. MINERAL STYLE NINJA ART: RUBY SHARD MEGA SHOWER.

Maud fired massive waves of ruby shards.

Marble used a technique called MARBLE STYLE NINJA ART: ORANGE MARBLE VOLCANIC BLAST and she fired blasts of orange and black marbles.

AncientSphinxmon: This will be good. (Echoing) DARK BLAST!

AncientSphinxmon fired blasts of lasers that were followed by a roar.

Dharc: This too. DARK BAT STYLE NINJA ART: COLONY OF DARKNESS BATS!

Dharc fired a massive wave of darkness and bats.

Takanuva, Eartha and Dreadbane fired blasts of light, earth and energy and they smashed into Kyd Wykkyd and his Pokemon and knocked him down.

Takanuva: Yeah!

Moonlight Raven: That was a lot of fun.

Ink Rose: Yeah it was.

Battle 2: Ben Tennyson, Starlight Glimmer, Sunburst, Flurry Heart, AncientTroiamon, Aussa the Earth Charmer, Naruto Uzumaki, Scrap Shooter and Grinnade VS Billy Numerous

---

Billy Numerous was up next.

Billy Numerous: (to Ben) So, which alien are you going to use for this fight?

Ben: I think I'll use Ditto to see how many clones we can face.

Naruto: I like that.

Billy Numerous: I'm also honored to meet the future 7th Hokage.

Naruto: I won't disappoint you.

Starlight Glimmer: It's so awesome how you make clones like that.

Sunburst: Yeah it is. You can be in many places at one.

Billy Numerous: I sure can.

AncientTroiamon: I got to admit that is very impressive.

Aussa: It sure is. This is gonna be interesting.

Scrap Shooter: It sure is see.

Grinnade: (Video Game noises)

Flurry Heart: Grinnade says he is gonna really have some fun.

Sunburst: How do you know what Grinnade was saying Flurry Heart?

Flurry Heart: Nicole has been teaching me how to translate in video game sounds.

Sunburst: That's amazing!

Billy Numerous: Indeed. Here's my Pokemon.

He called out his Pokemon and he had 10 Reuniclus!

Ben: Awesome! 10 Reuniclus!

Billy Numerous: Yep. Lets do it!

Ben turned into Ditto!

Ben: DITTO!

Billy Numerous formed into 300 clones!

Naruto: MULTI-SHADOW CLONE JUTSU!

Naruto formed 300 clones as well!

Ditto formed into 300 clones.

They went at him and viciously pulverized the clones all over.

Starlight Glimmer: Try this one! CONSTELLATION STYLE NINJA ART: FURY OF VIRGO THE MAIDEN!

The stars of the constellation of Virgo the Maiden appeared in the background behind her and she fired waves of energy that formed into Virgo the Maiden.

Sunburst: This will brighten your day! SUNBURST STYLE NINJA ART: FLAMES OF LIGHT SPEAR STORM!

Sunburst fired blasts of sunlight and it formed into spears.

Flurry Heart: This is gonna be fun! CRYSTAL HEART STYLE NINJA ART: PRISMATIC CRYSTAL BLAST!

Flurry Heart fired a massive blast of rainbow light from her hands.

AncientTroiamon: This will be good! (Echoing) SURPRISE CANNON!

AncientTroiamon fired a massive energy blast from his chest and mouth cannons.

Aussa the Earth Charmer: This will be good. EARTH MARMOT STYLE NINJA ART: EARTHQUAKE STORM!

Aussa fired beams of energy from her staff and it formed into a deadly storms with earthquake lightning.

Ben, Scrap Shooter and Grinnade blasted Billy Numerous and his Pokemon and the blasts all hit him and knocked him and his Pokemon down.

Ben reverted back.

Ben: Yeah that was fun!

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah it was!

Sunburst: Awesome!

Battle 3: Jaune Arc, Powerpuff Girls, Wynn the Wind Charmer, Applejack, Apple Bloom, Apple Fritter, Big Mac, AncientWisemon, Headstrong and Tantrum VS Mojo Jojo

---

Mojo Jojo was up next.

Mojo Jojo: (to Jaune) Is it true that there was an alternate world where the Powerpuff Girls were evil?

Jaune: Yeah there sure was.

Tantrum: Lincoln showed us that in one of his comics and it was awful.

Headstrong: We met your mirror counterpart Jomo Momo and he told us about it. It was really scary.

Mojo Jojo: Amazing! I have always known that there was a parallel universe version of me.

Blossom: Yeah except we were the bad guys in that universe and J.D. and everyone stopped them.

Wynn: Wow! That must've been brutal.

Applejack: Yeah we weren't there when that happened.

Apple Bloom: It must've been rough having to face evil versions of yourselves.

Bubbles: It was.

Buttercup: Except instead of being called the Powerpuff Girls they were called The Powerpunk Girls.

The Powerpuff Girls told him everything.

---

The Powerpunk Girls are villainesses in The Powerpuff Girls comic series, appearing as the main antagonists of issue #50, Deja View . They are negative counterparts of the Powerpuff Girls' from a parallel universe.

The Powerpunk Girls are evil, spoiled, selfish, vicious, sadistic villains and love to bring destruction to their hometown of Viletown, as well as killing it's civilians (offscreen, however). Their negative traits outweighs the Powerpuff Girls' good side, and they never change their ways. According to Jomo Momo (Mojo Jojo's good counterpart), Viletown used to be a normal city until Oppressor Plutonium (Professor Utonium's evil counterpart) ruled it with an iron fist. But to bring "fun" and "profit", Oppressor created the Powerpunk Girls to act as his tools to terrorize Viletown, and the three girls love nothing more then to bring terror and destruction to those around them. They were supposed to appear in an episode, but due to the creator's time to make the Powerpuff Girls Movie, the episode has to be scrapped, and was then put into one of the comic issues.

The Powerpunk Girls only appear in Deja View, where they and their good counterparts swapped each other to their respective universes. They were mad at Professor Utonium entering "their" room, not even knowing that they were in another universe, until a monster attacks Townsville. They took care of it before destroying Townsville the same way they do in Viletown, even killing it's civilians. When the Powerpuff Girls have to go back to their universe to take their evil counterparts back into their respective universe, a battle ensues between the Puffs and the Punks, where the Powerpunk Girls got the upperhand due to them being stronger then the Powerpuff Girls, despite the six of them being the same person. They were, however, defeated when they were tricked into going back to their universe. Before they could terrorize Viletown yet again, Jomo appeared in front of them with a ray gun, ready to fire. Whether or not the Powerpunk Girls died afterwards or continue their rampage to Viletown is unknown.

There were also rumors that if the show were to be renewed, there would be an episode where the Powerpunk Girls would somehow arrive back to the Powerpuff Girls' universe, where they would meet and fall in love with The Rowdyruff Boys, which would bring jealousy to the girls. The rumors, however, are completely false, as there is no way for the Powerpunks to go back to their counterparts' universe, as well as their possible ultimate fate in the comic, and not to mention the Rowdyruff Boys and the Powerpuff Girls' unending hatred towards each other.

Berserk

Berserk is Blossom's counterpart. Unlike Blossom, Berserk is bossy, mean, and always talkative. While Blossom is a "parent" to her sisters, Berserk would often cause conflicts between herself and her sisters. Her ribbons are long and messy, and it is rumored that she can move them to attack or grab her foes, though it is unconfirmed. Her element is Everything Nasty.

Brat

Brat is Bubbles' counterpart and has a perky and somewhat sadistic attitude. She looks exactly like her good counterpart, except her pigtails are much longer, have visible ribbons, and wears revealing clothing with three bracelets on each wrists. While Bubbles cries, Brat doesn't. Like her name suggests, she acts like a spoiled brat and enjoys acting very sassy. Her element is Salt.

Brute

Brute is Buttercup's counterpart. She has the same personality as her, but she is meaner, more disgusting and more violent. She is the only Powerpunk Girl who doesn't have long hair, and instead sports a black mohawk. Unlike her regular counterpart, Brute enjoys being rude, cruel, and gross towards everyone around her (even her sisters). She sports spiked wristbands and a spike waistband, which are real spikes. Her element is Vinegar.

---

Mojo Jojo was shocked.

Mojo Jojo: Whoa! That's like dealing with the RowdyRuff Boys on steroids.

Blossom: Yeah. Except instead of sugar, spice and everything nice…

Bunny: They were made with Salt, Vinegar and Everything Nasty.

AncientWisemon: That is a majorly nasty combination. I know those sayings "Sugar, Spice and Everything Nice are what little girls are made of" and "Snips, Snails and Puppy Dog Tails are what Little Boys are made of" but obviously that is for some people that are born bad.

Mojo Jojo: That's right.

Apple Fritter: Thank goodness those monsters are dead.

Applejack: Yeah good riddance.

Big Mac: Eeyup.

Mojo Jojo: Indeed. Lets get it on.

Jaune: One more thing. I heard from J.D. that you inadvertently and ironically created the Powerpuff Girls.

Mojo Jojo: I sure did. It was an accident that made them. I pushed Professor Utonium and he smashed open a vat of Chemical X and it poured into the mixture and it ended up not only mutating me and giving me superintelligence as you can see by my enlarged brain, but also making the Powerpuff Girls that I vowed to destroy for so long and rule the world.

Jaune: Wow!

Blossom: Ironic huh?

Jaune: That's incredibly ironic.

Mojo Jojo called out his Pokemon and he had a Simipour, Simisage and a Simisear.

Jaune: Simipour, Simisage and Simisear. Those are perfect for you.

Mojo Jojo: Thank you.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done!

The Jetsons is one of my all time favorite shows from back when I was a kid. It was so cool seeing the life of the awesome iconic family in the year 2062. The next Number is gonna be Number 52: Diamond Crab King and it's gonna be in the possession of Lola's friend Meli Ramos and she will have the power to shoot diamonds because of it. She is going to fight Lola, FIRE VS DIAMONDS. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is an awesome Russian adventure as we journey to the beginning of the Soviet Union in 1926 in the 1997 movie Anastasia to find the long lost Anastasia Nikolaevna and we're all going to kill her family's murderer: the Satanic Minister, Grigori Rasputin. It's gonna be a battle for Russia in Heaven and Hell.

See you all tomorrow.

Russia's Most Evil Monster

We were walking home from the Mall and Principal Skinner, Cantwell and Chalmers were with us as we were catching up on some fun times that were going o.

Skinner: So then Bart wrote I am A Weiner on my forehead and I was a total laughingstock in front of the whole school.

We laughed.

Bart: (Laughs) That was funny.

?: There you are Seymour!

Skinner: (Gasp) Oh dear god! I thought I was rid of that voice forever ever since Springfield was blown up.

We saw an elderly woman and it was none other than Agnes Skinner, Principal Skinner's bitter and extremely demented mother!

---

Agnes Skinner, more commonly known as Mrs. Skinner, is the strict and bitter mother of Seymour Skinner. She is very harshly controlling of Seymour, and treats him like a mother would a small child, once grounding him because he did not say who was at the door after answering it. She hates Seymour's choice in women, especially the late Edna Krabappel. Agnes has married a total of four times, once with Skinner's father, Sheldon Skinner, and following Sheldon's death she then married three more times, each time to a tow truck driver. Several Springfield residents (including the Simpsons) are afraid of her.

She is voiced by Tress MacNeille (who also voices Dolph Starbeam, Lunchlady Doris, and Booberella in the same franchise).

In the 1920s, Agnes used to be a wing walker on early planes and performer. Her videos were shown in museums. During the 50s, Agnes was a Pole Vaulter and competed during the 1952 Summer Olympics.

Personality

When she first appeared as a kindly old woman who embarrassingly called her son "Spanky". According to the DVD audio commentary it is said that her current mean streak can be attributed to the incident involving Bart that took place in that episode in which, while sitting in a urinal stall, Bart caused the toilets to explode. Currently, she is harshly controlling of Seymour, who used to spend more time with her than with his then girlfriend, Edna Krabappel.

Agnes has exhibited "cougar" tendencies in several episodes. Among the younger men she has been in a relationship (or possibly had sex) with there are Superintendent Chalmers, Otto Mann and Comic Book Guy.

Relationship with Seymour

Agnes shares an unhealthy relationship with her son, which often borders on psychosis. Examples include Agnes covering up "her half of the television" with cardboard to spite Seymour. When Seymour was out of the house, Agnes phoned him regularly demanding to be taken out of the bath, shielded from the glare of car lights on the street, and other such petty requests. She hid his car keys as a punishment for his talking to a woman on the phone. Seymour himself is very obedient and almost distressingly physically and emotionally close to her (for example, when Edna agreed to marry Seymour, Agnes murmured under her breath "three in the bed!"). Agnes Skinner's catchphrase is "Seymour!" often used to snap her son's attention (as opposed to Superintendent Chalmer's catchphrase, "Skin-NER!"). She also uses him as a slave for her own bidding as evident from the quote "Why couldn't you have died instead of the Car?".

Some of Agnes' resentment to Seymour may have derived from even before Seymour was born-in the episode Boy Meets Curl during the 1952 Summer Olympics in Helsinki, Agnes competed in the pole vaulting event while 9-months pregnant. When Seymour makes his first kick, he hits the bar, thus, making Agnes lose and subsequently crushing her dreams; this is probably why she is so harsh on Seymour.

Family Real Son

In "The Principal and the Pauper", Agnes' biological son, the real Seymour Skinner (voiced by Martin Sheen), returns to Springfield from war. Agnes, unhappy with her new living situation with her biological son, travels to Capital City to take back Armin Tamzarian. She and other Springfieldians, who have grown to like Tamzarian, force the real Seymour Skinner out of Springfield, tying him to a freight train cart headed out of the town.

Due to the unpopularity of this episode, by the time of the Season 21 episode "Boy Meets Curl", the events of this episode were deemed non-canon as Agnes' flashback to the 1952 Olympics was intended to completely retcon the events from the "Principal and the Pauper".

Husbands

She was married to Sheldon Skinner who resembles Armin Tamzarian (now legally Seymour Skinner) and not the real Seymour, this is most likely an inconsistency. Agnes has also claimed that she was married to three tow truckers.

Boyfriends

Agnes Skinner had affairs with several men, such as Comic Book Guy and Gary Chalmers. While she was dating the Comic Book Guy he was arrested for having a secret room full of illegal videos. He asked her if she would wait for him till he got out of jail but she refused, saying that her bones were half dust. In one episode, she revealed that she once had an affair with Mr. Burns.

Fake Death

In "Yellow Subterfuge" Agnes gets Stabbed in the back and dies. Then it reveals it was all a farce staged by Homer and Bart.

Non-canon Appearances Treehouse of Horror II

Agnes can be seen with a mustache in Lisa's dream.

Treehouse of Horror VIII

Anges is burned at the stake along with Elizabeth Hoover and Luann Van Houten.

Treehouse of Horror XI

Although with no continuity Agnes is dropped to her death from many stories up in Treehouse of Horror XI when Homer is attempting a good deed.

Future

In the future, Seymour keeps her living head in a jar in his and Edna's home, similar to the heads in a jar shown in Futurama.

She is seen cryogenically frozen along with other elderly citizens in "Holidays of Future Passed".

---

Wallflower: Who the Hell are you?

Skinner: (sighs) That would be my mother.

Me: Agnes Skinner is alive?

Agnes Skinner: Of course I'm alive you halfwit!

Me: Who are you calling a halfwit!

Nico: Not now J.D.

Agnes Skinner: I've been looking all over for you Seymour! You are supposed to be looking out for me and not hanging out with a bunch of delinquent halfwits that you barely even know! I want you to clean your room, put your toys away and give me a sponge bath.

Punk Shock: (to Agnes Skinner) You're gonna shut your mouth right now. Your son has done so much good in the Masters of Evil. Including stopping people like the OP, Sam's former parents, and Tavington. And what have you done?

Me: Yeah. What have YOU done? Hm?

Agnes Skinner: That's none of your business. Now come on Seymour, you are needed at home!

Me: It is my business!

Skinner: No mother!

Agnes Skinner: WHAT THE HELL DID YOU SAY!?

Skinner: I said no mother! I'm a man now and I'm fine with taking care of myself.

Cantwell: Look, your son may not seem like much. But he can kick a lot of ass.

Agnes Skinner: Says the teacher who hated Lisa Simpson!

Cantwell: I only hated her in the past because she was prettier then me! You hate on your son for no reason!

Offroad: And unlike you, Cantwell's willing to admit her faults!

Me: That's right! Your son has done so much more than just everything that Punk Shock said. He also fought hard during the Vietnam War and he was captured by the Vietnamese and was brutally tortured in Vietnam as a P.O.W. and an elephant killed his entire platoon.

Lincoln: (Skeptical) Really?

Me: Yeah it happened. But Skinner went through hell.

Agnes Skinner: How would you know what he went through!? You weren't there!

Me: You're right I wasn't. I wasn't even born back then when all that happened. But I am the grandson of World War II veterans and I know the kinds of horrors that war can bring. But Skinner has been through Hell 100-fold and he served our country. But for God sakes Agnes, Seymour Skinner is a grown man now and he's not a kid anymore. And he is not your slave. He is a Vietnam War Veteran, A man and a hero and it's time he starts being treated like one. It's been 45 years since the Vietnam War ended and Seymour is a grown man and it's time you started treating him like a man and with respect. He fought bravely for our country and you need to treat him like a hero.

Maria: That's right!

Agnes Skinner: FINE!

She walked off.

Maria: So, what do we do with her?

Sideswipe: I say you guys should let me and Sunstreaker run her over. And then, we'll say it was an accident.

Me: No Sideswipe. Let her go. She needs to think about this. Agnes is in her 90s now and she needs to think about everything we said.

Skinner: J.D. is right. My mother has dementia. That's why she is so mean to me.

Me: Besides, someone her age with dementia can't do any harm to all of us.

---

Later we were in the Infirmary and we were there to check up on Pip-Squeak, Cookie and the Number Holders.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) J.D.?

Me: How are you feeling Pip-Squeak?

Pip-Squeak: Still weak and tired. Number 85 did a number on me.

Me: Yeah I know. But you'll be all right. You're gonna be weak like this for the next couple of days.

Pip-Squeak: I can't believe I solved all those rubix cubes under that cards influence.

Me: Yeah even we were all impressed.

Varie was talking to Cookie who was still weak from being under the influence of Number 87.

Cookie: Wow. I can't believe I was that graceful and danced really good.

Varie: You were really dancing all over/

Cookie: Wow. How many Number cards do you all have now?

Varie: 12 and counting. We have 88 to find.

Robo-Lori: I was amazed that the Numbers are the fragments of memories from Astral.

Cookie: Me too. But before I was dancing like that I saw Lola's friend Meli acting really strange. She was drawing pictures of Nico with knives and bullet wounds and stab wounds in him.

Varie gasped.

Varie: That is definitely not normal. Do you think it's a Number?

Cookie: I think so. I can't remember what it was but I did see the picture on the card. It looked like a crab with a shell made of solid diamond.

Varie: Hmm. Do you think you can come with us to show us what it was when we go on our next mission?

Cookie: I can try. I think I have my strength back.

Me: Good. Are you hungry?

Cookie: I'm starving.

Me: Can you stand up?

Cookie: I think so.

Cookie got up but then she stumbled and I caught her.

Me: Careful. You're still a little too weak to stand on your own.

I put her in a wheelchair I carted her to the kitchen and we got her some food and she was hungry. She ate 5 bowls of lasagna and spaghetti.

Cookie: Man I was hungry.

Me: Boy you sure were.

Nico: No kidding.

Eli: That's more than what I normally eat.

Cookie: Yeah.

Me: Now it's time for us to get ready for our next mission. We're gonna need our fur parkas for this because we're going to Russia. But we're going in the Simulator for this adventure.

Nico: Cool!

We went to the Simulator and we got ready as we were putting on our fur parkas and more.

Quick Man: So, we're going to Russia next, right?

Me: Yep. We're going to 2 time periods in Russia. First we're going to when the February Revolution broke out in 1917. Then we're going to 1926 Soviet Union Russia. We're going to help Anastasia avenge her family.

Lori: I literally know this scenario all too well.

Me: Yep. We're going there to help Anastasia kill the most evil man in all of Russia's history, the man who helped overthrow the Tsarhood and bring Russia into the era of the Soviet Union and the Age of Communism: GRIGORI RASPUTIN!

THUNDERCLAP! THUNDERCLAP! CAT YOWLS!

Ink Rose: Who is Grigori Rasputin?

Me: You would hate this guy Ink Rose. He's the most evil minister in the entire history of Russia. In 1917 during the February Revolution he helped overthrow the Tsarhood of Russia and brought all of the entire country into the era of the Soviet Union and Communism.

Nico: Whoa man!

Lori: He is also literally the first monster I faced.

Anastasia: And it's how she met me.

Zarya (Overwatch): (Russian Accent) Wait a second. I thought you looked familiar. You are the Grand Duchess of Russia and the long lost daughter of Tsar Nicholas II, Anastasia Nikolaevna.

Anastasia: That's right.

Zarya (Overwatch): Thank goodness Comrade Lori saved you.

Anastasia: And I am forever indebted to her.

I went over Rasputin's history.

---

Grigori Yefimovich Rasputin (Russian: Григорий Ефимович Распутин ), or better known as his surname Rasputin, is the main antagonist of the 1997 Don Bluth animated feature film Anastasia by 20th Century Fox. He is loosely based on the real-life Russian psychic of the same name: however, in the film, he is depicted as a far more malevolent and manipulative being of black magic than the real-life Rasputin, though the two share the common title of " Mad Monk ". He is Anastasia and Dimitri's arch-nemesis.

He was voiced by Christopher Lloyd, who also played Judge Doom in Who Framed Roger Rabbit, Reggie Shand in Walk Like a Man, The Hacker in Cyberchase, Merlock in DuckTales the Movie: Treasure of the Lost Lamp, Lord Imaru in The Secret Treasure of Machu Picchu by Golden Films, Mr. Clipboard in Foodfight!, Bill Crowley in I Am Not A Serial Killer, Dr. Heep in Baby Geniuses, and Kruge in the Star Trek universe. However, his singing voice was provided by Jim Cummings, who also played Razoul in Disney's Aladdin, Ed the Hyena in Disney's The Lion King, and Long John Silver in The Pagemaster by 20th Century Fox, and Steele in Balto by Universal Pictures, and was also half of the singing voice of Scar in Disney's The Lion King .

Rasputin was banished for treason by the Russian Tsar Nicholas Romanov.

Eager for revenge for his then banishment, Rasputin planned on destroying the Russian royalty. He sold his soul to the otherworldly forces of darkness in exchange for his Reliquary and for the power to destroy the czar Nicholas II and his family, in the process becoming a lich (a type of undead creature with magical powers). He then returns to the Russian palace and inflicts on the czar's family with the Romanov curse. All of the royals are killed by Rasputin and the Russian soldiers, except for the czar's mother, Marie Romanov, and his daughter, Anastasia. Rasputin eventually attempts to murder Anastasia with his bare hands while chasing her across a frozen river. Jumping from the bridge above, he tackles the young girl face first onto the thin ice, losing his amulet in the process. He viciously grabs her by the ankle and thrashes her about; threatening her life whilst she begs for mercy. But the ice under the evil man begins to break before he can get any closer to the young Romanov. The empress quickly rushes her away from the drowning man who sinks and he is unable to die until he completes his curse.

10 years later, Rasputin is trapped in limbo, then his amulet is back in his hands' thanks to Bartok. Driven more by his intense and malevolent desire for revenge, he wishes to finish off what he started before he rests in peace by killing Anastasia. Putting his demonic minions to work on finding and destroying her but failing, he is accompanied throughout the film by his reluctant minion Bartok, who is a white bat.

Rasputin summons his army of green demons to kill Anya and complete his revenge. He has the demons sabotage the train Anya, Dimitri and Vlad are on, by separating the train with an engine and baggage car from the dining car and coaches in Poland. However, Anya, Vladimir, and Dimitri jump off the train to avoid falling to their deaths, to Rasputin's fury.

Later, Anya, Dimitri, and Vlad arrive in from Stralsund, Germany, and board a ship to Paris. That night, as Anya sleeps, Rasputin invades her dreams and causes her to sleepwalk to the edge of the ship. Luckily, Dimitri (alerted by Pooka) awakens and rescues Anya at the last second.

Enraged at the failure, Rasputin throws a childish tantrum. Recomposing himself, he tells Bartok that he will go to Paris himself and kill Anastasia in person. Bartok tries to talk him out of it but to no avail.

Later, Rasputin takes advantage of Pooka leading Anastasia into a garden maze and traps her there to reveal himself. He then tries to kill her on the Alexander Bridge over an icy Seine River; mimicking the same tragic night on the ice they once shared before. Dimitri returns to save her but is injured and knocked unconscious by the Black Pegasus.

Anastasia survives and is filled with rage. She attacks Rasputin and they both wrestle body to body. Pooka snatches the reliquary and it rolls to Anastasia's feet. Anastasia stomps on the reliquary, causing it to explode. With the reliquary gone, Rasputin is unable to keep his end of the devil's contract, so his gargoyle minions turn on him, causing his flesh to be liquefied, his cloak dissolving, and his skeletal body then crumbles away to dust, which the wind then blows away, avenging Anatasia's family and all those who died for his actions. While not stated in the film, the tie-in picture book specifies that due the reliquary's destruction and his inability to fulfil his part of the deal, Rasputin was dragged to Hell.

Bartok the Magnificent

Rasputin makes a silent cameo among the crowd at the Romanov castle.

---

Everyone gasped.

Zarya (Overwatch): I've known Rasputin's dark deeds for a long time comrades. He is pure evil incarnate.

Me: Yeah. He made a pact with the Devil that turned him into a Lich.

Nico: Like Necrafa.

Me: Exactly.

Mojo Jojo, Man Ray, Billy Numerous, Kyd Wykkyd, Trumbipulor and Avalanche appeared.

Mojo: Can Me, Man Ray, Billy Numerous, Kyd Wykkyd, Trumbipulor, and Avalanche come with you all as well?

Me: You sure can Mojo.

Lori: But we're literally gonna be in for a rough battle when we get there.

Nico: That's right. Like Necrafa, Rasputin sold his soul to the devil and it turned him into a Lich. So we're gonna be in for a brutal battle that could literally destroy all of Moscow.

Me: Yeah. Lori dealt with this guy before. Grigori Rasputin is a Satanic Minister. He killed all of Anastasia's family and he will stop at nothing to kill her too.

Lincoln: Yeah this was before we became Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Laney: And we were testing out our Simulator back then.

Ashi: Wow. That's amazing.

Me: Lets head in.

We went into the Simulator and it activated and we found ourselves in the middle of Moscow, Russia in the middle of the February Revolution back in 1917.

Wolfgang: (Australian Accent) So this is Russia?

Me: Yep. This is Russia back in 1917. 103 years ago.

We saw the February Revolution in full swing as they pulled down the statue of Tsar Nicholas II.

Anastasia: I can't believe they would do this.

Me: Rasputin did this. Not the citizens of Russia. Lets find your past self and stop her from getting amnesia.

We went to the train that leads out of Russia.

Me: There's the train.

Kyd Wykkyd: I'm on it.

Kyd: (to Past Anastasia) Listen, I need you to trust me. I can get you off this train!

Past Anastasia: How?

Kyd Wykkyd: Hold on to me.

She did so and they vanished in a flash.

They reappeared by us.

Me: Lets go someplace to hide until we can come up with a plan.

Nico: Okay.

We went to the St. Basil's Cathedral and it was beautiful.

Me: This will provide cover for us till the crowds die down.

Lori: Okay.

Past Anastasia: Are you… me?

Doofenshmirtz: Oh boy. Time travel trouble.

Anastasia: Yes I am you. But I'm now part of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: It's a long story. But this is all the work of Grigori Rasputin.

Past Anastasia: That monster that was banished by father?

Me: That's him. He killed your father and destroyed your entire family. We came here from the future too help you avenge your family, kill Rasputin and get justice for everything that Rasputin did.

Past Anastasia cried hard over the loss of her family.

Me: Anastasia I promise that will find Rasputin and make him suffer for his crimes.

Past Anastasia: Thank you.

Me: He will pay dearly for everything he has done. But first Anastasia, you need a growth spurt.

I snapped my fingers and the Simulator fast forwarded 10 years to 1926. The Soviet Union rose to power and Russia was now in the age of Communism.

Me: Here we are guys. Russia is now in the Soviet Union Era.

Zarya (Overwatch): This was one of Russia's darkest eras.

Me: Yep. For 71 years Russia was the Soviet Union until it became the Russian Federation.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) That's right comrades.

Adult Anastasia came out and she was dressed in magnificent dress.

Me: Wow.

Anastasia: Wow! I look amazing.

Adult Anastasia: Wow. I sure do. It's just amazing that I would become so beautiful.

Me: I know.

Man Ray: (to Anastasia) We're gonna need the help of your friends that live here if we're gonna take Rasuptin out.

Anastasia: I understand. We need to find Dimitri.

Me: Okay. Lets find him.

Lana: How are we gonna find him though? Moscow was so big back in 1926 as it is in the 21st Century.

Me: Yeah that's true. Back during this time Moscow, Russia had a population of over 9 million people. It's gonna be like trying to find a needle in a haystack.

Lisa Loud: J.D. is right. With over 970 square miles to cover we're gonna need to split up.

Armada Starscream: I'll fly in the air to look for Dimitri.

Me: Okay.

Armada Starscream transformed into his jet mode.

Armada Starscream: Need a ride to help search Nico?

Nico: Sure.

Nico got into his Cockpit and they flew into the air.

It was gonna be a big search.

Me: Lets split up and search. If you see Rasputin or his goons, do not engage him.

Billy Numerous: I'll send a few clones of myself to see if any of Rasputin's goons are lurking about.

Me: Rasputin's goons are demons from Hell. He sold his soul to the Devil for the power to destroy the Romanov Dynasty. The Devil gave him command of some of his demons to use for this. The demons he has are in an unholy reliquiry.

Lori: I literally remember that. It's the source of his power.

Andropov: (Russian Accent) Then if we destroy that we can destroy him.

Lana: But first we have to get that away from him.

Me: Lori can hold him off long enough for us to have our usual battles here and then pulverize his brains out and then destroy the Reliquiry. Lori dealt with him before remember?

Varie: I sure do.

Me: Good. Lets split up and move out.

We split up and searched all over Russia. We searched high and low for him all over Moscow.

Starscream: I think I see him!

They saw him looking for something in the Catherine Palace.

Nico: Guys I think we found him in the Catherine Palace!

Me: (On the radio) We're on our way.

We went over and we landed in front of them.

Razorclaw: Hi, are you Dimitri?

Dimitri: I sure am.

Me: Dimitri we mean you no harm. I'm J.D. Knudson, leader of Team Loud Phoenix Storm. We came here from 96 years into the future to help your friend Anastasia Nikolaevna kill Rasputin and avenge the Romanov Dynasty.

Dimitri: But Anastasia's dead.

Me: No she isn't.

Anastasia: Dimitri?

He saw her for the first time in 10 years.

Dimitri: Anastasia? Is it really you?

Anastasia: It sure is.

Dimitri: Anastasia!

They hugged for the first time in 10 years.

Anastasia: I'm so glad you're all right!

Dimitri: I am too.

Maggie then came up to them.

Maggie: Anastasia? I have something you should know.

Anastasia: What is it?

Maggie: Lisa ran some genealogical tests on me and she discovered that you are my ancestor. I am your descendant.

Anastasia gasped. We all gasped in shock!

Me: Whoa! I didn't see that coming!

Luan: Wow! Anastasia and Maggie are both family.

Lincoln: That is so cool!

Anastasia: That is amazing. I can't believe it.

Maggie: That is amazing huh?

Brittney: Wow. We did not expect this.

Nico: Yeah.

Me: No kidding.

Dimitri: That is amazing.

Me: Anastasia, I promise we will destroy Rasputin once and for all. Now it's time for us to get ready for us to fight him.

Dimitri: Rasputin? That monster that hates Tsar Nicholas?

Zarya (Overwatch): That's right Comrade Dimitri. We won't let him get away with all the harm he has caused.

Me: Come on guys. It's time for us to unleash the wrath of God upon Rasputin. First we got to find him.

We later walked around all of Russia and searched. We then saw his minions, the demons of hell.

Ravager: I see some of Rasputin's goons up ahead. Permission to decapitate?

Me: Negative Ravager. Your weapons won't work on them. These are spiritual beings.

Brittney: Let me and the Goths of Darkness handle this.

Brittney used her magic and fired a blast of energy that destroyed the demons.

Me: Awesome.

Trumbipulor: I got an idea. But I'll need some peanuts.

May: Now?!

Trumbipulor: Did I mention my species get big when we eat enough peanuts?

Shanan: I thought your kind looked familiar to me. You're what's called an Loxodontanian from the planet Elephanitus.

Trumbipulor: That's right. How did you know that Shanan?

Me: You would be amazed at how much Shanan knows about the universe Trumbipulor. She's what's called a living universal encyclopedia. She knows all about life all over every part of the entire universe.

Trumbipulor: Wow!

Laney gave him some peanuts.

Me: Lets go. I sense Rasputin is close. Come on.

We went to the bridge and there we saw none other than GRIGORI YEFIMOVICH RASPUTIN!

Me: Grigori Yefimovich Rasputin!

Rasputin saw us and he saw Lori again.

Rasputin: Well if it isn't the young Lori Loud.

Lori: Rasputin, I literally will turn you into a human pretzel!

Me: We're going to kill you Rasputin! Once and for all!

Rasputin: I think not!

He fired a blast of unholy magic at me and I deflected the blast back.

Me: (Speaking Russian) Вы причинили столько боли и страданий своей стране и совершили ужасные злодеяния против Бога и всей России. Зачем вам делать все это со своими людьми? (You have caused so much pain and suffering to your home country and committed terrible atrocities against God and all of Russia. Why would you do all this to your own people?)

Rasputin: (Speaking Russian) Потому что вся Россия относилась ко мне как к мусору! Я был великолепен в их глазах, и они повернулись ко мне! Я хотел, чтобы сила их уничтожила! Так я продал душу Дьяволу за власть уничтожить всю династию Романовых, свергнуть все царство! Я хочу создать новый мир, в котором правительство штата будет полностью контролировать ситуацию, и никто ничего не сможет с этим поделать! Это настоящая сила! (Because all of Russia treated me like trash! I was great in their eyes and they turned on me! I wanted the power to destroy them! So I sold my soul to the Devil for the power to destroy the entire Romanov Dynasty, overthrow the entire Tsarhood! I want to make a new world where the state government is totally in control and there is nothing anyone can do about it! That is true power!)

Me: Вы действительно самый злой сатанинский министр начала 20 века и самое злобное чудовище России за всю ее историю! (You really are the early 20th Century's most evil Satanic Minister and Russia's most evil monster in its entire history!)

Rasputin: Может быть, но я не остановлюсь, пока последний из династии Романовых не будет навсегда стерт с лица земли, и тогда Россия будет править всем на этой жалкой планете! (Maybe so but I will not stop until the last of the Romanov Dynasty is erased from existence forever and then I will have Russia reign supreme over all in this wretched planet!)

Me: НЕ НА НАШИХ СМОТРЕТЬ ВАС САТАНИЧЕСКИЙ УДАР ПРИРОДЫ! (NOT ON OUR WATCH YOU SATANIC FREAK OF NATURE!)

I punched Rasputin in the face and kicked his Reliquery out of his hands and Nico caught it.

Applejack: What language was that y'all were speaking in?

Zarya (Overwatch): That was Russian. It's the language we have in Russia.

Apple Bloom: How does J.D. know that kind of language?

Laney: He's multi-lingual. He knows all the languages on the entire planet as well as many of the languages all over the universe.

Sweetie Belle: WOW!

Avalanche: (to Rasputin) It would be easy to open a hole in the ground and make you fall through it!

Me: You're gonna pay for your crimes Rasputin!

Lori: I've literally had it with this monster!

I sensed Lori's energy signal rising fast!

Bobby: Babe are you okay?

A tornado of glowing wind enveloped around Lori and then she was starting to change as her energy levels were rising at an astronomical rate! A massive tornado of wind shot up high into the sky and it formed into a Fairy riding an Eagle and the snow clouds blanketing all of Russia vanished as the fairy was singing divinely. The tornado went back down and Lori was in a dome of wind and clouds. When the dome faded, Lori was now forever changed. Her blond hair had braids in the front and around her head, her eyes showed the sky in her sclera with clouds blowing all over them. Her clothes were different now. She had a sky blue half tank top that exposed her belly, a skirt with clouds on them and she had blue leggings that had wind on them and she had blue combat boots. She had sky blue arm bands, sky blue wind earrings on and she had a symbol of a Fairy emblazoned in the middle of her forehead. Her angel wings now were glowing blue wind angel wings and she had the sword she acquired during the first fight with Rasputin on her left hip. On the back of her tank top was the kanji for Lori Marie Loud - A Great Elder Sister, Champion of the Wind and Master of the Force of Air

ロリマリーラウド-偉大な姉、風のチャンピオン、そして空気の力のマスター

She had become a SUPER ANGEL 25,000,000 HURRICANE EAGLE FAIRYWIND!

Me: (GASP) Lori!? Is that really you!?

Nico: WHOA! Look at her!

Roxanne: Mom transformed!

Vince: Unbelievable! Her power is incredible!

Lily: Big sis are you okay? How do you feel?

Lori: (Divine Wind Voice) I'm just fine Lily. In fact I literally feel amazing.

Bobby: Babe you look absolutely amazing!

Lori: Thanks Boo-Boo-Bear. Now it's time for me to settle the score with this monster.

Me: Show no mercy Lori. You hold him off while we have our usual battles.

Lori: I will.

Lori unsheathed her sword and it had a glowing blue wind blade and she went at Rasputin with incredible speed and slashed him with it and she blew him into the sky with incredible force!

But then the Masters of Evil came and we saw BONZ, MR. MITTENS, SSSERPENT, Donald Gill A.K.A. BLIZZARD, HANK SCORPIO and Anatoli Knyazev A.K.A. KGBEAST!

Bonz

Ghost Kotsuzuka (or Bonz in the 4Kids dub) is one of Bandit Keith's three henchman in Yu-Gi-Oh! . Kotsuzuka is a kid with a hideous ghoulish face.

He was voiced by Amy Birnbaum.

Kotsuzuka, Takaido, and Satake attacked Katsuya Jonouchi, whom Keith picked on as bad as Kaiba did, and took him to a cave where Kotsuzuka dueled Jonouchi while following Keith's instructions. Ghost used a card to resurrect his destroyed monsters as zombies, who were mostly invincible. Jonouchi's Time Wizard could have defeated them, but unfortunately, it landed on a skull. Kotsuzuka lost to Jonouchi when he used the Shield and Sword Card, but Keith had them seal the tunnel with a boulder when they left to trap them all inside. He then beat up Kotsuzuka, along with Takaido and Satake, and stole their Star Chips.

Battle City

Kotsuzuka, Takaido, and Zygor entered Kaiba's tournament in Battle City. Rather than duel for them, they put on zombie masks and scared people at the cemetery to steal their Locator Cards. They attempted to do this to Yami Bakura, but he was unaffected by it, and dueled Kotsuzuka, taking the duel to Hell. Yami Bakura gained the advantage, and soon told them that they were in Hell, and if Kotsuzuka lost, they would be trapped there forever (or at least until Yami Bakura chose to set them free). Yami Bakura defeated Kotsuzuka, so he, Takaido, and Satake became trapped in Hell, vanishing into shadowy clouds in the ground. Yami Bakura then took their Locator Cards so he could enter the final rounds.

He has not been seen since. In the 4Kids version, they were sent to the Shadow Realm rather than Hell (though there is little difference between the two), with hands pulling them into the ground.

Mr. Mittens

Mr. Mittens is a villain in Johnny Test, it is Tim Burnout's cat and Albert is his butler.

Mr. Mittens made his first appearence by trying to turn all of the citizens of Porkbelly into cats, but was foiled by Johnny and his friends. He first appeared in 00-Johnny. As Tim described, Mr. Mittens was never a friendly cat, he despised his owner for never cleaning his litter box and all the dogs for chasing him. When Mr. Mittens became intelligent, he decided to turn all living creatures in Porkbelly into cats (with the exception for Albert, who he needs to stay human to clean out his litter box) with his Cat Zapper and "Turn Porkbelly into Catbelly". However, the zapper wasn't strong enough to turn humans into cats, so he invaded the military base and charged his zapper with their million-volts electricity source. The zapper was then set to create a wave to turn everyone in a 100-mile radius into cats in one minute, giving Albert and him time to escape. However, Mary and Susan, with the help of Johnny, Dukey, and the military, reverted the zapper in time to save the Porkbelly population from turning into cats. After the incident, however, Mr Mittens remained intelligent.

Ssserpent

Ssserpent is a villain in Ben 10: Alien Force and Ben 10: Ultimate Alien . He refers to himself as "The Snake That Walks Like A Man" (although he doesn't have any legs to be able to walk; he just slithers upright).

Alien Force

Ssserpent first appeared in Vengeance of Vilgax: Part 1 . He was seen fighting Gwen and Kevin (for more than an hour according to Gwen) and proved to be too tough for them, but was easily defeated by the arrival of Ben as Cannonbolt.

Ultimate Alien

Ssserpent reappears in Video Games . Having been paroled out of the Null Void Prison, he tries to fight Ben as Four Arms only to be crushed by two cars that Four Arms used as weapons.

In The Perfect Girlfriend, Ssserpent becomes a much bigger threat. Apparently, he has learned much more as he has been watching Ben and studying his tactics, allowing him to plan for Ben to use Goop. In a warehouse, he was able to defeat and torture Goop by separating him from his Anti-Gravity Projector, rendering him immobile, and trapping and spinning him in a large centrifugal machine, causing Goop to start separating into multiple components.

However, Ssserpent was forced to escape when the police came along and Elena Validus, who was impersonating Julie at the time, deactivated the machine before it could finish off Goop. Later, Ssserpent gave Ben and the police the slip by shedding his skin and using it as a trick. It is currently unknown where he is now.

Blizzard

Blizzard is a supervillain in Marvel Comics, and an enemy of Iron Man, although he had also fought the Avengers and Spider-Man.

Donald Gill was born in Delaware and would become a criminal who was given an ice-powered suit by Justin Hammer to combat Iron Man. Donald took the name Blizzard after the original one,Gregor Shapanka, was killed by a villainous version of Iron Man called Iron Man 2020.

Blizzard's first job in his criminal career was teaming up with Beetle and Whiplash to form the "B-Team". Their goal was to capture the professional supervillain Force, who worked for but eventually betrayed Justin Hammer. They failed, however, due to Blizzard's clumsiness and making amateurish mistakes (an example being creating an ice wall blocking the path to their objective). Blizzard encased Whiplash in ice and all three of them as reinforcements were dispatched to protect Force.

Blizzard, Beetle, and Whiplash tried once again to capture Force, but he was defended by Iron Man. Blizzard's performance was better than last time, but that changed when Force entered the fight and negated the villainous trio's powers. All three of the criminals split up and went in hiding while their powers were restored.

Unfortunately for Blizzard, he was spotted by Force and, to make matters worse, his powers weren't functioning against him. Blizzard then decided to use his fists with Force sending him backwards and blasted him through a wall.

Blizzard tried to avoid Force's blast again (despite being warned) and was subsequently electrocuted. The Beetle and Whiplash left without Blizzard, with Chemistro blaming them for their failures, and were then arrested.

However, before Blizzard could be imprisoned, Rhino got him out for Hammer. As a result, Blizzard's loyalty to Hammer increased, although Iron Man tried to mentor him in hopes of stopping him from going down a dark path. Hammer made a deal with Iron Man for Blizzard, forcing the latter to help him take down the supervillain, Ghost. Iron Man accepted Hammers terms, but Blizzard couldn't accept that Hammer sold him out.

However, after hearing a recording, Blizzard became heartbroken and surrendered to Iron Man. Ironically though, he was saved by Chemistro and Melter, avoiding jail time once again. Blizzard would later partake in solo missions against the Avengers and the New Warriors. He would then attend the AIM Weapons Expo along with several other supervillains and joined the largest group of the Masters of Evil. Blizzard would later worked with a smaller team of super criminals (consisting of Constrictor, Crossfire, daughters of Tarantula, and Batroc the Leaper).

Despite their combined efforts, however, they failed after being interfered by the mercenary and Deadpool like doppelganger, Agent X, along with his allies. Blizzard came across She-Hulk at a bar and attacked her. However, instead of defeating him, she invited him for a drink (signifying that Blizzard is a low ranked super-villain).

While Blizzard was intoxicated, he pondered his lack of recognition. Before he collapsed, Blizzard mentioned that he like her. She-Hulk then reverts back to her original self (Jennifer Walters) and collapsed, vomiting on top of him. After this, Blizzard volunteered as one of the first members of Beetle's (now reformed and known as Mach-IV) group of Thunderbolts. Just like the original Thunderbolts, they were also former villains seeking redemption for their crimes as superheroes. Unlike the rest of them, however, Blizzard lacked confidence despite his will to do good and help people.

While he was a part of this group, he fought several supervillains, such as Fathom Five, the Wrecking Crew, and the Purple Man. During this time, Blizzard and Thunderbolt member, Speed Demon, became good and close friends. When Speed Demon was committing crimes with the Shocker, Blizzard want to keep tabs on him and convinced him to use his former Whizzer suit and a tracking device.

Speed Demon, who became enraged by this, tied Blizzard upside-down and stripped him of his clothes, leaving poor Blizzard naked on a bridge. At this point, Blizzard became to doubt that being a superhero was good for him and started to lose hope. However, he gained strength from his fellow Thunderbolt members.

The supervillain, Baron Zemo, tried to destroy Songbird's Thunderbolts and recruited Blizzard (who was in bars after he was fired by Songbird). One of his teammates, the Fixer, enhanced Blizzards abilities and making him more powerful than he was before. Blizzard would battle his former teammates and the fight resulted in both groups forming together. Blizzard would then help fight against the U-Foes during the events of the Marvel Civil War that unfolded.

While engaging Overmind, Blizzard proved his worth to his teammates by shielding them from one of Overmind's attacks.

During the final battle against the Grandmaster, Blizzard's suit had been destroyed after the Wellspring energy was released. After the Grandmaster's defeat, Blizzard was pardoned for his past crimes but would later resort to his criminal ways. He was seen as one of the inmates imprisoned in the Raft.

Blizzard would eventually ally with his old enemy Iron Man, along with Zeke Stane, Whirlwind, and Living Laser against the Mandarin (who betrayed them in their plot to defeat Iron Man) but was defeated by Mandarin's forces.

Blizzard would reappear in during the events of the Infinity series, where he was with Whirlwind robbing banks until they are approached by Spymaster. He offers both of them an opportunity to join his criminal group, which Spymaster's members are Constrictor, Firebrand IV, Titanium Man, Unicorn (Marvel), and Whiplash IV. They both comply with Spymaster's request and join his group. While during the briefing for the upcoming assault, Blizzard collapses and realizes, after he regains consciousness, that he can now create ice and his skin is now a more icy whiter color.

It is revealed that Blizzard was exposed to the Terrigen Mists that was unleashed on Earth by the ruler of the Inhumans known as Black Bolt and that he is an Inhuman descendant (which Blizzard doesn't realize). Because of this, experienced Terrigenesis which causes the manisfestation of his latent powers. Blizzard believed that this, in his own words, was his opportunity to "be part of something bigger". He and Whirlwind then try to leave Spymaster's group because of this revelation. Unfortunately, both of them are attacked by Spymaster and Titanium Man when they try to disband from their group. Blizzard and Whirlwind are then forced into joining in on the attack on Stark Tower.

They then participate in a well coordinated attack on the Stark Tower (that was completely vulnerable and defenseless at the time). After Spymaster used teleporter discs to teleport some of Iron Man's Armors to the buyers, he escaped and leaves the rest of his team to be found out by the heroes which were using the tower as a base. Blizzard and the team, minus Spymaster, managed to defeat the heroes and they were offered to be taken to Spymaster by Titanium Man. When they arrived to a spaceship where Spymaster was, they were ambushed by him and Titanium Man. Titanium Man then shows his real identity as Captain Atlas of the Kree and that both he and Spymaster orchestrated the heist.

Blizzard and the other villains managed to escape their custody and started fighting Spymaster, Captain Atlas and the army of Iron Men (controlled by Spymaster). The real Iron Man arrived to the spaceship, after having tracked down the armors, and helped Blizzard and his allies defeat them. During the fight, Blizzard used the powers he discovered of being like a human battery to overcharge the armors and deactivate them, but he fainted and fell off the spaceship's cargo door. One of the suits Iron Man was controlling rescued him, but in order to let his friends escape, Blizzard froze himself and the suit. Blizzard was taken to S.H.I.E.L.D. custody and was left under the simulation he had been delivered to the Inhumans in order to prove himself as the changed man Blizzard thought he was until S.H.I.E.L.D. would figure out what they should do with him.

Hank Scorpio

Hank Scorpio is the main antagonist of the The Simpsons episode "You Only Move Twice". He was voiced by Albert Brooks, who would later voice Russ Cargill in The Simpsons Movie, as well as Bernie Rose in Drive and The Businessman in The Little Prince .

Scorpio is known to be an evil genius and the millionaire owner of Globex Corporation who resides in Cypress Creek. He plans to take over the USA East Coast with his brand new device called the Doomsday Device. Despite being a ruthless and powerful villain, Hank is a kind, always cheerful and polite person to his subordinates and his citizens, which makes him a very sympathetic guy, in contrast to the behavior of the tyrannical, greedy Charles Montgomery Burns. Also, unlike many supervillains, Scorpio cares for his own people of Cypress Creek, even going so far by offering his employees free dental care and participating in their 50K run.

Homer Simpson (one of the protagonists of the show) moves to Cypress Creek after learning of a new career (from Scorpio's secretary Miss Goodthighs) that will offer healthcare benefit for himself and his family. After discussing this further with the family, his wife Marge agrees to the moving, adding that they might need Homer's new salary and that their old house is tearing itself apart. As the Simpsons arrive to their new house in Cypress Creek, Scorpio welcomes them with a gift basket before giving Homer a job as the new supervisor of employees working in Globex's nuclear division. In spite of Homer's incompetence as a safety inspector back in Springfield, Homer actually does a good job motivating Scorpio's employees in Globex's nuclear division (even going so far by offering them hammocks to calm them down from overworking). Because of his success, Scorpio happily informs that the productivity in the nuclear division is currently up 2% thanks to Homer's motivation skills, leaving his family to be very proud of him.

Needless to say, Homer and his family are unaware that Scorpio is a criminal mastermind. At one time, Scorpio has called in a ransom for gold against the United Nations and uses one of his arson weapons to blow the Queensboro bridge to prove that he's not bluffing, saying that they have 72 hours to meet his demand. He also managed to catch a British secret agent named James Bont, who attempted to escape but ended up being knocked down by Homer (who thought he was a loafer). After thanking Homer for stopping Bont, he had his men to shoot down Bont. Despite being present at these scenes, Homer remains oblivious to Scorpio's true occupation and goal.

Though Homer enjoys his new life in Cypress Creek, he is horrified to learn that his family have become very unhappy in Cypress Creek and want to go back to Springfield (Marge has been moping around drinking glasses of wine since the house is capable of doing chores itself, Lisa has become extremely allergic to all wildlife around Cypress Creek, and Bart is forced to undergo a remedial class because he doesn't understand cursive handwriting). Homer is opposed to this, stating that he's doing a great job for the first time in his life, but his family are still unhappy.

Torn between maintaining his good job and making his family happy, Homer heads back to Scorpio's base, where it is being attacked by arriving U.S. army soldiers, who are intending to stop Scorpio in his tracks and destroy the Doomsday device. As Scorpio and his men attempt to handle the situation, Homer (who still remains unaware of what's really happening) explains to him about the misery that his family is suffering from. Feeling somewhat sorry for Homer, Scorpio convinces Homer to do what's best for his family and allows them to go back to Springfield. Homer thanks Scorpio for everything, and as he leaves, Scorpio and his men manage to defeat the rest of the army soldiers, sending them to flee (much to Scorpio's delight, as he laughs while scaring the remaining soldiers away with a flamethrower). After the Simpsons returned to Springfield, a newspaper article shows that Scorpio and his forces have finally succeeded in taking over the East Coast. Homer received a letter from Scorpio showing his gratitude for Homer's assistance and that he and his family are free to come to the Coast anytime they want. He also sends the Denver Broncos football team as a gift, though Homer would have preferred the Dallas Cowboys.

As such, the Simpsons have remained unaware of the fact that Scorpio is a villain mastermind, and it is unlikely that they will find out about it.

KGBeast

Anatoli Knyazev, also known as KGBeast, is a DC comic book villain and an enemy of Batman.

Anatoli Knyazev AKA the KGBeast, was an extraordinary assassin who was in the employ of the KGB, which is a Soviet Union's secret police and intelligence agency. Knyazev then became a rogue agent. He went on an unauthorized mission to kill ten key people involved with the United States' Strategic Defense Initiative, which was nicknamed the "Star Wars" program. The Soviets decided to warn the American government about Knyazev's plan. Regardless, Knyazev was able to succeed in his mission. He managed this by killing seven of the designated targets. In pursuing his mission, Knyazev came to Gotham City and came into contact with the costumed crime fighter, the Batman.

Blizzard: It's an honor to meet you all Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Mr. Mittens: Good to see you again Test.

Johnny Test: Where's Albert? Usually he's with you.

Mr. Mittens: He's back at the headquarters.

Me: Bonz weren't you one of Bandit Keith's henchmen?

Bonz: That's right. I was.

Eli: I'm amazed you're still alive.

Bonz: Do you all know how long I was in the Shadow Realm for?!

Me: I wasn't even there when it happened.

Yugi: 2 years?

Bonz: Yes!

Eli: You were in the Shadow Realm for that long!? You're lucky to still be alive.

Bonz: Indeed I am.

Mr. Mittens: (to Aylene) Brain Freezer's a lucky guy to have someone like you. (glares at her) But if you break his heart, I'm gonna claw your eyes out!

Aylene gulped in fear.

Blackfire: We sure did. That was a really strange occurrence.

Anko: But it was really cool.

Ssserpent: (to Elena Validus) So, you posed as Tennyson's girlfriend during the last time I fought him?

Elena V.: I was under the control of the Nanite Queen back then.

Me: I heard about that Elena.

Julie Yamamoto: I remember that.

Nico: That was awful.

Blizzard: Facing you guys is gonna be so cool. No pun intended!

Me: It sure will be Don and you are also one of the original members of Marvel's Masters of Evil.

Blizzard: Yeah. This is majorly coincidental. I was part of the Original Masters of Evil lead by Baron Heinrich Von Zemo of HYDRA and now here I am with Vypra's Masters of Evil.

Me: That sure IS coincidental.

?: It sure is.

A figure came out and it was ICY ANGEL from episode 25 of Lost Galaxy!

---

Icy Angel is a fallen angel monster from Lost Galaxy who attempts to destroy the Terra Venture by using Commander Stanton. She uses the element of ice to attack her opponents and place them under her spell.

Trakeena enlists the help of Icy Angel in attempt to drive Terra Venture into a giant red star, the same one Commander Stanton had ordered Kai Chen to distance the colony away from. Icy Queen ambushed Stanton (and his daughter Jodie) in the park, using the Stingwingers to create confusion among the populace and the Galaxy Rangers. With no one to stop her, she succeeded in attacking him with an enchanted arrow, one that alters his personality and leaves him devoid of his usual tact or emotion. With Stanton under her control, he follows through with Trakeena's plan, ordering the third and fourth engines be shut off and the course of the colony changed, moving it closer and not farther from the red star.

Kai finally catches onto her plans when he spots her speaking with Stanton, telling him to continue on as he was, knowing it would lead to the destruction of Terra Venture. She wards Kai off long enough for Stanton to escape (only to be locked in a storage room later), however, the other Galaxy Rangers appear and engage in battle with the temptress. She attempts to freeze them with a puff of ice breath but Kai intervenes and stabs her to the ground. She attempts to shoot more arrows at them but Mike intervened with and energy slash that left her open for the Rangers to finish her off using the Lights of Orion fireball attack. She then made herself grow, resulting in a battle against the Galaxy Megazord and the Defender Torozord.

Icy Angel quickly froze the Galaxy Megazord, with her ice breath but the Defender Torozord struck her with its lance, shattering her. Icy Angel reformed and the Galaxy Megazord was unfrozen when the Rangers called upon the Lights of Orion for power. Defender Torozord struck Icy Angel with its Lightning Spin while the Galaxy Megazord finished her off with the Galaxy Megazord Saber. With the Icy Angel's destruction, Stanton was freed from her spell, allowing Kai to pilot the colony to a safe distance before it is unable to escape the star's gravity.

---

Kai Chen: Icy Angel!

Icy Angel: Been a long time rangers.

Me: I remember you! You were helping Trakeena by sending Terra Venture into a red giant star, which was the same one that Commander Stanton had ordered Kai to distance the colony away from.

Icy Angel: That's right J.D. Mistress Vypra was right about you. That memory of yours is sharp as a tack.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Icy Angel: (to the Lost Galaxy Rangers) You guys need to chill out!

Icy Angel breathed out an icy wind from her mouth that froze the Lost Galaxy Rangers.

Lola fired a blast of fire that thawed them out.

Lola: Nice try you frozen fiend! But fire is stronger than ice!

?: Figured you would thaw them out Lola.

We then saw Lola's friend Meli Ramos come out!

Lola: Meli! What are you doing here?

Meli: We can talk later Lola. Right now I have to kill this monster right here!

She glared ferociously at Nico.

Cookie: Meli stop! You have to get rid of that card that's controlling you!

Meli: You mean this?

She held up a Number Card and it was NUMBER 52: DIAMOND CRAB KING!

Eli: Number 52: Diamond Crab King!

Me: Lola's friend has a Number!?

Cookie: That's the Number I told you about!

Me: Meli you have to get rid of that card! It's dangerous!

Nico: Meli, please! Give us that card before someone gets hurt!

Meli: (Glares at Nico) Why? So you can use it to hurt Lola just like your contingency plans did?!

Me: Meli that is too low!

Lola: Meli those plans were not made to hurt us!

Meli: No Lola! Those plans were going to kill you and now I will kill the monster that tried to kill you!

Meli fired diamond shards at Nico and Eli used the force to send them at Rasputin as he was being thrashed in the air by Lori and they skewered him all over.

Me: The Diamond Crab King amplified her rage towards Nico 100-fold. We have to get that card away from her or she will stab you in the heart Nico!

Nico: I know.

Me: Lori is handling Rasputin while we have our fun. Look up there.

They saw the battle with Lori and Rasputing taking place in the air and they saw a sky blue star really pulverizing the living shit out of him.

Hank Scorpio: WHOA! What happened to Lori?

Me: Lori ascended.

Nico: Lets dance guys.

Me: Anastasia you're in for quite a show.

Adult Anastasia: This is gonna be awesome.

They fired a massive blast of red, blue and white energy.

Lana, Lori, Lola and Lily: ELEMENTAL MEGABLAST SURPRISE!

They fired blasts of wind, ice, fire and water and the blasts all hit Rasputin and exploded!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Rasputin was knocked down.

Me: You are now gonna pay for everything you've done.

I handed the Reliquery to Anastasia and she threw it on the ground!

Anastasia: This is for Dimitri… Ah…

Rasputin: Give it back!

Anastasia: This is for my family!

Rasputin: I'll tear you to pieces!

[ She stomps the Reliquary! Cracks form. Rasputin screams as she strikes it again! He leaps for it. It is too late; Anastasia whacks it again with her foot! ]

Anastasia: And this, this is for you!

Rasputin: No!

(Anastasia, smashes the Reliquary to bits.)

Anastasia: (CONT'D) Dosvidanya!

Me: (Speaking Russian) Передавай привет Варпу, чертов монстр из глубин ада! (Give my regards to the Warp you fucking monster from the depths of Hell!)

Rasputin : AAAGGGHHH!

Anastasia crushed it!

(KABOOM! - IT EXPLODES! Anastasia leaps back as a green light sprays into Rasputin, beginning with his fingers a coursing into him like an electric current. Like a beacon in the night. A lighthouse attracting the denizens of Hell, who arrive, wings beating him down… enveloping him… circling skin glows. It shimmers. Then it starts to melt off him! Leaving nothing but a rattling, screaming skeleton! The skeleton cracks, unhinges, the skull keeps screaming! The bones fall apart and crumble to dust as the Minions fly away back to Hell, and the dust starts blowing away in the wind.)

The dust of his corpse went through a portal into the Warp and he was now stuck there for all eternity.

Nico: Whoa!

Lincoln: Wow! That was intense!

Me: That's what he gets for fucking around with forces no mere mortal can understand.

Hank Scorpio: I guess that's the end of Rasputin.

Overwatch Zarya: Hard to believe that this was one of Team Loud Phoenix Storm's first simulator adventures.

Me: That was before we were called that Zarya.

Zarya (Overwatch): I see.

KGBeast: But this was incredible.

Me: It sure was.

Anastasia: Thank you all so much for helping me get justice for my family J.D.

Me: You're welcome Anastasia. Anything for you and our friends in Russia.

Nico: Yep. And Lori got an awesome new transformation out of it.

Lori: I literally sure did. It was literally so cool!

Bobby: And you look awesome like this babe.

Lori: Oh thank you Boo-Boo-Bear.

They kissed.

Everyone: Awww.

We headed home.

Anastasia: (To the viewers) My disappearance 103 years ago has been one of the biggest mysteries of the early 20th century and it was awesome that I got to share my adventure with you. But there are more adventures to come. So we hope you are excited.

Me: We know I am.

Insanity From Fruit

Over in Manitoba, Canada, we were flying and running fast and I was riding my Rapidash. Nico, Cookie and Pip-Squeak were riding on the back of my Galarian Moltres. Eli and Nunnally were in the Hover Carriage and Lincoln and Emerald were with them.

Me: YEAH!

Applejack: YEEHAW! This is awesome!

Laney: Man this is so cool that Nico, Cookie and Pip-Squeak are riding on your Galarian Moltres.

Me: It sure is.

Lana: I can't wait to see what Fortree City is like.

Lola: Yeah me too!

We went over a hill and into a huge forest and we arrived at Fortree City! It was an amazing Treetop City!

---

Ash and his friends arrived in Fortree City in Who's Flying Now?, just in time for its annual Feather Carnival, where people celebrate wild Flying-type Pokémon. During the festivities, they met Winona, the local Gym Leader, who was giving out rides on her giant Skarmory. James also encountered the Magikarp salesman, who sold him what he claimed to be a Chimecho, which James had wanted since his childhood, but turned out to be a disguised Hoppip. Soon after, James however came across a real Chimecho, which happily joined his team. Team Rocket later gatecrashed the festivities and attempted to steal all of the Flying Pokémon, though Winona, Ash, and his friends intervened. The interruption, however, meant that Ash's scheduled Gym battle had to be rescheduled for the following day.

In Sky High Gym Battle!, Ash had his battle against Winona and defeated her, earning his sixth Hoenn League Badge.

Me: Wow!

Laney: Is this Fortree City?

Ash: It sure is.

Me: Wow! It's a city that's in the trees. It reminds me of an awesome Treehouse Hotel that I've read about in Oregon.

Fluttershy: Ooh. That sounds interesting.

We went into the city.

Aqua Man (Mega Man): So this is Fortree City?

Me: Yep. This is where we're gonna meet Winona, the Gym Leader of Fortree City.

Ash: It's where I got my Feather Badge.

Lana: Wow! This is an amazing place.

Nico: Boy it sure is.

Eli: Wow. It's like it's totally one with the forest like Gotham Royal York.

Nunnally: It sure feels like it.

We walked around.

Lincoln: This place is perfect for our date Emerald.

?: You came to the right place.

We turned and we saw the Gym Leader of Fortree City, Winona.

---

Winona debuted in Who's Flying Now? . When Ash and his friends first arrived in the Fortree Gym, they learned that Winona was away from the Gym to help out at Fortree's annual Feather Carnival. She was busy taking the attendants, including Max and May, for joyrides on her Skarmory during the festival.

She eventually agreed to battle Ash. Suddenly, Team Rocket struck the festival as Winona was showing the group the Gym's battlefield. Winona flew to the scene on her Skarmory, and she went on to rescue the stolen Pokémon before sending Team Rocket blasting off. Afterwards, Winona led the nighttime flying display to commemorate the Feather Carnival's grand finale.

Ash and Winona had their Gym battle the following day in Sky High Gym Battle . Ash's Grovyle managed to defeat Winona's Altaria during the first round, after landing a direct Leaf Blade. Ash then sent out Pikachu to fight Pelipper, but both Pokémon ended up fainting after an exchange of Thunderbolt and Hydro Pump, respectively. Afterwards, Winona's Shiny Swellow took out Grovyle with a single Aerial Ace, and Ash subsequently called out his own Swellow. After a long aerial battle, Ash prevailed and won the Feather Badge.

Character

Winona has a deep respect for the sky, and prays to it for good luck prior to taking on a challenger.

Winona is confident in her abilities, and is regarded as a master of Flying Pokémon by the citizens of Fortree City. She commands her Pokémon's flight paths and even the degree angle of their attacks. Her defense strategy in battle is reliant on her Pokémon's ability to fly, but she has trained her Pokémon to fly accurately and cope in all weather conditions. Winona enjoys her Gym's open air layout because it adds an element of unpredictability and challenge to the battle.

---

Ash: Winona!

Winona: Hey Ash it's great to see you again. Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm it's an honor.

Me: Pleasure to meet you too Winona.

Nico: Ash told us a lot about you.

Winona: I can tell but it's an honor to have you all here.

Me: It's a pleasure to be here too.

Winona: May, Max and Brock it's great to see you again as well.

May: Same here Winona.

Max (Pokemon): How have you been?

Winona: Great thank you. (Sees May's wedding ring) Is that a wedding ring?

May: It sure is. I'm now happily married now.

Winona: Wow! Congratulations. Who is the lucky guy?

Nico: You're looking at him.

Nico showed his ring too.

Winona: Wow! Congratulations to both of you.

Nico: Thanks Winona.

May: Nico is an amazing guy.

Me: And he is an awesome 2nd in Command for the team.

Nico: Yep.

Winona: I can tell. (to Tracy) Aren't you one of Ash's friends from his journeys?

Tracey: That's right. It's an honor to meet you, Winona.

Winona: Pleasure is all mine.

Me: Tracy is from the Orange Islands. It was really cool but also a major league cataclysmic prophecy almost destroyed the planet at one time there.

Winona: Whoa! I've heard about that. And Ash is the one that stopped it from what I heard.

Misty (Pokemon): You heard right.

Me: Yep. That was an amazing adventure and Ash saved the whole planet from Total Destruction.

Drag Strip: Hope you don't mind Lincoln and Emerald having a date here.

Winona: Not at all. Any awesome couple of Team Loud Phoenix Storm deserves the best fun here.

Me: Awesome. Lincoln and Emerald are gonna have a great time here.

Laney: Yeah especially after all the hardship that Emerald went through on Remnant.

Winona: What happened?

Me: It's a really ugly story Winona.

Lincoln and Emerald went to an awesome restaurant to have fun and more. We later were talking about all sorts of things and I went over Emerald's background and it wasn't pretty.

Emerald Sustrai is a major antagonist in the American web cartoon series RWBY . She is one of Cinder Fall's two right-hands alongside her partner, Mercury Black.

She is voiced by Katie Newville

Past

Emerald lived in Mistral city as a thief and presumably an orphan. She would use her Semblance to create illusions to aid her in heists, such as replicas. One day during a jewel heist, Emerald was confronted out the back of the store by Cinder Fall, who offered her a place of belonging in her faction. Though hesitant at first, Emerald agreed, and soon found a mentor figure in Cinder, unaware of Cinder's indifference to her. The two traveled to recruit Marcus Black to their cause, but found him murdered by his son Mercury Black. Seeing Mercury as the clear superior, Cinder offered him the position instead, to which he agreed.

Emerald later joins Cinder in seeking the aid of Adam Taurus and the White Fang, though he, a Faunus, refused to help humans.

The trio then set out to steal the powers of the current Fall Maiden Amber. Emerald created an illusion of a lost little girl as bait, which Amber took. When amber stopped to help the girl, Emerald and Mercury ambushed her and attacked, though they were little match against a Maiden. Cinder enters the battle, and together they are able to overpower and defeat Amber. Cinder then uses her glove to summon a Parasite Grimm and begin stealing Amber's powers. Cinder gets half of them before the process is interrupted by Qrow Branwen, who escapes with a comatose Amber.

Cinder returns to the White Fang and threatens Adam Taurus with her new powers. She has Emerald and Mercury offer him Lien in exchange for aid, to which he reluctantly agrees.

Volume 2

In "Best Day Ever", Emerald appears lost and runs into the shop owner of the newly reopened From Dust Till Dawn, asking for directions to a certain address. As she rounds a corner, Mercury states that he knew she was lost and she offers to pay him to be quiet using money she stole from the shop owner. They arrive at a book store owned by a Faunus named Tukson.

Emerald begins to ask if he has certain books because of his shop's catchphrase, but she eventually asks him for a book that he does not have. Things turn serious as Emerald reveals that she knows he is planning on running from the White Fang and that he knows why they are there. She asks him if he is planning to fight back and he shouts "Yes" before lunging at her. She ducks under him and Mercury kicks him as he is in the air, thus killing him.

Emerald and Mercury then return to Roman's base and he questions where they were all day; taking the address from Emerald's pocket without her noticing. Emerald and Mercury confirm that they were cleaning up Roman's mess. When Roman threatens them, Cinder appears and Emerald informs her that they killed Tukson; but Cinder seems more annoyed at their actions as it risks ruining her plan. Emerald then leaves with Cinder, but shows Roman that she managed to steal his lighter.

In "Welcome to Beacon", Emerald is seen with Mercury and Cinder inside Beacon Academy, posing as students from Haven Academy. She bumps into a running Ruby while walking down a hallway. Emerald helps her up, but tells her to mind where she is going. She is then redirected with Mercury and Cinder by Ruby who points them in the direction of their building as transfer students.

In "Extracurricular", Emerald is seen observing a battle between Pyrrha Nikos and Team CRDL, and later Pyrrha against Mercury. Later that day, in a dorm room with Cinder and Mercury, they all begin to talk about Pyrrha's semblance, and how skilled she is, as also listening to Cinder's plan.

In "Dance Dance Infiltration", Emerald and Mercury are seen entering the ballroom together. From here, the duo spends the evening keeping track of the attendees, watching to see if anyone could interfere with Cinder's infiltration of the Cross Continental Transmit Tower. At one point, Emerald warns Cinder that James Ironwood is leaving to check on the tower. However, Cinder is able to finish her task and return to the dance before he can see her. Emerald then lets Cinder take her place as Mercury's dance partner for the remainder of the evening.

In "Breach", Emerald assists Teams RWBY and JNPR in killing Grimm; easily slaying an Ursa using her weapons. She is later present as Adam Taurus appears by Cinder's side, explaining that the White Fang will listen to him, despite numerous losses in the caves.

Volume 3

In "Round One", at the Vytal Festival fairgrounds, Emerald steals Ruby's wallet before returning it to her. She strikes up a friendly conversation with Team RWBY, and it is revealed that she is participating in the tournament alongside Mercury, Cinder and an undercover Neopolitan.

After exchanging pleasantries with Team RWBY, she turns to Mercury and expresses her distaste for all of them, telling him she cannot stand how they always seem so cheery. However, she also shares the intel they had been sent to get: Weiss and Yang will be fighting in round two. Emerald, Mercury and Cinder are then seen spectating the match between Team JNPR and Team BRNZ.

In "It's Brawl in the Family", Emerald is later seen at Cinder's dorm room when Mercury reports Qrow Branwen's presence at Beacon. She asks Cinder if they need to change their plans, but Cinder tells them that they will stay the course. After Cinder gains access to Ironwood's Scroll, she tells Emerald and Mercury to return to their dorms.

In "Lessons Learned", Cinder engineers the next match of the Vytal Festival tournament doubles round: Emerald and Mercury against Coco Adel and Yatsuhashi Daichi of Team CFVY. Emerald and Mercury easily win the match.

In "Fall", after Mercury "loses" his match against Yang and has his leg broken by her apparently unprovoked, Emerald calls out his name and immediately rushes to his side, apparently showing concern for him. This was ultimately revealed to be an illusion created by Emerald, designed to trick Yang into attacking and one of the paramedics into thinking that Mercury's legs are real.

In "Beginning of the End", Cinder, Emerald and Neo evacuate Mercury in an Air Bus to their secret warehouse and head back to the Vytal Festival.

In "Destiny", Ruby sees Emerald in the front row of the Colosseum for the match between Pyrrha and Penny Polendina, even though Ruby was told Mercury's team all went back to Mistral the previous night.

In "PvP", Emerald uses her Semblance to make Pyrrha use her Semblance forcefully on Penny's swords. This causes the wires attached to them to wrap around Penny and split her in half, destroying her. Soon after, Emerald leaves the grandstands of Amity Colosseum.

In "Battle of Beacon", Emerald is seen on a rooftop with Cinder and Mercury, expressing a hint of remorse at the destruction caused by the chaos. Suddenly, she is interrupted by the arrival of the Grimm Dragon, as she remains on the rooftop.

Volume 4

In "The Next Step", Emerald is seen at Salem's Domain surveying its surroundings and accompanying Cinder alongside Mercury. She also acts as Cinder's voice due to the loss of her own speaking capabilities.

In "Of Runaways and Stowaways", Emerald is seen watching Cinder receive "treatment" from Salem. When a Seer enters Salem's meeting room, Emerald is disgusted and fearful of it. After Salem asks Cinder if she really killed Ozpin, Cinder signals for Emerald to help her respond, but Salem slams the table and demands Cinder say it with her own words, which makes Emerald step back.

In "No Safe Haven", Emerald watches Cinder train with Grimm. Upon completing her training, Cinder orders Emerald to create a vision of a kneeled and defeated Ruby Rose, which she mercilessly incinerates.

Volume 5

In "Rest and Resolutions", Cinder arrives at the Branwen Tribe campground with Watts, Emerald and Mercury.

In "A Perfect Storm", They tell Raven to bring Vernal as the Spring

Maiden to Haven Academy to unlock its Relic's chamber. After negotiations, Emerald and the group return to a ship where they take rest.

In "The More the Merrier", Emerald accompanies Cinder as she leads the assault at Haven and later stops Ruby from helping Jaune. As they fight, Emerald reveals to Ruby that she does not care for working for Salem, but owes Cinder everything. When Ruby unleashes her powers to stop Cinder from harming Jaune, Emerald quickly knocks her out, though Cinder has been already been affected by the power.

In "Vault of the Spring Maiden", Emerald and Mercury team up against Yang, using her illusions to create multiple copies of Mercury. They quickly get the upper hand on her until Ruby wakes up and intervenes.

In "Downfall", Ruby and Yang are battling Emerald and Mercury as the Mistral authorities arrive to arrest the White Fang. Seeing an opportunity, Yang runs off to confront her mother and Cinder in the vault. Emerald tries but fails to stop Yang from going in. Emerald and Mercury chase after her, but are blocked from the vault by Weiss, who freezes the entrance.

In "Haven's Fate", Emerald, Mercury, and Hazel are cornered by Ruby Rose and her allies. Emerald declares they haven't won yet, saying that Cinder would be back any minute with the Relic of Knowledge and that she would stop them. However, everyone soon sees that only Yang leaves the vault, carrying the Relic. Now knowing of Cinder's apparent demise, she breaks down in tears, not listening to Mercury when he says they need to leave. In despair, Emerald cries out, creating an illusion visible to everyone in the room of a nightmarish apparition of Salem. Though it quickly disappears, it was enough to let them escape; an unconscious Emerald is carried by Hazel as he runs off with Mercury.

Volume 6

In "So That's How It Is", Emerald attends a meeting called by Salem, where Hazel admits that it was Cinder's fault that they lost the Battle of Haven. Salem tells them all that they must leave Cinder behind, though Emerald is just enthused to hear that she is still alive.

In "Lost", Emerald regrets leaving Cinder behind and considers that fact that she may not want to continue what she is doing without her. Mercury has to tell her that Cinder does not are about her, causing her to get angry and attack him. The two fight until Tyrian intervenes, telling them that if they do not love what they do regardless of the circumstances, they are in over their heads already. He then leaves, telling them that he and Watts have been assigned a special mission in Atlas.

In "Our Way", Emerald goes to apologize to Mercury, but finds him staring out a window, shocked. She looks to see Salem creating hybrid Beringels with wings on their backs. Hazel tells them that she is taking matters into her own hands.

Volume 8

In "Divide", Emerald, Mercury, and Hazel go to meet with Salem. After climbing the stairs, Emerald sees her old master standing with Salem. The young subordinate is thrilled Cinder is alright and happily jogs towards her. However, before Emerald can get any closer, Cinder rudely interrupts her, telling her to be quiet, which causes Emerald to stop and feel saddened. After Salem tells Cinder she is not a player in her game against Ozpin, she waves her hand, and she along side the other subordinates leave.

---

Winona and her Pokemon were shocked.

Winona: Emerald went through all that under that monster Salem?

Me: Yeah. Until we fought Salem and Nico here killed her.

Nico: Yep. Salem may have been immortal but she was no match for the power of the Spirit Bomb.

Me: Our best option was total obliteration.

Nico: But when I told Salem that she had to be stopped I told her that maybe she would come back someday as a better person.

---

Nico: Salem! For all the crimes you have done on this planet and more, you will now pay the ultimate price. UNIVERSAL POWER SPIRIT BOMB!

Nico then threw the massive Spirit Bomb at Salem and for the first time in years, Salem felt an emotion she never faced before: FEAR! She tried to hold it back with all her power!

Nico: This is the end of the road for you Salem! It's an absolute shame. When Oscar Pine first met you when he was once Ozma he knew that there was good in you. You were a beautiful woman who was trapped in a tower and Ozma saved you and you two fell in love and you were perfect for each other. But then Ozma became ill and he died and you did everything you could to bring him back and you even went to the Land of Darkness and brought him back. But in doing so you paid the price and became cursed with immortality and throughout the millennia you saw everyone around you die as the eons passed and became forever alone. An eternity where there is nothing but you. Then you became different and sought out a way to punish all of Remnant for its crimes and you dove into the pool of darkness and became a completely different person! And the Darkness forever destroyed the light. You then became a ruthless and manipulative monster and you became a living nightmare to this world. You brought nothing but darkness, chaos, evil, death, destruction, pain and suffering and you delighted in every second and moment of it. You didn't even show a single shred of remorse, mercy or decency. That's why it has to end like this for you Salem! You are now gonna learn the hard way and know what it feels like to have YOUR life taken away against YOUR will! It's wrong! But maybe you will come back to this world someday as a better person I hope. I think Ruby and her friends would love you as a friend and they would love having you as a sister. I'm sure they would like that. But until then…

Salem could only watch as Nico was going to destroy her forever.

Nico: (Salutes) Adios. R.W.B.Y. will be waiting for you Salem!

The Spirit Bomb powered up even more!

Me: NICO!

Vegeta: BOKRUA!

May: NICO!

Goku: NICO!

Everyone appeared in a glass shatter screen with all our faces in it.

Everyone: DO IT!

Nico:
HAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA

The Spirit Bomb grew in Power and Salem screamed in pain as she was completely obliterated and destroyed forever!

The Spirit Bomb then flew out into space and exploded.

KRABBBBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The Spirit Bomb was gone and Salem was gone too!

FLASHBACK ENDS

---

Winona was amazed by the amount of power Nico used to destroy Salem.

Winona: WHOA! All that power destroyed an immortal being that terrorized all of Remnant for thousands of years!? That's incredible!

Me: Yep. Salem may have been truly immortal but she was no match for the combined power of everyone in the entire universe working together in the form of a massive ball of energy.

Winona: Wow! That's incredible!

Linka: It sure was.

Winona: But Salem was a monster. She deserved to be banished to the Warp for all the pain and suffering she caused.

Yang: We know. But if Nico believes that Salem can change even after all the pain and suffering she caused, then who are we to tell him otherwise.

Me: Nico believe that with his heart.

Lola: He sure does.

Lana: Yep.

Me: When Salem does come back in the future, everyone on Remnant will hate her guts because of all the crimes she caused. But we'll help her to prevent that from happening.

Winona: Wow. But I heard that you all have been killing the major Pokemon Teams.

Me: Yep. All the Major Pokemon Teams are all dead. Including Teams Magma and Aqua.

Winona: Wow! So, how did you all defeat Team Magma and Team Aqua at the same time?

Maria: Well, me and the Redemption Squad took out Team Aqua. J.D. and the others took out Team Magma.

Hound: That way, they were fought at the exact same moment.

Me: Yeah they both surfaced at the same time and we were originally supposed to go after just Team Aqua first. But since both teams surfaced at the same time there was a change of plans and we went after them both at the same time.

Nico: Yep.

May: Thank goodness we've seen the last of all the major Pokemon Villain Teams.

Winona: Wow.

Me: Yep. Now we have two more major Pokemon enemies that we're watching with our ever-watchful eyes: Team Skull and the Aether Foundation.

Winona: Who are they?

Me: Well Team Skull is actually like a bunch of incompetent thuggish minions. They work for the Aether Foundation.

I went over both their history.

Team Skull

Team Skull (in Japanese: スカル団 Skull-dan , literally Skull Gang ) is an antagonistic organization in Pokémon Sun and Pokémon Moon as well as their expanded editions Pokémon Ultra Sun and Pokémon Ultra Moon . They are an organization who causes trouble and steals Pokemon as part of their teamwork with the Aether Foundation.

Past

Not much is known about Team Skull's past or history. Guzma, their leader, was up for nomination to be a captain for the island challenge, but when the Kahuna didn't pick him, he went into a rage and out of envy wanted to reform Alola by abolishing it's modern traditions. He seems to model Team Skull as a whole based on this attitude. Interestingly enough though, they seem to hate any sort of competition for Pokemon battling, as they also oppose the construction of the Pokemon League. Eventually Team Skill allies themselves with The Aether Foundation, believing that they can further there own goals when allied. This is why they start to steal Pokemon, as they try to find Nebby, who Lillie ran away with from the Aether Foundation.

Pokémon Sun / Pokémon Moon

Throughout most of the game, Team Skull appears causing minor trouble and getting some attention in which the protagonist will show up to stop them. Their motives seem unknown for most of the game, and thus they seem to just be minor trouble makers. When the protagonist reaches Alka Island, he or she will eventually encounter Gladion who questions Hau's Ideology of doing the island challenge to have fun, accusing him of not being serious enough. When the player shows up, he demands a battle. When the protagonist beats him, two team skull grunts, wanting to back-up Gladion's retreat. Gladion stops them from doing so though, causing the two Grunts to reveal that they don't accept Gladion as a true member, the reason though is unknown. Gladion also foreshadows to seem that he has separate motives from Team Skull.

Later on the Island, The Protagonist finds Plumeria who is the only Team Skull Admin. She tells the Protagonist that she hates him or her "picking" on the rest of the grunts which to her are her little siblings. This seems to imply that she accuses the protagonist for only picking on the weak grunts rather than going for Team Skulls higher ups. This makes their group look a little hypocritical as they also don't attack the powerful trainers and instead try to pick on weak ones or just cause minor trouble instead of doing an action that progresses their goals. In Ula Ula island, Team Skull becomes much more major. After then first Trial on Ula Ula Island, Team Skull Boss Guzma is encountered. Here Team Skulls goals are revealed as they protest the Pokémon league and protest the Island Challenge. This encounter is short lived though and only bits and pieces are revealed. Later Gladion can be found. He doesn't battle The Protagonist but instead foreshadows further his differences with Team Skull, mainly telling the protagonist to protect Nebby who Lillie has. Team Skull isn't seen again until after the second Ula Ula Trial. Plumeria is at the Aether House, waiting for the protagonist, giving the same message.

After defeat, she brides the protagonist to come to Po Town, their head quarters alone. The heroes express their concern but decide to go through it anyway as the thugs cleverly stole one of children's Pokemon who was in the Aether House as a means to give the Protagonist a motive. There, the protagonist finds many Team Skull grunts and defeats them all easily before going to the Shady House where Guzma is. After a short battle where Guzma doesn't try his hardest, he tells the protagonist that he or she is foolish for coming there for just a Pokémon, foreshadowing that he or she leaving the Aether House has let Team Skull do something bad. When the protagonist leaves to give the child her Pokemon back, They discover that Team Skull has taken Lillie and Nebby away. Gladion comes in, enraged that the protagonist failed his warning. He then battles him or her out of rage but when he loses he calms down. He then insists of quitting team skull and allying himself with the protagonist and to head to the Aether Foundation. Hau questions this but the protagonist trusts him as he was a part of Team Skull and thus would know their goals.

Upon arrival, the Aether Foundation immediately become suspicious as they fight the heroes instead of greeting and trying to reason with them. Team Skull isn't seen until the end of the dungeon where Guzma is guarding a house like structure. Gladion runs ahead to battle Guzma but loses, but after fighting the Team Skull Grunts, The Protagonist confronts and beats Guzma, this time at full power. He or she beats Guzma though which throws him into a rage and confusion to why he can't win. The protagonist then goes to confront Lusamine, who reveals her true motives. Right when she calls an Ultra Beast Guzma comes in to surround the Heroes, in which Gladion devises a plan to stop the villains. He orders Hau to fight Guzma but the result of this battle isn't known. After the battle, no matter the result, Guzma and Lusamine escape into an Ultra Worm Hole, leaving the now evolved Nebby and Lillie behind. From here the heroes devise a plan to get into Ultra Space by summoning the legendary Pokémon. In the midst of their plan they fine Team Skull Grunts who provide a minor hiatus until Plumeria commands them to stop and reveals her true motives for helping Team Skull and talks a bit about Guzma's past.

After this, the protagonist and Lillie retrieve the Sun and Moon flutes and go the Shrine on top of the Poni Mountains. They play the flutes and it causes Nebby to Evolve to either Solgaleo or Lunala depending on the game version. They go into Ultra space to find Guzma completely done with Lusamine now that he finds out her twisted goals of just wanting to be with Nihiligo, of course this is only due to her being controlled by Nihiligo's Poisons. When Nihiligo is defeated, the Heroes, Lusamine, and Guzma escape. Guzma isn't seen again until the end of the game.

Post-Game

Guzma is seen in the post game at the motel near Melemele Island where he challenges the protagonist one last time. When he or she beats Guzma, he goes into another rage and period of confusion until Kahuna Hala shows up and persuades Guzma to let him train him properly. It's not known what happens to Guzma after this point in time

In Pokémon Ultra Sun and Pokémon Ultra Moon, Guzma assists the player in defeating Team Rainbow Rocket.

Aether Foundation

The Aether Foundation is an organization that appears in the video games Pokémon Sun and Pokémon Moon . They are originally introduced as an organization dedicated to the preservation and protection of Pokémon, but by the time the games they appear in take place, they have become corrupt and seek to unleash the Ultra Beasts upon Alola due to the neurotoxin-induced insanity of their President Lusamine. Although the organization is mostly malevolent by the time Sun and Moon take place, there are a few members who genuinely believe in the organization's stated goal of protecting Pokémon, including the admin Wicke and several lower-ranking members. In Pokémon Ultra Sun and Pokémon Ultra Moon, they are less corrupt and are motivated by a desire to stop Necrozma rather than Lusamine's obsession with the Ultra Beasts. In these games, they eventually reform and become faithful to their original purpose, although Faba remains traitorous and sells the organization out to Team Rainbow Rocket.

Winona gasped.

Winona: Lillie's mother is out of her mind!

Nico: She is.

Me: When she makes her move we set out to bring her down. It took almost a year for Team Plasma to make their move. But when Team

Skull and the Aether Foundation make their move we're going to rush in with energy blasts and lasers blazing.

Vince: Yeah!

Rainbow Dash: And we're gonna make that organization pay for it!

Nico: But we can't kill Lusamine. She is Lillie's mother and she loves her.

Lillie: That's right.

We had a nice talk and Lincoln had a great date and Winona and her Pokemon joined all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

---

Later back at the estate we were watching TV.

Mixmaster: I wonder how George and the others are doing.

Me: We'll know soon if they call us.

Nico: Yeah.

But then the phone rang.

Camo: (Spanish Accent) I'll get it. (Answers) Buenos Dias, Team Loud Phoenix Storm Estate, Camo speaking.

It was George of the Jungle.

George: Hello Camo. George of Jungle.

Camo: Hola George. We were just talking about you.

George: Is J.D. available. It's important.

Camo: Sure.

He handed the phone to me.

Me: Thanks Camo. Hello?

George: Hello J.D. George. You have to come over to Africa! It's urgent!

Me: What's wrong George?

George: George explain when you get here!

Me: We're on our way.

I hung up.

Me: Looks like we're heading back to Africa everyone.

Bonz, KGBeast, SSSerpent, Hank Scorpio, Blizzard and Mr. Mittens then appeared.

Bonz: Can me, KGBeast, SSSerpent, Hank, Blizzard, and Mr. Mittens come with you guys to visit George?

Me: Sure Bonz. Again we're sorry about what happened to you in the Shadow Realm. That must've been awful for you.

Bonz: It was.

Hank Scorpio: Also on our way here we saw the grave of Ra's Al Ghul empty.

We gasped in shock!

Me: What!?

We went over and saw the grave totally empty!

Me: You're right!

Talia: But how did this happen?

Brittney: This wasn't the work of graverobbers. Something supernatural did this.

Eli: What do you think it was?

Brittney: Whatever it was it isn't of this world.

Me: Yeah. But we'll worry about that later. Now we have to get to Africa.

Crystal Man: Whatever George called us for, it sounds urgent.

Me: We better get over to Africa and fast!

We were off to the Bukuvu Region in Africa.

BUKUVU REGION, AFRICA

We arrived in the Jungles of Africa.

Hank Scorpio: So this is Africa?

Me: Yep. We've been here many times in the past. It's loaded with history that dates back to prehistoric man.

Nico: Yep.

Laney: It's so cool being here in Africa.

We then heard a Tarzan Yell.

Me: That's his trademark yell.

We then saw him swing on a vine and then he crashed into a tree head on!

CRASH!

Me: OOOHH!

Hank Scorpio: That's gonna leave a mark!

Lana: Not to George. He's practically indestructible when he smashes into trees like that head on.

Bonz: He must be really tough.

Me: Yeah he is. I smashed into a tree like how George did head on and I got a nasty concussion as a result.

Nico: Yeah he was really dizzy as a result.

George saw us.

George: Hey guys!

George came up to us.

Me: Good to see you again George.

Barbossa: What be the problem here, George?

Magnolia and Ursula came.

George: It's Bananaquat season!

Me: Bananaquats?

Nico: What are Bananaquats?

Magnolia: It's a fast-growing yellow fruit that only grows once every three years!

Me: What do they look like?

Ursula: Like those.

We saw a purple bush with a bunch of fruits on them that look like bananas.

Me: Those are bananaquats? They look like Bananas.

Nico: What's so bad about them? They look harmless.

Ursula: Oh they are anything BUT harmless.

Mr. Mittens was glaring at Tookie.

Mr. Mittens: (glares at Tookie Tookie) What're you looking at, Bird Brain?

Tookie Tookie: Tookie Tookie!

Me: So Ape goes crazy when he eats these!?

George: Uh huh.

Me: You mean like cuckoo nuts crazy or homicidal maniac crazy?

Ursula: Cuckoo nuts crazy.

Jared was eating them!

Jared: (Eating Bananaquats) Mmm! I don't see what the problem is with them.

George and everyone gasped.

Ursula: Are you nuts Jared!?

Jared: I don't feel crazy.

Allenby: Hmm I think Jared's powers are making sure he isn't going nuts.

Me: Wow. That's interesting.

Jared: These are good though. But yeah they are.

Me: I'm not taking any chances. Besides my son is a vegetarian. He eats only fruits and vegetables and drinks only water.

Nico: Yep.

George: Wow. George wish he was like Jared.

Laney: Yeah.

Bruiser Cruiser: Guys, please tell us that Ape's someplace where he can't hurt people!

George: He back at treehouse.

But then we heard crashing and trees were smashing down!

Me: UH OH! He's coming!

Then he came through the trees like a crazed Lunatic!

Ape: (INSANELY) BANANAQUATS!

KGBeast: (points cybernetic gun at Ape) (Russian Accent) Comrade Ape! Calm yourself!

Ape: BANANAQUATS!

Me: Don't let him get to the Bananaquats!

We jumped on Ape as he came at the bushes and we dogpiled on him!

Trolling Thunder: Listen, Ape. We don't want to have to hurt you!

He pushed us all away and Laney tied him up in vines.

Me: Ow!

Winston tickled Ape and he was laughing.

Winston: Calm down fellow ape. We don't want to hurt you to get you to stop.

Ssserpent: Let's see how Ape does against an alien snake like me!

He coiled around him and squeezed him.

Me: I think you're crushing him.

Ssserpent: Oops. Sorry.

He broke out of Ssserpent's hold.

Rage Mage: It's no good. We're gonna have to beat some sense into him!

Me: Sorry Ape. This is gonna hurt us more than it's gonna hurt you

Blizzard froze Ape in a block of ice.

Blizzard: That should keep Ape in place until the usual battles are done.

Me: Thanks Don. But he'll get sick after being frozen.

Blizzard: I know. But it'll be worth it to stop him.

But then out came Carl "Crusher" Creel A.K.A. Absorbing Man, Private H.I.V.E., ANTI-WANDA, Mumbo Jumbo, George "Digger" Harkness A.K.A. CAPTAIN BOOMERANG and IRON LUNG!

Anti-Wanda

Anti-Wanda Anti-Venus Anti-Fairywinkle Anti-Cosma is the Anti-Fairy counterpart of Wanda Fairywinkle. Completely brainless and is unaware of things, she is Anti-Cosmo's wife and Foop's mother, and a major antagonist of the show.

Like her good counterpart, she was voiced by Susan Blakeslee

In the episode That Old Black Magic Anti-Fairies are mentioned for the first time. On Friday the 13th, some Anti-Fairies managed to escape to the Earth to be able to wreak havoc and destruction with their black magic, bringing bad luck and being invisible to do whatever they wanted. Timmy Turner, seeing what is happening, asked Cosmo and Wanda to bring him to the Anti-Fairies. There, he wished that every Anti-Fairy from the Anti-Fairy World would be in the Fairy World. After Cosmo fulfillied his wishe, Timmy met Anti-Wanda and her husband Anti-Cosmo. Being the opposite of Wanda, Anti-Wanda was incredibly stupid but also joyful Anti-Fairy. After a brief explanation of what Timmy did, Anti-Cosmo sarcastically congratulated him, adding that he had become the incredibly stupid hero for all Anti-Fairies. To make matters worse, they managed to get out of the Fairy World to Earth, but Timmy's clever plan allowed the imprisonment of Anti-Cosmo and other Anti-Fairies back in the prison.

In the episode The Gland Plan, Cosmo's Fagiggly Gland starts to fail, which required transplantation and the only person who can be a donor is Anti-Cosmo. It turns out that Anti-Wanda is in the same prison as Anti-Cosmo, and because of her own stupidity, she foils the plan to escape Anti-Cosma from prison.

Anti-Wanda is later released from prison along with other Anti-Fairies thanks to the efforts of Anti-Cosmo and Dr. Calamitous. However, Anti-Wanda is captured directly in a butterfly trap inside the hyper-cube with her husband and kinsmen after the Anti-Cosmo's plan was destroyed.

After she and most of her race escaped from prison in the Fairy World, Anti-Wanda settled in the Anti-Fairy World in Anti Cosmo's dark castle. In the episode Fairly Odd Baby, Anti-Wanda and other Anti-Fairies conspired with Pixies on how to kidnap the newborn son of Cosmo and Wanda, Poof, to be able to tame his enormous magic before the Fairies and use it for their intentions.

In the episode Anti-Poof, Anti-Wanda begins to have very strange cravings and additionally gains weight. Anti-Cosmo however ignores his wife's strange behavior as he is upset and furious that the Fairies are appreciated by everyone for what they did and do while the Anti-Fairies are not appreciated at all. In addition, Anti-Cosmo is annoyed by the fact that among the Fairies and Anti-Fairies there is no equality and conjures a board on which it is shown that Poof does not have its Anti-Fairy counterpart. However, when Anti-Wanda vomits at him the so-called "Anti-Barf", Anti-Cosmo comes to the conclusion that Anti-Wanda is in anti-fairy pregnancy and she is going to have their baby. After that, Anti-Wanda gave birth to their son and Anti-Fairy counterpart Poof, Foop. From the moment he was born, Foop is even more diabolical and treacherous than Anti-Cosmo, however, this does not bother Anti-Wanda. Foop asks Anti-Wanda where he can find the nearest source of magic and she shows him the Big Anti-Fairy Wand and says that he can use all its power. Foop thanks his mother and manages to drain all magic from the power source of all Anti-Fairies. After draining all the magic from the Big Anti-Fairy Wand, Foop turns the whole Anti-Fairy World into a colorful place and its inhabitants into Care Fairies for which Anti-Wanda responds crying that her son is so young and at the same time so resourceful. When Foop is stopped, Anti-Wanda grabs his hands and apologizes for his behavior, saying that although he tried to destroy everyone, he is incredibly cute. much to Anti-Cosmo's fury. After stopping Foop and repairing the damage, Foop was locked up in Abracatraz Prison where he was to undergo rehabilitation. Anti-Cosmo and Anti-Wanda paid him a visit by smuggling a nail file into the cake, allowing him to escape.

In the episode Balance Of Flour, Anti-Cosmo and Anti-Wanda, as every year, took part in a bakery competition held for a thousand years hoping to win it and take over all godchildren. Anti-Cosmo is plotting to steal a recipe from Nana Boom-Boom's bakery and use it to win, however, Anti-Wanda tells him that they do not need this recipe because her Road Kill Critter Cake will definitely win, for which Anti-Cosmo says that nobody wants dessert from a predator that hunts mice in sewage. After Timmy accidentally applied a recipe to his head, Anti-Cosmo kidnaps him to get the recipe and win the competition. Instead of Timmy, Anti-Cosmo and Anti-Wanda kidnapped Cosmo, and Anti-Wanda was not smart enough to see that the recipe she found had no ingredients, which resulted in their defeat.

Captain Boomerang

Captain Boomerang is a villain in DC comics and its media.

Born into an impoverished family, he took up throwing boomerangs as a special talent. Later, he tried to make a living by selling toy boomerangs at a toy store. The customers made fun of him and mocked his toys, so he turned to a life of crime.

Mumbo Jumbo

Mumbo Jumbo (also known as The Amazing Mumbo or simply Mumbo ) is one of the many recurring antagonists in the Teen Titans series. He is an evil magician who is very skilled at theft and magic, and while usually just a minor crook, he has proven to be one of the most difficult villains to handle at times, but always manages to get defeated in the end.

He is voiced by Tom Kenny, who voiced Doctor Octopus from Ultimate Spider-Man and Penguin from The Batman .

Mumbo Jumbo first appeared in "The Sum of His Parts". He easily defeated Cyborg while the rest of the titans went in pursuit of Mumbo. After Robin broke his magic wand, he was sent to jail.

He appears again much later with his wand restored in "Aftershock - Part 2" robbing a bank, however he is easily taken out by Terra.

Later on, Mumbo returned in "Bunny Raven… or… How to Make A Titananimal Disappear" as the main antagonist. He sent the Titans to his own world inside his hat and turned them into animals: Robin into a monkey, Starfire into a tiger, Cyborg into a bear, Beast Boy into shape-shifting objects, and Raven into a bunny.

Mumbo was trying to make the Teen Titans disappear permanently, but Raven hatched a plan and used invisible paint. She then performed a magic hat-trick that send her foot out of the hat into the real world, kicking Mumbo in the face. They return to their world and the Teen Titans reverted back to their original forms. Raven then takes Mumbo's hat and Mumbo was taken to prison.

Some time later, Mumbo was recruited into the Brotherhood of Evil. He participated in Ding Dong Daddy's race for Robin's most secret possession, but was taken out in a mass crash triggered by Red X. When Beast Boy lead Mas, Herald, Pantha, and Jericho in an assault to the Brotherhood's Base, Mumbo was defeated by Beast Boy's Tyrannosaurus form with a tail whip. Mumbo was then seen flash-frozen at the end of the battle.

Iron Lung

The Iron Lung is the lung-themed foe of the Crimson Chin who continuously tries to steal from the banks of Chincinnati.

In The Collapsed Lung, The Iron Lung was blowing out the candle of Chincinnati's giant birthday cake. He also blew the cake (along with the Chin, Cleft and Miss Chincinnati, who were all standing on top of it) towards the Statue of Chincinnati, where they would all get crushed. The Chin uses his mighty chin to steer the cake safely away from the statue, while Cleft realises that the Iron Lung needs to take in air to blow it out, and that the air needs to be clean. He produces a 1947 Buick-Packard automobile so the Lung can start choking on its exhaust fumes. He then corks the Lung's mouth so the Chin has an opportunity to send the Lung to jail via chin-based justice.

Timmy: Iron Lung and ANTI-WANDA!

Robin: Mumbo Jumbo and Private H.I.V.E.!

Me: Carl Creel A.K.A. Absorbing Man and George Harkness A.K.A. Captain Boomerang!

Captain Boomerang: (Australian Accent) G'Day J.D.

Absorbing Man: You guys need some help?

Me: As a matter of fact we do Carl. Ape goes crazy because of something in these fruits here.

Laney: They are called bananaquats. They are a fruit that only grows here once every 3 years.

Lana: Maybe you can have Vexen look into helping make something that will stop Ape and those that eat them from going crazy.

Vexen then appeared in a vortex of ice.

Vexen: Someone call?

Lana: Vexen we were just about to call you.

Me: Yeah Ape goes nuts whenever he eats these fruits called bananaquats.

Vexen looked at them.

Vexen: Yes I've done a lot of research about these. Very highly addictive on both humans and apes. Luckily I have the cure made.

Vexen pulled out a test tube full of a yellow liquid.

He handed it to me.

Vexen: Just give this to him after you knock him down and it will cure him of his habits of eating Bananaquats.

Me: Thanks Vexen. We appreciate it.

I took the test tube and put it in my vest.

Vexen vanished in a vortex of ice.

Private H.I.V.E.: (salutes me) J.D. Knudson. It's an honor to meet you, sir!

Me: (Salutes) Pleasure to meet you too Private HIVE! At ease.

He lowered his hand.

Nico: Love his Military Spirit.

Anti-Wanda: I guess me and Foop are the only Anti-Fairies alive.

Ed: Jeez and I thought I looked stupid.

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Nico: I forgot how stupid she looks.

Wanda: And how she makes me look like a total idiot.

Anti-Wanda: It's true y'all. And I love eating with my feet.

She eats a hot dog with her foot.

Captain Boomerang: (to Sam and Luna) When you guys killed Joker the first time, I think you two knocked out some of my memory.

Luna: We did?

Sam S.L.: I don't remember us doing that.

Me: That was shortly before we went on our Global Volcano Adventure and before we became Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Nico: I wasn't here for that.

Cody (OC): But that was something.

?: It was pretty cool.

A figure came out and it was DEMONITE from episodes 13, 14 and 15 of Lightspeed Rescue!

---

Demonite was a knight-themed demon and one of Diabolico's most powerful monsters, alongside Thunderon and Falkar. He was the leader of the trio. Demonite serves as one of the main antagonists of the episodes "Ryan's Destiny" and "Curse of the Cobra" and as part of Troika, he serves as the secondary antagonist of the episode "The Cobra Strikes".

As a last resort to defeat the Power Rangers, Diabolico summoned the three last monsters up his sleeve, known as the Troika Monsters. A team composed of Demonite, Thunderon, and Falkar, Demonite was best suitable as leader of the group. Their first scheme was to use explosive, harmless looking feathers to lure the children of Mariner Bay into finding and playing with them. Upon reaching the hill, the three monsters created unique explosive feathers and unleashed them over the city. Eventually their presence became known and they were greeted by the arrival of Lightspeed Rangers. For Demonite's first encounter, he battled Joel and easily defeated the Green Ranger with his strength and speed. After overhelming the heroes, villains revealed that their feathers are explosive feathers that would detonate in the dark areas and that every feather would destroy the city in the sunset. Then the Rangers continued the fight, but still were no match for Diabolico's most powerful minions. As the sunset neared, the rangers attempted to fall back and the villains pursued them. The Rangers tried to use the Rescue Bird, but the demonic trio redirected the blast at them, heavily injuring them. Soon the sunset was near and the rangers were surrounded by explosive feathers and too wounded to escape, leaving the villains enjoy their fate. When sunset rose up, the feathers exploded one by one, and the rangers weren't able to escape their blast, until the entire area of feathers exploded, sending the heroes crashing through the wall of the warehouse. The rangers weren't able to fight anymore, leaving them at the mercy of the demons, until Ryan arrived to help the rangers. Although Demonite fought Ryan, he and his comrades were defeated and retreated, but they promised to return.

After the trio's initial defeat, Demonite reported back to Diabolico, who gave him a card with a mirror-like appearance. Then they returned to the city and again fought the Rangers. He utilized this card, which created a clone of himself. This clone was connected to its host and went after Ryan while the core five went after the original one, Falkar and Thunderon. Carter held the monster at gun point with his V-Lancer in blaster mode and the Uni-laser. Carter almost blew the both of them up, but then he lowered his weapons and decided to help Ryan. With Carter off guard, the original Demonite prepared to attack him, but Carter turned around at the last second and blasted him, destroying him and the clone. Demonite was made into a larger advanced form by Diabolico, like several other monsters. However, Demonite was defeated once again by both the Lightspeed Megazord and the SuperTrain Megazord.

Falkar and Thunderon, his comrades, were much later defeated in battle as well, and converted into crystals, which Diabolico utilized to create the ultimate monster: Troika. In Mariner Bay, Diabolico briefly encountered the rangers. Then he activated the crystals and combined the essence of Demonite, Thunderon and Falkar into the new super monster Troika. With all powers of three demons at his disposal, Troika effortlessly defeated the heroes, even deflecting the Spectra Blast, forcing them to retreat. Then Troika attacked the center of Mariner Bay to draw the rangers out. Rangers arrived and again battled Troika, but were unable to defeat him. Without other options, rangers activated their last weapons the Battle Booster. With the aid of the Battle Booster, the rangers were able to increase their strength and force Troika back before defeating him with the Battle Booster Beam Attack, putting the end to Diabolico's monster.

---

Ryan Mitchell: Demonite!

Demonite: Been a while Titanium Ranger!

Me: I remember you! You are the last member of Diabolico's most powerful monsters. We already defeated both Thunderon and Falkar.

Demonite: That's right J.D. Diabolico told me you did.

Me: You guys were a really good challenge on TV.

Demonite: You guys did good against Thunderon and Falkar. But now, let's see how you all do against me!

Me: You are the only member of Diabolico's Terrible Trio left.

Starlight Glimmer: That's a short name.

Me: It's a work in progress.

?: You always were resourceful J.D.

Me: It's been almost a year since I heard that voice.

A figure came out and it was RA'S AL GHUL!

---

Ra's al Ghul is a recurring antagonist in the DC Animated Universe, appearing as a major antagonist in Batman: The Animated Series and as a guest antagonist in both Superman: The Animated Series and Batman Beyond .

He was an eco-terrorist who has lived for over 600 years through the use of Lazarus Pits. Over his long lifetime, Ra's has become a master planner, an expert fighter, independently wealthy and the leader of a powerful criminal organization, making him one of Batman's most dangerous foes.

He was voiced by David Warner, who also played Jon Irenicus from Baldur's Gate II: Shadows of Amn and The Evil Genius from Time Bandits .

Batman: The Animated Series

At some point in his life, this man discovered the Lazarus Pits, which he used to prolong his life over and over again.

Now known as "Ra's al Ghul", he work towards his goal of reversing all of the damage that modern human progress had done to the earth and restoring it to a pure world free of technology. He also fathered at least two children: Arkady Duvall and Talia.

Decades later, Ra's al Ghul's presence was first made known to Batman. Later, Ra's met Batman right in the Batcave, requested his help in tracking down his daughter and Dick Grayson as they had both been kidnapped on the same night.

Superman: The Animated Series

Ra's continued to come into conflict with Batman, even attempting to prolong his own life by stealing Superman's powers. At the end of this ordeal, he and Talia were caught in a collapsing cavern. In the aftermath, neither one could be found, dead or alive.

Batman Beyond

Ra's al Ghul escaped death again but Ra's was left at the brink of death and the Lazarus Pits unable to repair the damage of his body. He asked her to sacrifice herself and she gave her permission, ceasing to exist. In his new body, Ra's took over Talia's legal identity and was able to keep himself alive through the years with the Lazarus Pits, as well as "improve" his image with charities.

Since after Bruce Wayne retired by the 2040s, Ra's al Ghul correctly guessed that the new Batman was the assistant Terry McGinnis.

---

Talia: Father!

Me: Welcome back to the land of the living Ra's.

Nico: We were devastated when you died.

Ra's: (Rudely) I'm sure you were!

Me: Huh? But how did you come back?

Ra's: Thanks to this.

He held up a card and it was NUMBER 13: EMBODIMENT OF CRIME!

Eli: Number 13: Embodiment of Crime!

Me: He has the Misfortunate Number!

Ra's Al Ghul: Are you proud of yourself, J.D.? I gave you my blessing to have my daughter as one of your wives. And you repay me by letting Supergiant kill me!

Me: Ra's that's not true! Supergiant was going to kill Talia and you saved her by jumping in front of the blast!

Nico: Yeah! You made the ultimate sacrifice to save her!

Talia: They are right father!

Applejack: What does he mean by that?

Me: Oh that's right you guys don't know about this. It was almost a year ago shortly before we destroyed Thanos.

FLASHBACK 2

Me: Supergiant!

Nico: So Thanos knows about our fight against him.

Supergiant: (Insane chuckle) That's right Nico. And just to minimize your forces, I'm going to kill all of you.

She had a laser blast ready to fire.

Supergiant: Now, Talia Al Ghul. You will be the first to die! (fires laser blast at Talia)

Ra's Al Ghul: Talia, no!

Ra's pushes Talia out of the way and takes the shot to the chest.

Talia: FATHER!

Nico: RA'S!

Me: NO!

Rojo: (grabs Supergiant by the throat) That was a mistake you bitch! And also, this is payback for not paying me!

She snapped her neck and killed Supergiant!

Nico: Supergiant you have failed this universe!

Ra's was on the ground dying.

Ra's: (Weakly) Is she…

Me: Yes, Supergiant is dead. Rojo killed her.

Talia: Father, don't talk. We'll have Ratchet help heal you!

Ra's: (weakly) Can't you see that I'm dying, Talia?

Me: What are you talking about, Ra's?

Ra's: I'm old, J.D. And even if I hadn't been shot, no one lives forever. I know that now.

Talia: Father, please! Don't talk like that.

Ra's: Talia, I've lived for a long time now. 600+ years and I know when my time is up. I had a good run. But you still have your entire life ahead of you. Now, it's time for you to let me go.

Talia: But I'm not ready for you to go.

Ra's: I'm not, either. But when you think about it… compared to the cosmos, one's life is but a blink of an eye.

Talia: You're really teaching me life lessons now?

Ra's: I have been the best father to you, Talia. I'm very proud of you. And I'll always love you, no matter what.

Talia: (cries) Thank you, father!

Ra's: (to me): J.D, please look after my daughter.

Me: (cries) I will, Ra's. You have my word of honor.

Ra's: Thank you, J.D. Knudson. I am proud to call you my successor.

Me: I am too Ra's.

And with that, Ra's took his last breath, closed his eyes, and died in my arms.

Talia cried hard and I comforted her. Most of us were crying over the loss of a friend and a brave hero that lived for 600 long years.

(RA'S AL GHUL - 1417 to 2019)

We buried him in the graveyard that Bruce Wayne's parents are buried in.

Star Butterfly: (looks at Ra's grave)… Any other family we should contact?

Override: There's his other daughter, Nyssa. But I don't know how we'll break the news to her.

Talia: This is my fault. I should've dodged that shot.

Me: No, it wasn't your fault that this happened, Talia.

FLASHBACK 2 ENDS

They gasped.

Rainbow Dash: He went from Villain to true hero!

Applejack: My word!

Me: And I promised to live up to his Legacy. And I kept that promise ever since! Now I'm going to save Ra's from the influence of Number 13!

Eli: I'll help you J.D.!

Me: Thanks little bro. Lets power up and go at them!

Absorbing Man: And I have just the planet to fight on.

He snapped his fingers and we were on a huge jungle planet. It was the home planet of Spidermonkey: ARANHASCHIMMIA!

---

Aranhaschimmia is the home planet of the Arachnichimps.

From space, Aranhaschimmia is a lime green planet with darker green marks.

Aranhaschimmia is full of forests and many predators.

It is a dangerous planet, which is why Arachnichimps only live at the tree tops, as their species is considered a delicacy to predators such as the Root Sharks.

It is always dark below the canopy on Aranhaschimmia.

Weather

It never snows naturally on Aranhaschimmia.

History Ben 10: Alien Force

Aranhaschimmia was mentioned by Simian in Birds of a Feather .

---

We saw the planet and it was amazing!

Nico: WHOA!

Lincoln: Where are we?

Me: Wow! What a planet.

Absorbing Man: This is the planet Aranhaschimmia. It's Spidermonkey's home planet.

Me: WHOA! So this is Aranhaschimmia.

Laney: Wow! It's a jungle planet!

Riley: I always wondered what Spidermonkey's home planet looked like.

Maria: This is amazing! I didn't know it was a vast jungle planet.

Julie Yamamoto: But it is amazing.

Ben: But this world is very dangerous and it's full of predators.

Eli: That's right!

Eli unsheathed his sword and I unsheathed my sword and Ra's unsheathed his sword and we went at him.

(Duel of the Fates From Star Wars I plays)

We clashed violently with him and sparks were flying all over the place with incredible fury and more and I kicked him in the face and Eli punched him in the stomach and we clashed more and lightning was striking from our swords. Eli fired a blast of force lightning at him and electrocuted Ra's all over and we saw the Number appear and me and Eli fired blasts of energy and it hit the Number and exploded!

KRABBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Number 13 was defeated and Ra's fell to the ground and Eli picked up the Number.

I went over to Ra's and looked him over.

THE END

Another awesome fanfic done.

The episode of George of The Jungle 2007: Trouble with Bananaquats was one of the funniest episodes ever. The next Number that will appear will be Number 7: Lucky Straight and that one will be in the possession of Lady Tsunade and she will have a tremendous turnaround in luck when she goes to Las Vegas and wins all their money. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the 4th chapter of Time Squad and we're going to face our country's 16th President, Abraham Lincoln and stop him and his gang from doing all kinds of crazy pranks. It will be funny and adventurous.

See you all tomorrow

Shenanigans of the Lincoln Gang

Over on the outskirts of Las Vega, Nevada we were fighting the Rare Hunters. These were the last surviving members of Marik's forces that were left.

I slashed a Rare Hunter in his throat and killed him and Nico blasted one and ripped him to pieces.

Tea grabbed a Rare Hunter by his neck with her legs and slammed him into the ground and smashed his skull open.

Stone Man just snapped a Rare Hunter's neck.

Stone Man: (to the Rare Hunter that's remaining) Tell your buddies that are still alive about what you just saw. (the Rare Hunter runs away)

Me: Yeah you better run!

Tea Gardner: And if I see you again I'll rip your balls out and shove them down your fucking throat!

Me: Yeah you tell him Tea!

Yugi: Yeah!

Eli: Yeah!

Nico: Those Rare Hunters have failed this world.

Lincoln: Yep.

We took their cards as trophies.

Laney: These guys don't have Number Cards on them.

Me: Well at least we got a bunch of neat cards as trophies.

Linka: Yep.

Veon: Thanks for bringing me and Hagger back, guys.

Me: No problem.

Brittney: And it's gonna be cool having you two in my newly redeemed Red Lantern Corps.

Veon: Our allegiance is with you Brittney.

Hagger: Absolutely.

Then we heard the last Rare Hunter scream and we went over and saw a girl with a powerful staff turning the Rare Hunter to stone. It was Twilight Sparkle's friend that she saved from the Storm King and redeemed her: Fizzlepop Berrytwist A.K.A. TEMPEST SHADOW!

---

Tempest Shadow (real name: Fizzlepop Berrytwist ) is the central antagonist turned supporting protagonist of the 2017 animated film, My Little Pony: The Movie and a cameo character in the rest of the My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic series.

She was a ruthless unicorn with a broken horn and scar who once served as the second-in-command of the Storm King and the boss of Grubber. She aided the Storm King's invasion of Equestria and captured Twilight Sparkle and other princesses in order to steal their magic and make the Storm King all-powerful in return for having her horn restored. However, after being betrayed by the Storm King and saved by Twilight, she redeems herself.

She was voiced by Emily Blunt, who also played Freya in The Huntsman: A Winter's Tale and Linnet Doyle in Death on the Nile . In the Japanese dubbed version, she was voiced by Sanae Kobayashi.

As a filly, Fizzlepop Berrytwist lived in an unknown village and often played with her two best friends. One day, they were playing in the woods until they lost their ball in an Ursa Minor den. Fizzlepop went in alone to retrieve it but ran into the creature. She tried to defend herself with her magic, but the beast struck her with its claws, breaking her horn and scarring her face. With her horn broken, Fizzlepop was unable to perform magic correctly anymore; instead, it only came out as destructive bolts. Her friends decided that she was too dangerous to be around anymore, so they abandon her and found somepony else to play with. Feeling betrayed by her own friends, Fizzlepop began to believe that friendship was a weakness and grew to hate it, as well as her own kind. She left her village soon after, determined to make it out on her own and never depend on anypony else ever again.

At some point, Fizzlepop then encountered the Storm King and became his second-in-command, renaming herself Tempest Shadow. She then agreed to help him steal the magic of the Alicorn princesses under the promise that he would use it to restore her horn.

Role in the Film Invasion

During Canterlot's first Friendship Festival, Tempest leads the Storm King's forces in an invasion of the city, demanding the magic of the four Alicorn princesses and turning Princess Celestia, Princess Luna, and Princess Cadance into obsidian statues when they refuse. After Twilight Sparkle and her friends escape, Tempest assumes control of the city, and the Storm King tasks her with securing all four princesses in exchange for restoring her horn.

Chasing Twilight and her friends

Tempest tracks down Twilight to the desert city of Klugetown, where she roughs up some of the townsfolk for information. When Twilight and her friends escape her clutches again, she captures a new ally they've made named Capper. Under Capper's direction, Tempest initially heads toward Black Skull Island. However, when she sees Rainbow Dash's sonic rainboom in the opposite direction, she realizes that Capper was lying. Onboard the pirate ship of Captain Celaeno, Tempest interrogates the crew about Twilight's whereabouts, unaware that she and the rest of the Mane Six are hiding below deck. After Twilight escapes her yet again, Tempest punishes Capper and Celaeno for their deception by destroying the airship on which they stood.

Capturing Twilight

Tempest eventually finally captures Twilight on the Basalt Beach after her selfish actions in Seaquestria and fight with Pinkie caused her friends to abandon her. As the result of their fight and abandoning Twilight made it easier for Tempest to finally capture her with no help this time. On Tempest's sky skiff, Tempest sadistically taunts Twilight for being alone despite being the "Princess of Friendship." Twilight attempts to reason with the unicorn, stating that they were the same, only for her to respond by threatening that they were nothing alike. She then reveals through a song how she lost her horn and her friends, which left her with the outlook that friendship is meaningless, causing Twilight to feel sorry for her. Tempest then announces that friendship that failed them both, but Twilight rebukes this by saying she failed friendship.

Betrayed and redemption

Despite Twilight's attempts to reason with a fellow pony, Tempest refuses to listen and turns her over to the Storm King in Canterlot.

After the Storm King uses his Staff of Sacanas to steal the princesses' magic, Tempest reminds him of their deal for him to restore her horn. However, The Storm King reveals that he was simply using Tempest to become powerful and had no intention of fulfilling his end of the bargain. Following a brief confrontation between the two, Tempest nearly gets swept away in the Storm King's tornado, but Twilight saves her, leaving Tempest surprised that Twilight would still show her kindness. Before the Storm King could get ready to finish the two mares off, Twilight's friends arrive and blasted him away, causing him to lose his staff, as Twilight reunites with her friends, as she and Pinkie apologise to each other for they never should pave down to each other. But the Storm King staff loses control and creates an uncontrollable storm. Tempest watches from the fallen rubble as Twilight manages to achieve the staff before she and the Storm King are swept away. Tempest becomes shocked by this, as the Mane 5 and Spike are sad and mourn for Twilight, believing she's dead but Twilight arrives flying down from the clouds safe and unharmed, as she used the staff to stop the storm.

Sacrifice and revival

After the Storm King is finally defeated and watching Twilight hugging her friends, Tempest comes to respect friendship again and begins to leave in shame of her actions. Before she can, she spots the Storm King, still alive, and Tempest becomes shocked when he tries a last-ditch attempt to turn Twilight and her friends to obsidian. Tempest, remembering that Twilight saved her earlier, runs towards him. The gang thought she was after Twilight again, but Tempest jumps in the way of the Storm King's attack, turning her and the King into black stone. While the Storm King falls and shatters to pieces, Twilight uses the Staff of Sacanas to land her to safety on the platform. The others were shocked by this, except Twilight, who knew Tempest had it in her and turns Tempest back to normal, and she helps in turning the other princesses back to normal and restoring Canterlot.

Accepting friendship once again

Near the end of the film, during Songbird Serenade's performance, Twilight approaches Tempest, who still laments the loss of her horn. Twilight helps Tempest see that her magic is still special and powerful, horn or no horn, and encourages her to stay in Equestria. Having accepted Twilight's friendship, Tempest creates a fireworks display for the Friendship Festival and reveals her real name as Fizzlepop Berrytwist. During the film's closing credits, Tempest is seen dancing and playing with her new friends, including a reformed Grubber, now a much more happier pony.

Friendship is Magic Season 8

She is only mentioned by Twilight that she is spreading the word of the Storm King's defeat.

Season 9

Tempest Shadow makes a non-speaking cameo in the Season 9 episodes "The Ending of the End Part 2" and "The Last Problem" . She joins with most of the other characters from the series in the final battle against Cozy Glow, Tirek and Queen Chrysalis and attends Twilight's coronation as the new ruler of Equestria.

Comics Tempest's Tale

After the events of My Little Pony: The Movie, Tempest is seen declining Twilight's offer to stay in Ponyville due to feeling that it's not where she belongs. After promising to return, she travels around Equestria to find where she fits in and helps anypony in need like repairing damage from the Storm King's attack. Feeling unsure of herself, two ponies suggest she go to the Crystal Empire which seems to be in crisis. After arriving at the Crystal Empire, Princess Cadance openly welcomes Tempest but she feels uneasy. After explaining about what types of love are, Cadance gives Tempest the task of investigating recent incidents on the outskirts of the Crystal Empire. The Next day, Tempest goes to the arctic patrol office where she meets one of her childhood friends, Glitter Drops. Glitter Drops is overjoyed and excited to see her again but Tempest is still bitter at her over the way they separated when they were little and wants to focus on the assignment. Despite Glitter Drops trying to make their moment together fun and trying to catch up on old times, Tempest continues to ignore her. Glitter Drops then explains that ponies on them outskirts are having issues with destroyed fences and stolen food. Tempest then realizes that Cadance's true motives for the mission was for her to make friends. Arriving at the residence of a pony named Icy Shanks and after a brief confrontation, he reveals that he is a victim of having his property damaged and food stolen. Frustrated by the ponies, Tempest goes off on her own to investigate the incident while remembering the day she and her friends lost the ball in the ursa minor cave which also had her lose her horn. Glitter Drops catches up with her and Tempest confronts her about abandoning her when they were little. Their dispute is interrupted by a trail of fish and believing the culprit has left them there. Going off on her own once again and attempting to prove that she doesn't need Glitter Drops help, she comes face-to-face with an ursa minor which has her paralyzed with fear.

Tempest started to believe in all the hardships she faced after losing her horn were all for nothing until Glitter Drops saves her from the ursa minor by blinding it. Not wanting to accept Glitter Drops' kindness and concern, she explodes in anger at Glitter Drops and declares that she doesn't need anyone to save her. This causes Glitter Drops to tearfully apologize for what happened in their childhood and she reveals that since she was the one who lost the ball in the Ursa minor's cave, it should've been her to have gotten the ball, and because Tempest lost her horn instead of her, she had been consumed with guilt ever since. This confession causes Tempest to be shocked and realizes that she was wrong about holding a grudge against her friend and the two make amends. As they search for the Ursa minor, they catch up on old times and Tempest asks Glitter Drops why she and Spring Rain abandoned her and reached out to her after leaving magic school. Glitter Drops remembers the circumstances of their separation slightly differently and reveals to Tempest that she and Spring Rain did try and include her in their games after she got out of the hospital and didn't really mind if she couldn't do what they could do. She reveals that she and Spring Rain already felt guilty about what happened and didn't want to make her sadder. Before she can explain the rest of the story, they hear the ursa minor and Glitter Drops reveals that it is not growling but calling out to its mother because it is lost and Tempest starts to feel sympathy for the creature. Tempest becomes impressed by Glitter Drops' illusion spell after she reunites it with its real mother. As the two return down the mountain, Tempest asks Glitter Drops again why she and Spring Rain never kept in touch with her and Glitter Drops confesses that she and Spring Rain were the stars of their class at home but at Princess Celestia's School for Gifted Unicorns they couldn't keep up with the advanced lessons and dropped out of school. Tempest then realizes that she and Glitter Drops have more in common than she thought. Glitter Drops tells Tempest that if she ever feels angry and alone, she has a friend who loves her. Back at the palace, Tempest reports to Princess Cadance on the events of the previous night. Knowing full well that Cadance orchestrated everything so that Tempest could reunite and reconcile with Glitter Drops, Tempest thanks her.

---

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! Tempest Shadow!

Me: You know her Twilight?

Twilight Sparkle: I sure do. I saved her from herself when she was serving the Storm King.

We went over to her.

Anne Boonchuy: Hi. Are you Tempest Shadow?

Tempest Shadow: Yes I am.

Twilight Sparkle: Tempest!

Tempest Shadow: Twilight!

They hugged.

Twilight Sparkle: I'm so happy to see you.

Tempest Shadow: Same here. (Sees us) Wow! Team Loud Phoenix Storm. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Same here. (Sees her scar) Whoa. Nice scar.

Tempest Shadow: Thanks. Same to you J.D.

Me: Ugly story behind that. How did you get your scar?

Tempest Shadow: Ugly story behind that too. I got slashed by an Ursa Minor when I was playing ball with my friends and I got my horn broken off and this scar.

Me: Yikes.

Lincoln: That must've really hurt.

Nico: No kidding. But thank goodness you're okay.

Tempest Shadow: Thank you.

We saw the Rare Hunter and he was turned into a stone statue.

Me: Whoa! How did you turn him into a stone statue?

Tempest Shadow: With this.

She showed us the staff she had.

Ice: (Scandinavian Accent) The Staff of Sacanas.

Me: That's the Staff of the Storm King.

Tempest Shadow: Yep. I now use it for good. After we defeated the Storm King, I've decided to use the Staff of Sacanas for good.

Linka: Wow. That's amazing.

I found the Rare Hunter's cards and took them.

Me: Now to destroy this monster.

I punched the statue and obliterated it into dust.

Tempest Shadow: Wow! Your strength is amazing.

Me: I get that all the time.

Tempest Shadow: So what brings you all here?

Me: Well we found the rest of Marik's Rare Hunter out here in the deserts of Las Vegas. Also you saved us the trouble of having us find you so we can recruit you for the Redemption Squad.

William: We know this is really sudden but because of everything you went through because of your past and all that and how Twilight Sparkle saved you from yourself you are a good candidate for the group.

Tempest Shadow: That's a good point but I'm honored to join you all.

Breakdown: (to the Mane 6) Didn't you girls get into a huge fight during the time Tempest Shadow made her appearance?

Twlight Sparkle: Yeah we did.

Applejack: It was awful.

---

Applejack: What were you thinkin'? I mean, stealin' their pearl?

Twilight Sparkle: [sighs] It was the only way to save Equestria.

Pinkie Pie: 'Cept it wasn't! The Queen was going to say yes! We did what you told us and that's what made her realize we were ponies worth saving! [gasps] Unless… You didn't really want us to show her the best time ever! You just wanted us to distract her!

Rainbow Dash, Applejack, Rarity and Fluttershy: [gasp]

Twilight Sparkle: I never would have done it, but this isn't Equestria! We can't just dance around with con artists, make rainbooms in the sky and expect everything to work out! It's not enough! We are not enough!

Pinkie Pie: No, Twilight! We stuck together! We were gonna get the help we needed! The only thing that stopped us… was you!

Twilight Sparkle: Well, I'm doing the best I can! It's all on me. I'm the one Tempest wants. I'm the last Princess!

Pinkie Pie: You're also the only one who doesn't trust her friends!

Twilight Sparkle: Well, maybe, I would've been better off without friends like you!

Pinkie Pie: [gasps]

FLASHBACK ENDS

We gasped in sheer shock!

Me: WHOA! That is brutally mean!

Twilight Sparkle: Yeah I snapped and I completely regret everything I said back then. It was awful.

Eli put his hand on her shoulder.

Eli: But at least you regret saying all that. You were just going through times of extreme pressure. The fate of all of Equestria hung in the balance.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Eli: It wasn't your fault.

Me: But if the Storm King ever does come back, we'll erase him from existence forever like we did Necrafa.

Nico: Yeah!

Then my watch alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

Nico: What's that?

Me: That's my new Number Detector Alarm. Lisa installed it in our smart watches.

Eli: Cool!

I opened the Scanner and it showed that there was a Number at the Luxor Hotel and Casino.

Me: We got a Number at the Luxor Hotel and Casino.

Mindy Chan: Wow! That's the hotel where I killed Balrog the first time.

Lincoln: I remember that.

Me: We better get over there.

We went over to the awesome Pyramid Shaped Hotel, The Luxor Hotel and Casino.

Lana: Wow! The Luxor Hotel.

Nico: Wow! It's amazing.

Lincoln: It sure is.

We walked around and we saw a massive number of buckets full of coins and poker chips!

Nico: WHOA! Someone sure is Lucky.

We went to the Blackjack table and we saw none other than Lady Tsunade!

Me: Lady Hokage?

Lady Tsunade saw us.

Lady Tsunade: Well nice to see you all here.

Me: Small world huh? Is all this yours?

Lady Tsunade: Yep.

Naruto: But how Aunt Tsunade? Usually you are known for your losing streak.

Me: Yeah how did your luck take a sudden 180 like this?

Lady Tsunade: I think it had something to do with this.

She pulled out a card and showed us and it was NUMBER 7: LUCKY STRAIGHT!

We gasped.

Eli: Number 7: Lucky Straight!

Me: And Number 7 is the Blessed Number.

Nico: Yeah it's the luckiest number in the world.

Maria: How come the Number Card isn't affecting your mind?

Tsunade: Probably because I've fought alongside you guys. I guess the Number Card seems to be working in conjunction with my powers instead of affecting my brain.

Mirage: I'm honestly torn between letting you keep that card and having you give it to us.

Me: But still Lady Hokage, I'm amazed that you were able to win all this money because of Number 7. They don't call Number 7 the Blessed Number for nothing.

Nico: It's true.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Fu: And I should know because I'm the 7-Tails Junchuriki, I'm also called Lucky Seven.

Tempest Shadow: Wow.

Naruto: And I have the polar opposite luck you do Aunt Hokage.

Lady Tsunade: That's true.

Me: Not only that but this is enough money to pay off all your gambling debts 100,000 times over.

Lady Tsunade: Yeah. I think I won enough.

Me: Well lets get all this money counted and head home.

Our stomachs then growled.

Me: Wow. Getting hungry. After we get all that money counted lets head to a restaurant here for lunch.

Nico: Good idea.

We went to the clerk to have the money counted. Lady Tsunade won a total of $275,735,825,827,893,468,835,745,835,863.28. She was now filthy rich with enough money to make the Hidden Leaf as big as Gotham Royal York.

We went to one of my favorite restaurants in Las Vegas: Hash House A Go Go and the food was awesome.

---

Later back at home we were watching TV and I was doing research on the Sonic Rainboom and how there are levels beyond the Double Rainboom.

Me: Whoa! Guys look at this!

Everyone came over.

Nico: Whoa! There are many kinds of Sonic Rainbooms?

Me: Yeah and the Super Sonic Rainboom is the ultimate one.

Lincoln: How fast is that one?

Me: It says that you would have to go 10 times faster than the speed of light or 630,000,000,000 miles per hour.

Loud Kids: WHOA!

Rainbow Rash: Wow! That is incredible!

Vapor Trail: I've read about this. A Sonic Rainboom that's greater than that of the regular Sonic Rainboom is really rare.

Me: It sure is. But in order to achieve a Rainboom like this of incredible magnitude you would have to go at speeds that are equal to or faster than the speed of Light. And Rainbow Dash broke the boundaries of time and space when she did a Double Rainboom. When she went at that speed at 580,000,000 miles an hour or 75% the Speed of Light she went so fast that she punched a hole through the fabric of time and space and went into the universe of the Powerpuff Girls.

Rainbow Dash: WOW! I didn't know I was going that fast. I had to learn that lesson the hard way.

Nico: Wow.

Me: But a Super Sonic Rainboom going at 630 billion miles per hour would REALLY break the laws of physics.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow it sure would.

Me: Not only that but a shockwave of that kind of magnitude and power would possess enough explosive power to destroy the planet.

We gasped!

Vince: WHOA! That's intense!

Linka: No kidding!

Nico: Unbelievable.

Marble Pie: That's intense.

Lady Tsunade: Physics was never my strongsuit but that is really interesting.

Me: And Rainbow Dash pulled off a Double Rainboom.

Rainbow Dash: I sure did. But I am not gonna do a Triple Rainboom.

Me: Good.

Then the History Instability Alarm went off.

BOING! BOING BOING BOING!

---

ALARM BLARES!

Me: Uh oh. We got a History Instability Emergency.

Proto Man: Which time period are we headed to this time?

I pulled up when we were going to and we were going to the time of America's 16th President, Abraham Lincoln.

---

Abraham Lincoln (February 12, 1809 - April 15, 1865) was an American statesman and lawyer who served as the 16th president of the United States from 1861 to 1865. Lincoln led the nation through the American Civil War, the country's greatest moral, constitutional, and political crisis. He succeeded in preserving the Union, abolishing slavery, bolstering the federal government, and modernizing the U.S. economy.

Lincoln was born into poverty in a log cabin and was raised on the frontier primarily in Indiana. He was self-educated and became a lawyer, Whig Party leader, Illinois state legislator, and U.S. Congressman from Illinois. In 1849, he returned to his law practice but became vexed by the opening of additional lands to slavery as a result of the Kansas-Nebraska Act. He reentered politics in 1854, becoming a leader in the new Republican Party, and he reached a national audience in the 1858 debates against Stephen Douglas. Lincoln ran for President in 1860, sweeping the North in victory. Pro-slavery elements in the South equated his success with the North's rejection of their right to practice slavery, and southern states began seceding from the union. To secure its independence, the new Confederate States fired on Fort Sumter, a U.S. fort in the South, and Lincoln called up forces to suppress the rebellion and restore the Union.

As the leader of moderate Republicans, Lincoln had to navigate a contentious array of factions with friends and opponents on both sides. War Democrats rallied a large faction of former opponents into his moderate camp, but they were countered by Radical Republicans, who demanded harsh treatment of the Southern traitors. Anti-war Democrats (called "Copperheads") despised him, and irreconcilable pro-Confederate elements plotted his assassination. Lincoln managed the factions by exploiting their mutual enmity, by carefully distributing political patronage, and by appealing to the U.S. people. His Gettysburg Address became a historic clarion call for nationalism, republicanism, equal rights, liberty, and democracy. Lincoln scrutinized the strategy and tactics in the war effort, including the selection of generals and the naval blockade of the South's trade. He suspended habeas corpus, and he averted British intervention by defusing the Trent Affair. He engineered the end to slavery with his Emancipation Proclamation and his order that the Army protect and recruit former slaves. He also encouraged border states to outlaw slavery, and promoted the Thirteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution, which outlawed slavery across the country.

Lincoln managed his own successful re-election campaign. He sought to heal the war-torn nation through reconciliation. On April 14, 1865, just days after the war's end at Appomattox, Lincoln was attending a play at Ford's Theatre with his wife Mary when he was assassinated by Confederate sympathizer John Wilkes Booth. His marriage had produced four sons, two of whom preceded him in death, with severe emotional impact upon him and Mary. Lincoln is remembered as the martyr hero of the United States and he is consistently ranked as one of the greatest presidents in American history.

Me: The middle of the American Civil War and we're going to meet America's 16th President.

Otto: Abraham Lincoln.

Lori: Awesome!

Larry 3000: Oh boy.

Nico: I love President Lincoln. Learned so much about him.

Me: Me too. He was my ancestral Uncle's best friend.

Nico: That's right I remember that.

Lincoln: Yep.

Private H.I.V.E., Captain Boomerang, Absorbing Man, Anti-Wanda, Mumbo Jumbo and Iron Lung appeared.

Private H.I.V.E.: (to me) Permission for me, Captain Boomerang, Absorbing Man, Anti Wanda, Mumbo, and Iron Lung to come with you, sir?

Me: Granted Private H.I.V.E.

We went to the transporter and we were off.

BOOM!

Me: Here we are guys. Washington D.C. in 1863.

Nico: Wow. Nice place.

Pinkie Pie then got a twitchy tail.

Pinkie Pie: Uh oh.

Twilight Sparkle: Not this again.

But then she got hit in the head with a flower pot,

CRACK!

An anvil,

CLANG!

Followed by a hay cart,

SMASH!

And then finally a piano dropped on her.

CRASH!

Me: WHOA! Twilight are you all right?

We cleared the stuff and Twilight was all mangled up.

We saw the Lincoln Gang laughing maniacally.

Princess Rose: Here we are in Washington D.C.

Me: Yep. Back in 1863. This was shortly after the Gettysburg Address.

Varie: Man the Lincoln Gang really did a number on Twilight.

Twilight Sparkle: (Slurred stupid speech) Mommy can you please read me the story of the pony who jumped over the moon?

Spike: Man that must've really hurt her.

Nico: No kidding.

Varie was healing her.

Anti-Wanda: This is somethin my fellow Anti-Fairies would like if they were still alive.

Me: They would. But not us.

Nico: Yeah.

Fu: Guys I think we should focus. Look.

We saw the entire town covered in toilet paper, all the cars were shaving creamed and more.

Me: Whoa! This takes pranks to a whole new level!

Nico: Yeah. This is a huge waste of toilet paper.

George Beard: Yeah this is more toilet paper than what we used in Jerome Horwitz.

Lana: And that's not all that was done.

We saw cows tipped, some people had a bunch of kick me signs on them, they had whipped cream all over them and more.

Me: Man these guys have all been nailed.

Dreamcatcher: Who do those punks think they are making a mess of things?!

Luan: A bunch of Dark Luan Wannabes.

Nico: Just what I was about to say.

Ed: I think these pranks are funny!

Eddy: Shut up Ed.

Iron Lung: (to Timmy) Isn't this the part where you ask your fairies to fix what happened here?

Timmy: It sure is. Cosmo, Wanda?

Me: Stardust, Stellar?

Me and Timmy: We wish the whole town was fixed.

They waved their wands.

FIXED POOF!

The whole town was back to normal.

Me: Much better. Thanks guys.

Stellar: You're welcome J.D.

Me: Lets ask around and see what happened here.

We went up to a man.

Man: Well this was the work of the Lincoln Gang. Abraham Lincoln and his entire gang have been doing all kinds of damage to the town.

Me: This is really bad.

Thorax: We should probably find the Lincoln Gang before they manage to wreck the town again.

Me: Agreed.

Man: Well you're not gonna look very far because you might as well check their clubhouse. You can't miss it. It's the evil log mansion down the street at the end of the road.

Me: Thank you sir.

Man: You're welcome.

We went to the log mansion. We arrived and saw that it was a really foreboding place.

Me: He lives here huh? Man a log mansion fortress from hell.

Nico: It sure does.

Captain Boomerang: (Australian Accent) No way we can have the usual battles here. Not with the Lincoln Gang ready to cause pranks at a moment's notice.

Me: Agreed. We're gonna have to have our usual battles in the Gym like always when we do this. And also one of the Timeshifters is bound to be here too.

Lincoln: I think you're right.

We saw one of the Time Shifters. It was Muscles!

Lana: Wow!

Lana picked him up.

Lana: You are so adorable!

Muscles laughed.

Lemon Zest: If the Lincoln Gang want pranks, we'll give them pranks!

Me: If it's a prank war they want, it's a prank war they will get!

Absorbing Man: (to Iron Lung) Is it okay if I absorb some of your iron?

Iron Lung: Go for it.

He touched Iron Lung and turned into iron.

Eli: It's butt-kicking time.

Lady Tsunade: The Lincoln's Gang's luck just ran out.

Hagger: What do we do about Muscles?

Carol: Petra will be coming for him. So I have a plan. In fact…

Carol turned and then…

POW!

She punched Petra right in her face as she was coming for Muscles!

Carol: I had a feeling you would be coming Petra! Now I'm going to massacre you!

Petra: Give me Muscles or die you bitch!

Carol: Come and get him you fucking clod!

Carol punched Petra all over with incredible fury and more.

The Lincoln Gang then came out.

Gia: You guys have pulled your last pranks!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Wild Force!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Wild Force rangers.

Me: It's time for some buttkicking TLPS Style!

Eli: Lets get them!

Abraham Lincoln (Time Squad): Uh oh.

We went at them and viciously pulverized and smashed and brutally pulverized them with pranks all over the place with incredible fury.

POW! BLAM! CRACK! BIFF! SMASH! KROW! BANG! CRASH!

Mirage: Time for some teamwork!

Anne: Yeah!

Mirage and Anne used the Earth and Amphibia Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Mirage's Rocket Darts and Anne's water powers 100-fold.

Breakdown and Stone Man both used the Earth Cyber Planet Key and they enhanced Breakdown's concussion gun and Stone Man's Earth Powers 100-fold.

Mirage and Anne Boonchuy: MAELSTROM ROCKET FIRESTORM!

Mirage and Anne fired blasts of rockets and water.

Breakdown and Stone Man: CONCUSSIVE ROCKSLIDE BLAST!

Breakdown fired a massive blast of concussive energy and Stone Man fired waves of rocks.

Luan: You leave the pranks to the professionals like me and Eddy!

Luan, Eddy, Tuddrussel, Otto and Larry 3000: COMEDY LIGHTSTORM SMASH!

They fired blasts of light and energy and the blasts all smashed into the Lincoln Gang and smashed them down all over the place and knocked them down!

We went up to them.

Larry 3000: (to the Lincoln Gang) What do you all have to say for yourselves?!

Me: (Glares at them)

Abraham Lincoln: We're sorry.

Me: That good enough?

We shook our heads for no.

Fluttershy then used her stare on them!

Fluttershy: You all should be ashamed of yourselves! You have caused so much damage to the town and you caused mayhem to all! I have a nerve to tell your parents what you've been up to! Now Abraham Lincoln you better get back to your job as the President of the United States!

Abraham Lincoln: Okay! Okay!

Fluttershy: And don't ever let us catch you doing this again!

He agreed nodding his head in fright.

Nico: Whoa.

Abraham Lincoln was back to being president.

Me: Good.

Tuddrussel: Mission accomplished.

We were getting ready to head back home. But then Brain Freezer, Beautiful Gorgeous, Diabolico, Red X appeared.

Me: Brain Freezer, Beautiful Gorgeous, Diabolico and Red X.

Brain Freezer: Hey guys. Looks like you guys finished before we got here.

Me: Yeah it didn't take that long.

Diabolico: Looks like Carol is still going at it with Petra.

Musa: She sure is.

Carol was pulverizing her brains out.

May: Are two recruits coming today?

Brain Freezer: They sure are.

Red X: But promise you guys won't freak out when you see one of them.

Me: Okay. Why do I have a feeling I know who it is gonna be?

Two figures came out and one of them was 2016's PRINCESS MORBUCKS and Sir Mortimer Drake A.K.A. CAVALIER!

---

Princess Morbucks 2016

Princess Morbucks is a major antagonist in The Powerpuff Girls, The Powerpuff Girls Z, and the 2016 Powerpuff Girls series . She is one of the four most recurring villains in the series (alongside Mojo Jojo, HIM, and Fuzzy Lumpkins), Buttercup's rival in the OG series and the 2016 reboot.

She was voiced by Jennifer Hale, who also played Sedusa, Rojo in Ben 10, Shannon Lucas in Scooby-Doo! Moon Monster Madness, Kronika in Mortal Kombat 11, Alecto in God of War: Ascension, and Black Knight in Generator Rex .

In the original series, she is a spoiled and rich girl who wants to be a Powerpuff Girl for selfish reasons. However, she has no powers of her own, and instead uses her father's money to buy weapons to destroy the Powerpuff Girls because she can't become one.

She debuted in "Stuck Up, Up and Away," where Blossom explains that being a Powerpuff Girl is not about getting what she wants, having the best stuff or being popular or powerful, but about using one's own unique abilities to help people and the world. Princess buys a suit of powered armor that makes her seem invincible, but in a fight that emulates Goku, Blossom rallies the girls and destroys the armor. Princess swears she'll be out of jail shortly, but then again, no Townsville villain seems to stay in for long.

Princess tries again repeatedly: In one instance, she hires Mojo Jojo, and even gains Chemical X powers like the girls, but their savvy plus the egos of the villainous allies rob her of victory and powers. In an episode that paid tribute to the 60's band The Beatles, she, Mojo, Fuzzy Lumpkins, and HIM formed the Beat-Alls, who nearly owned the city and the girls, till a 'Yoko scheme' (a parody of how some people believe the real Beatles parted ways) broke them up. She also once simply had her father buy the City Of Townsville so she could be Mayor and outlaw crime-fighting, a scheme which fell apart when the girls legally robbed her of every last possession. In likely her most vicious petty scheme, she tricked a neglected friend the girls had made into stealing, just so she could report this to the girls and seem like an ally worthy of joining them. Though Blossom remains her archenemy, it is Buttercup who despises her the most. Princess is also featured in any 'crowd of villains' episode, most notably one where the villains send booby-trapped birthday gifts (that one and all epic fail) to the girls.

In Twas the Fight Before Christmas

As the main antagonist, Princess tricks Santa into giving her what she wants most and into thinking the Powerpuff Girls and the rest of the children of the world were naughty by altering his lists. Princess' reputation preceded her, though, since a confused Santa noted she was among the few whose name was engraved in 'The Naughty Plaque' (along with the show's animators and even Adolf Schicklegruber!)

In The Powerpuff Girls Z

Instead of wanting to be a Powerpuff Girl, she instead wants to be noticed. Her powers are based on her wants to be noticed, but can't remember the evil crimes she committed after transforming. However, she tries to get the girls in trouble at school, during their normal life.

2016 Reboot

In the 2016 reboot, Princess Morbucks wanted to be the only Powerpuff Girl.

Cavalier

The Cavalier is a supervillain and an enemy of Batman who uses a sword as his main weapon and whose trademark is excessive (and often false) gallantry. He is (former) millionaire Mortimer Drake, who originally turned to crime when his desire to build a private history museum outstripped his ability to pay for the exhibits, so he stole them. Since then, he has lost his millions and his motivation now is theft for profit.

History

Mortimer Drake was a man of exotic and idiosyncratic taste. He was a playboy and friend of Bruce Wayne's, owning a private museum, in which he places curios. When he found himself unable to purchase more exotic valuables for his collection legally, he resorted to theft. Donning a costume resembling that of a Musketeer, he called himself the Cavalier. His course of actions ultimately brought him into conflict with Batman and Robin. He also utilized an electrified sword and gadgets, which enable him to escape Batman, resurfacing later, where he manages to elude Batman again in his curio-grabbing sprees. Drake continued to match wits against Batman and Robin several times, and escaped them in each encounter, but when the Cavalier was trying to steal an old typewriter and failed, he barely managed to escape his next encounter with Batman, this time defeating himself by egotistically placing a clue to his real identity as Mortimer Drake at the club where Bruce Wayne is a member. Batman was soon able to use this to easily deduce the Cavalier's identity, leading to Drake's eventual imprisonment.

In his next appearance, Cavalier goes after something worthwhile, robbing a masquerade ball, before trying to make off with Gotham Museum's live whale. Batman succeeded in outfoxing Drake again, and captures him.

The Cavalier was absent in comic books for some time, only next appearing in the 1970s as a member of the jury in the "trial" for the "murder" of the Batman. He also appears, in a big villain gathering in Detective Comics #526, (attempting to harm a woman, which he steadfastly refuses to do - in another story, the gallant rogue stops a caper to help an old lady carry her shopping!)

In Batman Family #10, Batgirl and Batwoman teamed up to defeat the Cavalier. Cavalier couldn't find a way around his code, which prevented hitting females, but after a self-examination he concludes "the devil with gallantry" and hit Batgirl with his fist.

A few months later, Killer Moth bet Cavalier that he could find the way into the Batcave from Batgirl before the Cavalier could get it off of Robin. While Killer Moth was led to a fake cave, the Cavalier was shown a large nest, to which the villain came to the conclusion that Robin was secretly an alien bird life form. ( Batman Family #15)

Drake next appeared in Who's Who #3, 1985.

The Cavalier later resurfaced as part of a group of supervillain drinking buddies who were trying to regain their lost items of power. Cavalier fared badly, losing his sword to Wally Tortellini in a poker game. He was soon defeated by Blue Beetle, who clotheslined him in an alleyway. ( Justice League Of America #44)

In recent years, the Cavalier has become insane and is kept in Arkham Asylum. Drake was committed to the asylum under Arkham's newest administrator, Jeremiah Arkham, who was secretly being manipulated by Arkham inmate Victor Zsasz. During the "Last Arkham" storyline, the Cavalier was taken to a therapy room with some of the other inmates to watch Batman pitted against Amygdala, a hulking, violent, mental patient housed at Arkham in an attempt by Jeremiah to humiliate and break Batman mentally and physically. When Amygdala was defeated by Batman, Jeremiah released the Cavalier and a large group of inmates (Including The Joker, Scarecrow, Two-Face, Tweedledee, Tweedledum, Poison Ivy, Black Mask, The Spook, Mad Hatter, Maxie Zeus, Crazy Quilt, and Egghead) into the room to battle Batman gladiator-style, telling him that since he had learned nothing from the battle with Amygdala, and that it was time to let some of his enemies settle a few of their old scores. The Cavalier grabbed for Batman and caught him by the sleeve, although Batman tore free and Drake took a blow intended for the Caped Crusader. After the villains were defeated, the Cavalier was presumptuously taken back to his padded cell by the Arkham staff. A year later, he was freed from the asylum during the "Knightfall" storyline after Bane broke open Arkham Asylum, but was quickly recaptured, getting slammed in the face by the Dark Knight's feet and being defeated with ease. ( Detective Comics # 661) It remains to be seen how Drake became insane, or if his origin has changed because of the first crisis.

The Cavalier later appears as an informant for Black Lightning. ( Justice League of America #2) The Cavalier was also shown among the villains attempting to claim the bounty on the Secret Six. Battling the Secret Six alongside Captain Stingaree, the massive battle ended with both Drake and Stingaree seemingly killed and left for dead. ( Secret Six vol. 3 #7)

Drake, however, recently turned up alive during the "Battle for the Cowl" storyline acting as a bodyguard for Leslie Thompkins. ( Gotham Gazette: Batman Dead? #1) His survival has since been reconfirmed, as he is again seen with Dr. Thompkins. ( Red Robin #16) The Cavalier's re-entry into active crime followed, when he was seen attempting multiple small heists around Gotham, only to be foiled each time by Batman or Catwoman. However, those small crimes were merely an attempt to hide his role as the mastermind behind the embezzlement of millions of dollars from the Wayne Enterprises pension fund. Eventually, Batman and Catwoman, working together, were able to follow the money trail to Drake, expose his role in the embezzlement, and return the funds. ( Batman/Catwoman: Follow the Money #1, Jan. 2011)

The Cavalier was recently freed from Arkham again, this time running amok in Devil's Square before being defeated by Batwoman ( Batman: The Dark Knight #2, October 2011).

---

Lola, Lana and the Powerpuff Girls: PRINCESS MORBUCKS!?

Me: And Sir Mortimer Drake A.K.A. Cavalier.

Maria: So you're Princess Morbucks as well?

2016 Morbucks: Yes. But unlike the one you know, I don't act like a brat. Especially on Christmas.

Me: You're 2016's version of Princess.

2016 Morbucks: That's right.

Cavalier: (Medieval bows) It is an honor to meet you, J.D. Knudson.

Me: (Medieval bow) Same to you Sir Mortimer Drake.

Nico: Wow.

Batman: Nice to see you again Sir Mortimer.

Cavalier: Indeed Batman. I heard you were unmasked as Bruce Wayne in front of everyone.

Me: He was. But we supported him and helped the world see him in a whole new level.

?: That was intense.

A figure came out and it was BRICKNECK from episode 13 of Time

Force and he was the first enemy that the Quantum Ranger took down!

---

Brickneck is a brick-necked ninja themed mutant assassin, who was sent by Ransik to get Quantum Morpher. He is the main antagonist of the episode "The Quantum Quest".

Brickneck like all other mutants, was created in the result of the chemical accident. Before the events of the series, he was captured by Time Force rangers and frozen in the Cryo-Prison. In the thirteenth episode, Ransik released Brickneck and sent him to get the Quantum Morpher and use its power for his goals. Brickneck attacked a place where archeologists found Quantum Morpher with army of Cyclobots and battled the silver guardians. Brickneck used a sword, which could transform into the gun. The mutant defeated all soldiers and nearly killed Eric. But the rangers interrogated and fought with the mutant and Cyclobots. Brickneck defeated and heavily wounded Wes and told about his plan about finding Quantum Morpher for Ransik. Eric heard it and ran with morpher. Mutant persuaded Myers to get the Morpher to the city and encountered the rangers again. Brickneck fought with rangers near the old factory and nearly defeated them. But then arrived Eric, who became the Quantum Ranger. Brickneck used his Cyclobots, but Eric defeated them. Then he tried to battle the new ranger himself, but Eric eventually defeated him and freeze the villain with the Freeze Strike.

---

Eric Myers: Brickneck!

Brickneck: Long time no see Quantum Ranger.

Me: I remember you! You were sent by Ransik to get the Quantum Morpher.

Ransik: That's right.

Brickneck: (Gasp) Ransik! You're alive!

Ransik: I sure am.

Me: Not only that but Eric that was the first time you used the power of the Quantum Ranger. That was awesome!

Eric Myers: I know and I was a total jerk back then.

Brickneck: You know what's funny? I'm a Time Force Criminal and we're in a past era.

Me: That is a very strong sense of déjà-vu. Just like on TV.

Brickneck: Indeed.

Me: We were just about to head to our gym back home for our usual battles. We already finished our mission.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Boy that was fast.

Me: Yeah we just had to beat some sense into the Lincoln Gang. But scans show that this was the Lincoln Gang that the Time Squad faced before. So we're in an alternate timeline.

Diabolico: I see.

Me: Lets head home.

We went back home and went to the gym. Petra Fina was defeated and she ran away like a coward.

---

We got to the gym and we were getting ready for our usual battles. Ranamon, Mercurymon, Grumblemon and Mercurymon were helping out in them. Ranamon was now her Beast Spirit of Water form Calamaramon, Grumblemon was now his Beast Spirit of Earth form Gigasmon and Arbormon was now his Beast Spirit of Wood form, Petaldramon. Takuya was now as the Fire Fusion Spirit form Aldamon and Koichi was now the pure human spirit of Darkness, Loweemon.

The usual battles were underway.

---

Battle 1: Rita, Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn, Flurry Heart, Loweemon, Stormy Weather and Proto Man VS Beautiful Gorgeous

---

Beautiful Gorgeous was up first.

Beautiful Gorgeous: (to Rita) I think you were being too harsh on your kids when Nico took a leave of absence. After all, the Talon members did almost kill them.

Rita: I know but they are my kids and as a loving parent it's what I have to do to show how much I care.

Twilight Sparkle: That's what parents do. They look out for their kids.

Loweemon: That's right.

Luster Dawn: I may not be a parent but I love all my friends like my family.

Stormy Weather: Just like how I love everyone like my family too.

Proto Man: Yeah and with my brothers and sisters.

Rita: That's right.

Beautiful Gorgeous: That's a good point. Flurry Heart can you answer a question for me?

Flurry Heart: I can try.

Beautiful Gorgeous: You were born an Alicorn at birth and that makes you a princess. What do you represent? I know that Celestia & Luna are the princesses of the Siblings, Cadance is the Princess of Love and Twilight Sparkle is the Princess of Friendship. What do you represent as a princess.

Flurry Heart: That's an easy one. I am known as the Princess of Light. When I was born I was put in a ceremony in the Crystal

Empire called the Crystaling. It's where I stand before the Crystal Heart and share my power with it to make it more powerful. I was not chosen to be next in line for the throne of the Crystal Empire. Me and my mom share it. Me and mom are to rule side by side. My birth was never seen before in Equestrian Lore. It's totally unheard of. But because of everything that the Crystal Empire went through because of the Reign of Terror that King Sombra had unleashed unto the Crystal Empire, it took a long time for it to recover. That's where me and my mom come in. Me and my mom are like two sides of the same coin. I was born an alicorn as the Princess of Light. The Crystal Heart spreads both Love and Light. My mom is the Princess of Love and I am the Princess of Light.

We all were amazed! We had no idea that Flurry Heart was all that important not just to the Crystal Empire but to all of Equestria. This was a huge revelation.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! Flurry Heart, I didn't know you had that kind of power!

Rita: That is so amazing!

Flurry Heart: I know. It took me a while to find out why I am this. But now I know.

Beautiful Gorgeous: Wow! That's incredible!

Luster Dawn: I didn't that you were that important Flurry Heart.

Flurry Heart: Yeah.

Beautiful Gorgeous: That is an enormous responsibility. Lets get it on.

Beautiful Gorgeous called out her Pokemon.

Me: And I have just the arena for you guys.

I pressed a button and the arena turned into an awesome church-like battlefield. It had an amazing pipe organ and had beautiful stained glass windows and artwork.

Nico: WHOA!

Twilight Sparkle: Whoa is right! This arena is amazing!

Me: I call this the Celestial Light Archive Arena. Lily made the stained glass windows. They represent all the events in Equestria's history.

We saw all the events from all of Equestria's history in Stained Glass: The Defeat of Nightmare Moon, the Defeat of Discord, The Wedding of Princess Cadance and Shining Armor, Saving the Crystal Empire, Twilight's Ascension to becoming an Alicorn, the Mane 6 Defeating Tirek and the Rise of the Castle of Friendship, The Accomplishments of the Cutie Mark Crusaders, Defeating Starlight Glimmer and her Redemption, The Crystalling and the Birth of Flurry Heart, Starlight Glimmer helping to Overthrow Queen Chrysalis and Purifying the Changlings, The Freedom of the Pillars of Old Equestria and Saving Stygian from the Pony of Shadows, The Defeat of the Storm King and saving Equestria, The Establishment of Twilight Sparkle's School of Friendship, Stopping Cozy Glow from Becoming Empress, Destroying King Sombra Once and For All, Uniting Everyone in Equestria and Imprisoning Tirek, Chrysalis and Cozy Glow in Stone for All Eternity, Princess Twilight's Coronation As Princess, and just recently, the Death of Chrysalis by us.

Nico: WHOA! They are a chronological timeline of everything that happened in Equestria and all the accomplishments that Twilight Sparkle and her friends have done!

Sunset Shimmer: That is amazing!

Laney: This is amazing! Twilight after everything you went through with everyone in Equestria you have earned the title of Princess.

Me: I agree.

Nico: No kidding. But Lily, we didn't know you were capable of making beautiful stained glass windows like this.

Lily: No one asked. But this took a lot of work for this. I had to use over 100 Shadow Clones to get all the details right.

Twilight Sparkle: How did you make every detail exactly right Lily?

Lily: I looked them all up in a book I borrowed from the Canterlot Library on all your awesome deeds and accomplishments and I used my photographic memory to help put it all together.

Twilight Sparkle: Wow! That is so amazing!

Beautiful Gorgeous: It sure is. Nicely well crafted and created.

Rita: Now we can get it on.

They went at Beautiful Gorgeous.

Twilight Sparkle: Lets do a family combo technique!

Luster Dawn: Yeah!

Twilight Sparkle, Luster Dawn and Flurry Heart: PRINCESS FLAME STYLE FORMATION ART: TRINITY OF FRIENDSHIP FORMATION!

They got into a triangle formation and fired a blast of purple, orange and blue fire and the blasts all went at Beautiful Gorgeous.

Loweemon: This will be cool! (Echoing) SHADOW METEOR!

Loweemon fired a massive blast of energy from the Lion in his chest.

Rita, Stormy Weather and Proto Man fired blasts of lightning and the blasts all hit Beautiful Gorgeous and knocked her and her Pokemon down.

Rita: That was awesome!

Luster Dawn: It sure was.

Twilight Sparkle: Lily if I may ask, which book was it that you got from Canterlot?

Lily: This one.

Lily pulled out a book and it was called "The Legend of Twilight Sparkle and the Journey of Friendship."

Twilight Sparkle: The Legend of Twilight Sparkle and the Journey of Friendship. Wow! That book just came out a while ago. I'm honored that you would choose that book.

Lily: Thank you Twilight.

---

Battle 2: Hunter, Sunset Shimmer, Wallflower, Aldamon, Nuova Shenron and Princess Rose VS Red X

---

Red X was next.

Red X: (to Hunter) Why haven't you guys sent Petra Fina to the Warp yet?

Hunter: (German Accent) We're going to thrash her around a bit und then after we save all the timeshifters from her fury will we do that.

Sunset Shimmer: That's really clever.

Aldamon: I like that.

Nuova Shenron: She deserves it.

Wallflower: Yep.

Princess Rose: I'm always up for a challenge.

Red X: Me too. Lets get it on.

Red X called out his Pokemon.

Me: I have the perfect arena for you all. You guys will love this one.

I pressed a button on the remote control and the arena appeared and it was a scary volcano field arena.

Me: I call this arena the Volcano Field of Infernal Madness. We added more arenas.

Nuova Shenron: This is perfect!

Aldamon: It sure is.

They went at him.

Sunset Shimmer: Try this one! PHOENIX STYLE NINJA ART: BLADES OF THE FIRESTORM!

Sunset Shimmer fired blades of fire.

Wallflower: And this! JUNGLE STYLE NINJA ART: PRIMAL GORILLA SPIRIT STORM!

Wallflower fired blasts of green energy and it formed into a family of gorillas.

Aldamon: And for this! (Echoing) ATOMIC INFERNO!

Aldamon fired a massive barrage of explosive fireballs from his Rudriya Darpaṇa.

Hunter fired a blast of fire and Nuova Shenron and Princess Rose fired blasts of energy and the blasts all hit Red X and knocked him and his Pokemon down.

Hunter: Wunderbar!

Sunset Shimmer: That was so much fun!

Wallflower: It sure is!

---

Battle 3: Bloom, Rarity, Sweetie Belle, Calmaramon, Chef Pepperjack and Dreamcatcher VS Brain Freezer

---

Brain Freezer was next.

Brain Freezer: (to Bloom) You happy that Icy bitch is out of your hair for good?

Bloom: You better believe it. She deserved to be erased from existence forever after all the pain and suffering she caused to the realms.

Rarity: You said it darling.

Sweetie Belle: That Icy girl was a monster.

Calmaramon: Y'all said it.

Chef Pepperjack: Ooowee! We all are glad she is gone.

Dreamcatcher: Totally.

Brain Freezer: Lets do it!

Brain Freezer called out his Pokemon.

Me: I have just the arena for this.

I pressed a button and it had the arena form into a beautiful waterfall arena!

Me: I call this one the Waterfall Flows of Solitude Arena.

Bloom: Wow! This is amazing!

Brain Freezer: It sure is. Lets dance.

They went at him.

Rarity: These falls are simply divine! Ready Sweetie Belle?

Sweetie Belle: You bet Rarity!

Rarity and Sweetie Belle: CRYSTAL STYLE NINJA ART: DOUBLE CRYSTAL DRAGON STRIKE!

Rarity and Sweetie Belle fired a massive barrage of crystals and it formed into two crystal dragons.

Calmaramon: This will burn! (Echoing) ACID INK!

Calmaramon fired a massive wave of acidic ink from her mouth.

Bloom, Chef Pepperjack and Dreamcatcher fired blasts of fire and wind and the blasts all hit Brain Freezer and knocked him and his Pokemon down.

Bloom: YEAH!

Rarity: That was simply divine darling!

Sweetie Belle: Yeah it was!

Battle 4: Musa, Petaldramon, Juniper Montage, Trixie, Starlight Glimmer and Thorax VS Diabolico

Diabolico was next.

Diabolico: (to Musa) It was an honor helping you kill Valtor, Musa.

Musa: Thanks Diabolico.

Juniper Montage: Those monsters brought all this on themselves.

Trixie: You said it.

Petaldramon: Yeah they sure did.

Starlight Glimmer: That's right. They sure did.

Thorax: You got that right.

Diabolico: Indeed. Lets get it on.

Diabolico called out his Pokemon.

Me: I have just the arena for you guys. Everyone buckle in.

We strapped ourselves in to the seats with seatbelts and I pressed the button and the entire arena turned into the beautiful stars and beauy of the endless voids of space and there were lots of planets, stars, nebulae, galaxies, comets and more. Musa and her group and Diabolico were floating in zero gravity.

Starlight Glimmer: (Echoing) WHOA! This is amazing!

Trixie: (Echoing) Wow! We're in the endless voids of space!

Me: (Echoing) This is my Universal Stellar Divinity Arena. It's a pocket universe arena that has everything from the endless voids of space.

Juniper Montage: (Echoing) Wow! This is incredible!

Petaldramon: (Echoing) It's like we're in Space for real.

Thorax: (Echoing) This is incredible! It's like we're all in space.

Musa: (Echoing) It sure feels like it.

Diabolico: (Echoing) It sure does. Lets get it on.

They spread their wings and went at Diabolico.

Starlight Glimmer: Lets see how you like this! CONSTELLATION STYLE NINJA ART: FIRESTORM OF PHOENIX!

The stars of the Southern Hemisphere Constellation of Phoenix the Firebird appeared in the background behind her and she fired massive blasts of fire from the stars.

Petaldramon fired a tornado of leaves from his nostrals.

Musa and Thorax fired blasts of energy and the blasts all hit Diabolico and knocked him and his Pokemon down.

The arena reverted back and they landed.

Musa: WHOA! That was awesome!

Starlight Glimmer: Yeah it was! That was the coolest arena ever!

Me: Glad you all liked it.

---

Battle 5: Luke Loud, Pinkie Pie, Marble Pie, Gigasmon, Sugarcoat and Lemon Zest VS Cavalier

---

Cavalier was next.

Cavalier: (to Luke) I believe I should initiate this duel properly. (slaps Luke with a white glove)

Luke: Ow! Wait I remember reading about this. I accept your challenge.

Gigasmon: This is gonna be interesting.

Marble Pie: We're not gonna be dueling with guns like they did in the 17th century are we?

Cavalier: Goodness no. We duel with swords.

Gigasmon: Good.

Sugarcoat: That's a relief.

Lemon Zest: Swords are fine with me. I like it.

Me: I have just the arena for you all.

I pressed a button and the arena had turned into an awesome Medieval Castle from 1500 years ago and most of it was on fire.

Me: This is the Medieval Castle of Dragonic Flames. It's called that because it's on fire.

Cavalier: It's perfect!

Marble Pie: Wow! This is amazing!

Gigasmon: Yeah it is!

Cavalier: Lets get it on.

Luke formed a sword of water and Pinkie Pie, Sugarcoat, Marble Pie and Lemon Zest formed swords of confetti, crystal, fireworks and lemon peel.

Luke Loud: En Garde!

They went at him and clashed powerfully all over the place and more and Cavalier was a powerful and worthy adversary.

Luke then got a slash in on Cavalier's cheek.

Cavalier: Good show.

Luke Loud: Not bad for a first time huh?

Cavalier: Indeed. I think that qualifies as a good battle.

Lemon Zest: You may have been one of Batman's enemies but you are a true man of honor.

Cavalier: Indeed. Thank you.

---

Battle 6: Lexx, Ink Rose, Moonlight Raven, Zhuqiaomon, Veon and Hagger VS 2016 Morbucks

2016 Morbucks: (to Lexx) If my counterpart shows up again, I would like to have a word with her.

Lexx: I'll be sure to save that for you. I have a feeling she will appear on Christmas Day.

Ink Rose: Why do you think that Lexx?

Lexx: Jaime said that she tried to ruin everyone's Chistmas by turning all the nice kids into naughty kids. But in the end, the Powerpuff Girls proved to Santa that she is the worst of the worst. In the end she got placed on the Permanent Naughty Plaque.

Moonlight Raven: What is that?

Lexx: It's a plaque that Santa put's kids that are beyond naughty. Kids that are completely irredeemable.

Zhuqiaomon: That's what I remember hearing.

Veon: Wow.

Hagger: That's incredible.

2016 Morbucks: I remember hearing about that. But my counterpart deserved to be put on it for all the things she did.

Lexx: Just because you have all the money in the world doesn't make you better than everyone else.

Ink Rose: And there are things that money can never buy. Like power, love, friendship and everything like that.

2016 Morbucks: That's true. Lets get it on.

She called out her pokemon. She had 10 Meowth!

Lexx: 10 Meowth. Those are perfect.

2016 Morbucks: Thank you.

Me: I have just the arena for you guys.

I pressed a button and a dark and scary and malevolent looking forest appeared.

Me: This is the Forest of Dark Malevolence. Brittney came up with the idea for this. She thought it would be perfect for you guys.

Ink Rose: It sure is perfect.

Moonlight Raven: I like it. The Goths of Darkness would love it.

Lexx: They sure would. Lets do it.

2016 Morbucks activated a jet pack and flew into the air and they flew after her.

She fired blasts of yellow energy at them and they dodged the blasts.

Ink Rose: Darkness Roses aren't my only techniques. Here's one of my favorite ghost stories. NIGHTMARE STYLE NINJA ART: NIGHT OF THE HEADLESS HORSE!

Ink Rose fired a wave of darkness and it formed into a terrifying dark horse with NO HEAD!

Scootaloo, Apple Bloom and Sweetie Belle: (SCREAMS IN FRIGHT!) THE HEADLESS HORSE!

Moonlight Raven: This is cool too. DARKNESS STYLE NINJA ART: RAVEN SWARM OF DARKNESS!

Moonlight fired a wave of darkness and it formed into a massive murder of crows.

Zhuqiaomon: This is gonna be good. (Echoing) PHOENIX FIRE!

He fired a blast of fire from his mouth.

Lexx fired a blast of fire and Veon and Hagger fired blasts of red energy and the blasts all hit 2016 Morbucks and her Pokemon and knocked them down!

Lexx: YEAH! That was so awesome!

Ink Rose: It sure was!

Moonlight Raven: I thought it was cool how you used the legend of the Headless Horse like that.

Ink Rose: Thanks Moonlight.

---

Battle 7: Megaforce & Time Force Rangers, Fluttershy, Mercurymon, Tree Hugger, and Maud Pie VS Brickneck

---

Brickneck was now up next.

Mercurymon: This is gonna be fun!

Jen Scotts: Lets do it guys!

Wes Collins: Yeah!

Time Force Rangers: TIME FOR TIME FORCE!

Eric Myers: QUANTUM POWER!

The Time Force Rangers transformed and they were ready!

Troy Burrows: Time for you to see double!

Megaforce Rangers: LEGENDARY RANGER MODE: TIME FORCE!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Time Force Rangers!

Brickneck: WHAT THE!? TWO TIME FORCE RANGER TEAMS!?

Tree Hugger: Far out man!

Maud Pie: (Monotonous) Now things are gonna be good.

Fluttershy: They sure are.

Brickneck: Try this one!

He fired his blaster at them.

Mercurymon: (Echoing) DARK REFLECT!

He reflected the blasts back at him.

Fluttershy: Your time is up! Lets do it girls!

Fluttershy, Tree Hugger and Maud Pie: EARTH NATURE STYLE FORMATION ART: LIFE ELEMENT MEGABLAST FORMATION!

They got in a triangle and spun face and fired a massive blast of green fire and rocks.

Wes Collins: Time for the Vortex Cannon!

Eric Myers: Yeah!

The Time Force and Megaforce Rangers called out the Vortex Cannon.

Wes Collins: Your time is up! FIRE!

BANG! BANG!

They fired powerful energy blasts at Brickness and the blasts all hit him all at once and he fell to the ground and exploded in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Brickneck was reduced to the size of an action figure.

Fluttershy picked him up.

Notacon: Let me take the seal off him.

Fluttershy: Okay.

Notacon took the seal off Brickness.

Fluttershy then handed him to Jen.

Jen Scotts: Thanks Fluttershy.

When the Usual battles were done we cheered wildly.

Me: That was so awesome!

Larry 3000: Now that we got the usual battles in the gym done, I can safely say that we've all finally gotten these silly pranks out of our system.

Tuddrussel: Yeah I guess so.

But then…

CLANG!

Larry's arms fell off!

Larry 3000: OH! TUDDRUSSEL!

Tuddrussel laughed!

Tuddrussel: It wasn't me! I swear!

It was really Luan and Otto who were holding screwdrivers.

Nico: That is so funny!

Maria: Has anyone tried to revive Bowser for the wrong reasons?

Beautiful Gorgeous: Nope. So far, Bowser's body is undisturbed.

Diabolico: And Leonard has his pigs guarding the grave

Me: Lets hope it remains undisturbed.

Otto: (To the viewers) This was an awesome adventure. Loved how we beat some sense into the Abraham Lincoln we faced.

Me: We sure do.

We later rested.

THE END

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Dishonest Abe is one of my favorite episodes of Time Squad. It was so funny how Abraham Lincoln went from Honest Abe to Dishonest Abe and more. Number 7: Lucky Straight is very special in the Yu-Gi-Oh universe because he helped his holder achieve the highest number of Life Points in the entire history of the show: 100,000 Life Points! That is amazing! Next up is Number 68: Sanaphond the Sky Prison and that one is gonna be interesting because our old Nemesis that everyone in Arkham Asylum feared will be back: Lyle Bolton A.K.A. Lock-Up will be its holder and he is coming after me to get revenge and have me locked up for puting him in prison. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is the awesome SpongeBob episode Night Light and we're going to help MermaidMan and Barnacle Boy get their old enemy THE MOTH! We're gonna be in for one dark adventure as we help Spongebob conquer his fears of the Dark and get a villain that has elluded Mermaidman and Barnacle Boy for a long time.

See you all tomorrow.

SpongeBob's Nyctophobia

In the outskirts of Ponyville we were heading down into an amazing gem mine. We had miners helmets with flashlights on them. We went down and saw a lot of incredible crystal jewels in it.

Me: Wow. These jewels in here are amazing!

Nico: They sure are. Wow. They are just so dazzling.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Lola: The bling on these is amazing.

Rarity: They are just magnificent darlings.

Maud Pie: (Monotonously) They are absolutely amazing. But they are not what I want you all to see.

We went through a huge opening and what we saw was beyond breathtaking. It was a magnificent crystal cave and it had waterfalls and a lake and plants and grass and it had a breathtaking waterfall terrace and Maud had her house all set up in it.

Everyone: Whoa!

Me: Wow! This is amazing!

Lincoln: Wow! This is a beautiful crystal cave.

Nicole: Wow! So beautiful! It's amazing that all this formed right here underground.

Maud Pie: It's home sweet home.

Me: Wow. This reminds me of that crystal cave I saw in the 1959 version of Journey to the Center of The Earth.

Nico: That was beautiful and breathtaking.

Laney: But this is amazing. It reminds me of the cave where I found the Diamond of Gaia that got me my powers.

Maud Pie: That is very interesting.

Lori: But this is literally the most amazing home ever. It's perfect for you Maud.

Maud Pie: Thank you.

We were amazed. It was just as beautiful as Nicole's bedroom.

* * *

Later we were over in Twilight Sparkle's Castle of Friendship. We were over in her library reading all the books she has.

Nico: Wow. Twilight has so many books here.

Babs Seed: Twilight, I'll never stop being amazed on how big your library is.

Twilight Sparkle: Thanks Babs. That means a lot to me.

Nico: These books are amazing.

Me: And they are very interesting. These books on spells of Equestrian Magic are amazing.

Lana: Yeah they are.

We read all kinds of books on Equestrian history, the landscape, books on magic and more. We learned all kinds of things about how to use Equestrian Magic and more and it was amazing. We learned Transfiguration, Teleportation, Creation, mzny spells of so many kinds.

Mistmane: Is there anything your books don't have?

Twilight Sparkle: (Laughs) You would be amazed at what my books are not covering.

Me: I can see that.

Princess Celestia: But there are more books than what you can see here.

Nico: Really?

Princess Celestia: Indeed. But to see the ones that are really interesting we need to head to the Canterlot Library.

Me: Okay.

We followed the Princesses and went to the Canterlot Library.

Nico: So which section are we heading to?

Princess Celestia: The Forbidden Section.

Scrapper: Forbidden section? Wonder what's in there.

Princess Celestia: We'll show you.

Celestia and Luna used their magic to pull two books with a sun and a moon and then the whole bookcase opened and revealed a secret tunnel.

Me: A Secret Tunnel.

Nico: Wow.

We went down it and went down a hall to a door and they opened it and it revealed an ancient hidden part of the library.

Me: Ancient Dust.

Nico: Wow! Look at all this.

Twilight Sparkle: I know! I was shocked seeing all this.

Sunset Shimmer: More like ecstatic as a kid in a candy store.

Me: We must be the first humans ever to come in here.

Princess Luna: Yeah.

Twilight Sparkle: This is what I want you all to see.

She brought over a chest and pulled out a scroll.

Twilight Sparkle: This scroll dates back to before the founding of Equestria.

Me: Wow. Ancient History.

Twilight Sparkle: Yep. Look at this. Have you all ever heard of The Seven Trials of Clover the Clever?

Me: Not in particular but I do know that Clover was the apprentice of Star Swirl the Bearded.

Twilight Sparkle: That's right.

She showed us a picture of the Memory Stone in the scrolls.

Me: "The Memory Stone?" What's that?

Twilight Sparkle: It belonged to an evil sorceress who was practically invincible. With the Memory Stone, she could erase any memory from anypony. Even fragments of memories.

Me: Whoa. That sounds like a very dangerous artifact.

Nico: No kidding.

Lincoln: We didn't know there was such an artifact.

Twilight Sparkle: Yep. Clover the Clever knew the sorceress had to be stopped and the Stone destroyed, so she chased her across land and sea. But every time she got close, the sorceress would erase her memory and escape. But she kept finding her.

Laney: But how did she do that if the sorceress kept using it on her?

Twilight Sparkle: These scraps of parchment. She secretly wrote everything down so she'd know what had happened and where to go next. Like a trail of bread crumbs.

Me: So she retraced her steps every time. Very clever.

Nico: VERY clever. They didn't call her Clover the Clever for nothing.

Me: No they didn't. Did Clover ever find the Memory Stone?

Twilight Sparkle: No. This portal shows that the Sorceress got away.

Me: So the Memory Stone wound up in our world somehow.

Wallflower: And I found it.

Me: Where did you find it Wallflower?

Wallflower: I found it at the center of a rock formation and I used it to erase the memories of Sunset Shimmer being nice and all that. It had a set of instructions with it and I used its power to erase those memories.

Bluestreak: (to Wallflower) So that's how you got the Memory Stone to work.

Wallflower: It is. Sunset helped me realize that I was a fool for doing all that.

Me: It's good she helped you out.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) It's good she did.

Cookie: Yeah.

Apple Bloom: Glad you're all better Pip-Squeak.

Pip-Squeak: Thanks Apple Bloom.

Sunset Shimmer: And the Memory Stone was destroyed by me when I helped Wallflower.

Wallflower: Yeah and here's the missing piece to the scroll.

Wallflower pulled out a piece of paper and it was the missing piece to the scroll.

Me: It's the missing page. Hmm. This looks more like a map and there's instructions on how to use The Memory Stone.

Lola: Wow.

Me: Thank goodness the stone is destroyed.

Wallflower: Yeah and I'm on the path of redemption.

Me: Good.

We later went back home.

---

Later that night we were walking to Bikini Bottom.

Sandman: Remind me again why SpongeBob called us?

Me: He is having problems with something to do with the darkness.

2016 Morbucks, Cavalier, Beautiful Gorgeous, Diabolico, Red X and Brain Freezer appeared.

2016 Morbucks: Can Me, Cavalier, Beautiful Gorgeous, Red X, Diabolico, and Brain Freezer tag along?

Me: You sure can. Hope you all can breathe underwater like we can.

Cavalier: We can and we can now move freely underwater too.

Me: Cool.

We walked through Bikini Bottom.

Soundwave: I'm detecting brightness near Spongebob's location.

Me: And I think THAT'S why.

We saw SpongeBob's house completely illuminated like a light bulb!

Me: WHOA!

I pulled out my sunglasses and put them on and we went up to the house.

SpongeBob was putting up Night Lights in his house.

Spongebob: There. Now there's not one square inch of dark.

We came in.

Brain Freezer: Hey, SpongeBob. What'cha doin?

SpongeBob: Oh hey guys. I'm just putting up Night Lights all over the house.

Me: We can see that SpongeBob. But why are you putting these Night Lights all over your house?

SpongeBob: I'm scared of the dark and Mr. Krabs told me to go get a night light so I won't get scared. But I saw darkness all over the house so I bought Night Lights to cover all of the house.

Laney: That's a little going overboard. What caused you to be scared of the dark? You weren't scared of the dark before.

SpongeBob: I know. But I read this scary story and it made me terrified of the darkness.

Guts Man: So because you read a scary book, you need a nightlight?

SpongeBob: Yeah it was just that scary.

Lincoln: That's like what happened when I got scared from The Harvester.

Me: I let Lincoln borrow my night light but the light bulb for it burned out.

Nico: That stinks.

SpongeBob: Yeah it was.

Me: What was the book that made you scared of the darkness?

SpongeBob: Be right back.

SpongeBob went to his room and came back with a book and he showed it to us.

Me: "The Darkness of the Crypt of Nocturnal Nightmares." Whoa! That one sounds scary.

Ink Rose: I like it.

Brittney: The Goths of Darkness would love it.

Cavalier: (laughs) The darkness is not something to be scared, young sponge.

SpongeBob: Easy for you to say. Some of you all were born from the darkness and live in it.

Brittney: He does have a point.

Lucy Loud: It's true.

Toad Man: Where'd you even get all these lights anyway?

SpongeBob: Barg'n Mart. They have a lot of them.

Me: Looks like you bought every single light they had.

Vince: Yeah.

Red X: SpongeBob, I think the problem is that you're having trouble sleeping.

SpongeBob: What makes you all think that?

Me: I think you're letting your imagination get the better of you. That story was just made up.

Zoe Weather: Yeah there's no monsters in the darkness like that here.

Jinx: (to Raven) Isn't this similar to when you and the others watched Wicked Scary?

Raven: As a matter of fact yes it was.

Me: Robin told me about that. That must've been really terrifying for all of you.

Starfire: It was.

Brittney: Wicked.

Beautiful Gorgeous: (sees one of the lights) Guys, I think two certain heroes are bound to come here.

We looked at one of the lights and it was shaped like the letter M.

Me: That looks like an M version of the Bat Signal.

Lincoln: It sure does and that means that Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy are coming.

Cut to Shady Shoals Rest Home, where superheroes Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy sit on a couch watching TV. Barnacle Boy has dozed off]

Fish #1: [On TV] The battery-operated spoon has saved me so much time.

Mermaid Man: [Sighs] This is what passes for info-tainment these days? [Sees the "M" light in the air and mistakes it for the "MermaSignal".] Sweet mother of Neptune's mother! Look, Barnacle Boy! A call to action! To the Invisible Boatmobile! [Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy then jump back into their seats. The couch turns around and the run, reveals an underground passage way. The couch's back bends backwards, sending them down a slide.]

Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy: [While they are sliding.] Ah! Ooh! Oh! Oh! Ah! Ah! Ooh!

[The two then start falling downwards, upright because the slide corrected their position, into the Mermalair. Their butts start to catch fire. The two stop in mid-air, which puts out the fire.]

Barnacle Boy: Uh, Mermaid Man?

Mermaid Man: Yes, Barnacle Boy?

Barnacle Boy: We're not in the Invisible Boatmobile, are we?

Mermaid Man: Uh, Nope.

[The two fall onto the ground and stand up. They walk around, holding out their hands to look for the Invisible Boatmobile.]

Barnacle Boy: I told you making the boatmobile invisible was a stupid idea.

Mermaid Man: Boatmobile! Come out, come out, wherever you are.

Barnacle Boy: It's gotta be here somewhere? [He hits the back of boat] Ow! Oh, Mermaid Man, [While the keys are heard] I think I…

Mermaid Man: [Off-screen] Found it! [He turns on the boat and the back end burns Barnacle Boy.] C'mon, get a move on, son. [As Barnacle Boy walks to the front of the boat.] We don't have all day.

[Barnacle Boy sits down.]

Barnacle Boy: Ignition… [As he pushes a button] on.

Mermaid Man: Throttle… [As he pulls a lever up] on.

[The Invisible Boatmobile goes through a corridor. The exterior of Shady Shoals is shown. The ramp leading to the front goes up, and the Invisible Boatmoble flies out of it. It then goes around a corner.]

Later we heard commotion outside.

Mermaid Man: [Off-screen] Activate torpedo mode! Fire! [His head crashes through the wall, next to SpongeBob's door.] Mermaid Man…

[Barnacle Boy's head crashes through the door, causing the wheel on the interior to fall off.]

Barnacle Boy:… and Bob-acle…

[The door falls on the ground with Barnacle Boy's head still in it.]

Me: Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy!

Divebomb: Mermaid Man! What can we do for you and Barnacle Boy today?

Mermaid Man: We got your signal.

Me: Uh this actually is a misunderstanding. SpongeBob bought all these night lights after reading a scary book and he thought that horrible creatures of the darkness were gonna come and get him. He didn't sleep because of it and he was letting his imagination get the better of him.

Barnacle Boy: Ah that's all right.

Mermaid Man: Yeah I remember when I was scared like him was back in 19 oh eleventy 12.

Me: Uh you mean 1912.

Mermaid Man: Yeah sorry.

Nico: I don't think that's the only thing that the lights attracted.

Twilight Sparkle: What do you mean?

Nico: Look!

We saw what looked like a Moth coming at us. But it was just ANY moth, it was the most elusive arch-nemesis that Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy have been after for over 57 years: THE MOTH!

---

The Moth is a recurring villain from the famous Nickelodeon animated series, Spongebob Squarepants . He is one of the enemies of Mermaid Man and Barnacle Boy. As his name would suggest, he is a miniature moth person, who is attracted to light. His main crimes are stealing lamps, light bulbs, and other light-up or glowing objects. He made his first appearance in the episode, " Night Light ".

He is voiced by the famous celebrity Mark Hamill, who is best known for his portrayal of Luke Skywalker in the famous Star Wars franchise.

In " Night Light ", The Moth arrives at Spongebob and Patrick's houses, when he spotted a bunch of blindingly bright lights emitting from them. The Moth flew into Spongebob's house and Mermaid Man got ready to have a long-overdue battle with him. As Mermaid Man described, The Moth was his mortal enemy, who he had spent the past 57 years of his life, searching for. Their battle was underwhelmingly short and unfulfilling as all that happened was Mermaid Man swing his fists around aimlessly, while The Moth just floated there, doing nothing without getting hit. Eventually, The Moth just kicked Mermaid Man in the nose and flew away. Mermaid Man tried to chase after him, but he was quick to get tired and collapse on the floor, falling asleep, allowing for The Moth to getaway.

The Moth flew up to the top of the lighthouse and prepared to embrace the beautiful light inside of it. Spongebob ran up the lighthouse, grabbed The Moth, threw him into the lantern room, and locked him in there. The Moth flew around like mad in there and kept crashing into the glass walls, desperately trying to escape, but sadly failing.

Spongebob proudly told Mermaid Man that he captured The Moth and that he wasn't going anywhere. However, The Moth was able to lift the lighthouse up off the ground, using his super strength to push up on the ceiling and fly away with it. The Moth laughed and told Mermaid Man that he'd be seeing him again in another 57 years, as he flew off into the night, stealing all of the lights, and leaving Mermaid Man defeated.

---

Me: Is that a Moth?

The Moth: I'm not just any moth.

Diabolico: (to Moth) Who or what are you?

Lisa Loud: Hmm. It appears to be a Lepidopterra Nocturidae ; Street

Name: Owlet Moth.

Me: What's a moth doing all the way down here?

Mermaid Man: Dear Neptune! It's the most dangerous and foreboding of all our arch nemeses-My mortal enemy whom I have searched 57 years for! At last, I have you!

Me: Mermaid Man has been after this guy for 57 years!?

Nico: And he's one of your most dangerous arch nemesis's of all!?

Mermaid Man: Yep and now I have a chance to catch him!

The Moth: Come and get me you old crone!

We jumped out and stood ready and Luan had her light powers ready!

The Moth: Ooh you are beautiful when you use the light.

Luan: I already have a boyfriend thank you. But you will see the light.

But then Shiv, Number 7, Zs'Skayr, Dark Laser and Vanitas appeared.

Me: Shiv, Number 7, Zs'Skayr, Dark Laser and Vanitas.

Shiv: Hey, guys! We saw the lights by all of you.

Maria: You did? Well, it's a long story.

May: Is a new recruit coming today?

Zs'Skayr: Yes. He should be coming any minute now.

SpongeBob: (sees a glowing figure approaching them) Look! A new light!

Me: That's not just a light.

It was none other than Chen Lu A.K.A. RADIOACTIVE MAN!

---

Chen Lu, also known as Radioactive Man, was a nuclear physicist in Chinese service. He is not to be confused with Radioactive Man of Simpsons fame.

After Thor's interference with a Chinese military action into India, the Chinese government called upon all of its scientists to find a way to retaliate against Thor. Chen Lu had been experimenting with a way of harnessing nuclear radioactivity to induce superhuman powers. He volunteered to become China's human weapon against Thor, concealing his aspirations of world conquest.

He spent month immunizing himself against the effect of radiation. He then mutated his body by exposing himself to massive doses of radiation. He impressed his superiors with his new powers and started calling himself Radioactive Man. He traveled to New York City to challenge Thor. Thor defeated him and Radioactive Man was reported to have been destroyed.

Radioactive Man was not destroyed, so he went into hiding until Baron Zemo found him and enlisted him in his criminal organization known as the Masters of Evil. The Masters of Evil were defeated by the Avengers, and Radioactive Man ended up in a cell that was designed to restrain a being with powers like his.

Eventually, Radioactive Man broke out of prison and fled to Communist controlled Vietnam, where he worked with Titanium Man and Crimson Dynamo to form the Titanic Three. They had enough of being evil and worked to punish criminals instead.

However, the Titanic Three broke up and Radioactive Man was contacted by a criminal scientist named Elihas Starr, or "Egghead". Radioactive Man joined the third incarnation of the Masters of Evil. The new incarnation of the evil organization was defeated by Dr. Henry Pym, and Radioactive man was deported by the U.S. government.

Powers and Abilities

Radioactive Man was born as a base level normal human. Slowly building up an immunity to specific types of radiation by virtue of self induced experiments, exposing himself to a massive dosage unlocked and granted him superhuman abilities. Radioactive Man's skin would dramatically alter and he would glow unnaturally with a green incandescence. Radioactive Man's primary power is to absorb multiple types of radiation, even ordinarily dangerously high levels of radiation. He can use this ability to manipulate radiation, even from within sentient beings, potentially being able to deprive power from other radiation powered beings. Radioactive Man typically possesses upwards of 2 tons, with the potential to lift more contingent on his level of his radioactivity energies. More frequently used Radioactive Man is able to generate, radiate and project solid radiation as powerful potent energy blasts. The variety of which can depend on Lu's discretion, from concussive blasts, heat blasts, blinding blasts, projective blasts, force fields and hard radiation, which can sicken, disorientate, confuse and nauseate foes. Radioactive Man can manipulate radiation across the microwave spectrum. Radioactive Man's high levels of radiation coursing through his body grants him superhuman levels of durability and also allows for significantly faster healing.

Radioactive Man's control over his abilities allows him to interact with other humans without threatening their health despite his toxic appearance, however on occasion for various reasons he has been known to wear a containment suit. Radioactive Man is incredibly intelligent, particularly in the fields of radiation and nuclear physics also holding a Ph. D. in nuclear physics. Radioactive Man can lower the radiation in his body to the extent he can appear normal but only for a short period.

Me: Chen Lu A.K.A. Radioactive Man!

Chen Lu: It is an honor to meet you J.D. and all of you Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Me: Now the Masters of Evil have 3 Radioactive villains with them.

Chen Lu: Indeed we do. Pretty awesome if I do say so myself. (to Bart) I'm not the hero you know who has the same name as me.

Thought I must admit that we have similar powers.

Bart Simpson: I'm really surprised that there's a villain that share's the exact same name as my Comic Book Superhero.

Dr. Light (Justice League): Just like how there's a villain that share's my Superhero Name.

Me: Very coincidental for both Marvel and DC Comics heroes and villains.

?: I'll say.

A figure came out and it was FREEZER ORG from episode 13 of Wild Force!

---

Freezer Org is (as his name applies) a freezer-theme Org and is one of the primary villains of the three-part Soul Bird story arc episode, he is the final org of that story ark and is the tertiary antagonist of the episode "Soul Bird Salvation" the final part of the Soul Bird story arc.

After Retinax (Master Org's bodyguard) has easily taking out the Wild Force Power Rangers, Toxica and Jindrax introduce him the Freezer Org, an Org that can freeze his enemies with his ice mist, after attempting to blasts the Rangers with icy mist, only for it to miss and instead blast a tree, Freezer Org took the fight on the Rangers, while Toxica took on Alyssa, and Jindrax took on Taylor, Freezer Org took on both Cole, Max and Danny, he had the upper hand and was able to freeze them with his icy mist, he then walks over the the now frozen Rangers and mocks them, but it was actually a trick for the Red Ranger to able to hold him down for the Black and Blue Rangers to get clean hits on the Org, and for the Red Ranger to break free and land hard hitting blows on the monster, with Freezer Org weaken, the Red Ranger was able to destroy Freezer Org with the Lion Blaster Gatling Mode and Cannon Mode. Toxipod revived him as a giant, and the Rangers summon the Gorilla Wildzord to take on the Org, the Zord was easily able to over power Freezer Org, and the Rangers then form the Kongazord, During the fight, the Kongazord was able to grab the Org, but it was a trap for Freezer Org to use his Icy Grip and start to deep freeze the Rangers and the Kongazord, which destroys Freezer Org as a result. Before Freezer Org explodes, Retinax shouts to Freezer Org that his sacrifice will be remembered. As a result of the deep freeze, the Growl Phones were frozen as well.

---

Cole Evans: Freezer Org!

Freezer Org: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! You froze the rangers Kongazord and blew yourself up so that Toxica, Jindrax and Retinax could get the Animal Crystals and kill the rangers.

Freezer Org: That's right. Good memory on you.

Lincoln: That was when the Soul Bird made its debut.

Freezer Org: Indeed. (to the Wild Force Rangers) Don't expect me to do that self destruct thing again. I think I could only do that when I was a giant.

Cole Evans: We're not taking any chances.

Taylor Earhardt: That's right!

Me: Yeah.

?: I should've locked you up when I had the chance.

Me: I thought I was rid of that voice.

We turned and we saw none other than my old enemy and the enemy of Batman: Lyle Bolton A.K.A. LOCK-UP!

---

Lyle Bolton, better known by his alias, Lock-Up, is a DC universe villain and an enemy of Batman. First appearing in Batman: The Animated Series, he would later be adapted into the mainstream comics. Unlike most of Batman's villains, Lock-Up is not so-much a supervillain as he is a vigilante who employed methods that were extreme even by Gotham City's gritty standards.

Lyle Bolton was a security guard employed by Bruce Wayne and given the chance to watch over the inmates of Arkham Asylum due to his great skill in security work. Unfortunately, Bolton abused his position to torture the inmates so brutally that even Scarecrow, the master of fear himself, was rendered terrified of him and broke out of Arkham simply to get away from him.

Upon seeing Scarecrow's fear, as well as becoming suspicious himself of Bolton's behavior, Bruce decided to hold a hearing on Bolton - which had several Arkham inmates testify against him (Harley Quinn, the Ventriloquist and Scarecrow). At first the inmates were intimidated by Bolton's presence and would not testify against him. Sensing this, Bruce used a psychological trick by saying upon hearing of Bolton's praise, he would extend Bolton's stay. This prompted the inmates to snap and they desperately pleaded with Bruce and the others not to let Bolton back, telling them the truth about how he denied them basic human rights and punished them even when they behaved - this enraged Bolton and he flew into a rampage in which he assaulted innocent people and threatened the inmates in plain sight of the city mayor and many witnesses. After being restrained, Bolton was removed from his position.

A few months later, Bolton, still embittered, began to see all of Gotham City as corrupt and favoring the criminals over his draconian version of "law". Thus, Bolton adopted the Lock-Up persona and began to kidnap those he felt were responsible for Gotham's plight and kept them prisoners in his own make-shift (yet very advanced) jails.

Having crossed the line from an abusive warden to an outright terrorist, Lock-Up got into a confrontation with Batman and Robin - ultimately ending in Lock-Up being incarnated in Arkham Asylum. However, despite being mocked by his former victims (especially Scarecrow), Bolton was pleased with his fate as he felt he could now watch over "his" prisoners better.

Me: Lyle Bolton A.K.A. Lock-Up!

Lock-Up: I will kill you for locking me up J.D.!

Me: How did you get out of the Mercury Prison?

Lock-Up: Thanks to this.

He pulled out a Number Card and it was NUMBER 68: SANAPHOND THE SKY PRISON!

Eli: Number 68: Sanaphond the Sky Prison!

Qin: Who is he?

Me: That's Lyle Bolton A.K.A. Lock-Up. He was the former head of security for Arkham Asylum and he was fired for torturing and abusing the inmates and using extreme methods to keep them in line. He has a wide arsenal of powerful high tech security systems that Arkham used under his watch. But let me tell you Qin. He is one fucked up freak and I hate his guts with a vengeance. He wants to kill all the criminals in Gotham. I beat him and sent him to the Mercury prison.

Lock-Up: That's right! And I will kill you for everything you did to me!

Me: Once a fucked up monster always a fucked up monster!

Lock-Up: (to me) You know, J.D., when I first saw you on the news, you were a real inspiration to me.

Me: I was an inspiration to you?

Lock-Up: The way you treated criminals. How you made sure they never left their cages.

Me: You might have seen me on the news, but you sure didn't understand.

Lock-Up: Well, I understand now. You're just like all the other spineless authority figures out there. Not willing to do what's necessary to keep scumbags in line.

Nico: Well, I'm sorry if our methods are different from yours, Bolton!

Me: That's right. But we don't lock people up like a fucked up crazy vigilante!

Lock-Up: I should've locked you up when I did!

Me: And I SHOULD'VE KILLED YOU!

Applejack: It's all right sugar cube. Nico was just looking out for you like how J.D. would want you to prevent y'all from going rogue.

Sweetie Belle: But he'll be ready.

Scootaloo: EW!

Arrthoa: We just have to be patient.

Angewomon: Absolutely. We need to wait till the right time for Ed to be ready.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) I think it will be absolutely romantic.

Pip-Squeak opened it and inside it was a jeweled magic sword completely unaffected by the salt water or the decay of time!

Pip-Squeak: Wow! A jeweled sword!

Silver Spoon: Wow! That is a great find!

Apple Bloom: It sure is!

But then Pip-Squeak started glowing in a blue, red and white light and then he lifted into the air and was back on the ground.

Apple Bloom: Pip-Squeak you got your cutie mark! Look!

Vanitas: (to Spiderman) I just realized that you haven't exactly revealed to the entire world who you are.

Spiderman: I know. But yeah the world needs to know. If my former boss can see how ironic it was to know that I, Peter Parker of the Daily Bugle am also Spiderman, then the whole world deserves to know.

Rainbow Dash: And Mary Jane already knows you're Spiderman.

Spitfire: Same with all the Avengers.

Cayenne: You got that right.

Radioactive Man: That's what I've been hearing. But also Strawberry don't you and Applejack have a burning hatred towards each other?

They spun in a pentagon and fired blasts of energy.

Cole Evans: Jungle Blaster! SAVAGE BLAST!

The Megaforce Rangers Slashed the Org first.

Then the Jungle Style blast and Savage Blast both hit him at the same time and Freezer Org exploded with incredible power in a massive fiery explosion!

KRABBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

Freezer Org was dead!

Fluttershy: In the words of Nico, Freezer Org you have failed this world!

Tree Hugger: Far out!

Troy Burrows: Rangers, That was a Super Mega Win.

Battle 8: Me VS Lock-Up

My battle with Lock-Up was next and I was really going at him!

I punched him in the face twice and he threw three punches at me and I dodged them and kicked him in the face and kicked him in the stomach and he punched at me and I dodged his strike and he punched at me again and I blocked his punches and kicked him in the face and blood was pouring out of his mouth and I kicked him in the head and knocked out some of his teeth and kicked him into a brick wall. He got up and went at me and I dodged his strikes and we backed away.

Me: I should've killed you when I had the chance!

Lock-Up: I was saving Gotham City! I was what the city needed!

Me: How!? By using torturous methods to beat inmates to death so they would die a horrible death!? I don't think so! That's just another sign that you are just as fucked up as all the other villains we killed!

Lock-Up: Why do you think that!? I was saving Gotham! I could've rid the city of all the fools in city hall and the police department as well as all those fucked up fools in Arkham! I was helping you! We could've made our own order!

Me: I was born to fight your brand of fucked up order! I should've killed you back then. Now I'm going to correct that mistake!

I kicked him in the face and knocked out more teeth and blood and I punched him in the stomach and crotch and kicked him in the face and knocked him down! I had my gun pointed at his face.

Lock-Up: Go ahead. Kill me!

Me: No. Death would be too kind.

Before Lock-Up could react, Poison Ivy knocked him out from behind.

Me: Ivy, I was being sarcastic. I was going to kill him anyway.

Poison Ivy: Normally he would deserve death for his crimes but he deserves to suffer.

Me: Yeah you're right.

I put my gun away and fired a beam of energy and tied him up in energy rope.

I picked up Number 68.

Me: Bolton, you can join your fucked up friends in hell when you see them in the future.

Maria: So, what do we do with Bolton?

Nico: He's getting sent to a different prison.

May: Really? After the Number Card helped him break out before?

Nico: He's right about one thing. Villains like Joker, Zsasz, Scarecrow, and Mad Hatter deserve to be punished.

Me: With death. And I have just the prison for him.

I had him imprisoned in crystal and beamed him to the Null Void.

Me: Now we face the Moth.

We went to face The Moth.

---

We regrouped and we were facing the Moth.

Troy: This time, Moth, Mermaid Man's finally going to nab you!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Ninja Storm!

The Megaforce Rangers transformed into the Ninja Storm Rangers.

Me: Time for us to bag a moth!

Nico: Yeah!

Eli: It's Buttkicking Time!

We went at the moth and viciously punched him all over the place and blasted and slashed him all over.

Scrapper: Time for action!

Babs Seed: Yeah! Lets do it!

Scrapper and Babs Seed used the Earth and Equestria Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Scrapper's strength and Bab's apple powers 100-fold.

Mistmane and Bluestreak used the Equestria and Earth Cyber Planet Keys as well and they enhanced Mistmane's magic and Bluestreak's Missile Launcher 100-fold.

Scrapper and Babs Seed: SMASHING SUPER APPLE SMASH!

Babs formed a huge apple as big as a house and Scrapper threw it.

Mistmane and Bluestreak: MYSTICAL MISSILE BARRAGE!

Mistmane fired a magic blast and Bluestreak fired numerous missiles.

SpongeBob: Time for Fans and Heroes to work together!

Patrick: Lets do it!

SpongeBob: MAN SPONGE…

Patrick: And Boy Patrick!

SpongeBob & Patrick: READY FOR ACTION!

Mermaid Man, Barnacle Boy, SpongeBob and Patrick: BIKINI BOTTOM THUNDERSTRIKE BLAST!

They fired a blast of energy and lightning that formed into the symbol of Bikini Bottom!

Neptune Crusaders: MAELSTROM OF NEPTUNE BLAST!

The Neptune Crusaders all fired a blast of water and energy and the blasts all smashed into the Moth and exploded!

KRABBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion knocked him down. But it blasted his wings off and rendered him completely flightless! PERMANENTLY! I put him in a jar.

Barnacle Boy: (smirks) Don't worry, Moth. You'll only be locked up for 57 years!

Me: Make it for the next 500 years.

Mermaid Man: Thank you all so much for helping me capture the Moth.

Me: No problem Mermaid Man. But still 57 years to be after this guy? That is a long pursuit.

SpongeBob: But this was awesome! But I'm still so scared of the dark!

Number 7: Spongebob, if you want, you can sleep with us on the surface.

Spongebob: You really mean that?

Vanitas: Of course we do.

Dark Laser: But you can choose if you want to sleep with J.D. and the others or at our hideout.

SpongeBob: I'll sleep with J.D. and everyone.

Me: Awesome. Lets go home.

SpongeBob: (To the viewers) Be careful what you read especially when it deals with the horrors of the dark.

Me: Good advice.

We went back home.

THE END

Another awesome fanfiction complete.

Night Light from SpongeBob is one of my favorite episodes. It aired on January 30th, 2007 and it was awesome! Ernest Borgnine, Tim Conway and Mark Hamill all guest starred in that one. It was so funny. The Next Number is gonna be Number 35: Ravenous Tarantula and it's gonna be in one of the Poi Brothers from China in Digimon Season 2. He will be turned into a pig and sumo wrestler because of it. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up is a journey to help King Arthur become king by pulling out the legendary and mighty sword Excalibur as we journey into the world of Disney's 1963 classic The Sword in The Stone. It's gonna be an awesome adventure and we're gonna meet both Disney's Merlin and the awesome King Arthur and help him pull the sword out of the stone and we're also going after Madam Mim and we're going to make that witch pay for her crimes.

See you all tomorrow.

Excalibur and Magic

Over in Egypt we were there to enjoy some of the most majestic history of the entirety of Egypt's history.

Me: Here we are guys. Welcome to Cairo, Egypt.

Nico: Wow.

Ultra Humanite: Egypt is always so wonderful.

Maria: Tefnut is from Egypt. Without her, I wouldn't have become the girl I am today.

William: That's right babe.

Carol: And I wouldn't have my awesome sister back to normal.

Qin: This is so cool! I've always wanted to go to Egypt. It has thousands of years of history here.

Jessie K.: Yep. Dating back to over 7,000 years ago.

Eli: And it's also where I was born.

Me: It's amazing though.

J.D. 3: You would be amazed at what happened when I was here 5,000 years ago. It was amazing.

Me: I'm sure it was.

Pharaoh Atem: It's amazing how much Egypt has changed over the millennia.

Me: Lots of things have happened over the millennia ever since you ruled in Egypt back then Pharaoh. We all are descended from both the Fertile Crescent and the Cape of Good Hope.

Nico: Yep.

Then a vortex of fire appeared in front of us and standing before us was none other than the Goddess of War in Egyptian Myth, Neith!

---

Neith was an early ancient Egyptian deity who was said to be the first and the prime creator. She was said to be the creator of the universe and all it contains, and she governs how it functions. She was the goddess of wisdom, weaving, the cosmos, mothers, rivers, water, childbirth, hunting, war, and fate. She was a warlike goddess.

Neith was the tutelary deity of Sais, where her cult was centered in the western Nile Delta of Lower Egypt and attested as early as the First Dynasty. Neith was also one of the three tutelary deities of the southern city of Latopolis or Esna Latopolis was located on the west bank of the River Nile some 55 kilometres (34 mi) south of Luxor.

Neith is a goddess of war and of hunting, and had as her symbol two arrows crossed over a shield. She is a far more complex goddess than is generally known, however, and of whom ancient texts only hint of her true nature. A religious silence was imposed by ancient Egyptians for secrecy, employing euphemisms and allusions and often relying on symbols alone. In her usual representations, she is portrayed as a fierce deity, a woman wearing the Red Crown, occasionally holding or using the bow and arrow, in others a harpoon. In fact, the hieroglyphs of her name usually are followed by a determinative containing the archery elements, with the shield symbol of the name being explained as either double bows (facing one another), intersected by two arrows (usually lashed to the bows), or, by other imagery associated with her worship. Her symbol also identified the city of Sais. This symbol was displayed on top of her head in Egyptian art. In her form as a goddess of war, she was said to make the weapons of warriors and to guard their bodies when they died.

As a deity, Neith is normally shown carrying the was scepter (symbol of rule and power) and the ankh (symbol of life). She is also called such cosmic epithets as the "Cow of Heaven", a sky-goddess similar to Nut, and as the Great Flood, Mehet-Weret, as a cow who gives birth to the sun daily. In these forms, she is associated with creation of both the primeval time and daily "re-creation". As protectress of the Royal House, she is represented as a uraeus, and functions with the fiery fury of the sun, In time, this led to her being considered as the personification of the primordial waters of creation. She is identified as a great mother goddess in this role as a creator. She is the personification of the primeval waters, able to give birth (create) parthenogenetically. Among the pairs of deities usually noted by the later ancient Egyptians, she is paired with Ptah-Nun. In the same manner, her personification as the primeval waters is Mehet-Weret, conceptualized as streaming water, related to another use of the verb sti, meaning 'to pour'.

Neith is one of the most ancient deities associated with ancient Egyptian culture. Flinders Petrie ( Diopolis Parva, 1901) noted the earliest depictions of her standards were known in predynastic periods, as can be seen from a representation of a barque bearing her crossed arrow standards in the Predynastic Period, as displayed in the Ashmolean Museum, Oxford.

Her first anthropomorphic representations occur in the early dynastic period, on a diorite vase of King Ny-Netjer of the Second Dynasty, found in the Step Pyramid of Djoser (Third Dynasty) at Saqqara. That her worship predominated the early dynastic periods is shown by a preponderance of theophoric names (personal names which incorporate the name of a deity) within which Neith appears as an element. Predominance of Neith's name in nearly forty percent of early dynastic names, and particularly in the names of four royal women of the First Dynasty, only emphasizes the importance of this goddess in relation to the early society of Egypt, with special emphasis upon the Royal House.

In the very early periods of Egyptian history, the main iconographic representations of this goddess appear to have been limited to her hunting and war characteristics, although there is no Egyptian mythological reference to support the concept that this was her primary function as a deity. It has been suggested these hunting and war features of Neith's imagery may indicate her origin from Libya, located west and southwest of Egypt, where she was goddess of the combative peoples there.

It has been theorized that Neith's primary cult point in the Old Kingdom was established in Saïs (modern Sa el-Hagar) by Hor-Aha of the First Dynasty, in an effort to placate the residents of Lower Egypt by the ruler of the unified country. Textual and iconographic evidence indicates that she was a national goddess for Old Kingdom Egypt, with her own sanctuary in Memphis, indicating the high regard held for her. There, she was known as "North of her Wall", as counterpoise to Ptah's "South of his Wall" epithet. While Neith is generally regarded as a deity of Lower Egypt, her worship was not consistently located in that delta region. Her cult reached its height in Saïs and apparently in Memphis in the Old Kingdom, and remained important, although to a lesser extent, through the Middle and New Kingdom. The cult regained prominence again during the twenty-sixth dynasties when worship at Saïs flourished again, as well as at Esna in Upper Egypt.

Neith's symbol and part of her hieroglyph also bore a resemblance to a loom, and so in later syncretisation of Egyptian myths by the Greek ruling class, she also became goddess of weaving. At this time her role as a creator conflated with that of Athena, as a deity who wove all of the world and existence into being on her loom.

Sometimes Neith was pictured as a woman nursing a baby crocodile, and she then was addressed with the title, "Nurse of Crocodiles", reflecting a southern provincial mythology that she served as either the mother of the crocodile god, Sobek, (or he was her consort). As mother of Ra, in her Mehet-Weret form, she was sometimes described as the "Great Cow who gave birth to Ra". As a maternal figure (beyond being the birth-mother of the sun-god Ra) Neith is associated with Sobek as her son (as far back as the Pyramid Texts), but in later religious conventions that paired deities, no male deity is consistently identified with her as a consort and she often is represented without one. Later triad associations made with her have little or no religious or mythological supporting references, appearing to have been made by political or regional associations only.

Some writers assert that since Neith is a creator capable of giving birth without a partner (asexually) and without association of creation with sexual imagery, as seen in the myths of Atum and other creator deities, they may interpret that as her being androgynous. Her name always appears as feminine, however. Erik Hornung interprets that in the Eleventh Hour of the Book of the Amduat, Neith's name appears written with a phallus ( Das Amduat, Teil I : Text : 188, No. 800.(Äg. Abh., Band 7, Wiesbaden) 1963). See also Ramadan el-Sayed, La Déese Neith de Saïs, I :16; 58-60, for both hieroglyphic rendering and discussion of an androgynous nature of Neith as creator/creatress deity, and Lexikon der Ägyptologie ( LÄ I ) under " Götter, androgyne ": 634-635 (W. Westendorf, ed., Harassowitz, Wiesbaden, 1977). In reference to Neith's function as creator with both male and female characteristics, Peter Kaplony has said in the Lexikon der Ägyptologie : "Die Deutung von Neith als Njt "Verneinung" ist sekundär. Neith ist die weibliche Entsprechung zu Nw(w ), dem Gott der Urflut (Nun and Naunet). (Citing Sethe, Amun, § 139)". LÄ II : 1118 (Harassowitz, Wiesbaden, 1977). The antiquity of Neith reaches deeply into the prehistoric periods, apparently even the neolithic, however, when female deities as the sole creators were quite common in human cultures, so she should be considered in that role without having to reach for other explanations about her not following later conventions.

Neith was considered to be eldest of the deities. Neith is said to have been "born the first, in the time when as yet there had been no birth" (St. Clair, Creation Records : 176). In the Pyramid Texts, Neith is paired with Selket as braces for the sky, which places these two goddesses as the two supports for the heavens (see PT 1040a-d, following J. Gwyn Griffths, The Conflict of Horus and Seth, (London, 1961) p. 1). This ties in with the vignette in the Contendings of Seth and Horus when Neith is asked by the deities, as the most ancient among them, to decide who should rule. She was appealed to as an arbiter in the dispute between Horus and Seth. In her message of reply, Neith selects Horus, and says she will "cause the sky to crash to the earth" if he is not selected.

Cody (OC): Neith the Goddess of War!

Me: (Kneels) Welcome Lady Neith. It's an honor to have you here.

Neith: It's an honor to be here. And Cody it's great to see you again.

Cody (OC): It's great to see you too milady.

Pip-Squeak: (British Accent) It's an honor to meet you, Lady Neith.

Neith: It's an honor to meet you all too Team Loud Phoenix Storm.

Cody (OC): We are always honored to have you welcome in our world Lady Neith.

Neith: Thank you Cody. But no need for formalities. You can just call me Neith.

Me: Apologies. It's a habit.

Neith: Understandable.

We later went back home.

Neith was then telling us about everything she stands for and more and all she did over the eons.

Lincoln: Whoa!

Laney: That is amazing!

Neith: Indeed.

Kickback: Neith, do you have any enemies we should watch out for?

Neith: There are many of them. But you not need to worry about that right now.

Me: But we will always be ready for anything milady.

But then my Number Detector went off.

Me: Uh oh.

I pulled up the scanner and it showed that there was a Number over in Shanghai, China.

Me: There's a Number over in Shanghai.

Nico: We better get over there.

We were off to Shanghai.

---

SHANGHAI, CHINA

---

We arrived in Shanghai.

Me: Here we are guys. Shanghai, China.

Lincoln: Just as busy as ever.

Linka: Yep.

Neith: This is amazing seeing all of China like this.

Neith was dressed in a red shirt with the coat of arms of Egypt on it and she had a black skirt and white leggings and black shoes.

Neith: Your clothes are more amazing too.

Me: Thank you Neith.

We went over to a local restaurant and we saw the Poi Brothers, China's Digidestined - The Poi Brothers and their Syakumon.

---

The Poi Brothers (ポイ三兄弟 Poi Sankyoudai ?, lit. "Three Poi Brothers") are three Chinese DigiDestined. Each of them has a Syakomon

After rescuing their grandfather, who had mistaken a Mojyamon for an evil spirit and was attempting to exorcise it, the brothers digivolve their Syakomon partners into Octomon and have them defeat the wild Digimon. Just then, Izzy, MegaKabuterimon, Kari and Angewomon arrive and prevent them from destroying the Mojyamon.

In the original Japanese version, Izzy and Kari had problems communicating with the brothers since they couldn't speak Chinese, whereas the Poi Brothers couldn't speak Japanese. In the English version, it was Izzy's complex explanation of the situation at hand that caused confusion between them and the Poi Brothers. Luckily, Jackie (one of Gennai's counterparts) was able to clear things up for the Poi Brothers.

They develop a crush on Kari and help them bring the Digimon in Hong Kong to Kowloon Park. Their grandfather is then seen, for a short while, practicing Kung-fu with Jackie in Kowloon Park. When the Chinese Army, thinking the Digimon to be hostile, prevents Mina from entering China with the Digimon she gathered from India, Mina calls for help. The Eldest Poi Brother is the only one among the brothers to accompany Izzy and Kari to help Mina with her predicament. Kari has him use his Octomon to communicate with the Chinese Army in which the army replies in kind. With communication settled, Izzy tells him to have Octomon convince them that the Digimon aren't dangerous. The Chinese Army allows them entrance to China after being reassured of their peaceful intentions.

After gathering all the Digimon in Kowloon Park, Kari sends the Digimon back to the DigiWorld and the Poi Brothers are amazed and surprised by the feat. As the Eldest Poi Brother shakes Kari's hand as thanks, the two younger brothers get jealous and attempt to also shake Kari's hand.

Near the end of the world tour, all three brothers are daydreaming of Kari.

The Poi Brothers make their last appearance during the fight against MaloMyotismon. The three brothers raise their Digivices which sends out a beam of golden light after they call out for their partners. They are then transported to the Digital World and stand behind Izzy when they arrive.

In August 2010, the Poi Brothers are some of the many DigiDestined that have their minds seized by Eosmon and interred within the Never World so that they can live within their memories with their Syakomon. After Agumon (Bond of Bravery) and Gabumon (Bond of Friendship) destroy the combined Eosmon's Mega form, they are freed and regain consciousness in the Real World.

---

We saw that the eldest of the Poi Brothers was as big as a sumo wrestler and was eating everything in sight!

Nico: Hey the Poi Brothers!

Younger Poi: Hey Nico!

Middle Poi: Nico my man!

Nico: Hey guys!

Nico hugged the two.

Eldest Poi: (With his mouth full) Good to see you again!

Nico: Same to you guys.

Me: It's an honor to meet 3 of the International Digidestined.

Younger Poi: Wow! J.D. Knudson and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm! Nico you are now part of them now?

Nico: I sure am and J.D. and everyone are my best friends and I have the most amazing wife ever.

May: Hey boys.

Middle Poi: Wow! Congratulations Nico!

Me: And you guys aren't the only ones that have Digimon.

I pulled out my digivice.

Middle Poi: Hey a pleasure to meet another Digidestined.

Me: Same here. Here's my Partner.

I summoned Kazemon.

Kazemon: Hey guys.

Younger Poi: Whoa!

Me: My partner is Kazemon.

Zoe Orimoto: Just like me guys.

Kari Kamiya: It is really cool.

Me: Also from what I was told you 3 have a crush on Kari.

Younger Poi: You bet we do.

Nico: Wow. (To the eldest Poi) But how did you get so huge!?

Eldest Poi: It's crazy! I can't stop eating! (Eating) It's because of this!

He pulled out a Number Card and it was NUMBER 35: RAVENOUS TARANTULA!

We gasped!

Eli: Number 35: Ravenous Tarantula!

Me: The way he's eating all that food and how he is so big and all that, That card represents one of the Seven Deadly Sins: Gluttony.

Lincoln: Whoa.

Cliffjumper: After you're done eating, can you give us that Number Card?

Elder Poi: (Grunts) (With his mouth full) I can try. But it's hard to resist!

Me: We'll have to give you a little help. Eli, hold him down.

Eli: Right!

Eli grabbed his arms with the force and I grabbed the Number Card.

Me: Got it!

Elder Poi: Thank you. (Stomach Churns) Uh oh! (GAGS)

ENORMOUS PROJECTILE VOMIT!

He projectile vomited onto the floor for 20 minutes and really lost all his food that he ate. YUCK! When he was done he fainted.

Stewie: My God! I haven't seen anyone throw up that much since the time Brian had sex with Quagmire's dad.

Brian: Don't remind me.

We got the Elder Poi to our infirmary for some rest and recuperation.

Later back at home we were watching one of my favorite Disney Movies from my past: The Sword in The Stone. It was a Disney Movie from 1963.

---

The Sword in the Stone is a 1963 American animated musical fantasy comedy film produced by Walt Disney and originally released to theaters on December 12, 1963 by Buena Vista Distribution, in the UK before being released in the United States on December 25. The 18th film in the Disney Animated Canon, the songs in the film were produced by the Sherman Brothers who wrote other Disney movies such as Mary Poppins, Bedknobs and Broomsticks, and The Jungle Book . The film is based on the the novel of the same name, first published in 1938 as a single novel. It was published again in 1958 as the first book of T. H. White's tetralogy The Once and Future King . It is generally considered a modest success from a Disney company standpoint.

The film begins in England with the death of the king, Uther Pendragon. No heir is named, and so England is threatened to be torn apart by war. Miraculously, the mystical "Sword in the Stone" appears in London, with an inscription proclaiming that whomever pulls it out is the rightful King of England. Many try to remove the sword, but none succeed and the sword is soon forgotten, leaving England in dark ages.

Some years later, Arthur (a.k.a. Wart), a 12-year old orphan training to be a squire, accompanies his older foster brother Kay on a hunting trip. Wart accidentally prevents Kay from shooting a deer and goes to retrieve the arrow to make up for his mistake. In the woods, Wart falls into the cottage of Merlin, a powerful wizard. Merlin announces he will be Wart's tutor, packs up and the two return to Wart's home, a castle run by Sir Ector, one of Uther's knights and Wart's foster father. Ector does not believe in magic and refuses to allow Merlin to tutor Wart. Merlin creates a blizzard and disappears, which persuades Ector to let Merlin stay, albeit in a decrepit old tower with countless leaks. Ector's friend and fellow knight, Sir Pellinore, arrives with news about the annual jousting tournament to be held on New Year's Day in London, only this time whose winner would be crowned King of England. Ector proposes that Kay be knighted and compete for the title, despite Kay's obvious ineptitude in both jousting and sword fighting.

Merlin begins his tutoring by transforming Wart and himself into fish and going into the castle's moat. Wart is chased and attacked by a pike, and is saved by Archimedes, Merlin's owl. Wart is sent to the kitchen as punishment after he tried to tell his lesson to a disbelieving Ector. Merlin arrives and magics the dishes to wash themselves. He then takes Wart for another lesson, wherein he transforms Wart and himself into squirrels. Merlin teaches Wart about gravity, and about male-female relationships (as two female squirrels become infatuated with them). When they return to human form, Wart's female squirrel cries sadly when she sees he is really a boy. When they return to the castle, Ector accuses Merlin of using black magic on the dishes. Wart defends Merlin, and Ector punishes Wart by first setting him with a mountain of chores, then essentially told Wart he cooked his goose for "popping off" and choosing another boy named Hobbs as Kay's squire. Wart is devastated, but Merlin convinces him to continue with his education.

For his 3rd lesson, Merlin transforms Wart into a sparrow. Wart then accompanies Archimedes on a flying lesson. Wart is attacked by a hawk and flies down the chimney of Madam Mim, a witch who is a rival to Merlin. Mim's magic uses trickery, as opposed to Merlin's scientific skill. Mim turns into a cat and chases Wart around her cottage. Merlin arrives, having been summoned by Archimedes, and begins to rebuke Mim. Mim challenges Merlin to a Wizard's Duel, a battle of wits where the players try to destroy one another by transforming into different animals. Mim sets several ground rules, including the rules that only real animals may be used (no imaginary ones like pink dragons), and no disappearing. During the battle, both wizards transform themselves into a variety of creatures, with Merlin turning onto a turtle, a rabbit, a caterpillar, a walrus, a mouse, a crab, a goat, with Mim being a crocodile, a fox, a hen, an elephant, a tiger, a snake and a rhino.

Finally, Mim transforms into a purple dragon which is supposed to be against the rules (though Mim notes that she never explicitly outlawed purple dragons). Merlin is able to think quickly, and transforms himself into a germ and infects her. Mim is put to bed, ill, though it is said she would recover in a few weeks.

At Christmas, Kay is knighted, but his squire Hobbs comes down with the mumps, and so Ector reinstates Arthur as Kay's squire. Wart excitedly tells Merlin and Archimedes the news. But Merlin is disappointed that Wart still prefers war games to academics. Wart tries to explain that he cannot become a knight as he is an orphan, so a squire is the best position he can attain. This aggravates Merlin, who transforms himself into a rocket bound for Bermuda.

Ector, Kay, Pellinore, Wart, and Archimedes travel to London for the tournament. Moments before Kay's match, Wart realizes that he has forgotten Kay's sword at their inn, which is now closed because of the tournament. Archimedes notices a sword in a stone in a nearby churchyard and points it out to Wart. Arthur pulls the sword from the stone, unwittingly fulfilling the Sword in the Stone's prophecy.

When Arthur returns with the sword, Ector and Sir Bart recognize it as the Sword in the Stone, and the tournament is stopped. Demanding that Arthur proves he pulled it, Ector replaces the sword in its anvil. Kay attempts to remove it himself, but he and none of the other men succeed in removing it. Wart manages to pull it out a second time with ease. The knights all proclaim, " Hail! King Arthur! Long live the king! ", as the crowd, Sir Ector, and Kay all kneel to Arthur.

The film cuts to Arthur, now crowned king, sitting in the throne room with Archimedes, feeling completely unprepared to take the responsibility of royalty. Overwhelmed by the cheering crowd outside, Arthur calls out to Merlin for help, who arrives (in 20th-century attire) and is elated to find that Arthur is the King that he had seen in the future. Merlin tells the boy that he will rise and lead the Knights of the Round Table, accomplishing many amazing feats and becoming one of the most famous figures in literature and even in motion pictures (such as this film).

---

We watched the movie and it was awesome! It took place 5th Century A.D. England and it was awesome!

When it was done we cheered wildly.

Lincoln: Yeah that was awesome!

Laney: Yeah it was!

Nico: But that Mim is one dangerous witch. What does it say about her?

Me: Lets see here.

I pulled up her information.

---

Madam Mim (sometimes also named Mad Madam Mim ) is the central antagonist of Disney's 18th full-length animated feature film The Sword in the Stone, which was based on the novel of the same name by the late T. H. White. She is Merlin's rival.

She was voiced by the late Martha Wentworth, which was also her last credited role before her retirement and death on March 8, 1974.

Madam Mim appears in the original version of the novel, but not in the revised version featured in The Once and Future King, which is more commonly known. In Italy, she is known as Maga Magò . This character was the basis for the film character. Mim was animated by two of Disney's legendary Nine Old Men, Milt Kahl (who also designed the character, refining storyboard sketches from Bill Peet), and Frank Thomas. Kahl animated her initial interaction with Arthur, while Thomas oversaw her famous "Wizards' Duel" with Merlin.

---

We gasped in shock!

Me: So she's more of a mischievous magician and not a true Disney villain.

Lincoln: Yeah.

Sora: I don't think Merlin ever told me about Mim on my previous journeys.

Ring Man: He probably thought Xehanort and Maleficent were more dangerous.

Me: That is a more good reason.

Ra's Al Ghul: Indeed.

Pip-Squeak: How are you feeling after being possessed by that Number, Ra's?

Ra's: Much better Pip-Squeak. Thank you.

Batman: It's nice to have you back Ra's.

Ra's: Indeed detective. I'm glad to be back.

Talia: We all are Father.

Me: It's been a little over 11 months since he died.

Nico: Yep.

Me: Lets like we're headed to 5th Century England to meet Merlin and Arthur.

Lola: Wow!

Number 7, Shiv, Vanitas, Zs'Skayr, Radioactive Man and Dark Laser appeared.

Number 7: Can me, Shiv, Vanitas, Zs'Skayr, Radioactive Man, and Dark Laser come with you all?

Me: You sure can Number 7.

Shiv: We got word that China was inundated in vomit.

Me: Don't ask.

Vanitas saw Neith.

Vanitas: Whoa is that Neith the Goddess of War in Egyptian Myth!?

Me: That's her.

Neith: So you are the Masters of Evil that Cody told me about. It's an honor to meet you all.

Number 7: Same here.

Me: Lets head over to the World of The Sword In The Stone!

Everyone cheered.

Lucy cut open a portal and we were in the world of 1963's The Sword in The Stone!

Me: Here we are guys. Medieval England in the 5th Century.

Vanitas: What's this world called again?

Me: It's the World of The Sword in The Stone from 1963. Sora and his friends all know the famous Merlin here. And also this is the world of King Arthur when he was younger and it was how he obtained the Legendary Sword Excalibur.

Number 7: Wow! This is amazing.

Lyra: It sure is.

Lola: I think this is amazing!

Lana: Yeah it is.

Ashi: So cool.

D'Arcmon: It is most amazing here.

Me: It sure is.

But then in a flash of dust came Disney's Merlin from 1963 and one of Sora's closest friends!

Sora: Merlin!

Kairi: It's great to see you!

Merlin: Wow! It's great to see you again Sora and you too Kairi.

Ashi: It's an honor to meet you, Merlin. Sora's told us about you.

Merlin: It's an honor to meet all of you as well Team Loud Phoenix Storm and Sora, Kairi, congratulations on your wedding.

Sora: Thanks Merlin.

Me: We've read so much about Merlin. Not just in history but all over the worlds of magic, books and legend as well.

Merlin: Oh yes so I have heard.

Me: But it's awesome to finally meet you.

Merlin: Thank you J.D.

?: Whoa!

We turned and we saw none other than the famous KING ARTHUR!

Me: Whoa! Arthur!

Arthur: It's an honor to meet the famous Team Loud Phoenix Storm!

Ty Lee: It's nice to meet you, Arthur.

Arthur: Same here. Merlin told me so much about you all.

Me: And it's also an honor to meet the famous and legendary king of Camelot himself.

Arthur: Thank you J.D.

Sora: It's great to see you again Arthur.

Arthur: You too Sora.

Me: We were told so much about everything that you all helped Sora with on his adventures.

Merlin: I had a feeling that he would tell you everything.

Me: Yeah.

We later walked around and we then met Arthur's rival Kay.

Sir Kay: Well if it isn't Arthur.

Radioactive Man: (glares at Kay) Let's get one thing clear. You don't mess with us and Arthur and I won't give you radiation poisoning. Do we understand each other?

Me: That's right! You better watch yourself Sir Kay, Son of Sir Ector, we are the more powerful than all the knights in this era combined so you better watch yourself.

Kay: Try me.

Me: Don't test me bub.

He left.

Lincoln: What a jerk.

Nico: Yeah but he redeems himself in the end.

Clown Man: Can we see where this sword's located?

Arthur: Sure.

We walked with King Arthur and we saw the Sword in the Stone.

Me: Wow! There it is. The Legendary Sword Excalibur.

Nico: Wow!

Qin: This is the first time we've seen it.

Ben: Wait a second. Kai you accidentally moved Excalibur right?

Kai Green: I sure did Ben.

Me: Try pulling the sword out like you did before.

Kai Green: Okay.

Kai went over to the stone.

Zs'Skayr: Maybe I can phase the sword out.

Me: No Zs'Skayr. It doesn't work that way. The sword is in that stone because of magic and only one that is truly worthy of the sword can pull it out and wield it.

Laney: J.D. is right. The legend states that only one who is worthy can pull the sword from the stone.

Zs'Skayr: I see.

Merlin: Yes indeed.

Me: Lets see if Kai can do it like she did in the 21st Century.

Ben: Okay.

Kai started pulling on the sword hilt.

Strut: Is Kai doing it?

Me: Lets watch.

We saw Kai pulling the Sword and then the sword was pulled out of the Stone! KAI SUCCEEDED!

We were shocked!

Kai Green: I… I DID IT!

Me: She did it!

Julie Yamamoto: She pulled the sword out!

Ben: Way to go Kai!

Riley: AWESOME!

Arthur: I don't believe it!

Lincoln: WOW! Way to go Kai!

Kai now had Excalibur!

Arthur: So I take it you all are here to deal with Madam Mim?

Me: You hit the nail right on the head.

Nico: Yep.

Desoto: Maybe me and Roscoe can sniff out where Mim is.

Laney: Go for it guys.

They got to sniffing and we followed.

Me: Follow those dogs.

We did so

Dark Laser: Flipsy, maybe you can help those two sniff out Mim as well.

Flipsy barked.

Me: Come on.

I grabbed Dark Laser and we were off.

We arrived at the castle of Madam Mim.

Me: There it is. The castle of Madam Mim.

Merlin: I'm not sure about this guys. Mim is not one to do no harm.

Dead End: It doesn't matter what Mim does. Death is going to catch up to her sooner or later.

Me: You got that right. Grim lets do an entrance centered around you. The Undead Skylanders can help you out.

Grim Reaper: (Jamaican Accent) Ooh I think I know where you're going with this mon.

Hex: It's time for Mim to fear the dark.

Shiv: Merlin, your magic can help us out as well. (Merlin is about to do a spell) Without turning us into animals.

Merlin: Oh yes yes of course.

Me: Here we go.

Inside her castle, Mim was working on something.

Mim: (Sinister laughter) That old fool Merlin has no idea what is coming!

But then a flash of black light appeared and it formed into a swirling vortex of ghosts, fire and demons and more and they swirled around the place. Then in a vortex of fire arose THE GRIM REAPER and he was giant!

Grim Reaper: (DEMONIC VOICE) I AM THE GRIM REAPER! (MALEVOLENT LAUGHTER) ARE YOU READY TO MEET YOUR DOOM?

Mim: No! I'm not ready to go!

Grim Reaper: No choice!

He unfurled his cloak and we appeared.

Me: Mim, your days of mischief are done. And your death is long overdue.

Mim: Team Loud Phoenix Storm!? NO! I will not die!

Nico: You've overstayed your welcome here.

Whiteout and Mirror Master then appeared.

Me: Whiteout and Mirror Master.

Nico: Just 2 of you today?

Mirror Master: Nope.

May: Are 4 recruits coming today?

Whiteout: They are. They're on their way right now.

Me: I have a feeling this is gonna be good.

Sora: Same here.

Then out came Sandra Woosan A.K.A. LADY SHIVA, Curtis Carr A.K.A. CHEMISTRO, Peter van Zante A.K.A. AQUEDUCT, and the living energy being ZZZAX!

---

Zzzax

Zzzax is a supervillain from the Marvel comics. It was created in a freak accident when an electromagnetic experiment exploded and absorbed the electronic impulses from the brains of nearby humans, killing them and giving the electricity sentience. Zzzax is made of living electricity, and thus is virtually indestructible. It can fire powerful blasts of energy, incinerating anything it touches. It also possesses superhuman strength, and can fly.

In order to exist, Zzzax must draw energy from the electropsionic energy of people's brains. By doing so, it kills them, and increases its own intelligence. For some reason, Zzzax found this form of murder pleasurable, and undertook doing so whenever it had the chance. The only enemy it cannot seem to kill is the Hulk, one of its common foes.

He appears as a villain in the 1996 animated series The Incredible Hulk as well as in Earth's Mightiest Heroes, Ultimate Spider-Man and Avengers: Assemble. He appears as the main antagonist of the direct-to-video animated film Heroes United: Hulk and Iron Man .

Lady Shiva

Lady Shiva is a deadly assassin and an enemy of Batman. She is also a grandmaster at martial arts and in league with Ra's al Ghul. Shiva is a friend, master, and a major rival of Black Canary and is one of the most skilled combatants in the DC universe.

She is also an occasional ally of Batman. Shiva can read body language and can predict what is her opponent's next move and loves the thrills of combat.

Shiva was the goddaughter of O-Sensei, the world's greatest martial arts master, and she lived with him along with her sister Carolyn in Kyoto. When O'Sensei left Japan to the United States along with his two disciples Richard Dragon and Ben Turner, Carolyn followed them, but she ended up being killed by the Swiss, an international assassin who was targeting Dragon. Guano Cravat, a corrupted businessman who held a grudge against Dragon, convinced Sandra that Richard was the actual response of her sister's death, so the young woman started training in arts to get revenge: she soon discovered she was a prodigy, and she reached a master's level in no time. Adopting the name "Lady Shiva", she embarked on a revenge crusade against Richard Dragon, and whoever else was involved in Carolyn's death.

In a more recent retelling, both Sandra and Carolyn were born in a remote village run by the League of Assassins. The two had been trained since their childhood to be the protectors of the village, but after constant abuses and tortures they decided to leave, and they fled to the US, in Detroit, Michigan, where they continued their combat training together, but embraced a totally different life. One day, while sparring, the two were spotted by international assassinDavid Cain, who realized that Sandra was holding back not to hurt Carolyn; in order to allow her to explore her true potential, Cain killed Carolyn, leaving her body to be found by Sandra.

Heart-broken and bent on revenge, Sandra pursued Cain around the world… only to be ambushed by the group Cain was a part of, the League of Assassins, still on her trails. Sandra fought and lost, but she was granted the opportunity to live: she would have had to bear Cain's son, who would have become Ra's al Ghul's most perfect bodyguard. She agreed, and in the time of her pregnancy, she further explored her potential. When her daughter, Cassandra, was born, Sandra Wu-San was a new woman: she was Lady Shiva, creator, and destroyer.

Being it away or the other, Shiva started traveling the world, putting herself to the test by meeting and defeating the best martial artists around. She became somewhat addicted to life-or-death situations, and when she met Richard Dragon she decided to follow him, as danger constantly haunted him and the ones he loved. She formed a trio with Dragon and his partner Ben Turner, and the three of them became crime fighters for a while, even if for Shiva it was just a way to keep practicing martial arts on a superior level; Richard tried to change her soul by letting her know the spiritual side of martial arts, inner peace, and balance, but he failed, and when the three parted ways, Shiva started selling her skills as a mercenary and an assassin for hire.

With the money, she earned from her activities she could finance her training and travels, obsessed with honing her skills to perfection. Something of the old Sandra Wu-San, however, was still there, and when Reverend Hatch, a corrupt politician from Hub City, hired her to kill the masked vigilante The Question, it resurfaced: Shiva defeated Question without the slightest effort, but she was able to sense a "passion" in him, and she decided to spare his life. She rescued him from Hatch's men, and she brought him to Richard Dragon's hideout on the mountains so that her former friend and mentor could treat and teach him. When the vigilante was able to come back to Hub City again, Shiva first challenged him, confirming her first impressions on him, and then let him go.

She continued traveling the world, even clashing from time to time with the League of Assassins, until she found an agreement with Ra's al Ghul and the two started cooperation of sort. In the Middle East, while training some terrorists, she met Batman, on the trails of the second Robin's parents: she managed to defeat him as well, and the Dark Knight only managed to restrain her thanks to the intervention of Robin. Following this encounter, she resumed her "hunt for masters", a path that put on the same path as many superheroes and supervillains, such as Green Arrow, Black Canary, Bane, Nightwing, Prometheus, and many others, always learning what she could from her masters and opponents, then killing them when they were of no more use to her. Perfection was the only goal.

Aqueduct

His real name Peter van Zante and he was a Vietnam soldier that was badly wounded and was immediately evacuated to a hospital ship. While he was on the ship Zante was an experimental life support unit. While at the same time, a terrible storm struck the ship. This cause a power surge, allowing the support system to alter his metabolism. But not only that, all of Zante's wounds were healed and it also granting him the ability to mentally control water.

Chemistro

Chemistro is a supervillain in Marvel comics and an enemy of Luke Cage and the Avengers, whose name was taken by three different people.

Curtis Carr, the first Chemistro, created a suit and gun that could fire a ray that rearranged matter into a different form. He created the gun for his company, who wanted to mainstream it, but Curtis sought to keep it for himself. He was fired, and, seeking revenge, used the alchemy gun against his former employers. In battle with the hero Luke Cage, Carr accidentally shot his own foot with the gun, turning it to steel. But it was unstable and crumbled to dust, leaving him crippled. He was then arrested and sent to prison.

While he was in prison, he was beaten by his cellmate, Archibald Morton, into finding out how the alchemy gun worked. After Morton left prison, he he attempted to replicate the alchemy gun. However, it exploded in his hand and granted him superhuman powers with the ability to transmute substances via touch. After this, Morton would later become the second Chemistro. Despite Morton's advanced powers, Carr invented a "nullifier" device which enabled Luke Cage to defeat Morton.

Curtis's alchemy gun would eventually be stolen by his younger brother Calvin, and became the third Chemistro. Curtis helped Iron Fist and Luke Cage in defeating Calvin. Curtis would later be hired and work at a division of Stark Enterprises as a research scientist and Director of Research and Development at Stark Prosthetics in Denver, Colorado. There he would make an artificial prosthesis to replace his missing foot. Stark Prosthetics would then get attacked by the Wrecker and the third Chemistro (Calvin), during the events of "Acts of Vengeance", when the Kingpin sent him to attack Iron Man. Curtis aided Iron Man and Jim Rhodes against the Wrecker and Calvin, although Calvin destroyed Curtis' left foot. After that attack, Curtis made another prostheses for his other foot.

The Curtis Carr version appears in the TV show, The Avengers: Earth's Mightiest Heroes . Chemistro was one of the villains in the Vault prison when the mass breakout happened. He was knocked out by Hawkeye while getting his equipment, and later was recruited into the Masters of Evil, where he battled Hawkeye one-on-one.

Chemistro later appeared in Season 2 being pursued by the Enchantress and her Executioner after his loaction had been given to them by fellow Master of Evil the Living Laser. After reaching a dead end Chemistro confronted his persuers managing to melt the Enchantress's hand before she reformed it. In exchange for his life, He gave the Asgardians the location of Arnim Zola, but was betrayed when the Enchantress took his Alchemy Pistol and turned him into solid gold before taking his identity to infiltrate Avenger's Mansion and get close enough to Zemo to kill him.

Iron Man stated he is still alive and Wasp declared her intentions to keep him.

Sunset Shimmer: But this is gonna be so awesome!

Wallflower: You said it!

Pepperdance: This is gonna be one spicy and hot battle. (Drinks hot sauce from her jug)

Mirror Master: (to Zoe) I'd warn you about breaking mirrors giving you bad luck. But I think you guys are past that by now.

Zoe: I've never been a believer of all things in the world of superstition. It's all total nonsense.

D'Arcmon: I'm glad you think that Zoe.

Kazemon: (Speaking Italian) Sono d'accordo con te. (I agree with you)

Luster Dawn: What language was that she spoke?

Zoe: It's Italian. My dream is to become a very famous Italian Chef. Mary Knudson has been teaching me.

Starlight Glimmer: That's really cool!

Harpymon: It sure is. I think this is all amazing.

Angewomon: Me too.

Mirror Master: Man all that talk about Italy makes me hungry for pizza. And I heard that Nergal and Grim both make an amazing pizza.

Twilight Sparkle: They sure do. It's really tasty pizza.

Strut: Yeah it is.

Mirror Master: Lets do it. I don't have any Pokemon on me at the moment. But next time I will.

Zoe: That's all right. Lets go!

They went at him and Mirror Master fired his glass gun and they dodged the blasts.

Battle 8: Me and Eli VS Francesco Portinari

(Apocalypse Tomorrow by Charles Evans plays)

Me and Eli were facing Francesco Portinari.

Me: Francesco I don't understand you. Why in the world would you think that I was involved in the 3,000 people that killed all those centuries ago!? I wasn't born back then and I wasn't even there when it went down!

Francesco: Because you are an animal!

Eli: That's not a good reason! There has to be another explanation!

Me: That's right! What Dante did back then was unconscionable! But it was the brutality of war that warped his mind! Nothing good ever comes from war.

Francesco: That's true! War only breeds chaos and violence. God never condones violence of any kind. The bishop lied all those years ago! There was no holy war.

Me: You're right. The Crusades were considered to be done in the name of god. But that was rationalizing it. War only brings nothing but chaos, death and destruction. We have seen all the aftereffects that war can bring and it is never a pretty sight. (Tears come down my face) It's never a pretty sight! My grandfathers both fought in World War II and it was not something worth being proud of. Francesco, your sister would not want to see you like this, killing me just because of Dante's crime in the Crusades all those centuries ago!

Francesco: You leave Beatrice out of this! It's you I want to kill! And I will not stop till I do!

I unsheathed my sword.

Me: Then I'm sorry we have to fight.

Eli unsheathed his sword. We went at him and clashed brutally. I clashed with him and kicked him in the face and we clashed more and sparks and lightning were flying and striking all over with each of our clashes. I punched him in the face and then I kicked his sword out of his hands.

Me: Now we settle this the old fashioned way.

I punched him in the face and kicked him in the chest and Eli punched and blasted him all over. Then Eli blasted him in the chest and revealed a shocking surprise! We saw that there was a Number Card on his chest! It was NUMBER 57: TRI-HEAD DUST DRAGON!

We gasped.

Eli: Number 57: Tri-Head Dust Dragon!

Me: Francesco you have to get rid of that card on your chest. It's dangerous!

Francesco: Come and get it!

Me: Gladly!

I went at him and punched him and then I grabbed the Number and pulled it off.

Me: Francesco, you do not deserve all this suffering here in Hell. You need to go up to Heaven and be with Beatrice and Dante. They are your family and they are never complete without you.

I placed my hand on his head and recited the Lord's Prayer.

Me: Our Father, which art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy Name;

Thy kingdom come;

Thy will be done

in earth, as it is in heaven:

Give us this day our daily bread;

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive them that trespass against us;

And lead us not into temptation,

But deliver us from evil;

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

For ever and ever. Amen.

Francesco glowed in a blinding white light and he went up to Heaven.

Francesco: Thank you J.D. and I'm sorry.

Me: (Smiles) In nomine patris et filii et spiritus sancti, aequali pensu praegravantur.

Eli: Amen.

Me: All the Crusaders don't deserve this kind of punishment. They were fighting to defend our religion.

I spread my wings and I unleashed a divine light and absolved all the Crusaders and every single one of them went up to Heaven.

Eli: Our soldiers of the Crusades can now find peace.

Me: You said it. But we found 2 Number Cards in one day.

Eli: We sure did.

---

We regrouped and we were facing Madam Mim!

Troy: No tricks will save you now, Mim!

Megaforce Rangers: Legendary Ranger Mode: Dino Thunder!

The Megaforce Rangers turned into the Dino Thunder Rangers.

Me: This is the end of the road for you Mim!

Nico: That's right!

Eli: It's Butt-Kicking Time!

Nunnally: Lets get her!

We went at her and punched, kicked, blasted and smashed her all over the place. Blazvatan smashed and pulverized her all over the place and brutally smashed her all over with incredible fury. The Megaforce Rangers blasted her all over and Sora, Kai and everyone blasted and slashed her.

Cliffjumper: It's time for some teamwork!

Pip-Squeak: Yeah! This is gonna be amazing!

Cliffjumper and Pip-Squeak used the Earth and Equestria Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Cliffjumper's Ion Blaster and Pip-Squeak's powers 100-fold.

Kickback and Ultra Humanite used the Earth and Animatron Cyber Planet Keys and they enhanced Kickback's Sub Machine Gun and Ultra Humanite's powers 100-fold.

Cliffjumper and Pip-Squeak: IONIC SWORD SLASH BLAST!

Cliffjumper fired ion blasts and Pip-Squeak fired blades of energy from his sword.

Kickback and Ultra Humanite: PSYCHIC MACHINE GUN BLAST!

Kickback fired his machine gun and Ultra Humanite fired blasts of energy.

Lola: I may be a princess but you give sorcerers everywhere a bad name!

Arthur: That's right!

Kai Green: Lets get her!

Arthur: ARROW OF RIGHTEOUS JUSTICE!

Arthur fired an arrow of light!

Merlin: MEDIEVAL MAGIC STORM BLAST!

Merlin fired a blast of magic from his wand!

Kai Green: EXCALIBUR BLADE DANCE BLAST!

Kai swung Excalibur and blades of magic and energy flew at Mim.

Sora: LIGHT OF HEART MEGABLAST!

Sora fired a massive barrage of keys of light.

Lola: FIRESTORM DRAGON MEGABLAST!

Lola fired a massive blast of fire and it formed into a dragon of fire.

The blasts all hit Mim and exploded!

KRABBBBBBBBBBOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOO

The explosion turned Mim into a fried snail!

Grim went over and picked her up.

Grim: Escargot.

He ate her.

Nico: That was a first. But that was awesome!

Merlin: (to Sora) Just like old times, eh, Sora?

Sora: You know it Merlin.

Me: But this is always an awesome adventure.

We were back in the world of The Sword in The Stone.

Mirror Master: (to Kai) How does it feel to wield Excalibur again, Kai?

Kai: It actually feels great!

Me: Just be careful Kai. Excalibur's powers are incredibly powerful. It's power is completely immeasureable.

Kai Green: Noted.

Me: But this was so awesome!

We helped Arthur become king and we helped him form The Knights of The Round Table. We beamed the world of The Sword in The Stone into orbit around Earth.

Merlin: (To the viewers) This was just like how I helped Sora with his adventures. It was so much fun.

Me: It sure was.

We later went back home.

THE END

---

Another awesome adventure and fanfic done.

The Sword in The Stone was an awesome movie that was so much fun! It is such an iconic classic. I got the idea for Kai getting the Legendary Sword Excalibur from the awesome Ben 10 Omniverse episode An American Benwolf In London and that was awesome! Now Kai has the awesome sword Excalibur. I wanted to do this with 2 Numbers. Numbers 35 and 57 are really awesome! The next Number is Number 76: Harmonizing Gradielle and that one is gonna be in Honoka from the Naruto Shippuden episode The Forgotten Island and that one is gonna be interesting as we find Honoka brought back to life and singing in a karaoke club. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. The next chapter is gonna be a Christmas adventure that will take us to Hell and back as we take on the evil Devil of Christmas himself. Get ready as we face the evil monster of Alpine Legend from the 2015 movie KRAMPUS! It's gonna be awesome as we take down the evil Krampus himself!

See you all tomorrow.

Extremism of the Christmas Devil

Over at Eddy's house we were there to see a scam that Eddy wanted to show us.

Gloriosa Daisy: Eddy, you said you, Ed, and Double D wanted to show us an old scam from the old days?

Eddy: I sure do Gloriosa. It's called the Thing-a-Majig.

He showed us the awesome inventions that Double D made called the Thing-a-majig and they were awesome.

Syd Chang: Oh yeah I remember these! You showed me these when Ronnie Anne introduced me to all of you.

Rolf: That's true Nature and Animals Syd Girl.

We saw the Thing-a-majig.

Ed: I remember this thing. So cool.

Eddy pressed a button and then…

POW!

It punched Ed in the face with an extendo-boxing glove.

Nico: Oh yeah! Those are awesome!

Applejack: Syd told us about those. They are a very handy device from what we saw.

Lincoln: They sure are.

Angel (X-Men): Double D, do you think you can make Thing-a-Majig's for everyone on the team?

Edd: I sure can Angel.

Me: And we can help you make them look more awesome.

We got to work on them and made lots of them and we made them more awesome and more cooler.

Edd: Complete.

Me: These are perfect.

The Thing-a-Majig's were cooler than ever and they had our symbol on them and had an infinite dispensary ratio and more. And more stuff to dispense. It was awesome.

Bonecrusher: We should take these with us on missions.

Eddy: I'm surprised we never thought of that.

Me: Good idea Bonecrusher.

Nico: I agree. That is a great idea.

Lincoln: Yep.

Laney: It sure is awesome.

Eli: Yeah it is.

Then my Number Activity Alarm went off.

Me: Uh oh.

I looked at my watch and saw that there was a Number located at a local karaoke club in the middle of the city.

Me: We have a Number at the karaoke club.

Lincoln: Lets go see.

Me: Right.

We were off to the Karaoke Club.

We arrived and we got a surprise there. We saw another one of Naruto's fellow Uzumaki Clansmen Honoka singing with absolute divinity like an angel. She was singing Ready for The Storm by Deanta and it was breathtakingly beautiful.

When she was done we cheered wildly.

Me: Wow! That was divine!

Honoka: It sure was.

Naruto: Cousin Honoka it's great to see you.

Honoka: Thanks cousin. It's great to see you and all of Team Loud Phoenix Storm here.

Me: Same here Honoka.

Qin: How do you know about her J.D.?

Me: Well that is a really dark story. It took place 150,000 years into the future when the Fourth Great Ninja War was about to break out.

I went over everything.

* * *

Honoka (ホノカ, Honoka ) was a kunoichi working with the researchers on a remote island.

While researchers worked on the Ultimate Summoning Beast, Honoka was assigned to restrain the beast using her sealing techniques. However, at some point in time the beast got too powerful for her technique to restrain and it got loose. The researchers called for her to do something as the beast began to kill them. Eventually, she was the only one left, and when her sealing technique failed to restrain the beast, she called out for help, though there was no one to hear her while she was killed.

* * *

We all gasped in sheer shock.

Nico: Whoa! Those scientists created a monster.

Me: Yeah. They were trying to make the Ultimate Summoning Beast. But in the end all they were REALLY doing was playing with fire and in the end they paid the ultimate price for tampering with the laws of nature.

Laney: That's horrible!

Varie: No kidding!

Vince: We've seen lots of mad scientists over the years but those guys were some of the worst.

Twilight Sparkle: No kidding.

Honoka: Yeah. That day still haunts me.

Me: I can tell. How did you get so good at singing Honoka and more importantly, how did you come back to life?

Honoka: I think it was this.

Honoka pulled out a card and showed us and it was NUMBER 76: HARMONIZER GRADIELLE!

Eli: Number 76: Harmonizer Gradielle!

Me: That card made you an amazing singer Honoka.

Rarity: It sure did and her wings and Keytar are simply divine.

Me: It sure is pretty.

Trailbreaker: Honoka, can we have that Number Card when you're done singing?

Honoka: You sure can.

Naruto: You sing really beautifully cousin.

Honoka: Thanks Naruto.

Me: I agree.

We watched her concert and she did really well and beautifully. Honoka gave us the Number and she was now in the team.

---

Later we were watching TV and I was reading a book. I got reports about strange disappearances going on. The disappearances were around kids that were naughty on Santa's naughty list. I had a strong feeling that I knew who was behind it and I was reading a book on the legendary Devil of Christmas in European and Alpine Folklore: KRAMPUS!

---

Krampus, also known as the Christmas Devil and the Christmas Demon, is a demonic accomplice of Saint Nicholas/Santa Claus who appears in various legends within most European countries, most notably Austria and Hungary. He was used as a scare-them-straight figure by children's parents as a means to frightening them into obeying them lest they become the next victims of Krampus.

The most common depiction of the Krampus is that it resembles something Devil-like (similar to The Devil in Abrahamic religions), goat-like (similar to the mythical demon Baphomet), or satyr-like (possibly similar to Pan, the Greek god of wilderness and rustic music) with more fur in his body. As a colleague of Saint Nick, Krampus is essentially the anti-Santa Claus in that he brings suffering and torture to naughty children whereas Santa brings gifts. Most versions of the Krampus depicts the Krampus almost as a Knight Templar character who would severely beat children into obedience, or, in some versions, outright kills the child. Krampus may even go as far as to kidnap the child and put them into a sack and take them back to his lair to devour them. Or, he simply takes them to the underworld. One of his main discipline tools includes birch sticks that he could use to swat children with.

It is customary to offer a Krampus schnapps referred to as a "Krampuslauf", a strong distilled fruit brandy. These runs may include Perchten, similarly wild pagan spirits of Germanic folklore and sometimes female in representation, although the Perchten are properly associated with the period between the winter solstice and January 6.

Europeans have been exchanging holiday greeting cards called "Krampuskarten" featuring Krampus since the 19th century. Sometimes introduced with "Gruß vom Krampus" ("Greetings from the Krampus"), the cards usually have funny and humorous rhymes and poems. Krampus is often featured looming menacingly over children. He is also shown as having one human foot and one cloven hoof. In some, Krampus has sexual overtones; he is pictured pursuing buxom women. Over time, the representation of Krampus in the cards has changed; older versions have a more frightening Krampus, while modern versions have a cuter and more Cupid-like creature. Krampus has also adorned postcards and candy containers.

In Germany, there is a day called "Krampushaeht", or "Krampus Night", that would be celebrated on December 5, ironically on the same day as St. Nicholas Day. Nowadays, there are festivals and parades thrown for the Krampus, and many people dress up like him within most Alpine towns in events such as the Krampuslauf (translated in English as "Krampus Run").

According to the Alpine cultures, there were spirits called "Pektin" or "Pectin" (not to be confused with the structural molecule pectin). Some of these spirits are good and some of them are bad, and Krampus is most definitely one of the bad ones.

Krampus is the titular main antagonist of the 2015 supernatural holiday-themed horror-comedy film of the same name, which is based on the European-Alpine mythological creature of the same name.

He is an evil version of Santa Claus who punishes children who have been very naughty on Christmas. Not just children, but their parents if they have also been naughty like the children. He has done so for thousands of years, according to Omi in the film. Along with the vast supernatural powers he holds, Krampus is aided by various demonic creatures including his unholy masked Elves that are referred to as his "Helpers".

Physically, he was portrayed by Luke Hawker, while his vocals were done by Gideon Emery.

When the dysfunctional Engel family's clashes cause young Max Engel to become disillusioned with Christmas, his lack of belief and his angry shredding of his note to Santa wishing for his whole family to together incur the wrath of Krampus, who arrives in the neighborhood with his "helpers".

Krampus first brings about a powerful snowstorm surrounding the neighborhood the family lives in (most of their neighbors are gone for Christmas and are thus spared, but anyone else in town is attacked or frozen to death), cutting off all power, including heat. After this happens, Max notices a scary-looking snowman on his front lawn, and the family receives a mysterious bag of toys dumped on the porch. Max's sister Beth leaves for her boyfriend Derek's house to see if he is alright, but on the way, she encounters Krampus. She hides underneath a delivery truck, which Krampus circles before apparently leaving. However, he drops a jack-in-the-box, which releases a creature that attacks and captures Beth.

When Beth's father Tom Engle and his brother-in-law Uncle Howard go looking for her, one of Krampus' minions (one that can "swim" through snow like a shark) attacks them, injuring and nearly capturing Howard before Tom shoots it without death as a result, causing it to flee. Meanwhile, the rest of the family hears Krampus on the roof, but play it off as big squirrels fighting over nuts.

Upon arriving home, Tom and Howard try to calm the family, saying they will board up the doors and windows and have a camp out in the living room. Tom's Austrian mother by the name of Omi warns Tom to keep the fire in the fireplace going. However, Howard falls asleep while he is keeping watch, and the fire goes out. Krampus lowers a hook with one of his minions, a living gingerbread man, which captures Howie Jr., despite the rest of the family trying to save them. During this, they accidentally light their Christmas tree on fire. Following this, Omi tells the rest of the family her knowledge on Krampus:

As a little girl in a poor Austrian village in the aftermath of World War II, Omi tried to use Christmas and Santa to keep her spirits up, but the townspeople's cruelty (knocking her down and taking her loaf of bread, which they all fight over), as well as her parents' constant arguing (during which her own mother rips her Santa doll), causes her to lose all her Christmas spirit and abandoned all hope and faith. That Christmas Eve, Krampus came and attacked her entire town, dragging everyone to the underworld except Omi, who he left behind as a reminder to never lose her Christmas spirit. He also gave her a bauble (Christmas ornament) with his name on it. Following this, everyone except Howard is shocked silent.

Howard, not believing the story, tries to go out and rescue his son and niece, but stops when he sees more evil-looking snowmen all over the front yard. Behind them, he sees creatures running around, before Tom and their wives pull him back in and lock the door.

The family tries to stay calm, with Aunt Dorothy watching the kids, Howard's wife Linda trying to salvage the presents, and Tom and his wife Sarah trying to come up with a plan. Eventually, they decide Tom will make a run for an abandoned snowplow he and Howard spotted while looking for Beth, then will return and pave way for the rest of the family, who will follow in the car until they find someone who can help. However, when Max's cousins Stevie and Jordan (whose cruelty was the direct cause of Max's anger) go upstairs to use the bathroom, they hear Beth's voice coming from the attic, and go to investigate. They are attacked, and their screams cause Tom, Sarah, and Linda to run up and investigate, while Howard stays downstairs because of his injured leg.

When the trio gets to the attic, they discover a demonic, "cute" jester who has taken the form of a human-sized jack-in-the-box swallowing Jordan whole. They try to fight it, but other holiday-themed monsters attack, distracting them long enough for the jack-in-the-box to escape through the vents, though they are able to rescue Stevie.

Meanwhile, Howard hears laughter coming from the kitchen and goes to investigate, where he is attacked by a trio of living gingerbread men using a nail gun as a weapon. After they run out of ammo, Howard manages to set them on fire, with two dying and his dog Rosie eating the third. She is then sent into the vents, where Rosie fights the jack-in-the-box, forcing it through the ceiling into the living room.

The other monsters then appear and attack the family, though Aunt Dorothy manages to kill most of them with Howard's shotgun. Before she can shoot the jack-in-the-box, however, Krampus' dark elves break into the house, kidnapping Dorothy, Howard, and Howard's baby girl.

The rest of the family flees the house, but Omi stays behind to confront Krampus and give the others time to escape. Krampus toys with Omi, obviously remembering her, before opening a bag of evil toys that attack her. The family almost makes it to the snowplow, but Tom sacrifices himself to fight the "snow swimmer", which manages to capture him, Linda, and Sarah. Max and Stevie manage to get into the snowplow, only to find it is dead. Stevie is then captured by dark elves, while Krampus confronts Max, giving him a bauble, just like he gave to Omi. Krampus then leaves for his sleigh, and Max knows he alone has to save his family.

Max confronts Krampus right before take-off as he opens the ground to reveal a pit-like portal to the netherworld, giving back the bauble and offering himself up for the safety of his family. Krampus ponders this but then has his elvish minions shove Stevie into the lava doorway before he picks Max up and drops him in. Before he falls, Max apologizes for losing his Christmas spirit.

Max then wakes up in his own bed. After looking outside and seeing the town back to normal, he goes downstairs and sees his family getting ready to open presents. Believing the whole experience to be a dream, Max tells his family he loves them before everyone exchanges presents. However, Max's first present is the Krampus bauble, and the whole family goes silent when they see it, implying they all remember the Krampus encounter.

The house is then revealed to be in a snow globe on Krampus' desk, among many others, giving two possible implications:

The family either has been physically shrunk down or had their souls taken and are now trapped in the snow globe and will have to celebrate Christmas for all eternity as a twisted version of Hell. Krampus believes the family has learned their lesson, the snow globe is only showing surveillance of the house instead of containing it, and he is merely spying on them, to make sure that they do not ever lose their Christmas spirit again. (This hypothesis is seemingly backed up by the prequel comic " Krampus: Shadow of Saint Nicholas ".)

Nico saw what I was reading.

Nico: What you reading?

Me: I'm reading a book about Krampus.

Impact Man: Who or what is Krampus?

Me: You guys would be terrified of him.

Mercy (Overwatch): Krampus is known as the Devil of Christmas. In Alpine and European folklore and legend he is the dark side of Santa Claus.

We gasped!

Lola: What does he look like?

I pulled up a picture of him and what it revealed was shocking. He was an anthropomorphic goat man.

Lana: He's a goat man.

Me: Yep. Krampus is the polar opposite of Santa. Instead of giving toys or coal to kids good and bad, he and his followers come to punish the naughty kids and take them to the Fire of Hell to Burn!

We gasped in shock!

Nico: That's madness!

Vince: Krampus is Santa's Evil Side!

Me: That's why he is called the Devil of Christmas. What Krampus does is pure evil to the core.

Nataša: (Czech Accent) Krampus is widely known all over the Alps and all of central Europe in legend and what he does is brutal. When I was a child, I was told many stories about him when Christmas came around.

Hunter: (German Accent) Ja. Me too und he is the devil on Earth.

Matthias: (German Accent) Ja. Und he is terrifying.

Gertjan: (Dutch Accent) Ja. He is awful.

Malina: (Polish Accent) He's not a pretty sight.

Me: No it isn't. But what Krampus does is horrible! Naughty kids don't deserve gifts but what Krampus does is too extreme. We fight for the safety of everyone young and old. Krampus is the very definition of the Antipode of our Code and we can't let him get away with all the harm and pain he has caused to so many people over the centuries. But either way we're not going to let Krampus kill anymore kids.

Nico: Yeah we have to stop him!

Lincoln: Lets get him!

Zzzax, Aqueduct, Mirror Master, Shiva, Chemistro and Whiteout then appeared.

Zzzax: Can me, Aqueduct, Mirror Master, Shiva, Chemistro, and Whiteout help you guys take Krampus out?

Me: You sure can. Krampus is more evil than the Masters of Evil all together. He's not called the Devil of Christmas for nothing. Whiteout you'd better call Vypra and have her put M.O.E. HQ on lockdown because there's a very strong possibility that Krampus is gonna come after Princess Morbucks 2016 if we don't stop him.

Whiteout: Right.

Whiteout pulled out her phone.

Zzzax: How do you know that?

Me: We killed Princess Morbucks twice over the last 3 and a half years and she is on Santa's Permanent Naughty Plaque. Krampus will come after her regardless and we can't let that happen.

Zzzax: Whoa!

Me: Krampus is the darkness of Santa Claus. He comes to punish the wicked. Instead of giving, he and his followers take kids down to Hell.

They gasped.

Lizzy: Mommy I'm so scared!

Donna: (to Lizzy) Don't worry, Lizzy. I won't let Krampus get you.

Lizzy: Thank you mommy.

Me: We won't let that happen Lizzy.

Nico: That's right.

Me: Watch out Krampus, you've tormented your last child. (Eyes glow red)

Eli: Team Loud Phoenix Storm is coming for you.

Rainbow Dash: And we should free all the kids he took over the centuries after we destroy him.

Lincoln: Good thinking R.D.

Me: Lets roll!

Lola: I don't know, guys. Maybe stopping Krampus isn't such a good idea.

Aqueduct: You're kidding, right?

Lynn: I know what Krampus does is messed up. But are we really going to stop him from doing his job?

Lori: I'm sorry, Lynn. But this is one of the few times where literally I disagree with you and Lola. What if Krampus comes after my kids next?!

Me: Lori is right you two. There may be kids that are rotten apples. No offense to you and the Apple Family, Applejack.

Applejack: None taken.

Me: But Krampus has to be stopped. Krampus is the Devil of Christmas and he has tormented children for hundreds of years and unjustly sent countless innocent kids to Hell where they don't belong and we have to save them and bring them back to their parents if possible.

Nico: That's right.

Me: God and Jesus love all children regardless of what they do and they would never condone this kind of punishment for the youngest of souls.

Lincoln: That's right. And you heard what J.D. said. What Krampus has done goes against our code and he is totally barbaric.

Linka: That's right!

Laney: And right now we have to stop him from dragging another innocent child down to Hell.

Me: And I sense that Krampus is coming here next to Gotham Royal York.

Livewire: Who's the unlucky bastard that got Krampus here in the first place?

Me: Lets see.

I pulled up who is next on Krampus's list of Kids to Damn and Blossom saw a name that Krampus is coming after!

Blossom (Adult): (GASP) Not him! He's going after Mitch Mitchellson!

Me: Wasn't he one of your classmates from Pokey Oaks Kindergarten?

Bubbles (Adult): That's right!

Me: And wasn't he that delinquent kid that picked on your friend Elmer for eating glue that turned him into a glue monster?

Buttercup (Adult): Don't rub it in.

Blossom (Adult): Yeah.

Akira: If this is really Krampus we're dealing with, we're gonna need extra firepower. And I know where to get it!

Whiteout: What are you talking about?

Akira: (to his friends) Guys, remember the Build Up Plates that we used before?

Jessica: We sure do.

Disk Wars Wasp: Those were awesome!

Me: We'll have to see those in action. We didn't see those when we were there in your world Akira.

Akira: You will when we batter Krampus.

Noriko: But it's gonna be awesome!

Turbo Man: Maybe I can use my speed to get Mitch to safety. Even if he is a jerk.

Me: Good idea Turbo Man.

Nico: Where does Mitch live?

Blossom: He lives in the mobile home park not far from here.

We saw the Mobile Home Park where Mitch lives in and it was not too far from the housing district where we fought Lock-Up the first time.

Me: That's not that far from here.

Lola: That's like half a mile away.

Sunset Shimmer: Wow.

Me: We're gonna have to take this battle to another planet to avoid casualties.

Ra's Al Ghul: Good idea J.D.

Whiteout: I have just the planet in mind.

Mirror Master: I can use my mirror powers to make hologram so Krampus will be distracted while Turbo Man gets Mitch out.

Me: Good idea. We're wasting time. Lets go.

We were off to Mitch's house.

---

Later that night we were waiting for Krampus. Mirror Master had a hologram of Mitch in front of the house. But then we saw a strange figure going towards Mitch's house.

Trent: Is that him?

We saw a humanoid goat man walking towards Mitch's house. It was KRAMPUS!

Me: That's him all right.

Lola: He sure is scary.

Me: Lets get him.

We went at him!

Chemistro: Hey, asshole! Take this! (uses gun on Krampus)

The Gun blasted shot acid at his arm. Samurai Jack then slashed Krampus's horns off with his sword

Turbo Man sped and grabbed Mitch out of his trailer and he came to us.

Mitch: HEY HEY HEY! Put me down!

Turbo Man: Rude.

Gantu: (to Mitch) We just saved your life! A little thank you would be nice!

Mitch: Sorry but what is that thing!?

Me: His name is Krampus and he and his minions came to take you down to Hell to burn for all time.

Mitch: WHOA! What is Krampus?

Me: He's the Devil of Christmas from European and Alpine folklore. The Darkness of Santa.

Mitch: Whoa! That's awful!

Lady Shiva: (to Mitch) When this is over, we're going to have a very long conversation.

Me: Hopefully you will learn your lesson after all this.

Nico: Yeah.

Krampus: (Demonic Voice) Give me that kid now! He deserves to be killed for his crimes!

Me: You can take him over our dead bodies!

Nico: YEAH!

Krampus: That can be arranged!

He called out all of his followers and they looked like toys.

Me: The Toy Elves from Hell!

Stan Smith: This is like facing Satan Claus and his Elves all over again!

Then a storm came in and then in a massive flash of lightning came the Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Toyman, Weather Wizard, Vulkanus and Beetle.

Me: Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Toyman, Weather Wizard, Vulkanus and Beetle. Nice entrance.

Weather Wizard: Thanks.

Maria: I take it you guys were sent by Vypra before your HQ was locked down?

Weather Wizard: Of course we were.

Vulkanus: Don't worry. The rest of them are safe inside there.

Beetle: And the 6 of us are strong enough for whatever Krampus has up his sleeve.

Me: Krampus is not going to give up without a fight. He'll unleash every single demon from Hell to come after us if he has too.

Vulkanus: Oh boy.

?: That's not good!

A figure came out and it was DEMAGNETRON from episode 7 of Dino Thunder!

---

Demagnetron is a monster created by Mesogog combined with DNA of Diving Bettle and Rhododendron, and a magnet. He serves as as the main antagonist of the episode "Game On".

Demagnetron was created by Mesogog. Mesogog sent Demagnetron to destroy the Power Rangers by separating them. Demagnetron zapped Ethan into a video game, where he must seek the help of a powerful wizard Beldorf. He also sends Cassidy and Devin into the game, and the results of which sends Kira there as well. His energy accidentally brings the Triptoids into the real world. Later he encountered Conner. Conner made the monster shoot with his rays again and returned the rangers and people back. Demagnetron left. Later Demagnetron attacked Reefside. He tried to ruin the electric community of the city. He was defeated by rangers from Z-Rex Blaster. Later Demagnetron was enlarged and attacked Reefside again. In the giant battle he tried to attack Thundersaurus Megazord with his ability digging in the ground and nearly defeated it. But the rangers used locators to find him and used their powers to finally destroy the monster.

---

Ethan James: Demagnetron!

Demagnetron: Been a while rangers.

Me: I remember you! Mesogog sent you to destroy the Power Rangers by separating them and you zapped Ethan into an awesome video game.

Damagnetron: That's right. Good memory on you.

Me: Never missed an episode.

Demagnetron: (to Nicole) Wizard Wood actually is an awesome game. You should try it out. If it's even still available.

Nicole: I'll make sure to give it a shot. As the goddess of video games I love a challenge.

?: If you live that long after I kill all of you!

Leo Corbett: Not her again!

We saw TRAKEENA!

Me: Trakeena! I thought we were rid of you forever!

Trakeena: You and I have an old score to settle!

Villamax then appeared.

Trakeena: Villamax?! You're alive?!

Villamax: Of course I am. And I believe I owe you some payback for killing me!

Me: And I will make sure you never hurt anyone else ever again Trakeena! I owe you for that merciless beatdown you gave me last year!

The Dark Signers then appeared.

Carly: Let us help you all with this.

Jack Atlas: Thanks Carly.

Whiteout: Here's where we're fighting. But you may need your fur parkas for this. It's gonna be really cold.

We put on our fur parkas and Whiteout snapped her fingers and we were on the ice planet that was the home of the Necrofriggians and the Psycholeopterrans - KYLMYYS!

---

Kylmyys is an ice-cold world and a home planet of the Necrofriggians and Psycholeopterrans.

Due to a cataclysmic event that occurred eons ago, Kylmyys is covered entirely by glacial ice and snow, trapped in an everlasting winter.

History

Because of the planet's oppressively cold temperature, no corporeal creature could survive in this unbearable frozen climate. However, the Necrofriggians managed to evolve over the millennia into intangible ghost-like forms, having no solid material to freeze. In a wistful way, for even though the incorporeal Necrofriggian may be able to exist on their home planet, they can never truly be a part of it, nor any concrete world.

We powered up and went at them.

Me: WHOA!

Nico: Man look at this planet!

Naruto: Man it's really cold here!

Whiteout: Yep. This is the home planet of the Necrofriggians and Pscholeopterrans, Kylmyys.

Me: Whoa! So this is the planet Kylmyys.

Nico: Man it really IS an ice planet.

Chione: I've always wondered what the home planet of my Necrofriggian birthright was like even if it was artificially engrafted into me.

Ben: And I've always wondered what the home planet of Big Chill was like.

Julie Yamamoto: It sure is brutally cold here.

Riley: But it is amazing here.

Shanan: And we're 29,000 light-years from home. It's amazing here.

Vince: But what's the temperature here?

Me: Lets see.

I did a temperature scan and it showed that the temperature was at -212˚ Fahrenheit!

Me: -212!? That's insane!

Lisa Loud: In this kind of environment we would flash freeze here in seconds.

Whiteout: Don't worry guys. I put up a force field to keep us from freezing like that. It's 32˚ Fahrenheit in here.

Me: Well that's a relief. Lets do it.

We went at them.

---

Battle 1: M.J. Watson, Sunset Shimmer, Pepperdance, Honoka, WarGreymon, Ere, Scream and Toxin VS Evil Green Ranger

---

Evil Green Ranger was first.

Evil Green Ranger: (to MJ) If Krampus was targeting adults, we wouldn't mind. But kids? Naughty or nice, they don't deserve the fate that Krampus gives them!

M.J.: I agree with you! All kids deserve to be loved with kindness and care. Not abused with torture and pain.

Sunset Shimmer: That's right! I love all children now more than I did before I was redeemed by Twilight and her friends.

Pepperdance: Me too.

Honoka: There is one thing that my clan is known for that we follow to every letter of it: We love everyone like our own family.

Ere: Wow! That is an amazing trait of the Uzumaki.

WarGreymon: It sure is.

Scream: And we love that rule. We would never let that monster take Lizzy.

Toxin: That's right! We won't allow it.

Evil Green Ranger: Good. Donna, I'm sorry Lizzy is scared by this.

Battle 8: Me, Villamax, Lost Galaxy Rangers and Eli VS Trakeena

---

Trakeena was up next.

Me: Just like when I killed you before Trakeena, you will pay for your crimes.

Trakeena: We'll see about that. I'm going to finish what I started when I gave you that beatdown.

Me: Don't count on it bug girl. I'm not the same as I was when we fought the last time. I'm more powerful than ever before.

I then flared up my Rainbow Fire and then I transformed into my Super Angel-Ebonwu-Phoenix 100,000,000 form!

Me: (Divine Echoing Fiery Voice of Justice) The River of Fire was too lenient for you. I'm going to banish you to the Warp.

Trakeena: What the hell are you!?

We collided and I punched and kicked her in the face with devastating force and Eli kicked and smashed her in the stomach and Villamax slashed her all over and the Lost Galaxy Rangers punched, kicked and blasted her all over and I slashed her with my sword and kicked her in the face and grabbed her by her arm and flipped her over and threw her into the ground. Trakeena got up and she tried to kick and punch at me with incredible fury and I elbowed her in the face and she belched up green blood and Eli slashed off her right arm and she screamed in excruciating pain. But she regenerated her arm and Leo blasted her with fire and Mai and Kendrix fired blasts of lightning and earth and smashed and electrocuted her all over the place. Kai and Devon slashed her all over the place and so did Mike and we were really messing her up. I slashed Trakeena with my sword and disemboweled her and I had slashed her neck.

Me: All that was for that beatdown you gave me last year you fucking bitch.

Eli: Yeah!

Eli stabbed her in her chest and skewered her black heart.

Me: We're getting really sick and tired of you Trakeena. You and your fucking kind have terrorized the universe for far too long.

Akira and his team built up the armor of the Marvel Heroes! They got awesome armor and new abilities!

Iron Man

For Iron Man, the armor equips him with an amplifier for the repulsor on his left hand, greatly enhancing the power of the energy rays fired from this hand.

Wasp

For Wasp, the armor gives her six mechanical stingers which allow her to fire her Wasp Sting attack at multiple targets at once, and with much more power than usual.

For Captain America, the armor gives his shield an additional metal ring which increases the Shield's destructive power. With the ring, Cap's shield was able to penetrate Baron Zemo's forcefield and destroy the Gaia Anchor located behind it.

Hulk

Thor

For Thor, the armor gives him a second weapon, the Lightning Star, which is used in conjunction with Mjolnir. When not in use, the star is stored on the back of the torso armor. When deployed, the Lightning Star is charged up with lightning from Mjolnir, and then launched at the intended target as a projectile. The Lightning Star can also double as a shield.

Me: Oh that is so cool! I didn't know you all had that kind of power.

We were back on Earth and we powered down.

Twilight Sparkle: It's over. Krampus is gone.

Evil Green Ranger: And just before Christmas.

Me: 21 days before Christmas.

Koragg: (to Mitch) You owe us your life, Mitchelson.

Toyman: The next time you get yourself in a bad mess, you're on your own.

Me: Winston, he's only a child. But we'll reprimand him later. Right now we need to get all of Krampus's prisoners out of Hell.

We went back home.

---

Another awesome fanfic done.

Krampus from 2015 was one of the scariest Christmas Horror movies I've ever seen. I didn't see the movie for real but it was scary and it was based on the European-Alpine legend of the evil Devil of Christmas, Krampus. But it was really freaky. Number 76 is a beautiful Number but get ready to see just how evil the Number's can be as we take on the most evil monster in all of the Sly Cooper universe ever to terrorize the world for over 12,000 years. We're going to face the evil giant Eurasian Eagle Owl, CLOCKWERK, the evil owl will be brought back to life by Number 70: Malevolent Sin and that is gonna be a battle that will be in the sky. NicoChan11, JediAvatarOfShinobi, Omegahatchiyak12, XP4Universe and ninjakingofhearts all gave me the ideas for this. Thanks guys. Next up for the 3rd George of the Jungle chapter will be the return of George's ultimate nemesis Lyle Van de Groot and he will be back for revenge on George and get Ursula all for himself. We won't let that happen.

See you all tomorrow.

Revenge of a Billionaire and an Owl

We were over in the middle of the city and in the park it was time for the annual Gotham Royal York Hot Dog Eating Contest. The contestants were Chomp Chest, Coup, Goku, Vegeta, Nico, Choji, Choza, and Hinata. Hinata won a ramen eating contest by eating 46 bowls of ramen at one time and it was wicked awesome. At first I couldn't believe it but that was amazing! Hinata had earned herself the title of The Queen of Gluttony and it was awesome.

Oceanus Shenron: (to Chomp Chest) Good luck in the Hot Dog eating contest, Chomp Chest.

Chomp Chest: Chomp Chest Hungry!

The Eating Contest was on and they were REALLY EATING. They were eating piles and piles of hot dogs.

DVA: Look at them go!

He belched accidentally in her mouth and she blew it out.

Nico: Sorry May.

May: That's okay. But you won!

Brawn: (to Chomp Chest) Sorry you didn't win, Chomp Chest.

Chomp Chest: It all right. But man Chomp Chest was hungry.

Me: You sure were.

Nico: No kidding. (BURPS!) Scuse me.

Coup came up to Nico.

Nico: Thanks Coup.

Me: Master Goku, Master Vegeta you both did really well.

Goku: Thanks J.D. It was fun!

Vegeta: We sure had fun.

Nico won the hot dog eating trophy. Choji was on the ground in pain and we carried him back.

Later we were watching TV and playing card games.

I was reading some books.

Me: So far things have been really quiet.

Vince: Yeah they were.

Wind Man: What do you guys say we visit George?

Me: That's a great idea Wind Man. It'll be good to visit him after we cured Ape of his Bananaquat Insanity.

Jared: But those were awesome fruits.

Me: I'm still amazed that you like those son.

Jared: I know. But thank goodness my powers didn't let me go crazy after eating them.

Lincoln: Yeah that is amazing.

Me: Lets head for the African Jungle.

Evil Green Ranger, Koragg, Toyman, Vulkanus, Weather Wizard and Beetle then appeared.

Evil Green Ranger: Can me, Koragg, Toyman, Vulkanus, Weather Wizard, and Beetle come with you guys to visit George?

Me: You all sure can. This is gonna be really cool seeing George again.

Weather wizard: I heard that Ape went through something called Bananaquat Madness?

Me: Yeah it was crazy. He got that from eating a fast-growing banana fruit that grows once every three years called Bananaquats.

Koragg: Vexen told us about that. Those were strange and lethal fruits.

Lincoln: Yeah they were.

Me: Anyway lets head out!

We were off to the jungles of Africa.

---

BUKUVU REGION, AFRICA

We arrived at George's house in Africa and we saw George resting and more.

Lincoln: Cool.

Beetle: (to Ape) Hey, Ape. You feeling better from that Bananaquat rampage the other day?

Ape: Doing much better. Thank you all so much for curing me.

Magnolia: Yeah!

Jindrax: By the way, did you guys see anymore Number Cards around here?

George: Not that George know.

Ursula: But if we see any we'll be glad to let you know.

Magnolia: Yeah.

?: Guess who just came back?

We saw a man that Ursula hates all too well. It was none other than Ursula's ex-fiancé and multi-millionaire LYLE VAN DE GROOT!

---

Lyle Van de Groot is the main antagonist of the 1997 Disney live action film George of the Jungle, and one of the two main antagonists in its 2003 sequel George of the Jungle 2 (alongside Beatrice Stanhope). He is the former fiancé of the heroine Ursula Stanhope and George's arch-nemesis. In the first film, he is assisted by two poachers, Max and Thor and in the sequel, he is assisted by Sally and Kowalski.

He was portrayed by Thomas Haden Church, who later played Dwayne LaFontant in DreamWorks' Over the Hedge, Quillgin in Regular Show, and the Sandman in Spider-Man 3 .

George of the Jungle

In the movie, Lyle Van de Groot was Ursula Stanhope's fiance who was guided into the Jungle of Africa by Max and Thor to find Ursula to which he did and gave her a big kiss when he was reunited with her. When she asked him how he found her he said that he hired Max and Thor who were the best guiders in the world. That night at camp Lyle tried to get in contact with someone to help him and Ursula get back home to San Francisco California but Ursula decided that she wanted to stay and wanted to see if they could find the legendary White Ape to which Lyle agreed to.

The next day Lyle and Ursula sneaked into the jungle so they would find the white ape but they were attacked by a lion and Lyle ran for help but got knocked out while Ursula was rescued by the white ape who was actually a man raised by apes, George of the Jungle. When Lyle woke up from being knocked out he found Ursula's scrunchie. He later found the group and asked them to help him find Ursula to which they did but never found her. The next day Lyle and the group were out searching again when Lyle heard Ursula (after falling into a pile of poop) and took Max and Thor with him where he found Ursula and tried to reunite with her but she refused to accept him back because she believed that he was not trying to save her when the lion attacked them. Then George appeared and Lyle shot him but George survived and Lyle and Max and Thor were taken to the Bujumbura Jail where Max and Thor got out (and deported), but Lyle had to stay as he was convicted of shooting George.

Later on Lyle escaped the jail and became a mail-ordering minister and returned to the jungle where he found Ursula with George and kidnapped Ursula to take her to Bujumbura and marry her. George tried to stop Lyle but Lyle's henchmen captured George and Lyle managed to escape with Ursula. When they reached the river Lyle and Ursula accidentally slipped into the water but swam to the boat that was waiting to take them to Bujumbura. As Lyle rowed the boat he proposed to Ursula but before Ursula would turn him down they noticed big waters but luckily unknown to Lyle George had escaped the Mercenaries and was nearby and rescued Ursula. When Lyle rowed the boat safely into a nearby cave he still thought Ursula was in the boat with him and ordered Ursula to say I do to which someone replied I do. But when Lyle turned on his lighter to see his bride he saw that he had accidentally married a female ape and was kissed by her as the boat continued downstream.

George of the Jungle 2

Lyle was first seen in his bedroom, talking to Beatrice Stanhope, Ursula's mother, on the phone. Believing Ape owned the deed to Ape mountain, he cheated him in a poker game. Upon discovering that Ape doesn't own the deed, but George does, Lyle instead makes Ape work off his debts from the gambling for the next 17 years. After stealing the deed from George's hotel room, he later appeared at the circus, convincing Ursula that he was not responsible for his actions in the first film, even getting his doctor to explain it. But once the doctor mentioned that Lyle knew where Ursula was, Lyle fired him. He attempted to make Ursula love him again, but George ruined it by singing his own theme song. He hired a hypnotist to make it seem like Ursula married him, and it worked. He mocked George at a farm, only to be dragged away by a horse that did not like him.

He sent two agents, Sally and Kowalski, out to destroy the jungle. He also called the police on George, Junior, Gorilla, and Rocky. The police were about to shoot Gorilla, but George saved him. They stopped on the Empire State Building, and Lyle quickly got himself sent (in a package) to the jungle. He attempted to kidnap a knocked-out Ursula, who woke up and chose Lyle over George. At the last second, George grabbed Ursula away (like he did to Gorilla) and kissed her. She angrily scolds Lyle, who threatened to kill George.

George hung Lyle by his underwear, freeing all of Ursula's insane friends, who were under a spell by Lyle. Lyle escaped, repeated his threat on George's life, and insulted the narrator, calling him annoying. In retaliation, the narrator dragged him away to the sky, pulling him from the story's world, and making it look like he never existed. In the bloopers, his underwear ripped, and he fell from the sky.

Vulkanus: (to Lyle Van de Groot) Who the Hell are you?

Lyle: My name is Lyle Van de Groot.

Me: Lyle Van de Groot? Aren't you the wealthy rich man that lived in San Francisco and became a Mail Order Minister for a cult on Lake Tanganyika?

Lyle: That's right J.D. It's an honor to meet you.

Me: Formalities.

Sideways: Wait. Aren't you also Ursula's ex boyfriend?

Ursula: (Angrily) Ex-Fiancé actually.

Me: Wait that's right I remember reading about that!

Eli: Me too.

Eli pulled out a San Francisco newspaper and showed it to me.

Me: "Wealthy Stanhope Heiress to Marry Wealthy Millionaire Playboy in Arranged Marriage?" That's not right! There is no love in an arrange marriage.

Panda King: There is no honor or love in an arrange marriage.

Nico: That's right! No one should be forced into marriage like that.

Naruto: That's right! True love comes from getting to know that person and getting to see if they are compatible for each other. Not by force.

Lyle Van de Groot: Maybe so but Ursula is coming with me.

I pulled out my gun and pointed it at him.

Me: I don't think so.

Nico: You want to get to Ursula, you'll have to go through us.

Ursula: And he tried to also obliterate all of Ape Mountain to put in more buildings from his empire!

Weather Wizard: You also tried to destroy George and his home too?! You're disgusting!

Me: That''s right! I remember reading about that too! You are a monster Lyle! Looks like we came here to stop you once again!

Nico: Yeah!

Plug Man: If you don't get out of here, we're calling the police!

Me: Actually we ARE the police technically.

Plug Man: Oh sorry.

Me: So if I were you I would do what he says or you will get a bullet in your head.

Lyle Van de Groot: You all aren't doing anything to me. Not with my new partner backing me up.

Toyman: New partner?

We heard a giant owl screech and flying in the air we saw a huge mechanical owl flying above us!

We gasped in shock and we recognized the owl right away! It was none other than Sly Cooper's Arch-Nemesis and the very monster that destroyed his entire family from day one! It was none other than the immortal mechanical Eurasian Eagle Owl enemy of the Cooper Clan: CLOCKWERK!

---

Clockwerk is the main antagonist in Sly Cooper series, and the founder and mastermind behind The Fiendish Five. A large owl who resided in Russia, Clockwerk replaced his entire body with advanced machinery in the hopes to wipe out the Cooper line out of jealousy for their reputation as master thieves. He is the arch-nemesis of the entire Cooper Family and Sly Cooper.

He was voiced by Ross Douglass.

Clockwerk was born a long time before the events of the Thevius Racoonus as a Eurasian Eagle-owl with red eyes and brown plumage. No information is given of his family, real name, or early life, though it is known that, at some point he learned of the great fame of the Cooper Clan and was overcome with rage and jealousy. Due to this burning hate, he knew he had to carry on in order to wipe out the Cooper family. He made a final decision and began replacing his own body with machinery. How such advanced technology was acquired back then is still a mystery, though it may be that Clockwerk was an inventor or builder of sorts. He may have been born in the Ice Age as Clockwerk was sighted there in Thieves in Time .

Prior to the Series

Clockwerk is more than a thousand years old, enough that even in some of the oldest pictures Sly has of his family, Clockwerk's shadow can be seen in the background against the sky or moon. He has been kept alive by his fierce, fiery hatred for the Cooper family, a line he made himself a rival of. Either when, before, or after Sly was born, he formed the Fiendish Five. When Sly was around the age of eight, he led them in an attack against the Cooper family, slaying Sly's father and mother. In the process, he stole the family's sacred book of thieving, the "Thievius Raccoonus", tore the pages out of the book, and gave some of the other pages to the other four members. Even though Clockwerk was aware of Sly's existence, he doesn't hurt him. The reason for this is can be found by a famous quote from Clockwerk during their confrontation over a volcano, "… I wanted to show the world that without your precious book, the Cooper line was nothing."

Sly Cooper and the Thievious Raccoonus

Sly Cooper traveled the world with Bentley and Murray once he left the orphanage, seeking to recover The Thievius Raccoonus from The Fiendish Five, which are Sir Raleigh, Muggshot, Mz. Ruby, Panda King, and of course Clockwerk himself.

Sly studied the pictures in the book as he recovered them; seeing Clockwerk's frame in each photo, he began to piece it together. However, it was Bentley who figured out where the evil owl was hiding, and they traveled to a volcano in Russia to finally face the murderer of his family. Clockwerk didn't directly meet Sly at first; instead he caught Carmelita and used her to lure Sly into a gas chamber, where Bentley saved him by hacking into the device, shutting it off. Sending one of his smaller Robot Falcons, nicknamed "Falcons", he stole Sly's cane in which Carmelita promptly helped the raccoon get it back. Finally, borrowing the Inspector's jet pack, Sly faced his robotic foe, who answered Sly's questions with what he thought to be the correct answers. The metal in Clockwerk's armor was too strong for the jet pack's bullets to break alone, so Carmelita shot the owl's body with her gun, which weakened the armor and allowed Sly to strike his foe down. Clockwerk falls into the lava only to fly back out, no longer with his wings but jets, which hold the massive owl aloft. Shooting more deadly missiles now, they continue to fight over the lava until finally the owl falls again. Sly lands on the Clockwerk pieces with Bentley's warning in his ears, that the owl will reconstruct himself if Sly doesn't finish him off fast. Sly slams Clockwerk's face with his cane, while Clockwerk shouts out, "Cooper! You will never be rid of me! Clockwork is superior!"

Though thought to be defeated, an end cutscene shows Clockwerk's head floating in the lava, as one red eye opens slowly then Murray screams after that have happened after the credits. He regenerated after Sly destroyed his head in the final battle.

Sly 2: Band of Thieves

Neyla betrayed Sly and the Klaww Gang, sealing her body and soul into Clockwerk. During the battle with Clock-La she claims that a new power is growing inside her, this is actually Clockwerk taking control of her body, during the final phase of the fight Clockwerk is in control of Clock-La and uses Neyla's hate to fuel himself.

Clock-La was destroyed by Sly, Carmelita, Bentley and Murray, but not before its beak clamped down and broke Bentley's legs. After Neyla's death, Sly and Carmelita destroy the Hate Chip, thus destroying Clockwerk and his remaining parts for good.

Sly Cooper: Thieves in Time

Clockwerk has been seen in many locations in Thieves in Time watching Sly. He first appears in Japan, watching Sly and Riochi from a building. He later appears in the Wild West, watching the battle between Tennessee Kid and Toothpick's soldiers. He returns again in the Ice Age, monitoring Bob and appears in Medieval times and ancient Arabia. Clockwerk also appears in Bentley's dream, where he confronts the things he fears.

In the present day Sly finds Clockwerk's eye, which was not destroyed along with him, revealing that Clockwerk still exists and is not gone for good.

Powers and Abilities

Defunct Physiology : Clockwerk's biological body was at some point replaced with highly advanced robotic parts imbued with the ability to never rust or decay.

Regenerative Durability : His advanced robot parts could even repair itself after suffering incredible damage. This allowed him to survive beyond his intended life span as a person.

Bionic Weapons : Equipped with a multitude of weapons, including missiles, flamethrowers, laser emitters, launchers that could fire electric rings, mechanical eggs that could launch minichoppers, and an energy weapon.

Enhanced Durability & Endurance : Clockwerk was extremely resilient to damage, as simple weapons like Carmelita's shock pistol and jet pack missiles were individually ineffective against him. In addition, Clockwerk's body could survive being heavily damaged and submerged in molten lava.

Propulsion : It was given spare engines in the event Clockwerk was unable to use his wings to fly.

Hatred & Envy Empowerment : Due to his Hate Chip, Clockwerk has kept himself for hundreds of years on a steady diet of jealousy and hate against the Cooper Clan's Thieving reputation.

Immortality : Due to the Hate Chip fueled by his own hatred and jealousy, Clockwerk was kept alive for hundreds of years.

Eternal Youth : This also stopped Clockwerk's aging because of the Hate Chip prevents his robotic body from rusting or decaying, this also stems from his comment that perfection has no age.

Genius Intellect : Clockwerk was remarkably intelligent.

Mechanical Expert : He had constructed his lair on Karak-Karov Volcano and developed multiple weapons and vehicles for the Fiendish Five to use for their own personal schemes including hover vehicles and his death ray, as well as devising a gas chamber which he would later used to incapacitated Sly.

Expert Inventor : He also created a legion of mechanical birds called Robo-Falcons, similar to him, and hordes of lava slugs to do his bidding.

Master Strategist : He was able to think accordingly and execute cunning plans, assaulting and slaughtering Sly's father and being able to lure Sly into his gas chamber by manipulating his feelings for Carmelita.

Me: Clockwerk!?

Sly Cooper: Clockwerk!?

Bentley: Clockwerk!?

Murray: Clockwerk!?

Panda King: Clockwerk!?

Dimitri: Clockwerk!?

Brittney: Clockwerk!?

Lucy Loud: Clockwerk!?

Laney: Clockwerk!?

Clockwerk landed in front of us.

Clockwerk: Sly Cooper. It's been a long time.

Gluko: You're Clockwerk?! How did you come back to life?

Clockwerk: Thanks to this my dear.

He showed us that he had a Number Card in his talon. It was NUMBER 70: MALEVOLENT SIN!

We gasped!

Eli: Number 70: Malevolent Sin!

Qin: Whoa! So you are Clockwerk! I've read so much about you.

Brittney: That's what really shocks me that you were able to live for 12,000 years with just hatred and jealousy.

Clockwerk: Like I said before… Perfection has no age and Revenge is the prime ingredient in the Fountain of Youth. I've kept myself alive for thousands of years with a steady diet of jealousy and hate. Awaiting the day when I would finally eclipse the Cooper Family's thieving reputation. And now that I'm back, I finish what I started.

Qin: You weren't kidding about him Brittney! He's a monster!

Brittney: He's not just a monster Qin, He's Evil Incarnate.

Koragg: (to Lyle Van de Groot) (Jamaican Accent) Do you realize what you've done?!

Me: You have no idea what Clockwerk is capable of! Clockwerk is Ultimate Evil Incarnate! He lived for over 12,000 years for the sole purpose of annihilating the entirety of Sly Cooper's Family!

Brittney: That's right! Clockwerk was going to destroy the entire planet and burn it all with his extreme fiery hatred.

Laney: That's right! We faced him before and his hatred was massively intense!

Lyle: As long as he helps me destroy George and you then it's worth it and you won't stop us!

Me: We'll see about that!

Duff Killigan, Puff, Skulker, Vortex, Kangor, and Crimson Dynamo then appeared.

Duff Killigan: (Scottish Accent) Did we catch all of you at a bad time?

Maria: Actually, your timing couldn't be anymore perfect!

Puff: Is that Clockwerk?!

May: Yep. And he's teamed up with Lyle Van de Groot over there.

Skulker: I think we should spend the usual battles taking these two down.

Me: Just what I was thinking. It's time to clip this owl's wings for good!

Nico: Yeah!

?: Not without us you don't.

3 figures came out and it was the Posh Robots, GINEKA, CHIAGGO and DELAPOO from episode 28 of S.P.D.!

Gineka and his friends are living it up in high class society, but they came into their fortune by helping Broodwing attack the Alpha 5 star system. Broodwing enlists for their help again and they use the giant robots given to them. Gineka is stopped by the Power Rangers and their new S.W.A.T. Megazord.

Chiaggo and his friends are living it up in high class society, but they came into their fortune by helping Broodwing attack the Alpha 5 star system. Broodwing enlists for their help again and they use the giant robots given to them. Chiaggo is stopped by the Power Rangers and their new S.W.A.T. Megazord.

Delapoo and his friends are living it up in a high-class society but they came into their fortune by helping Broodwing attack the Alpha 5 star system. Broodwing enlists their help again and they use the Zords given to them. Delapoo is stopped by the Power Rangers and their new S.W.A.T. Megazord.

---

Bridge Carson: Gineka, Chiaggo and Delapoo!

Chiaggo: Been a while ranger.

Me: The Posh Robot Trio! I remember you three! You guys got your fortune by helping Broodwing attack the Alpha 5 Star System and he enlisted your help to destroy the rangers and the city.

Gineka: Indeed good sir.

Delapoo: Thank you for remembering us J.D. Mistress Vypra was right about you.

Applejack: You three remind me of what I wanted to be before I went to work at Sweet Apple Acres. Like you two I wanted to be part of the Sophisticated Life.

Lana: Booooorring.

Applejack: Yes it was boring.

Me: But it's gonna be interesting having you three with us.

Bridge: You three know I barely got any sleep because of your crimes, right?

Gineka: Hey, it's not like we keep track on what you Rangers do 24/7.

Chiaggo: Did you try drinking coffee to stay awake?

Bridge: I don't even like coffee.

Me: Most people don't because of its bitterness. Looks like we're gonna have to take our battles into the sky. Lets get this overgrown chicken!

Kangor: Some of us can't fly mon.

Brittney: I already thought of that.
